SHAREHOLDERS

- Green Bay Packers, Inc., has been a publicly owned, nonprofit corporation since Aug. 18, 1923, when original articles of incorporation were filed with Wisconsin's secretary of state.
- A total of 5,020,523 shares are owned by 363,948 stockholders – none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment.
- The corporation is governed by a board of directors and a seven-member executive committee.
- One of the more remarkable business stories in American history, the team is kept viable by its shareholders – its unselfish fans. Even more incredible, the Packers have survived during the current era, permeated by free agency and the NFL salary cap. And, thanks in large part to Brown County's passage of the 2000 Lambeau Field referendum, the club will remain solvent and highly competitive well into the future due to its redeveloped stadium.
- Fans have supported the team financially on several occasions, including five stock sales: 1923, 1935, 1950, 1997 and 2011.
- To protect against someone taking control of the team, the articles of incorporation prohibit any person from owning more than 200,000 shares.

IN THE COMMUNITY

FOOTBALL AND COMMUNITY

The Green Bay Packers organization is dedicated to enriching the lives of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan residents by donating time and talents, along with providing diverse community outreach programs. Our programs are designed to assist nonprofit organizations, mentor youth, encourage volunteerism and gain an awareness of the unique needs of our communities. We are committed to taking an active role in leading by example to encourage, inspire and build unity within the communities that have consistently supported us for more than 90 years.

The Green Bay Packers are founded on two principles: football and a commitment to the community. Fulfilling the Packers' mission requires focus and dedication – seven days a week, 52 weeks a year. These efforts have resulted in a 93-year legacy of excellence both on and off the field.

Each day of the week is important to the team in terms of creating a game plan and preparing for the next opponent. Similarly, each day of the week represents an essential component in the organization's efforts to support its fans and its community. The Packers' commitment to their fans, and their fans' commitment to the team, come together to form a mutually beneficial relationship that has no rival.

THE FOUNDATION & 1265 LOMBARDI AVE.

DONATIONS

The Packers are proud to help nonprofit groups in the state of Wisconsin with their fundraising efforts. In 2011, more than 11,000 requests were submitted for consideration, which in turn raised over $3.2 million to help nonprofit groups providing services to those in need. Separate cash donations to local nonprofit groups exceeded $2 million during this same time period.

Those interested in acquiring a donation to benefit a nonprofit organization in Wisconsin must apply online at packers.com/community/donations.html.

FOUNDATION GRANTS

The Packers Foundation was proud to make a difference in Wisconsin by contributing over $245,000 in annual grant money to worthy civic and charitable groups throughout the state. Of the 79 recipient organizations, 30 are located within Brown County, while the others are located in other areas throughout the state.

COMMUNITY QUARTERBACK AWARDS

For the 12th year, the Packers requested and received numerous nominations of outstanding volunteers from throughout the state of Wisconsin for consideration in the organization's Community Quarterback Award program. Ten winners were selected, with each winner receiving a $2,000 grant in the name of the nonprofit organization for which they volunteer.

COMMUNITY EVENTS GRANTS

Each year, the Packers award four grants to nonprofit organizations in Brown County that are interested in holding a charity event at Lambeau Field. This year's recipients were the Boys & Girls Club of Green Bay, EconomicsWisconsin, Girl Scouts of Northwestern Great Lakes, Inc., and Wisconsin Knights of Columbus Charities, Inc.

WISH GRANTING

Last season, the Packers were honored to grant the wishes of seven children and young adults through the Make-A-Wish Foundation. During a visit, the guest of honor has the opportunity to tour Lambeau Field, watch practice, dine with the team and share some very special one-on-one time with their favorite players. The Packers players, coaches and staff work diligently to make certain each visit is a positive and memorable experience for their special guests.

MILITARY SUPPORT

The Packers remain committed to honoring the men and women of the United States military who have or are currently serving their country. In an effort to do so, the Packers send hundreds of military care packages and messages of support each year. Throughout the season, the team also honors servicemen and women through Operation Fan Mail, a gameday activity in which members of the armed services are recognized for their outstanding contributions.

PLAYERS, COACHES & ALUMNI OUTREACH

APPEARANCES BY PLAYERS AND COACHES

Members of the organization – players, coaches and staff – are committed to supporting the community. Throughout 2011, the Packers were granted the opportunity to make over 250 appearances. Appearances included nonprofit fundraisers, school visits, athletic banquets and many other events and programs.

APPEARANCES BY ALUMNI

The season featured numerous homecomings at Lambeau Field. During home-game weekends, the Packers and their fans welcomed over 40 alumni for a return to the stadium. The visits provided the fans a chance to fondly relive Packers history, as well as obtain autographs from some of their favorite former players.

PLAYERS' FOUNDATIONS

Many Packers players take their dedication to the community to another level by creating foundations to impact the lives of those around them.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR PROGRAM

Each season, the Packers nominate a player for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. The honor recognizes NFL players for their commitment to the community. The Packers' nominee for 2011 was kicker Mason Crosby. Crosby was recognized for his strong support of the military as well as a large number of nonprofit organizations, including the Vince Lombardi Cancer Foundation, The Salvation Army and Families of Children with Cancer.

EDUCATION

FIT KIDS!

Currently in its eighth year, the Fit Kids! program has been adopted by over 315 public school districts across the state of Wisconsin. The program, designed to improve children's physical, mental and social health through the instruction of teachers, has made a difference in the lives of thousands of students.

PLAY 60 CHALLENGE

Ten Wisconsin schools participated in this season's "Play 60 Challenge," a program that attempts to get students active for at least 60 minutes a day. The 2,070 middle-school students that participated in the program logged 7.2 million active minutes in a 28-day-span, averaging 125 minutes per student, per day.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Packers have forged an educational partnership with Scholarships, Inc. and Northeast Wisconsin Technical College, funding several scholarships for students who are residents of Brown County and entering four-year colleges or two-year technical or apprenticeship trade programs. The scholarships are awarded based on community service, involvement in athletic activities, academic achievement and financial need.

INTERNSHIPS

In addition to the numerous full-time and part-time personnel the Packers employ, there are several internships available throughout the organization. Departments such as accounting, athletic training, community outreach, fields, human resources, information technology, marketing, media group, public relations and ticketing provide young adults with valuable experience in their academic and professional careers.

PACKERS WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

ASPIRO AWARENESS WALK/CHILI CONTEST

The Packers Women's Association (PWA) is a great supporter of ASPIRO, an organization devoted to creating opportunities for people with disabilities to reach goals, connect in the community and achieve independence. In addition to participating in the group's Awareness Walk, the PWA also served as judges for the chili-contest fundraiser.

MAKING STRIDES AGAINST BREAST CANCER RUN/WALK

Twenty-two members of the PWA participated in the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Awareness Run/Walk, with all proceeds going to benefit the American Cancer Society.

PAUL'S PANTRY FOOD DRIVE

The PWA teamed up with Festival Foods for the 25th Annual Food Drive for Paul's Pantry. The drive was quite successful, netting over 27,000 food items and $15,000 in the hours leading up to a Packers home game.

PWA CARE FOR KIDS PROJECT

PWA continued its work on a program started in 2009, the PWA Care for Kids project, designed to support pediatric patients at local hospitals. Over 1,000 arts and crafts projects, games and movies were donated to the hospitals for distribution to young patients during their extended and often overwhelming stays in the hospital.

THE SALVATION ARMY'S ADOPT-A-FAMILY PROGRAM

The PWA adopted 19 families for the holiday season. Each family anonymously submits a list of their basic needs and interests, which the PWA members and their families do their best to fulfill, bringing cheer both to those giving and receiving.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CARE PACKAGES

PWA spread holiday cheer to 80 military servicemen and women who are currently deployed in Afghanistan and Kuwait. Together, the PWA members shopped for a large array of items, then assembled the care packages and sent them off to soliders with local connections.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

GREEN BAY PACKERS YOUTH FOOTBALL OUTREACH CAMPS

The Green Bay Packers Youth Football Outreach Camp is a complimentary program that features educational benefits as well as recreational opportunities for second- through fifth-grade students in a safe and fun environment. In 2011, the Packers held 20 camps at elementary schools throughout Wisconsin and provided boys and girls the opportunity to test their football skills in various drills and obstacle courses.

YOUTH FOOTBALL ON LAMBEAU FIELD

For many years, the Packers have invited local youth football teams to run plays on the field during the Packers Family Night scrimmage, as well as during halftime of a preseason game, as they are cheered on by the thousands of fans in attendance.

NFL PUNT, PASS & KICK COMPETITION

Each year, the Packers host the annual Punt, Pass & Kick Competition prior to a regular-season game at Lambeau Field. Forty youngsters, ages 8-15, advanced from across the state for the opportunity to compete for the title of Packers Punt, Pass & Kick Team Champion, with four participants scoring high enough to place them in competition at the Punt, Pass & Kick National Finals.

GREEN BAY PACKERS 7-ON-7 REGIONAL PASSING TOURNAMENT

In June 2011, the Packers hosted their third annual 7-on-7 Regional Passing Tournament. Five high school football teams and three high school player-development teams were invited to the Don Hutson Center, the Packers' practice facility, to compete in a passing tournament for the chance to advance to the NFL 7-on-7 National Tournament as representatives of the Packers.

NFL 7-ON-7 NATIONAL PASSING TOURNAMENT

The Packers were one of 24 NFL teams selected to send a team of high school athletes to represent them in the NFL 7-on-7 National Passing Tournament. The competition was held in Ohio and hosted by the Cleveland Browns in July 2011. Twelve NFC and 12 AFC teams competed for the championship.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL COACH OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

Each week during the football season, the Packers honor a Wisconsin high school football coach who demonstrates outstanding leadership on and off the field. Each winner receives $2,000 to be used for the school's football program. One coach, named the Packers High School Football Coach of the Year, is given a $3,000 donation for his football program and is recognized at Lambeau Field during one of the Packers' final home games.

NFL HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT CAMP

Presented by the Wisconsin National Guard, the NFL High School Player Development (HSPD) Camp provides incoming high school freshmen through seniors free training in character development and position-specific football skills.

USA FOOTBALL STATE FORUM

The USA Football State Forum brings together youth football leaders from across the state of Wisconsin to discuss various topics impacting the sport.

USA FOOTBALL COACHING SCHOOL

The Packers worked with USA Football to host a coaching school with the goal of developing and sharpening the approach to youth football in the state. The curriculum, aimed at youth football levels, focused on the strategies of the game, as well as the life lessons that young players learn from the game. The event featured multiple classroom sessions at Lambeau Field as well as drill demonstrations inside the Don Hutson Center.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVES

The Packers partner with the American Red Cross several times each year to host blood drives for both staff and community members. Throughout the year, nearly 600 units of blood were collected at Lambeau Field, impacting up to 1,800 patients in need of a donation.

PROJECT LEAP!

Project LEAP! is an event designed to get children and their families out of the house, participating in fun, non-strenuous activity in the midst of harsh Wisconsin winters. Among the activities offered at the event are inflatables, climbing walls, bungee trampolines, face painting and entertainment.

TAILGATE TOUR

Several players, alumni and staff departed in May on a five-day journey through Wisconsin for the organization's annual Tailgate Tour. President/CEO Mark Murphy and players Mason Crosby, Jordy Nelson and Charlie Peprah as well as alumni players William Henderson, Larry McCarren and Marco Rivera made stops in La Crosse, Madison, Kenosha, Cedarburg/Grafton and Sturgeon Bay before returning to Green Bay. In addition to impromptu stops throughout the state, the group made nightly appearances at a tailgate party in each city, with all proceeds benefitting a designated nonprofit organization.

65 ROSES CELEBRITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

As part of a long-standing tradition in Green Bay, Head Coach Mike McCarthy served as the honorary chairman for the 65 Roses Celebrity Golf Tournament. Over the past 20 years, the organization has teamed up with Humana to raise well over $500,000 to fight cystic fibrosis.

JERRY PARINS CRUISE FOR CANCER

Jerry Parins, former director of security for the Packers, hosts the annual Jerry Parins Cruise for Cancer each summer. The event, a 60-mile motorcycle ride, has raised in excess of $510,000 over the last eight years for various local cancer-related organizations. The ride was created by Parins a mere 16 months after he was diagnosed with cancer.

TRAINING CAMP

Each summer, the Packers hold their annual training camp at Ray Nitschke Field. The newly renovated field, which seats 1,500 fans, holds over 20 practices each year, with an estimated attendance of close to 100,000 fans throughout camp. Practices are viewed free of charge. The field is located directly across the street from Lambeau Field, which allows players the opportunity to keep alive the long-standing tradition of riding the bikes of young fans to practice, providing the kids a memory and a story to last a lifetime.

WELCOME BACK LUNCHEON

Each year, in the midst of training camp, the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce hosts the Welcome Back Luncheon. The event welcomes the players and coaches back to the area for the upcoming season, and serves as an opportunity for members of the community to interact with the team, as a player or coach is assigned to each table to mingle and dine with guests.

BROWN COUNTY CHILDREN'S CHARITY GOLF CLASSIC

On an annual basis, the Packers team up with Brown County to host the Children's Charity Golf Classic, with proceeds from the 2011 event going to benefit homeless and indigent youth as well as foster and adoptive families. Through the support of Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy and other administrative staff who attended the event, over $45,000 was raised for the programs.

GREEN AND GOLD GALA

The 23rd annual Green and Gold Gala was once again held at Lambeau Field in 2011. With the strong support of the Packers organization, crucial funds were raised for Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin, an organization aimed at offering services to families in crisis and need.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

The Packers and United Way teamed up in the fall to add new recreational equipment to a walking trail at the Bay Beach Wildlife Sanctuary in Green Bay as part of the NFL Hometown Huddle project. Area schoolchildren were invited to visit the sanctuary as well as meet the Packers players who were lending a hand to the project that day.

PRO VS. G.I. JOE PROGRAM

As a part of the Pro vs. G.I. Joe program, several Packers players connected with active Wisconsin National Guard members in a friendly battle of video games. Soldiers who were stationed in Afghanistan and Qatar were able to compete against the players via a video-conference setup.

SPOOKTACULAR FUN AT LAMBEAU FIELD

For two days each October, Lambeau Field is transformed for a celebration of all things Halloween. The ninth annual Spooktacular Fun event featured interactive musicians, magicians and stilt walkers. In addition to the kids' event, the Packers opened the doors to the Haunted Concourse, a spookhouse designed for area teens.

ECUMENICAL THANKSGIVING DAY DINNER

For the ninth consecutive year, Lambeau Field welcomed in local people in need looking to partake in fellowship and a freshly prepared Thanksgiving meal. Nearly 500 volunteers from the community gathered at Lambeau Field and served a sit-down meal to approximately 1,100 guests. An additional 1,100 meals were delivered directly to the doors of those who were homebound.

FAMILIES OF CHILDREN WITH CANCER HOLIDAY PARTY

Nine Packers players teamed up with the Families of Children with Cancer group to make the holidays a bit brighter for young cancer patients and their families at the group's annual holiday party. Guests enjoyed talking to the players and competing in various games against them, and were thoroughly entertained as they all took to the stage to sing some classic holiday songs.

AWAY GAME PEP RALLIES

While the Packers travel across the nation to compete in away games, the team's alumni participate in pep rallies at various establishments in some of the cities in which the team is playing. These rallies help gather Packers fans from across the country and build excitement for the team when they are playing away from home.

GAMEDAY

MIDWEST SHRINE GAME

For more than 60 years, the Packers have designated one preseason game as the Midwest Shrine Game. At the game, the Packers present a donation to the Shrine Tripoli Temple, which operates Shriners Hospitals for Children. The total donated over the years currently stands in excess of $3.4 million.

BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

Since 1961, the Packers have designated one preseason game as the Bishop's Charities Game, with a donation being made to the Catholic Diocese of Green Bay. Approximately $3.5 million has been donated to the diocese over the past 50 years.

COATS FOR KIDS COLLECTION

For the last 11 years, the Packers have hosted a Salvation Army Coats for Kids collection prior to a regular-season home game. In September, the team collected $10,000 and 180 coats from giving fans, bringing the grand total to approximately 3,000 coats since the partnership's inception.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH RECOGNITION

In recognition of Breast Cancer Awareness Month in October, the team took to the field wearing their traditional green-and-gold uniforms, but donning various pieces of pink equipment. Zeta Tau Alpha handed out complimentary pink ribbons, while Kohl's Corporation provided pink towels that were distributed to fans.

MILITARY APPRECIATION GAME

A November game served as the 2011 Military Appreciation Game at Lambeau Field. Included in the night's festivites were a card stunt honoring our current military and veterans, as well as a halftime show performed by the 132nd Wisconsin Army National Guard Band paying tribute to all branches of the armed forces. Oshkosh Defense was on hand to collect phone cards to be donated to troops currently deployed overseas.

TOYS FOR TOTS COLLECTION

The Packers and the U.S. Marine Corps worked together to host the yearly Toys for Tots collection at Lambeau Field prior to a game in December. Fans attending the game generously donated 4,300 toys and nearly $15,000.

SARGENTO TOUCHDOWNS FOR CHARITY PROGRAM

The Packers and Sargento again partnered on the Touchdowns for Charity program, with Sargento making a contribution to the program for each touchdown scored throughout the season. A total of $100,000 was raised, benefiting the Wisconsin Hunger Task Force in Milwaukee County and Paul's Pantry in Green Bay.

PROTECTION IS THE NAME OF THE GAME CAMPAIGN

The Packers partnered with Verizon Wireless to execute a campaign entitled Protection Is the Name of the Game. The project focused on a season-long cell phone drive, with Verizon Wireless making a $10 donation to its HopeLine program for each used cell phone donated. The program benefits victims of domestic violence in Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula of Michigan.

FIRST DOWN FOR TREES

As part of their Green Team Initiative, the Packers completed their second season of the eco-friendly First Down for Trees program in 2011. With every first down the team gained, a contribution was made to the fund, resulting in the organization contributing a total of $16,000 to the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources.

GREEN BAY PACKERS FOUNDATION

The Green Bay Packers organization has enjoyed tremendous fan support through its long and storied history. The community supported the team in times of need by "passing the hat" at games and by buying stock in 1923, 1935, 1950, 1997 and 2011, among other ways. To give back to the community, the team created the Green Bay Packers Foundation in December 1986. The foundation assists in a wide variety of activities and programs that benefit education, civic affairs, health services, human services and youth-related programs.

Last year, in its annual distribution of funds, the foundation awarded $255,145 to 79 civic and charitable groups throughout the state of Wisconsin, Charlie Lieb, chairman of the foundation committee, announced Feb. 21, 2012. With these disbursements, the Foundation has distributed more than $2.5 million for charitable purposes since it was established in 1986 by Judge Robert J. Parins, then-president of the Packers Corporation, "as a vehicle to assure continued contributions to charity."

The financial breakdown of the Foundation's contributions discloses that 30 grants – aggregating $118,325 – were awarded to Brown County organizations.

Additional grants, totaling $136,820, were made to 49 other groups around the state.

Under the Packers Scholarship Program, established in 2002, an additional $15,000 is being awarded – $7,500 to Scholarships, Inc., for distribution to students in four-year colleges and $7,500 to Northeast Wisconsin Technical College (NWTC) for distribution to students in two-year associate degree or apprenticeship trades programs. The scholarship funds come from National Football League Properties which, at the Packers' request, returns to the Foundation royalty fees paid for using the Packers logo on Wisconsin automobile license plates.

In the past year, the Packers Foundation also has distributed an additional $57,375 on behalf of National Football League Charities — $20,000 in "Community Quarterback" awards to civic leaders for contributions to the community, $12,375 in the NFL's "Coach of the Week" program which honors successful Wisconsin high school coaches on a weekly basis throughout the season, $20,000 through the "Hometown Huddle/Youth Fitness Zone" program, and $5,000 to the "Play 60 Challenge" to encourage healthy lifestyles among young people.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHES

MARK MURPHY

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Mark Murphy, possessor of extensive experience in professional football and sports administration, is in his fifth year as the Packers' President and CEO.

Under Murphy's guidance, the organization continues to rank as one of the NFL's premier franchises, with highly successful operations both on and off the field. On the field, the team has compiled a 46-24 overall record, made three straight playoff trips and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLV. Off the field, the club continues to perform well in its business efforts, which allows the organization to support football operations. The fan experience at Lambeau Field, a top priority for the organization, continues to be ranked among the best in sports.

It was a direction both Murphy and the organization envisioned when Murphy was elected by the Packers Board of Directors as the franchise's 10th Chief Executive Officer on Dec. 3, 2007. He began his work with the organization as president-elect on Jan. 1, 2008, and then formally took over on Jan. 28, 2008.

"I am honored to have been selected and very appreciative of this tremendous opportunity," Murphy said the day of his election. "The Packers are one of the great franchises in all of professional sports, with a rich history and incredible fan support. These are successful times for the Packers. On the field they're performing well, and off the field, they're in great shape, too. I look forward to being a part of that continued success."

Murphy, who holds a law degree and an MBA in finance, brought a unique and highly qualified background to his role as head of one of the NFL's flagship franchises, first drawing from a deep understanding and appreciation of the game that comes from an eight-year playing career with the Washington Redskins. Later, he served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Colgate University and Northwestern University, and was an assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association and a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice.

In addition to his playing career and work with the NFL Players Association, Murphy had maintained his ties to the NFL through his work on the Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) as well as the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present). Additionally, his NFL experience now includes Super Bowl wins as a player (XVII, 1982) and as a CEO (XLV, 2010), believed to be the first such achievement in NFL history.

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, recognizing the unique experience and skills Murphy brought to the NFL as the Packers' CEO, in 2008 appointed him to the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL owners' committee whose responsibility was to serve as the bargaining team during negotiations with the NFL Players Association which resulted in a new, 10-year Collective Bargaining Agreement in 2011. The position has allowed Murphy to increase his involvement and contributions at the league level, ensuring the organization has a voice in NFL matters.

"Mark's rare blend of experiences makes him integral to the future of the Packers and the NFL," said Goodell when appointing Murphy. "His accomplishments as an NFL player, his work with the NFLPA, and now his leadership of the Packers, provide a unique perspective to the league and also to the players. He's very effective in discussions with NFLPA executives. Mark is a bright and thoughtful individual who understands what needs to get done to create a system that benefits all sides for years to come. He is very reasonable and wants what's best for fans, the game and players, as we all do."

In 2012, Goodell added to Murphy's NFL-level involvement by naming him to the important Competition Committee, the group composed of team executives and coaches that studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs. Goodell also placed Murphy on the NFL owners' new Health and Safety Committee.

Upon joining the Packers, Murphy broadened his knowledge of the franchise, its operations and its standing in the community by meeting with employees, shareholders, fans and members of the Board of Directors, as well as many community groups.

Among his first initiatives was to update the organization's strategic plan, a process involving all the leadership positions of the organization, including the Executive Committee and football operations. The process created core objectives to serve as a backdrop for all key business decisions. In a move to enhance those objectives, Murphy restructured the management of the organization, which included creating a new senior-leadership staff overseeing administration, finance, football operations and sales and marketing. The structure reflected the growth the organization has experienced in recent years and gives broader coverage across all operations with more people involved on a senior-management level.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named Packers President/CEO on Dec. 3, 2007, by Packers Board of Directors; formally assumed position on Jan. 28, 2008.
- Serves on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, Competition Committee and Health and Safety Committee.
- Served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Northwestern University (2003-07) and Colgate University (1992-2003) prior to joining Packers.
- Enjoyed an eight-year NFL playing career with the Washington Redskins (1977-84); served as co-captain from 1980-84, including the Super Bowl championship team of 1982. Earned All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1983.
- Is believed to be the first person to earn a Super Bowl ring as a player (XVII, 1982) and as a team chief executive (XLV, 2010).
- Served as the Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including the position of vice president of players union (1983-84).
- Holds law degree from Georgetown University (1988) and MBA in finance from American University (1983).
- Served as assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association (1985-88) and as a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice (1989-92).
- Served on the NFL Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) and currently serves on the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-present).
- While a player with the Redskins, participated in the highest-scoring game in Monday Night Football and Green Bay Packers history, a 48-47 defeat to the Packers on Oct. 17, 1983, at Lambeau Field.

Murphy also is directing the organization's master plan involving Lambeau Field, the Lambeau Field Atrium, the practice facilities and property the team owns adjacent to the stadium. Lambeau Field currently is undergoing a $143 million, three-year expansion that includes a new distributed-audio sound system (2011), two new HD video boards and a new north gate (2012), and approximately 6,700 additional seats in the south end zone (2013). In 2009, Ray Nitschke Field, the practice field on the east side of the Don Hutson Center, opened for training camp and featured many improvements over previous fields and greatly enhanced the fans' experience at training camp.

To support the Lambeau Field expansion project, Murphy directed the Packers' fifth stock sale, an effort that netted the organization more than $64 million. More than 268,000 shares were sold during the offering, from Dec. 6, 2011, through Feb. 29, 2012, with more than 250,000 new shareholders joining the Packers' family.

Among the other initiatives Murphy has directed is the enhancement of the organization's retail operations, including the purchase of a new warehouse for the Packers Pro Shop and the establishment of a customer relationship management (CRM) program, with both efforts upgrading customer service to Packers fans. Also in the fan-experience realm, the team created a new department in 2011, the Packers Media Group, whose charge is to provide Packers.com with innovative and enhanced content to engage fans in new and entertaining ways.

Murphy also has worked to increase the number of outside events utilizing Lambeau Field, including a Kenny Chesney concert in June 2011, the venue's first major concert since its redevelopment; LZ Lambeau in May 2010, a welcome back for Wisconsin Vietnam Veterans; and the expansion of the Green Bay Marathon to two days. Additionally in the community, Murphy has ensured the organization remains a strong community partner, with a charity impact of $6 million in the past year.

Inside the organization, Murphy continues to grow and develop the team's human resources, with new programs for employees such as leadership development.

The 57-year-old Murphy joined the Packers after 4½ years (2003-07) as director of athletics at Northwestern University. At the Big Ten Conference school, Murphy oversaw a 19-sport program with a $40 million budget and 160 full-time employees. During his tenure, the school won eight individual national championships and three NCAA team titles. Additionally, the university won nine conference team championships and 34 individual Big Ten titles. A total of 49 Wildcats earned first-team All-America distinction. On the football field, the Wildcats participated in two bowl games during Murphy's tenure after playing in just four previous such contests in the program's history. In 2006-07, Northwestern finished 30th in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings with a school-best 626.5 points. The Wildcats ranked among the top 30 in the standings for the last three years of Murphy's tenure and in 2007 finished sixth among Big Ten schools for the third straight year after previously not placing higher than ninth.

The school's athletic success under Murphy was achieved while its student-athletes continued to excel off the field. The NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in October 2007 reported Northwestern's rate at 98 percent, tying it with Notre Dame and Navy for tops in the nation.

Prior to his tenure at Northwestern, Murphy served as director of athletics at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. (1992-2003), the school from which he graduated in 1977. During his 11 years at the helm, the university experienced a renaissance of its football program, going from 0-11 in 1995 to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In 2003, the year after Murphy's departure to Northwestern, the team made it to the championship game; the achievement of that squad – a non-scholarship program – remains one of Murphy's proudest moments.

Colgate's other teams experienced success as well, with men's basketball, women's soccer, women's volleyball, women's softball and men's ice hockey teams making NCAA Tournament appearances. The school also achieved graduation rates among the highest for student-athletes in

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS ORGANIZATION

NO. 1 ACROSS ALL OF SPORTS: Each year since 2003, ESPN The Magazine has ranked all 122 franchises in the four major sports based on eight major categories: bang for the buck, ownership, stadium experience, on-field leadership, fan relations, affordability, players' effort and likability, and championships won/expected to win. The Packers finished first in the inaugural rankings in 2003 and also the most recent rankings released in June 2011, joining the NBA's San Antonio Spurs (2004, 2006) as the only team to have garnered the distinction more than once. The franchise also placed in the top 10 in 2004 (third), '05 (eighth), '08 (fourth) and '10 (ninth). Lambeau Field has ranked as the top NFL venue in five of the nine rankings and landed in the top overall spot across all sports five times, including three of the last four years (2008-09, 2011).

PLAYERS NAME PACKERS CLASSIEST ORGANIZATION: In October 2004, Sports Illustrated published results of a poll in which the majority of NFL players chose the Packers as the classiest organization in the league. Featured in the magazine's SI Players section, the poll surveyed 354 players. Results:

Green Bay Packers	18 percent
San Francisco 49ers	15 percent
Dallas Cowboys	10 percent
New England Patriots	10 percent

MOST POPULAR FRANCHISES: In March 2009, the NFL and ESPN Sports Poll released a study in which it aimed to determine the nation's most popular individual pro sports franchises across all sports. The Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, always among the top vote-getters in the annual Harris Interactive Poll determining America's favorite football team, finished Nos. 1 and 2 across all franchises. NFL teams held six of the top 10 spots in the poll.

1. Dallas Cowboys
2. Green Bay Packers
3. Pittsburgh Steelers
4. New England Patriots
5. New York Yankees
6. Los Angeles Lakers
7. Indianapolis Colts
8. Boston Red Sox
9. New York Giants
10. Atlanta Braves

LAMBEAU FIELD RANKED NO. 1 GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE: In a November 2007 Sports Illustrated poll on SI.com rating the gameday atmosphere for each NFL team, the experience of seeing the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field ranked first.

Lambeau Field topped the rankings for a second consecutive season in 2008, according to the SI.com poll. It was the only stadium to achieve a top-five ranking in each of the five categories: affordability & food, tailgating, team quality, atmosphere and accessibility.

"For all the glitz and money the NFL exudes nowadays," the poll summarized, "football's heart is still on that 'frozen tundra,' where tough guys grapple with each other while fans warm themselves on cold bleachers with hot chocolate and full-throated cheering. And that is still the essence of Lambeau."

Division I during Murphy's tenure. A proud alum, Murphy had the honor of delivering the commencement address for the university's 2012 graduation ceremony.

A former All-Pro safety for the Washington Redskins, Murphy enjoyed an eight-year career (1977-84) after originally signing with the team as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. He was a co-captain from 1980-84, a period that included two Super Bowl teams (1982-83). He enjoyed his finest season in 1983, leading the NFL with nine interceptions and earning consensus All-Pro honors as well as a trip to the Pro Bowl. Murphy was named as one of the Redskins' "70 Greatest Players" and also is a member of the club's 50th Anniversary Team.

Joe Gibbs, the Hall of Fame former coach of the Redskins who led the team during Murphy's 1981-84 seasons, was appreciative of the player's contributions and lauded the Packers' hiring of Murphy.

"Mark meant a lot to the Redskins organization the years he was here and played," Gibbs said. "He was a great person along with being one of the brightest and most competitive people we've had here at the Redskins."

Gibbs had an influence on Murphy as well, as the Packers' CEO attributes much of his leadership style to what he learned from the successful Redskins coach.

"He had many leadership traits that I admired and tried to incorporate into my own leadership style," said Murphy. "He had a very natural way about him with the way he related to people, and he tried to be accessible. He was a very effective communicator, too, as most great leaders are. And when he worked with you, he was very fair and sincere. All those skills and traits fueled his awesome ability to motivate his teams."

A natural leader among his teammates, Murphy served as the Redskins' player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including the position of vice president of the players union (1983-84). While a representative, he served on the players' bargaining committee during the 1982 players' strike. Those experiences have served him well in his role on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.

During his days with the Redskins, Murphy earned an MBA in finance from American University in Washington, D.C., attending classes full-time in the offseason and evening classes in-season. Upon completion of his playing career in 1985, he joined the NFL Players Association as assistant executive director. While with the NFLPA, Murphy served on the bargaining team, including during the 1987 players' strike, developed the agent-certification system and strengthened the PA's degree-completion and career-counseling programs.

While with the NFLPA, he started work on a law degree from Georgetown University and ultimately finished his studies full-time after leaving the Players Association. Upon receiving his law degree in 1988, he worked at a Washington, D.C., law firm (Bredhoff and Kaiser) before becoming a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice in 1989.

During a four-year career with the Department of Justice, he primarily represented government agencies in trials. Then, in 1992, his alma mater called and he returned to the sports realm.

At ease in public settings and with the media, Murphy enjoyed hosting a weekly radio show during his playing days and later became a sports commentator for National Public Radio (1983-92) and the Anheuser-Busch Radio Network (1986-88), offering his insights into football and sports-related legal issues in general.

Born July 13, 1955, in Fulton, N.Y., Murphy spent some of his formative years in the Houston area before moving back to the Buffalo-area community of Clarence. He was a three-sport star (football, baseball and basketball) at Clarence Central High School and was named the best all-around athlete in Western New York during his senior year. His baseball talents drew attention from Major League scouts. In 2002, he was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his achievements both on and off the field.

Murphy and his wife, Laurie, who also is a Colgate graduate, have been involved in the communities in which they've lived. Over the years the couple has donated their time to numerous organizations, including local schools, the United Methodist Church in Hamilton, N.Y., and the First Congregational Church of Evanston, Ill. Also while in Chicago, Murphy served on the bid committee for the 2016 Olympics which eventually was awarded to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. While at Colgate University, Murphy formed the Hamilton Youth Basketball League and served as its commissioner. Heavily involved in the community while with the Redskins, Murphy was named the team's "Miller Man of the Year" in 1984 in honor of his work off the field.

In Green Bay, Murphy continues a busy schedule of meeting with fans and shareholders, as well as speaking to a variety of business and community groups. He also has given his time to several community organizations to help their causes, including Big Brothers Big Sisters. Additionally, Murphy serves on the board of directors of the Positive Coaching Alliance, an organization created to transform the culture of youth sports to give all young athletes the opportunity for a positive, character-building experience. Mark and Laurie are also active supporters of foster-care services in Brown County.

Mark and Laurie have four children: Katie, 29, a graduate of Harvard who played basketball for the Crimson and now works at Credit Suisse in New York City; Emily, 27, a 2008 graduate of Middlebury (Vt.) College with a Chinese degree who now works for BusinessOnline in San Diego; Brian, 23, a 2011 graduate of Amherst (Mass.) College who now works as a marketing coordinator at TaylorMade Golf in San Diego; and Anna, 21, a senior at Northwestern University.

Away from work, Mark enjoys playing golf, fishing and participating in various forms of exercise, including bicycling, cross-country skiing and jogging.

TED THOMPSON

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER & DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Ted Thompson firmly believes that the best way to build a successful team is by drafting and developing players, with free agency playing a complementary role in addressing specific needs.

Now seven-plus years into his tenure as Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations, Thompson's philosophy was further validated in 2010 with a win in Super Bowl XLV over the Pittsburgh Steelers, Green Bay's fourth Super Bowl title and 13th world championship.

A look at the Packers' roster for Super Bowl XLV indicates a team truly built by Thompson. Nineteen of 22 starters and 49 of 53 players on the roster were acquired by Thompson via the draft, free agency, trades or the waiver wire during his time in Green Bay.

Thompson's approach was reaffirmed in 2011, as Green Bay had one of its most successful seasons in team history. While the Packers came up short in their quest to repeat as Super Bowl champions, Green Bay finished with a franchise-best 15 regular-season wins, becoming just the sixth team in NFL history to reach that mark.

The combined achievements authored by the 2010 and '11 teams assembled by Thompson have a prominent place in Packers and NFL history. Covering a span of 364 days, Green Bay won 19 consecutive games (including postseason) over the two seasons. The 19-game winning streak began in Week 16 of 2010 and lasted until Green Bay suffered its lone regular-season defeat at Kansas City in Week 15 of the 2011 season. The streak was the longest in franchise history and was the second-longest winning streak in NFL history (including playoffs) behind only the 2003-04 New England Patriots (21 games). Perhaps most impressively, the Packers never trailed in the fourth quarter during their 19-game winning streak.

The 2011 Packers captured their second NFC North title under Thompson and first since 2007, and as a result, became the only team in the NFC to qualify for the playoffs in four of the past five seasons. Additionally, the Packers earned the NFC's No. 1 seed for the first time since 1996 and finished with a perfect 8-0 record at Lambeau Field for the first time since 2002.

Seven of Thompson's players were selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2011 campaign, the most the Packers have had voted to the all-star game since 1967. The selections included WR Greg Jennings, FB John Kuhn, LB Clay Matthews, NT B.J. Raji, QB Aaron Rodgers, C Scott Wells and CB Charles Woodson. Six of the selections were acquired by Thompson as Jennings, Matthews, Raji and Rodgers were draft picks while Kuhn was claimed off waivers and Woodson was signed as a free agent. It was the fourth straight Pro Bowl selection for Woodson, the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2009 who was signed by Thompson in '06. Rodgers, who was also named to the Pro Bowl in 2009 and earned Most Valuable Player honors for Super Bowl XLV, also captured the prestigious NFL MVP award following the 2011 campaign. He was Thompson's first draft selection as Green Bay's GM in 2005.

In 2010, the Packers posted a 10-6 mark and qualified for the postseason for the third time under Thompson. Winners of three straight playoff games on the road, Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed (2005 Steelers) to win a Super Bowl since the NFL went to a 12-team playoff format in 1990.

The Packers featured eight Pro Bowl selections in 2010, with five of the selections being voted to the initial squad. Four of the eight players were draft picks of Thompson's and two more were signed by Thompson as free agents.

What made the Packers' championship season in 2010 even more notable was the adversity the team faced due to injuries. Green Bay finished the year with 15 players on injured reserve, and eight of them had started at least one game on the season. Six starters from the opening-day depth chart sustained season-ending injuries in the first seven games.

Because of those injuries, the roster depth that Thompson had built during his tenure came to the fore. Rookies such as T Bryan Bulaga, a first-round draft pick in 2010, and CB Sam Shields and LB Frank Zombo, both non-drafted free agents in '10, were called upon to step into prominent roles. A pair of fourth-year players, LB Desmond Bishop and S Charlie Peprah, moved into the starting lineup and became key cogs on defense after contributing primarily on special teams earlier in their careers. RB James Starks, a sixth-round pick in 2010 who was limited to just three games during the regular season because of an injury, led the NFL with 315 rushing yards in the postseason, third most in league annals by a rookie RB in the playoffs.

The Packers' Super Bowl XLV team was a direct reflection of the philosophy that Thompson has held true to throughout his Green Bay tenure, one that should put the franchise in good position to contend for championships on an annual basis.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Of the 53 players on Green Bay's Super Bowl XLV championship roster, 49 of them had been acquired by Thompson since 2005.
- Green Bay's seven Pro Bowl selections in 2011 were the most the Packers had voted into the game since 1967, with six of those players either drafted or signed by Thompson.
- Named NFL Executive of the Year in 2008 and 2011 by Sporting News in a vote of his peers.
- Named to his position on Jan. 14, 2005, his second stint with the organization. Earlier served eight years with Packers (1992-99) – as assistant director of pro personnel (1992), director of pro personnel (1993-96) and director of player personnel (1997-99).
- Served five seasons (2000-04) as the Seattle Seahawks' vice president of football operations.
- Combining the drafts he has run in Seattle and Green Bay, 20 of Thompson's selections have earned Pro Bowl, All-Pro or All-Rookie honors.
- Nine starters on Seattle's Super Bowl XL team, including league MVP RB Shaun Alexander and K Josh Brown, were drafted by the Seahawks during Thompson's tenure.
- Enjoyed a 10-year playing career with the Houston Oilers (1975-84), becoming one of the most durable players in Houston annals by playing in 146 of 147 games, missing just one contest due to injury. Originally signed by Bum Phillips as a non-drafted free agent.
- Was a three-year starter (1972-74) at linebacker and team captain ('74) for SMU, gaining Academic All-Southwest Conference honors, graduating with a bachelor's degree in business administration, and also lettering in baseball as a senior.

Since taking over as GM in 2005, Thompson has focused on rebuilding and improving the bulk of the roster, mostly through the draft.

In his first four drafts from 2005-08, Thompson utilized 14 trades, all but one of them down, to turn 31 picks into 43 selections, plus an extra choice in '09. In 2009-10, however, his trades went in the other direction as the improved roster core allowed him to focus less on the overall quantity of picks. Those two years, Thompson traded up for specific players he had targeted in certain rounds.

In '09, after selecting Boston College NT B.J. Raji with the No. 9 overall selection in the first round, Thompson traded a second-round pick and two third-round selections – Nos. 41, 73 and 83 overall – to New England to get another crack at a first-round talent. He moved up 15 spots to No. 26 overall and nabbed Matthews out of USC, while also receiving a 2009 fifth-round pick in return from the Patriots.

Just like that, not only did Thompson give the Packers two first-round draft choices for the first time in 16 years, he added highly touted prospects at the two linchpin positions in the 3-4 defense – a middle anchor and outside pass rusher.

In addition to Matthews earning a Pro Bowl bid as a rookie, both he and Raji made the prestigious Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team. Their success has continued in the subsequent seasons following their rookie campaigns. Matthews earned his second and third Pro Bowl bids in 2010 and '11, becoming the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-73) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first three seasons. Matthews also finished as the runner-up to Steelers S Troy Polamalu for 2010 Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press. In 2010, Raji posted 6½ sacks, the most by an NFL nose tackle since 1990, and this past season, he earned his first Pro Bowl selection.

Bulaga, the No. 23 overall pick in 2010, went on to start the final 12 regular-season contests at RT as a rookie in place of injured veteran Mark Tauscher, and also opened all four playoff games. Bulaga was named to the All-Rookie team by PFW, joining Raji and Matthews as three straight first-round picks by Thompson to be honored by the publication. A solidified starter in 2011, Bulaga has developed into one of the best young tackles in the league.

Despite coming off a world championship in 2010 and featuring one of the deepest rosters in the league, the Packers received consistent contributions from Thompson's 2011 draft class in their rookie seasons. Second-round pick WR Randall Cobb made an immediate impact in his pro debut vs. New Orleans with a 108-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that matched the NFL record. He finished the season ranked No. 2 in the NFL (No. 1 among rookies) with a 27.7-yard kickoff return average and No. 7 in the league (No. 2 among rookies) with an 11.3-yard punt return average. Additionally, with Cobb's 80-yard punt return for a TD in Week 10 vs. Minnesota, he became the first player in team history and first NFL rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to register a 100-yard kickoff return and 80-yard punt return in the same season. For his efforts, Cobb was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team as the kick returner. Combining the drafts he has run in Seattle and Green Bay, 20 of Thompson's selections have earned Pro Bowl, All-Pro or All-Rookie honors.

First-round selection T Derek Sherrod and third-round pick RB Alex Green saw their contributions increase as the season progressed, but both were lost to season-ending injuries, Green in Week 7 and Sherrod in Week 15. LB D.J. Smith, a sixth-round pick, played in all 16 games with three starts and tied for third on the team with 11 special teams tackles. Seventh-round selection TE Ryan Taylor made an immediate impact as a core special teams player, ranking fifth on the team with 10 special teams tackles.

Never afraid to be aggressive on draft day, Thompson was at it again during the 2012 NFL Draft as he traded up three times over the course of the weekend. Highlighted by first-round pick LB Nick Perry of USC and second-round pick DE Jerel Worthy of Michigan State, Thompson used the first six of the team's eight picks overall on defense.

Thompson followed in the footsteps of his mentor, Ron Wolf, in becoming Green Bay's GM, and in 2008 he joined Wolf in becoming only the second person in the history of the organization to be recognized as the best in his field in a vote of his peers as the NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News. He further cemented his reputation in the NFL by winning the award for a second in time following the Packers' record-setting 2011 season.

Preceding his first award, Thompson left an undeniable stamp on the Packers' successful 2007 season. In just his third campaign as GM, he assembled a roster that was the youngest yet one of the most talented in the NFL, and the Packers went 13-3, won the NFC North Division title, and advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the first time in a decade.

"I'm honored to receive this award on behalf of the Green Bay Packers," the humble Thompson said in 2008. "We view this as a team honor and feel the coaches, players and staff should all be very proud of the job they've done in helping this franchise succeed."

The prestigious award acknowledged Thompson for his diligence and success as the team came within an overtime field goal of advancing to the Super Bowl. But it also served as recognition for Thompson's overall body of work since taking his current position in 2005.

One of the biggest additions to the playoff-bound team came from a key trade. Thompson acquired RB Ryan Grant from the New York Giants at the end of training camp for a sixth-round draft choice, adding the former Notre Dame standout to a crowded but banged-up backfield.

Grant eventually took over as the feature back midway through the season and proceeded to rush for nearly 1,000 yards, adding 201 yards and three TDs in the NFC Divisional playoff victory over Seattle, both Green Bay postseason records. He went on to add back-to-back 1,200-yard campaigns in 2008-09.

Surprising many with the hiring of Mike McCarthy as head coach in January 2006, Thompson embarked on turning around a 4-12 team beset by injuries and salary-cap concerns in his first season. The improvement to an 8-8 mark in 2006, followed by the playoff run in 2007, netted McCarthy the Motorola NFL Coach of the Year award and placed both Thompson and his chief hire at the top of their professions.

Thompson's career as a football executive came full circle on Jan. 14, 2005. That day, former Green Bay Packers CEO Bob Harlan gave him full authority over all aspects of football operations for the storied franchise.

In becoming the 10th general manager in club history, Thompson rejoined the team with which he received his start under Wolf in 1992. After working for the legendary general manager through the 1999 season, Thompson spent five years as vice president of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

"It's almost a dream come true-type job," Thompson said. "You think about, when you're a young kid, some of the things you'd like to do when you grow up and you think maybe manager of the New York Yankees or maybe the general manager of the Green Bay Packers. So it's a thrill, it's an honor."

For Harlan, the selection of Thompson to lead Green Bay's football fortunes was an easy choice, and Thompson has validated that confidence in his selection by successfully remaking the roster into one he and the organization believe is built for long-term success.

"I feel Ted is a perfect fit for the Packers," Harlan said, introducing Thompson in 2005. "He is a respected National Football League veteran who is a proven talent evaluator and an efficient administrator. He knows the people in our personnel department and he is familiar with how we run our football operation. He embraces the Packers' championship tradition, and he was very anxious to have the opportunity to return to Green Bay."

Now in his 31st NFL season, including 10 years as a player, Thompson knows and respects the position the Packers hold in the hearts of the fans, and around the league.

"The history and tradition of this place is unrivaled in professional sports," Thompson said. "I understand the passion the people here have for their team. Ron (Wolf) told me this is the best job in the National Football League. I never forgot that."

The 59-year-old Thompson not only joined an organization with which he was familiar, but also oversees a respected staff that includes John Dorsey, who holds the title of director-football operations, Eliot Wolf, director of pro personnel, Brian Gutekunst, director of college scouting, and Alonzo Highsmith, senior personnel executive.

Former Thompson staffers include current Oakland Raiders general manager Reggie McKenzie, Raiders director-college scouting Shaun Herock and Seattle Seahawks executive vice president/general manager John Schneider.

Almost immediately upon taking over, Thompson made a crucial choice for the long-term benefit of the club. In the 2005 NFL Draft, Rodgers had been projected as high as the No. 1 overall pick, but he wasn't taken there and ended up sliding all the way down to the Packers at No. 24. One year later, Thompson handed Rodgers to an accomplished quarterback mentor in McCarthy to mold him into the team's signal caller of the future.

In 2008-09, following the retirement and subsequent trade of Brett Favre, Rodgers became the first quarterback in league history to eclipse 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons as a starter. Rodgers surpassed the 4,000-yard mark again in 2011 and has posted 17,037 passing yards the past four seasons. That total ranks first in NFL history for the most passing yards by a QB in his first four seasons as a starter, surpassing the previous mark held by Peyton Manning (16,418, 1998-2001). Rodgers' career passer rating of 104.1 ranks No. 1 in NFL history, and his 122.5 passer rating in 2011 set an NFL record, topping Manning's 121.1 mark in 2004. Additionally, Rodgers' 1.8 career interception percentage is tops in NFL history.

Although Thompson prefers to shift the spotlight in another direction, his fingerprints were all over the Seahawks' road to Super Bowl XL during the 2005 season. NFL MVP Shaun Alexander, Thompson's first draft pick in Seattle, in 2000, captured the 2005 league rushing title and established a then-single-season NFL record with 28 touchdowns. Nine of Seattle's Super Bowl starters, as well as K Josh Brown, were drafted by Thompson. That list included G Steve Hutchinson, a Pro Bowler in seven of his 11 NFL seasons.

Seattle could've gone in another direction in the 2000 draft. With perennial 1,000-yard rusher Ricky Watters on the roster, the club didn't need a running back in the first round. But with the Seahawks on the clock holding the 19th overall choice, Alexander was the best player available. One year later, in the 2001 draft, Thompson wanted Hutchinson in a similar situation.

"You have to do what you think is best for the organization," Thompson said before the 2006 draft, when he chose LB A.J. Hawk with the fifth overall selection. "A draft is an investment in a player that's going to be here for a number of years."

Thompson's philosophy on building a successful team relies heavily on drafted players as a foundation. In today's NFL, teams can't win consistently with free agency as their primary tool. And in building through the draft, the Packers place a premium on character.

DRAFT PICKS BY SCHOOL, 2005-2012

A breakdown of the 76 draft picks under Ted Thompson and the personnel staff since 2005. BCS schools are those colleges and universities that currently compete in the Atlantic Coast, Big 12, Big East, Big Ten, Pac-12 and Southeastern conferences.

BCS: 52

Non-BCS: 24

Boise State 2, San Diego State 2, Albany, Appalachian State, Bethune-Cookman, Brigham Young, Buffalo, Central Florida, East Carolina, Eastern Michigan, Fresno State, Furman, Hawaii, Maine, Missouri Southern State, Nevada, New Mexico State, North Carolina A&T, Northwest Missouri State, San Jose State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, Western Michigan

But despite how much value he places on the draft, Thompson also will use the free-agent market as another tool to build the roster. In Green Bay, he has brought in players like Woodson, DE Ryan Pickett and C Jeff Saturday, among others, to either take over starting jobs or provide valuable, experienced depth at their positions.

"I think free agency is a very interesting tool to use to help you patch some holes and do some things," said Thompson, who signed five unrestricted free agents in 2006, the Packers' most since 1998. "There's no reluctance on our part. We do try to make certain that what we do is not just fantasy football. We're investing in a player that's got to come in and play a particular role. If we don't think that player can perform to that contract, then it doesn't make sense for us to do it just to say, 'Look what we've spent.'"

In Green Bay annals, Thompson is only the fourth general manager to serve exclusively from the front office, joining Verne Lewellen (1954-58), Vince Lombardi (1968) and Wolf (1992-2000).

The low-profile Thompson has a proven track record as an evaluator. Overseeing Seattle's draft board from 2000 through '04, Thompson provided the Seahawks a solid foundation which they used to make three straight playoff appearances (2003-05). His 2003 draft saw Thompson land three players – Brown, CB Marcus Trufant and S Ken Hamlin – who not only made immediate front-line contributions as rookies, but who also became cornerstone players for years to come.

Just one year later, those three were instrumental in Seattle's 2004 NFC West championship. In the Seahawks' playoff game that year, 11 of 22 starters were acquired through Thompson's drafts.

In his first two Green Bay drafts, Thompson selected S Nick Collins in 2005 and Hawk, Jennings and G Daryn Colledge in 2006. All four were named to the PFW All-Rookie Team. In '07, he drafted K Mason Crosby, whose 649 career points from 2007-11 were the most in NFL history by a player in his first five seasons.

Prior to 2009, Thompson selected 43 players in his first four drafts as GM, signaling the rebuilding of the roster core that had seen only 27 draft picks in the four years (2001-04) before Thompson returned to Green Bay.

As a result, offseason competition for positions on Green Bay's 53-man roster has been fierce since Thompson took over, and should only become more intense in training camp in 2012. The goal is to improve the team's play through competition, just as it was when Bum Phillips annually brought in younger talent to try to take Thompson's job during the former linebacker's 10-year playing career with the Houston Oilers.

A former Oilers teammate, Mike Reinfeldt, helped to launch Thompson's second football career. In 1992, Reinfeldt, then the Packers' vice president of administration, recommended that Wolf take a look at Thompson as a potential pro scout for his staff. Wolf subsequently brought Thompson in to audition as a personnel evaluator, and Thompson always has felt he learned a lot from Wolf.

"He taught me passion, he taught me work ethic, he taught me believing in yourself, to have confidence, to write down what you see, not what other people see, and to trust yourself."

During his first tenure in Green Bay, Thompson was instrumental in providing talent that produced an 83-45 record (.648), six straight playoff berths, two Super Bowl appearances and the 1996 world championship. With his help, the team acquired free agents Reggie White, Sean Jones, Don Beebe, Santana Dotson and Desmond Howard.

Through the draft, Green Bay added Darren Sharper, Vonnie Holliday and Donald Driver, one of the franchise's lowest-drafted Pro Bowlers.

A possessor of strong football credentials and keen knowledge of the game gleaned from his decade-long playing career, Thompson credits Wolf with deepening his understanding of the scouting process and cites his experience in Seattle working with Mike Holmgren as very valuable in terms of his growth as a football person, running an organization and making decisions that affect the team in the present and in the future.

A versatile linebacker during his 10-year NFL playing career with the Oilers (1975-84), Thompson also was one of the most durable players in team annals, missing just one of 147 contests due to injury. He started eight games over the course of his career and also played in seven postseason contests (1978-80), with the Oilers going 4-3 in those games, losing the AFC Championship to the Steelers in both 1978 and '79. He originally was signed by Phillips as a non-drafted free agent.

Thompson's Oilers teammates included Pro Football Hall of Famers Earl Campbell, Mike Munchak, Elvin Bethea, Warren Moon and Bruce Matthews, current Packer Clay's uncle. Thompson also served as a reserve kicker and converted all four PATs he attempted in an emergency situation vs. the New York Jets in a 1981 contest.

Collegiately, Thompson was a three-year starter (1972-74) at linebacker and team captain ('74) for SMU. As a sophomore, he played under head coach Hayden Fry, and Phillips, his eventual pro coach, was defensive coordinator. He also served as the team's placekicker as a senior. Following his football career, in the spring of '75, he lettered as an outfielder for the Mustangs' baseball team. Thompson gained Academic All-Southwest Conference honors and graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

Born Jan. 17, 1953, in Atlanta, Texas, Thompson was an all-region player at the city's high school, lining up at running back, linebacker and placekicker. He also lettered in basketball, baseball, track and golf. He is single and enjoys an occasional round of golf in times of leisure.

RUSS BALL

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/PLAYER FINANCE

Russ Ball, entering his 24th season in the NFL, begins his fifth season in Green Bay as the organization's vice president of football administration/player finance.

Named to the position on Feb. 13, 2008, Ball brings a vast array of experience to the Packers' front office and is highly involved in all team decisions both on and off the playing field. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, in addition to the daily supervision of football-administration departments including athletic training, equipment, video, corporate travel, player development, family programs and public relations.

"The first thing that needs to be said is that Russ Ball is a good man," said Ted Thompson, Packers Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations. "He is a tremendous help to all of us here with the Packers, and his influence is felt throughout the organization. He does a lot of valuable work that often goes unnoticed by many. Russ is also a steady hand and a valued friend that we all come to for advice. He represents the Packers proudly, and we are fortunate to have him with us."

Before coming to Green Bay, Ball spent six seasons (2002-07) with the New Orleans Saints, the final two as vice president of football administration and the first four as senior football administrator. His responsibilities with the Saints included monitoring the salary cap, contract negotiations and roster management, as well as maintaining the team's compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations. Ball also coordinated different areas of the football operations, and was involved in several other administrative functions with the club. During his time in New Orleans, he also served in a similar capacity with the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League from 2004-07. Ball was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers organization as vice president of football administration/player finance on Feb. 13, 2008.
- Entering his 24th season in the NFL, having previously worked for the New Orleans Saints, Washington Redskins, Minnesota Vikings and Kansas City Chiefs.
- Was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.
- Began his NFL career with the Chiefs in 1989 as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Ball, 53, spent the 2001 season as director of football administration for the Washington Redskins, where his duties included managing the salary cap as well as team operations, as he oversaw the video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

Ball served as senior football administrator for the Minnesota Vikings from 1999-2000, where he assisted with salary-cap management and player contracts. He began working in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent 10 seasons (1989-98) there, the final two in football operations as administrative assistant to then-head coach Marty Schottenheimer. Ball began his career with the Chiefs as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

A 1981 graduate of the University of Central Missouri, Ball was a four-year letterman at center for the Mules. He served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-89 and earned his master's degree in human performance from Missouri in 1990.

Ball was born Aug. 28, 1959, in Moberly, Mo. He and his wife, Diana, reside in Green Bay and have two children, Joe, 26, and Andrea, 14. Away from work, Ball enjoys spending time with his family.

SHOVELING SNOW AT LAMBEAU

In a gesture symbolic of a community-owned team, the Packers for more than 40 years have asked citizens to shovel snow off the Lambeau Field bleachers.

Today, if the team needs help, it will issue a press release alerting the locals. The Packers provide shovels and request fans to not bring their own from home.

During the 2011 season, the Packers activated the plan to clear off the seats prior to the team's NFC Divisional round showdown against the New York Giants. It was the 19th day that Packers fans have been asked to shovel snow since 2005.

Citizens at least 15 years old who arrive early enough often shovel for several hours. Each participant receives $10/hour at the end of the day.

PAUL BANIEL

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Paul Baniel is in his fourth year heading up the Green Bay Packers' financial operations and is in his first year serving as vice president of administration for the organization.

In addition to leading the daily operation of the club's finance, facility and information technology departments, Baniel represents the Packers at the NFL level on economic issues and leads strategic initiatives of the organization. He is integrally involved in Lambeau Field's $143 million expansion project, drawing on his experience with major projects with the Milwaukee Brewers and Potawatomi Bingo Casino while in leadership roles in those organizations.

Baniel, a certified public accountant, also oversees the audit process and works closely with the organization's treasurer, the Board of Directors' audit and investment committees, and the stadium district.

"Paul is a valuable member of our senior staff," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "His experience in professional sports has been an important asset to the organization as both the team and the league have worked through some challenging economic times. We appreciate his strong leadership within the organization and the impact he has on our development efforts in and around Lambeau Field."

Baniel (pronounced BAN-yel), who joined the Packers on July 30, 2009, moved to Green Bay from Milwaukee, where he had spent more than six years (2003-09) as the chief financial officer of Potawatomi Bingo Casino. At Potawatomi, he helped lead the planning and construction of a $240 million expansion of the facility, which opened in 2008.

Prior to that, Baniel worked 16 years for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1986 through 2002. He served as the team's vice president of finance as well as treasurer and secretary for the final seven years of his tenure (1995-2002), coordinating the financing for the construction of Miller Park.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Last name is pronounced BAN-yel.
- Joined the Packers as vice president of finance in August 2009; named vice president of finance and administration in July 2012.
- Beginning his 26th year in the sports and entertainment industry, including 16 years with the Milwaukee Brewers and six years with Potawatomi Bingo Casino.
- A CPA, received his accounting degree with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
- Is a native of Milwaukee.

Baniel, 50, also worked for three years (1983-86) at the Milwaukee office of Price Waterhouse, a national public accounting firm, before joining the Brewers.

A Milwaukee native, Baniel graduated from Hamilton High School in nearby Sussex and earned his accounting degree with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1983. He earned his CPA certification that same year and is a member of several financial and accounting organizations, including Financial Executives International, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Institute of Management Accountants. In the community, he is a board member and chairman-elect of Special Olympics Wisconsin and a board member of New North.

Baniel was born Nov. 10, 1961. He and his wife, Nancy, have four children: son Nick, 22, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a current M.B.A. student at the school, and three daughters – Claire, 19, a sophomore at Michigan State University; Mary, 18, a freshman at the University of Minnesota; and Abby, 16.

In his spare time, Baniel enjoys music, traveling, playing golf, rappelling (Special Olympics' Lambeau Leap!) and spending time with friends and family.

1996 WORLD CHAMPIONS

TIM CONNOLLY

VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING

Tim Connolly, possessor of significant experience in sales and marketing, including a combined 18 years with three NFL teams, is in his third year as the Packers' vice president of sales and marketing.

Connolly, who joined the team on May 10, 2010, provides strategic leadership for the organization's overall marketing efforts and spearheads the Packers' revenue-generating operations that include marketing and sponsorships, retail operations, ticketing, restaurants, concessions, and premium sales and guest services.

"Tim's leadership has been very beneficial to the Packers," said Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy. "He brings a wealth of knowledge of the NFL with his vast experience and understanding of the league's marketing operations, and is highly respected within the league. His understanding of the rich history of the organization and what the Packers' unique brand represents to our fans and to our partners is a great benefit in helping us enhance our fans' experiences with the team."

Among Connolly's first initiatives with the club has been the development of the Packers Media Group, the new team dedicated to providing Packers.com with innovative and enhanced content. The effort, which will continue to evolve, has resulted in a highly engaged experience for fans and has increased visits and time spent on the team's website.

Connolly also is intimately involved in the expansion of Lambeau Field, particularly with the development of the new sound system, new HD video boards, new concession-sales system and new seating area, all of which will greatly benefit the top-rated fan experience on gameday.

Connolly joined the Packers from the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he spent seven years (2003-10), serving the final six years as senior vice president for business development, a position that saw him direct the club's marketing operations, including ticket sales, customer service and special events, in addition to developing and sustaining new branding and business opportunities. He initially joined the club as vice president of development in 2003 and was responsible for the Jaguars' Super Bowl XXXIX project, an effort to help fund the capital improvements to Jacksonville Municipal Stadium for the 2005 Super Bowl.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined Packers organization as vice president of sales and marketing on May 10, 2010.
- Has a combined 18 years of NFL experience with three teams — Jacksonville (2003-10), Minnesota (1998-99) and Kansas City (1989-95).
- Sales and marketing background includes significant experience and positions with IBM and Bell Atlantic (now Verizon).
- Native of San Diego and a graduate of George Washington University.

Prior to his work in Jacksonville, Connolly's other NFL experience included two years with the Minnesota Vikings (1998-99, executive vice president and general manager) and seven years with the Kansas City Chiefs (1989-95, executive vice president and chief operating officer). With each team, Connolly's work greatly enhanced stadium revenues and delivered significant gains in the number of season-ticket holders.

Connolly began his business career with the IBM Corporation and frequently was recognized as a top sales performer and manager. In January 1986 he was named president and CEO of Bell Atlantic's Cellular Phone Company, and in 1987, Bell Atlantic (now Verizon) became the first major cellular company in the world to achieve profitability.

The George Washington University graduate has been very active in the community through work on several boards, including the Ronald McDonald House (Jacksonville and Washington, D.C.) and the Governor's Small Business Advisory Board (New Jersey).

Connolly, a San Diego native, has three grown children. He and his wife, Nyunok, live in Green Bay.

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS BRAND

Created in 2007, the Turnkey Team Brand Index serves as the first-ever brand report card of all professional sports teams throughout the four major sports.

It aims to better understand team brands, including their strengths and weaknesses as well as the attributes most closely associated with the team. Results are based upon fan polls in a team's home market.

After finishing 10th in 2007, the Green Bay Packers took the top overall spot in the 2008 standings, finishing ahead of the Boston Red Sox (second) and Pittsburgh Steelers (third). The Packers finished second in the out-of-market rankings behind the New York Yankees, indicating the strength of the Packers brand across the country.

JOHN DORSEY

DIRECTOR – FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Dorsey, now in his 22nd year in NFL player personnel, was promoted to director — football operations in May 2012, his fourth tenure in Green Bay. He previously served 12 years as the Packers' director of college scouting.

An effective player for the Packers during the 1980s, Dorsey oversees the college side of Green Bay's scouting operations, and also is actively involved in the area of pro personnel.

Brought back to the team as director of college scouting on May 8, 2000, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf, the 52-year old Dorsey earlier had been a key component in Green Bay's personnel operations for nine highly successful years. First hired as a college scout in May 1991 with a focus on linebackers, he was retained by Wolf the following year and, ultimately, was promoted to head up the Packers' college scouting department on Feb. 27, 1997, succeeding John Math, who retired.

Hired as director of player personnel for the Seattle Seahawks on Jan. 26, 1999, as he followed former Packers coach Mike Holmgren to the West Coast, Dorsey resigned that position just over a year later, leaving shortly after the 2000 NFL Draft.

Selected by Green Bay in the fourth round of the 1984 draft, beginning his initial Packers employment, Dorsey played five seasons for the team (1984-88) at linebacker and on special teams before spending a final year on injured reserve in 1989. He totaled 130 tackles as a pro, in addition to two fumble recoveries and one pass defensed. Dorsey led Green Bay's special teams in solo tackles in three of his first four seasons, a level of play which helped earn him selection as the Packers' special teams captain. His 35 special teams tackles in 1984 are still a club record. Possessor of a streak of 76 consecutive non-strike games played, Dorsey saw that string end when he suffered a freak knee injury in pregame warmups of the team's '89 season opener.

A four-year starter at the University of Connecticut (1980-83), Dorsey was named Defensive Player of the Year in the Yankee Conference during each of his final two collegiate seasons and is the all-time leading tackler in the now-defunct conference's history. He also earned Division I-AA All-America recognition as a senior and, in 1998, he was selected to the school's 100th Anniversary All-Time Football Team. In 2002, Dorsey was inducted into the Anne Arundel (Md.) County Sports Hall of Fame. He graduated with bachelor's degrees in economics and political science.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has served four tenures in Green Bay: first as a player (1984-89); second as a college scout (1991-1997) and director of college scouting (1997-98); third as director of college scouting (2000-2012); and fourth as the current director – football operations (2012-present).
- Served on the NFL College Advisory Committee.
- A linebacker during his playing days, was a fourth-round pick of the Packers in 1984, enjoying a five-year career in Green Bay.
- A four-year starter at Connecticut (1980-83), was named Defensive Player of the Year in the Yankee Conference each of his final two collegiate seasons, also earning Division I-AA All-America recognition as a senior. Is a member of the school's 100th Anniversary All-Time Football Team, selected in 1998.

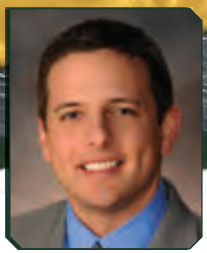
Heavily involved in the community throughout his playing career, especially with the Wisconsin Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Dorsey currently serves on the board of "65 Roses." He was voted as the Packers' Man of the Year in 1987 for his civic contributions. At the professional level, Dorsey is on the board of directors for National Football Scouting and is a former member of the NFL College Advisory Committee. He is also a member of the NFL Scouting Combine selection committee, and is a voting member of the collegiate Butkus Award (given to the nation's top linebacker). Dorsey is the only NFL voting member of the Harris Interactive College Football Poll.

Dorsey was born Aug. 30, 1960, in Leonardtown, Md. He and his wife, Patricia A. Sexton-Dorsey, reside in De Pere, Wis. He also is the father of three sons, Bryant, 25, Austin, 21, and Jack, 1, and a daughter, Catherine, 3.

In his spare time, Dorsey enjoys playing golf, reading and running – having completed two marathons.

NFL'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The National Football League included six players who played for Green Bay on its 75th Anniversary Team, announced in 1994: offensive tackle Forrest Gregg, linebacker Ray Nitschke, linebacker Ted Hendricks, end Don Hutson, placekicker Jan Stenerud and defensive end Reggie White. In 1994, the league also named three Packers players — Hutson, back Clarke Hinkle and tackle Cal Hubbard — to its all-time Two-Way Team.



ELIOT WOLF

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Eliot Wolf enters his ninth season with the Packers and first as the director of pro personnel after being promoted on May 23, 2012. Prior to his current role, Wolf spent the 2011 season as the team's assistant director of player personnel and the previous three seasons as assistant director of pro personnel (2008-2010).

Originally named as a pro personnel assistant on Feb. 26, 2004, by then-General Manager/Head Coach Mike Sherman, Wolf spent four seasons in that position.

Currently the youngest pro personnel director in the NFL, his primary duties include scouting teams in the NFL and in-season advance scouting of upcoming Packers opponents. Wolf also is involved with college scouting during the season and is very active in the Packers draft.

The son of former Packers general manager Ron Wolf, Eliot's scouting career unofficially began at age 10, when he joined his father in film sessions at Lambeau Field.

He's also worked 20 consecutive Packers drafts (since 1993), and nine NFL scouting internships — five with the Packers, three with the Atlanta Falcons and one with the Seattle Seahawks. Wolf has attended 20 consecutive NFL scouting combines.

Those internships and prior "unofficial" experiences have provided significant knowledge. Wolf, for example, is familiar with the history of every NFL player, having prepared Packers' details for every draft since 1993.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named director of pro personnel on May 23, 2012. First joined Packers in 2004 as a pro personnel assistant (2004-2008); named assistant director of pro personnel (2008-2010) and assistant director of player personnel (2011).
- Currently the youngest director of pro personnel in the NFL.
- The son of former Packers general manager Ron Wolf, Eliot's scouting career unofficially began at age 10, when he joined his father in film sessions at Lambeau Field.
- Has worked 20 consecutive Packers drafts (since 1993) and 20 consecutive NFL scouting combines.
- Graduated from the University of Miami (Fla.) in December 2003 after just 3½ years in order to begin his NFL career before the 2004 NFL Draft.
- Born in Oakland, Calif., is a 2000 high school graduate of Green Bay's Notre Dame Academy.

The 30-year-old Wolf filed his first report at age 14 for the Falcons, and has provided valuable information for the Packers' pro personnel department during previous internships.

Wolf owns a B.A. degree in creative writing from the University of Miami (Fla.), graduating in December 2003 after just 3½ years in order to begin his NFL career before the 2004 NFL Draft. At Miami, he volunteered in the football office's recruiting department. Wolf is a 2000 high school graduate of Green Bay's Notre Dame Academy.

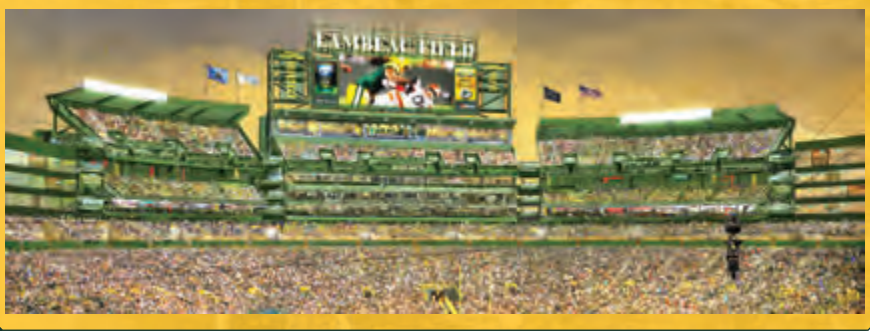
Born March 21, 1982, in Oakland, Calif., Wolf is single and resides in De Pere, Wis. He enjoys traveling and spending time with friends and family.

DEVELOPMENT CONTINUES AT LAMBEAU FIELD IN 2012

In 2003, the Packers unveiled a completed renovation of Lambeau Field that included additional seating in the stadium bowl, new club seats and luxury boxes, and the construction of the Atrium and its encompassing businesses on the stadium's northeast side. The resulting unshared revenue streams have allowed the franchise to remain competitive in the ever-evolving landscape of the NFL, despite competing in the league's smallest market and without traditional ownership. The renovation also helped to enhance the fan experience at the stadium, both on gamedays and with year-round attractions like stadium tours and the Packers Hall of Fame.

It was in that very vein that the organization announced another, albeit less extensive, renovation project on Aug. 25, 2011, highlighted by the addition of 6,700 seats in the stadium's south end. The south end-zone construction also features the addition of a new entry gate, equipped with a four-elevator shaft and escalators to aid in the flow of fans entering and exiting the stadium. The north end will also welcome a new gate of its own, featuring a six-elevator bank designed to expedite traffic for club-seat and suite holders, and a rooftop viewing terrace for club-seat holders on gamedays.

Prior to the completion of the new seats and gates, which will be completed in time for the 2013 season, the team will welcome the arrival of two new high-definition Mitsubishi Diamond Vision video boards for 2012. The boards will replace the original ones, with a cost of $12 million. The total cost of the project is $143 million, funded entirely by the Packers through the use of a traditional loan and also $64 million in proceeds from the team's most recent stock offering.



BRIAN GUTEKUNST

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Promoted to director of college scouting on May 23, 2012, Brian Gutekunst enters his 14th season with the Green Bay Packers' player personnel department. He spent the last 13 years as a college scout in the Southeast region (2001-2012) and two years in the East Coast region (1999-2000).

Possessor of prior professional scouting and college coaching experience upon joining Green Bay on a full-time basis late in 1998, Gutekunst gained his first NFL experience in the summer of 1995, when he assisted the coaching staff of the New Orleans Saints with the offensive line during training camp. Gutekunst's initial exposure to the Packers came in the summer of 1997, when he worked as an intern in the team's scouting department.

His first full-time appointment in professional scouting was in 1998 as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. After one year with the Chiefs, Gutekunst returned to the Packers when he was named as a college scout for the East Coast on Dec. 30, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

The 39-year-old Gutekunst earlier had played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. He then became an assistant coach for the team during his final two years at the school (1995-96) after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career. Serving as a linebackers coach during the 1995 season, he helped the school to the Division III national championship as the Eagles finished with an unblemished record of 14-0. Gutekunst majored in sports management.

Gutekunst prepped at Robbinsdale Armstrong High School in Plymouth, Minn., where he played quarterback, wide receiver and defensive back. An all-region and all-conference performer in football during his junior and senior seasons, he also earned two letters as a guard for the basketball team. Gutekunst also spent one year at Totino-Grace High School in Fridley, Minn., and lettered in football and basketball.

His father, John, most recently coached the secondary at Columbia University. The elder Gutekunst previously was the head coach at the University of Minnesota from 1985-92, taking over the reins of the Golden Gophers program when Lou Holtz left to assume the head-coaching position at Notre Dame.

Gutekunst was born July 19, 1973, in Raleigh, N.C. He and his wife, Jen, reside in Green Bay with their daughters, Marley, 7, Joie, 6, Kacey, 1, and son, Michael, 3. In his spare time, Gutekunst enjoys playing golf, reading and spending time at the beach.

EARNING THE HONOR

While the Packers achieved the ultimate team success on the field in 2010, winning the franchise's 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl, there were also a number of individual accolades that accompanied the collective accomplishment.

When the initial voting for the Pro Bowl was released, five Green Bay players (T Chad Clifton, S Nick Collins, WR Greg Jennings, LB Clay Matthews and CB Charles Woodson) were named to the NFC's all-star team. Following the addition of three alternates (WR Donald Driver, LB A.J. Hawk, and CB Tramon Williams), the Packers' list grew to eight players. The eight selections tied for the second most in team history and was the largest representation the organization had on the Pro Bowl roster since it sent nine in 1967.

Fortunately, though, none of the Packers' selections ever appeared in the game (played Jan. 30, 2011), as they were preoccupied with preparations for the upcoming Super Bowl XLV on Feb. 6.

A look at the most-represented Packers teams in the Pro Bowl since its inception in 1951:

ALONZO HIGHSMITH

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

An NFL player for six seasons, Alonzo Highsmith enters his 14th year with the Green Bay Packers' personnel department. He was promoted to senior personnel executive in May 2012 after 13 years on the Packers' college scouting staff, where he maintained primary responsibility for the Southwest region.

First named as a college scout by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf on Feb. 1, 1999, Highsmith originally had entered the professional ranks as the third overall pick in the 1987 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, behind only college teammate Vinny Testaverde (Tampa Bay) and Cornelius Bennett (Indianapolis).

The 47-year-old Highsmith began his pro career by playing three seasons in Houston (1987-89), starting 40 straight games with the Oilers. Following offseason knee surgery, he was traded to the Dallas Cowboys prior to the 1990 campaign.

He was with Dallas for a season-and-a-half before being waived by the Cowboys on Oct. 4, 1991. Claimed by Tampa Bay, Highsmith spent the remainder of his pro career with the Buccaneers. Due to a series of knee injuries, he retired from the NFL at the end of the 1992 season.

Highsmith's NFL totals include 65 games played, 283 rushing attempts for 1,195 yards (4.2 avg.) and seven touchdowns. He also made 42 receptions for 428 yards (10.2 avg.) and three TDs during the course of his pro career. After the conclusion of Highsmith's NFL career in 1992, he turned his sights to boxing. As a professional boxer, he competed as a heavyweight across the country, compiling a 27-1-1 career record over a four-year period.

Earlier a four-time letterman (1983-86) for the University of Miami (Fla.), Highsmith was a member of the 1983 Hurricanes squad that captured the collegiate national championship with a 31-30 triumph over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. As a sophomore in 1984, he led Miami in rushing with 906 yards on 146 carries (6.2 avg.), and repeated that feat during his senior season, gaining 442 yards on 105 attempts (4.2 avg.). Highsmith graduated in 1987 with a degree in business administration.

Highsmith was the 1982 Florida high school Defensive Player of the Year as a linebacker at Christopher Columbus High School in Miami, where he was a teammate of former Alabama head coach and current Carolina Panthers quarterbacks coach Mike Shula. A three-time letterwinner for the school's basketball team as a guard, Highsmith also competed in the 100- and 200-meter races in track for three years.

Highsmith was born Feb. 26, 1965, in Bartow, Fla. He and his wife, Denise, are the parents of three children, Alonzo, 22, A.J., 21, and Jordan, 18. Highsmith has two other children, Jasmine, 26, and Brandon, 24. Brandon (Thermilus) played collegiately as a running back at the University at Buffalo, Alonzo is a senior linebacker at the University of Arkansas and A.J. is a junior defensive back at the University of Miami. Highsmith resides in Missouri City, Texas, and enjoys playing golf in his spare time.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named senior personnel executive on May 23, 2012. First joined Packers in 1999 as a college scout.
- A third overall pick in the 1987 NFL draft from Miami (Fla.), he enjoyed six seasons in the NFL with the then-Houston Oilers (1987-89), Dallas Cowboys (1990-1991) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1991-92).
- Was a member of the 1983 Hurricanes squad that captured the collegiate national championship with a 31-30 triumph over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl.
- Spent four years as a professional heavyweight boxer after retiring from the NFL.

NAMES ON THE FACADE

The names gracing the east and west facades, one of the more awe-inspiring features of Lambeau Field's bowl, are often misidentified as the Green Bay "Ring of Fame" or "Ring of Honor."

It's an honest mistake. Most franchises induct former players, coaches and contributors into an exclusive club, usually called a Ring of Honor and containing on average 15-20 individuals. In Green Bay, though, the equivalent to that group is the Packers Hall of Fame, which this summer inducted three more members (Mark Chmura, Marv Fleming and Greg Koch).

And unlike most other stadiums that display names on their facade, most of the Packers' individuals (13) actually played/coached on the field in front of them.

The bowl also lists the years of the Packers' NFL-record 13 world championships and, since 2003, the team's five retired numbers. Plus, in 2006, the Packers honored the architect of the Super Bowl XXXI champions, former Executive Vice President and General Manager Ron Wolf, adding the retired executive's name to the northeast corner.

The seven-member Executive Committee of the Green Bay Packers presently is composed of: (back row) Larry L. Weyers, Vice President and Lead Director; Edward N. Martin, Member; Mark H. Murphy, President; Daniel T. Ariens, Secretary; John F. Bergstrom, Member; (front row) Mark J. McMullen, Treasurer; and Thomas L. Olson, Member.

Now in their 94th season of professional football (their 92nd in the National Football League), the Green Bay Packers are a team and an organization unique in both structure and accomplishment. They represent – from an organizational standpoint – the only publicly owned franchise in the 32-team NFL. On the field, they have won more world championships – 13 – than any other team in the league's history.

Green Bay Packers, Inc., was founded as a nonprofit corporation in 1922 under the leadership of A.B. Turnbull, then-publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who became the organization's first president. There are 5,020,523 shares of stock owned by 363,948 stockholders. The corporation is governed by a seven-member Executive Committee, elected from a board of directors. The committee directs corporate management, approves major capital expenditures, establishes broad policy and monitors management's performance in conducting the business and affairs of the corporation.

MIKE McCARTHY

HEAD COACH

20th NFL Season • Eighth Packers Season • Seventh as Head Coach

When Mike McCarthy was named head coach of the Green Bay Packers in January 2006, he said the goal for the franchise would be to win a Super Bowl, and that would never change.

In 2010, McCarthy led the Packers back to the pinnacle of the sport, joining Vince Lombardi and Mike Holmgren as the only coaches in team history to lead the Packers to a Super Bowl title, with a 31-25 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

The path to that world championship was not an easy one as McCarthy joined Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (2005) as the only Super Bowl-winning coaches to lead their respective teams to three road victories as the No. 6 seed in the playoffs en route to a title.

Since taking over as head coach in '06, McCarthy has a 68-36 overall record (.654), including a 5-3 mark (.625) in the postseason. His regular-season winning percentage ranks third among current NFL head coaches (min. 50 games). The past three seasons under McCarthy marked one of the most successful stretches in team history as Green Bay posted a 40-14 record (.741), including the playoffs. The 40 victories from 2009-11 ranked No. 2 in the NFL behind only New Orleans (41), and were the most by the Packers over a three-year span since 1996-98 (42).

The Packers entered the 2011 season with high expectations and the goal of becoming the NFL's first repeat champion since 2003-04. While the team ultimately fell short of that goal, McCarthy led Green Bay to a franchise-best 15 regular-season wins, becoming just the sixth team in NFL history to reach that mark in the regular season. The Packers began the '11 campaign reeling off 13 consecutive wins, easily eclipsing the previous franchise record of 10-0 starts in 1929 and 1962.

Dating back to Week 16 of the 2010 season, and including the playoffs, Green Bay won 19 consecutive games before suffering its lone regular-season defeat at Kansas City in Week 15. Covering a span of 364 days, the 19-game winning streak was the longest in franchise history and was the second-longest winning streak in NFL history behind only the 2003-04 New England Patriots (21 games). Perhaps most impressively, the Packers never trailed in the fourth quarter during their streak.

The Packers' 2011 regular-season success culminated with their second NFC North title under McCarthy and first since 2007. Green Bay's 6-0 mark in the division marked the first time in team history that the Packers posted an undefeated record in their division since the NFL went to the divisional format in 1967. Green Bay also became the first team since the 1987 Chicago Bears to sweep the NFC North/Central.

With the Packers' playoff appearance in 2011, they became the only team in the NFC to qualify for the playoffs in four of the past five seasons. Additionally, Green Bay earned the NFC's No. 1 seed for the first time since 1996 and finished with a perfect 8-0 record at Lambeau Field for the first time since 2002.

McCarthy was runner-up in Coach of the Year voting by The Associated Press and saw seven of his players earn Pro Bowl nods following the 2011 campaign, the most the Packers had voted to the all-star game since 1967.

McCarthy guided the Packers to a 10-6 campaign in 2010, highlighted by seven wins in the final 10 games. What made the Packers' championship season even more impressive was the adversity the team faced due to injuries. Green Bay finished the year with 15 players on injured reserve, and eight of them had started at least one game during the season. Six starters from the opening-day depth chart sustained season-ending injuries in the first seven games.

The Packers became just the third 10-6 team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl, and their six losses on the season came by a combined 20 points. Green Bay never lost a game by more than four points, but even more impressive, it never trailed by more than seven points at any point in a game all season. The Packers became the first team since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to never trail by more than seven points at any point during the regular season, and became the first championship-winning franchise to do so since the 1942 Washington Redskins.

It was a shining example of the steady, consistent approach that McCarthy has taken in leading the Packers throughout his tenure, one that culminated with the organization's fourth Super Bowl title and 13th world championship in 2010.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named the Packers' 14th head coach on Jan. 12, 2006.
- Joined Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (2005) as the only Super Bowl-winning coaches to lead their respective teams to three road victories as the No. 6 seed in the playoffs en route to a world title.
- In 2011, guided the team to a franchise-record 15 wins as well as team marks for points (560), touchdowns (70), total net yards (6,482), passing TDs (51) and fewest giveaways (14).
- Has led the Packers to a top-10 ranking in total offense in each of his six seasons, joining New Orleans as the only teams to accomplish that from 2006-11.
- Has guided the Packers to top-10 finishes in scoring in each of the past five seasons (2007-11), highlighted by a franchise-record 560 points in 2011. The team's 2,263 points from 2007-11 were the most in franchise history over a five-year span.
- Became the first Packers coach since Vince Lombardi to lead the team to a championship game in his second season (2007), and tied Mike Sherman for the most regular-season wins by a Packers coach in his first two years (21).
- Has worked with a stable of quarterbacks that has combined for 37 Pro Bowl selections, 10 Super Bowl starts, and seven Most Valuable Player awards.
- Prior to Green Bay, had never been a head coach at any level, breaking into the NFL as a quality-control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993, his first of 13 years as an NFL assistant, which included six seasons as an offensive coordinator calling plays in New Orleans (2000-04) and San Francisco (2005).
- Was inducted into the Baker University (Kan.) athletic hall of fame in October 2007.
- Born and raised in Pittsburgh, one of five children. His father, Joe, was a longtime firefighter and police officer.

PROLIFIC OFFENSES

Prior to coming to Green Bay in 2006, McCarthy was known in NFL circles for his innovative offensive mind and his ability to develop young quarterbacks.

Six seasons into his tenure with the Packers, that reputation has become firmly entrenched, if not enhanced, by the Packers' offensive prowess before and during Aaron Rodgers' tenure as the team's starting quarterback.

McCarthy's six Packers teams all have ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total yardage – checking in at ninth in 2006, second in '07, eighth in '08, sixth in '09, ninth in '10 and third in '11 – one of only two teams (New Orleans) to finish in the top 10 each of the last six years. Additionally, three of the franchise's top five single-season yardage totals have occurred during McCarthy's tenure. In 2008-09, the Packers were the first team in NFL history to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver), and a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) in two consecutive years.

The Packers have also finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total points each of the past five seasons (2007-11), highlighted by a franchise-record 560 points in 2011. The new franchise mark also ranks as the second-highest point total in NFL history behind only the 589 points posted by the New England Patriots in 2007. The Packers' 2,263 points over the past five seasons were the most in franchise history over a five-year span, while their 97 turnovers were the fewest over a five-year period. Last season, Green Bay set a franchise record for fewest giveaways in a season with 14, while ranking second in the NFL.

En route to earning NFL Most Valuable Player honors, Rodgers guided one of the most successful offenses in NFL history in 2011. In addition to setting a new franchise single-season record for points and fewest giveaways, the '11 Packers set new single-season marks for touchdowns (70), total net yards (6,482) and net passing yards (4,924). The 70 TDs were also tied with the 1984 Miami Dolphins for the second-most TDs in a season in NFL history behind only the 2007 Patriots (75). The Packers outscored their opponents 560-359 last season, a 201-point differential that ranked No. 2 in the NFL (New Orleans, plus-208). It marked the third straight season that the Packers outscored their opponents by at least 145 points. The last NFL team to accomplish that feat in three-plus consecutive seasons was the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-95.

In the 2011 regular-season finale vs. Detroit, Green Bay registered 45 points, marking the sixth time on the season the team scored 42 points or more, to establish a new NFL record for the most 42-point games in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Green Bay is 39-2 in McCarthy's six seasons (42-3 including playoffs) when scoring at least 30 points.

MAJOR CHANGE

In 2009, McCarthy embarked upon the first major alterations to his coaching staff since his arrival, hiring Dom Capers to be his new defensive coordinator and change the unit from a 4-3 base alignment to the 3-4 scheme that has been the staple of Capers' career.

The results have been incredibly impactful. With a No. 2 ranking in 2009 and a No. 5 ranking in '10, the Packers finished in the top five in the league in overall defense in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1968-69. Since '09, Green Bay ranks first in total takeaways (110), first in interceptions (85), third in opponent passer rating (72.7) and fourth in points allowed (18.7).

TOP 10 AGAIN

For the sixth consecutive season under Mike McCarthy, the offensive play-caller, the Green Bay offense ranked in the NFL's top 10. New Orleans, which enlisted head coach Sean Payton as its offensive play-caller, was the only other club to finish in the top 10 in overall offense each of the last six seasons.

In 2011 ...

The Packers averaged a team-record 405.1 yards per game to rank No. 3 in the NFL while statistically registering the most prolific offensive season in team history.

- The Packers scored a franchise-record 560 points, which also ranked as the second-highest point total in NFL history behind only the 589 points posted by the New England Patriots in 2007.
- The team also set a franchise record for fewest giveaways in a season with 14, while ranking second in the NFL in that category.
- Additionally, the offense set new single-season marks for touchdowns (70), total net yards (6,482) and net passing yards (4,924).
- The Packers outscored their opponents 560-359, a 201-point differential that ranked No. 2 in the NFL (New Orleans, plus-208). It marked the third straight season that the Packers outscored their opponents by at least 145 points. The last NFL team to accomplish that feat was the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-95.
- Green Bay scored 42 points or more six times on the season, establishing a new NFL record for the most 42-point games in a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- QB Aaron Rodgers earned NFL MVP honors after posting an NFL single-season record 122.5 passer rating and setting franchise records with 45 TD passes and 4,643 passing yards.

Despite the loss of critical playmakers to various injuries, the offense still managed a top-10 finish, averaging just over 358 yards per game during the regular season.

- Green Bay was one of four teams in the NFL to have both the offense (No. 9) and defense (No. 5) rank among the league's top 10. It was the first time the Packers accomplished the feat in back-to-back seasons since 1997-98.
- Rodgers narrowly missed his third consecutive season of surpassing the 4,000-yard passing plateau, falling just 78 yards short (3,922) after missing 1½ late-season games due to injury. The QB still finished the season ranked in the top 10 in nearly every major passing category.
- The offense featured a particularly balanced passing attack throughout the season that included three WRs (Greg Jennings - 76, Donald Driver - 51, James Jones - 50) posting 50-plus catches for the first time in franchise history.
- The unit maintained its prolific pace throughout the team's extended postseason run, averaging 30.3 points per game and scoring 121 points in the four playoff contests, the third-highest total for a single postseason in NFL history.

In 2009 ...

Averaging over 379 yards per game, the highest total in McCarthy's four seasons, the Packers' offense finished the year No. 6 in the NFL.

- Green Bay scored 461 points, the second most in team history.
- For the third time in franchise history, the club surpassed 6,000 total net yards, now ranking No. 4 in team annals with 6,065.
- Green Bay became the first team in NFL history to have a 4,000-yard passer, 1,200-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in back-to-back seasons.
- The Packers established a then-franchise record with just 16 giveaways, fewest in the NFL.
- Rodgers threw for 4,434 yards, finishing just shy of Lynn Dickey's team record (4,458, 1983). RB Ryan Grant also had a career-high 1,253 yards, sixth most in team history.

In 2008 ...

- The Packers finished the season ranked No. 8 in the NFL in total offense, averaging over 351 yards per contest.
- Green Bay's 419 points was the fifth-highest total in the league.
- For the first time in franchise history, the club had a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), 1,200-yard rusher (Grant), and two 1,000-yard receivers (Driver and Jennings).
- Some players etched their names among the greats in Packers history, establishing some of the top single-season marks in passing yards (Rodgers, 4,038, 10th), rushing yards (Grant, 1,203, eighth) and receiving yards (Jennings, 1,292, 10th) in team history.
- The Packers had just 21 giveaways, tying the '95 team for the fourth fewest in club history.

The Packers had their highest finish since 1983, ranking as the No. 2 offense in the NFL. The unit produced over 370 yards per game.

- Green Bay scored 435 points, fifth on the Packers' all-time single-season list. The total ranked fourth in the NFL.
- The Packers produced 5,931 total net yards (1,597 rushing, 4,334 passing), which ranks fifth in club history.
- McCarthy designed an offense to highlight his receivers' ability after the catch. The league's No. 2 passing offense amassed 2,294 yards after the catch, tops in the league. The NFL average in 2007 was 1,596 yards.
- The Packers finished with 67 plays of 20 yards or more, second only to Dallas (68). Fifteen of those big plays came on the ground, and 52 were through the air.

Green Bay finished No. 9 in total offense, averaging over 341 yards per contest.

- The Packers were 4-0 when reaching 30 points. They were 9-0 when reaching 30 points in '07, 4-1 in '08, 6-1 in '09, 5-0 in '10 and 11-0 in '11, making the club 39-2 in regular-season games under McCarthy when reaching the 30-point mark.
- In its first year in McCarthy's West Coast offense, Green Bay began to show some of its big-strike capability. Its skill players produced 2,161 yards after the catch, second most in the NFL.
- The Packers had just 77 negative plays all season, the third fewest in the NFL and the least under McCarthy.

In 2011, Green Bay's ball-hawking ways continued as the Packers posted a league-high 31 interceptions, the second time in the last three seasons (2009) that they led the league in that category. The INT total was the most posted by Green Bay since it registered the same total in 1962. The Packers finished tied for the league lead with 38 total takeaways, leading to a plus-24 turnover ratio that ranked second in the league and tied for second in franchise history. During McCarthy's tenure, the Packers have a 48-6 regular-season record (.889) when holding the advantage in turnover ratio. Additionally, Green Bay has finished in the top five in points off of takeaways each of the past four seasons (2008-11), the only team in the league to do so.

In 2010, the Packers ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game, the team's best mark since leading the league in the category in 1996 (13.1). Green Bay tied for No. 2 in the league with 47 sacks in '10, its highest ranking since sacks began to be recorded as a team statistic in 1963.

The defense improved from 20th in total yards allowed in '08 to second in '09, and from 26th in run defense to the top spot, becoming the first Green Bay defense to lead the league against the run and setting a franchise record by allowing just 83.3 yards rushing per contest. The defense also led the league in interceptions (30) and total takeaways (40) in '09.

The '09 season was not a smooth road back to playoff contention, however. Back-to-back losses in early November to division-rival Minnesota and previously winless Tampa Bay dropped the Packers to 4-4, and a promising season suddenly appeared in doubt.

But McCarthy kept building on the identity that was forming – a team that could attack with multiple threats offensively, stop the run defensively and win the turnover battle – and led the Packers out of the adverse stretch to three straight victories in 12 days, culminating on Thanksgiving at Detroit. The winning streak was stretched to five games and included home triumphs over eventual playoff teams Dallas and Baltimore.

The team also overcame considerable adversity, in the form of season-ending injuries to defensive starters Al Harris and Aaron Kampman, to ultimately go 7-1 over the second half of the schedule. Meanwhile, Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl berth, nearly breaking the franchise's single-season record for passing yards, and veteran cornerback Charles Woodson was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Unfortunately, the late-season surge ended abruptly with a sudden-death overtime loss at Arizona in the NFC Wild Card contest, but McCarthy had gotten the Packers back on track toward the goal they would reach just a year later.

ON THE BRINK

McCarthy brought the Packers to the brink of accomplishing that Super Bowl goal in just two years. Coming off an 8-8 rookie season that ended with a momentum-building, four-game winning streak, McCarthy led the Packers to a 13-3 mark in 2007 that was groundbreaking in many respects.

The Packers tied the then-franchise record for victories in the regular season and won the club's first NFC North Division title since 2004. They also captured an NFC playoff bye and advanced to the conference championship game for the first time in a decade. It all earned McCarthy 2007 NFL Coach of the Year awards from Motorola and NFL Alumni, and he also was runner-up in Coach of the Year voting from The Associated Press.

The championship he had set as the goal was within reach, as the Packers hosted the New York Giants in the NFC title game on a frigid January day at Lambeau Field. The hard-fought, 23-20 overtime defeat was an opportunity missed, but one McCarthy vowed his team would learn from.

On its way to 13-3, Green Bay secured the team's first playoff bye since 1997, and McCarthy tied Mike Sherman for the most wins by a Green Bay coach in his first two seasons with 21.

Behind Brett Favre's superb final year in Green Bay and the emergence of Grant as the feature back, the Packers with McCarthy as the play-caller finished with the league's second-ranked offense, their highest ranking since 1983. They also compiled season totals in points (435) and net yards (5,931) that rank fifth on the franchise's all-time list.

The postseason began in startling fashion, with Grant fumbling twice in the first minute of the game, setting up two Seattle scores for a 14-0 Seahawks lead in the NFC Divisional playoff. Drawing on a steadfastness that served the team well during some rough spots the previous year, McCarthy and the Packers never panicked and rallied for a dominant 42-20 victory in the snowy "winter wonderland" of Lambeau Field.

In advancing to the NFC Championship Game, McCarthy became the first Packers coach since Lombardi to lead the team to a title game in his second season at the helm.

Though the quest for that championship came up short, McCarthy had returned the Packers to playoff prominence just two years after the 4-12 season that preceded his arrival.

A LEADER OF QUARTERBACKS

In his first two seasons as head coach, McCarthy simultaneously oversaw a mini-renaissance of Favre's career and the development of Rodgers as his backup.

Charged with learning McCarthy's version of the West Coast offense and given more latitude in making decisions at the line of scrimmage, Favre concluded his brilliant Green Bay career with a 95.7 passer rating in 2007, his best in 11 years and fourth best in his career, while completing a then-career-high 66.5 percent of his passes.

Buying into McCarthy's aggressive but controlled approach, Favre's interceptions dropped from 29 in 2005 to 18 in 2006 to 15 in 2007. He finished second in the voting for what then would have been an unprecedented fourth NFL MVP award, and he subsequently passed the torch to Rodgers, his understudy for his final three years in Green Bay and McCarthy's prime pupil for the last four.

Since taking over as the starter in '08, Rodgers hasn't disappointed his main tutor or team as he has developed into arguably the league's best quarterback. Rodgers has topped 4,000 yards passing three times (2008-09, '11), which in '08, combined with Favre's total in '07, marked the first time in league history a team had two different quarterbacks throw for 4,000 yards in consecutive years. In the process, he also became the first quarterback in league history to surpass the 4,000-yard plateau in each of his first two seasons as a starter. In total, McCarthy has been on the coaching staff for five of the 10 4,000-yard passing seasons (1999, 2007-2009, 2011) in franchise history.

Rodgers has posted 17,037 passing yards the past four seasons to rank first in NFL history for the most passing yards by a QB in his first four seasons as a starter, surpassing the previous mark held by Peyton Manning (16,418, 1998-2001). His career passer rating of 104.1 ranks No. 1 in NFL history, and he is the only QB in franchise annals, and just the fourth in NFL history, to post a 100-plus passer rating in three consecutive seasons (2009-11). Additionally, his 1.8 career interception percentage is tops in NFL history.

In 2011, Rodgers and McCarthy teamed up to author one of the greatest offensive seasons in NFL history, highlighted by the former Cal standout's 122.5 passer rating that set a new NFL single-season record. He finished the season connecting on 343-of-502 passes (68.3 percent) for 4,643 yards and a career-high 45 TDs with six INTs on his way to earning NFL MVP honors. His 45 TD passes obliterated the franchise single-season record (Favre, 39 in 1996) and is the fifth-highest total in NFL annals, while his 4,643 passing yards also set a new franchise record. He is the only 4,000-yard passer in NFL history to throw six or fewer INTs in that season.

Rodgers also set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive 110-rating games, topping 49ers QB Steve Young's mark of seven straight in 1994, and 12 consecutive 100-rating games, besting Manning's mark of nine in 2004. Rodgers finished the season just as impressively, ranking second in the league in TD passes (45), first in yards per attempt (9.25), second in completion percentage (68.3), fourth in yards per game (309.5) and first in TD/INT ratio (7.50).

Rodgers has also enjoyed success in the postseason under McCarthy, setting an NFL record with 10 passing TDs in his first three postseason starts. He also became only the fourth signal-caller to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl on his way to earning game MVP honors for Super Bowl XLV.

SOLID FIRST YEAR

Blending a mix of young players with seasoned veterans at key positions, McCarthy fostered a strong team dynamic in his maiden season that helped the team battle back from a slow start.

McCarthy stuck to his plan and his vision as his team stood 1-4 at the bye week and 4-8 with one quarter of the season to play. By turning the team's fortunes around to finish 8-8, he had laid the foundation for the success to come.

McCarthy got his team to bounce back from tough circumstances to remain in the NFC playoff hunt until the final week. The .500 record tied for third best among the seven rookie coaches in the NFL in 2006.

Close losses early to eventual NFC runner-up New Orleans and St. Louis put the Packers at 1-4. But the team used the bye week for extra preparation as well as rest, traveling to Miami to beat the Dolphins in oppressive south Florida heat and, three weeks later, posting another impressive road win at Minnesota's Metrodome to improve to 4-5.

Three straight losses to eventual playoff qualifiers dropped

SUCCESS WITH QUARTERBACKS

Mike McCarthy has worked with quarterbacks who have collectively earned 37 Pro Bowl selections and seven NFL Most Valuable Player awards. Those passers also have made 10 Super Bowl starts and won six world championships.

the Packers to 4-8, but again McCarthy used a long road trip to get the team back on track. This one was to San Francisco, where McCarthy had served as offensive coordinator the previous year, and a big win that coincided with a key personnel change provided the springboard to a strong final month.

McCarthy moved defensive tackle Cullen Jenkins to end early in the 49ers game, and the defense quickly improved. The Packers' run defense got a boost on early downs and allowed for a better situational pass rush, and the defense climbed to 12th overall by season's end.

The strong defensive play and Favre's veteran leadership fueled a season-ending, four-game winning streak, the final three wins coming over NFC North opponents. A 26-7 win at Chicago in the season finale over the eventual NFC champion Bears put the Packers at 5-1 in the division and barely out of the playoffs, losing a tiebreaker with the Giants, who also finished 8-8.

That impressive early showing within the division was a sign of things to come for McCarthy. Through six seasons, he has posted a 27-9 (.750) record against NFC North foes, a divisional mark that ranks first in the conference over that span and No. 2 in the NFL, trailing only New England. The Packers have posted a winning record in their division every season with McCarthy at the helm, joining the Patriots as the only teams to do so over that span.

THE RIGHT FIT

With a personality to match his blue-collar hometown, McCarthy landed his first NFL head-coaching job in his kind of place.

A Pittsburgh native, McCarthy was named the 14th head coach of the Green Bay Packers on Jan. 12, 2006, the only step left to take after 13 years as an NFL assistant.

But while he previously had traveled through NFL cities such as Kansas City, New Orleans and San Francisco, it may be Green Bay that most resembles his native Pittsburgh. And if there was one word used to describe McCarthy's hiring in his first days with the Packers, it was that he was the right "fit," both for a town and a team looking to turn around a disappointing 4-12 season in 2005.

The way McCarthy fits Green Bay, however, goes beyond the toughness in his personality, down-to-earth demeanor, and pride in his upbringing.

He not only spent one of those 13 previous years in the NFL with Green Bay, but he took over the Packers already well-versed in the West Coast offense with a reputation for developing offensive talent, particularly at the quarterback position.

McCarthy is known for taking a hands-on teaching approach with young players and has been well-respected around the league, in part because he had called plays for six seasons as an offensive coordinator before becoming a head coach. Plus, he has tutored an impressive roster of NFL quarterbacks.

While two of the biggest names he has worked with, Favre in Green Bay and Joe Montana in Kansas City, were at or beyond their peak years at the time, McCarthy has played at least a part in the development of signal callers Aaron Brooks, Jake Delhomme, Matt Hasselbeck, Matt Flynn, Marc Bulger, Rich Gannon and Elvis Grbac.

The entire stable of quarterbacks that McCarthy has worked with, which also includes Jeff Blake, Steve Bono and Dave Krieg, has combined for 37 career Pro Bowl selections, 10 Super Bowl starts, and seven Most Valuable Player awards.

McCarthy's newest protégé to rise to a starting role is Rodgers, who was drafted in the first round in 2005. General Manager Ted Thompson heavily weighed McCarthy's track record with quarterbacks when he hired him the following year, knowing that since the post-Favre era was inevitable, the right tutelage at the game's most important position would be key to a smooth and successful transition.

PAYING HIS DUES

Much like those players he worked with who rose to prominence, McCarthy paid plenty of dues along the way to his first head-coaching job.

He learned a disciplined and no-nonsense approach to life at an early age. His father, Joe, was a longtime firefighter and police officer who also owned a bar near a Pittsburgh steel mill. McCarthy worked odd jobs at the bar as a teen. It was interacting with the hard-working tavern clientele while also watching a father in uniform dedicated to public service that helped make McCarthy proud of where he came from.

After his playing career as a tight end at Baker University (Kan.) ended, his 26-year coaching career began as a linebackers coach at Fort Hays State (Kan.) in 1987. He cracked the Division I ranks two years later as a volunteer assistant at the University of Pittsburgh.

It was there he displayed the will and determination to make it in the coaching profession, working for free on the football field by day and collecting tolls along the Pennsylvania turnpike during the graveyard shift to make ends meet.

He soon moved into a paid position at Pitt assisting with the quarterbacks, and then coaching the wide receivers, before Panthers head coach Paul Hackett recommended him to the Kansas City Chiefs when they hired Hackett as offensive coordinator in 1993. McCarthy joined Hackett on the Chiefs' staff as a quality-control assistant.

McCarthy considers Hackett the biggest influence in his coaching career, having learned the West Coast offense from him and then installing it himself as offensive coordinator in New Orleans.

It was under Hackett's wing that McCarthy developed the attention to detail, scouting and game-planning skills that would help him move up the NFL ranks.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

The third-youngest head coach in the NFL when he was hired at age 42 (the Saints' Sean Payton was seven weeks younger and the Jets' Eric Mangini was 35), McCarthy took over a team coming off its first losing season since 1991, before Favre arrived as quarterback.

Thompson made it clear when he hired McCarthy he wasn't looking for just an X's and O's guy. He was looking for someone who would impress him with a variety of qualities, including leadership ability, toughness, football knowledge, and an awareness of the Green Bay organization and the team's unique place within the NFL and the local community.

McCarthy, who had interviewed for the Cleveland Browns' head-coaching job five years earlier but admits he wasn't necessarily ready then, fit the bill. In his introductory news conference, he spoke of how taking over the Packers was like buying his "dream house," with the foundation, tradition and resources to help him make the team a championship contender once again.

McCarthy emphasized he didn't feel the Packers were in a rebuilding mode at all, but there was work to be done right away.

He wasted no time constructing the environment he wanted for his team, implementing free weights as the foundation for the players' strength and conditioning.

McCarthy also installed an offseason workout program, and a then-record attendance at those sessions spoke volumes about the level of respect he quickly commanded as a head coach.

CAREER AS NFL ASSISTANT

McCarthy broke into the NFL as a quality-control assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1993. It was then he worked with Montana before moving up to quarterbacks coach from 1995-98, working with starters Gannon, Grbac and Bono. The trio's total of 52 interceptions marked the lowest total in the AFC over that four-year span.

After working with McCarthy from 1995-98, Gannon went on to earn all four of his Pro Bowl selections, the 2002 league MVP award and a start in Super Bowl XXXVII with the Raiders. Gannon credits McCarthy with helping him take the quarterback's game to a higher level.

"He's the guy that really helped catapult my career," Gannon said. "He was the guy who really taught me the West Coast system of football. He really taught me how to prepare for a game, taught me how to watch film, how to break down an opponent, how to study. It was really those things I took with me to Oakland.

"There was never a doubt in my mind he'd be a head coach. He's a great play-caller, great working with the quarterbacks. He's a tough guy, a guy willing to do the work, and he's a leader."

When Gannon left the Chiefs for Oakland in 1999, McCarthy departed Kansas City to become Green Bay's quarterbacks coach. That year, the Packers ranked seventh in the NFL in passing and ninth in total offense. Favre threw for 4,091 yards, the third-highest total in his career at that point.

The following year, McCarthy began a successful five-year stint as the offensive coordinator of the New Orleans Saints. It became the most prolific offensive era to that point in the team's four decades, as the Saints set 10 offensive team records and 25 individual marks.

Among the more notable accomplishments, the Saints led the NFC with 432 points and 49 touchdowns in 2002, both team records at the time. In his first season in 2000, McCarthy was chosen NFC Assistant Coach of the Year by USA Today.

That year the Saints produced their first 1,000-yard receiver in eight years in Joe Horn, and their first 1,000-yard rusher in 10 years in Ricky Williams. After that decade-long drought of 1,000-yard rushers, the Saints had one (either Williams or Deuce McAllister) in each of McCarthy's five seasons running the offense.

In 2005, McCarthy served as offensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers.

COLLEGE COACHING & PLAYING CAREER

McCarthy began his six-year collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Fort Hays State in Hays, Kan., in 1987, just after completing his playing career at nearby Baker University in Baldwin City, Kan.

At Baker, McCarthy earned a degree in business administration and was an all-conference tight end and senior captain in 1986, helping lead the Wildcats to an NAIA Division II national runner-up finish. He was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2007.

At Fort Hays State under head coach John Vincent, McCarthy coached linebackers for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration.

The return to his hometown came in 1989 under Pittsburgh head coach Mike Gottfried, now an ESPN college football analyst, followed by three years under Hackett with the Panthers.

As quarterbacks coach, McCarthy worked with Alex Van Pelt, now the Packers' running backs coach, as he topped the school's career and single-season records for passing yards established by Dan Marino.

PERSONAL

Born Michael John McCarthy on Nov. 10, 1963, in Pittsburgh, he grew up one of five children in the Irish-Catholic family of father Joe and mother Ellen in Greenfield, a Pittsburgh neighborhood just a couple of miles from downtown. He graduated from Bishop Boyle High School in Homestead, Pa.

McCarthy's family includes wife Jessica and children Alexandra, Jack, George, Gabrielle and Isabella.

Since returning to Green Bay in 2006, McCarthy has immersed himself in the local community and beyond through participation in numerous philanthropic events and charitable donations. Perhaps closest to his heart is the Mike & Jessica McCarthy Golf Tournament. Established in June 2010, the tournament benefits the American Family Children's Hospital in Madison, Wis. In just three years, the event has raised an impressive net total of more than $500,000, with contributions and participation increasing each year. In 2012, the tournament raised more than $270,000 in net profit, with proceeds going to the hospital's "Sick Kids Can't Wait" campaign. The campaign is designed to meet the needs of sick children by further developing and improving the resources and facilities at the hospital.

Including projected contributions in 2012, the McCarthy Family Foundation has made donations of more than $1.5 million to benefit numerous charities, projects and institutions during his six-plus seasons as head coach. McCarthy established the foundation with the intent of fostering a long-term philanthropic commitment by his family beyond his NFL career. Among the beneficiaries of the Foundation's contributions are the aforementioned American Family Children's Hospital, Baker University, the Seven Loaves Project of Green Bay, the Autism Society of Northeast Wisconsin, the Boys & Girls Club of Green Bay and a group of organizations (St. Rosalia Academy, Greensburg Central Catholic, the Greenfield Baseball Association and the Greenfield Organization) in his native Greenfield Neighborhood of Pittsburgh. Most recently, the Foundation made a $100,000 contribution to the Little Sisters of the Poor during the 2012 offseason in honor of McCarthy's high school coach, Fran Mannion.

McCarthy's local-event participation is highlighted annually by the Mike McCarthy Cystic Fibrosis Celebrity Golf Open. The 2012 event marked the 26th consecutive year that the Open was hosted by the current Packers head coach, a tradition started by Lindy Infante. The golf outing benefits local and statewide cystic fibrosis organizations and has raised more than $600,000.

Additionally, McCarthy has served as honorary chairperson for the local Cerebral Palsy Telethon and worked with the American Heart Association on its Red Cap campaign to recognize heart disease and stroke survivors and raise awareness of those conditions.

In the past, he has participated in the Lombardi Award of Excellence Dinner Ball, which supports the Vince Lombardi Charitable Funds in the fight against cancer, and served as host of the Green & Gold Gala, a fundraiser for Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin. He has also spent time visiting cancer patients at Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee.

Among several other events, McCarthy has participated in Jerry Parins' Cure for Cancer Motorcycle Ride, the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon, the team's regular Make-A-Wish Foundation practice and game visits, and various local Get Motivated seminars.

McCarthy was honored with the Distinguished Service Award at the Lee Remmel Sports Awards Banquet in April 2008, and then in the fall as the 2008 Person of the Year from his native Greenfield Neighborhood. He was also voted by the fans as the 2007 Motorola Coach of the Year, and in 2011 was named the Maxwell Football Club's NFL Coach of the Year.

WINSTON MOSS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/INSIDE LINEBACKERS

14th Season as NFL Coach • Seventh Packers Season

Entering his 25th season in the NFL and seventh with the Packers, Winston Moss begins his fifth year in the role of assistant head coach, with inside linebacker responsibilities for the fourth season.

Named to the current post by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Jan. 15, 2007, Moss impressed McCarthy with his leadership skills when the two worked together for five seasons in New Orleans and again in 2006 in Green Bay. Moss continues to coach linebackers as well, his original duty upon joining the Packers. His position responsibility was modified to inside linebackers in '09 with the switch to a 3-4 defense and the addition of outside linebackers coach Kevin Greene to the staff.

Since Moss was named assistant head coach in '07, the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in total takeaways (166), No. 1 in interceptions (126), No. 2 in opponent passer rating (73.1) and No. 4 in points allowed (19.6).

Under Moss' guidance in 2011, "Mack" LB Desmond Bishop entered the season as the starter for the first time in his career and went on to be named a Pro Bowl alternate, registering career highs with a team-leading 142 tackles and five sacks despite missing three games due to a calf injury.

With Bishop and starting "Buck" LB A.J. Hawk both sidelined with injuries in December, a pair of young linebackers, second-year man Robert Francois and rookie D.J. Smith, were pressed into duty and responded under the direction of Moss. In his two starts (Weeks 13-14), Francois posted 17 total tackles, an interception and a forced fumble. He also recorded an INT at Detroit in Week 12 when he came in for an injured Hawk.

Smith was the lone Green Bay rookie to appear in all 16 games in 2011, and his three starts paced the team's rookies. In those starts (Weeks 13-15), Smith led the team with 30 tackles over that span, while adding an INT vs. Oakland in Week 14.

In 2010, Moss was a member of a staff that helped Green Bay finish No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game, the team's best mark since 1996 (13.1). The Packers finished No. 5 in overall defense, the team's second straight top-five ranking. It marked the first time since 1968-69 that Green Bay accomplished that feat in consecutive seasons.

After veteran LB Nick Barnett was lost for the season in Week 4 due to a wrist injury, Bishop stepped into the starting role at "Mack" LB for the remainder of the season and flourished under Moss' tutelage. Bishop finished second on the team with 121 tackles, while posting three sacks. His career-high 10 passes defensed were the most by a Packers LB since John Anderson recorded 15 in 1981.

Hawk played in all 16 contests with 15 starts at the other inside-linebacker spot, the "Buck" position, and assumed more of an every-down role with nickel LB Brandon Chillar limited to just eight games due to a shoulder injury. Hawk paced the team with 134 tackles, his fifth straight season either leading the team or finishing second in the category. He added a career-high three interceptions, which tied for the lead among NFL linebackers, and matched his career best with nine passes defensed to earn Pro Bowl recognition for the first time in his career.

In '09, Moss was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay led the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history, and the average of 83.3 rushing yards allowed per game set a team record for any season.

Barnett returned from a serious knee injury to start all 16 games at MLB and lead the team in tackles with 122 in '09, a franchise-record fifth time in his career that he led the squad in tackles. Barnett also registered a career-high four sacks and led the linebackers with eight passes defensed. Hawk started 14 games at BLB, finished second on the team to Barnett with 87 tackles and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2008, with the addition of free-agent signee Chillar and the continued development of Bishop, Moss had a deep linebacking corps, and it was needed when Barnett was lost for the season to a torn ACL in Week 10. Hawk made a rather seamless transition to middle linebacker to fill Barnett's spot, while Bishop and Chillar both contributed at Hawk's former weak-side position.

The previous year, Moss helped Barnett continue his progression from steady performer to true team leader with a Pro Bowl-caliber year. Barnett was named second-team All-Pro after leading the Packers in tackles for the fourth time in five seasons and posting a (then) career-high 3½ sacks along with two interceptions and numerous big plays late in games.

Moss spent a total of six seasons with the Saints, where he also coached linebackers. Originally hired by the Saints in 2000 as defensive assistant/quality control, he was promoted to linebackers coach near the end of that season to replace John Bunting, who departed to become head coach at the University of North Carolina. Moss began his coaching career in 1998 as a defensive quality-control assistant for the Seattle Seahawks, the club for whom he played his final three NFL seasons.

A veteran of 11 seasons and 155 NFL games (146 starts), the former linebacker played for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-90) and the Los Angeles Raiders (1991-94), in addition to the Seahawks (1995-97). Over the course of his career, Moss recorded 768 tackles, 20½ sacks and six interceptions, and recovered one fumble for a TD.

In 1993, when he led the Raiders in tackles on a team that advanced to the AFC Divisional playoffs, he earned the Ed Block Courage Award after a vote of his teammates. Moss also was a three-time defensive captain and received the 1996 NFL Players Association Unsung Hero Award while with the Seahawks.

A four-year letterman at the University of Miami (Fla.), he and current Packers senior personnel executive Alonzo Highsmith helped the Hurricanes win the national championship after the 1983 season under Howard Schnellenberger.

Born Dec. 24, 1965, in Miami, Fla., Moss attended Miami (Fla.) Southridge High School and was an all-state linebacker. Moss and his wife, Zoila, have three sons, Winston Jr., 18, Robert, 13, and Marcus, 10, and two daughters, Victoria, 17, and Isabella, 4. In his spare time, Moss enjoys spending time with his family and playing golf.

DOM CAPERS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

27th NFL Season • Fourth Packers Season

Entering his 27th season in the NFL, Dom Capers begins his fourth year with the Packers in 2012 as the club's defensive coordinator.

Named to his position on Jan. 19, 2009, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Capers is one of the most experienced coaches in the league, spending time with seven different franchises before coming to Green Bay.

Since Capers took over as Green Bay's defensive coordinator in '09, the team ranks No. 1 in the NFL in total takeaways (110), No. 1 in interceptions (85), No. 3 in opponent passer rating (72.7) and No. 4 in points allowed (18.7).

In 2011, the Packers led the league in INTs (31) for the second time in three seasons (also '09), and tied San Francisco for the most total takeaways (38). The INT total was the best registered by Green Bay since 1962 (also 31) and brought the three-year tally under Capers to 85, the most by the Packers over a three-year span since they posted 95 INTs from 1943-45.

Capers' defense was well-represented in the Pro Bowl with NT B.J. Raji, LB Clay Matthews and CB Charles Woodson all being honored in 2011. It marked the first time since 1967 that the Packers had a defensive lineman, a linebacker and a defensive back earn Pro Bowl recognition in the same season.

In 2010, Capers coordinated a unit that finished No. 2 in the league in scoring defense, allowing just 15.0 points per game. That was the team's best ranking since finishing No. 1 in 1996 (13.1 ppg), and the 24 TDs allowed were the team's fewest since '96 as well (19).

The Packers also finished No. 5 in overall defense (309.1 yards per game), which, coupled with the team's No. 2 ranking in 2009, gave the Packers a top-five overall defense in consecutive years for the first time since 1968-69.

That No. 2 ranking in Capers' first season, when he guided the transition to the 3-4 scheme, highlighted one of the biggest statistical turnarounds in franchise history, as the Packers improved from the No. 20 spot in 2008. They also ranked No. 1 against the run in 2009 after a No. 26 ranking in that category before Capers' arrival. That top ranking in rushing defense was a first in franchise history, and the average of 83.3 rushing yards per game set a team record. In '09, the Packers also led the NFL with 40 takeaways and 30 INTs, the first time Green Bay led the league in INTs since 1965.

Under Capers' tutelage, veteran CB Charles Woodson posted perhaps his finest all-around season in '09 as he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press and was selected to virtually every All-Pro team. It was the third time in Capers' career as a defensive coordinator that one of his players earned the top defensive honor from AP, as Woodson joined Miami DE Jason Taylor (2006) and Pittsburgh CB Rod Woodson (1993). Capers nearly had a fourth protégé win the award in 2010, as LB Clay Matthews finished runner-up in the voting to Pittsburgh S Troy Polamalu.

Capers was honored with an award of his own in '09 as he was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News in a vote conducted by 53 current NFL head coaches and league executives.

Capers joined the Packers after one season with the New England Patriots as special assistant – secondary. Prior to that, he had defensive-coordinator responsibilities for two seasons with the Miami Dolphins, holding the titles of special assistant to the head coach (2006) and defensive coordinator (2007). After inheriting a defense that had allowed 317.0 total yards per game (No. 18) in 2005, Capers made an immediate impact as Miami finished fourth in overall defense (289.1 ypg) in '06.

Capers served as the head coach of the expansion Houston Texans for the first five seasons of the franchise's history. He was hired in January 2001, more than a year before Houston's inaugural season in 2002.

From 1999-2000, Capers was the defensive coordinator in Jacksonville, where under his guidance the Jaguars improved from 25th in the NFL in total defense in 1998 to fourth in 1999. Jacksonville also allowed the fewest points (217) in the NFL in '99, and Capers was named NFL Assistant Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA and USA Today.

Capers served as a head coach for the first time in his career from 1995-98 with the expansion Carolina Panthers, guiding that team from its origin to the NFC title game in just two seasons. In 1996, Carolina won its last seven games en route to a 12-4 record and the NFC West title. The Panthers defeated the defending Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys in the divisional playoffs before falling to the Packers at Lambeau Field in the NFC Championship. Capers was honored with all of the major Coach of the Year awards in '96, including the AP's honor.

Prior to taking over in Carolina, Capers served as a defensive coordinator for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1992-94, the first time in his coaching career that he ran a defense. His unit ranked third in the NFL in total defense in '93, second in '94, and the Steelers won the AFC Central in '92 and '94.

Capers' first NFL coaching stop came with the New Orleans Saints, where he served as the defensive backs coach for six seasons (1986-91). He helped the Saints earn their first three playoff berths in franchise history, and he worked under head coach Jim Mora, whom he also assisted with the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1984-85 as the Stars won the league title both seasons.

Capers began his coaching career by spending 12 seasons at the collegiate level, beginning with a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kent State (1972-74). He went on to coach defensive backs at Hawaii (1975-76), San Jose State (1977), California (1978-79), Tennessee (1980-81) and Ohio State (1982-83).

Capers played safety and linebacker for Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio, from 1968-71, and graduated with a degree in physical education and a minor in psychology. He also earned his master's degree in administration from Kent State. In May 2012, Capers delivered the commencement address at Mount Union and was awarded an honorary doctorate of humane letters.

Capers grew up in Buffalo, Ohio, where he was a star athlete at Meadowbrook High School. He still hosts an annual charity golf tournament in the area to raise money for the Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center's cardiac rehab unit, and for a college scholarship in the name of Dale Dickson, Capers' former high school football coach who died of a heart attack.

Born Aug. 7, 1950, in Cambridge, Ohio, Capers lives in Green Bay with his wife, Karen.

TOM CLEMENTS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

16th Season as NFL Coach • Seventh Packers Season

Tom Clements, entering his 20th season in the coaching profession, is in his first year as Green Bay's offensive coordinator.

Now in his 16th overall NFL season, Clements was named to his current position on Feb. 2, 2012, after serving as Green Bay's quarterbacks coach for the previous six seasons (2006-11). Having originally joined the Packers on Jan. 29, 2006, Clements also served as offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills from 2004-05 and quarterbacks coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-03), Kansas City Chiefs (2000) and New Orleans Saints (1997-99).

In Green Bay, Clements' extensive tutelage of Aaron Rodgers paid dividends, culminating with Rodgers' 2011 campaign that saw him earn NFL Most Valuable Player honors from The Associated Press. Rodgers set an NFL record with a 122.5 passer rating and franchise marks for TD passes (45), passing yards (4,643), completion percentage (68.3), yards per attempt (9.25), TD/INT ratio (7.50) and 300-yard games (eight).

Rodgers' career passer rating of 104.1 ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts), and his 17,037 passing yards from 2008-11 were the most by a quarterback in his first four seasons as a starter in NFL history, besting the previous mark held by Peyton Manning (16,418, 1998-2001). From 2008-11, Rodgers ranked No. 2 in the NFL in passing TDs (131), No. 1 in passer rating (105.0), No. 2 in yards per attempt (8.29) and No. 1 in 25-yard passes (150). In 62 regular-season starts under Clements' guidance, Rodgers posted 22 games with 300-plus passing yards, 35 without an interception and 38 with a 100-plus passer rating.

Clements helped Rodgers become the first QB in NFL history to register two seasons with 500-plus attempts and seven or fewer INTs (2009 and 2011) as well as the only 4,000-yard passer in league history to throw six or fewer INTs (2011). Rodgers ranks No. 1 in NFL history with a career interception percentage of 1.8.

Clements also tutored former Packers QB Matt Flynn, a seventh-round choice by the club in 2008. Flynn set single-game franchise records in the 2011 season finale with 480 passing yards and six TDs vs. Detroit, becoming just the third QB in NFL history (Y.A. Tittle, Joe Namath) to throw for 480-plus yards and six-plus TDs in a game. Combined with Rodgers' career-high five TD passes the previous week vs. Chicago, it marked the first time in the history of the NFL that a team had two different QBs each throw five-plus TDs in consecutive games.

Rodgers' first 4,000-yard season in 2008, his debut season as a starter, gave the Packers 4,000-yard passers in consecutive seasons for just the second time in team history, and for the first time in league history those back-to-back 4,000-yard passers were different QBs.

The previous two seasons, in addition to tutoring Rodgers as the backup and heir apparent, Clements oversaw a mini-renaissance of Brett Favre's career. In 2006, Favre reduced his interceptions from a career-high 29 the year before to just 18, setting the stage for a near-MVP season in 2007, when he surpassed 4,000 yards passing for the fifth time. He also posted a then career-best completion percentage of 66.5 and a QB rating of 95.7 that was his third best at that point in leading the Packers back to the playoffs.

Before coming to Green Bay, Clements spent two seasons (2004-05) as offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills. In 2004, the Bills' offense increased its scoring output by 152 points and reduced its number of sacks allowed from 51 to 38, fewest by a Bills team since 1999. The unit was highlighted by RB Willis McGahee, who became the fifth running back in Bills history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, covering each year of Clements' tenure. In addition, QB Kelly Holcomb set a club record in 2005 with a 67.39 completion percentage, surpassing Jim Kelly's 1991 mark, 64.14 percent.

Prior to joining the Bills, Clements served as Pittsburgh's quarterbacks coach for three seasons (2001-03) under Bill Cowher. In 2002, he helped Tommy Maddox earn the Comeback Player of the Year award from AP, as Pittsburgh's passing offense ranked seventh in the NFL, its highest finish since 1980 with Terry Bradshaw under center.

Clements also worked with Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (2001) and Kansas City's Elvis Grbac (2000) during each quarterback's best season, both culminating in Pro Bowl berths. Mike Ditka gave Clements his first NFL coaching job, hiring him to coach the Saints' quarterbacks (1997-99), a group that included Jake Delhomme and Kerry Collins.

Prior to his post with the Saints, Clements served under Lou Holtz as quarterbacks coach (1992-94) and wide receivers/assistant head coach (1995) at his alma mater, Notre Dame. While with the Fighting Irish, Clements coached eventual 1993 NFL Rookie of the Year QB Rick Mirer, and WR Derrick Mayes, the Packers' second-round draft pick in 1996. In addition, he tutored QB Ron Powlus, Notre Dame's career passing leader in attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns at the time of his graduation.

Inducted into the Canadian Football League's Hall of Fame in 1994, Clements played quarterback for Ottawa (1975-78), Saskatchewan/Hamilton (1979), Hamilton (1981-82) and Winnipeg (1983-87) during a 12-year career in the CFL. Selected seven times as a divisional All-Star, Clements guided two teams, Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984), to Grey Cup Championships, earning the Outstanding Offensive Player award in each game. The league's Rookie of the Year in 1975 and Most Valuable Player in 1987, Clements completed 2,807 of 4,657 passes (60.3 percent) for 39,041 yards and 252 touchdowns during his CFL career.

Clements also spent one season, 1980, as a quarterback for Marv Levy's Kansas City Chiefs.

A three-year starter at Notre Dame (1972-74) under Ara Parseghian, Clements led the Irish to a 29-5 record, including an unblemished national championship season in 1973. An All-American in 1974, he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting when Archie Griffin earned the award. Clements received his degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1975.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked from 1988-92 for Bell, Boyd & Lloyd (now known as K&L Gates), a Chicago-based law firm. He pursued his law degree during his CFL playing career, graduating magna cum laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in 1986. In 1994, while on the Notre Dame coaching staff, Clements was an adjunct associate professor of law at the university's law school, where he taught "Sports and the Law."

Clements was born June 18, 1953, in McKees Rocks, Pa. He and his wife, Kathe, live in Green Bay. The couple has two grown children: daughter, Stevie, and son, Tom.

MARK LOVAT

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

14th NFL Season • 14th Packers Season

Mark Lovat is now in his 14th year with the Packers and his third as the club's strength and conditioning coordinator. Promoted to his current position on Feb. 15, 2010, Lovat swapped roles with Dave Redding, for whom Lovat served as an assistant in 2009.

Since joining the team full-time on Jan. 25, 1999, Lovat has worked under three Green Bay strength and conditioning coordinators – Barry Rubin (1999-2005), Rock Gullickson (2006-08) and Redding, who retired following the 2010 season. Lovat also previously served two summer internships in the club's weight room.

Lovat was named the NFL Strength Coach of the Year for his work in 2011 by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society, an award based on a vote of his peers in the field. Lovat became the third Green Bay strength coach to win the prestigious honor, joining Kent Johnston (1997) and Gullickson (2007).

In 2010, Lovat was honored by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society with the Super Bowl Achievement Award.

An accomplished athlete himself, Lovat earned a Division I baseball scholarship to Butler University in Indianapolis, starting three seasons at shortstop and second base for the Bulldogs. He also received the Helen Tewksbury Award for academic and athletic leadership during the course of his playing career.

After graduating cum laude and with high honors from Butler in 1992 with a B.A. degree in Spanish and international studies, Lovat spent four years at Lake Havasu City (Ariz.) High School, teaching Spanish as well as coaching football and baseball.

The son of former Green Bay offensive line coach Tom Lovat (1980, 1992-98), Mark earlier had graduated from Carmel (Ind.) High School, where he was a member of a state championship football team (1986) and captain of the baseball team (1988). A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), Lovat became a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) in April 2000 and was nominated in 2004 by the association for the Sports Medicine/Rehabilitation Specialist of the Year Award for his work in the successful rehabilitation of injuries to Packers tackles Chad Clifton and Mark Tauscher.

In 2005, Lovat completed his master's degree in exercise science and performance enhancement from California University of Pennsylvania. He also has earned certifications as a performance-enhancement specialist (PES) and as a corrective exercise specialist (CES) from the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Additionally, in 2002 he achieved a Level 1 certification through USA Weightlifting, the governing body of the U.S. Olympic weightlifting team.

Lovat is certified in the Functional Movement Screen (FMS) and completed a human movement science course as part of his continuing education. He also is a representative for Forge Strength Systems, a strength equipment company founded by Johnston, former Packers and Seattle Seahawks and current Cleveland Browns strength and conditioning coach.

Born Oct. 9, 1969, in Pocatello, Idaho, Lovat is single and lives in Green Bay. He enjoys music and travel in his spare time.

LEADING ON THE FIELD, AT THE CHECKOUT COUNTER

Packers quarterback Aaron Rodgers continued to establish himself as the face of the franchise during his fourth season as the starter in 2011. He capped his campaign by earning NFL MVP honors, a year after being named MVP of Super Bowl XLV after leading Green Bay to its record 13th world championship.

Off the field, his popularity among the fan base was reflected by his finish as the runaway leader among jerseys sold in the Packers Pro Shop. The Pro Shop – which is housed in the Lambeau Field Atrium, but boasts worldwide distribution through www.packersproshop.com – sold over 63,000 jersey units in the last fiscal year.

The following is a list of the top five sellers along with customized authentic and replica jerseys that fans can put their own name and numbers on.

SHAWN SLOCUM

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Seventh NFL Season • Seventh Packers Season

Entering his seventh year in the NFL, Shawn Slocum begins his fourth season as the Green Bay Packers' special teams coordinator in 2012 after joining the club in 2006 as assistant special teams coach. Elevated to his current position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, following the retirement of Mike Stock, Slocum brings a total of 21 years of coaching experience to his post, the first 15 at the college level.

Having originally joined the Packers on Feb. 6, 2006, Slocum's background in the college ranks has proven valuable in working with young players at the pro level.

The 2011 season was one that saw the Packers get contributions from all areas of their special teams as the team ranked No. 13 overall in the Dallas Morning News' annual postseason rankings, the club's highest finish since 2007 (No. 7).

Last season, Slocum tutored rookie WR Randall Cobb, who ranked No. 2 in the NFL in kickoff return average (27.7) on his way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate and to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. He became the first player in team history and the first NFL rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to register a 100-yard kickoff return and an 80-yard punt return in the same season, highlighted by his NFL-record-tying 108-yard kickoff return for a TD in the opener vs. New Orleans, the team's first kickoff return for a TD since 2000.

Under Slocum's direction in 2011, K Mason Crosby set a new career high for field-goal percentage (85.7 percent, 24-of-28) on his way to being named first alternate for the Pro Bowl. He finished No. 4 in the NFL among kickers with 140 points, No. 3 in the league with a career-high 49 touchbacks, and his franchise-record 68 extra points were the second most in a season in NFL history. His streak of 23 consecutive field goals made (Week 13, 2010 - Week 12, 2011) set a team record, topping Chris Jacke's mark of 17 straight in 1993.

In his second season in 2011, P Tim Masthay established new franchise records for both gross (45.6) and net punting averages (38.6). He became the first punter in franchise history to land four punts inside the 20-yard line in consecutive games when he did so at Detroit and at the N.Y. Giants in Weeks 12-13, earning NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance against the Giants.

In 2011, special-teams penalties by the Packers were cut in half from the year before, as just nine accepted fouls went against Green Bay during the regular season, a total that tied with New England for the second fewest in the NFL.

In 2010, Slocum guided first-year man Masthay to a 37.6-yard net average, which matched the best mark by a Packers punter to that point since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007). In 2009, Slocum's first year as coordinator, LB Desmond Bishop, S Derrick Martin and TE Spencer Havner each recorded 20-plus tackles on special teams, the first Green Bay trio to accomplish that feat since 1984.

In his three seasons as Green Bay's special teams assistant, Slocum helped tutor CB Will Blackmon as he tied the franchise record with three punt returns for touchdowns, accomplishing that feat over a two-year span (2007-08). Along with his special teams duties, Slocum also previously assisted Winston Moss in coaching the linebackers.

Slocum joined the Packers from the University of Mississippi, where he served one year as assistant head coach and linebackers coach. Under Slocum's tutelage, LB Patrick Willis garnered first-team All-America honors from CollegeFootballNews.com and The Associated Press as a junior and was a semifinalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given annually to the nation's outstanding defensive player. One year later, Willis was drafted in the first round by the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to Ole Miss, Slocum took a two-year hiatus from coaching, as owner and president of Slocum Development Group, Inc., a custom home building and commercial development company in Texas.

Slocum was the special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Texas A&M (2000-02) in his third stint with the Aggies. Slocum's units contributed to a team that appeared in two bowl games during that time.

Before returning to his alma mater, Slocum spent two seasons (1998-99) with the University of Southern California as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. During his tenure, Slocum worked with future NFL players Chris Claiborne, David Gibson, Marcus Steele and Zeke Moreno. In 1998, Claiborne earned both All-America recognition and the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker in leading the Trojans to the Sun Bowl.

Earlier, Slocum spent seven seasons at Texas A&M (1991-97), and assisted the Aggies to five bowl games, including four Cotton Bowl appearances. During that seven-year term, in which the school was 94-28-2, he coached 14 players who went on to play in the NFL. The 94 wins were sixth in the country and marked the most wins by any Texas Division I school in any decade.

While at Texas A&M as special teams and tight ends coach (1991-93), he helped the Aggies to three straight Southwest Conference championships. The following year, he transitioned from coaching tight ends to linebackers while maintaining his special-teams responsibilities. In that role (1994-97), he recruited and coached All-American LB, Lombardi Award winner and future Dallas Cowboy Dat Nguyen.

On special teams, Slocum helped mold eventual Pro Bowl P Shane Lechler, a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 selection in college. Along with numerous school and conference records, Lechler finished his A&M career with NCAA marks for career punting average (44.7) and career games averaging at least 40 yards (37).

Slocum began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M in 1989. He moved on to the University of Pittsburgh the following season (1990) as a graduate-assistant defensive coach, serving on a Paul Hackett staff that included McCarthy, then a graduate assistant helping with the Panthers' quarterbacks.

A linebacker in college, Slocum earned one letter from Texas A&M in 1984 and was a member of the 12th Man kickoff squad from 1983-84. He earned a B.S. degree in construction management from the school in 1988.

Born Feb. 21, 1965, in Bryan, Texas, Slocum is married to the former Michelle Biehl. He has four children: daughters Tayler, 19, who will be a sophomore at Texas A&M in the fall, Jordyn, 17, and Haley, 14, and son Jaxon, 9. His father, R.C., is the winningest head coach in Texas A&M history, having guided the program for 14 years (1989-2002). In his spare time, Slocum enjoys golfing, hunting, fishing and spending time with his family.

EDGAR BENNETT

WIDE RECEIVERS

Eighth Season as NFL Coach • 12th Packers Season

Edgar Bennett begins his 20th NFL season in 2012, his 18th in Green Bay and his second as the Packers' wide receivers coach after six seasons as running backs coach.

Named to his newest position on Feb. 25, 2011, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Bennett originally became a position coach on Jan. 28, 2005, for the running backs. He was re-named to that post on Jan. 17, 2006, for McCarthy's first season at the helm. He continues his "third" Green Bay tour after initially rejoining the club to head player development (2001-04), and after a tenure as one of the most productive running backs in Green Bay history (1992-96).

To further enhance his mastery and understanding of the passing game, Bennett embraced his appointment to the front of the wide receivers' meeting room in 2011. Under his watch, the group posted one of the most productive seasons in franchise history, setting new team records and finishing first in the NFL among receiving corps in yards (3,667), yards per game (229.2) and touchdowns (38). The touchdown total was the second highest in league history by a receiver group and all five players at the position posted 25 or more catches for the first time in franchise annals.

In what was a testament to the intense emphasis on ball security that marked Bennett's career as a player and now as a coach, the receiver group did not commit a turnover in 2011, despite a combined 237 touches on offense.

On an individual level, Bennett helped guide Greg Jennings to his second consecutive Pro Bowl berth during a season that saw the sixth-year pro on pace for several career highs before a knee injury kept him out of the final three regular-season games. Additionally, he was instrumental in the development and emergence of fourth-year WR Jordy Nelson, who posted new career highs in every major statistical category and was named an alternate for the Pro Bowl. Nelson led the team with 68 catches for 1,263 yards and an impressive 15 touchdowns, the third most in team history. The TD mark ranked No. 3 in the NFL and his per-reception average of 18.6 yards was the second highest in the league among players with 50 or more catches in 2011.

Prior to his transition to becoming wide receivers coach, Bennett oversaw the development of several key running backs in Green Bay's stable from 2005-10.

James Starks was a sixth-round draft pick in 2010 who missed all of training camp and the first 11 games of his rookie season recovering from a hamstring injury – this after missing his senior season in college following shoulder surgery. But when Starks was healthy, Bennett got him ready to go. He rushed for 73 yards in his NFL debut vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5) and added a franchise rookie playoff-record 123 yards in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (Jan. 9).

Starks was needed during the team's stretch run because of a season-ending ankle injury to Ryan Grant in Week 1, who became just the third running back in team history to eclipse 1,200 yards in back-to-back seasons in 2008-09. Grant rapidly progressed in 2007, his first season with the Packers, upon coming to the team in a trade at the end of training camp. Quickly brought up to speed under Bennett's tutelage, Grant emerged from a backfield-by-committee to become the starter at midseason, went on to rush for nearly 1,000 yards (including five 100-yard performances), and then set Green Bay postseason records with 201 yards and three touchdowns in a playoff victory over Seattle.

In 2006, Bennett oversaw the strong recovery from a torn quadriceps tendon by Ahman Green, whose sixth 1,000-yard season set a franchise record.

In his first season as a full-time coach in 2005, Bennett saw the team start five halfbacks and feature six after season-ending injuries claimed Green and Najeh Davenport (ankle). A rib injury also sidelined No. 3 back Tony Fisher for two games.

Faced with steep adversity, Bennett took Samkon Gado, a non-drafted player fresh off the practice squad, and guided him to the second-most productive season by a rookie running back in franchise history. Gado, who had started only two games at Liberty University, ran for 582 yards, including three 100-yard games.

Initially joining the club as its director of player development April 10, 2001, Bennett spent four years helping players become acclimated to their roles as Green Bay Packers, both on and off the field, especially in terms of their expected contributions to their teammates, the community and team chemistry. Bennett's efforts in this area were recognized in 2003 as the Packers' player development department was named the best in the NFC.

Green Bay's fourth-round draft selection in 1992, Bennett is the 10th-ranked rusher in Packers history. The former Florida State athlete gained 3,353 yards over his five seasons in green and gold (1992-96). In 1995, he became only the fifth player in team annals to rush for 1,000 yards in a season (1,067) and the first since Terdell Middleton in 1978. He also continues to hold the club single-season record for receptions by a running back with 78, set in 1994. His accomplishments were appropriately honored in 2005 upon his induction into the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame.

After a torn Achilles' heel suffered in the Packers' 1997 preseason opener ended his season, a successfully rehabbed Bennett signed with Chicago as an unrestricted free agent in 1998 and led the Bears in rushing that season with 611 yards. After one more season with Chicago, Bennett retired from football in 2000.

A four-year starter at fullback for Florida State (1987, 1989-91), Bennett holds a bachelor's degree in social science, with a primary emphasis in political science and a secondary emphasis in sociology. Previously, he was a first-team all-state back at Robert E. Lee High School in Jacksonville, where he played with former Packers safety LeRoy Butler, who later also would be his teammate at FSU and in Green Bay. Bennett was inducted into the Florida State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

Bennett and his wife, Mindy, have a son, Edgar IV, and a daughter, Elyse Morgan, and live in Green Bay. In 2003, he created the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon, an event that brings together Packers players, coaches and staff. In recent years, the event has supported Families of Children with Cancer, a foundation that gives financial and social support to local families whose children are receiving treatments for cancer or bone marrow failure. The '06 competition, which raised $58,500, saw a local sponsor roll a perfect game. In its initial year, the Bowl-A-Thon supported the March of Dimes. In May 2006, Bennett received the Nice Guy Award at the Doug Jirschele Sports Awards Banquet in Clintonville, Wis.

JAMES CAMPEN

OFFENSIVE LINE

Ninth Season as NFL Coach • Ninth Packers Season

James Campen begins his ninth campaign as a Packers coach, his 14th overall with the organization.

Promoted to offensive line coach on Jan. 15, 2007, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Campen moved up from his position as assistant offensive line coach in McCarthy's first season at the helm. Prior to that, Campen filled the role of assistant offensive line/quality control coach for two seasons following nine years in the high school ranks.

In each of Campen's five seasons in his current position, the Packers have finished in the top 10 in the league in total offense. In 2011, the line helped the offense set franchise records for points (560), also the second most in NFL history; total net yards (6,482); total net passing yards (4,924); and fewest giveaways (14). QB Aaron Rodgers was named the NFL Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press after setting an NFL single-season record for passer rating (122.5) and team marks for touchdown passes (45), passing yards (4,643) and completion percentage (68.3).

A natural teacher, he has frequently taken young linemen and prepared them to be significant contributors in the early stages of their careers. Last season, Campen tutored second-year T Marshall Newhouse, who didn't see any action as a rookie in 2010. He went on to start 13 contests (10 at LT, three at RT) in 2011 with veteran LT Chad Clifton missing significant time due to injuries and second-year RT Bryan Bulaga also sidelined for four games.

Under Campen's guidance, veteran C Scott Wells earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2011 for the first time in his career as he became the first Green Bay center to be honored since Mike Flanagan in 2003. Wells also was named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated, while RG Josh Sitton was named a Pro Bowl alternate for the second straight season.

In 2010, Bulaga started the final 12 regular-season games and all four postseason contests at RT after veteran Mark Tauscher sustained a season-ending shoulder injury in Week 4. Bulaga was selected to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA.

Bulaga wasn't the only Green Bay lineman to be honored in 2010, with the veteran Clifton earning Pro Bowl recognition for the second time in his career. Clifton started all 16 games, one of four linemen (LG Daryn Colledge, Wells, Sitton) to open every game at the same spot that season. Sitton was named the 2010 Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2009, Sitton started every game at RG in just his second season in the league, while T.J. Lang played three different positions over the course of his rookie year and started games at both tackle spots when needed. Even though injuries contributed to the Packers utilizing six different starting combinations along the line in '09, RB Ryan Grant posted career highs in rushing yards (1,253) and touchdowns (11), and Rodgers was sacked just 10 times over the final seven games.

In the first two years at his current post, Campen also worked hands-on in the development of three linemen – Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll – who ended up starting a combined 103 games from 2006-08. In 2007, the unit allowed only 19 sacks all season, and Clifton earned his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Campen made the transition from assistant offensive line coach smoothly, having worked extensively with Colledge, Spitz and Moll when all three were rookie draft choices in 2006. Alongside Joe Philbin, Campen helped teach the zone-blocking scheme to the youngsters and the veterans, who all relate well to him as a former player.

In 2005, Campen made his mark tutoring young linemen as Wells, then in just his second year, filled in at center for an injured Flanagan on several occasions and for eight games at guard after coaches altered the lineup. He also helped Clifton be named an alternate for the Pro Bowl, while seventh-round draft pick William Whitticker started 14 games at guard and became the team's lowest-drafted rookie to start the season opener since 1972.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined Packers on Feb. 27, 2004, as assistant offensive line/quality control; promoted by Mike McCarthy to assistant offensive line coach on Jan. 17, 2006, and to offensive line coach on Jan. 15, 2007.
- In each of his five seasons as offensive line coach, the Packers have finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total offense.
- Had one of his linemen selected to the Pro Bowl each of the past two seasons, with T Chad Clifton earning recognition in 2010 and C Scott Wells in 2011.
- Played in 61 games with the Packers, including 42 starts. Was the center for quarterback Brett Favre's first start, Sept. 27, 1992, vs. Pittsburgh.
- Selected as a team captain at every level of football.

Campen's direction in 2004 helped the Packers' trench men set a team record for fewest sacks allowed (14) and block for a 1,000-yard rusher for a sixth consecutive season, a franchise record. His assistance helped Marco Rivera to be voted to the Pro Bowl, the first Green Bay offensive lineman in 33 years to make three straight all-star appearances.

Formerly a player with the Packers, Campen was a Plan B free agency addition from the New Orleans Saints in 1989. He played in 15 games for Green Bay that season, then took over as the starter at center in 1990, starting all 16 games and grading out as the most consistent member of the offensive line. Campen went on to play in 13 games in both 1991 and '92, missing three contests in '91 because of a calf injury and three others in '92 with a sprained knee.

Green Bay's starting center Sept. 27, 1992, vs. Pittsburgh, Campen literally launched Brett Favre's 285-game starting streak, an NFL record among quarterbacks. His playing career came to an end in 1993 when he suffered a torn hamstring in Week 4 at Dallas (Oct. 3) and later underwent season-ending surgery. Campen played in 61 games overall with the Packers, making 42 of 48 starts from 1990-92.

Campen broke into the NFL by talking his way into a free-agent contract with the Saints in 1986 after going undrafted. Waived during training camp, he made the New Orleans roster in 1987 on his second try and started three games for the Saints. He subsequently was active for 12 games in 1988, playing in three.

A two-year starter at Tulane (1984-85), Campen received the school's Dr. Eamon Kelley Award as a senior, honoring the top student-athlete in the class who bettered the campus and community. He was the first football player to serve as a resident advisor in the dormitory. Campen earlier had begun his collegiate career at Sacramento (Calif.) City Junior College (1982-83).

Campen began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at his prep alma mater, Ponderosa High School in Shingle Springs, Calif. After four seasons, he was named head coach and went 29-20-1 over the next five years, competing in the Sierra Valley Conference, one of the most competitive high school leagues in the state. As a Ponderosa student-athlete, he earned two letters in football and three in wrestling.

Possessor of a B.A. degree in social science with an emphasis in criminal justice, Campen served as a reserve deputy sheriff in New Orleans and volunteered with the Green Bay Police Department in a similar capacity while a Packers player.

Campen was born June 11, 1964, in Sacramento, Calif. He and his family make their home in Suamico, Wis. Campen also takes time to be involved in the community, giving talks to local groups.

JERRY FONTENOT

TIGHT ENDS

Seventh Season as NFL Coach • Seventh Packers Season

Jerry Fontenot begins his seventh season with the Packers and his first as tight ends coach in 2012. He was moved to his new post on Feb. 13, 2012, as part of a staff shuffling on the offensive side of the ball that followed the departure of former offensive coordinator Joe Philbin, who was named head coach of the Miami Dolphins.

The tight ends assignment is another in the line of many that have highlighted the early portion of Fontenot's coaching career, one that started with an internship in the summer of 2006. Before being assigned to the tight ends, Fontenot received his first position-group appointment on Feb. 25, 2011, when Head Coach Mike McCarthy placed him in command of the team's running backs.

In what was a prolific offensive season that saw the Packers score the second-most points in NFL history (560), the running backs played a key role in providing a balance to what was the most productive yardage offense in franchise annals (6,482 yards). Primary contributions from the backfield came from veteran running back Ryan Grant and second-year man James Starks, who became the first pair of Green Bay backs to eclipse the 550-yard mark in the same season since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens did so in 1996.

Grant returned from a season-ending ankle injury that shelved him for almost all of 2010 and hit his stride as the season wore on, particularly in the last four games, when he carried 42 times for 243 yards (5.8 avg.) and two TDs. Starks started strong on the heels of what was a productive 2010 postseason, posting 503 yards on 109 carries (4.6 avg.) in the first nine games.

Fontenot also helped guide the success of John Kuhn, the veteran fullback who was voted to start the Pro Bowl for the NFC at season's end, the first time he'd been named to the all-star team. Additionally, Kuhn earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and led the team's backs with six total touchdowns (four rushing, two receiving), becoming the first Packer to score both a rushing and receiving TD in four consecutive seasons since Ahman Green did so from 2001-04.

Fontenot originally joined the Packers in the summer of 2006 as a coaching intern and remained with the team that season as an offensive assistant, working with the offensive line. He was promoted to assistant offensive line coach by McCarthy on Jan. 15, 2007, and spent the next four seasons in that role.

During his five seasons working with the offensive line, Fontenot contributed to the development of several linemen. In 2010, veteran LT Chad Clifton earned Pro Bowl recognition for the second time in his career as he started all 16 contests. Rookie Bryan Bulaga started 12 games at RT after veteran Mark Tauscher was lost for the season due to a shoulder injury, and went on to earn All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly/PFWA. RG Josh Sitton was named the 2010 Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate.

In 2009, Sitton started every game at RG in just his second season, while rookie T.J. Lang played three different positions at times and started games at both tackle spots when needed. From 2006-08, the '06 draft trio of Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll combined for 103 starts.

A starting center for the New Orleans Saints during McCarthy's five-year tenure there as offensive coordinator, Fontenot made an indelible impression on McCarthy with his leadership, intelligence, and the respect he commanded in the locker room, qualities he displayed in his first foray into coaching.

Not far removed from his playing days, which concluded after 16 seasons in 2004, Fontenot quickly showed he could relate well to players, prompting McCarthy to retain Fontenot in a full-time capacity in 2007 with the promotion of Philbin to offensive coordinator and James Campen to offensive line coach.

A longtime center, Fontenot played 239 NFL games with the Bears, Saints and Bengals from 1989 through 2004, proving to be extremely durable as a player. Originally a third-round draft choice by Chicago in 1989, Fontenot began a starting streak of 106 games in 1991 with the Bears that continued through his first one-plus seasons with the Saints, whom he joined in 1997 as an unrestricted free agent.

That streak ended with a season-ending knee injury in October 1998. Returning at the start of the 1999 season, Fontenot then started 80 consecutive games for the Saints through the end of the 2003 season before finishing his career with the Bengals in 2004. Fontenot was named a USA Today All-Joe Team selection in 2002 for his excellence without fanfare and his enduring leadership qualities.

In all, Fontenot played on four playoff teams, three with the Bears (1990, '91, '94) and one with the Saints (2000). He spent his first year out of football in 2005 working in broadcasting in the Chicago area, handling various football assignments with both WGN and ESPN, before deciding to give coaching a try, which he feels provides more fuel for his passion for the game.

A standout at Texas A&M and a sociology major, Fontenot played every position on the offensive line in college and helped lead the Aggies to three consecutive Southwest Conference titles from 1985 through 1987. He earned all-conference honors three times and was an honorable mention All-American as a junior and senior.

Born Nov. 21, 1966, in Lafayette, La., Fontenot was a four-sport star at Lafayette High School, earning all-state honors twice in football, finishing as state runner-up twice in the discus, and winning a state championship in baseball.

He and his wife, Stephanie, have three daughters – Gabrielle, Madeleine and Camille.

KEVIN GREENE

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Fourth Season as NFL Coach • Fourth Packers Season

Kevin Greene enters his fourth season with the Packers in 2012 as outside linebackers coach, his first full-time NFL coaching job after 15 years as a standout player.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Greene brings a wealth of experience at the outside linebacker spot and has played a key role in teaching that position in the Packers' 3-4 defensive scheme the past three seasons.

In 2011, Clay Matthews continued his standout play under Greene as he earned Pro Bowl recognition for the third straight season, the first Packer to be honored in each of his first three years in the NFL since RB John Brockington (1971-73). Matthews posted career highs in interceptions (three) and passes defensed (nine), while adding 69 tackles and six sacks. He finished No. 4 in the league with a combined 38½ QB knockdowns/hurries and became the first player in franchise history to score a defensive TD in each of his first three seasons in the NFL. With 29½ sacks from 2009-11, Matthews tied the franchise record (LB Tony Bennett) for the most sacks by a player in his first three seasons in the league.

Also under Greene's guidance in 2011, fourth-year LB Erik Walden finished No. 5 on the team with a career-high 86 tackles and matched his career best with three sacks.

In 2010, Matthews led the team with 13½ sacks, including back-to-back three-sack games to start the season, on his way to becoming the first Green Bay linebacker to earn first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press since Tim Harris in 1989. After opening-day starter Brad Jones and veteran backup Brady Poppinga were lost for the season with injuries sustained in Weeks 7 and 6, respectively, rookie free agent Frank Zombo moved into the starting lineup opposite Matthews. Under Greene's tutelage, Zombo started eight contests and registered 67 tackles, four sacks and two forced fumbles.

In his first season as a coach in 2009, Greene was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense.

Under Greene's direction, Matthews registered 10 sacks, the most by a Packers rookie since the statistic became official in 1982. He was selected to the Pro Bowl, the first Green Bay rookie to earn that honor since WR James Lofton in 1978, and also led all NFL rookies with three forced fumbles.

Greene tutored another rookie, seventh-round draft choice Jones, as he was inserted into veteran Aaron Kampman's starting spot after he sustained a season-ending knee injury. Jones posted four sacks, all in the final month of the season, to give the Packers their first rookie tandem with four-plus sacks in franchise history.

As a 3-4 outside linebacker during his playing careeer, Greene posted 160 career sacks for four different teams, ranking him third on the NFL's all-time list behind Bruce Smith and Reggie White and first all-time among linebackers. In 15 seasons (1985-99), he was a five-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time first-team All-Pro pick by AP. He recorded 10 double-digit sack seasons, which ranks third in league history behind Smith and White. Greene led his team in sacks 11 times and the league twice, and played in six conference championship games and one Super Bowl (XXX). He was a semifinalist in the Pro Football Hall of Fame balloting each year from 2008-11 and was a finalist in 2012.

Greene's pro career began in 1985 with the Los Angeles Rams, where he played his first eight seasons, six under future Packers defensive coordinator Fritz Shurmur (1985-90). He posted back-to-back seasons with a career-best 16½ sacks in 1988 and 1989. The latter year, he made his first Pro Bowl and was an AP second-team All-Pro choice.

In 1993, Greene went to the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he played for current Packers defensive coordinator Dom Capers the first two of his three seasons there. He was named first-team All-Pro and went to the Pro Bowl in 1994 with 14 sacks, tops in the league. In 1995, he went to his third Pro Bowl and helped lead the Steelers to an appearance in Super Bowl XXX.

In 1996, Greene reunited with Capers, who was then the head coach for the Carolina Panthers. He led the league in sacks for the second time, with 14½, and posted five consecutive multi-sack games. He was a first-team All-Pro for the second time and a Pro Bowler for the third straight year and fourth overall in helping the Panthers, a second-year expansion team, reach the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay.

Greene then spent one season with the San Francisco 49ers (1997) before returning to Carolina for his final two years (1998-99). In 1998, Greene tallied 15 sacks and a career-best two interceptions, earning his fifth Pro Bowl nod.

In addition to the 160 sacks, Greene finished his career with 26 fumble recoveries, tied for fourth all-time, and five interceptions. He had three returns for touchdowns (two fumbles, one INT) and also posted three safeties.

A walk-on at Auburn, Greene played two seasons (1983-84) for the Tigers and led the Southeastern Conference in sacks as a senior with 11. He was selected in both the NFL Draft, by the Rams in the fifth round (113th overall), and in the USFL territorial draft, by the Birmingham Stallions.

While earning a degree in criminal justice at Auburn, Greene also completed ROTC training and served as a captain in a 16-year career in the Army Reserve. He served his military commitments during the offseasons while playing in the NFL.

Greene was a two-year starter and honorable mention all-conference selection as a senior at Granite City South High (Ill.). He also played basketball and was a high jumper for the track team.

After his playing career ended, Greene worked in real estate and as a summer NFL coaching intern with five different clubs, including one in 2006 with Miami, where Capers was the Dolphins' defensive coordinator. His most recent coaching internship came in 2008 with the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers.

Greene was born July 31, 1962, in Schenectady, N.Y. He and his wife, Tara, have a son, Gavin, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

JOEL HILGENBERG

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Second Season as NFL Coach • Second Packers Season

Joel Hilgenberg begins his first season as the Packers' assistant offensive line coach after one season as the club's offensive quality control coach, continuing his coaching career after 10 seasons as an NFL offensive lineman.

Named to his new position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 13, 2012, Hilgenberg originally joined the Packers on Feb. 25, 2011, as offensive quality control coach. He had worked as a coaching intern with the team during training camp, mini-camp and a portion of OTAs in 2010, primarily assisting offensive line coach James Campen and then-assistant offensive line coach Jerry Fontenot.

As the offensive quality control coach in 2011, Hilgenberg's duties included breaking down game film and analyzing the opponent's defensive tendencies while also assisting with the offensive line.

Hilgenberg spent his entire 10-year playing career with the New Orleans Saints (1984-93), appearing in 142 games as a center/guard. In 1992, he started all 16 contests and was part of a line that allowed an NFL-low 15 sacks on the season on his way to earning Pro Bowl recognition at center.

Hilgenberg played in all 16 games with 14 starts at center in 1991 and yielded just one sack all season, including a streak of 10 consecutive games without allowing one. In addition to playing on the offensive line, he also handled long-snapping duties for the Saints throughout his career. In 2006, he was inducted into the Saints Hall of Fame.

Hilgenberg was selected by New Orleans in the fourth round (94th overall) of the 1984 NFL Draft out of the University of Iowa, where he earned second-team All-America honors in 1983. He was a first-team All-Big Ten selection as a junior and senior as he started every game in 1982-83 for a Hawkeyes team that went 17-7 and played in two bowl games over that span. Hilgenberg earned his degree from Iowa in interdepartmental studies.

Hilgenberg comes from a long line of Iowa centers. His father, Jerry, earned first-team All-America honors at Iowa as a center in 1953 and was drafted in the fourth round by the Cleveland Browns in 1954. His brothers, Jim and Jay, also played center at Iowa. Jay went on to play 13 seasons (1981-93) in the NFL with Chicago (1981-91), Cleveland (1992) and New Orleans (1993), earning Pro Bowl recognition seven times. Hilgenberg's late uncle, Wally, played linebacker in the NFL for 16 seasons with Detroit (1964-66) and Minnesota (1967-79).

Hilgenberg was born July 10, 1962, in Iowa City, Iowa, He and his wife, Jeanie, have a daughter, Anna, 12. Hilgenberg enjoys upland field hunting and golfing.

RIDING BIKES TO PRACTICE

No one is sure exactly when it started, but Packers players have been riding kids' bikes to training-camp practice for nearly half a century.

The tradition is believed to have originated in 1961, when the Packers constructed a new administration building on the stadium's north concourse.

Vince Lombardi was the first coach to ask his players to ride bikes to practice, in an effort to further the Packers' unique relationship with their fans.

BEN McADOO

QUARTERBACKS

Ninth NFL Season • Seventh Packers Season

Ben McAdoo begins his seventh season with the Packers, his first as the team's quarterbacks coach.

McAdoo was appointed to his current position on Feb. 13, 2012, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, as part of a series of staff changes on the offensive side of the ball that came in the aftermath of former coordinator Joe Philbin being named head coach of the Miami Dolphins. In his new role, McAdoo will work closely with reigning NFL Most Valuable Player Aaron Rodgers as he enters his fifth season as the franchise's starter under center.

Prior to drawing his most recent assignment, McAdoo served as the team's tight ends coach for six seasons.

In 2011, he helped fourth-year pro Jermichael Finley make his return to the field following a season-ending knee injury suffered in 2010. Finley was named a Pro Bowl alternate after playing in all 16 games for the first time and setting new career highs with 767 yards and eight touchdowns, while matching his previous career best with 55 catches and becoming the first tight end in franchise history to post two 55-catch seasons. In addition to Finley, McAdoo helped develop second-year men Tom Crabtree and Andrew Quarless into adept blockers up front. Quarless appeared in 10 games before suffering a season-ending knee injury of his own in Week 13 and Crabtree played in all 16 games, starting a career-high nine of them.

In 2010, Finley got off to a torrid start under McAdoo's tutelage, posting 21 catches for 301 yards and a touchdown in the opening four games. That included back-to-back 100-yard receiving performances as Finley joined Paul Coffman (1979) as the only TEs in team annals to accomplish that feat. Finley's three career 100-yard games already rank No. 2 in franchise history behind Coffman (six).

After Finley sustained his knee injury on the opening series at Washington in Week 5, Quarless, then a rookie, and Crabtree, who held a first-year player designation, moved into more significant roles under McAdoo's guidance. Quarless went on to post 21 receptions for 238 yards, the best marks by a Green Bay rookie TE in both categories since Bubba Franks (34-363) in 2000. Quarless' 62 receiving yards at Detroit in Week 14 were the most by a Packers rookie TE since Ron Kramer posted 68 at Detroit on Nov. 28, 1957.

In 2009, McAdoo oversaw one of the most productive seasons in team history by the tight ends. With the emergence of youngsters Finley and Spencer Havner, along with another year of steady production from veteran Donald Lee, Green Bay's tight ends posted a collective 99 receptions for 1,048 yards, franchise records in both categories.

Finley (55 receptions) and Lee (37) became the first tight-end duo in franchise history to each post 35-plus receptions in the same season, and they were one of only two tandems in the league to do so in 2009, along with New Orleans' Jeremy Shockey and David Thomas. Meanwhile, with Finley (five TDs) and Havner (four), the Packers were the only team in the NFL to have two tight ends catch at least four touchdown passes apiece.

The emergence of Finley, a third-round draft choice in 2008, was not a surprise after seeing the marked improvement he made in his first season. McAdoo helped Finley steadily learn the pro game as a rookie, and Finley flashed his tremendous potential over the final two games of the season, posting three receptions for 64 yards and his first NFL touchdown.

In 2007, it was former backup Lee enjoying a breakout year as he moved into a starting role. Lee posted career highs with 48 catches for 575 yards and six touchdowns, and he followed that up with consistent production in 2008-09 to become the first Packers tight end since Coffman (1981-83) to catch at least 35 passes in three consecutive seasons.

Upon arriving in Green Bay in 2006, McAdoo helped the Packers' tight ends adapt successfully to additional blocking and pass-protection duties they hadn't previously been assigned. The added assistance helped a young offensive line, with as many as three rookie starters at times, allow just 24 sacks all season.

Originally named to the tight ends post Jan. 17, 2006, the 35-year-old McAdoo replaced Philbin, who was then the lone holdover from the previous coaching staff and had been made the team's offensive line coach after McCarthy had been introduced as head coach. In each of McAdoo's previous two NFL tenures, he has worked with McCarthy.

McAdoo came to Green Bay from the San Francisco 49ers, where he served as assistant offensive line/quality control coach in 2005. In that role, he assisted the offensive line and tight ends.

Prior to joining the 49ers, he had a brief stint at Stanford University as tackles and tight ends coach. He resigned after the '05 recruiting season to take the 49ers position and reunite with McCarthy, then the San Francisco offensive coordinator, with whom he worked in New Orleans the previous season.

McAdoo, pronounced (Mack-ah-dew), entered the NFL coaching ranks in 2004 with the New Orleans Saints as an offensive assistant/quality control. He worked directly with McCarthy and assisted the offensive line and tight ends.

Prior to working in the NFL, McAdoo spent 2003 as an offensive assistant at the University of Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers earn a trip to the Continental Tire Bowl after an 8-5 season. At season's end, the University of Akron hired him as an assistant coach, but he stayed only through the '04 recruiting period before joining the Saints staff.

Earlier, he served as offensive line/tight ends coach at Fairfield (Conn.) University in 2002. After that campaign, the head coach left the team and McAdoo was appointed assistant head coach before the program was disbanded.

He began his college coaching career at Michigan State (2001) as a special teams/offensive assistant, on the heels of coaching four years at the high school level. He spent two years in the Homer Center school district in Pennsylvania and two years in the Indiana (Pa.) area.

McAdoo attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) and earned a degree in health and physical education. Later, he received his master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State.

Born July 9, 1977, in Homer City, Pa., McAdoo lives with his family in Oneida.

SCOTT McCURLEY

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Fourth Season as NFL Coach • Seventh Packers Season

Scott McCurley enters his seventh season with the Packers and fourth as defensive quality control coach. He was hired by Mike McCarthy in April 2006 as a coaching administrative intern, promoted to coaching administrator in January 2007, and promoted again to defensive quality control coach on Feb. 3, 2009.

In his current role, McCurley's duties include breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies. He also provides assistance with the outside linebackers.

As the coaching administrator, McCurley assisted in preparing the team's weekly game plan, preparing game film, and compiling player statistics and grades. His practice responsibilities included working with the scout team and assisting Winston Moss with coaching linebackers. During games, McCurley assisted the defensive coordinator.

Before coming to Green Bay, McCurley enjoyed a lengthy playing and coaching career at the University of Pittsburgh. Initially a walk-on athlete who redshirted his first year, he earned a scholarship after his freshman season and lettered all four years at linebacker (1999-2002).

McCurley holds the distinction of having the last interception and field-goal block in Pitt Stadium, which closed after the '99 season, both achievements recorded in a 37-27 victory against Notre Dame. That same season, he earned a spot on the Big East All-Academic football team and graduated in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in movement science with a coaching minor.

AT A GLANCE ...

- This marks his seventh year of service with the Packers, having started as a coaching administrative intern in 2006.
- Was promoted to coaching administrator in January 2007 before his most recent promotion to defensive quality control coach on Feb. 3, 2009.
- Was a four-year letterman at linebacker for the University of Pittsburgh (1999-2002).

After graduation, McCurley remained with the program as a defensive graduate assistant. The 2004 team he coached won the Big East championship and a spot in the Fiesta Bowl. McCurley also assisted with coaching the scout team, which was quarterbacked for a year by Joe Flacco, who later transferred to Delaware and became a first-round pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 2008.

Born Aug. 1, 1980, in New Castle, Pa., McCurley attended Mohawk High School in Bessemer, Pa., where he earned all-conference honors his junior and senior years, playing at linebacker and offensive line. He also played basketball.

McCurley and his wife, Colleen, live in De Pere, Wis., with their sons, Quentin, 4, and Deacon, 2. In his spare time, McCurley enjoys reading, watching movies and spending time with his family.

CHAD MORTON

SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Third Season as NFL Coach • Fourth Packers Season

Chad Morton, a seven-year NFL veteran as a player, enters his fourth season with the Packers and third as special teams assistant coach.

Named to his current position on Feb. 15, 2010, Morton originally joined the Packers as the team's coaching administrator in 2009, where part of his duties included assisting with the defensive and special teams units, before he moved into the role of special teams assistant.

The 2011 season was a year of vast improvement for Green Bay's special teams units, one that saw them climb to the No. 13 overall position in the Dallas Morning News' annual postseason rankings, the club's highest finish since 2007.

Some of the biggest strides were made in the various aspects of the return game, where rookie wide receiver Randall Cobb was named a Pro Bowl alternate and to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team for his efforts as the team's primary returner. A former return specialist himself, Morton was instrumental in helping acclimate Cobb to the pro game in his inaugural campaign. Cobb finished with 34 kickoff returns for 941 yards and a touchdown, and finished the season ranked No. 2 in the NFL (first among rookies) with a 27.7-yard average, the third highest by a player in franchise history with more than 25 returns.

Cobb was also a force on punt returns, where he ranked seventh in the league and second among rookies with an 11.3-yard average for the season. With an NFL-record-tying 108-yard kickoff return TD in the season opener vs. New Orleans and an 80-yard punt return TD vs. Minnesota in Week 10, Cobb became the first rookie in franchise history to score on both a kickoff and punt return in the same season.

In the kicking game, both placekicker Mason Crosby and punter Tim Masthay had career seasons. Crosby set a new career high for field goal percentage (85.7 percent, converting 24-of-28) and finished No. 4 in the NFL among kickers with 140 points, becoming just the sixth player in league history to post two 140-point seasons.

In his second season in 2011, Masthay continued to build off of the momentum and success he had in the second half of 2010. By season's end, he'd established new franchise records for both gross and net punting averages (45.6 and 38.6 yards, respectively), including another strong finish that saw him post 48.1-yard (gross) and 43.6-yard (net) averages over the final 10 games.

Additionally, Morton's commitment to assisting with the instruction of fundamentals and proper techniques has continued to help the Packers cut down on penalties in each of his two seasons. In 2011, special teams penalties were cut in half from the year before, as just nine accepted fouls went against Green Bay during the regular season, a total that tied with New England for second fewest in the NFL.

During his playing career, Morton was a running back and kick/punt returner who began his career with New Orleans in 2000 as a fifth-round draft pick. Packers Head Coach Mike McCarthy served as the Saints' offensive coordinator at that time. Morton went on to play two seasons with the New York Jets (2001-02), two with Washington (2003-04) and two with the New York Giants (2005-06).

Serving primarily as a returner as a pro, Morton tallied 5,401 career kickoff-return yards and three kick-return scores, as well as 1,431 career punt-return yards and one score, in 93 career games. He was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate as a returner in '02 and '05.

While with the Jets in 2002, Morton returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in a contest at Buffalo, making him the fifth player in NFL history to return two kickoffs for scores in the same game. He is the only player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a TD in regulation and overtime in the same game and joins Chicago's Dave Williams (at Detroit, Nov. 27, 1980) as the only players in NFL history to return a kickoff for a TD in overtime. In 2000 with the Saints, Morton tied the NFL single-game playoff record with 13 receptions, against the Minnesota Vikings.

Morton was an All-Pac-10 selection at Southern California, where he served as the team's primary running back his final two seasons. He led the team with 1,141 yards and 15 touchdowns on 262 carries as a senior, and he ranks 11th on the Trojans' all-time rushing list with 2,511 career yards. He graduated from USC with a degree in sociology.

Born April 4, 1977, in Torrance, Calif., Morton attended South High School in Torrance, where he played running back and also ran track. His older brother, Johnnie, played wide receiver for 12 seasons (1994-2005) in the NFL, including eight with the Detroit Lions.

Morton and his wife, Tamra, reside in Green Bay. They have two sons, Avery and Aiden, and a daughter, Alexis. Morton enjoys spending time with his wife and playing with his children.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Entering his third season as special teams assistant after originally joining the Packers in 2009 as coaching administrator.
- A seven-year NFL veteran (2000-06) for four different teams, compiled nearly 7,000 return yards in his career (5,401 kickoff return, 1,431 punt return).
- With N.Y. Jets in 2002, returned two kickoffs for TDs in same game at Buffalo, including overtime game-winner.
- An All-Pac-10 running back at USC, ranks 11th on Trojans' all-time rushing list with 2,511 yards.
- Older brother, Johnnie, played wide receiver for 12 seasons (1994-2005) in the NFL, including eight with the Detroit Lions.

PACKERS SPRING MINICAMP HISTORY

Dan Devine coached collegiately for 16 years before Green Bay hired him in 1971. Shortly after his arrival, he implemented a college tradition: spring practice. That April, Devine took his new players to the University of Texas at Arlington and the Packers' first minicamp, where he got his first look at No. 1 draft choice John Brockington. In 1977, the Packers' revolutionary indoor facility allowed spring practice in Green Bay. However, the team migrated to Arizona in '94, so the Don Hutson Center could be finished.

DARREN PERRY

SECONDARY – SAFETIES

11th Season as NFL Coach • Fourth Packers Season

Darren Perry begins his fourth season with the Packers in 2012 as secondary – safeties coach, his 11th season coaching in the NFL.

Named to his position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Perry has coached defensive backs in the NFL for the past 10 years and has tutored a Pro Bowl player in six of the last eight seasons.

In 2011, Perry was faced with a series of challenges, starting with the task of helping to re-acclimate second-year man Morgan Burnett to live action after he'd suffered a season-ending knee injury in the fourth game of his rookie campaign in 2010. While Burnett picked up close to where he'd left off upon returning to the field in training camp, the group lost Pro Bowl free safety Nick Collins to a neck injury at Carolina in Week 2. With Collins sidelined, Burnett shifted to free safety and veteran Charlie Peprah was thrust into the starting lineup at strong safety for the second season in a row.

The tandem went on to start the ensuing 14 games in the defensive backfield and combined for 203 tackles (163 solo), eight INTs, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. As a unit, the Packers intercepted an NFL-best 31 passes, the most by the franchise since 1962, and helped contribute to the team's takeaway total of 38, which was tied for No. 1 in the league.

Burnett led the secondary with 107 tackles (83 solo) and joined NT B.J. Raji as the only two players on defense to start all 16 regular-season games. Burnett tallied 14 passes defensed and joined CB Charles Woodson as the only two players on the team to record a sack, an INT, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble during the season. Peprah set new career highs in every major statistical category, including tackles (96), interceptions (five), INT return yardage (147), and passes defensed (14). His five INTs were tied for third among NFL safeties and his return yardage ranked fourth league-wide among all players.

In 2010, a healthy Collins earned the aforementioned Pro Bowl recognition for the third straight season, becoming the first Green Bay safety since LeRoy Butler (1996-98) to accomplish that feat. After Burnett went down with the season-ending knee injury, Peprah moved into the starting lineup and put together what was then the finest season of his career under Perry's guidance, registering 64 tackles, two interceptions and seven passes defensed. He also finished second on the team with 26 tackles in the postseason.

Collins and Peprah were members of a secondary that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the league in opponent passer rating (67.2) in 2010, the best mark by a Green Bay defense since 1997 (59.0). The Packers also ranked No. 5 in the league in pass defense, allowing their opponents just 194.2 yards per game.

In 2009, Collins was named to the Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press after finishing third among NFL safeties with six interceptions. SS Atari Bigby picked off four passes in '09 despite missing three games due to injury, giving the Packers their first safety tandem with four-plus interceptions each since 2002 (Darren Sharper, Marques Anderson).

Collins and Bigby helped the Packers lead the NFL in both takeaways (40) and interceptions (30), the first time since 1965 that Green Bay led the league in interceptions. Perry was a member of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense.

Perry came to Green Bay from Oakland, where he coached the Raiders' defensive backs for two seasons (2007-08). Cornerback Nnamdi Asomugha earned his second Pro Bowl selection and All-Pro honors from AP under Perry's tutelage, as the Raiders ranked in the top 10 each of those years in passing yards allowed. In 2008, Oakland allowed opponents to complete only 56.5 percent of their passes, tied for fourth best in the league.

Perry spent the previous four seasons coaching defensive backs in Pittsburgh under Bill Cowher, the team and coach for whom he played the majority of his career. Perry was the Steelers' assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and was promoted to defensive backs coach in 2004, when the Steelers finished fourth in the league in both passing yards allowed (177.2 per game) and opponents' completion percentage (55.6). In 2005, Pittsburgh won Super Bowl XL.

Perry was credited for helping the rapid development of Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu, who earned the first of five straight Pro Bowl selections in 2004, just his second season. The versatile Polamalu also was an AP All-Pro pick twice (2004, 2005) with Perry as his position coach.

Perry broke into the NFL coaching ranks in 2002, coaching safeties for the Cincinnati Bengals under head coach Dick LeBeau, one of the most respected defensive minds in the game, who also coached defensive backs for the Packers for four seasons (1976-79).

Drafted by the Steelers in the eighth round (203rd overall) of the 1992 NFL Draft – the team's first draft under Cowher – Perry became an immediate starter at free safety for current Packers defensive coordinator Dom Capers. Perry played seven seasons in Pittsburgh (1992-98) and started the first 110 games of his career, including postseason. He missed only two of a possible 123 games with the Steelers, both in 1998 due to a groin injury.

Perry was the Steelers' starting free safety in Super Bowl XXX and posted 32 career interceptions, tied for seventh in team history. His seven interceptions in 1994 marked his career high.

Perry went on to sign with the San Diego Chargers in 1999 but did not play due to a neck injury, and he concluded his playing career as the starting free safety for the New Orleans Saints in 2000, McCarthy's first season as the offensive coordinator there. Playing in all 16 games plus two postseason contests, he had three interceptions that season, giving him 35 for his career.

A standout in college at Penn State, Perry intercepted 15 passes in his career, tying him for second in school history. He returned three interceptions for touchdowns and compiled 299 return yards, both school records. As a junior in 1990, Perry intercepted seven passes and returned one for a TD. His senior year, he had six interceptions and two scores.

Perry was an all-district and second-team all-state selection at quarterback for Deep Creek (Va.) High, where he threw for 2,790 yards and 23 touchdowns in his career, and rushed for 1,167 yards and 14 scores. He was a team captain for the football, basketball and tennis teams.

Born Dec. 29, 1968, in Norfolk, Va., Perry lives in Green Bay with his wife, Errika, and their four children: Danielle, Dominique, Dedriana, and Devan. He also enjoys playing golf and bass guitar, and he is on the board of directors of the Chesapeake Care Free Clinic in Virginia, which provides health care to individuals without insurance or the necessary resources. Through the clinic, Perry sponsors the Intercept for Care program, which raises donations based on the number of interceptions recorded by Perry's team in a given season.

JOHN RUSHING

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/SPECIAL TEAMS

Fourth NFL Season • Fourth Packers Season

John Rushing begins his first season as the Packers' offensive assistant/special teams after one season as assistant wide receivers/special teams coach and two years as offensive quality control coach, continuing his first venture into the NFL after 13 years in the college coaching ranks.

Named to his new post on Feb. 13, 2012, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, Rushing originally joined the Packers on Feb. 3, 2009, as offensive quality control coach after spending the 2008 training camp with the Packers through the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship Program. He was named assistant wide receivers/special teams coach on Feb. 25, 2011.

In 2011, Rushing assisted with a wide receiver group that set franchise records and led the league in receiving yards (3,667) and receiving touchdowns (38) as a unit. For the first time in team history, the Packers had five wide receivers each catch 25-plus passes on the season. Rushing also assisted with a special teams unit that was tied for No. 13 in the Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings, the club's best finish since 2007. The Packers tied for No. 2 in the league in special teams penalties with only nine on the season, half the number the team committed in 2010.

Rushing came to Green Bay from Utah State, where he spent six seasons (2003-08) coaching defensive backs. During his tenure there, Rushing coached current Packers cornerback and special teamer Jarrett Bush, who ranked sixth in the NCAA in passes defensed in 2005 with 1.36 per game.

Additionally, Rushing coached the Aggies' punt return unit. In 2007, Kevin Robinson led the nation with an 18.9-yard average on punt returns, and he was selected in the sixth round (No. 182 overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Robinson, who is Rushing's younger brother, returned 19 kickoffs for 420 yards (22.1 avg.) and 11 punts for 94 yards (8.5 avg.) in eight games with the Chiefs in '08.

Prior to his time at Utah State, Rushing coached the secondary at Montana State for three seasons (2000-02), where he worked with Joey Thomas, a third-round draft choice of the Packers in 2004.

Rushing's first Division I job was as a graduate assistant coach for the secondary at Boise State for two years (1998-99), where he coached current St. Louis Rams S Quintin Mikell, who was named to the Pro Bowl in 2009. He began his coaching career at Merced Union (Calif.) High School in 1995, his alma mater, before moving on to the college game at Willamette University in Salem, Ore., for two years (1996-97). He coached the secondary there and was a part of Willamette's Division III national runner-up squad in 1997.

As a player, Rushing started all four years as a defensive back at Washington State (1991-94) and set a school record by starting 46 games. He earned honorable mention All-Pacific-10 Conference honors as a freshman and sophomore, and in 1991, he also was named to Sporting News' Freshman All-America team.

During his senior season of 1994, Washington State ranked second in the NCAA in both total defense (229 yards per game) and scoring defense (12.1 points per game).

As a prep, Rushing was a two-sport standout at Merced Union. He started at running back and safety on a 14-0 section championship team that was nationally ranked by USA Today. In track and field, he also qualified for the state championships in the 100- and 200-meter dashes.

Born Feb. 26, 1972, in Merced, Calif., Rushing earned his degree in sociology from Washington State in 1995 and a master's degree in education from Boise State in 2005.

Rushing and his wife, Angela, have three daughters, Nataya, Tatiana and Kamiah, and a son, John DaShir. He enjoys bowling and playing golf.

PACKERS HELMETS

- The Packers added their first and only helmet logo in 1961, the Lombardi G emblem. Since, the club has made no significant changes to its helmet.
- Only two other teams have made no significant changes (including color alterations) since the G first went on the Packers helmet in '61. The Baltimore/ Indianapolis Colts have sported their blue horseshoe since 1959. The Cleveland Browns shifted to "bald" helmets in 1960. The Pittsburgh Steelers introduced their unique helmets, with one bald side, the year after the Packers added the G, in 1962.
- Designed for Lombardi by equipment manager Dad Braisher, the G is one of the most recognizable team marks in sports, borrowed by several colleges and high schools, including Grambling State and the University of Georgia.
- The actual raised helmet G oval measures 3.125 inches at its tallest point, and 5 inches at its widest point. The thick decal is applied to each Riddell helmet by current equipment manager Red Batty and his staff.
- The middle white stripe is exactly 1 inch wide; the two green stripes are each 11/16 of an inch.

MIKE TRGOVAC

DEFENSIVE LINE

18th NFL Season • Fifth Packers Season

Mike Trgovac (pronounced Ter-guh-vack) begins his fifth season with the Packers, his second stint with the team, and his 18th season overall in the NFL.

Named to his current position by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on Feb. 3, 2009, Trgovac was also the Packers' defensive line coach in 1999, the same year McCarthy was the team's quarterbacks coach.

After Trgovac took over as the defensive line coach in '09, the Packers ranked No. 2 in the NFL in rushing touchdowns allowed (21) and No. 8 in rushing yards allowed (103.3 ypg) over that span. The 4,960 rushing yards allowed by Green Bay from 2009-11 were the fewest over a three-year span by the club since 1998-2000 (4,864).

Last season, Trgovac continued to oversee the development of DT B.J. Raji, who became the first Green Bay defensive tackle to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Bob Brown in 1972. Raji started all 16 contests for the second straight season and posted 43 tackles, three sacks, three passes defensed and a fumble recovery.

In 2010, Raji started all 16 games in his second year and posted career highs in every statistical category on the way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate. His 6½ sacks were the most by an NFL nose tackle since Minnesota's Ken Clarke recorded seven in 1990, and his 66 tackles led all Green Bay linemen.

Veteran DE Cullen Jenkins posted a career high in sacks as well under Trgovac's direction in 2010, recording seven despite missing five contests due to injury. Raji and Jenkins helped the Packers finish No. 2 in the league in sacks with 47, the highest league ranking in franchise history. Trgovac also tutored veteran DE Howard Green, a midseason waiver-wire pickup, as well as young ends C.J. Wilson and Jarius Wynn, as the three all made contributions to a line affected by injuries.

In 2009, Trgovac directed a line that made the transition to the 3-4 defense and helped the Packers lead the NFL in rushing defense for the first time in franchise history. The average of 83.3 rushing yards allowed per game set a team record for any season, and the defense also set a team record by holding opponents to under 90 net yards rushing in 12 games. The Packers moved up 25 spots in the league rushing defense rankings from '08, the biggest one-year improvement in the history of the franchise.

Trgovac came to Green Bay from Carolina, where he was the Panthers' defensive coordinator for six seasons. In that time, Trgovac directed a defense that produced 10 Pro Bowl selections and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in both yards and points allowed three times.

Most recently, that was in 2006, when the Panthers ranked seventh in the league in yards allowed (296.1) and eighth in points allowed (305). The previous year was statistically the Panthers' best under Trgovac, as in 2005 they ranked third in yards (282.6), fifth in points (259) and first in takeaways (a team-record 42) in helping Carolina advance to its second NFC Championship Game in three seasons.

His unit's ability to create turnovers had begun to show up in the second half of 2004, when the Panthers had 29 takeaways in the season's final eight games. The 38 total takeaways ranked second in the league and tied the club record at the time, and the defense's 26 interceptions were a league high and team record.

Trgovac's inaugural season as a defensive coordinator featured his first top-10 unit. After promoting him from his post as the Panthers' defensive line coach, Carolina ranked eighth in the league in yards (295.3) and 10th in points (304) in 2003, and held top-10 rankings in a handful of other categories.

That defense also forced four turnovers and held the Eagles to a field goal in Carolina's 14-3 victory in the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia, earning the Panthers their first Super Bowl berth.

As defensive line coach in 2002, Trgovac oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Panthers' front four that made a strong case for him taking over as coordinator. Carolina ranked third in the league with 39 sacks and first in rushing yards per attempt. Under Trgovac's tutelage, DE Julius Peppers was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while DT Kris Jenkins earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

Prior to his tenure in Carolina, Trgovac coached the defensive line of the Washington Redskins for two seasons (2000-01). Ends Marco Coleman (12) and Hall of Famer Bruce Smith (10) both reached double digits in sacks in 2000, with Coleman being selected to the Pro Bowl.

Trgovac's first stop in Green Bay, in 1999, was the Packers' first season in seven years without Reggie White leading the defensive line. That year, DE Keith McKenzie matched his career high in sacks with eight in a part-time specialist role.

Trgovac broke into the NFL as the defensive line coach of the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-98. In 1995, the Eagles' line led the NFL in sacks with 42.5 (of the team's 48). DE William Fuller topped the squad with 13 and made the Pro Bowl for the first of two straight years.

Trgovac's career working with defensive linemen in the college coaching ranks spanned 11 seasons and five schools, beginning with his alma mater, Michigan, as a graduate assistant in 1984. After two seasons there, he moved on to Ball State (1986-88), Navy (1989), Colorado State (1990-91) and Notre Dame (1992-94).

With the Fighting Irish under Lou Holtz, Trgovac saw two of his protégés become early selections in the 1994 NFL Draft, as the San Francisco 49ers took Bryant Young seventh overall and the Chicago Bears picked Jim Flanigan in the third round.

Trgovac's playing career at Michigan from 1977-80 under Bo Schembechler featured three seasons as a starter at middle guard on the defensive line. He was a two-time All-Big Ten honoree and a second-team All-America selection as a senior. He played in three Rose Bowls for the Wolverines and received his degree in education from Michigan in 1982.

Born Feb. 27, 1959, in Youngstown, Ohio, Trgovac was an all-state football player and wrestler at Fitch High School in Austintown, Ohio. He was named Ohio's Defensive Lineman of the Year and also captured the state heavyweight wrestling title as a senior. Trgovac and his wife, Angela, have two children, daughter Jordan, 18, and son Michael, 13. He enjoys spending time with his family and boating.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Last name is pronounced Ter-guh-vack.
- Is in his second stint with the Packers, having coached Green Bay's defensive line in 1999, the same year Mike McCarthy was quarterbacks coach.

RUNNING BACKS

Seventh Season as NFL Coach • First Packers Season

Alex Van Pelt enters his 16th NFL season in 2012 and seventh as an NFL assistant coach after being named the Packers running backs coach by Head Coach Mike McCarthy on February 13, 2012.

Van Pelt joins the Packers after spending the past two seasons (2010-11) as quarterbacks coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Prior to his appointment with the Buccaneers, he spent four seasons (2006-09) on the offensive coaching staff of the Buffalo Bills.

Over the past two seasons, Van Pelt found great success working with the young Josh Freeman in Tampa Bay. Under Van Pelt's direction, Freeman threw for 7,043 yards in 2010-11, the most passing yards by a Tampa Bay quarterback over a two-year period in franchise annals. That included 3,592 passing yards in 2011, the second most in team history. Freeman also threw a TD pass in 15 consecutive games (Week 5, 2010-Week 2, 2011), the longest streak in team history.

In his first full season as a starter in 2010, Freeman showed incredible maturation and improvement under Van Pelt. He finished the year as the sixth-ranked passer in the NFL while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions. Freeman became the first quarterback under the age of 23 to lead his team to a 10-win season since Pittsburgh Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger in 2004, with five of his victories being fourth-quarter comebacks. He also ranked second among NFL quarterbacks with 364 rushing yards on 68 carries (5.4 avg.).

Van Pelt entered the 2009 season as the Bills quarterbacks coach before being promoted to offensive coordinator in September. He originally joined the Bills as offensive quality control coach in 2006 and worked in that capacity for two seasons before being elevated to quarterbacks coach in 2008.

In his only season as offensive coordinator, Van Pelt led an offense that featured former backup RB Fred Jackson. The then-third-year pro rushed for a career-high 1,062 yards on 237 attempts (4.5 avg.) with two touchdowns in Van Pelt's offense while also hauling in a career-high 46 receptions, good for second on the team, for 371 yards (8.1 avg.) and two touchdowns. His 1,062 rushing yards ranked ninth in the AFC and his 1,433 total yards from scrimmage ranked 10th in the NFL and sixth in the AFC.

During his time as quarterbacks coach, Van Pelt assisted in the development of QB Trent Edwards. Under the direction of Van Pelt, Edwards posted a 65.5 completion percentage to rank sixth in the NFL in 2008 as well as second all-time in Bills history for a single season. Edwards also recorded a fourth-quarter passer rating of 106.3 to rank third in the NFL that season.

Van Pelt joined the Bills in 2006 after spending the winter of 2006 as the quarterbacks coach/pass coordinator for the University at Buffalo. He also volunteered with the Bills in 2005 as an offensive quality control coach after spending the 2005 NFL Europe season as the Frankfurt Galaxy's quarterbacks coach, where he was responsible for the offensive play-calling. After his retirement from the NFL in 2003, he spent two seasons as the color analyst for the Buffalo Bills Radio Network.

Van Pelt was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the eighth round of the 1993 NFL Draft and later signed with Buffalo as a free agent in 1995. He spent his entire nine-year career (1995-2003) as a member of the Bills and played in 31 games with 11 starts while amassing 2,985 yards passing and 16 touchdowns.

A four-year starter (1989-92) at the University of Pittsburgh, Van Pelt holds school career records for most passing yards (11,267), completions (867) and attempts (1,503). He became only the fifth collegiate player to throw for 2,000 yards in four consecutive seasons. From 1990-91, Van Pelt was coached by McCarthy, who was serving as the Panthers' graduate assistant – quarterbacks.

Born on May 1, 1970, in Pittsburgh, Pa, Van Pelt lives in Green Bay with his wife Brooke and daughters, Payton Dale and Katherine Paige, and son, Jack MacGregor.

DON HUTSON'S FIRST NFL RECEPTION, 1935

On the day's first play, vs. the Bears Sept. 22, 1935, at City Stadium, Don Hutson caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber.

Bears safety Beattie Feathers bought Herber's fake to Johnny (Blood) McNally, springing Hutson, who was making his first NFL start after his debut the previous week.

True Sport said Herber's pass covered 66 yards in the air. Green Bay won, 7-0.

JOE WHITT JR.

SECONDARY – CORNERBACKS

Sixth NFL Season • Fifth Packers Season

Entering his sixth season in the NFL, Joe Whitt Jr. begins his fifth with the Green Bay Packers and fourth in his position of secondary – cornerbacks coach.

Originally named defensive quality control coach on March 7, 2008, by Head Coach Mike McCarthy, the 34-year-old Whitt was promoted to cornerbacks coach on Feb. 3, 2009.

Whitt came to Green Bay after one year with the Atlanta Falcons as assistant defensive backs coach. He coached the previous five years in the college ranks, beginning with the 2002 season as wide receivers coach at The Citadel, followed by a four-year stint as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisville.

In 2011, the Packers led the league in interceptions (31) for the second time in the past three seasons, with 17 of those picks coming from Whitt's cornerbacks. Green Bay was the only team in the NFL to have three cornerbacks each register four or more interceptions (Charles Woodson, seven; Tramon Williams and Sam Shields, four each).

The 31 interceptions by the team this past season brought the three-year total since '09, Whitt's first season as cornerbacks coach, to 85. It marked the most by the Packers over a three-year period since 1943-45 (95 INTs) and the most by an NFL team since Minnesota and San Francisco each posted 86 INTs from 1986-88. Of those 85 INTs, 43 of them came courtesy of Whitt's cornerbacks, the most in the league by a cornerback group over that span.

Woodson's seven interceptions in 2011 tied him for the league lead as he earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl bid, the first Green Bay cornerback to do so since Herb Adderley (1963-67), as well as first-team All-Pro recognition from The Associated Press. Woodson also posted two sacks in 2011 as he became the first cornerback in franchise annals (since 1982) to register two-plus sacks in four consecutive seasons.

Under Whitt's tutelage in 2011, Tramon Williams registered career highs with 65 tackles and a team-leading 24 passes defensed. Williams' four interceptions gave him four or more picks for the fourth straight season, the only non-drafted player in the NFL to accomplish that feat over that span. Second-year CB Sam Shields posted career bests in INTs (four) and passes defensed (14) in the nickel-back role.

In 2010, Whitt's work with Williams culminated in his first Pro Bowl bid. Williams led the team in interceptions (a career-high six) and passes defensed (23), and added three more interceptions in the playoffs, which tied the franchise single-postseason record. Whitt also was instrumental in the rapid development of the rookie Shields, another undrafted prospect who became the team's nickel back by the season opener – despite playing the corner position only one season in college – and helped the Packers advance to the Super Bowl with two interceptions in the NFC title game at Chicago.

Woodson also posted career highs in tackles (105) and forced fumbles (five) and earned a Pro Bowl bid and second-team All-Pro honors in '10, when the Packers led the league in opponent passer rating (67.2) and finished second in interceptions (24).

In 2009, Whitt was part of a staff that guided the Packers defense to a No. 2 overall ranking in the league, the highest ranking since the '96 team finished as the No. 1 defense. Green Bay led the league with 40 takeaways and 30 interceptions, the first time the Packers led the league in interceptions since 1965 (tied with Washington that season with 27).

Also in '09, Woodson posted a career-high nine interceptions as part of perhaps his finest all-around season on his way to earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year Honors from AP as well as All-Pro honors from virtually every publication. Then 33, Woodson became the oldest defensive back to win the player of the year award and just the fifth cornerback to do so since the award's inception in 1971.

Meanwhile, Williams, who took over as the starting RCB after veteran Al Harris suffered a season-ending knee injury in Week 11, posted a (then) career-high and team-leading 22 passes defensed along with four interceptions under Whitt's guidance.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined Packers on March 7, 2008, as defensive quality control coach. Promoted to cornerbacks coach on Feb. 3, 2009.
- Since taking over as cornerbacks coach in '09, the Packers have registered a league-high 85 interceptions, the most by the club over a three-year span since it recorded 95 INTs from 1943-45, with 43 of the 85 INTs coming from Whitt's cornerbacks, the most in the league by a cornerback group over that span.
- Tutored CB Tramon Williams as he earned his first Pro Bowl nod in 2010 and veteran CB Charles Woodson on his way to earning NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press in 2009. Woodson also has earned a Pro Bowl bid each season under Whitt and twice been named first-team All-Pro.
- Under Whitt's guidance, both Woodson and Williams have produced single-season career highs in all major categories.
- Has five years of college coaching experience.
- Played collegiately and coached as a student assistant at Auburn, where his father, Joe Sr., was on the coaching staff.

COACHING BACKGROUND

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2000-01	Auburn University	Student Assistant – Receivers
2002	The Citadel	Wide Receivers
2003-06	University of Louisville	Cornerbacks/ Recruiting Coordinator
2007	Atlanta Falcons	Assistant Defensive Backs
2008	Green Bay Packers	Defensive Quality Control
2009-12	Green Bay Packers	Secondary – Cornerbacks

In Whitt's first season with the Packers, his duties included breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies while also assisting with the defensive backs and special teams.

In 2007 with Atlanta, Whitt worked alongside veteran coach and former Packers defensive coordinator Emmitt Thomas in tutoring the Falcons' defensive backs.

During his time in Louisville, Whitt's recruiting efforts helped bring the program into national prominence as the Cardinals went 41-9 over that four-year stretch. After joining the staff in 2003, Whitt worked diligently to improve the Cardinals' recruiting efforts, and the program landed its first top-25 recruiting class in 2005.

On the field, he coached All-Big East first-team selection William Gay, who led the team with six interceptions and was a fifth-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2007. Whitt also had a hand in helping safety Kerry Rhodes, currently with the Arizona Cardinals, and Antoine Harris, most recently with the Philadelphia Eagles, make it to the NFL.

Whitt broke into the collegiate coaching ranks in 2002 as wide receivers coach at The Citadel. In his only season there, the Bulldogs saw their passing output increase by 81.3 yards per game over 2001, averaging 219.8 yards in 2002. Under Whitt's guidance, all of the team's receivers produced career highs in 2002, most notably Scooter Johnson, who improved on his six catches for 104 yards as a junior to bring in 69 passes for 950 yards and seven touchdowns to earn first-team All-Southern Conference honors as a senior.

A native of Auburn, Ala., and a walk-on as a player at Auburn University, Whitt eventually earned a scholarship and played for a coaching staff that included his father, Joe Sr., a longtime Auburn assistant coach.

Whitt worked his way into Auburn's rotation at wide receiver and contributed on special teams, battling several injuries along the way. After four shoulder surgeries and reconstructive knee surgery, he was granted a medical hardship waiver and became a student assistant at Auburn for two seasons, coaching alongside his dad.

Born July 19, 1978, Whitt graduated from Auburn in 2001 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Ericka, have two children, a son, Joseph Barrington, and a daughter, Ava Jeneé.

TIM TERRY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Tim Terry, a former NFL linebacker, enters his ninth season with the Packers' pro personnel department after joining the team on Oct. 11, 2004. Terry's primary duties are scouting professional prospects in the NFL, CFL and Arena Football League, working under Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations Ted Thompson. He also is involved with in-season advance scouting of upcoming Packers opponents.

In 2008, Terry was named assistant director of pro personnel after serving as a pro personnel assistant the previous three years. During the 2007 season, he continued to work in the personnel department while also serving as the director of player development, helping to maintain locker-room cohesiveness and assisting players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field. Former Packers long snapper Rob Davis took over that position in 2008.

The 38-year-old Terry originally entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent out of Temple with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1997. As a rookie, he saw action in five games, logging three stops and five special teams tackles. Terry spent the 1998 season on the team's practice squad.

In 1999, he went to camp with the Kansas City Chiefs, but was released and subsequently signed with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the CFL, helping that club to a Grey Cup championship.

Terry joined the Seattle Seahawks' practice squad in early 2000 before being signed to the active roster on Nov. 10, and finished the season by playing in six games, collecting two special teams stops and forcing a fumble on a kickoff return.

Terry saw action in all 16 Seahawks games each of the following two seasons (2001-02), with his best professional campaign coming in 2002, when he took over as a starter for the final eight games after LB Chad Brown (broken foot) was lost to injury. That year, Terry posted a career-high 42 tackles, including one sack, plus one pass defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

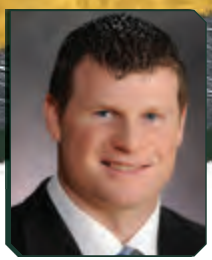
He was released by the Seahawks during training camp in 2003. His NFL career included 43 games played (eight starts), 55 tackles, including 3½ sacks, plus 19 special teams stops.

Collegiately, Terry saw action in all 44 contests (43 starts) during his four seasons at Temple, playing as a defensive lineman and finishing his career with 208 tackles. As a senior, he started all 11 games despite a groin pull, and registered 56 tackles, five sacks and a team-high 11 quarterback pressures.

Terry holds a B.S. degree in political science with a minor in African-American studies. He obtained his master's degree in management at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in the winter of 2011.

An all-state selection at Hempstead (N.Y.) High School, he also lettered in track, basketball and lacrosse.

Born July 26, 1974, in Hempstead, N.Y., Terry resides in Green Bay. He has a daughter, Zoe, 11, and two sons, Timothy II, 8, and Jayden, 4. In his spare time, he is involved with various community groups, including Green Bay's chapter of Big Brothers Big Sisters and Journey House in Milwaukee.



CHAD BRINKER

PRO SCOUT

Chad Brinker enters his third season with the Packers' pro personnel department after joining the team on Jan. 31, 2010. He was promoted on May 23, 2012, after two seasons as a scouting assistant. In his role, Brinker assists player personnel in various areas, including evaluating both college and professional players, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, in-season tryouts, and attending college pro days.

The 32-year old Brinker originally entered the NFL in 2003 as a non-drafted free agent out of Ohio University with the New York Jets. He scored two touchdowns in preseason play before being waived in the team's final roster reduction. Brinker was re-signed by the Jets following the '03 season and was allocated to NFL Europe. He lined up at running back for the Cologne Centurions during the 2004 season before suffering a concussion in his third contest. Brinker was placed on injured reserve and was later released by the Jets.

Brinker was a four-year starter and two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back for the Ohio Bobcats. As a senior, he ran for a career-best 1,099 yards and remains Ohio's fifth all-time leading rusher with 2,826 career yards. His 30 total touchdowns rank second in school history, and he also remains among the Bobcats' all-time top five in nearly every rushing category in school history despite missing all but the first four games of his junior season after having an arachnoid cyst removed from his skull.

Brinker also competed in track during the spring at Ohio, running the 60-meter indoor and 100-meter outdoor. He received a degree in exercise science, and is currently working toward his master's degree in sports administration.

Following his football career, Brinker entered the business world, working for Merck as a pharmaceutical sales representative and then later as an account manager for Stryker Medical. His passion for football never left him as he remained close to the game by also serving as the radio color analyst for Ohio University football from 2006-08. During the 2009 season, he was an assistant football coach at Westerville Central High School in Columbus, Ohio, coaching running backs and defensive backs.

A four-year letterman at Martins Ferry (Ohio) High School, Brinker was a finalist for the Mr. Ohio Football Award and a USA Today All-American. The two-time first-team all-state selection also lettered multiple times in basketball, baseball and track.

Brinker was born Nov. 5, 1979, in Wheeling, W.Va. He, his wife, Rachelle, and infant daughter, Madison, reside in De Pere, Wis. Brinker enjoys strength training, reading and writing, traveling, snowboarding and hiking.

GLENN COOK

PRO SCOUT

Glenn Cook enters his first year with the Packers' pro personnel department in 2012. He joined the team on May 23, 2012, as a pro scout.

The 27-year-old Cook came to Green Bay from Indianapolis, where he worked as a scouting assistant for the Colts from June 2011 until he joined the Packers. Prior to his arrival in Indianapolis, Cook served as a graduate assistant coach in 2011 at his alma mater, the University of Miami (Fla.), where he assisted with the Hurricanes' linebackers and defensive line. He also assisted with recruiting and broke down game film as a volunteer with Miami in 2010.

Cook was a four-year letterman (2004-06, 2008) for the Hurricanes at linebacker, appearing in 47 games with 17 starts during his career. He recorded 185 tackles (96 solo), including 23½ tackles for loss, 16 quarterback pressures, two sacks, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and five passes defensed. Cook scored two touchdowns during his career on fumble recoveries at Georgia Tech (2006) and at Texas A&M (2008).

Cook was one of three team captains as a senior in '08 and paced the team with a career-high 76 tackles (44 solo), including eight stops for a loss. He started all 13 games at middle linebacker and received the Plumer Memorial Award (leadership, motivation, spirit) and Dale Melching Award (leadership) at the team's awards banquet at the conclusion of the season.

Cook missed the entire 2007 season due to a foot injury sustained on the second day of training camp. As a junior in '06, he started 11 games and posted 64 tackles (32 solo), including four tackles for a loss, seven QB pressures and two passes defensed on his way to being named the team's Linebacker of the Year.

Cook earned a B.A. in marketing at Miami and also holds a master's degree from the school in sport administration.

Born in Miami, Cook attended Chaminade-Madonna College Prep in Hollywood, Fla., where he teamed with Carolina Panthers LB Jon Beason to help lead the team to the state championship game in 2002. Cook was rated the No. 26 linebacker in the nation by SuperPrep and was named to the Florida Top 100 by the Orlando Sentinel. As a junior in 2001, he registered 85 tackles, including 10 for a loss, and five sacks. Cook also was a center fielder for the baseball team.

After not being selected in the 2009 NFL Draft, Cook was drafted by the Chicago Cubs in the 46th round of the 2009 Major League Baseball Draft. He went on to appear in 34 games for the Cubs' rookie-league team in Mesa, Ariz., in '09.

Cook is single and resides in Green Bay. He enjoys spending time with his family, writing poetry and playing the piano.

SAM SEALE

WEST REGIONAL SCOUT

Sam Seale, an 11-year NFL veteran as a player, heads into his 17th season scouting college players for the Packers, his first post in player personnel. Promoted to West regional scout on May 23, 2012, Seale was hired on July 22, 1995, and maintains primary focus on the West Coast region.

The 49-year-old Seale began his NFL playing career after being picked in the eighth round of the 1984 NFL Draft by the then-Los Angeles Raiders. After one year as a wide receiver (1984) and three seasons as a defensive back/kick returner (1985-87) for the Silver and Black, Seale headed south to play for the San Diego Chargers for the next four seasons (1988-91).

After becoming a full-time starter (at cornerback) for the first time in his pro career in 1989, Seale appeared in all 16 games for San Diego in both 1990 and '91. He then returned to the Los Angeles area in 1992 to play one additional season for the Raiders and his final year in the NFL (1993) with the then-Los Angeles Rams.

In 121 career games, he recorded 11 interceptions, returning one for a touchdown in 1985. He also scored once on a fumble recovery (in 1988 with San Diego).

A four-time letterman (1980-83) as a running back for Western State College (Colo.), Seale averaged 5.3 yards per carry as a collegian while leading the team twice each in rushing and receiving. He also earned NAIA All-America honors in track, competing in the 60-, 100- and 200-meter events. The political science major was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference pick two seasons in football and four times in track. He was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

While attending Orange (N.J.) High School, Seale was an all-state performer in football his senior year and in track as a junior and senior. He earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the football team while also lettering twice in track as a sprinter.

Seale was born Oct. 6, 1962, on the island of Barbados in the West Indies. He and his wife, Elizabeth, have two sons, Ricky (Sam Jr.), 20, and Samir, 18, and a daughter, Shi-Ann, 13. Ricky is the all-time leading rusher in San Diego prep history and is entering his junior season at Stanford University.

Seale resides in San Diego, and enjoys reading, bowling, playing golf and participating in a variety of other sports.

LEE GISSENDANER

AREA SCOUT

Now in his 12th season as an area scout, Lee Gissendaner begins his 15th season overall with the Green Bay Packers.

Named to his current position on May 15, 2001, Gissendaner originally joined the Packers in 1998 as the team's representative in the National Scouting Service and authored preliminary evaluations of all prospective seniors in upcoming NFL drafts during his initial three seasons with the club.

The 40-year-old Gissendaner began his post-football career by serving as a graduate assistant coach for Kent State University (1997) while working toward his master's degree. He subsequently was named to a scouting position with the Packers on July 8, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

A four-year letterman (1990-93) and three-year starter at wide receiver for Northwestern University, Gissendaner led the NCAA in punt return average (21.8 yards) in 1992. That year, he also was named Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten Conference, was a first-team All-Big Ten selection and was voted as Northwestern's team MVP. Gissendaner was named to the Big Ten's 100-Year Anniversary Team during the conference's centennial celebration in 1995.

Gissendaner graduated from Northwestern in 1994 with a degree in organizational management, and earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1998.

Originally chosen in the sixth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, Gissendaner was released that year at the conclusion of training camp. He then spent the 1995 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL and the summer of 1996 with the World League champion Scottish Claymores.

In the fall of 1996, Gissendaner returned to the U.S. and went to training camp with the Vikings, eventually spending parts of the '96 season on Minnesota's practice squad.

A four-year letterman at Stow (Ohio) Monroe Falls High School, Gissendaner was selected All-Summit County, all-metro area and team MVP at wide receiver during his senior season. A two-time all-metro pole vaulter, he earned three additional varsity letters in track. Gissendaner was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2002.

In 1999, Gissendaner's accomplishments and community efforts were recognized as he was inducted into the City of Akron/Summit County Sports Hall of Fame.

Gissendaner was born Oct. 25, 1971, in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jamie, a registered nurse, reside in Wilmington, Del., with their daughter, Leah, 4, and their infant son, Tyler. His hobbies include traveling, drawing, listening to music and reading – mainly biographies and other nonfiction. Gissendaner also works as a motivational speaker for youth, focusing on the importance of setting goals.

MIKE OWEN

COLLEGE SCOUT

Mike Owen enters his first season with the Packers' player personnel department in 2012. He joined the team on May 23, 2012, as a college scout. Owen serves as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine.

The 25-year-old Owen spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Riverhead (N.Y.) High School, where he coached the tight ends and helped with the linebackers. He was a four-year letterman (2006-09) at Syracuse University, where he played tight end, defensive end and linebacker during his career. Elected a team captain as a senior, Owen finished his career with 36 receptions for 319 yards (8.9 avg.) and three touchdowns.

Owen played in all 12 games with 10 starts as a senior in '09 and hauled in 12 passes for 93 yards (7.8 avg.) and a TD. As a junior, he started 11 contests and ranked No. 2 on the team with 19 catches for 175 yards (9.2 avg.) and two TDs. He recorded single-game career highs for receptions (five), receiving yards (59) and receiving TDs (two) vs. Akron that season.

Owen moved to tight end prior to the 2007 season after having switched to defensive end from linebacker before the '06 campaign. He posted a career-best three tackles on special teams vs. Louisville in 2007. Owen earned a degree in child and family studies at Syracuse.

At Riverhead (N.Y.) High, Owen was ranked the No. 18 outside linebacker in the nation by Tom Lemming on ESPN.com. He was also rated the No. 9 prospect in New York by Rivals.com and the 12th best prospect in the state by SuperPrep. Owen played in the 2005 Governor's Bowl, an all-star game featuring the top prospects from New York and New Jersey.

As a senior in 2004, Owen recorded 51 tackles, two sacks and an interception despite battling through an elbow injury throughout the season. As a junior, he posted 113 tackles and a fumble recovery on his way to being named all-county and second-team All-Long Island. Owen was named the team MVP as a junior and earned the 2004 Pat Kelly Award for overcoming serious injury. He also won the Carl Smith Award in '03 for outstanding achievement in academics and athletics.

Owen was born June 1, 1987, in Brookhaven, N.Y. He is single and resides in Texas. Owen enjoys spending time with his girlfriend, family and friends and playing sports and video games.

JON-ERIC SULLIVAN

AREA SCOUT

Jon-Eric Sullivan begins his ninth season as a college scout for the Packers in 2012, and his fifth as an area scout. Sullivan previously served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region, a role since filled by Mike Owen.

Sullivan joined the team's football operations department on July 12, 2004, having previously served as a scouting intern during the team's 2003 training camp.

The 36-year-old Sullivan played his junior and senior seasons (1998-99) as a wide receiver at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, N.C. As a senior, he was named to the all-conference team after leading the Bulldogs with 43 receptions. Previously, he played at the University of South Carolina from 1995-97 before transferring to Gardner-Webb.

Sullivan attended high school at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy, the same institution from which Packers director-football operations John Dorsey matriculated. Sullivan was an all-state defensive back his junior year, pacing state players with nine interceptions, and then an all-state receiver as a senior. Sullivan lettered twice in football, while also receiving two letters each in indoor and outdoor track. As a senior, he was all-state in track as a member of the state champion 400-meter relay team.

Following his college football career, Sullivan served as a student-assistant receivers coach at Gardner-Webb for one season. Though officially listed as a student-assistant, he actually served as the primary position coach for the receivers.

Sullivan obtained a B.A. degree in social science from Gardner-Webb in December 2000, and then worked three years (2001-04) for GMAC's sales and credit administration departments before joining the Packers' staff.

His father, Jerry Sullivan, who has over 40 years of coaching experience, is currently the receivers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Born Aug. 10, 1976, in Columbia, S.C., Sullivan and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Austin, Texas, with their infant daughter, Samantha. His hobbies include traveling and working out.

RICHMOND WILLIAMS

AREA SCOUT

Richmond Williams enters his fifth year with the Packers in 2012 and first as an area scout. Promoted on May 23, 2012, Williams previously served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region. He spent the 2007 training camp as a scouting intern with the Packers.

Also in 2007, Williams volunteered as an assistant in the football office at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. His duties included helping coaches plan their recruiting trips and breaking down defensive game film.

Prior to working in the football office, the 28-year-old Williams lettered two years as a cornerback for Iowa. He earned the Iowa "Team Leader" award all four years of his career, given by the coaching staff to the player who made high contributions on scout and special teams during weekly preparation. Williams was teammates with former Packers DT Colin Cole, as well as several other NFL players, including S Bob Sanders (San Diego) and G Robert Gallery (New England). In 2006, Williams earned a B.A. in economics, as well as a certificate of entrepreneurship.

Williams is the brother-in-law of Cole, and is the director of football operations for the Cole Group, an organization formed by Colin and his wife, Kay, that provides consultation services to high school student-athletes. Williams' duties include designing football camps and making preparations for seminars.

Born Nov. 11, 1983, in Aiken, S.C., Williams was a two-sport athlete in football and track and field at North Augusta (S.C.) High School. He played cornerback and wide receiver, and was a state-champion long jumper as a senior, also participating in the 4x100-meter relay. Williams was named to the Who's Who in Scholar Student-Athletes in 2001, and was named North Augusta's Star Student-Athlete of the Week.

Williams has stayed active in the community by coaching a Little League football team, reading to elementary school students, and working at a literacy summer camp.

Nicknamed "Richey," Williams is single and resides in Dallas, Texas. His top three travel destinations are California, Florida and Hawaii. He enjoys playing basketball and watching movies.

JOHN WOJCIECHOWSKI

AREA SCOUT

Now entering his 17th season in the NFL, John Wojciechowski begins his first season with the Packers' player personnel department in 2012. He joined the team on May 23, 2012, as an area scout.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, the 38-year-old Wojciechowski spent the previous nine seasons (2003-11) as the Northeast area scout for the Dallas Cowboys.

He came to Dallas after working for the Jacksonville Jaguars for five seasons (1998-2002). During his first three seasons with Jacksonville, Wojciechowski worked as the team's Southeast regional scout for the BLESTO scouting organization. He was promoted by the Jaguars to Midwest scout in 2001.

Wojciechowski's first venture into the NFL player personnel field came with the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he served as a player personnel assistant for two seasons (1996-97). With the Steelers, he evaluated both college and pro players and did quality-control work for the special teams units.

Wojciechowski (pronounced woh-jih-cow-skee) was a four-year starter at Duquesne at defensive end (1992-95) and a three-year tri-captain. As a senior in '95, he earned first-team All-Metro Atlantic Conference honors and helped lead the Dukes to their first-ever conference championship (7-0 record) and a 10-1 mark overall. The team finished the season with an ECAC Bowl victory over Wagner.

Wojciechowski finished his career at Duquesne as the school's all-time sacks leader with 24, which now ranks No. 2 on the Dukes' all-time list. He led the team in sacks each of his final three seasons, posting 9½ as a senior in 1995 (No. 2 in single-season history) and nine in 1993 (No. 5). Wojciechowski was part of a group that helped Duquesne transition from Division III to I-AA following his freshman season.

Wojciechowski was also a three-year starter at catcher and designated hitter for the Dukes' baseball team. He earned a degree in business administration at Duquesne.

Born Jan. 4, 1974, in Pittsburgh, Wojciechowski attended Plum (Pa.) High School in suburban Pittsburgh. He was a first-team all-conference selection and was named to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's "Fabulous 22" team. Wojciechowski was also a team captain as a senior.

Wojciechowski and his wife, Tami, live in Pittsburgh with their sons, Holt and Taft. He enjoys spending time with his family, playing golf and fishing.

DANNY MOCK

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Now enjoying his 16th season with the Packers and 33rd in the NFL, Danny Mock is responsible for a variety of scouting services as the team's college scouting coordinator. Mock's duties include tracking Green Bay's scouts who scour the country looking for players, assigning scouting visits to colleges and heading up the computer operations for the team's annual draft preparations.

Mock gained his first NFL experience as a member of the Atlanta Falcons' grounds crew from 1980-85. In addition to his duties on the field, Mock served as a film assistant from 1983-86. Following three seasons in the film department, the NFL moved to video and Mock was promoted to assistant video director by the Falcons in 1986.

After serving two years in that capacity, Mock turned to the player personnel side of football. For the following nine seasons (1988-96), he acted as the administrative assistant in the Falcons' player personnel department.

Having lived in the South his entire life, Mock headed north when he was named the Packers' college scouting coordinator by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf on June 28, 1997.

The 51-year-old Mock attended Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (1981-82) in Tifton, Ga., majoring in turf management and business.

Mock had earlier attended Gilbert (Ariz.) High School while growing up in the Phoenix area. He graduated from Duluth (Ga.) High School, where he lettered three times for the basketball team. During his sophomore basketball season, Mock was a teammate of 1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, who later would go on to star in football at the University of South Carolina and play seven seasons in the NFL. Mock also was elected team captain in basketball for his senior season, leading the school to the state quarterfinals.

Mock is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association (WFCA), acting as the Packers' liaison to the latter organization. He was honored by the WFCA In 2008, when he was awarded the Dave McClain Distinguished Service Award for his outstanding service to football in Wisconsin and again in 2011 as an inductee into the WFCA Hall of Fame. In his spare time, he serves as the video cameraman for the De Pere High School football team.

Mock is a fan of local sports teams, including the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay women's and men's basketball teams, and the Milwaukee Brewers. He also follows the Atlanta Braves.

Born May 16, 1961, in Statesville, N.C., Mock has two daughters, Elizabeth, 22, and Sarah, 19, and resides in De Pere, Wis.

RED BATTY

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

A veteran in his area of expertise, Gordon "Red" Batty is in his 19th season as equipment manager of the Green Bay Packers.

Batty is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Immediately prior to joining the Packers, he had spent 13 seasons (1981-93) in the same position with the then-Houston Oilers.

Long regarded as one of the best in the business, Batty was voted the NFL's "Equipment Manager of the Year" by his peers in 2002 at their annual meeting.

A 53-year-old native of Montreal, Batty remarkably is in his 40th season in the equipment field. He began his career in 1973 at age 14 as a ball boy for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. Six years later, he was elevated to the position of equipment manager for the Alouettes. During Batty's tenure in Montreal, the Alouettes won two Grey Cups (1974 and '77).

Batty subsequently joined the Oilers in June 1981, in the process becoming the NFL's youngest equipment manager at age 22. He also purports to be the first native-born Canadian to garner both a Grey Cup and Super Bowl ring, and he now has two of each, the latter distinction earned when the Packers captured Super Bowls XXXI and XLV with Batty in charge of the team's equipment. He also worked his third Pro Bowl this past season.

Upon being named to the Packers' staff on Jan. 24, 1994, Batty became only the fifth person in club history to hold the title of equipment manager. He was born Nov. 18, 1958, in Montreal. Batty (pronounced BATT-ee) and his wife, Joanne, have a daughter, Chelsei, 21, and a son, Cameron, 16.

Since 1994, Batty has served as the equipment coordinator for what is now known as the NFL Players Rookie Premiere preseason event. Batty is given the duty of communicating with each rookie invitee's team equipment manager to secure equipment and jerseys utilized for trading-card photo shoots.

A devout hockey fan, Batty has also worked several NHL events over the years, including the 2011 Wayne Gretzky Fantasy Camp. He continues to play hockey himself.

PEPPER BURRUSS

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

One of the more visible people in the organization, Pepper Burruss embarks upon his 20th season as the club's head trainer, his 36th in the NFL overall. Overseer of the team's medical care on a daily basis, Burruss, a certified athletic trainer and physical therapist, joined Green Bay in 1993 following 16 seasons with the New York Jets as an assistant athletic trainer.

The 58-year-old Burruss was hired by the Jets in 1977 after receiving his B.S. degree in physical therapy from Northwestern University Medical School. One year earlier, he had graduated with honors from Purdue University, where he earned a B.A. degree in health and safety education. At Purdue, Burruss was fortunate to be a student trainer working under a legend in the field, the late William "Pinky" Newell.

The Packers' athletic training staff was honored by its peers with the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year award in 2011. It was the second time Burruss had won the award; the first came as a member of the Jets' athletic training staff in 1985. Burruss' Jets staff also was honored at the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) clinical symposium in 1994 by former Jets defensive lineman Dennis Byrd, who credited the team's emergency care as a contributing factor in his miraculous recovery from quadriplegia. Byrd had suffered a fractured neck after an on-field collision in a 1992 game against Kansas City at the Meadowlands.

Burruss has been involved in multiple head, neck and spinal-care initiatives. In 2010, he was chosen by the NFL to represent the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) on the league's Head, Neck and Spine Medical Committee, which led to his subsequent serving on both the Equipment Standards and Return to Play Criterion subcommittees.

Professionally, Burruss has served two terms on the executive committee of the PFATS, first as an AFC assistant athletic trainer representative, then as the NFC head athletic trainer representative.

A product of Wappingers Falls, N.Y., where he attended Ketcham High School, Burruss was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2000, and in 2011, he was also inducted into the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association (WATA) Hall of Fame.

Born Thomas Pepper Burruss on April 15, 1954, in Beacon, N.Y., he and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Shane, 23, and a daughter, Christina, 18.

Also a medical practitioner, Nancy has her Ph.D. from Indiana University and is a professor at the Bellin College in Green Bay, where she is also the director of the undergraduate nursing program.

Burruss currently serves on the board of directors of the Northeast Wisconsin Curative Rehabilitation Center. He is active in the Packers' annual "Rebuilding Together" (formerly "Christmas in May") house-renovation project, serving as a house co-captain.

ROB DAVIS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Rob Davis, a 12-year NFL veteran, enters his fifth year as the team's director of player development. Before being named to the new position, he had spent the previous 11 seasons as the Packers' long snapper before retiring in March 2008. He was named director of player development on March 26, 2008, by Ted Thompson, Executive Vice President, General Manager and Director of Football Operations.

As the director of player development, Davis is vital in maintaining locker-room cohesiveness and overall player health. He assists players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field and in the Green Bay community.

Davis also oversees the Packers' wide range of programs designed to meet the needs of players and their families in today's NFL. The department provides a framework of assistance within which players and their immediate family members can address the pressures created by daily life and complicated by the demands of playing professional football. The program is also set up to get players prepared for life after football, and helps players seek educational and vocational opportunities. Davis is working on a new program called "Transitions After the Game," designed to help current players acquire skills and contacts needed for post-football job placement. He is also developing a mentorship program, aimed at joining Packers players with professional mentors in the community.

Davis served as the Packers' long snapper for 11 seasons and played in 167 straight games in a Green Bay uniform, the third-longest streak in team history. Only Brett Favre (255) and Forrest Gregg (187) played in more consecutive games for the Packers than Davis.

Davis worked three years for an opportunity to play in the NFL, spending two training camps with the N.Y. Jets (1993-94), a year with the CFL's Baltimore Stallions (1995) and a preseason with Kansas City (1996). In 1996, Davis signed with Chicago and played all 16 games as the team's long snapper. Released by the Bears near the end of the '97 training camp, he signed with Green Bay in November and handled all long-snapping duties the last seven regular-season games, as well as all three playoff contests, including Super Bowl XXXII.

The 43-year-old Davis was named the Packers' player representative in 2005, which entails being a liaison between the players and the union and relaying proper information to the players including rights and benefits. Prior to 2005, he was an alternate player representative for five seasons.

Davis became the first player ever from Shippensburg (Pa.) University to play in the NFL and was named to the school's athletic hall of fame in October 2003. Accompanying his induction, he also became the first player to have his jersey retired by Shippensburg in any sport.

Davis resides in De Pere with his wife, Tara, his daughter, Marlee, 8, and his son, Kahli, 5. In his spare time, he enjoys RV camping, boating and listening to audio books. Davis is also working toward getting his master's degree in applied leadership from the University of Wisconsin – Green Bay.

MIKE EAYRS

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Now enjoying his 12th year in Green Bay, Mike Eayrs is the Packers' director of research and development.

Named to the newly created position within the Packers' organizational structure on March 9, 2001, Eayrs had spent the previous 16 seasons on the football staff of the Minnesota Vikings.

Eayrs manages databases and develops research reports for coaches, player personnel and management based on the analysis of statistical and tactical trends.

Having developed computer applications within football for 31 years, Eayrs (pronounced A-ers) is in his 28th season working in the NFL. He spent the first 16 seasons as director of research and development for the Vikings. During his Minnesota tenure, the club tallied 201 victories and appeared in three NFC Championship games (1987, '98 and 2000).

Also a 13-year coaching veteran, including 11 seasons at the college level, Eayrs earned a bachelor's degree in social studies and physical education from Augsburg College in Minneapolis, where he participated in football.

The 61-year-old Eayrs began his coaching career in Winnebago, Minn., before becoming an assistant coach at the University of South Dakota two years later in 1974. He subsequently coached at the University of Wisconsin–La Crosse (1975-80), Mankato State University (1981-83) and Luther College (1984) before joining the Vikings. During his 11 seasons in the college ranks, Eayrs received four teaching excellence awards and his teams won five conference championships.

Born Jan. 30, 1951, in West Concord, Minn., Eayrs also holds a master's degree in physical education from the University of South Dakota and an educational doctorate in physical education and recreation management from the University of Oregon.

Eayrs and his wife, Mary Jo, reside in Green Bay and have three children: Matthew, 34, Elizabeth, 32, and Brian, 30; the couple has two granddaughters, 4-year-old Ashlyn and infant Mary. In his spare time, Eayrs is an avid reader and enjoys movies and fitness.

BOB ECKBERG

VIDEO DIRECTOR

Now in his 12th season as Green Bay's video director, Bob Eckberg is enjoying his 31st year with the Packers overall.

In 2001, Eckberg became only the second full-time video director in franchise history.

In his position, Eckberg oversees the production and editing of all game and practice tapes for the coaching and personnel staffs, as well as the regular exchange of video with other teams. In addition, he is in charge of the purchase and maintenance of the team's vast array of video equipment.

The 61-year-old Eckberg also directs the video department's taping of all workouts on prospective players and maintains a video library of all games for the previous three years. Additionally, the video staff compiles college player-profile tapes for use during NFL Draft preparation. Eckberg also attends and shoots video of prospective players at the NFL Scouting Combine, held every February in Indianapolis.

Eckberg began his career with the Packers in the early 1970s while working in the photo department of WBAY-TV in Green Bay. While employed at the station, Eckberg helped process all of the Packers' game film and in 1974 started shooting end-zone-angle coaching film for home games played in Green Bay and Milwaukee. In the early 1980s, videotape technology became standard in the television industry, and the Packers purchased the film-lab setup from WBAY and hired Eckberg as assistant video director in 1982. In 1986 the entire NFL switched to videotape technology and Eckberg assisted in the decisions of which video equipment to buy. Today, the video department is completely digital, allowing the players and coaches to watch film anywhere on their iPads, laptops and other mobile devices.

In addition to almost three decades of NFL games, Eckberg also has shot numerous postseason games, including the 1987 Hula Bowl, the 1982, 1987 and 2001 Senior Bowls, the 2005 Cactus Bowl, the 2008 and 2012 Pro Bowls, and Super Bowls XXXI, XXXII and XLV. In addition, he served the NFL video directors during the 2000 season as a member of the quality-control committee.

Born Oct. 10, 1950, in Green Bay, Eckberg is a 1969 graduate of the city's Premontre High School. He and his wife, Terri, also a Green Bay native, enjoy spending time with their children and grandchildren at their family cabin in northern Wisconsin.

THADEUS JACKSON

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Hired in advance of the team's offseason training program in 2010 as strength and conditioning assistant, Thadeus Jackson enters his third year with the Packers. His primary duties include designing, organizing and executing strength and conditioning procedures, as well as assisting with practice and assisting the defensive staff on gamedays.

Prior to coming to the Packers, Jackson spent 2009 as the head strength and conditioning coach at Hinds Community College (Raymond, Miss.), the same school where he started his career. He developed all strength and conditioning and speed programs for the football team, and also assisted with the on-field coaching of the wide receivers.

Jackson started his career in sports at Hinds as a student athletic trainer from 2000-2001, working with the football, baseball, track and field and basketball teams. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning program, specifically offseason workouts. During his first stint at Hinds, he worked with future Iowa quarterback and 2002 Heisman Trophy runner-up Brad Banks.

Following the completion of his associate's degree at Hinds, Jackson moved on to the University of Alabama, where he served as a student athletic trainer from 2002-05. In 2005, he was hired as a strength and conditioning assistant at Alabama, spending the majority of his time with the football program. During his time at the school, Jackson worked with numerous future NFL players, including DeMeco Ryans (Houston/Philadelphia), Brodie Croyle (Kansas City) and Packers safety Charlie Peprah.

While still working at Alabama, Jackson got his first NFL experience, serving as an athletic training intern for the New England Patriots during the team's 2003 training camp.

Jackson left Alabama in 2007 to serve as a manager and training coordinator at Young Champions Academy in Waco, Texas. He developed and coordinated programs designed to teach children basic coordination, movement, and sports-specific skills. He also made staff schedules, gave tours and assisted in marketing and advertising for the academy.

The 32-year-old Jackson holds a B.S. in science from the University of Alabama and is currently working toward his M.S. in strength and conditioning, which he started at Jackson State University (Jackson, Miss.).

Jackson attended New Hope High School in Columbus, Miss., starting three years and earning two letters as a defensive back. He was named team captain as a senior.

Born Sept. 1, 1980, in Columbus, Miss., Jackson is single and resides in Hobart, Wis. In his spare time, he enjoys cooking, hunting, fishing, traveling and working out. He is also an avid reader and enjoys books about leadership, health, and strength and conditioning.

MATT KLEIN

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION COORDINATOR

Matt Klein enters his 14th season with the Green Bay Packers. Named football administration coordinator by Head Coach Mike McCarthy in January 2006, Klein, 36, previously served as assistant director of football administration. He originally joined the Packers as administrative assistant/football in 1999, when he first worked with McCarthy, who was then serving as the team's quarterbacks coach.

Responsible for coordinating all facets of the team's daily operations, including the coaching staff's schedule, Klein serves as a point of communication in administering every Packers practice and team function, including offseason mini-camps, organized team activities and the annual training camp. Additionally, Klein serves as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, public relations and video departments.

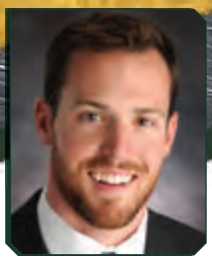
Klein also arranges team travel for the club's away games; his duties include coordinating air and ground transportation and securing hotel accommodations for the team, coaching staff and traveling support-staff members. In 2010, he served as part of a group of team staffers that helped plan the arrangements needed to move the organization's operations to North Texas for the week leading up to Super Bowl XLV.

Born Aug. 29, 1976, in Clintonville, Wis., Klein spent five seasons working with Barry Alvarez's football staff at the University of Wisconsin. He contributed to a program that earned berths in four bowls, including a victory in the Rose Bowl after the '98 season.

Klein left school early to accept a position with the Packers in 1999. He completed his coursework at the University of Wisconsin–Green Bay and earned his bachelor's degree in marketing, with a minor in economics.

Klein and his wife, Leah, live in Green Bay with their two sons, Nathan, 10, and Owen, 7.

A friend of fellow Wisconsin native Matt Kenseth, a top-ranked Sprint Cup competitor, Klein enjoys closely following NASCAR. He also devotes much of his spare time to reading and spending time with his family.



ZAC WOODFIN

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Hired on Feb. 22, 2011, Zac Woodfin enters his second season with the Packers as strength and conditioning assistant. His primary duties include designing, organizing and implementing strength and conditioning programs, speed and agility sessions, and providing recovery strategies and nutritional guidance.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Woodfin served as a performance specialist at Athletes' Performance in Los Angeles since 2007, where he trained various NFL, NBA, MLB and Olympic athletes. His main focus was NFL veterans in the offseason as well as college athletes preparing for the NFL Combine. Woodfin also gained experience training tactical athletes of the United States Special Forces while at Athletes' Performance.

Before that, Woodfin worked at his alma mater, the University of Alabama at Birmingham, as well as the University of Alabama, in 2007. At UAB, he assisted with the football, men's and women's basketball, and track and field programs. Woodfin was a volunteer assistant for Alabama's football team, assisting the head strength coach with the team's in-season program.

Woodfin got his start in the field as an intern at UAB in 2006 when he helped supervise the speed, agility and strength training for the football team. He also interned briefly at Athletes' Performance in '07.

As a player, Woodfin entered the NFL in April 2005 with the Packers as a non-drafted free agent linebacker out of UAB. He was released by Green Bay in the final roster cutdown, but spent the first seven games of the season on the Packers' practice squad. Woodfin also spent time on the practice squads of New Orleans and Baltimore in '05, and was signed to the Ravens' active roster toward the end of the season. He was also with the Houston Texans briefly in the summer of 2007.

Woodfin was selected in the first round of the NFL Europe Draft by Frankfurt in 2007, and started for a Galaxy team that advanced to the World Bowl that season.

Woodfin finished his career at UAB as the school's all-time leading tackler with 372, a mark that still stands today, and earned first-team All-Conference USA honors as a junior and senior. He recorded a school-record 149 tackles in 2003, topping the mark he had set in 2002 (120).

The 29-year-old Woodfin holds a B.S. in exercise science from UAB and is certified through the NSCA and USAW. He attended Prattville (Ala.) High School, where he earned all-state and all-metro honors as a senior. A four-time letterman, he also played fullback and tight end in high school.

Woodfin was born March 19, 1983, in Montgomery, Ala. He and his wife, Fawn, reside in Green Bay. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking, mountain biking, golf, traveling, reading, working out and spending time with family and friends.

GREEN BAY'S UNIQUE TRAINING-CAMP EXPERIENCE

The Packers are one of a growing number of teams who do not leave their regular-season practice facility during training camp.

But beyond practice and meetings, the team does use a college setting to sleep, bunking at St. Norbert College in De Pere, a 10-minute drive from Lambeau Field.

The Packers' 54-year training-camp relationship with St. Norbert, launched in 1958 by head coach Scooter McLean, is the longest in league history. The Vikings (Minnesota State-Mankato, 47 years) and Steelers (St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa., 44 years) are the only other teams with comparable training-camp tenures. The Packers' full list of training-camp sites, since Curly Lambeau launched the tradition in 1946:

1946-49 ..... Rockwood Lodge (Bayshore area, north of Green Bay)
1950 ..... Northland Hotel (Green Bay)
1951-53 ..... Grand Rapids, Minn.
1954-57 ..... University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point
1958-present ..... St. Norbert College, De Pere, Wis.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Named a Pro Bowl alternate following his first year as the full-time starter at the "Mack" LB position in 2011. Started a career-high 13 games and posted new career bests with a team-leading 142 tackles (109 solo) and five sacks, despite missing three games with a calf injury.

Moved into a starting role in 2010 for the final 12 games and all four postseason contests following Nick Barnett's season-ending wrist injury.

Took advantage of the increased playing time, recording then-career highs in nearly every statistical category, finishing second on the team in tackles with 121 (82 solo) while adding three sacks and an interception that he returned for his first career TD.

Also in 2010, led the linebackers and finished fourth on the team with a career-high 10 passes defensed, the most by a Green Bay LB since John Anderson registered 15 in 1981.

First career start came at weakside LB in Week 14 of 2008 vs. Houston and he posted 12 tackles (eight solo) and two forced fumbles, along with his first career sack.

Started his career as a core member of the Packers' special teams in his first three seasons, leading the team with a career-high 22 tackles on special teams in 2009, and his 49 stops from 2007-09 were the most by a Packer over that span.

Battled injuries earlier in his career, missing four games with a shoulder injury his rookie year in 2007 and two more due to an Achilles issue in 2008.

Began coming into his own late in his rookie year, making four special teams tackles in one game at St. Louis (Dec. 16, 2007). Had a notable rookie preseason, leading the team with 18 tackles and starting once in the middle for Barnett (coach's decision).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Entrenched starter in the middle of the Packers' 3-4 defense, was named a Pro Bowl alternate after starting a career-high 13 games in 2011 and setting new career highs with 142 tackles (109 solo) and five sacks.
- Became a regular starter in 2010 when he opened the final 12 games of the season and finished second on the team with 121 tackles (82 solo), three sacks and an interception.
- Led the linebackers with a career-high 10 passes defensed in 2010, the most by a Green Bay LB since John Anderson registered 15 in 1981.
- Paced the team with a career-high 22 special teams tackles in 2009, and his 49 tackles on special teams from 2007-09 led the team over that span.
- Led the Pacific-10 in tackles in 2006 with 126, the first Cal player to lead the conference in 13 years.
- Physically strong and powerful, having bench-pressed 225 pounds 33 times at the NFL scouting combine.
- Father, Dennis, played football collegiately at Illinois and professionally in the USFL.

2011 SEASON: Entered the season as a starter for the first time in his career and did not disappoint, being named an alternate for the Pro Bowl after setting new career highs with 13 starts, a team-high 142 tackles (109 solo) and five sacks…Suffered a calf injury in the first half of the team's Week 12 Thanksgiving Day contest at Detroit (Nov. 24), and missed the ensuing three games, snapping a streak of 23 consecutive regular-season starts that dated back to Week 5 of 2010…Posted double-digit tackle totals in eight of the 12 games he did finish and led the team in tackles nine times… Also added two forced fumbles and two passes defensed… At Chicago (Sept. 25): Led the team with seven tackles (five solo), helping to key a run defense that allowed just 13 net yards on the day, tied for the fourth-lowest single-game total in franchise history…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Led the way with 13 tackles (11 solo), a sack and a key forced fumble. Forced fumble came in the third quarter deep inside Green Bay territory when he missed a jam at the line on Daniel Fells and was trailing the TE down the seam. Gave up a completion but caught up in time to make the tackle and strip the ball from behind; fumble was recovered by S Morgan Burnett. The offense drove 86 yards in five plays for a TD, extending the lead to 42-17. Second sack of the season came on Denver's next possession...Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Recorded a career-high 20 tackles (15 solo) for a defense that did not allow a TD for the only time all season. Was awarded a defensive game ball after posting the highest tackle total by a Green Bay player since LB A.J. Hawk tallied 20 at Seattle on Nov. 27, 2006. Helped key a red-zone defense that kept the Rams from scoring on three trips inside the 20...At San Diego (Nov. 6): Finished with a team-high 10 tackles (six solo, one for loss), his career-high fourth sack, and a pass defensed. Credited with a pass defensed after running in coverage with TE Antonio Gates down the seam and deflecting a pass that was intercepted by S Charlie Peprah and ultimately returned 40 yards for a TD. Set a new single-season career high with his 9-yard sack of QB Philip Rivers early in the fourth quarter…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Started the game and recorded four tackles (two solo) in the early going, but suffered a calf injury late in the first quarter and did not return…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Returned to the starting lineup after missing the three previous games while rehabilitating the calf injury. Finished as the team's leading tackler, making 15 stops (nine solo, one for loss)... Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted six tackles (four solo, two for loss), two passes defensed and a QB hit. Pair of passes defensed came in coverage against TE Jake Ballard where he twice knocked the ball away as it arrived. QB hit helped force a turnover when he blitzed past LG Kevin Boothe and put a hit on QB Eli Manning, leading to a premature release of the ball and an overthrow that landed in the hands of Burnett, the Giants' lone turnover of the game.

2010: Played in 15 games with a then-career-best 12 starts, opening the final 12 games, and also started all four playoff contests…Finished second on the team with 121 tackles (82 solo) and added three sacks and a career-high 10 passes defensed while also recording his first career INT (returned for TD)…Led the team with 30 tackles (26 solo) in the postseason and two fumble recoveries…Added a sack, a forced fumble and a pass defensed in the playoffs…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Was inactive for the first time since at Tennessee (Nov. 2, 2008) due to a hamstring injury that he originally sustained during the preseason. Aggravated the injury in the season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12)…At Washington (Oct. 10): Started at "Mack" LB in place of an injured Barnett, the second start of his career and first since vs. Houston (Dec. 7, 2008). Responded with 13 tackles (10 solo), a sack, a tackle for loss, three QB hits and a pass defensed. Drilled QB Donovan McNabb for an 8-yard sack on the Redskins' final drive of the first half…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Followed up his strong performance at Washington with a season-best 16 tackles (seven solo), and added a QB hit and a pass defensed…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Posted 11 tackles (six solo) and the first INT of his career, one he returned 32 yards for a TD. Picked off QB Brett Favre in the third quarter and went untouched into the end zone to give Green Bay a 28-17 lead. Stayed with WR Randy Moss, his coverage assignment, despite a pump fake by Favre. Also put a hit on Moss on the final play of the game to help break up a Favre pass to the back of the end zone, preserving the 28-24 win…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Led the team with 13 tackles (12 solo) and matched his career high with two passes defensed…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Sacked QB Jon Kitna for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter, forcing a fumble that was recovered by RB Felix Jones…At New England (Dec. 19): Sacked QB Tom Brady for a 10-yard loss early in the second quarter, forcing a fumble that Brady recovered…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Matched his career high with two passes defensed and added eight tackles (four solo)…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Set the tone for the game when he came untouched off the right edge to sack QB Michael Vick for a 9-yard loss on the opening play from scrimmage…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Led the team with nine tackles (seven solo) and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. In the fourth quarter, hit WR Michael Jenkins after a 3-yard catch, jarring the ball loose before recovering at the Atlanta 33 to set up a 32-yard Mason Crosby FG…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished second on the team with nine tackles (eight solo), including three for a loss while adding a critical fumble recovery. Fumble recovery came on the first play of the fourth quarter with the Steelers driving and the Packers protecting a 21-17 lead. Disengaged from a block by RT Flozell Adams to scoop up RB Rashard Mendenhall's fumble that was forced by LB Clay Matthews. Located the ball behind the line of scrimmage, picking it up in stride to return it 9 yards before being brought down by C Doug Legursky.

2009: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career and led the team with a career-high 22 tackles on special teams…Also played in team's playoff game and was voted one of the special teams captains for the postseason…On the field for more than 76 percent of team's special teams plays, second most on the squad…Recorded 14 tackles (11 solo) in limited time on defense, backing up Hawk at "Buck" LB and seeing periodic action as fifth LB in "Psycho" package…Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles…Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Led the team with three stops on special teams…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Saw first action of season on defense and recorded a season-high four tackles (three solo). Brought down FB Mike Karney for a 2-yard loss on a pass early in the fourth quarter. Added two stops on special teams…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Filled in for an injured Brandon Chillar (hand) in nickel for the rest of the game after Chillar left late in the first half. Posted three tackles (all solo) and a pass defensed. Tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles. Forced a fumble by DE Brian Robison, who was returning a squib kick on third-quarter kickoff; S Nick Collins recovered fumble at the Minnesota 41 to set up a TE Spencer Havner 16-yard TD catch…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Tied for team lead and matched career high with four special teams tackles…At Chicago (Dec. 13): Saw action on defense in team's five-LB "Psycho" package and recorded two tackles (one solo)…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Registered a tackle on special teams and saw limited action on defense in "Psycho" package.

2008: Played in 15 games with one start and made 27 tackles on defense (18 solo) with one sack, taking on work at weak-side LB in addition to his customary duties backing up the middle...Led team with three forced fumbles...Finished third on the team with 15 special teams tackles...On the field for more than 71 percent of team's special teams plays, second most on the team…Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): On Will Blackmon's 76-yard punt return for a score, took out a Vikings player on the sideline to allow Blackmon to cut back across the field…Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Took some snaps on defense when Barnett left game briefly late in first quarter with elbow injury...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Saw action at WLB when Hawk went out with groin injury, and posted three tackles (two solo)…Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles, including one stop of WR Pierre Garçon on a kickoff return at the Indianapolis 14…At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Saw extensive action in second half at MLB after Barnett left on the first series of the second half with a knee injury, and recorded nine tackles. Forced RB Adrian Peterson to fumble on a fourth-and-1 run in the fourth quarter that the Vikings recovered, but gave the Packers possession on downs at the Minnesota 41 to set up a Crosby FG. Added a season-high three special teams tackles and made a key block on Collins' 59-yard INT return for a TD to allow him to cut across the field…Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started first career game, opening up at WLB in place of an injured Chillar (groin), and posted a season-high 12 tackles and a career-best two forced fumbles. Registered his first career sack when he brought down Matt Schaub for a 6-yard loss in the second quarter, broke into the backfield to stop FB Cecil Sapp for a 3-yard loss on a third-and-1 in the first quarter, forced a fumble early in the second quarter by TE Owen Daniels at the Green Bay 1 that CB Tramon Williams recovered at the 3 and forced another fumble by Daniels in the fourth quarter that went out of bounds…At Chicago (Dec. 22): Matched his season high with three special teams tackles and made one stop in limited action on defense.

2007: Served as the backup MLB and made an impact as a special-teams regular after earning a roster spot with a productive preseason that included a team-high 18 tackles…Played in 10 games and was inactive for the other six, mostly due to a shoulder injury…Posted 12 special teams tackles and six on defense (four solo)…At Detroit (Nov. 22): Saw his first career action on defense, playing one snap…At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Registered a career-high four special teams tackles…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Saw his most extensive action of the season on defense, entering the game for Barnett in the second quarter and tallying six tackles (four solo), the first tackles from scrimmage of his career…Vs.

LOMBARDI'S PUPILS

Vince Lombardi hired 11 assistant coaches during his nine years (1959-67) as Packers head coach. Of those assistants, five became NFL head coaches: Bill Austin (Pittsburgh, Washington), Phil Bengtson (Green Bay), Jerry Burns (Minnesota), Tom Fears (New Orleans) and Norb Hecker (Atlanta).

N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Made two special teams tackles…2007 Draft: Selected in the sixth round with the 192nd overall pick, the 27th LB chosen. Was the second of three consecutive choices the Packers had in the round. Selected with pick acquired from Pittsburgh along with the Steelers' fourth-round choice (No. 119) for Green Bay's fourth-round pick (No. 112). First defensive player drafted by the Packers out of California since DB Jerry Scattini in 1962 (19th round).

COLLEGE: After transferring from junior college, started all 25 games he appeared in at Cal, collecting 215 tackles (125 solo), 21 stops for loss, three sacks, three INTs, four passes defensed, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries…Led Cal in tackles both his seasons there…Majored in interdisciplinary studies…Was the ninth player from Cal drafted by the Packers and second in three-year period, joining QB Aaron Rodgers (D1-05)…Senior season (2006): Led the Pacific-10 with 126 tackles (63 solo), the most tackles recorded by a Cal player since Jerrott Willard in 1993 and the first player to lead the conference in tackles since then…A third-team All-American choice by Rivals.com, earned honorable mention from The NFL Draft Report and garnered All-Pac-10 first-team accolades…In 13 games, also had three sacks, a team-high 15 stops for loss (fourth in Pac-10), two pass break-ups, three INTs, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries…Ranked 14th nationally, averaging 9.69 tackles per game…Had at least seven tackles in 11 of 13 contests, and was in double digits five times…In perhaps his best collegiate performance, posted a career-high 16 tackles (seven solo), with 3½ tackles for loss, a forced fumble, and a game-clinching INT vs. Washington (Oct. 21) that he returned 79 yards in overtime to seal 31-24 win…Junior season (2005): Immediately won a starting job at Cal upon his arrival and picked up second-team All-Pac-10 honors…Started all 12 games at MLB and led the team with 89 tackles (62 solo), with six stops for loss, one QB pressure, one forced fumble, and two pass deflections…Tallied 12 tackles, including a career-high 11 solo, vs. USC (Nov. 12)…Junior college: A two-year letterman at City College of San Francisco (2003-04), where he was a teammate of future Cal quarterback Joe Ayoob…Ranked by SuperPrep as the fourth-best community college player in the nation and was voted California's 2004 Junior College Defensive Player of the Year by the JC Athletic Bureau/California Community College Football Coaches Association…Named the Northern California Conference Defensive Most Valuable Player…First-team JC Grid-Wire All-American, averaging almost 12 tackles per game with 118 stops in 10 regular-season contests in 2004…Was virtually unstoppable in the state's championship game with 14 tackles (including eight solo stops), one sack and two tackles for loss vs. College of the Canyons…Also played on CCSF's undefeated (13-0) team that won the national championship in 2003.

PERSONAL: Given name Desmond Lamont Bishop…Nicknamed "Dez"…Born in San Francisco, Calif. …Single…Father, Dennis, played football collegiately at Illinois and professionally in the USFL…High school: Attended Fairfield (Calif.) TACKLE • IOWA

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 314 • Born: March 21, 1989 • NFL Games Played/Started: 28/24 • Acquired: D1-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has started 12 games at RT in each of his first two seasons as a pro.

Allowed just one sack in 2011, according to STATS LLC.

As a rookie in 2010, started the final 12 regular-season games and all four postseason contests at RT after taking over for injured veteran Mark Tauscher (shoulder).

His 12 starts in '10 were the most in the regular season by a Packers rookie tackle since Tauscher's 14 in 2000.

Named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA in 2010.

Capped his impressive rookie season by becoming the youngest player, according to STATS LLC, to ever start in the Super Bowl (21 years, 322 days), and turned in a commendable performance against Pittsburgh pass rusher LaMarr Woodley.

Was the fourth offensive tackle selected in the 2010 NFL Draft (No. 23 overall). Became the first offensive lineman to be selected in the first round by the Packers since Ross Verba in 1997 and the third Iowa offensive lineman to be selected in the first round in team history (Verba, Ron Hallstrom in 1982).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has started 12 contests at right tackle in each of his first two seasons as a pro.
- Opened the final 12 games of 2010 and the entire postseason at RT after taking over for injured veteran Mark Tauscher (shoulder), the most regular-season starts by a Packers rookie tackle since Tauscher's 14 in 2000.
- Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team in 2010.
- In 2009, became sixth Iowa player to be named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, and third of the decade.
- Started 23 of 26 games at left tackle over his final two college seasons, missing three games in 2009 due to thyroid condition.
- Was the first offensive lineman selected in the first round by the Packers since 1997 (Ross Verba) and the third offensive lineman from Iowa taken in the first round in team history (Verba, Ron Hallstrom in 1982).
- A star two-way player as a prep, was recruited by several major college programs as a defensive lineman.

2011 SEASON: Started all 12 games that he appeared in, as well as the team's playoff contest…Helped the offense set franchise records for points (560), also the second most in NFL history, total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14)…Blocked for QB Aaron Rodgers as he was named the NFL Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press after setting an NFL single-season record for passer rating (122.5) and team marks for touchdown passes (45), passing yards (4,643), yards per attempt (9.25), completion percentage (68.3) and 300-yard games (eight)…Allowed just one sack on the season, according to STATS LLC…Started each of the first three games before suffering a knee injury at Chicago in Week 3, which forced him to miss the next two contests (vs. Denver, at Atlanta)…Sustained a sprain around his kneecap at Kansas City in Week 15 and was sidelined for the final two regular-season games vs. Chicago and Detroit…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Helped the offense register a 419-yard, 30-point outing and match a season low with only one sack allowed. Made a key drive block on DE Greg Hardy on RB James Starks' game-long 40-yard run in the third quarter…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Helped block for another prolific performance by Rodgers, one that saw him throw for 335 yards and three TDs en route to the second-highest passer rating of his career (146.5). Was an integral part of the "four-minute" situational drive at the end of the game that allowed Starks to pound out 55 yards on six carries as the Packers ran out the final 2:30…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Helped the offense rack up 38 points and provided time for Rodgers to complete 23-of-30 passes for 250 yards and four TDs. It marked his third straight 140-plus rating game as Rodgers joined Kurt Warner (1999) as the only QBs in NFL history to accomplish that feat…At Detroit (Nov.

YOUTH IS SERVED

In Super Bowl XLV, Packers rookie right tackle Bryan Bulaga was part of an offensive line charged with quieting a formidable foe in the Pittsbugh Steelers' defensive front. Led by veteran coordinator Dick LeBeau and noted pass-rushing linebackers James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley, the Pittsburgh defense ranked No. 2 in the NFL in total yardage during the regular season and led the league with 48 sacks.

Bulaga and the offensive line were more than up to the challenge, allowing QB Aaron Rodgers time to throw for 304 yards and three touchdowns en route to garnering Super Bowl MVP honors in the 31-25 Green Bay victory.

Even more impressive was that in opening the game for the Packers, Bulaga became the youngest player to ever start in the 45-year history of the Super Bowl. Bulaga was 21 years, 322 days old on the evening of the game, Feb. 6, 2011.

Ironically, Steelers center Maurkice Pouncey would have laid claim to the distinction at 21 years, 197 days, but was forced to miss the game because of an injury.

A look at the youngest players to have ever started in the Super Bowl, according to STATS LLC:

Player, Team	Position	Years, Days	Game Date	Opponent
Bryan Bulaga, GB	T	21, 322	Feb. 6, 2011	Pit.
Ricky Nattiel, Den.	WR	22, 6	Jan. 31, 1988	Was.
Burton Lawless, Dal.	G	22, 78	Jan. 18, 1976	Pit.
Richard Seymour, NE	DT	22, 120	Feb. 3, 2002	StL
Charlie Waters, Dal.	FS	22, 129	Jan. 17, 1971	Ind.
Gene Upshaw, Oak.	G	22, 152	Jan. 14, 1968	GB
Terry Glenn, NE	WR	22, 187	Jan. 26, 1997	GB
Jack Lambert, Pit.	LB	22, 188	Jan. 12, 1975	Min.
Antoine Bethea, Ind.	SS	22, 192	Feb. 4, 2007	Chi.
Tony Hill, Dal.	WR	22, 212	Jan. 21, 1979	Pit.
Ephraim Salaam, Atl.	T	22, 226	Jan. 31, 1999	Den.

24): Helped silence a vaunted Detroit front, allowing Rodgers time to complete 22-of-33 passes for 307 yards and two TDs as he posted an NFL-record 11th straight game with a 110-plus passer rating…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Held up well in protection once again, facing several of the Giants' talented linemen as the offense allowed only two sacks. Helped Rodgers throw for 369 yards, his franchise-record eighth 300-yard game of the season, and four TDs.

2010: Competed in training camp for the starting LG position, began the season as the top reserve at LT and LG, and then took over as the starting RT in Week 5 when Tauscher was lost for the season to a shoulder injury…Went on to start the final 12 games of the regular season and the entire postseason at RT…Named to the All-Rookie team by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Made NFL debut on special teams, blocking on FGs and PATs…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Saw his first regular-season playing time at LT in relief of Chad Clifton (knee), entering the game with just under six minutes left in the second quarter and playing the rest of the way…At Washington (Oct. 10): Made first NFL start at Washington (Oct. 10), at RT in place of Tauscher. Blocked for team's season-high 157 rushing yards on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.), the first time in franchise history that the Packers rushed for 150-plus yards on fewer than 20 attempts in a regular-season game…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Became the youngest player, according to STATS LLC, to start in the Super Bowl (21 years, 322 days), besting the mark set by Denver WR Ricky Nattiel (22 years, six days) in Super Bowl XXII vs. Washington. Turned in one of his best performances of the season against outside rusher LaMarr Woodley, limiting him to just one sack…2010 Draft: Selected in the first round at No. 23 overall, the fourth OT taken. Became the first offensive lineman selected in the first round by the Packers since Verba in '97 and the third Iowa offensive lineman selected in the first round in team history (Verba, Hallstrom in '82).

COLLEGE: Played in 30 games for Iowa with 28 starts in three seasons, 23 of them at LT…Allowed just 3½ sacks and was penalized only five times in his career…Chose Iowa in part because of the opportunity to play offensive line, and also because Iowa City reminded him most of his hometown…Majored in communication studies…Junior season (2009): Started 10 of 13 games at LT, missing three games following the season opener with a thyroid condition…A cold or flu virus settled into his thyroid, causing weakness and fatigue during any periods of exertion…Even after returning to the lineup, needed another three games to feel back to full strength…Still, was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, becoming the sixth Hawkeye to receive the honor, along with Robert Gallery (2003), Eric Steinbach (2002), Mike Devlin (1992), Dave Croston (1986) and Mike Haight (1985)…Also was a first-team All-America selection by Sporting News, with other All-America honors coming from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and The Associated Press (both second team), CollegeFootballNews.com (third team), and Pro Football Weekly (honorable mention)…Named first-team All-Big Ten by league's coaches and media, Sporting News and Phil Steele's College Football…One of four juniors named to team's 2009 leadership group…Allowed two sacks on 392 pass plays, both coming vs. Michigan DE Brandon Graham (Oct. 10), the No. 13 overall pick in the first round of the 2010 draft by Philadelphia who had 3½ total tackles for loss in the contest…Closed college career at Orange Bowl in Miami vs. Georgia Tech (Jan. 5), limiting DE Derrick Morgan, drafted No. 16 overall in the first round by Tennessee in 2010, to just three tackles; key block on Morgan cleared way for RB Brandon Wegher's 32-yard TD run to seal 24-14 win…Sophomore season (2008): Started all 13 games at LT, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors from league's coaches and honorable mention from media…Named first-team All-Big Ten by Phil Steele's College Football and Sophomore All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com…In 835 total snaps, was penalized just twice, and on 320 pass plays allowed only 1½ sacks…Helped rushing offense, led by future N.Y. Jets draft pick RB Shonn Greene, top 200 yards six times…Made first start at LT vs. Maine (Aug. 30)…Aided ground game in churning out season-best 254 rushing yards, including 217 with four TDs from Greene, vs. Wisconsin (Oct. 18)…Helped offense rush for 248 yards vs. Purdue (Nov. 15), and on 14-yard TD run by Greene, threw a block on fellow 2010 Green Bay draftee Mike Neal, though the two did not go head-to-head throughout the game…Freshman season (2007): Played in seven games, with five starts at LG, playing every offensive snap in those five starts to close the season…One of 11 true freshmen to see action for the Hawkeyes…Named to Freshman All-Big Ten team by Sporting News…After coming off the bench to play in season opener vs. Northern Illinois (Sept. 1), missed the next five contests with a shoulder injury…Made first career start, at LG, at Purdue (Oct. 20)…Started at LG vs. Michigan State (Oct. 27) as offense rushed for 230 yards in double-OT win to start a three-game winning streak.

PERSONAL: Given name Bryan Joseph Bulaga…Born in Barrington, Ill. …Single…High school: As a senior at Marian Central Catholic High (Woodstock, Ill.), earned Parade and PrepStar first-team All-America honors, plus second-team recognition from USA Today…Also earned first-team all-state honors from the Illinois High School Football Coaches Association, the Chicago Tribune and the Champaign News-Gazette, and was named Suburban Catholic Conference and Northwest Herald Area Player of the Year…A two-year varsity captain who did not allow a sack as a LT in his career; also played DE, LB and TE…As a junior, was named first-team all-area by the Chicago Sun-Times…In his career, recorded 261 career tackles, with 46 for loss, 31 sacks and one INT, with 23 of the sacks coming at DE as a senior…As a TE, posted 35 career receptions for 665 yards (19.0 avg.) and 10 TDs, plus three two-point conversions…Also lettered one year each in baseball and basketball…Community involvement: Participated in the Green Bay Packers Golf Invitational in Kohler, Wis. …Helped coach kids at the annual Junior Power Pack football clinic…Also supported the Jerry Parins Cruise for Cancer with an autograph signing and attended the local Families of Children with Cancer holiday party…Participated in the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowl-A-Thon…In college, participated in an effort to help flood victims in Cedar Rapids, Iowa…Interests/hobbies: Once worked at his uncle's Avis rental-car business…Visited Atlantis in the offseason...Enjoys watching movies, reading, and playing golf and video games…Lists Game of Thrones as his favorite TV show and The Dark Knight as his favorite movie…Residence: Crystal Lake, Ill.

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 209 • Born: January 13, 1989 • NFL Games Played/Started: 20/20 • Acquired: D3-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Started each of the team's 16 regular-season games in 2011, the first two at strong safety and the final 14 at free safety in place of an injured Nick Collins (neck), one of only two Green Bay defenders to start all 16 games (NT B.J. Raji).

Suffered a hand injury in practice in advance of the team's Week 6 contest vs. St. Louis, but remained in the lineup and played the ensuing six games with a cast on.

Despite the injury, he continued to fill in the statistics sheet in first full season of action, establishing new career bests with a secondary-high 107 tackles (83 solo), 14 passes defensed, three interceptions, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a sack.

Posted three INTs in the season's first three games, and combined with his one in the first four games of 2010, became the first Packer since S Chuck Cecil in 1988 to have four INTs in his first seven NFL games.

Started the first four games at SS before his rookie campaign was cut short by a season-ending knee injury (ACL) sustained in Week 4. Became just the second Packers rookie to open the season as a starter at safety since Cecil in 1988, joining Collins (2005).

Was selected by the Packers in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft with the No. 71 overall pick. Green Bay traded up 15 spots from No. 86 to get him, surrendering that selection plus a fourth-round pick (No. 122 overall) to the Philadelphia Eagles, the third straight year GM Ted Thompson moved up in the draft to select a defensive player.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Enjoyed his first full season as a pro in 2011, joining NT B.J. Raji as the only two Green Bay defensive players to start all 16 games during the regular season.
- Was one of only two players on the team (CB Charles Woodson) to record a sack, an interception, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble in 2011.
- In 2010, joined Nick Collins in becoming only the second Packers rookie to open the season as a starter at safety since Chuck Cecil in 1988.
- Started the first four games of his rookie season at SS before sustaining a season-ending knee injury vs. Detroit in Week 4.
- In just three seasons at Georgia Tech, intercepted 14 passes, two shy of the school's career record.
- Earned second-team All-America and first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore in 2008, when he picked off seven passes and posted a career-high 93 tackles.
- Packers traded up 15 spots in the third round to select him, the third straight year GM Ted Thompson traded up to select a defensive player (Jeremy Thompson in 2008, Clay Matthews in 2009).
- Ran back four interceptions for TDs over his final two high school seasons.

2011 SEASON: Hit the ground running in training camp, quickly reclaiming his starting position at SS opposite the veteran Collins in the defensive backfield…Wound up starting all 16 games of the regular season, joining Raji as the only two defensive players to do so…Opened the first two games at SS, but played out the remaining 14 at FS following a season-ending neck injury to Collins in Week 2…Suffered an injury of his own when he sustained a fracture in his right hand during practice leading up to the team's Week 6 game vs. St. Louis…Played the ensuing six contests with a cast covering his hand, but still managed to set career highs in every major statistical category…Led the secondary and finished second on the team with 107 tackles (83 solo) and posted 14 passes defensed, three INTs, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a sack…Joined CB Charles Woodson as the only two players on the team to record a sack, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery during the season…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Started his first regular-season game since Week 4 of 2010 and picked up where he left off, posting a career-high and team-leading 14 tackles (nine solo) from the SS position. Most critical tackle came on the game's final play, when he came over the top of the first wave of defenders at the goal line and teamed with LB Clay Matthews to stop RB Mark Ingram from advancing as time expired, preserving the 42-34 win…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Showed his dynamic array of skills throughout the game, finishing with three tackles (all solo), a sack, a forced fumble and an INT. Forced fumble came when he punched the ball out from WR Steve Smith following a 25-yard gain in the third quarter and it was recovered by Woodson. On the following possession, made his third career INT on an overthrown ball by former Atlanta high school foe, QB Cam Newton. Was in a deep zone behind WR Legedu Naanee, who was running to the post when the ball sailed beyond his hands and Burnett dove at the Carolina 49 to pick it off. First career sack came later when his coverage responsibility, TE Greg Olsen, stayed in to block and he chased a rolling Newton to the right sideline, dropping him for a 3-yard loss. Became the first Packers defender since Woodson (Nov. 26, 2009, at Detroit) to record a sack, INT and forced fumble in the same game…At Chicago (Sept. 25): Led the secondary and placed second on the defense with six tackles (all solo) and two passes defensed, posting the first two-INT game of his young career. Flashed his impressive range on the first INT in the first quarter when he came from the hashes to haul in a deep QB Jay Cutler pass intended for WR Roy Williams along the Chicago sideline. The second INT came early in the fourth quarter when he was in zone coverage behind Williams. Cutler sailed the throw and he reached back high and to his left to secure the ball before being tackled. With the two INTs, became the first Packer since Cecil in 1988 to record four INTs in his first seven NFL games. Also teamed with Woodson to become the first Packers teammates to register two-INT games in back-to-back weeks since Cecil and CB Ron Pitts did so in Weeks 5-6 in 1988…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Suffered a fracture in his right hand at practice during the week and played the game with a club cast. Still managed to place third on the defense with 10 tackles (five solo) and his second forced fumble of the season. Lowered his shoulder into the back of RB Steven Jackson on a fourth-quarter carry, jarring the ball loose on impact, though it was recovered by St. Louis…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Finished with six tackles (all solo) and a career-high three passes defensed...Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Made six tackles (five solo) and added two passes defensed and a fumble recovery. Was involved in his fifth turnover play of the season when he picked up a fumble caused by LB Desmond Bishop in the first quarter and returned it 15 yards. The Green Bay offense would score a TD seven plays later…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Made his playoff debut, finishing with five tackles (four solo), two passes defensed and an INT. The INT came in the second quarter after he'd dropped into a zone coverage and dove forward to catch an overthrown pass from QB Eli Manning intended for WR Hakeem Nicks, returning it 12 yards on what was the Giants' lone turnover of the game.

2010: Opened the first four games of the season at SS before sustaining a season-ending ACL injury to his left knee in Week 4 vs. Detroit…Recorded 15 tackles (12 solo) and an interception in four games…Placed on injured reserve, Oct. 7…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Joined teammate Collins (2005) as the only Packers rookie safeties to start a season opener since Cecil in 1988. Recorded four tackles (three solo), tied for second among DBs, in his NFL debut. Part of a secondary that limited WRs Jeremy Maclin and DeSean Jackson to a combined eight catches for 68 yards. Along with CB Sam Shields, who started at nickel CB, became the first Green Bay rookie defensive-back tandem to start the season opener since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970. They were the first rookie duo to both start a regular-season game in the secondary since Collins and CB Mike Hawkins did so at Baltimore (Dec. 19, 2005)…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Posted first career interception in the 34-7 win over his former college coach, Bills head coach Chan Gailey. On the Bills' opening drive of the fourth quarter, attacked the line of scrimmage before the snap and met WR Roscoe Parrish immediately as a Trent Edwards pass arrived, wrestling the ball away for his first career INT at the Green Bay 43. The turnover led to a five-play, 52-yard TD drive that put the Packers ahead, 34-7. Added four tackles (three solo) and a pass defensed, including a stop of RB Marshawn Lynch for no gain up the middle on the play before his INT…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Posted three tackles (two solo) in 23 snaps, but suffered a torn ACL in his left knee, ending his debut season…2010 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the third round with the No. 71 overall pick. Green Bay traded up 15 spots, from No. 86, to get him by surrendering that selection plus a fourth-round pick (No. 122 overall) to the Philadelphia Eagles, the third straight year Thompson moved up in the draft to select a defensive player. Became the first player drafted by the Packers out of Georgia Tech since WR Charlie Simmons (sixth round, 1995) and was the highest-drafted safety out of Georgia Tech since Travares Tillman (Buffalo, 2000, second round, No. 58 overall).

COLLEGE: Intercepted 14 passes in three seasons for the Yellow Jackets, tied for second most in school history behind only the 16 of Willie Clay (1988-91)…Also compiled 235 career tackles (147 solo), eighth most by a Georgia Tech defensive back and just five tackles shy of cracking the top five…Played in 40 career games, starting 28, with all but one start coming at S (the other at CB)…Had 13½ tackles for loss, including one sack, plus two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, and 27 passes defensed…Majored in management…Junior season (2009): A second-team All-ACC pick and team captain, was a preseason candidate for the Jim Thorpe and Bronko Nagurski awards…Started all 14 games despite playing four contests with a cast on his hand for a broken thumb, leading the team in INTs for the third straight year and ranking second in tackles…Registered 85 tackles (48 solo), four tackles for loss, four INTs, eight passes defensed, a blocked kick, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery…Intercepted two passes for the third time in his career vs. North Carolina (Sept. 26), earning ACC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance…Sophomore season (2008): Started all 13 games and earned first-team All-America honors from The NFL Draft Report and second-team recognition from Rivals.com, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News…Led the ACC with seven INTs, the most by a Tech player since 1991 and tied for fourth most in a single season in school history…Named first-team All-ACC and led the team in total tackles (93) and solo tackles (62), recording double-digit tackles in four games…Had seven tackles for loss, one forced fumble and 15 total passes defensed…Picked off a Matthew Stafford pass at Georgia (Nov. 29) and returned it 35 yards for his lone career TD in a 45-42 win…Freshman season (2007): Played in all 13 games with one start…Saw action at both safety spots and as nickel back…Named to the ACC All-Freshman team and honorable mention Freshman All-America by Sporting News…Ranked fifth on the team with 57 tackles (37 solo) and first with three INTs, breaking up 10 passes altogether, six in the season's final three games…Added 2½ tackles for loss, one sack and a fumble recovery.

Seventh NFL Season
Seventh Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200 • Born: May 21, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 94/7 • Acquired: W-06 (Car)

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Former non-drafted free agent and waiver-wire pickup who has played in all 16 games for four straight seasons, continuing his role as a reserve DB and key contributor on special teams.

Served as both the dime and nickel CB at times during the 2011 season, making 21 tackles (14 solo), while posting a career-high two interceptions and his first career sack.

Tied for the team lead with 12 special teams tackles in 2011, his sixth straight season with a double-digit tackle total on special teams, becoming the first Packer to accomplish the feat since the statistic began being recorded in 1976.

Current streak of 73 consecutive games played (including postseason) ranks No. 2 on the team behind K Mason Crosby (88).

His 62 special teams tackles over the past five seasons rank first on the team over that span.

Has been voted one of the team's playoff captains as one of two special teams representatives prior to each of the last two postseasons.

Has missed just two contests in six seasons, appearing in 94 games with seven starts during his career.

Posted a career-high 26 tackles (22 solo), an interception and seven passes defensed in 2009 after stepping into an expanded role as the nickel CB following a season-ending knee injury to veteran Al Harris.

His career-high 17 special teams tackles in '08 ranked second on the team behind CB Will Blackmon (18).

Played in all 16 games as a rookie in 2006 despite joining Green Bay just a week prior to the season opener. Was one of four Packers rookies to play in every game that season, joining Daryn Colledge, A.J. Hawk and Tony Moll.

Joined the Packers after being claimed off waivers by Green Bay from Carolina on Sept. 3, 2006. Had originally signed with Carolina as a non-drafted free agent on May 5, 2006. As a restricted free agent in 2009, was signed by Tennessee to an offer sheet that Green Bay matched and was re-signed after reaching unrestricted free agency following the 2011 season.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has tallied double digits in special teams tackles each of the past six seasons, becoming the first Packer to accomplish that feat since the statistic began being recorded in 1976.
- Played in all 16 games for the fourth straight season in 2011, and has appeared in all 16 games in five of his six seasons in the NFL.
- Posted a career-high two interceptions and his first career sack in 2011.
- Intercepted a Ben Roethlisberger pass in the second quarter of Super Bowl XLV.
- Despite joining the team a week prior to the 2006 season opener, was one of four rookies to play in every game (Daryn Colledge, A.J. Hawk and Tony Moll).
- Earned All-WAC honors at Utah State after beginning his college career at American River (Calif.) Junior College as a wide receiver and switching to defense as a sophomore.
- A three-sport athlete in high school, he earned honors on the gridiron and on the track as a 110- and 300-meter hurdles champion.

2011 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the fourth consecutive season, extending a games-played streak that now stands at 73 games and counting (including playoffs)…Started two regular-season games as the team's No. 3 CB, recording 21 tackles (14 solo), a career-high two interceptions, 1½ sacks (the first of his career), and a career-high-tying eight passes defensed…Also started the team's divisional playoff contest…Continued to deliver in his role as one of the core players on special teams, tying with fellow CB Pat Lee for the team lead with 12 coverage tackles, his sixth consecutive season with a double-digit tackle total in the third phase…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Saw extended action late in the fourth quarter when starter Tramon Williams suffered a shoulder injury and did not return. Posted one solo tackle and a pass defensed and was credited with his first career sack when he split one with Hawk. Sack came out of the six-DB "Bat" formation, when he blitzed from the slot and teamed with Hawk to drop QB Drew Brees for a 10-yard loss, forcing a punt. Had one of the key blocks on WR Randall Cobb's NFL-record-tying 108-yard KR-TD when he joined with TE Andrew Quarless to combination-block DE Junior Galette and maintained the play long enough to get Cobb into the open field…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Saw extended action as the nickel CB in the absence of regular starter Williams (shoulder) and recorded a career-high seven tackles (six solo) and a pass defensed…At Chicago (Sept. 25): Appeared on seven snaps on defense, but made them count, recording the first full sack of his career and a pass defensed in his limited scrimmage action. Sack came in the fourth quarter when he blitzed from the right slot, knifing his way to the inside and fighting off blocks from both RB Matt Forté and RT Frank Omiyale, closing to take down QB Jay Cutler for an 8-yard loss…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Appeared on defense briefly as part of the dime package, recording his first INT of the season on Atlanta's final drive of the fourth quarter when he picked off QB Matt Ryan. Collected the ball after it was slightly overthrown and had hit off of the hands of WR Roddy White. Made a career-long 35-yard return before going to the ground to close out the 25-14 comeback win for Green Bay…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Helped key a special teams coverage performance that was an integral part of the Packers winning the field position battle by 150 yards during the game. Was credited with a career-high four tackles on the coverage units, making three tackles on kickoffs and one on the punt team…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started as the nickel CB, and saw action on 24 plays in a rotation with Sam Shields, finishing with one tackle.

2010: Appeared in all 16 games for the third straight season with one start and played in all four playoff contests… Tied for second on the team with 12 tackles on special teams, his fifth straight season with a double-digit tackle total…Contributed in spot duty on defense, posting 10 tackles (seven solo) and two passes defensed…Tied for the team lead with seven tackles on special teams in the playoffs…On defense, added eight tackles (seven solo), an interception and two passes defensed in the postseason…Was voted a playoff captain by his teammates for the first time in his career, joining K Crosby as the representatives on special teams…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): With Shields inactive due to a calf injury, started as nickel CB and recorded five tackles (three solo) and two passes defensed…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Ripped the ball from the arms of returner Bryan McCann on a kickoff, and the fumble was returned 26 yards for a TD by S Nick Collins. Also recovered WR Dez Bryant's muffed punt at the Dallas 17 in the fourth quarter…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): A key figure in holding Pro Bowl return man Devin Hester in check for the majority of the contest as the special teams downed four punts inside the 20. On successive punts in the fourth quarter, he downed both inside the Chicago 5… At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted two tackles on kickoff coverage and also saw limited action on defense in the second half, filling in at FS for Collins (leg cramps)…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Deflected a Tim Masthay punt near the goal line back to CB Brandon Underwood, who downed it at the Chicago 3…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Had an excellent all-around performance, first in his usual role on special teams and then when he saw significant playing time on defense following injuries in the secondary. Posted two tackles in punt coverage, helping limit WR Antonio Brown to just 5 yards on six returns. Was pressed into extended defensive duty in place of CBs Shields (shoulder) and Charles Woodson (collar bone) after injuries decimated the secondary late in the first half. Finished with three tackles (two solo) and an INT, his first-ever pick in the postseason and second of his career. Picked up a crossing WR Mike Wallace with 4:35 left in the second quarter, reading QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass to beat Wallace to the ball. Came up with the INT at the Green Bay 46 and returned 1 yard to the 47; the Packers would score a TD four plays later to go ahead 21-3.

2009: Played in all 16 games, starting a career-high three contests…Worked primarily as dime back and backup safety during the first half of the season, but saw significant action down the stretch as nickel back after the veteran Al Harris was lost to a knee injury in Week 11…Williams moved into the starting RCB spot with Bush moving into Williams' nickel role…Posted career-best 26 tackles (22 solo), an INT and seven passes defensed… Added 10 tackles on special teams…On the field for 76.6 percent of the club's special teams plays, a team high… Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Saw significant time at FS in place of Collins, who left midway through the second quarter with a chest injury and did not return. Posted three tackles (two solo) and added a stop on special teams… Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Worked as dime back for third straight game before taking over nickel role in fourth quarter when starter Harris left with a knee injury. Posted two solo tackles and a stop on special teams…At Detroit (Nov. 26): Served as nickel back and registered four tackles (all solo), also matching his career high with two passes defensed…At Chicago (Dec. 13): Started only the second game of his career as team opened up in nickel defense and made four tackles (all solo)…Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted the first interception of his career when he came underneath WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh to pick off a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass on the opening drive of the third quarter. Finished with four tackles (three solo), and added a tackle on special teams…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started as nickel back and posted six tackles (three solo) along with a stop on special teams.

2008: Played in every game and ranked second on the team with career-high 17 special teams tackles...Posted two or more special teams tackles in a game five times… Was on the field for 357 of 472 special teams plays (75.6 percent), which led the team...Saw time in the preseason at safety and was both a backup S and CB during the regular season…Saw limited playing time on defense, registering one tackle and one pass defensed…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Got a piece of Rob Bironas' 47-yard field goal attempt with his glove as the kick on the final play of regulation went off the right upright, sending the game into overtime…At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Made one tackle on special teams but left game early in third quarter after sustaining ankle injury on punt coverage and did not return…Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played on special teams and posted a tackle despite missing two practices during the week because of ankle injury…Vs. Houston

2011 PACKERS PLAYOFF CAPTAINS

Second Row: LB A.J. Hawk, CB Jarrett Bush, K Mason Crosby, WR Donald Driver

PLAYOFFS

(Dec. 7): Saw limited time as dime back and posted only tackle and pass breakup on the season…At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Led team with season-high three special teams tackles.

2007: Served as the club's primary nickel back much of the year, playing in 14 games plus two playoff contests… Earned his first NFL start for an injured Woodson at Dallas (Nov. 29), but the following game sustained an injury of his own (calf) and missed two contests…Recorded 23 tackles (18 solo), eight passes defensed and 11 special teams tackles…Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Was a major factor on special teams, coming up with a fumble recovery and tying for a team high with three special teams stops. Sprinted downfield after a Jon Ryan punt with 1:09 remaining and pounced on the ball following a muffed catch from J.R. Reed. The recovery gave the Packers possession, leading to a game-winning, 42-yard FG by Crosby with two seconds left. Also provided big hit on earlier muffed punt, by Greg Lewis, that was eventually recovered by Tracy White for a Green Bay TD…Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Posted two special teams tackles and provided a key block on Williams' 94-yard punt return, getting kicker John Kasay out of the way downfield (Kasay punted out of field goal formation)…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Returned from calf injury and downed a 72-yard Ryan punt on the Detroit 1-yard line; the Lions went three-and-out on the subsequent drive…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Posted a pass defensed.

2006: Played in all 16 games during rookie campaign… Saw most of his action on special teams while appearing in six games (15 snaps) as a reserve DB…His 13 tackles on special teams tied for third on the team…At Detroit (Sept. 24): Stopped Eddie Drummond on a key fourth-quarter kickoff return at Detroit's 16-yard line…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 8): Posted an early career-high three special teams tackles (later matched at Miami, Oct. 22)…At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Was the first one down the field on a Ryan punt and pressured returner Mewelde Moore into muffing the catch but inadvertently kicked the ball out of the end zone, resulting in a touchback; later, on kickoff that opened the second half, drew an illegal block-above-the-waist penalty on Artose Pinner, negating a 102-yard TD return by Bethel Johnson…2006 Draft: Originally signed with Carolina on May 5 as a non-drafted free agent; subsequently waived by the Panthers on Sept. 2 and claimed by the Packers the next day.

COLLEGE: Played in all 22 games during his Utah State career, including 13 starts…Majored in sociology… Senior season (2005): Garnered 2005 All-Western Athletic Conference honors when he recorded 50 tackles and two INTs for the Aggies…His 13 passes broken up ranked sixth in the NCAA…Junior season (2004): Recorded 20 tackles and one INT among four passes defensed in 11 games (two starts)…Junior college: Began his collegiate career at American River (Calif.) Junior College…Was all-state, all-region and all-league as a CB and return specialist as a sophomore in 2003…Intercepted four passes while posting an impressive 27-yard average on kickoff returns…Earned all-league status as a WR and return specialist as a freshman…Also competed in track.

PERSONAL: Given name Jarrett Lee Bush…Born in Vacaville, Calif. …Single…Related through marriage to five-time Pro Bowler and former Eagles WR Mike Quick; Quick, part of the Eagles radio broadcast team, is the father of Bush's sister-in-law…High school: A three-sport athlete at Will C. Wood High School in Vacaville, Calif. …A three-year letterman on the gridiron, he earned all-league and all-county honors as a WR and DB…Also wrestled and competed in track, where he was a two-time section champion in the 110- and 300-meter hurdles…Community involvement: Started the Jarrett Bush Foundation Ranked No. 2 in the NFL in kickoff return average (27.7) and No. 7 in the league in punt return average (11.3) in 2011. Checked in at No. 1 and No. 2 in those respective categories among rookies on his way to earning All-Rookie honors from Pro Football Weekly/PFWA as a kickoff returner.

Was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate as a kick return specialist in 2011.

His 27.7-yard kickoff return average ranked No. 3 in franchise history (min. 25 returns) behind only Dave Hampton (28.6 in 1971) and Al Carmichael (28.1 in 1956).

Set a franchise rookie record with 941 kickoff return yards, besting the previous mark held by Charles Wilson (798 yards in 1990).

Tied an NFL record with a 108-yard kickoff return for a TD against New Orleans in his pro debut, a play that would go on to be named the "NFL Play of the Year" at the league's awards ceremony.

Became just the second player in NFL history to catch a TD pass and score on a kickoff return in his pro debut, joining Detroit's Bill Bowman (vs. Chicago, Sept. 26, 1954).

With his 108-yard kickoff return for a score vs. New Orleans in Week 1 and his 80-yard punt return TD vs. Minnesota in Week 10, became the first player in team history and the first NFL rookie since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to register a 100-yard kickoff return and an 80-yard punt return in the same season.

Became the first Packer since WR Roell Preston (1998) to register a punt return for a TD and a kickoff return for a score in the same season.

One of only three players in franchise history to register a receiving TD, a punt return for a score and a kickoff return for a TD in the same season, joining Travis Williams (1969) and Robert Brooks (1994).

Set a franchise rookie record with 1,616 combined yards (375 receiving, 5 rushing, 941 kickoff return, 295 punt return), topping the previous mark held by Billy Howton (1,231 in 1952).

Tied for No. 3 in the NFL in 2011 in total kick return TDs with two, trailing only Arizona's Patrick Peterson (four) and Chicago's Devin Hester (three).

2011 SEASON: Appeared in 15 contests and the team's playoff game in his rookie campaign…Was named a Pro Bowl alternate as a kick return specialist and to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team as a kickoff returner…Ranked No. 2 in the NFL in kickoff return average (27.7) and No. 7 in the league in punt return average (11.3)…Set a franchise rookie record with 941 kickoff return yards…Became the first player in franchise history and the first NFL rookie since the merger to record a 100-yard kickoff return and an 80-yard punt return in the same season…Became the first Packer since Preston (1998) to register a punt return for a TD and a kickoff return for a score in the same season…Caught 25 passes for 375 yards (15..0 avg.) and a TD and rushed for 5 yards on two carries (2.5 avg.)…Missed the season finale vs. Detroit (Jan. 1) due to a groin injury sustained the previous week vs. Chicago…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Exploded onto the NFL landscape with a 108-yard kickoff return for a TD in the third quarter, which matched Patriots CB Ellis Hobbs' return (Sept. 9, 2007) for the longest kickoff return in NFL history. Nearly lost his footing near the Green Bay 20 after spinning out of a hit by CB Leigh Torrence, but was held up by teammate John Kuhn, returned to his feet and went the rest of the way untouched for the score. Marked the Packers' first kickoff return TD since Allen Rossum's 92-yarder vs. Indianapolis (Nov. 19, 2000) and bested Carmichael's previous franchise record (106 yards) for the longest kickoff return in team annals. At 21 years, 17 days old, became the youngest NFL player to return a kickoff for a TD since the Chicago Bears' Andy Livingston did so on Dec. 13, 1964 (20 years, 53 days). The kickoff score marked Cobb's second TD of the game as he made his way into the end zone in the first quarter on a 32-yard catch-and run from QB Aaron Rodgers. Became the first Packer since WR Javon Walker (Sept. 8, 2002) to catch a TD pass in his pro debut. Became just the second player in NFL history to catch a TD pass and score on a kickoff return in his pro debut, joining Detroit's Bill Bowman (vs. Chicago, Sept. 26, 1954). Became the first Packer to post both in a game since Wuert Engelmann on Oct. 25, 1931, vs. Providence…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Finished with two receptions for a career-best 75 yards (37.5 avg.), highlighted by a career-long 61-yard grab late in the third quarter. It marked the longest reception by a Green Bay rookie since WR James Jones' 79-yard TD at Denver on Oct. 29, 2007…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14); Made another splash on national television, this one coming on Monday Night Football as he returned the opening punt of the game 80 yards for a TD. The play made him the first player in team history to post a punt return for a score and a kickoff return for a TD and marked the first punt return for a TD by a Packer since CB Will Blackmon's 65-yarder at Minnesota on Nov. 9, 2008. Added a 55-yard kickoff return in the third quarter to set up a TD as he became the first NFL player since Kansas City's Dante Hall (Dec. 8, 2002) to post an 80-plus-yard punt return and a 55-plus-yard kickoff return in the same game and the first Packer to do so since Williams (Nov. 2, 1969)…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Saw increased time on offense with WR Greg Jennings sidelined with a knee injury and led the team with a career-high four catches for 53 yards (13.3 avg.)...2011 Draft: Was selected by the Packers in the second round (No. 64 overall). Became the Packers' highest draft pick from Kentucky since QB Babe Parilli was selected No. 4 overall in 1952. Was the first player drafted by Green Bay from Kentucky since DT Bill Bushong (seventh round) in 1972.

COLLEGE: Played in 36 games with 33 starts, catching 144 passes for 1,661 yards (11.5 avg.) and 13 TDs and rushing for 1,313 yards and 22 TDs on 228 carries (5.8 avg.)…Completed 62-of-122 passes for 689 yards and five TDs with five INTs…Averaged 9.8 yards on 63 punt returns with two TDs and posted a 24.6-yard average on 44 career kickoff returns…Holds the Kentucky career record for TDs with 37 while ranking fourth in career scoring with 226

RON WOLF'S STAMP ON PACKERS HISTORY

Ron Wolf arrived in Green Bay Nov. 27, 1991, with a mandate to rescue the Green and Gold from a quarter-century of mediocrity, an assignment which prompted him to assert, "I was brought here to win."

And win, in the decade to follow, the Packers did – in large part because of his leadership and the "cast" he assembled to execute one of the most electrifying turnarounds in NFL annals … rewardingly punctuated by Green Bay's first Super Bowl victory in nearly three decades and back-to-back appearances in professional football's ultimate game.

During the history-making process, he made a more profound impact upon the Packers organization than anyone since the revered Vince Lombardi, who arrived in Green Bay with a similar mission 32 years earlier. Over Wolf's 1992-2000 tenure, the Packers compiled the NFL's second-best regular-season record, a 92-52 mark for a .639 percentage, recorded seven straight winning seasons and made six consecutive playoff appearances.

He converted the Green and Gold from perennial also-rans into consistent winners, exemplified by the fact they also have mounted the NFL's third-best regular-season won-lost record since the 1993 institution of free agency (179-109-0, .622).

Wolf's aggressive stewardship, launched with the hiring of 49ers offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren as head coach and the acquisition of Brett Favre as a franchise quarterback in 1992, is perhaps no better illustrated than by the Packers' immediate, 9-7 turnabout in 1992 – his first year on the job – after the team had been a dismal 4-12 in 1991 and 6-10 in 1990 … a transformation which brought him recognition as "NFL Executive of the Year" by Sporting News.

Wolf, reflecting upon the overall record from his perspective on the day he announced his retirement, observed with pardonable satisfaction: "What people said couldn't happen here … happened here (building a winner in Green Bay) ... I'm proud of that."

A statistical glance at some notable team figures, over the nine years before – and after – Wolf took control:

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played in all 32 regular-season contests over the past two seasons, one of only five offensive players to accomplish the feat over that span.

Started a career-high nine contests in 2011 and recorded a career-best six catches for 38 yards (6.3 avg.) and a TD.

A rugged blocker and a key contributor on special teams, he has registered 18 tackles and a forced fumble in his two seasons with the Packers.

Ranked No. 3 on the team with 18 special teams tackles from 2010-11, trailing only CBs Jarrett Bush (24) and Pat Lee (19) over that span.

Signed to Green Bay's practice squad in December 2009 and made the 53-man roster coming out of camp in 2010.

Entered the league with the Kansas City Chiefs as a non-drafted free agent in 2009 and spent that season on the club's practice squad.

Is one of only two players from Miami (Ohio) to play in a game for the Packers, joining E Clive Rush (1953).

AT A GLANCE ...

- One of only five offensive players to appear in all 32 regular-season games for the Packers in 2010-11.
- Ranked third on the team with a combined 18 tackles on special teams from 2010-11.
- First signed by Green Bay to the practice squad on Dec. 1, 2009, and then made the final roster out of training camp in 2010.
- His first pro touchdown was the first of the 2010 postseason for the Packers, on a 7-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers at Philadelphia in the team's NFC Wild Card contest.
- Originally entered NFL with Kansas City as non-drafted free agent from Miami (Ohio), beginning the 2009 season on the Chiefs' practice squad.
- Became just the second player from Miami (Ohio) to play in a game for the Packers, joining E Clive Rush (1953).
- Was a four-year letterman and a three-year starter for the RedHawks.

2011: Appeared in all 16 regular-season contests for the second straight season with a career-best nine starts…Also started in the Divisional playoff vs. the N.Y. Giants…Posted a career-high six receptions for 38 yards (6.3 avg.) and his first regular-season TD catch…Helped block for RBs James Starks (578 yards) and Ryan Grant (559) as they became the first Packers tandem to each rush for 550-plus yards in a season since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens did so in 1996…Continued to serve as a core member of the special teams, where he registered six tackles and a forced fumble…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Started for the third time in five games and posted a season-long 15-yard reception. Also recorded a tackle on special teams, cutting down explosive return man Eric Weems on the Falcons' lone kickoff return of the game…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Started as part of a two-TE formation and caught a career-high two passes for 5 yards, the first of which was a 5-yard TD grab early in the second quarter, the first regular-season score of his career. Also recorded a forced fumble on special teams when he tackled WR Preston Parker on a third-quarter punt return, but the ball bounced out of bounds and possession did not change…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Part of a blocking unit that helped the team match its season high with 136 rushing yards on 24 carries (5.7 avg.). Added a tackle on special teams…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Started and made his sixth reception of the season on the game's opening play, a 7-yard grab that started an eventual TD drive.

2010: Played in all 16 games as a backup tight end with one start, and played in all four postseason contests…Caught four passes for 61 yards (15.3 avg.) in the regular season and added two catches for 8 yards (4.0 avg.) in the playoffs, including a 7-yard TD, his first score as a pro…A regular on special teams all season, tied for second on the team with 12 coverage tackles, adding four more in the postseason, one in each game…Made the final roster out of training camp despite playing with a cast to protect an injured wrist during the preseason…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Recorded two special teams tackles in his NFL debut…At Washington (Oct. 10): With injuries to TEs Jermichael Finley and Donald Lee, made the first reception of his career, a 3-yard grab in the fourth quarter…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Had a career-long 33-yard reception on the Packers' first drive to help set up a 46-yard Mason Crosby field goal…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Got his first NFL start and helped set up a field goal with a 21-yard catch on the Packers' first drive of the second half, following a fumble recovery by S Atari Bigby. Also had a career-high three tackles on special teams…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Opened the scoring with a 7-yard play-action TD grab late in the first quarter, his first pro score, to cap a 10-play, 68-yard drive.

2009: Spent training camp with Kansas City and appeared in all four preseason games, catching two passes for 19 yards (9.5 avg.) and recording a tackle on special teams…Was waived in the final roster reduction on Sept. 6 and signed to the Chiefs' practice squad the next day…Spent three weeks on the practice squad and was released on Sept. 29…Was signed to the Packers' practice squad on Dec. 1, spending the final five weeks of the regular season and playoffs there...2009 Draft: Signed with Kansas City as a non-drafted free agent on May 8.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and three-year starter at TE for Miami (Ohio), appeared in 48 games, starting 29 and totaling 40 catches for 329 yards and two TDs…Was also a consistent contributor to the team's various special teams units and recorded 38 special teams tackles…Earned a B.S. in secondary education…Senior season (2008): Played in 12 games with nine starts, collecting 10 catches for 64 yards (6.4 avg.) and also adding five special teams tackles…Junior season (2007): Appeared in 13 games with 11 starts, and hauled in a career-high 15 catches for 139 yards (9.3 avg.) and a TD…Also made 11 special teams tackles…Sophomore season (2006): Became a regular starter, playing in all 12 games with nine starts… Finished the season with 14 catches for 124 yards (8.9 avg.) and scored his first career TD vs. Ohio (Nov. 24)… Redshirt freshman season (2005): Saw action in all 11 games and established himself as a force on special teams early on, forcing two fumbles in the season opener at Ohio State (Sept. 3) and posting a career-high 13 special teams tackles on the season.

PERSONAL: Given name Thomas Lewis Crabtree…Born in Columbus, Ohio…Married to Chelsea, the couple has a 1-year-old son, Bryce, and an infant daughter, Delaynie… Uncle, Jim Feucht, also played at Miami (Ohio) and was a three-year letterwinner for the program in the 1970s… High school: Prepped at Bloom-Carroll (Carroll, Ohio) High and earned second-team all-state honors after setting single-season school records with 54 catches and 851 receiving yards his senior year…Played both TE and DE and finished his career with 90 catches for more than 1,300 yards…Also lettered four times in track, participating in various hurdle events…Community involvement: Participated in the Green Bay Packers Golf Invitational in Kohler, Wis. ….Is a spokesperson for the Juvenile Diabestes Research Foundation...Helped coach participants at the annual women's Football 101 event in 2010…Hobbies/ interests: Enjoys practicing on his electric guitar, playing video games, naming "Call of Duty" as his favorite, and watching television, listing The Office and Breaking Bad as his favorite shows…Also has two small dogs, a pug and a Boston terrier…Has vacationed to the mountains in both Colorado and Nevada…Residence: Green Bay.

Sixth NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 207 • Born: September 3, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 80/0 • Acquired: D6c-07

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Set an NFL record for the most points scored by a player in his first five seasons with 649, besting the previous mark held by Washington K Chip Lohmiller (625, 1988-92).

Reached the 600-point mark for his career in his 74th career game, making him the second fastest to 600 points in franchise history behind only RB Paul Hornung (71 games).

With 140 points in 2011, became only the sixth player in the history of the league to register two 140-point seasons (141 in 2007).

Was one of only four kickers in the NFL (David Akers, Rob Bironas, Robbie Gould) to register 100-plus points each season from 2007-11.

Has kicked the three longest field goals in franchise history (58-yarder at Minnesota in 2011, 56-yarder at Philadelphia in 2010, 56-yarder at Atlanta in 2011).

Set a franchise record with 68 extra points made in 2011, which was also the second most in NFL history behind only New England's Stephen Gostkowski (74 in 2007).

Holds the top two and three of the top four single-season point totals without a TD in franchise annals.

Joins K Ryan Longwell as the only players in franchise history to record five 100-point seasons, surpassing that point total each season he has been in the NFL.

Made a franchise-record 23 consecutive field goals over a 15-game span in 2010-11 (Week 13, 2010-Week 12, 2011), topping the previous record of 17 straight by Chris Jacke in 1993.

Was the only kicker in the league with three field goals of 56-plus yards in 2010-11.

Enters the 2012 season ranked No. 5 in the franchise record books in scoring with 649 points, 112 shy of surpassing No. 4 Paul Hornung (760).

Ranks No. 3 in team history for the most field goals made with 131, trailing only Longwell (226, 1997-2005) and Jacke (173, 1989-96).

Ranks No. 2 in franchise annals in field goal percentage (min. 75 attempts) at 79.4 percent (80-of-131), trailing only Longwell (81.6, 226/277).

Has 12 field goals of 50-plus yards in his career and 17 games with three or more FGs.

With the 12 field goals of 50-plus yards, ranks No. 3 in team history behind only Jacke (17) and Longwell (13).

Has posted 96 touchbacks since entering the league in 2007, No. 9 in the NFL over that span.

Has been named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week four times in his career (Week 1, 2007; Week 1, 2010; Weeks 5 and 7, 2011) and NFC Special Teams Player of the Month once (November 2007).

Has not missed a game in his career, playing in 88 straight games (including postseason), the longest current streak on the team.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Set an NFL record with 649 points in his first five seasons, topping the previous league record held by Washington K Chip Lohmiller (625, 1988-92).
- One of only six players in the history of the NFL to register two 140-point seasons (2007, 2011).
- Holds the top two, and three of the top four, single-season point totals without a TD in team history.
- Has kicked the three longest field goals in franchise history (58-yarder in 2011, 56-yarders in 2010 and 2011).
- Set a franchise record with 23 consecutive field goals made (Week 13, 2010-Week 12, 2011), topping Chris Jacke's mark of 17 straight in 1993.
- Captured the league scoring title with 141 points in 2007, becoming the first rookie to do so since Chicago K Kevin Butler in 1985 and setting Green Bay records for points by a kicker, and by a rookie (any position), in a single season.
- Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado. His field goals made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference records.

2011 SEASON: Ranked No. 3 in the league among kickers, with 140 points, as he became just the sixth player in league history to register two 140-point seasons… Joined Longwell (eight straight, 1997-2004) as the only players in team history with five 100-point seasons as he led the team in scoring for the fifth consecutive season… Connected on 24-of-28 field goals, an 85.7 percentage that set a career high…Converted a franchise-record 68 PATs, also the second most in league history behind only Gostkowski (74, 2007)…Was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl…Earned Midseason All-Pro honors from Pro Football Weekly…Ranked third in the NFL with a career-high 49 touchbacks…Contributed three special teams tackles and his first career fumble recovery on special teams…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Connected on all seven of his PATs, a career high. Successfully converted a surprise onside kick late in the first quarter, his third consecutive successful attempt dating back to the 2009 playoffs…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors as he matched his career high with four FGs. Drilled a 56-yarder in the third quarter, matching his franchise record set at Philadelphia in Week 1 of 2010. Also recorded six touchbacks…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the second time in three weeks. Surpassed Jacke (17 FGs in 1993) by converting his 18th straight FG, a 39-yarder in the second quarter. Also eclipsed his own team record when he hit a 58-yard FG in the waning moments of the third quarter, the second-longest FG in the NFL on the season (Oakland's Sebastian Janikowski, 63). Matched his career high with four FGs on the afternoon…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Hit the 600-point mark in his 71st career game, second fastest in team history to that total behind only Hornung (71 games). Saw his franchise-record streak of consecutive field goals come to an end at 23 when his 29-yard attempt in the fourth quarter hit the right upright…At N.Y. Giants

(Dec. 4): Made the second game-winning kick of his career when he split the uprights from 31 yards out as time expired to give the Packers a 38-35 win…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Posted a career-high 16 points, matching his career high with four FGs along with four PATs. Set a new league record for the most points by a player in his first five seasons in the NFL, passing Lohmiller's mark of 625. Also recorded a career-high seven touchbacks…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Made both of his FG attempts, from 47 and 35 yards. That brought his streak of consecutive FGs made in the postseason to five, which matched the franchise playoff record held by Don Chandler (1965) and Jacke (1996).

2010: Led the team in scoring for the fourth straight season with 112 points…The point total ranked No. 5 in the NFC and No. 11 in the NFL among kickers…Cleared the 100-point plateau for the fourth straight season, connecting on 22-of-28 field goals (78.6 percent) and all 46 of his extra-point attempts…Was 10-of-14 (71.4 percent) from 40 yards and out, a career-high percentage from that range…Successfully converted an onside kick and registered three tackles on special teams…Good on 3-of-4 field-goal attempts and all 16 extra points in the postseason, with his 25 points ranking tied for No. 2 in franchise history for a single postseason behind only Jacke's 26 in 1996…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Opened the season by etching his name in the record books, drilling a then-franchise-record 56-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The 56-yarder was the longest in the NFC all season and ranks No. 2 in Lincoln Financial Field history behind only David Akers' 57-yarder in 2003, the stadium's inaugural season. Also good from 49 yards out earlier in the second quarter as part of a performance that earned him NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, the first time he had received the award since taking home the honor for his NFL debut vs. Philadelphia in '07. Was the first time in his career that he posted two field goals of 49-plus yards in a game…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Was responsible for all of the points in a defensive battle, connecting on field goals of 20, 41 and 40 yards in the 9-0 win…At New England (Dec. 19): Opened the game with a perfectly executed onside kick on the opening kickoff. Sprayed the ball wide to his right as S Nick Collins recovered it near the sideline at the Green Bay 47. Combined with his successful attempt at Arizona in the 2009 Wild Card contest, the play was his second straight conversion on an onside kick. The Packers drove 40 yards in 11 plays following the onside to set up his 31-yard FG…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Was good on all six extra points and his lone FG attempt to eclipse the 500-point mark for his career. By doing so in his 63rd game, became the second fastest in team history to 500 points behind only Hornung (60 games)…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Matched the team postseason record held by Jacke (vs. Carolina, Jan. 12, 1997) with 12 points. Good on field goals from 43 and 32 yards out, along with six extra points.

2009: Led team with 129 points, the fourth-highest single-season point total without a TD in team history… Connected on 27-of-36 FG attempts (75.0 percent) and 48-of-49 PATs (98.0 percent)...Ranked fourth among NFL kickers in scoring and tied for sixth in FGs made...Posted 12 touchbacks on kickoffs and two tackles on special teams… Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Connected on 45-yard FG late in the fourth quarter, with onside kick on the ensuing play recovered by CB Tramon Williams, the first successful onside attempt by the Packers since Dec. 3, 2006…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Posted 12 points, connecting on all three FG attempts (48, 38, 25), but missed the first PAT of his career early in the fourth quarter, snapping a streak of 100 consecutive made, the fourth-longest streak in team history…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Matched his career high with four FGs, making kicks of 46, 28, 31 and 26 yards, and posted a season-high 14 points…At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): With all of them coming in the first half, matched his then-career high with three touchbacks on kickoffs (also at Detroit, Sept. 14, 2008; vs. San Diego, Sept. 23, 2007)... Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Scored 12 points (2 FG, 6 PAT), which included matching his season-long FG with 52-yarder in the fourth quarter, the eighth 50-yarder of his career… At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Perfectly executed an onside kick midway through the third quarter, the first by a Packers kicker in the postseason since Josh Bidwell (at St. Louis, Jan. 20, 2002). With the Packers trailing 31-17, his one-bounce kickoff was recovered in the air by CB Brandon Underwood at Green Bay's 43; the offense utilized the field position by scoring a TD in eight plays to narrow the Cardinals' lead to 31-24. Matched his own team playoff record with six PATs (vs. Seattle, Jan. 12, 2008) and made 1-of-2 FGs, connecting on 20-yarder as time expired in first half but missing 54-yard kick wide right early in the second quarter. Added a special teams tackle.

2008: Playing in every game, tied for sixth in the NFC and tied for seventh in the NFL among kickers with 127 points...

RECENT STUDY SHOWS PACKERS' ECONOMIC IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY

As the only franchise in professional sports to be owned and sustained by its fans, most people know how much the community has meant and continues to mean to the Green Bay Packers. But one question has gone long unanswered: "What do the Packers mean to the community?"

To answer that very question from a quantifiable and tangible economic standpoint, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District commissioned what is regarded as the most comprehensive economic impact study of the last 10 years on the subject when it contracted the firm AECOM Economics in 2009. Below are some of the findings and highlights of that report:

-Found the total economic impact of the Packers and the renovated Lambeau Field on the community to be an estimated $281.5 million in 2009. That total included the existence of 2,560 jobs and more than $124 million in earnings.
-The Packers' 10 home exhibition and regular-season games in 2009 had a $123.3 million impact on Brown County. For each game, the team generates approximately $12.3 million in economic impact to the community.
-When including the days visitors are in Green Bay to attend summer's training camp, the impact increases by an another $7.4 million.
-Showed that in 2009, the total economic impact attributed to spending by the Packers and Lambeau Field was $141 million, including the creation of 760 jobs and the generation of $80.6 million in wages.
-The fiscal impact of taxes to local and state governments courtesy of both training camp and Packers games was an estimated $8.7 million.

An additional piece of the study suggested that a seating expansion of 10,000 seats could generate an additional $17 million in spending impacts per year. Less than a year after the release of the report, the organization announced plans for its latest renovation project, one that will include the addition of 6,700 new seats set for completion in 2013. The project will employ 1,600 workers over two years and generate more than $70 million in wages. Once adjusted, the anticipated additional spending impact of the added seating is expected to be approximately $11 million each year.

Tied for third in the NFC and tied for sixth in the NFL with 17 touchbacks, the most by a Packers kicker since 1972 (Marcol, 28) and the most since kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line in 1994...Connected on 27-of-34 FG attempts (79.4 percent) and all 46 PATs...Registered four special teams tackles…Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Matched then-career-long kick with 53-yard FG right before halftime to put Packers up 17-3 and added FGs from 33 and 45 in the fourth quarter, giving him his first game of the season and fourth career with two 45-plus-yard FGs…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Attempted 69-yard FG on a free kick at the end of the first half with no time left on the clock that fell a couple of yards short.

2007: Played in all 16 games, plus both playoff contests, making 31-of-39 FG attempts (79.5 percent) and all 48 PAT tries in the regular season, and going 2-for-2 on FGs and 8-for-8 on PATs during postseason…Beat out incumbent Dave Rayner for kicking duties in the preseason and went on to capture the league scoring title with 141 points, the first rookie to do so in 22 years, and earned All-Rookie honors from the Dallas Morning News…Also posted 14 touchbacks, good for third in the NFC and sixth in the league; at the time that was the most by a Green Bay kicker in 16 years (Jacke, 15 in 1991)…Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November when he made 12-of-15 FGs over a five-game stretch, including five from 45 yards or longer…Contributed a career-high six tackles on special teams…Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Hit a 53-yard FG, his first career FG, and a game-winning 42-yarder with two seconds left in his first professional contest to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player in league history to kick a 50-plus-yard FG and a game-winning FG in the final minute of his first NFL game…At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made 4-of-5 FG attempts (48, 36, 32, 45), plus all three PATs, for a season-high 15 points. His 45-yard conversion gave Green Bay a 26-22 fourth-quarter lead in the eventual 33-22 win…At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Made all four FG attempts (44, 50, 25 and 46 yards) and all three PATs, plus two touchbacks, earning him Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors as he matched his season high with 15 points…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made FGs of 33 and 35 yards, plus all four PATs. In the fourth quarter, kicked a 35-yard FG, his last points of the season that allowed him to take the league scoring title from New England WR Randy Moss…2007 Draft: The third of Green Bay's three consecutive sixth-round picks (193rd overall), the third K selected. Was the 16th player from Colorado drafted by the Packers and first since DT Darius Holland (D3a-95).

COLLEGE: Established a total of 31 game, season and career records at Colorado, where he holds the all-time records for points scored (307), FGs made (66) and attempted (88), PATs made (109) and attempted (117), FG percentage (75.0) and longest FG made (60 yards)…His FGs made, attempted and percentage also set Big 12 Conference career marks…Earned various first-team All-America honors his final two seasons and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award his final three years, finishing runner-up after superb 2005 campaign…Hit a 58-yard FG at Miami (Sept. 24) that season, the longest FG at "sea level" in NCAA Division I-A history without a tee, and one of four 50-plus FGs he made on the road that year…Made 10-of-14 FGs from 50-plus his sophomore and junior seasons combined before falling off that pace as a senior when he missed seven of nine from 50-plus, including attempts from 63 (vs. Montana State) and 65 (vs. Iowa State), the latter falling less than a yard short…Made two FGs of 50-plus in one game three times in his career…Missed only two PATs over his final three years in college, making 78-of-80, including 60 straight to conclude career…Noted for his booming kickoffs as well, on 203 career kickoffs recorded 138 touchbacks, including 88 that went through the end zone…Majored in communication…Senior season (2006): Was an All-American first-team selection by The NFL Draft Report, Pro Football Weekly and the Walter Camp Foundation, adding third-team honors from The Associated Press…All-Big 12 Conference first-team choice for the third consecutive year, only the seventh player in school history to achieve that…Scored 76 points on 19-of-28 FGs and 19-of-19 PATs…Six of his misses were on long-range attempts (three from 50-59 yards, three from past 60 yards)…Only 15 of his 43 kickoffs were returned, with 11-of-27 touchbacks out of the end zone…The opposition's average starting point after kickoffs was the 22-yard line…Tried first and only punt of his career in season opener vs. Montana St. (Sept. 2), good for 43 yards…Converted a 40-yard FG in second quarter vs. Colorado St. (Sept. 9), his 49th FG, to surpass Jeremy Aldrich for the most FGs in a CU career…With two FGs and one PAT at Missouri (Sept. 30), became school's all-time leading scorer, besting previous record holder RB Eric Bieniemy (254 points)…Closed his career by becoming the first Colorado placekicker to play in the Senior Bowl, where he helped the North to a 27-0 win with nine points on three PATs and FGs of 38 and 21 yards…Junior season (2005): Became the first Colorado placekicker to earn consensus All-American first-team honors (AP, the Football Writers Association of America, Sporting News, The NFL Draft Report, SI.com, Walter Camp and Rivals.com.)…Runner-up for the Lou Groza Award by just six points to Oregon State's Alexis Serna…Unanimous All-Big 12 first-team choice and named Special Teams Player of the Year by the league's coaches…Led the team in scoring with 94 points, converting all 31 PATs and 21-of-28 FGs…Was 5-of-7 from beyond 50 yards, with four of the five made ones coming on the road, and 8-of-11 from 40 to 49 yards…Also led the nation in FGs made from 50 yards or more for the second straight year, and led the nation in average distance per FG made at 41.2 yards…Only 18 of his 61 kickoffs were returned, with 33 of his 43 touchbacks out of the end zone…Earned Big 12 Player of the Week honors four times (vs. Colorado State, at Miami, at Kansas State and at Missouri), joining Texas Tech QB Kliff Kingsbury (2002) as the only other Big 12 player to receive the honor at least four times in a season…Opened the season vs. Colorado State on his 21st birthday (Sept. 3) by booting a 48-yard FG to tie the score at 21 with 2:32 left and then hitting the first of two game-winning kicks in his career, a 47-yarder with just four seconds left…Had the other game-winner at Kansas State (Oct. 29), a 50-yarder with six seconds left in swirling winds for a 23-20 victory; that came after already making a 52-yard kick in the second quarter…Sophomore season (2004): Named a unanimous All-Big 12 first-team selection and semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award…Earned second-team All-American accolades from The NFL Draft Report and Rivals.com, adding honorable mention from Sports Illustrated…Led the NCAA in FGs made from 50-plus yards with six (topping Ohio State's Mike Nugent, the Groza winner, who had five), and connected on 23-of-29 FGs overall (19-of-23 regular season, 4-of-6 in Houston Bowl)…Scored 85 points, making 28-of-30 PATs…Only 17 of his 59 kickoffs were returned, with 26-of-41 touchbacks out of the end zone…The opponent average starting yard-line after all his kicks was the 21…Won the first of two Bill McCartney Awards (also in 2005), given to the team's most outstanding special teams player as selected by the coaches…Became just the 10th player in NCAA history to make a 60-yard or longer FG without a tee when he nailed a 60-yarder vs. Iowa State (Oct. 16), the longest in the nation in 2004; had three other FGs in that 19-14 win, including a 54-yarder for the first of his three career games with two FGs of 50-plus…Freshman season (2003): Became only the second true freshman to handle the placekicking chores in a CU season opener in school history…Set a Colorado record for the most points scored by a freshman with 52…Connected on 31-of-37 PATs and 7-of-9 FGs…Only 10 of his 37 kickoffs were returned, with 17-of-26 touchbacks out of the end zone…Made his first five career FGs, one shy of the school record.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

In 2011, played in all 16 regular-season games for the first time in his career and made three starts, two at RG and one at LG.

Saw most of his time on special teams in 2011 before an injury to RG Josh Sitton thrust him into the starting lineup in Week 13 at the N.Y. Giants.

Has provided depth at all three interior line spots during his career in Green Bay.

Entered the NFL with Green Bay in 2009 as a non-drafted free agent and was the lone non-drafted rookie to make the Packers' opening-day roster that season.

Was waived in the final roster reduction following training camp in 2010 and was then claimed by Seattle, where he spent the first four weeks of the season.

Was re-signed by the Packers leading into the 2010 regular-season finale and was on the roster for that game and all four postseason contests.

Became just the second player from Idaho State to play in a game for the Packers, joining LB Tom Toner (1973, 75-77).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Appeared in all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2011, along with a career-high three starts.
- Re-joined the Packers in Week 17 of 2010 after being released at the end of training camp that season; spent the first four weeks of the season with the Seahawks.
- Only non-drafted rookie to make the Packers' opening-day roster in 2009.
- Set an Idaho State record with 44 starts on the offensive line, playing all five positions in his college career, including the last two years at left tackle.
- Became just the second player from Idaho State to play in a game for the Packers, joining LB Tom Toner (1973, 75-77).

2011 SEASON: Appeared in all 16 games for the first time as a pro and made three starts…Also played in team's playoff contest vs. the N.Y. Giants…Saw most of his time on special teams before Sitton's injury in Week 12 at Detroit thrust him into the starting lineup…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Saw his most significant playing time from scrimmage in his young career when Sitton left the game with a knee injury late in the first half. Was involved in the game's most memorable play when he found himself on the receiving end of an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty by DT Ndamukong Suh in the third quarter, one that would result in Suh's ejection as well as a two-game suspension…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Made his first career start, opening at RG in Sitton's place in a hostile road environment. Was part of a line that provided QB Aaron Rodgers enough time to throw for 369 yards and four TDs while only being sacked twice in the 38-35 win…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Started at RG for the second straight week and fared well, helping the offense to eight scoring drives (four TDs, four FGs). Part of a line that helped clear the way for 136 yards on 24 carries (5.7 avg.), which matched the season high. Moved over to C in the fourth quarter in place of Scott Wells (rest) with Marshall Newhouse taking over at RG…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Made his first career start at LG with T.J. Lang shifting to RT in place of an injured Bryan Bulaga (knee). Part of a line that was awarded a game ball as it protected for five TD drives and did not allow Rodgers to be sacked for the first time all season.

2010: Waived by the Packers in the final cutdown following training camp on Sept. 4 and was claimed by Seattle…Spent the first month of the season with the Seahawks, but was inactive for all four games before being released on Oct. 5…Re-signed by the Packers on Dec. 31 after rookie Newhouse was placed on injured reserve (back)...Was on the roster for Week 17 and the entire postseason, though he was inactive for every game.

2009: Played in 13 games, plus the Wild Card contest at Arizona, seeing time primarily on special teams...Saw time from scrimmage in two games, at LG and C, and was a regular on the FG, PAT and kickoff-return teams…Was the only non-drafted rookie to make the Packers' opening-day roster…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made NFL debut, seeing time on PATs and FGs…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Saw first career action from scrimmage, coming in briefly at LG in second quarter when Daryn Colledge injured his ankle…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted first career kickoff return when he fielded a pooch kick at the Green Bay 30 and returned it 5 yards. Fumbled the ball, but teammate Desmond Bishop recovered…At Arizona (Jan. 3): Saw most extensive action of his career on offense, playing center for Wells (rest) for the entire fourth quarter…2009 Draft: Signed by Green Bay as a non-drafted free agent on May 1.

14th Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 194 • Born: February 2, 1975 • NFL Games Played/Started: 192/154 • Acquired: D7b-99

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Sits atop the franchise record book for the most receptions (735) and the most receiving yards (10,060) in team history.

Ranks No. 1 in franchise history for the most 1,000-yard seasons with seven, highlighted by six straight from 2004-09, also a team record.

Has caught 50-plus passes in a season a franchise-record nine times in his career (2002-10), topping WRs James Lofton and Sterling Sharpe (seven each).

Holds Lambeau Field records for receptions (358) and receiving yards (4,951).

Ranks No. 3 in team history for most games played with 192, trailing only QBs Brett Favre (255) and Bart Starr (196).

Has been selected to the Pro Bowl four times during his career.

Holds the franchise record for the most consecutive games with a reception with 133, a streak that came to an end in 2010.

With 59 career TD receptions, ranks No. 3 in franchise annals behind only Don Hutson (99) and Sharpe (65).

Is tied for No. 4 in team history with teammate Greg Jennings for the most 100-yard receiving games with 22, just two shy of No. 3 Hutson (24).

Ranks No. 2 in team history in yards from scrimmage with 10,277, trailing only RB Ahman Green (11,048).

Holds the team record for the most catches in the postseason (49) and ranks No. 2 in receiving yards with 675, trailing only WR Antonio Freeman (748).

Extended two team records in 2009 with his seventh 1,000-yard season and sixth straight. Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne was the only other player in the league to have a 1,000-yard season each of those six years (2004-09).

Teamed with Jennings in 2009 as the Packers posted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers for only the fifth time in franchise history; Driver has contributed to three of those, also teaming with Jennings in '08 and WR Javon Walker in 2004.

Entering 2012, is one of only 35 players in NFL history with 700-plus career catches and one of only 36 with 10,000 or more receiving yards.

Has played in all 16 games in eight of his 13 seasons in the NFL.

AT A GLANCE …

- Ranks first on the franchise's all-time list in both receptions (735) and receiving yards (10,060).
- Ranks No. 1 in team history for the most 1,000-yard seasons with seven, highlighted by six straight from 2004-09, also a franchise record.
- Ranks No. 3 in team history for most games played with 192, trailing only QBs Brett Favre (255) and Bart Starr (196).
- Has caught 50 or more passes in a season a franchise-best nine times, topping James Lofton and Sterling Sharpe (seven each).
- Is the all-time leader in receptions (358) and receiving yards (4,951) at Lambeau Field.
- One of the NFL's most decorated collegiate track athletes (high jump, decathlon, long jump, triple jump), won his conference's Athlete of the Year award three straight years. Likely could have qualified for 2000 Sydney Olympics in high jump had he concentrated on track.
- Overcoming countless obstacles growing up has inspired him to become one of the team's most involved players in giving back to the community. In 2000, he and his wife created the Donald Driver Foundation (www.donalddriverfoundation.com), which offers assistance to homeless mothers and underprivileged children as well as scholarships to high school students in three states. In addition, has made more than 500 appearances since 1999, from schools to youth football fields to churches, delivering motivational speeches or offering assistance.

2011 SEASON: Played in all 16 contests with 15 starts and started the team's postseason contest…Caught 37 passes for 445 yards (12.0 avg.) and six TDs…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Made four receptions for 41 yards (10.3 avg.), tying Lofton for the franchise's all-time receiving yardage record with 9,656 career yards…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Became the team's all-time receiving yardage leader with a 10-yard catch in the third quarter. Helped preserve the victory for the second straight week when he leapt to snag a high onside kick by Olindo Mare late in the fourth quarter of a 30-23 win…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Caught four passes for 72 yards (18.0 avg.), including a season-long 35-yard catch-and-run that converted a third-and-long in the third quarter. The play made him just the second player in franchise history to eclipse 10,000 yards from scrimmage, joining Green (11,048)…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Matched his career high with two TD receptions, his first multi-TD game since Nov. 21, 2005, at Minnesota…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Led the team with four grabs for a season-high 75 yards (18.8 avg.)…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Finished with two catches for 29 yards (14.5 avg.), eclipsing the 10,000-yard receiving mark for his career…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Finished with three catches for 45 yards (15.0 avg.) and a TD. The three receptions gave him 49 for his postseason career as he surpassed Freeman (47) for the franchise record. Also moved ahead of WR Robert Brooks (651) in playoff receiving yardage for the No. 2 spot in team history with 675 career yards. Marked the 12th consecutive playoff game in which he caught a pass, tying him with Freeman for No. 2 in team annals behind only RB Dorsey Levens (13).

2010: Appeared in 15 games and started all of them, missing his first game due to injury since Sept. 14, 2003 (vs. Detroit), when he was inactive due to a quad injury vs. Dallas in Week 9…Despite missing that contest and being hampered by the injury in other games, finished No. 2 on the team with 51 receptions, his franchise-record ninth 50-catch season…Finished fourth on the team with 565 receiving yards (11.1 avg.) and tied for fourth with four TDs…Was credited with his fourth career Pro Bowl selection in 2010 since he would have been named to the all-star squad as an injury replacement for Eagles WR DeSean Jackson had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV…Played in all four playoff contests with two starts, and finished third on the team with 14 receptions for 169 yards (12.1 avg.)…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Caught a season-high nine passes for 61 yards (6.8 avg.), his highest reception total since hauling in 10 vs. Detroit (Nov. 22, 2007)…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Posted three catches for a season-high 89 yards (29.7 avg.) and a TD. Had a 29-yard scoring grab on Green Bay's opening drive and also hauled in a 61-yard pass in the second quarter…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Did not have a reception, snapping his franchise-record streak of 133 consecutive games (139 including playoffs) with a reception…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Left the game with a quadriceps injury in the second quarter and did not return. Had originally sustained the injury in Week 5 at Washington…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Inactive due to injury for the first time since Sept. 14, 2003, vs. Detroit (neck)…Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): After being hampered by the quad injury for several weeks, returned to form with four catches for 73 yards (18.3 avg.), highlighted by a season-long 61-yard catch-and-run for a TD in the third quarter that was one of the finest plays of his career…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started as part of a four-WR set and posted two catches for 28 yards (14.0 avg.) before suffering an ankle injury in the second quarter and watching the rest of the game from the sideline in a walking boot.

2009: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in the last five years, and led the team with 70 receptions and six TD catches...Also started playoff contest…Finished second on the team with 1,061 receiving yards, his sixth straight 1,000-yard season and seventh overall, extending two team records...Ranked ninth in the NFC in receiving yards and was tied for ninth in the NFL with five receptions of 40-plus yards...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Caught four passes for 39 yards (9.8 avg), with a 14-yard reception in the first quarter that moved him past Hutson (7,991) and over 8,000 career yards for the No. 3 spot on the team's career receiving yardage list…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led team with four catches for 95 yards (23.8 avg.) and a TD, including a spectacular one-handed catch in the second quarter, pulling in a 46-yard pass from Rodgers with his left hand while being interfered with by CB Bradley Fletcher; pinned the ball against his shoulder pads and helmet as he fell to the turf. Also caught 21-yard TD pass on the left sideline late in the second quarter, and with 13-yard reception on first drive, moved past Sharpe (8,134) for second in franchise history for receiving yards…At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Caught four passes for 55 yards (13.8 avg.) as his final catch of the night, a 10-yarder late in the fourth quarter, tied Sharpe for the franchise's all-time mark in receptions with 595…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): On the Packers' second series, caught a quick hitch at the line of scrimmage and picked up 5 yards for his 596th career reception, surpassing Sharpe to become the franchise's all-time receptions leader. Finished the afternoon with team-leading seven catches (including his 600th career) for team-high 107 yards (15.3 avg.), the 21st 100-yard game of his career, moving him ahead of Freeman for sole possession of fourth place in team annals…At Detroit (Nov. 26): Led team with a season-high 142 yards and a TD on seven receptions (20.3 avg.), the best yardage total by a Packer for the regular season. His 45-yard grab early in the second half was his 50th reception of the year, which gave him a team-record eight 50-catch seasons in his career…At Arizona (Jan. 3): Went over the 1,000-yard mark for the season on the first play of the game, picking up 14 yards on a hitch. Led the team with six receptions for 65 yards (10.8 avg.), with five of the six grabs going for first downs.

2008: Started all 16 games and ranked second on the team with 74 receptions for 1,012 yards (13.7 avg.) and five TDs…Ranked 13th in the NFC in receptions and tied for third in the conference with 25 catches on third down, including four of his five TD receptions…Tied for fifth in the NFL with six receptions of 40-plus yards, a career high…Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Became all-time leader in receiving yards at Lambeau Field with 24-yard grab in second quarter, passing Freeman's career record of 3,477 yards. Passed Lofton for No. 2 on the all-time franchise list for receptions with 3-yard catch three plays later, giving him 532 for his career…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): With his 5-yard TD catch in the second quarter, tied Sharpe's team record of 103 consecutive games with a catch. Matched season high with seven catches for season-best 136 yards…At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Broke Sharpe's record for consecutive games with a catch on his 11-yard grab from Rodgers in the first quarter, giving him a reception in 104 straight games…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Led team with six catches for 111 yards (18.5 avg.), including a 71-yard TD pass from Rodgers, the longest pass play by the Packers on the season.

2007: In his ninth season, was one of four Packers Pro Bowl selections…Played in first 15 games of the season with 14 starts, did not play Dec. 30 vs. Detroit (coach's decision), and started both playoff contests…Led the team with 82 receptions for 1,048 yards (12.8 avg.), with two TDs, moving into third on the team's all-time receptions list with 503 – surpassing Freeman (431), Dowler (448) and Hutson (488) – and fourth on the yards list with 6,977, eclipsing Freeman (6,651) and Dowler (6,918)…Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Posted a game-high 126 receiving yards on six catches (21.0 avg.), with one TD, his first 100-yard receiving game of the season and 17th of his career. His first reception of the day moved him into first place on Lambeau

AMONG THE NFL'S BEST

For six consecutive seasons (2004-09), Donald Driver had at least 1,000 receiving yards, joining Indianapolis' Reggie Wayne as the only NFL players to post six consecutive 1,000-yard seasons over that span.

- Driver had 1,061 receiving yards in 2009, his seventh overall 1,000-yard campaign, extending his own franchise record.
- Already the record holder for receptions and receiving yards at Lambeau Field, Driver surpassed Sterling Sharpe (595) on Oct. 18, 2009, on the team's all-time receptions list. He enters play in 2012 with 735 career catches.
- Driver opened the 2011 season just 42 receiving yards shy of the franchise record. He set the new mark on Sept. 18, 2011, at Carolina and finished the year as the only Packer to ever eclipse the 10,000-yard plateau with 10,060 career receiving yards.
- Over the past eight seasons (2004-11), Driver's numbers are comparable to the game's best:

Name	Yards	Receptions	Name	Yards	Receptions

Field's all-time receptions list at 214, topping Freeman… At Detroit (Nov. 22): Recorded season highs with 10 catches for 147 yards (14.7 avg.)…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Had a team-high five catches for 141 yards (28.2 avg.) and one TD. In the second quarter, caught a long pass and outran three defenders down the right sideline on his way to a 90-yard TD, the fourth-longest postseason TD in NFL history and longest in Green Bay playoff history.

2006: After signing a contract extension in the offseason, answered with his second career Pro Bowl selection and the best statistical season of his career…Started all 16 games for the third time in his career and led the team with 92 receptions and 1,295 receiving yards – both career highs – and eight TDs, including an 82-yard score at Minnesota (Nov. 12) and a 68-yarder at San Francisco (Dec. 10)… Added seven carries for 16 yards (2.3 avg.) on the season… His 1,295 receiving yards were second in the NFC and fifth in the league…His 92 catches ranked third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL, and he became the first Packers receiver to finish in the league's top five since Freeman also finished fifth in 1998…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Playing in his 100th professional contest, accumulated 153 yards on eight catches (19.1 avg.) and surpassed 5,000 career yards from scrimmage on a 16-yard reverse…At Miami (Oct. 22): Had a season-high 10 catches for 93 yards (9.3 avg.), becoming the seventh player in team history with 5,000 career receiving yards and the 11th Packer with 30 TD receptions…At Minnesota (Nov. 12): Established a career high with 191 yards on six receptions (31.8 avg.); caught three passes for 69 yards on a game-opening FG drive, then just before halftime caught a short pass over the middle and blazed by a group of defenders for an 82-yard score – the Packers' longest 2006 play – giving Green Bay a lead it would not relinquish. His 191-yard performance was the best single-game total by an NFC receiver in 2006.

2005: Started all 16 games and led the Packers with 86 receptions and 1,221 yards – then career bests – with five TDs…Also carried twice for 13 yards (6.5 avg.)…Was selected as team MVP…Surpassed No. 7 Paul Coffman (322) on the team's career receptions list, finishing the year with 329 catches…Became just the fourth Packers player with an 85-reception season (joining Sharpe, Brooks and Walker)… Posted a career-best five 100-yard receiving games and finished the season with consecutive 100-yard efforts… Had the Packers' three longest catches of the season, a 59-yard reception vs. Seattle (Jan. 1), a 56-yard catch vs. Chicago (Dec. 25) and a 53-yard TD vs. Minnesota (Nov. 21)…Earned the Ed Block Courage Award, given to one player on every NFL roster who displays commitment to the principles of courage and sportsmanship, as voted by his teammates…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Caught a game-high eight passes for 114 yards (14.3 avg.) and one TD, a spectacular, 22-yard, one-handed grab, making the catch despite being held by CB Antoine Winfield (penalty declined) for the game's first points in tough, 23-20 loss… At Atlanta (Nov. 13): Caught season-high 10 passes for 114 yards (11.4 avg.)…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Brought in six catches for 107 yards (17.8 avg.), going over 1,000 yards for the season by converting a third-and-3 early in the game…Vs. Seattle (Jan. 1): Led the team with six receptions for a season-high 118 yards (19.7 avg.); his first five catches all converted third downs, while his sixth was a 59-yard grab in the third quarter to the Seattle 5, Green Bay's longest passing play of the season.

2004: Played in all 16 games, with 11 starts; did not start in five contests when club opened in other than base personnel…Had 84 catches for 1,208 yards and matched career high with nine TDs (2002)…Teamed with Walker to register the Packers' best season by a receiving duo in both combined receptions (173) and combined receiving yards (2,590), respectively surpassing the 172 catches of Sharpe and Bennett in 1994, and the 2,253 receiving yards of Freeman and Brooks in 1997…Among NFL receiving pairs in 2004, the two ranked second, behind only the Rams' Holt and Bruce (2,664)…In the process of racking up huge numbers, the duo became the club's first set of 1,000-yard receivers since 1999 (Freeman, Bill Schroeder) and just the third overall (Freeman, Brooks in '97)…At Detroit (Oct. 17): Caught a game-high nine passes for 110 yards (12.2 avg.) in 38-10 victory, including a pair of TDs, his second two-TD game as a pro (Sept. 29, 2002, vs. Carolina); the second TD came on 20-yard pass from Green…At Houston (Nov. 21): Had a spectacular homecoming in his native Houston, making 10 catches for 148 yards (14.8 avg.) and one TD, including a season-long 50-yard bomb, and a 24-yard TD catch off his fingertips to bring the Packers within three points, a 15-yard catch on third-and-16 to set up game-tying kick, and a 12-yard catch to the Houston 28-yard line just prior to the game-winning 46-yard FG…At Minnesota (Dec. 24): In division-clinching triumph, had a clutch performance with 11 catches (matching his career high) for a then-career-best 162 yards (14.7 avg.) and a TD. In the fourth quarter, capped a drive by converting a fourth-and-3 with a tough TD reception, knotting the game at 31.

2003: Served as Green Bay's starting flanker for the second straight season, occasionally shifting to split end as dictated by injuries…Started 15 regular-season games (13 at FL, two at SE)…Also saw action in both playoff games; he did not start Wild Card contest vs. Seattle (Jan. 4) when Green Bay opened with two TEs…Led the team in receptions for the second consecutive season, with 52 catches for 621 yards (11.9 avg.) and two TDs…Also tied for the team lead in postseason receptions with eight for 91 yards (11.4 avg.)…Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 7): Suffered a sprained neck midway through the fourth quarter of the season opener when he landed on his head after going high to attempt a catch, but missed only one game…At Minnesota (Nov. 2): Had a career-long 45-yard run to set up an early FG…At San Diego (Dec. 14): Enjoyed his top performance of the season as he pulled in eight passes for 112 yards – the Packers' first 100-yard receiving effort of the season – and a 7-yard TD just before halftime to give Green Bay a 17-3 advantage…Vs. Seattle (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 4): Posted his best effort of the playoffs to date, pulling in six passes for 66 yards, including a leaping, 23-yard catch between two defenders to set up a FG just before halftime.

2002: Developed into one of the league's most explosive playmakers in his fourth NFL season…Won the starting SE position, vacated when Schroeder was allowed to leave in free agency, with a strong preseason performance…Was one of Green Bay's most consistent performers in training-camp practices, edging Robert Ferguson and Charles Lee, among others, to become a full-time starter for the first time as a pro…Earning his first Pro Bowl trip, he became the lowest-drafted Packers player (seventh round) to participate in the Pro Bowl since Larry McCarren (12th round) in 1983 (Don Majkowski, 10th round, was chosen for the game in 1989, but did not play)…Led the Packers in receptions (70, 14th in the NFC), receiving yards (1,064, 10th in NFC) and TD receptions (nine, second in NFC) – all three figures eclipsing his three-year NFL totals entering the 2002 season…Had more catches (70) in his first year as a starter than any of the top 10 WRs in Packers history had in their initial season in the starting lineup…Became the eighth 1,000-yard receiver in Packers history – and the first drafted in the seventh round or later – at San Francisco (Dec. 15) when he reached the plateau for the first time as a pro…Enjoyed the fifth-highest yards-per-catch average in the NFC (15.2) and tied for fourth in the NFC in third-down receptions (25)…Also rushed eight times for 70 yards…Had three 100-yard receiving days and a pair of 80-plus-yard TD catches over the course of the season…Was the Packers' finalist for the 2002 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award...Vs. Carolina (Sept. 29): Posted the first two-TD game of his career in 17-14 victory. Caught 31-yard TD pass from TE Bubba Franks late in first half, and with 4:10 remaining pulled in the eventual game-winning score – a high bullet from Favre that he snared near the 10-yard line before darting into the end zone…At Chicago (Oct. 7): Enjoyed his first career 100-yard effort in Monday night win, making four receptions for 120 yards (30.0 avg.), including a career-long 85-yard catch to open the scoring (tied for the longest play from scrimmage in the NFC in 2002)…Vs. Detroit (Nov. 10): Posted his top performance of the season, catching a career-high 11 passes for 130 yards (11.8 avg.). The 11 catches were the most by a Green Bay player in six years (Don Beebe, 11, Oct. 14, 1996, vs. 49ers)…At Minnesota (Nov. 17): Caught four passes for 121 yards (30.3 avg.), including a nifty, 84-yard catch-and-run up the left sideline to tie the game at 21 early in the fourth quarter…Vs. Atlanta (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 4): Turned in memorable and gutty playoff effort, starting and playing through painful shoulder injury suffered a week earlier at the Jets. Aggravated the injury early vs. the Falcons but still willed himself to return to the contest. Caught Green Bay's lone TD – a 14-yard strike from Favre early in the third quarter.

2001: Turned in standout preseason to cement his place as one of Packers' top pass catchers off the bench…Played in 13 regular-season games, starting twice when Green Bay opened with multiple WRs; he was inactive for the other three contests…Made 13 catches for 167 yards (12.8 avg.) and one TD…Also had three rushing attempts for 38 yards and one TD, along with tackles on special teams…Vs. Baltimore (Oct. 14): Matched his season high with three receptions for a season-best 69 yards (23.0 avg.), including

WHERE TITLETOWN MEETS TINSELTOWN

The 2008 release of Leatherheads, starring George Clooney and Renee Zellweger, was inspired by the tales of Johnny "Blood" McNally, who spent seven seasons in Green Bay. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Johnny "Blood" led the Packers to four championships (1929, '30, '31 and '36).

- Actor Matthew McConaughey's father was drafted by the Packers. The team selected James (Jim) McConaughey, an end, out of the University of Houston in the 27th round (319th overall) of the '53 draft. The elder McConaughey didn't see action in a league game.
- Alan Autry, who played Captain Bubba Skinner in the hit series In the Heat of the Night, also was drafted by Green Bay. GM/Head Coach Bart Starr drafted him in the 12th round (296th overall) of the 1975 draft. During training camp, Autry met director Robert Altman, who would give him a small part in the 1978 film Remember My Name. Autry's legal name was Carlos Brown (including his 1975-76 Packers tenure) until 1981, when he changed it while filming Southern Comfort, after meeting his biological father. Autry now owns a production company, and produced and starred in his first full-length film, The Legend of Jake Kincaid.
- The Packers were the subject of a 1937 MGM/UA movie, Pigskin Champions (left, Don Hutson and Arnie Herber collect autographs from one of their "co-stars," Pete Smith, while in Hollywood).

- Brett Favre made a cameo in the comedy There's Something About Mary (Cameron Diaz, Ben Stiller), as Mary's mysterious boyfriend.
- Gary Knafelc, Lambeau Field's former P.A. announcer who also caught the game-winning touchdown in the stadium's inaugural game, was an actor as well. Using the screen name Gary Kincaid, he had roles in Palm Springs Weekend (1963) among other films.
- Ray Nitschke had roles in The Longest Yard (1974), starring Burt Reynolds, and Head (1968).
- Offensive lineman Matt Willig appeared in all 16 games for the Packers during the 1998 season. Since his playing career ended in 2005, Willig has become a successful actor, having appeared in a number of popular television shows including Dexter, Chuck and Cold Case, and has also landed a handful of roles in various films.
- Current Packers wide receiver Greg Jennings showed his versatility when he made a guest appearance on the CBS television series Criminal Minds in May 2010. Jennings' brief speaking role saw him play a Behavioral Analysis Unit technician.
- Donald Driver, entering his 14th NFL season, won the 14th season of ABC's hit television show Dancing with the Stars in May 2011. He partnered with Peta Murgatroyd to defeat 11 other pairs and become the third football player to win the Mirror Ball Trophy.

a 37-yarder across the middle to set up the TD that gave Green Bay a 24-10 lead late in the third quarter. Inactive for games at Chicago (Nov. 11), vs. Atlanta (Nov. 18) and at Detroit (Nov. 22) due to after-effects of quad contusion suffered against the Ravens. Returned to action in Monday night contest at Jacksonville (Dec. 3).

2000: Served as the Packers' No. 3 receiver for much of year with Corey Bradford sidelined by multiple injuries… Played in all 16 games for the first time, starting twice… Enjoyed an impressive 15.3-yard average per catch as he caught 21 passes (sixth on team) for 322 yards (15.3 avg.) and one TD…Vs. Chicago (Oct. 1): Started first career game and caught three passes for 43 yards (14.3 avg.)… Vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 24): Started for an inactive Freeman and picked up 4 yards on his first NFL carry.

1999: Saw action in six games as a rookie, primarily on special teams; he was inactive for nine contests and did not play in the other…Considered a long shot to make the team, he consistently impressed the coaching staff during training camp, meriting a roster spot…Made three receptions for 31 yards (10.3 avg.) and one TD on the season…Inactive for the first eight games…At Dallas (Nov. 14): Made his NFL debut, playing as the fourth receiver and on special teams… Vs. Carolina (Dec. 12): Made his first NFL catch a memorable one, pulling in an 8-yard TD pass from Favre…1999 Draft: Was the second of two seventh-round draft choices (213th overall) by Green Bay, a pick obtained from Chicago in 1998 for return specialist Glyn Milburn.

COLLEGE: Two-year starter and three-time letterman (1996-98) at Alcorn State…Coached in college by Johnny Thomas, who once tutored Jerry Rice at Mississippi Valley State…Made 88 career receptions for 1,933 yards (22.0 avg.) and 17 TDs…Multi-talented, was a member of the Braves' track team all four years (1996-99)…Earned all-conference honors in both sports his senior year…Earned B.S. degree in accounting…Senior season (1998): Earned second-team All-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors when he led the Braves in receptions (55), receiving yards (1,128) and scoring (60 points)…Posted six 100-yard receiving efforts among 11 games played…Established career highs in catches (11) and yards receiving (173) at Prairie View A&M (Oct. 10)…Junior season (1997): Averaged 26.5 yards per reception in his first season as a starter…Led team with 556 receiving yards on 21 catches, six of which went for TDs…Caught a career-long 81-yard TD vs. Mississippi Valley State (Nov. 8)…Sophomore season (1996): In first season as football letterman, caught 12 passes for 249 yards (20.8 avg.) and a TD…Track and field: Possessor of world-class ability in the high jump as a track athlete, he also participated in the decathlon, long jump and triple jump… Was named as the outstanding field performer in the SWAC, honoring both indoor and outdoor seasons, three straight years (1996-98)… Qualified for the 1996 Olympic Field Trials in the high jump with a leap of 7 feet, 6½ inches (ranked No. 1 in the nation that year), accomplished at the 37th annual Pelican Relays…Was the 1996 SWAC champion (indoor and outdoor) in the long jump, triple jump and decathlon, finishing second in the high jump…Was the 1997 SWAC champion (indoor and outdoor) in the long jump and triple jump, again coming in second in the high jump…Also was the '97 SWAC (outdoor) champ in the decathlon…Qualified for the 1997 NCAA Championships in the long jump with a leap of 25 feet, 5 inches…Was the 1998 SWAC (indoor) champion in the long jump (25-5), triple jump (50-2) and high jump (7-2)…Was the 1999 SWAC (indoor) champion in the long jump (25-0) and triple jump (51-3); he came in third in the high jump.

RECEIVING QUINTET CATCHES FIRE IN 2011

Billed as one of the deepest and most dangerous position groups in the NFL entering the season, the Packers' collection of wide receivers did not disappoint in 2011. A band composed of veterans Donald Driver, Greg Jennings, James Jones, Jordy Nelson, and rookie Randall Cobb, they combined for 235 catches, 3,667 yards and 38 touchdowns during the regular season. The yardage and touchdown totals ranked No. 1 in the NFL among receiving corps and set new franchise records for the position group.

A look at where the receivers' collective totals ranked in the NFL in 2011 and in the history of the franchise:

2011 NFL Ranks

Fifth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 247 • Born: March 26, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 48/29 • Acquired: D3-08

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Is tied for No. 2 in the franchise single-season record books for most receptions by a tight end (55 in 2009 and 2011) and ranks No. 2 in receiving yards (767 in 2011), trailing only Paul Coffman in both categories (56 catches in '79, 814 yards in '83).

Is the lone tight end in team history to register two 55-catch seasons (2009, 2011) and is one of only two tight ends (Coffman) to record two 600-yard campaigns.

Posted a career-high eight TD receptions in 2011, good for No. 3 in the league behind New England's Rob Gronkowski (17) and New Orleans' Jimmy Graham (11).

Caught three TD passes at Chicago in Week 3 of 2011, becoming only the second TE in franchise history (Keith Jackson, Sept. 1, 1996) to post three TD receptions in a game.

Ranked No. 3 in the NFL among tight ends last season (min. 40 receptions) with a 13.9-yard receiving average.

Of his 55 receptions in 2011, 44 went for first downs, an 80.0 percentage that ranked No. 1 on the team and No. 2 in the league among tight ends (min. 32 receptions).

Was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2011.

Ranks second to Coffman (six) with three 100-yard receiving games in his career.

His 301 receiving yards in 2010 through the first four games before he sustained a knee injury ranked No. 2 in the league behind only San Diego's Antonio Gates (386).

Despite missing three midseason games due to a knee injury, had one of the most productive seasons by a tight end in team history in '09 with 55 catches for 676 yards and five touchdowns, adding six catches for a team playoff-record 159 yards in the NFC Wild Card game at Arizona.

Had seven or more receptions in three games in '09 as he set a new team record, and had at least six catches four times in the regular season to match Coffman's '79 output. His eight 50-yard games topped Coffman's franchise mark of seven ('81, '83).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Matched his career high with 55 receptions in 2011, tied for the second most in team history by a tight end behind Paul Coffman's 56 in 1979, and set a career high with 767 receiving yards, the No. 2 mark by a TE in franchise annals behind only Coffman's 814 yards in 1983.
- Is the only tight end in Packers history to record two 55-catch seasons (2009 and 2011).
- In breakout 2009 campaign, posted second-most catches in a single season by a Green Bay tight end (55) and sixth-most yards (676), despite missing three games with a knee injury.
- Finished '09 with Green Bay playoff-record 159 receiving yards in NFC Wild Card loss at Arizona, the third-most productive game by a tight end in NFL postseason history behind San Diego's Kellen Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982, vs. Miami) and San Francisco's Vernon Davis (180 yards, Jan. 14, 2012, vs. New Orleans)
- Also in '09, tied regular-season, single-game franchise marks for yards (128, Week 4 at Minnesota) and receptions (nine, Week 15 at Pittsburgh) by a tight end. Again matched the reception mark in 2010 with nine at Chicago in Week 3.
- Ranked third in University of Texas history when he left school for career receptions by a TE with 76, despite playing only two seasons.
- Became first Packers draftee from the University of Texas since 1991, and was the highest pick used on a TE by the Packers since Bubba Franks was selected in the first round (14th overall) in 2000.

2011 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, including a career-high 13 starts…Also started in the playoff contest vs. the N.Y. Giants…Ranked No. 3 on the team with a career-high 55 receptions (also '09), the second most in franchise history by a TE...Posted a career-high 767 receiving yards, also the second most in team annals by a TE…Finished No. 3 in the league with a career-high eight TD catches and ranked No. 3 among NFL tight ends (min. 40 receptions) with a 13.9-yard receiving average…Of his 55 receptions, 44 went for first downs, an 80.0 percentage that ranked No. 1 on the team and No. 2 in the league among tight ends (min. 32 receptions)… At Chicago (Sept. 25): Caught seven passes for 85 yards (12.1 avg.) and a career-best three TDs. Became just the second TE in franchise history to catch three TDs in a game, joining Jackson (at Tampa Bay, Sept. 1, 1996)… At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Posted 67 yards receiving on four catches (16.8 avg.), with three of the grabs coming on third down and picking up first downs…At San Diego (Nov. 6): Caught five passes for 44 yards (8.8) and his career-high-tying fifth TD grab of the season…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Paced the team with 67 receiving yards on three catches (22.3 avg.)…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Posted a season-high 87 receiving yards on six catches (14.5 avg.), along with his sixth TD reception of the season, a career high…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Led the team with 83 yards receiving on three catches (27.7 avg.). That receiving average was tied for No. 3 in franchise history (min. three receptions) by a tight end…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): With only three WRs active on gameday, caught seven passes for 64 yards (9.1) and his eighth TD grab of the season. Caught the game-winning 4-yard TD from QB Matt Flynn to cap an eight-play, 80-yard drive with 1:10 remaining that put the Packers ahead, 45-41, the game's final score.

2010: Started the first five games, but lasted just two snaps in the fifth game when he injured his knee and was lost for the season…Through four contests, led the Packers in receiving yards (301) and per-catch average (14.3), as seven of his 21 receptions went for 20-plus yards…Had already tied Coffman's 1979 single-season team mark for TEs with two 100-yard games, and his yardage total ranked second in the league behind Gates (386) among all TEs through four games…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Had four catches for 103 yards, a 25.8-yard average that was the second-best single-game outing in team history by a TE (min. four receptions), trailing only Coffman's 30.5-yard mark on four catches at Chicago on Dec. 18, 1983…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Tied his career high and the franchise mark for TEs with nine receptions, and posted his second straight 100-yard game (115) to join Coffman in '79 as the only TEs in club history to achieve the feat. His third regular-season 100-yard game put him second to Coffman's six in the team record books for TEs…At Washington (Oct. 10): Injured his knee attempting to tackle Redskins S Kareem Moore, who had recovered TE Donald Lee's fumble on the second snap of the game. Left the game, was inactive the following week and was placed on injured reserve Oct. 18.

2009: Played in 13 games with nine starts and ranked third on the team with 55 catches for 676 yards (12.6 avg.) despite missing three games due to injury...Tied for second on the team with a then-career-high five TD catches... Reception total was one shy of Coffman's single-season team record for a TE ('79), tying him with Coffman ('81) and Jackie Harris ('92) for No. 2…Yardage total was then the fifth most by a Green Bay TE and most since Chmura's 679 in '95…Set a team record for a TE with seven or more receptions in three games, matched Coffman ('79) with six or more catches four times, and had eight 50-yard games to top Coffman's mark of seven ('81, '83)...After returning from knee injury in Week 11, ranked third in the league among TEs with 37 receptions in that seven-game span, trailing only Dallas' Jason Witten (45) and Atlanta's Tony Gonzalez (39)...Inactive for games vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1), at Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) and vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with sprained knee sustained at Cleveland in Week 7…At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Led the team with six catches for a career-best 128 yards (21.3 avg.), tying the single-game franchise mark for a TE; Harris posted the same number vs. Denver on Oct. 10, 1993. Broke open down the right sideline and caught a 62-yard TD pass from QB Aaron Rodgers, making a move to elude S Tyrell Johnson. The catch was the longest of his career and the longest reception by a Packers TE since Harris' 66-yarder in the '93 game against the Broncos…At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Caught a 16-yard pass over the middle on the Packers' opening drive, but sustained a sprained left knee on the play and did not return. Was sidelined for the next three games…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Started and posted seven receptions for 79 yards (11.3 avg.) and two TDs, the first multi-TD game of his career…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Started and led the team with a career-high nine catches for 74 yards (8.2 avg.), matching the single-game franchise mark for receptions held by three other TEs…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the team with a team playoff-record 159 yards receiving on six receptions (26.5 avg.), breaking the previous high of 148 yards set by Jefferson (Jan. 8, 1983, vs. St. Louis). His yardage total was also No. 2 in NFL playoff history by a TE at the time behind only Winslow (166 yards, Jan. 2, 1982), and his 26.5-yard average was a league playoff record for TEs (min. five receptions).

2008: Played in 14 games, second most among the team's rookies (Jordy Nelson, 16), with one start…Caught six passes for 74 yards (12.3 avg.) and one TD…Recorded six special teams tackles, the most among Packers rookies…On the field for 54.9 percent of special teams plays, which ranked fourth on the team and first among rookies… Inactive for opening two games, vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8) and at Detroit (Sept. 14) as a healthy scratch…Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Made NFL debut, seeing time on special teams and getting some snaps on offense…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Caught first NFL pass when he hauled in 6-yard reception from Rodgers in the second quarter… At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Posted a career-high three special teams tackles…Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started first career game with Packers opening in a two-TE set… Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Caught first TD pass of his career when he hauled in 3-yarder from Rodgers in the back right corner of the end zone late in the first quarter. Also had a 26-yard reception deep down the left sideline in the second quarter…2008 Draft: Selected in the third round (91st overall), the seventh TE taken. Highest pick used on a TE by the Packers since Bubba Franks was selected in the first round (14th overall) in 2000. Became the first player drafted by the Packers from the University of Texas since WR Johnny Walker was picked in the eighth round in 1991. Highest selection used by Green Bay on a UT player since HB Duke Carlisle in 1964 (60th overall selection). Was the first player from UT to ever enter the draft following sophomore season.

COLLEGE: Productive player in his two seasons with the Longhorns, catching 76 passes for 947 yards (12.5 avg.) and five TDs in 26 games…His 76 receptions ranked third in school history among TEs despite playing only two years, and his 947 yards ranked sixth in school annals… Caught four or more passes 10 times during his career… Majored in kinesiology…Sophomore season (2007): Started all 13 games and earned honorable mention All-Big 12 Conference honors from the league's coaches…Named UT's Outstanding Tight End…Caught 45 passes (second on UT's single-season TE list) for 575 yards (third on single-season TE list) and two TDs…Posted a reception in 12 of 13 games and three or more grabs in nine of 13 contests… Helped Longhorns average 462.0 yards of total offense, which ranked 13th in the NCAA…Caught four passes for a career-high 149 yards (37.3 avg.) and a TD, including catches of 58 and 55 yards, vs. No. 10 Oklahoma (Oct. 6) in 28-21 loss. The 149 yards was the school record by a

MORE ABOUT THE FROZEN TUNDRA

- The Lambeau Field playing surface underwent an offseason makeover prior to the 2007 season that brought the latest technology to the hallowed ground and made future in-season resodding unnecessary.
- In a project that took several months to complete, DD GrassMaster, a natural grass surface reinforced with man-made fibers developed by Desso DLW Sports Systems, was installed on top of a completely new drainage and heating system. The new surface and underlying systems represent the latest developments in field management.
- The new grass surface wasn't entirely new for the players, though. It was identical to the surface on the team's Clarke Hinkle Field. That surface, installed prior to 2005 training camp, had garnered rave reviews from the players. The team again used the surface in 2009 for the new Nitschke Field.
- According to the Packers' fields manager, Allen Johnson, the Packers had been following the evolution of the relatively new system for several years, going back to its development on European soccer fields.
- DD GrassMaster's advantage mainly is attributed to the sand-based soil, which allows superior drainage and softer, more consistent footing over the previous clay-based field. Because a sand-based root zone has less stability, the system employs millions of strands of polyethylene and polypropylene materials eight inches below the surface with one inch exposed on the top. This gives the field firm footing and eliminates clumps of sod tearing from the surface. Even after a full season's wear late in the year, the footing remains excellent due to the soil-strengthening strands.
- The Packers and Denver Broncos are the only two NFL teams to use the system in their respective stadiums. However, the surface has gained increasing popularity overseas and is used by some of Europe's top soccer clubs, including Arsenal, Liverpool and Real Madrid.
- Due to the enhanced drainage capabilities, fans at Lambeau no longer notice a perceptible crown on the field. A slight slope exists, about a half-degree decline, to assist with water and snow removal when the field is covered with a tarp.
- Also included in the '07 project was a new service path encircling the field. Cement was replaced with a rubberized surface, similar to the one adjacent to the Don Hutson Center on the side of Hinkle Field. The rubberized path still allows for equipment use, but is safer for players who run far out of bounds.

Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 255 • Born: May 14, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 19/3 • Acquired: FA-09

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Versatile backup linebacker and special teams performer who spent the entire season on the active roster for the first time in 2011 and saw the most extensive playing time of his career late in the year.

Played in 11 games with two starts, tallying 21 tackles (15 solo), two interceptions, three passes defensed and a forced fumble as an injury replacement for LB A.J. Hawk (calf) in 2011.

Spent two different stints on the active roster and three on the practice squad in 2010, appearing in the final five regular-season contests and all four postseason games for the club.

Saw time in a total of eight games in what was his first participating season, mostly on special teams, but also played some inside and outside linebacker, with one start.

First came to Green Bay in 2009, spending the final four weeks of the season plus the playoffs on the practice squad. Originally entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent with Minnesota and spent parts of the '09 preseason with both the Vikings and Detroit Lions.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Saw the most extended playing time of his career in 2011, appearing in 11 games and making two starts as an injury replacement for LB A.J. Hawk (calf).
- Set new career highs in every major statistical category in 2011, including the first two interceptions of his career over a three-game span in Weeks 12-14.
- Originally entered the NFL in '09 as a non-drafted rookie with Minnesota, and also spent time in the '09 preseason with Detroit.
- A four-year letterman at Boston College, he played in 52 college games and helped the Eagles win consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Atlantic Division titles.
- Was a teammate of Packers DT B.J. Raji at Boston College.

2011 SEASON: A member of the active roster for the entire season, the versatile LB saw the most playing time of his career and responded with career highs in every major statistical category…Appeared in 11 games, and made two starts at the "Buck" LB position after regular starter Hawk suffered a calf injury in the first half of the team's Week 12 game at Detroit (Nov. 24)…Filled in admirably for Hawk, posting each of his 21 tackles (15 solo), two interceptions, three passes defensed and a forced fumble in the ensuing two-plus games…Also added a career-high four special teams tackles during the season…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Saw his most extended playing time of the season to that point, coming on in relief of an injured Hawk (calf) in the second quarter and playing the entire second half. Was the last man standing after fellow reserve LB D.J. Smith had already replaced an injured Desmond Bishop, who suffered a calf injury of his own. Finished the game with four tackles (three solo) and made an outstanding play to record his first career INT in the third quarter. On the play, QB Matthew Stafford tried to lead TE Brandon Pettigrew with a throw over Francois' head, but the LB adjusted and made a leaping INT at the Green Bay 34-yard line. The Packers offense would score a TD on the first play of the ensuing possession on a 65-yard TD pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR James Jones that extended the lead to 21-0...At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Started his second career game and first of 2011 as both Bishop and Hawk were inactive with calf injuries. Finished with five tackles (four solo, one for loss) and a pass defensed…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Made his second consecutive start in the absence of the injured Hawk and tied for the team lead with 12 tackles (eight solo), also causing two turnover plays with his second INT in three games and his first career forced fumble that was returned for a TD. Made the INT just before halftime when he covered TE Kevin Boss deep on a post pattern, leaping to intercept the high throw from QB Carson Palmer in the end zone and downing it for a touchback. Forced fumble came on Oakland's second possession of the third quarter, after Palmer had completed a short throw over the middle to FB Marcel Reece. Francois came up to tackle the ball-carrier, punching the ball out with his left hand. The ball traveled several yards backwards before being picked up by LB Erik Walden, who returned it 5 yards for a TD to extend the Packers' lead to 43-7.

2010: Went back and forth between the practice squad and active roster throughout the season, ultimately playing in eight games with one start…Was waived in the final roster reduction at the end of training camp on Sept. 4 and signed to the practice squad the next day…Was released from the practice squad on Sept. 15, then re-signed to the practice squad on Sept. 23…Was signed to the active roster on Oct. 13 after S Derrick Martin was placed on injured reserve, waived on Nov. 9, re-signed to the practice squad on Nov. 15, and signed again to the active roster on Dec. 1 for the remainder of the season after LB Brandon Chillar went on IR...Contributed mostly on special teams, recording three tackles, and also played both inside and outside linebacker, making two stops from scrimmage…In the postseason, added three more special teams tackles plus three tackles on defense in relief of an injured Walden in the NFC Championship…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Started at ROLB due to injuries to Frank Zombo (knee) and Walden (quad), though Walden was active. Recorded two assisted tackles and provided pressure with three QB hits…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Had one special teams tackle…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Had two special teams tackles…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Saw extended playing time on defense in the second half for Walden (ankle) and had three tackles (two solo).

2009: Entered training camp with Minnesota and appeared in one preseason game, recording one solo tackle, before being waived on Aug. 18…Claimed off waivers by Detroit the next day, and appeared in one preseason contest with the Lions before being waived on Sept. 1…

Signed by the Packers to their practice squad on Dec. 8 and re-signed following the season to a reserve/future contract on Jan. 11, 2010…2009 Draft: Signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings on May 1.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman at Boston College, he appeared in 52 games over the course of his career, totaling 201 tackles and helping the program to back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference Atlantic Division titles in his final two years…Earned a B.A. in communications… Senior season (2008): Started the final eight games and placed third on the team with a career-high 82 tackles (47 solo), including nine for loss, two sacks and an INT he returned for a TD. Earned Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week honors after tallying nine tackles, two sacks and the INT return for a TD vs. Maryland (Nov. 29)…Junior season (2007): Played in 13 games and finished with 37 tackles, two tackles for loss and a half-sack…Sophomore season (2006): Appeared in all 13 of the team's games, starting seven and registering 52 tackles (29 solo), 3½ for loss, and tying for the team lead with three fumble recoveries…Redshirt freshman season (2005): Appeared in 12 games and posted 28 tackles and a fumble recovery.

PERSONAL: Given name Robert Joseph Francois… Born in Houston…Single…Was a college teammate of DT B.J. Raji and former Packers DB Will Blackmon…High school: Initially prepped at Ross Sterling High in Baytown, Texas, outside of Houston, before transferring to Governor Dummer Academy in Byfield, Mass., for his final three years…Lettered all four years in football between the two schools, appearing at WR, TE and S, earning Governor's Team MVP honor as a senior in 2003…Also was named to the All-New England team as a senior and was a two-time All-Independent League first-team selection…Earned three letters in basketball and two in track…

LOGO HISTORY

1950-53: In their first season after Curly Lambeau's 31-year reign, the "New Packers" introduce their first identifying mark; the logo is also present on 1950 stock certificates. It changes colors over the four years, as the team experiments with several uniform combinations.

1954-61: Looking for a fresh look with new coach Lisle Blackbourn, the team unveils new uniforms and a new mark. The logo locates both Green Bay and Milwaukee on a Wisconsin silhouette. The passer wears No. 41, worn two decades earlier by both Arnie Herber and Clarke Hinkle.

1959-74: Sideline logo, worn on hats, shirts and jackets by coaches, equipment managers and trainers at both games and practice. Coincided with Vince Lombardi's first season, then retained by Phil Bengtson and Dan Devine.

1961-69: The primary logo during the Lombardi era, used on official Packers stationery and publications. The team won five world championships under the mark. Before the '69 season, after Lombardi's departure to Washington, team letterhead shifts to a helmet logo. The mark still sees use into the '70s, though.

1961-present: First and only helmet logo in team history, designed for Lombardi by equipment manager Dad Braisher and first applied to Packers headgear in 1961. After introducing the G, the team immediately won two world titles (1961-62), and five over the mark's first seven years. Borrowed by scores of high schools and colleges.

1993: Commemorative logo, worn on jersey during '93 season, signifying the team's 75th professional season, since its birth in 1919. Wearing logo, team earned first playoff berth in 11 years, kicking off string of six straight postseason trips.

2003: Patch team wore for first two home games of '03 to commemorate rededication of Lambeau Field, following three-year, $295-million renovation.

2006: Commemorative mark recognizing the 10th anniversary of the team's Super Bowl XXXI triumph over the New England Patriots.

2007: Emblem celebrating the 50th anniversary of venerable Lambeau Field, worn on home jerseys and painted in the end zones on the world-famous stadium grass.

LONG SNAPPER ▪ ARKANSAS

Fifth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 255 • Born: November 2, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 64/0 • Acquired: FA-08

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Reliable long snapper was a last-minute injury replacement for J.J. Jansen following the 2008 preseason and has performed the job almost flawlessly for the past four seasons.

Has appeared in all 64 regular-season games and six playoff contests since joining the club, having recorded 10 coverage tackles and a fumble recovery in his four years, including a career-best five tackles in 2010.

Helped key an all-around improvement for the special teams in 2011, one that saw the units climb to No. 13 overall in the annual Dallas Morning News rankings, the team's highest finish since 2007.

Played a critical role in P Tim Masthay posting 45.6-yard gross and 38.6-yard net punting averages in 2011, each of which set new franchise records.

Also centered a placement operation that saw K Mason Crosby produce a career season, one that resulted in his being named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl.

Crosby ranked No. 4 in the NFL with 140 points and his 85.7 field goal percentage was a career high. Goode also snapped for each of Crosby's franchise-record 23 consecutive field goals, a mark that broke Chris Jacke's previous record of 17 set in 1993.

Originally signed by Green Bay as a free agent on Sept. 1, 2008, three days after Jansen suffered a season-ending knee injury in the preseason finale vs. Tennessee.

Earned his first NFL roster spot with Green Bay after two failed attempts with Jacksonville, having originally signed as a non-drafted rookie free agent with the Jaguars in May 2007 and again on March 5, 2008, twice attending the team's offseason program, before being released.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Last name is pronounced GEWD.
- Signed as injury replacement for J.J. Jansen following the 2008 preseason finale and has played every game as long snapper the past four seasons, recording 10 coverage tackles, including a career-high five stops in 2010.
- Was without a team for 2008 training camp, and was pouring concrete for a driveway in 93-degree heat in his home state of Arkansas when the Packers called following Jansen's injury.
- In 2008, recovered a fourth-quarter fumble on punt return to set up game-tying touchdown vs. Houston (Dec. 7).
- Spent 2007 training camp and 2008 offseason with Jacksonville but failed to land a roster spot.
- A four-year letterwinner at long snapper for Arkansas, appeared in 49 collegiate games.

2011 SEASON: Played in all 16 regular-season games and the team's playoff contest, extending his games-played streak to 70 (including playoffs), dating back to his arrival on the eve of the 2008 season…Contributed to what was an all-around improvement on special teams that featured career seasons from both Crosby and Masthay…Helped Masthay build on what was a strong finish to the 2010 season, maintaining his consistency throughout and finishing the year having set new franchise records for both gross (45.6) and net punting (38.6) average…Added one tackle on the coverage units…Also snapped for Crosby's most efficient season, one that saw him post a new career-high 85.7 field goal percentage and rank No. 4 in the NFL with 140 points, becoming just the second player in franchise history (Paul Hornung) and sixth in NFL history to have more than one season with 140 points…Crosby's 649 career points placed him ahead of Chip Lohmiller for the most by a player in his first five seasons in the league, with Goode having snapped for four of them…Delivered on Crosby's franchise-record 58-yard field goal in Week 7 at Minnesota…Also centered for each of Crosby's franchise-record 23 consecutive successful field goals between 2010-11, breaking Chris Jacke's previous record of 17 from the 1993 season…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Delivered on each of Crosby's career-high-tying four FGs, including his then-franchise-record-tying 56-yarder in the third quarter…At Minnesota (Nov. 14): Centered both a FG and punt operation that had excellent performances inside the Metrodome. Snapped for Crosby's franchise-record 18th consecutive FG, a 39-yarder in the second quarter, and later on his 58-yard make late in the third quarter that now stands as the longest FG in team history. The 58-yarder made Crosby the only kicker in the NFL to make three FGs of 56-plus yards between 2010-11. Also executed three snaps on each of Masthay's three punts, all of which landed inside the 20-yard line, giving Masthay career highs in both gross (59.3) and net (55.3) average (min. three attempts)…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Centered each of Crosby's five PATs and also his game-winning 31-yard FG as time expired, his first participation in a game-winning kick in his four-year career. Also snapped for each of Masthay's five punts, seeing four of them land inside the 20-yard line, as he became the first punter in franchise history to drop four or more inside the 20 in back-to-back games and won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors...At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Snapped for each of Masthay's five punts, including his career-long 71-yarder in the second quarter. Was also credited with his first coverage stop of the season for running CB Javier Arenas out of bounds at the Kansas City 23-yard line in the third quarter.

2010: Handled snapping duties in every game for the third straight season, including all four postseason contests…Posted a career-high five tackles on special teams and added one more in the playoffs…Helped Masthay post a 37.6-yard net average in 2010, which at the time matched the best mark by a Packers punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007)…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Handled snapping duties, including a perfect delivery on Crosby's 56-yard FG in the second quarter, then the longest FG in franchise history and the longest in the NFC in 2010…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Registered a career-high two tackles on special teams, including a stop of Stefan Logan after a 2-yard punt return early in the second quarter…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Matched his career high with two special teams tackles, including a key stop of WR Devin Hester following a 19-yard punt return in the second quarter. Helped keep the Pro Bowler in check for the majority of the contest as the unit downed four punts inside the 20 and Masthay posted a 36.6 net average.

2009: Served as long snapper in every game for the second straight season, including Wild Card playoff game at Arizona (Jan. 10)…Posted two tackles on special teams, equaling his total from 2008…At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Recorded a tackle on special teams, bringing down Jaymar Johnson on a punt return…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Registered a stop on special teams, putting a big hit on Logan for a 2-yard loss on a third-quarter punt.

2008: Handled snapping duties in all 16 games, and recorded two tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Registered first career special teams tackle when he brought down Chris Carr at the Tennessee 28 on Derrick Frost's 55-yard punt early in the fourth quarter…Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Recovered first career fumble when he jumped on Jacoby Jones' muffed catch at the Green Bay 49 on fourth-quarter punt, setting up offense for TD drive that tied the game at 21…At Chicago (Dec. 22): Snapped the ball to QB Matt Flynn on fake punt in second quarter on fourth-and-2 that Flynn took 6 yards for the first down.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterwinner at the University of Arkansas, appeared in 49 games while snapping for all punts each of his four seasons and for all kick placements his final three years…Tallied seven special teams tackles in his career, at least one in each of his four seasons…Majored in kinesiology with an emphasis in teaching.

PERSONAL: Given name Brett Goode…Last name is pronounced GEWD…Born in Pampa, Texas…Single…High school: Attended Northside High School in Fort Smith, Ark., lettering as both a long snapper and a center on the offensive line...Also lettered in baseball…Community involvement: Joined teammates in visiting a fifth-grade class at local elementary school to congratulate students for raising $2,000 for the Bay Area Humane Society…Has helped coach youth at the Junior Power Pack Football Clinic and the Packers summer youth football camps, participated in the Donald Driver Celebrity Softball Game, rung bells for The Salvation Army at the holidays, and attended a students vs. teachers basketball game to benefit the YMCA Strong Kids campaign…Hobbies/interests: Is a scratch golfer and enjoys fishing, cooking and playing guitar and craps…Attended the Kentucky Derby for the first time in May 2012...Also enjoys listening to country music, naming Cross Canadian Ragweed, Stoney LaRue and Wade Bowen as his favorite acts…Residence: Split between Fort Smith, Ark., and Green Bay.

RUNNING BACK • HAWAII

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 225 • Born: June 23, 1988 • NFL Games Played/Started: 4/0 • Acquired: D3-11

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Played in four contests as a rookie in 2011, primarily on special teams but also as the No. 3 running back, before seeing his debut season cut short by a knee injury sustained at Minnesota in Week 7.

Carried the ball three times for 11 yards (3.7 avg.) and caught a 6-yard pass in 2011.

Posted an 8-yard run on his first attempt as a pro vs. Denver in Week 4.

Was the eighth running back selected in the 2011 NFL Draft and was the first player in Packers history to be drafted out of the University of Hawaii.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Appeared in four games as a rookie before sustaining a season-ending knee injury blocking on a kickoff return at Minnesota in Week 7.
- Rushed for 1,199 yards and 18 TDs as a senior at Hawaii in 2010, ranking second in school history for rushing yards in a single season and tying the single-season school mark for rushing TDs.
- His average of 8.2 yards per carry in 2010 ranked No. 1 in NCAA Division I-A among players with 100 or more carries.
- Broke a 60-year-old single-game school record with 327 rushing yards at New Mexico State in 2010, surpassed in WAC history by only TCU's LaDainian Tomlinson (406) and San Diego State's Marshall Faulk (386).
- Attended the same junior college, Butte College in Oroville, Calif., as QB Aaron Rodgers.
- Became the first player in Packers history drafted from the University of Hawaii.

2011 SEASON: Appeared in four games as a rookie before he sustained a season-ending knee injury in Week 7 at Minnesota…Was starting to see his role increase on offense before he suffered the injury… Listed as a gameday inactive at Carolina (Sept. 18) and vs. Chicago (Sept. 25) after suffering an Achilles injury in practice on Sept. 16… Also inactive vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16)…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Saw action in his first pro contest, mostly on special teams. Made a good block on Randall Cobb's NFL-record-tying 108-yard kickoff return for a TD, walling off S Isa Abdul-Quddus just long enough to allow Cobb a lane to run through at the beginning of the return…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Returned to the lineup and served as the No. 2 RB with starter Ryan Grant sidelined due to a kidney injury. Saw his first action from scrimmage late in the fourth quarter. Carried three times for 11 yards (3.7 avg.), ripping off an 8-yard run through the left side on his first pro carry… At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Registered his first catch as a pro, a 6-yard pickup to convert a key third-and-2 late in the first half…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Suffered a knee injury while blocking on the Packers' first kickoff return in the first quarter and did not return. Was placed on season-ending injured reserve on Oct. 31…2011 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the third round with the 96th overall pick, the eighth running back taken. Became the first player drafted by the Packers from Hawaii and the highest running back drafted in school history.

COLLEGE: Played in 27 contests with 14 starts during his two seasons at Hawaii, serving as a backup as a junior before becoming the featured runner as a senior…Rushed for 1,652 yards and 20 TDs on 232 carries (7.1 avg.) at Hawaii along with 38 receptions for 461 yards (12.1 avg.) and two TDs…Spent his first two seasons at Butte College in Oroville, Calif., the same junior college that produced QB Aaron Rodgers…Majored in sociology…Senior season (2010): A second-team All-WAC selection, started all 14 games and led the team with 1,199 yards and 18 TDs on 146 carries (8.2 avg.)…Yardage total ranks second in school history for a single season behind Travis Sims (1992) and rushing TD total tied school mark held by Jamal Farmer (1989)…Led the nation (min. 100 attempts) with an average of 8.2 yards per carry…Added 27 receptions for 363 yards (13.4 avg.) and one TD…His 1,562 all-purpose

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE, PACKERS HISTORY

Phil Bengtson, Vince Lombardi's hand-picked replacement, might have dealt with more pressure in 1970 than anyone who's ever coached the Packers. That season, his third and final as Green Bay head coach, ended at 6-8, with losses in four of his last five games (all on the road). What's more, Bengtson faced the toughest schedule ever thrown at the Packers. The toughest schedules in team history, based on opponent records at the end of that season:

	W	L	Pct	Packers Finish	Notable opponents
1970	113	74	.604	6-8-0, tied for third, division	Super Bowl V champion Colts (twice), NFC champion Cowboys
1921	21	14	.600	3-2-1, tied for sixth, league	League champion Chicago Staleys (9-1-1) in season finale
1933	84	57	.596	5-7-1, third in division	Both NFL title participants (Bears & Giants) twice
1926	79	55	.590	7-3-3, fifth in league	14-1-2 league champion Frankford Yellow Jackets
1953	82	58	.586	2-9-1, sixth in conference	10-2 NFL champion Lions (twice), 11-1 Browns

LAMBEAU'S TWIN FLAGS

The twin American flags above Lambeau Field enter their ninth season in 2012. The impressively sized flags, 15 feet by 25 feet, were raised May 28, 2004, on Memorial Day weekend that year.

Located on top of the stadium's indoor club seats on the north end of the facility, the flags are the culmination of the desire to improve Lambeau Field's honoring of America, an effort first discussed in Fall 2003, at the end of the stadium's 32-month renovation.

"Once the Lambeau Field redevelopment project was complete and we had our first games in the stadium, we realized the old flag and flagpole appeared a bit small compared to the larger size of the new facility," said then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan.

"We needed something more prominent to appropriately honor our country and decided to upgrade that component of the stadium. We also heard from a few fans that they had trouble locating the flag during the anthem, so this will definitely help in that area, too.

"The new, larger flags are a great way to honor America and the timing worked out for it to be done for Memorial Day weekend."

The flags are positioned atop 72-foot high flagpoles which are stationed on top of the northeast and northwest corners of the stadium, above the club seats. All told, the flags are flying at 180 feet above ground.

Once the plans were set, the team worked with Kocken and Associates, of De Pere, Wis., on the design and engineering of the project. A major challenge of the design was ensuring both the structure and the flagpoles themselves could withstand the extreme wind load from the two large flags at that height.

Physical preparation for the new flagpoles began months prior with structural work, including reinforcing the area above the ceiling and on the roof with additional steel and concrete to support the extra load.

The two flags fly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are illuminated by spotlights at night.

SUPER BOWL XLV: MOST-WATCHED TELEVISION PROGRAM AT THE TIME

The Packers' 31-25 defeat of the AFC's Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV was historic for several reasons. For the franchise, it marked a fourth Super Bowl title and record 13th world championship.

For the FOX television network, it marked a record outing for viewership. According to The Nielsen Company, Super Bowl XLV drew a total audience of 162.9 million viewers nationally, making it the most-watched show in United States television history at the time, and it wasn't even close. That total surpassed the record from the previous year's Indianapolis Colts-New Orleans Saints Super Bowl XLIV by approximately 9.5 million viewers.

The game averaged 111 million viewers and was the fourth consecutive record-setting audience for the Super Bowl. The following year, a new record was set in the XLVI matchup between the New England Patriots and New York Giants Super Bowl In terms of total audience, Super Bowls account for the 20 most-watched programs in television history.

A look at the top five most-watched television programs of all-time:

Date	Event	Total Viewers
Feb. 5, 2012	Super Bowl XLVI – New England Patriots vs. New York Giants	166.8 million
Feb. 6, 2011	Super Bowl XLV – Green Bay Packers vs. Pittsburgh Steelers	162.9 million
Feb. 7, 2010	Super Bowl XLIV – Indianapolis Colts vs. New Orleans Saints	153.4 million

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Veteran defensive lineman who signed with Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent on March 30, 2012.

For his career, has appeared in 102 games with 25 starts as a member of five different teams. During that time, has recorded 323 tackles (163 solo), 19½ sacks, nine passes defensed, three forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, a touchdown and a safety.

In 2011, spent training camp and the preseason with the Philadelphia Eagles before being released at the final roster reduction, and was picked up one week later by the Seattle Seahawks. Appeared in 15 games for the Seahawks, recording 17 tackles (12 solo), three sacks and a safety.

Appeared in 30 games over the course of the 2009-10 seasons with the New Orleans Saints, highlighted by the 2009 campaign when he played in all 16 games (six starts) and posted 63 tackles (29 solo), five sacks, four passes defensed and three fumble recoveries (one returned for a TD), emerging as a force as an interior pass rusher for the Super Bowl XLIV champions.

Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the first time in his career in Week 9 of 2009 after he collected four tackles (one solo), forced a fumble and made two fumble recoveries, the second of which he returned for his first career TD to seal the win for the Saints.

Led the Saints defensive line with 15 tackles (four solo) that postseason during the team's march to the Super Bowl.

Prior to that, played parts of the 2006-07 seasons with the Buffalo Bills, appearing in 22 games and making 65 tackles (31 solo) and 2½ sacks.

Was obtained by the Bills via an early-season trade in 2006, leaving the St. Louis Rams, the team that initially drafted him in the third round (91st overall) in 2004.

Had his best professional season in 2005 when he started all but one game for the Rams, posting career highs with 82 tackles (43 solo), 6½ sacks and four passes defensed, also adding two fumble recoveries.

Appeared in 15 games as a rookie and tallied 36 tackles (23 solo) and his first career sack.

Has also been an effective special teams player throughout his career, having recorded 40 coverage tackles, including a career-high 11 with Buffalo in 2007.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Productive, well-traveled veteran entering his eighth pro season, having spent time with six different clubs.
- Signed by Green Bay on March 30, 2012, becoming the first unrestricted free agent to join the team's defense since LB Brandon Chillar in 2008, who coincidentally, was a part of his draft class with the St. Louis Rams in 2004..
- Played a prominent role on the 2009 New Orleans Saints team that claimed a victory in Super Bowl XLIV and was also the team's recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award that season.
- Initially a third-round draft choice of St. Louis in 2004, he was a teammate of current Packers DT Ryan Pickett for two-plus seasons with the Rams.
- Was an honorable mention all-state selection as a QB and S at Port Charlotte (Fla.) High School, but quickly grew into a DE at Georgia Tech.
- An extremely active charitable contributor, he established the Rosa Lee Hargrove Foundation in honor of his late mother, who was lost to the AIDS virus when he was just 9 years old.

Posted a combined 72.8 passer rating during the preseason in 2010-11, completing 49-of-88 passes for 453 yards and two TDs with one INT.

Spent the 2009 campaign with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League, but was on the injured list for the entire season.

Participated in the Cleveland Browns' rookie minicamp on a tryout basis in both 2009 and 2010.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Spent seven games on the Packers' active roster over the past two seasons, four contests in 2011 and three in 2010.
- Originally signed with Green Bay in May 2010 and has spent the majority of the past two seasons on the Packers' practice squad.
- Was with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League in 2009, but spent the entire season on the injured list.
- Ranks first in NCAA history with 134 passing TDs and 1,403 completions, and his 15,793 career passing yards rank No. 2 behind only Hawaii's Timmy Chang (17,072, 2000-04).
- Is the only QB in NCAA history to have two 5,000-yard passing seasons.
- Named the Gatorade Texas Player of the Year at Ennis (Texas) High School, where he played for his father, Sam.

2011 SEASON: Spent the first 12 games on the team's practice squad before being signed to the active roster on Dec. 7…Was a gameday inactive for three weeks before dressing for the regular-season finale vs. Detroit…Was inactive for team's divisional playoff contest vs. the N.Y. Giants…Posted a 75.7 passer rating during the preseason, completing 33-of-57 passes (57.9 percent) for 287 yards and two TDs with one INT…Was released in the final roster cutdown for the second straight season on Sept. 3, but was re-signed to the practice squad the next day…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Was active on gameday for the first time on the season, serving as the backup to Matt Flynn, but did not appear in the contest.

2010: Signed by Green Bay as a free agent on May 20…Completed 16-of-31 passes (51.6 percent) for 166 yards and a 67.4 passer rating during the preseason…Released in final roster reduction on Sept. 4, but was signed to the practice squad the next day, where he spent the opening 13 games…Was signed to the active roster on Dec. 18, the day before Green Bay played at New England with QB Aaron Rodgers sidelined with a concussion…Was the backup to Flynn against the Patriots but did not play…Served as the third QB (inactive) for the final two regular-season games and all four postseason contests…Was released by Saskatchewan on April 22 after spending the entire '09 season with the club on the injured list…Participated in the Cleveland Browns' rookie minicamp on a tryout basis for the second straight year.

COLLEGE: Finished college career atop the NCAA record books in several passing categories…Ranks first in NCAA history with 134 passing TDs and 1,403 completions, and his 15,793 career passing yards rank second only to Hawaii's Timmy Chang (17,072, 2000-04)…Posted 20 games with 400-plus passing yards, which is tied for the NCAA record with Hawaii's Colt Brennan (2005-07), and his 39 straight games with 200-plus passing yards are

FOOTBALL NEWS

Green Bay City Stadium will officially become Lambeau Field Saturday night, September 11 before the St. Louis Cardinals game.

Dedication ceremonies will begin at 7:45 with Green Bay Mayor Donald Tilleman making the formal dedication. Don Lambeau, son of the Packer founder, will acknowledge the naming of the stadium in honor of his father.

Don Hutson, player, coach and long time friend of Lambeau, will give the dedication speech.

There will also be remarks by Dominic Olejniczak, president of the Packers and by Clarence Nier, Stadium Commission president.

Earl L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder of the Packers and a pioneer of the National Football League, was head coach, general manager and vice president of the team for 33 years. He died June 1 of this year.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Productive, assignment-sure defender entering his seventh season, having played in 94 of a possible 96 regular-season games with 91 starts in his first six years following selection as a top-five draft pick.

Has posted 730 tackles (517 solo), 10½ sacks, eight interceptions, 34 passes defensed, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries during his career, and has registered 100-plus tackles in five of his six seasons in Green Bay.

Started all 14 games in which he appeared in 2011, missing the first two contests of his career following a calf injury suffered in the first half of the team's Week 12 game at Detroit.

When healthy, maintained his role as the lead defensive communicator and finished third on the team with 104 tackles (73 solo), in addition to posting 1½ sacks and five passes defensed. Was also voted by teammates to serve as a playoff captain for the second consecutive season.

Experienced one of his best seasons in 2010, as he took on a bigger role than in previous years, assuming the lead communicator duties between the coaches and the huddle in the absence of LB Nick Barnett, who missed the final 12 games with a wrist injury.

With injuries to Barnett and veteran LB Brandon Chillar, rarely came off the field in 2010, and wound up leading the team with 134 tackles (97 solo) and posting a career-high three interceptions, which tied him for the NFL lead among linebackers.

Was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2010, but was credited with his first career selection because he would have been added to the all-star roster as an emergency injury replacement had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV.

Despite seeing his snap count go down in '09 compared to his first four seasons because of the Packers' frequent use of sub-packages, was one of only 10 linebackers in the NFL to post at least 85 tackles, two interceptions and a sack.

In 2008, played through chest and groin injuries to lead the Packers in tackles for the second time in his career after moving from weak-side to middle linebacker the second half of the season to replace the injured Barnett.

His team-leading 155 tackles in 2006 were the second most ever recorded by a Packers' rookie (Rich Wingo, 166 in 1979), and his 112 solo tackles ranked third in the league.

Finished third in The Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year voting and earned a spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team.

The first linebacker taken in the 2006 draft after being a consensus All-American each of his final two seasons at Ohio State. One of only two linebackers taken among the top five selections over a period of nine NFL drafts (1998-2006), joined LaVar Arrington (No. 2 overall, 2000)

Followed the likes of Lawrence Taylor (1981), Derrick Thomas (1989), Junior Seau (1990) and Willie McGinest (1994) as one of only 27 linebackers drafted in the top five since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has either led the team or finished second in tackles in five of his six seasons in Green Bay.
- Has appeared in 94 of a possible 96 regular-season games in his career, starting 91 of them. Missed his first-ever games in 2011 after suffering a calf injury at Detroit in Week 12.
- Tied for No. 1 among NFL linebackers in 2010 with a career-high three interceptions.
- Led the team in tackles as a rookie in 2006 with 155, second most ever recorded by a Green Bay rookie (Rich Wingo, 166 in 1979). His 112 solo stops were third best in the NFL among all players that year.
- Finished third in NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting and earned a spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team.
- First linebacker drafted in the top five of the NFL Draft since Washington chose LaVar Arrington No. 2 overall in 2000.
- A consensus All-American both as a junior (2004) and senior (2005), earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in each of his three seasons as a starter. Also captured the 2005 Lombardi Award, given annually to the nation's top lineman or linebacker.
- Nicknamed "A.J." by his parents, fans of legendary Indy car driver A.J. Foyt.
- Grew his hair out in 2005 as a tribute to the late Pat Tillman, the former NFL player who lost his life with the U.S. Army while serving in Afghanistan. Kept it long until March 2012 when he cut it and donated it to "Wigs For Kids," a charity that makes hair for children who have lost theirs due to chemotherapy treatments.

2011 SEASON: Started all but two games at "Buck" LB, landing on the inactive list for the first time in his career after suffering a calf strain in the first half of the team's Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit in Week 12 …Snapped a streak of 98 consecutive games played (including playoffs) to start his career when he was listed as a gameday inactive at the N.Y. Giants in Week 13…In all, started 14 games, tallying 104 tackles (73 solo), 1½ sacks and five passes defensed for the season…Eclipsed the 100-tackle plateau for the fifth time in his six seasons…Was voted one of the team's six captains for the postseason for the second consecutive year…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Made seven tackles (five solo) and deflected a pass that resulted in an INT for S Charlie Peprah in the fourth quarter. On the play, jarred the ball loose from WR Eric Decker as it arrived and the ball caromed up into the air and was secured by Peprah, allowing Green Bay to run out the remaining 1:54 on the clock. Also crossed with fellow ILB Desmond Bishop on a blitz in the third quarter, occupying blockers to free Bishop for an 8-yard sack…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Had one of his most active and productive games of the season, recording a season-high 13 tackles (seven solo, one for loss) and his first full sack of the season, keying a defense that did not give up a TD. On the sack, used a delayed rush to the inside, twisting around DE Howard Green to find a gap in the middle of the protection, burying QB Sam Bradford for a 9-yard loss to force a third-and-long and an eventual punt…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Started the game and recorded seven tackles (five solo) and a pass defensed, but sustained a calf injury late in the first half and did not return…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Was sidelined during the practice week while rehabilitating the injury and was listed as a gameday inactive for the first time in his career, snapping a streak of 98 consecutive games played (including playoffs)…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Returned to practice late in the week and dressed for the game, but did not play…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Returned to the starting lineup after missing the previous two games, and finished second on the defense with 11 tackles (nine solo).

2010: Played in all 16 games for the fifth straight season, opening 15 contests at BLB…Led the team with 134 tackles (97 solo), the second-highest total of his career behind only his 155 stops as a rookie in '06…Registered six double-digit tackle games…Posted a career-best three INTs and matched his career high with nine passes defensed…The three INTs tied him for No. 1 among LBs in the league…Was named a Pro Bowl alternate, but was credited with his first career selection because he would have been added to the all-star roster as an emergency replacement had the Packers not been preparing for Super Bowl XLV…Started all four playoff games and ranked No. 3 on the team with 23 tackles (15 solo) while adding two passes defensed…Was voted one of the two defensive captains by his teammates for the postseason…His only non-start of the season came in the opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) when he was limited to special teams with the defense playing sub-packages the entire game…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Turned in a solid effort with 12 tackles (all solo) and an INT. His pick stopped a Detroit scoring threat at the Green Bay 10 when he intercepted QB Shaun Hill's short pass over the middle intended for RB Jahvid Best...Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Tied for the team lead with a season-high 16 tackles (10 solo), the most since he recorded a career-high 20 stops at Seattle (Nov. 27, 2006) as a rookie…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Picked off a QB Brett Favre pass intended for WR Bernard Berrian on third down in the third quarter at the Green Bay 38; returned the INT 21 yards to the Minnesota 41. The turnover set up a WR Greg Jennings 14-yard TD catch five plays later to put the Packers up 21-17. Finished with a team-high 13 tackles (10 solo)…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Recorded seven tackles (four solo) and an INT. His career-high third pick came with just over two minutes remaining when he intercepted QB Eli Manning's pass over the middle intended for RB Ahmad Bradshaw at the Green Bay 23…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Posted 13 tackles (11 solo), a half-sack and a pass defensed. Teamed with DE Jarius Wynn to sack QB Jay Cutler for a 9-yard loss early in the second quarter on third down…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Led the team with 10 tackles (seven solo), his postseason career high…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Took every snap and ranked third on the defense with seven tackles (six solo) and two passes defensed. Came on a blitz late in the first half to make a leaping deflection of a QB Ben Roethlisberger pass at the line of scrimmage, quickly turning around to nearly intercept the pass. Also came on a blitz on second down on the Steelers' final drive to flush Roethlisberger out of the pocket as he threw the ball away. The Steelers turned it over on downs two plays later, sealing the win for Green Bay.

2009: Played in all 16 games with 14 starts at BLB…His only non-starts came in both Minnesota games when the defense opened in nickel…Also played in playoff game…Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate…Finished second on the team with 87 tackles (70 solo) and led Green Bay's LBs with two INTs…Added a sack, four passes defensed, and two tackles on special teams…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led team with season-high 11 tackles (seven solo)…At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Led the defense with 10 tackles (eight solo), including a season-high three tackles for loss. Stopped RB Jamal Lewis for losses of 1 and 2 yards on runs, and brought QB Derek Anderson down for a 2-yard loss on a fumbled snap…At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): Posted his first sack of the season when he brought down QB Josh Freeman for a 7-yard loss at the Tampa Bay 3 midway through the second quarter. Finished the afternoon with six tackles (five solo)…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Led the team with seven tackles (five solo) and posted his first INT of the season. With the Packers up 24-14 midway through the fourth quarter, ran down the seam with TE Todd Heap and made leaping INT at the Green Bay 47; returned the pick 13 yards to Baltimore's 40 to help set up a 32-yard Mason Crosby FG…Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Intercepted QB Matt Hasselbeck's third-down pass in the right flat on Seattle's opening drive at Green Bay's 36-yard line, and then made a career-long 29 yard return. Added five tackles (all solo).

2008: Started every game for the third straight season, playing through chest and groin injuries…Had nine starts at WLB and final seven at MLB, where he replaced the injured Barnett...Led team with 121 tackles (84 solo)...Led LBs and was tied for second on the team with three sacks...On the field for 869-of-1,050 (82.8 percent) defensive plays, most among the team's LBs…Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started at WLB and led the team with season-high 12 tackles after missing final three preseason games with chest injury suffered in preseason opener vs. Cincinnati (Aug. 11)...At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted first two-sack game of his career and tied for team lead with seven tackles. On second sack, leaped over attempted block by Smith and brought down QB Jon Kitna…At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted four tackles and broke up a pass intended for TE Jerramy Stevens in the end zone on third down to limit the Bucs to

CAREER TRANSACTIONS

- 2006 Selected by Green Bay Packers in first round (fifth overall) of '06 NFL Draft, April 29…Signed first contract, July 29.
- 2011 Released by Packers, March 2...Re-signed by Packers, March 3.

HISTORY OF THE SACK STATISTIC

In 1947, the NFL implemented a new team statistic, yards lost attempting to pass. The new category allowed the league to separate gross yards passing from net yards, to more accurately reflect a team's passing performance. Net passing yards included yards lost by backs tackled on passing plays.

In 1963, Seymour Siwoff, president of the league's official statistical company, the Elias Sports Bureau, made a suggestion. Recognizing the "yards lost attempting to pass" figure needed a complement, he argued for a new category: number of times losing yards attempting to pass. The league agreed, and one of the NFL's top executives, Jim Kensil, first coined the term "Sack," which is a dark-ages word, meaning to plunder a captured town. Kensil, who handled NFL public relations among other responsibilities, popularized the term in his stories and publicity materials.

In 1982, convinced by member team PR directors (many of whom were convinced by their players), Elias and the NFL agreed to make individual sacks an official number. New rules were written, such as only two players can share in a sack.

Today, it's arguably the game's most popular defensive stat. Siwoff, whose bureau also tracks official numbers for MLB, the NBA and the NHL, still has the final word on every challenged sack, spending Tuesday or Wednesday in the film room at the league office.

DAVON HOUSE

CORNERBACK • NEW MEXICO STATE

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 195 • Born: July 10, 1989 • NFL Games Played/Started: 2/0 • Acquired: D4-11

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Competed for the fourth cornerback job early in his first training camp as a rookie in 2011, but suffered injuries that saw him miss much of the preseason.

Appeared in just two games as a rookie, playing only on special teams, where he was credited with one tackle.

A size/speed prospect who saw extended action on the scout team against the No. 1 offense throughout the regular season and made strides during the year.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Was active on gameday four times as a rookie in 2011, appearing in two games and posting a tackle on special teams.
- Earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a junior and senior.
- Finished his career ranked first in school history in interception return yardage with 319 and tied for sixth with 11 INTs.
- Named to the Jim Thorpe Award watch list in 2010 and was an honorable mention All-America selection by The NFL Draft Report as a senior.
- Tied an NCAA record when he returned an interception 100 yards for a TD vs. Idaho in 2007.
- Was the first player to be drafted by the Packers out of New Mexico State in franchise history, and was the first Aggie drafted since S Siddeeq Shabazz (Oakland, seventh round) in 2003.
- Older brother, Tyreace, was a sixth-round draft choice of the Oakland Athletics in 2008, but recently retired from baseball and is pursuing a football career as a running back at Division II McMurry University in Texas, where his head coach is Hal Mumme, who was also Davon's head coach at NMSU.

2011 SEASON: Played in just two games during the regular season, appearing on special teams, where he recorded one tackle…Was listed as a gameday inactive 12 times, and dressed but did not play for two others…Suffered a hamstring injury during the first week of training camp and missed key practices and preseason competition before returning for the team's third exhibition game at Indianapolis (Aug. 26)…Injured his ankle the following week in the preseason finale vs. Kansas City (Sept. 1), and was inactive for the season opener vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8)…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Was active on gameday for the first time, but did not see any action...At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Was again part of the active roster as a reserve in the absence of regular CB Sam Shields (concussion), making his NFL debut on special teams, but not recording any statistics…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Appeared for the second time during the regular season, again seeing action on special teams, where he registered his first career tackle after running WR Stefan Logan out of bounds following a 14-yard return of a safety punt in the first quarter…2011 Draft: Was selected by the Packers in the fourth round with the 131st overall selection. Became the first player drafted by Green Bay out of New Mexico State in franchise history, and was the first Aggie selected in the draft since S Siddeeq Shabazz was drafted by Oakland in 2003 in the seventh round.

COLLEGE: Standout cornerback who earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a junior and senior…Stepped into the starting lineup midway through his true freshman season and started every game the rest of his career for the Aggies, appearing in 50 games with 43 starts…Playmaker who finished his career ranked first in school history in interception return yardage with 319 and tied for sixth with 11 INTs...Returned three interceptions for touchdowns during his career, highlighted by a 100-yard return for a score vs. Idaho as a true freshman in 2007…Set a school single-season record with 171 return yards on four interceptions as a freshman, an average of 42.8 yards per return…Also recovered three fumbles during his career…Earned a degree in family consumer science…Senior season (2010): Earned first-team All-WAC honors, posting 57 tackles, two interceptions and 12 passes defensed…Received honorable mention All-America recognition from The NFL Draft Report…Started all 12 contests for the Aggies on his way to earning first-team All-WAC honors for the second straight season…Earned honorable mention All-America honors and was rated the best defensive back prospect in the WAC by The NFL Draft Report…Named to the watch list for the Jim Thorpe Award, which is presented annually to the top defensive back in college football…Registered 57 tackles (29 solo), two interceptions, including one for a TD, 12 passes defensed and a forced fumble…Matched his season high with eight stops (four solo), while adding a forced fumble and an interception vs. New Mexico (Oct. 9)…Closed out his college career with a 48-yard INT return for a TD in the third quarter vs. Hawaii (Nov. 27)…Junior season (2009): Started all 13 games and was named first-team All-WAC…Led the conference with 16 passes defensed and paced the team with four interceptions…Recorded two TDs on the season, a fumble return for a TD at Louisiana Tech (Oct. 17) and an INT for a score at Hawaii (Nov. 14)…Became the first Aggie since Gary Jessie in '95 to score on both in the same season…Registered a career-high 68 tackles (42 solo)…Led the team with seven tackles (six solo) and added his first INT of the season at San Diego State (Oct. 3)…Scooped up a fumble and returned it 38 yards at Louisiana Tech (Oct. 17), his first career fumble return for a TD…Returned an interception 58 yards for a TD, breaking the school record for career interception return yardage at Hawaii (Nov. 14)…Posted a career-high nine tackles (seven solo), along with a career-best four passes defensed at Boise State (Dec. 5)…Sophomore season (2008): Opened all 12 contests and recorded 40 tackles (26 solo), two interceptions, eight passes defensed and two fumble recoveries…Part of a pass defense that led the WAC and finished third in the nation by allowing just 159.4 yards per game…Recorded six tackles (four solo) and an INT that he returned 42 yards at Nevada (Oct. 11)…Came up with key play when he recovered a fumble near the red zone in the fourth quarter to help preserve the Aggies' 34-33 victory at UTEP (Dec. 5)…Freshman season (2007): Appeared in all 13 games as a true freshman, moving into the starting lineup midway through the season to open up the final six contests…Set a school record with 171 interception return yards on a team-leading four INTs…Finished the season with 37 tackles (21 solo) and 12 passes defensed…In just his second career start vs. Idaho (Oct. 20), tied an NCAA record with a 100-yard INT return for a TD in the second quarter…Added another INT later in the quarter, returning it 64 yards to set a single-game conference record with 164 yards in INT returns…Earned WAC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the performance.

Seventh NFL Season
Seventh Packers Season

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 198 • Born: September 21, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 88/81 • Acquired: D2b-06

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Ranks in the top 10 in franchise history in receptions (7th, 389), receiving yards (8th, 6,171) and touchdown catches (t-6th, 49).

Earned Pro Bowl recognition each of the past two seasons.

Tied James Lofton (86 games) in 2011 for the second-fewest games needed by a Packer to reach 6,000 career receiving yards, trailing only Sterling Sharpe (84) in team annals.

One of just five receivers in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (2008-10), joining Lofton, Sharpe, Antonio Freeman and teammate Donald Driver.

One of only four players to catch 12 or more TD passes in two different seasons (2007, 2010), joining Sharpe, Freeman and Billy Howton.

Leads the NFL with 30 catches of 40-plus yards since 2007 and is tied for the NFL lead with 58 receptions of 25-plus yards over that span.

Has caught a pass in 87 of 88 games played for the Packers (95 of 96 including playoffs).

Tied for No. 4 in team history with Driver for the most 100-yard receiving games with 22.

Of his 49 career TD catches, 18 of them (36.7 percent) have been at least 40 yards in length. Has a staggering average of 30.7 yards per TD catch.

Prior to '09, signed a contract extension with the Packers after posting career highs in catches (80) and receiving yards (1,292) in '08 on his way to being named first alternate for the Pro Bowl. Became only the sixth WR in team history to catch 80 passes in a season.

Enjoyed his breakout year in '07, when he hauled in 12 TD passes in just 13 games, with six of those scores coming from 40-plus yards, including one of the most memorable plays of the year, an 82-yard TD pass from Brett Favre on the first snap of overtime to win a Monday night game in Denver.

Over his first two seasons, caught Favre's 400th, 420th and 421st TD passes as the Hall of Fame-bound QB chased, matched and surpassed Dan Marino's all-time NFL record. Also on the receiving end of Aaron Rodgers' first career TD pass, which came in 2007 at Dallas.

Put up impressive first-year numbers (45 catches, 632 yards, 3 TDs) in '06 to earn recognition on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team despite being slowed from the sixth game through the end of the year by an ankle injury.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Ranks in the top 10 in franchise history in receptions (7th, 389), receiving yards (8th, 6,171) and touchdown catches (t-6th, 49).
- Has been selected to the Pro Bowl each of the past two seasons.
- Tied James Lofton (86 games) for the second-fewest games needed by a Packer to reach 6,000 career receiving yards, trailing only Sterling Sharpe (84 games) in the franchise record books.
- One of just five receivers in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (2008-10) and one of only four to catch 12-plus touchdown passes in two different seasons (2007, 2010).
- Leads the NFL with 30 catches of 40-plus yards since 2007.
- Holds the franchise record and is tied for the lead among active NFL players (Lee Evans) with four 80-yard catches in his career.
- Has caught a pass in 87 of 88 games played for the Packers (95 of 96 including playoffs).
- Caught Brett Favre's 400th, 420th and 421st TD passes in 2006-07 as the future Hall of Fame QB chased, matched and surpassed Dan Marino's career record for TD passes.
- Finished his Western Michigan career ranked first in school history in receptions (238), TD catches (39) and all-purpose yards (5,093) while finishing second in career receiving yards (3,539).
- Became the first Mid-American Conference player to earn league MVP and Offensive Player of the Year recognition in the same season since Randy Moss of Marshall did so in 1997.

2011 SEASON: Started all 13 games he appeared in as well as the team's playoff contest, missing the final three regular-season games due to a knee injury sustained vs. Oakland in Week 14…Selected to the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive season…Despite missing three games, finished No. 2 on the team in all three major receiving categories with 67 receptions for 949 yards (14.2 avg.) and nine TDs, trailing only Jordy Nelson (68-1,263-15)…Fell just 51 yards shy of his fourth straight 1,000-yard season…Through Week 13, was tied for No. 4 in the league in TD catches and was tied for No. 10 in receptions…Posted three 100-yard receiving games on the season, his fourth straight campaign with at least three 100-yard games…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Kicked off the season by leading the team with seven catches for 89 yards (12.7 avg.) and a TD…At Chicago (Sept. 25): Posted a career-high nine receptions for 119 yards (13.2 avg.), with six of those catches coming in the first quarter alone. That was the most by a Packer in a first quarter since Sharpe recorded the same number vs. Denver on Oct. 10, 1993…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Registered his second straight 100-yard game with seven grabs for 103 yards (14.7 avg.) and a TD. Marked the 21st 100-yard receiving game of his career, which moved him past Freeman (20) into sole possession of the No. 5 spot in team history…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Led the team with seven receptions for 147 yards (21.0 avg.) and a TD, the third-highest yardage total of his career. Scored on a 79-yard TD on the second play of the second half when he got behind CB Asher Allen on a go-route down the sideline and S Husain Abdullah bit on an Aaron Rodgers pump-fake…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Led the way with five catches for 74 yards (14.8 avg.) and a TD. Eclipsed the 6,000-yard mark for his career in what was his 86th game, joining Lofton as the second fastest in team annals to 6,000 yards (Sharpe, 84 games)…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Paced the team with seven catches for 94 yards (13.4 avg.) and his ninth TD of the season. With their 34th scoring hook-up, he and Rodgers moved into fourth place in team history for most productive TD duos…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Made two catches for 20 yards (10.0 avg.), but suffered a sprained knee on his 8-yard reception on the opening series of the second half and did not return. The injury would sideline him for the final three games.

2010: In earning his first Pro Bowl bid, started all 16 games and posted his third straight 1,000-yard season with 76 catches for 1,265 yards and 12 TDs…Tied for first in the NFC and second in the NFL in TD catches, ranked fourth in the league in yardage, and tallied a career-high five 100-yard games for a third straight year…Went on a torrid stretch over the last 11 games following TE Jermichael Finley's season-ending knee injury, hauling in 62 passes for 1,082 yards (17.5 avg.) and nine TDs; his average of 98.4 yards per game over that span led the league…His 16.6-yard average per catch ranked second in the league among players with 65 or more grabs…Added 21 receptions for 303 yards (14.4 avg.) and two TDs in the postseason, the yardage total leading the league and ranking No. 2 in franchise history for a single postseason behind Freeman's 308 yards in 1997…Joined teammate Nelson for the team's single-season playoff mark with 21 catches as they became the first WR teammate tandem in league history to each register 20 receptions in the same postseason…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Surpassed 4,000 career receiving yards with five catches for 82 yards (16.4 avg.), including a 32-yard TD and a spectacular, leaping one-handed grab for a 16-yard gain on a third down in the second quarter, leading to a Driver TD five plays later…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Posted six catches for 133 yards (22.2 avg.), including a career-long 86-yard TD in the first quarter (also a career long for Rodgers), topping the 83-yard TD at Pittsburgh in '09 (Dec. 20). Long TD was his fourth career of 80-plus yards, setting a franchise record…. At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his first career three-TD game, catching seven passes for 152 yards (21.7 avg.) and joining Freeman and Javon Walker as the only players in club history to have at least seven catches, 150 receiving yards and three TDs in the same game. Outing marked his fifth straight game with at least six catches, the longest streak of his career and longest by a Green Bay player since Sharpe (12 games, 1993). TD receptions were 11, 46 and 22 yards, the first Packers player with three TD catches in a game since Walker (at Indianapolis, Sept. 26, 2004)…Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Notched a third straight 100-yard game for the second time in his career (Weeks 2-4, 2008) with six catches for 122 yards (20.3 avg.) and two TDs, including two big plays – a 57-yard TD and a 48-yard catch-and-run to set up his own 1-yard TD…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Caught seven passes for 142 yards (20.3 avg.) for his fifth 100-yard game of the season and 19th career. Also went over 5,000 career receiving yards in his 74th game, the fourth fastest in team history to do so behind Howton (67), Sharpe (72) and Lofton (73), and teamed with Nelson (124 yards) to give the Packers their first pair of 100-yard receivers in the same game since Jennings and Driver vs. Detroit (Dec. 28, 2008)…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Had eight catches for 130 yards (16.3 avg.), with five receptions of at least 20 yards to break his own team postseason record…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Became the third Packers player and 15th in league history to record multiple TD catches in a Super Bowl by hauling in scoring passes of 21 and 8 yards on his way to four receptions for 64 yards (16.0 avg.) in all. First TD came over the middle on a bullet throw from Rodgers, who threaded the pass between safeties Ryan Clark and Troy Polamalu, with Jennings taking a big hit from Polamalu at the goal line but hanging on. Second TD came on a short corner fade, a play Jennings had been saying on the sideline would be open. Perhaps his biggest catch came in the fourth quarter, on third-and-10 from the Green Bay 25 with the Packers leading just 28-25; barely got a step on CB Ike Taylor as he snatched a laser from Rodgers over the middle for 31 yards, helping set up a FG for the game's final points.

2009: Played in all 16 games for the second straight year with 13 starts and led the team with 1,113 receiving yards on 68 catches (16.4 avg.)...Was tied for fourth on the team with four TD catches and tied career best with five 100-yard games...Added a fifth TD, and sixth 100-yard game, with season-best 130 yards in playoffs…Ranked tied for seventh in the NFL with six receptions of 40-plus yards and was sixth in the NFC in receiving yards…Was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team for making significant contributions with little fanfare…Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Started and led team with 106 yards on six receptions (17.7 avg.), beating CB Nathan Vasher on a post route for a 50-yard score with just over a minute remaining (and catching the two-point conversion pass), to give Packers the 21-15 win...Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Did not catch a pass for the first time in his career, snapping a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception…Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Started and led the team with a season-high 126 yards on five catches (25.2 avg.), the biggest a 64-yard TD in the second quarter. Went over the 100-yard mark in the first half with four receptions for 121 yards, a career high for an opening half…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Led the team with 118 receiving yards on five receptions (23.6 avg.), including the then-longest catch of his career, an 83-yard TD on third down in the first quarter when he caught a pass over the middle near midfield and shook off a tackle attempt by S Tyrone Carter. That marked his third career TD catch of 80-plus yards, tying him for first in franchise history with Driver, Howton and Carroll Dale…Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and led the team with four catches for 111 yards. The 27.8-yard average matched his career best (min. four receptions), tying his six-catch, 167-yard performance at Detroit on Sept. 14, 2008… At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and led the team with eight receptions for 130 yards (16.3 avg.) and a TD. His four catches of 20-plus yards set a then-team postseason record.

2008: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his career, including a career-high 15 starts…Led the team with a career-high 80 receptions for a career-best 1,292 yards (16.2

AN ESTABLISHED THREAT

Over the past five seasons, Greg Jennings has emerged as one of the NFL's brightest young stars at receiver. His numbers in touchdowns, receiving yards and average yards per catch from 2007-11 all rank in the league's top 10. His lower ranking in total receptions proves he is one of the game's most dangerous "big-play" wideouts.

avg.)…Named first alternate for the Pro Bowl…Ranked seventh in the NFC in catches and sixth in the NFL in receiving yardage…Led the NFL with eight receptions of 40-plus yards and tied for second in the league with 21 catches of 20-plus yards…Led the team with nine TD catches and posted a career-high five 100-yard receiving games on the season… At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted a career-high 167 receiving yards on six receptions (27.8 avg.), including a 60-yard TD catch and a 62-yarder, the first time in his career that he posted two receptions of 60-plus yards in a game…At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Posted the third two-TD game of his career and his third straight 100-yard game. Caught six passes for 109 yards (18.2 avg.), including a 25-yard score in the first quarter and a 48-yard TD in the third quarter… Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Caught season-high eight passes for the second straight week and third time on the season, for 91 yards (11.4 avg.). Reached the 1,000-yard plateau in a season for the first time in his career on a 15-yard grab in the third quarter.

2007: Started 13 games and was inactive for three, making 53 catches for 920 yards (17.4 avg.) and a team-high 12 TDs, the most by a Green Bay receiver since Walker's 12 in 2004…Added seven catches for 85 yards (12.1 avg.) and two TDs in two postseason games…Tied for seventh in the NFL and third in the NFC in scoring for non-kickers with 72 points…His 17.4-yard average per catch ranked fourth in the NFL, and his streak of five straight games with a TD catch (Weeks 11-15) was the Packers' longest since Freeman's five-game streak in 1998-99…Injured a hamstring during a Week 1 practice (Sept. 5) and did not play in the team's first two games…Vs. San Diego (Sept. 23): Returned to practice on Sept. 20 and caught four passes for 82 yards (20.5 avg.) against the Chargers, including a 57-yard TD that tied Favre with Marino for the NFL record of 420 TD passes; with the Chargers up 21-17 late in the fourth quarter, caught a short slant and sprinted across the middle of the field for the score in the eventual 31-24 victory…At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Caught Favre's NFL record-setting 421st TD pass, a 16-yard score on another slant pass in the first quarter that gave the Packers a 7-0 lead…At Denver (Oct. 29): Caught six passes for a then-career-high 141 yards (23.5 avg.) and a game-winning 82-yard score in OT. It marked the third 100-yard performance of his career and pushed him past 1,000 career receiving yards. On the opening play of the extra period, caught a Favre pass in stride down the left sideline and took it to the end zone to give Green Bay a 19-13 victory…At Kansas City (Nov. 4): Made three grabs for 85 yards (28.3 avg.). Caught a 60-yard TD with 3:05 left in the game, lining up where the TE normally is, and then blowing past LB Donnie Edwards and catching the pass in stride; the score gave Green Bay a 23-22 lead in the eventual 33-22 win…At Dallas (Nov. 29): Caught five passes for a team-high 87 yards (17.4 avg.) and one TD. In the second quarter, caught a short pass from Rodgers and spun away from defender for an 11-yard TD; the play marked Rodgers' first career TD pass…Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Caught a team-high six passes for 71 yards (11.8 avg.) and two TDs.

2006: Played in 14 games with 11 starts and was inactive twice, a late scratch on both occasions…Ranked third on the team with 45 catches, for 632 receiving yards (14.0 avg.), and finished second with three TD receptions…Also returned five punts for 29 yards (5.8 avg.) and made three stops on special teams…An attention-grabber since his arrival in Green Bay, got better each week during the first half of the season, then saw his numbers decline after a Week 7 ankle injury…Named to the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team…Led the NFL in the preseason with 328 receiving yards, on 12 catches, with one TD…Vs. Chicago (Sept. 10): Entered the regular season as a starter but made his NFL debut, vs. the Bears, as a reserve when the Packers opened with two TEs; notched his first reception on the second-to-last play of the game, for 5 yards…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 17): Made his first career start and posted a season-high six receptions for 67 yards (11.2 avg.). On the Packers' fifth play from scrimmage, a third-and-7, juked CB Mike McKenzie at the line of scrimmage and sprinted down the right sideline, catching a 22-yard pass from Favre in stride for the rookie's first NFL score…At Detroit (Sept. 24): Posted his first 100-yard game, catching three passes for 101 yards (33.7 avg.), which marked the most by a Packers rookie since Sharpe had 137 (on seven catches), Sept. 25, 1988, vs. Chicago at Lambeau Field. In the first quarter, caught a short pass and took off for a 75-yard score, stiff-arming CB Dré Bly for the final yards on Favre's 400th career TD pass. With the long TD play, became only the third NFL player since 1990 to make a TD reception of at least 75 yards within the first three games of his NFL career, joining WR Derrick Alexander (Cleveland, 81 yards, Sept. 18, 1994) and WR Braylon Edwards (Cleveland, 80 yards, Sept. 18, 2005). Earned Diet Pepsi NFL Offensive Rookie of the Week honors for the performance… At Miami (Oct. 22): Made one catch, a tough, 14-yard grab, but suffered an ankle injury on the play and was out the duration of the contest and the next game vs. Arizona (Oct. 29)…At Seattle (Nov. 27): Caught six passes, matching his season high, for 50 yards (8.3 avg.)…At Chicago (Dec. 31): Missed game to be with his wife, who gave birth to their first child earlier that day…2006 Draft: Was the second of two second-round draft choices by Green Bay (52nd overall), a pick obtained in a draft-day trade down of 16 spots with the Patriots. The fourth WR selected, behind Pittsburgh's Holmes (25th), New England's Jackson (36th) and the N.Y. Giants' Moss (44th). Was the first Western Michigan athlete to be chosen in the NFL Draft since DE Jason Babin went late in the first round to Houston in 2004; he joined Babin, DL Rowe (1967, second round, Cardinals) and LB John Offerdahl (1986, second round, Dolphins) as the school's only players to go in the first two rounds, with DB Louis Delmas (2009, second round, Lions) since added to the group. Also was the first WR drafted in the first 100 seasons (1906-2005) of the WMU program.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at Western Michigan as the school's all-time leader in receptions (238), TD catches (39) and all-purpose yards (5,093), and ranked second in receiving yards (3,539), behind Neal's 3,599…Became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I history to record three career

1,000-yard receiving seasons (2003-05)…His 238 career receptions tied him for third on the all-time list of the MAC at the end of his career, his 3,539 receiving yards ranked fourth, and his 39 TD receptions ranked second in the MAC record books, exceeded only by the 47 of Marshall's Darius Watts…Recorded 18 career 100-yard receiving games… Also returned 41 kickoffs for 921 yards (22.5 avg.) and 49 punts for 541 yards (11.0) with two TDs…Earned his degree in public relations...Senior season (2005): Led the nation with an average of 8.91 receptions per game, while also ranking second in the country in yards receiving per game (114.45), trailing only Oregon State's Mike Hass (139.27)… Established WMU single-season marks for receptions with 98 – 21 better than the prior record – and yards with 1,259 (both totals now rank second in school history), and tied his own mark for TD receptions, which still stands (14, also done in 2003)…Additionally, rushed 10 times for 50 yards (5.0 avg.), returned 20 punts for 172 yards (8.6 avg.), ran back two kickoffs for 20 yards and threw a TD pass…Was a third-team All-America pick of The Associated Press, while also garnering second-team recognition from Sports Illustrated…Received the MAC's Vern Smith Leadership Award, given annually to the league's most valuable player, and was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year…Became the first conference player to receive both honors in the same season since Moss in '97…Led the MAC in both receptions and receiving yards, while tying two others for the league lead in TD catches…Posted a career-best seven 100-yard receiving games, and for the second consecutive year had a TD reception in six straight contests…Started all 11 games, having at least six catches in all but one contest (four vs. Kent State on Oct. 29)…Made 11 receptions in 60-57, five-OT loss to Ball State (Oct. 8) – the longest game in MAC history – for a career-high 244 yards (22.2 avg.) and a school-record four TDs (breaking the prior mark of three, done on five other occasions including once by himself in 2003)… Junior season (2004): Led the Broncos in receiving for the first time, with 74 catches, while becoming only the second-player in school history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons (1,092), joining Neal (1998-99)…Earned first-team All-MAC accolades…Also was chosen as Most Valuable Player and Offensive MVP of his team…Average of 99.3 yards per game receiving ranked eighth in the nation… Also was a punt returner of note, averaging 14.8 yards per runback (21-311) and scoring twice, including a 93-yarder vs. Northern Illinois (Oct. 23) – the second-longest PR TD in WMU history…Had a TD catch in six straight games and recorded five contests of eight or more receptions… Posted five 100-yard receiving efforts while starting all 11 games…Sophomore season (2003): Posted his first career 1,000-yard receiving season, making 56 catches for 1,050 yards and 14 TDs…Averaged a career-best 18.8 yards per reception…Saw action in all 12 of the Broncos' games, making four starts…Was a second-team All-MAC selection, in addition to being named as WMU's Offensive MVP…Set single-season school record with his 14 TD receptions while becoming just the second player in Western Michigan annals to record a 1,000-yard receiving season (Neal)…Amassed (at the time) the second-most all-purpose yards (1,734) in one season in school history (now fourth), including 669 on 31 kickoff returns…Enjoyed six 100-yard receiving days… Redshirt freshman season (2002): Saw action in eight games, with three starts, as a reserve WR and return man… Made 10 receptions for 138 yards…Finished second on the team in both punt and kickoff returns, returning eight punts for 58 yards (7.3 avg.) and eight kickoffs for 232 yards (29.0 avg.)…Also had one rush for 15 yards…Suffered an ankle injury in the fourth game of the year, vs. No. 5 Virginia Tech (Sept. 28), that caused him to miss the ensuing four contests before returning to action at Ball State (Nov. 2)…Was first in the MAC – and seventh in the nation – in kickoff return average (33.7) at the time of his injury.

PERSONAL: Given name Gregory Jennings Jr. … Nicknamed "Superman" in high school because of his personality on the field…Born in Kalamazoo, Mich. …Married his wife, the former Nicole Lindsey, in June 2005; the two had known each other since the fifth grade, but they did not begin to date regularly until after high school…The couple has three daughters, Amya, 5, Alea, 3, and Ayva, 2…Father, Greg, is a pastor at Progressive Deliverance Ministries in Kalamazoo, Mich., while his mother, Gwen, is a church missionary…Is a first cousin of former Denver Broncos LB Ian Gold; Jennings' mother and Gold's mother are sisters…

THE LAMBEAU LEAP

Defensive back LeRoy Butler's spontaneous gesture after scoring a 1993 touchdown has turned into the team's most prominent modern tradition, emulated by many other NFL players. It also symbolizes the team's unique relationship with its fans. No doubt, the initial Lambeau Leap will go down as one of the most memorable moments of Butler's 12-year career.

Butler's leap took place late in a frigid game vs. the Los Angeles Raiders, Dec. 26, 1993, at Lambeau Field. The touchdown gave the Packers a commanding fourth-quarter lead, en route to a 28-0 shutout that clinched a playoff berth, their first of six consecutive postseason trips.

Chronology of the play:

- QB Vince Evans completes second-down swing pass to RB Randy Jordan, who takes ball to Raiders' 40-yard line.
- Butler forces fumble, recovered by Reggie White at Raiders' 35.
- White returns ball 10 yards before lateraling to Butler, who covers the remaining 25 yards into the end zone and leaps into arms of fans in south bleachers.

THE USS GREEN BAY

The U.S. Navy on July 15, 2006, christened a 684-foot warship, and dubbed it the USS Green Bay at a shipyard in the New Orleans area.

Constructed in Avondale, La., at a shipyard owned by Northrop Grumman, it is the second Navy vessel to be called the Green Bay, following a small gunboat that patrolled the seas during the Vietnam era.

The newest Green Bay, used to carry troops for rapid deployment, launch and recovery, will become a significant part of the U.S. amphibious fleet.

Former Green Bay Packers quarterback Bart Starr appeared in a video that was played at the July 15, 2006, christening ceremony. And Nancy Croy, principal at Green Bay's Lombardi Middle School – named after Starr's legendary coach Vince Lombardi – traveled to attend the christening as part of the school's relationship with the Navy.

Members of the Packers' front office, including President and CEO Mark Murphy, toured the ship in November 2008 during the team's road trip to New Orleans for a game against the Saints.

Commissioned Jan. 24, 2009, it can carry 360 Navy sailors and as many as 800 Marines. Assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet, the ship's home port is at the naval base in San Diego, Calif.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Signed by Green Bay as a non-drafted free agent on July 28, 2011, ultimately becoming one of 10 rookies and three non-drafted free agents to make the club's opening-day roster.

Played his way onto the roster with a strong training camp and preseason, appearing in all four exhibition games and finishing third on the team with 15 tackles (10 solo) and an interception.

Was a healthy scratch for the season opener vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8), but played in each of the 15 regular-season games that followed, becoming the team's No. 3 safety after veteran Nick Collins suffered a season-ending neck injury in Week 2.

Placed sixth on the team and third among rookies with nine special teams tackles in 2011, seeing eight of them come on the kickoff coverage team.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined LBs Jamari Lattimore and Vic So'oto as the three non-drafted rookies to make the Packers' opening-day roster in 2011.
- Tied for second among Packers rookies by playing in 15 games during his inaugural season, becoming a regular on special teams and posting nine tackles on the coverage units.
- Initials stand for "Melvin Delanie."
- Earned Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance at Auburn his senior year in 2010. Posted 11 tackles and a sack against the eventual national champion, and was the only player on his team to sack Heisman Trophy winner and future No. 1 overall draft pick QB Cam Newton.
- Lettered six times in baseball as a prep, having made the varsity team as a seventh grader in Calhoun City, Miss.

2011 SEASON: Made the club out of training camp as the team's No. 4 safety, joining LBs Jamari Lattimore and Vic So'oto as the three non-drafted free agents to make the opening-day roster in 2011…Put forth a strong preseason effort that included 15 tackles (10 solo) and an interception…Also displayed his versatility and value by recovering an onside kick in the third preseason game at Indianapolis (Aug. 26), allowing the Packers to drive for the game-winning FG…During the regular season, was one of only four rookies on the roster to appear in 15 or more games, joining WR Randall Cobb, LB D.J. Smith and TE Ryan Taylor…Became a factor on special teams, particularly on kickoff coverage, where he notched eight of his nine tackles, a total that ranked sixth on the team and third among rookies...Ascended to the No. 3 safety position on the depth chart following a season-ending neck injury to Collins in Week 2, but did not see the field on defense during the year…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Made his NFL debut, appearing only on special teams, but did not record any statistics…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Saw action on special teams, making a great effort by sustaining his block on S Eric Frampton all the way down the field, helping to spring Cobb's 80-yard punt return for a TD early in the first quarter…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Appeared on special teams, where he was credited with two tackles on the kickoff coverage unit. Also made a good block on S Corey Lynch at the start of Cobb's 55-yard punt return in the fourth quarter…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Bested his career high of two special teams tackles from the previous week by tying for a team high with three, recording all three stops on the kickoff team.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and three-year starter who finished his career with 241 tackles, including 7½ for loss, eight interceptions and 15 passes defensed from the safety position…Named first-team All-Sun Belt Conference following his senior season in 2010 when he set or tied career highs in almost every statistical category…Earned a B.S. in physical education…Senior season (2010): Tallied a career-high 84 tackles (38 solo) and matched his career-best interception total with three…Was named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts in the team's loss at eventual national champion Auburn (Sept. 4)…Led the team with 11 tackles against the Tigers, including 1½ for loss and was the lone Red Wolf to sack eventual Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton, also adding a forced fumble and a recovery in the game…Finished the season ranked No. 10 in the conference in tackles and tied for fourth in INTs…Junior season (2009): Started the first 11 games as part of a unit that ranked first in the conference in both yards allowed and scoring defense…Finished with 64 tackles (37 solo), an interception, six passes defensed and a team-high three fumble recoveries…Had a season-high 11 tackles at Louisville (Oct. 31)…Was also named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll and the SBC Academic Honor Roll…Sophomore season (2008): Opened all 12 games in his first season as a starter, making 67 tackles, including three for loss, a team-high three interceptions and five passes defensed…Registered a career-high 13 tackles vs.

Paul Hornung (center), Green Bay's "Bonus Choice" in the 1957 draft

FIRST OVERALL NFL DRAFT PICKS TO PLAY FOR PACKERS

Player	Played for Packers	Obtained by Packers	Drafted by	College	Year
Bobby Garrett, QB	1954	Six-player trade	Cleveland Browns	Stanford	1954
Paul Hornung, HB	1957-62, 64-66	Bonus choice, '57 draft	Green Bay	Notre Dame	1957
Russell Maryland, DT	2000	Unrestricted free agent	Dallas	Miami (Fla.)	1991

NOTE: Jack Concannon (1964, Boston) and Jim Grabowski (1966, Miami) were taken first overall in AFL drafts, but opted to sign with the NFL teams that drafted them…From 1947-58, the first pick was a Bonus Choice, awarded to the winner of a random draw. That club, in turn, forfeited its last-round draft choice and was eliminated from future draws. The Packers were next-to-last to get the Bonus; it was abolished after 1958, when the last club had received one bonus pick.

Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 242 • Born: April 1, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 35/13 • Acquired: D7-09

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Athletic, productive outside linebacker who has contributed on both defense and special teams during his young career in Green Bay.

Returned to full health from a season-ending shoulder injury that forced him to miss the second half of 2010 and appeared in a career-high 15 games in 2011. Played extensively as one of the club's top contributors on special teams, and tied for third on the team with a career-high 11 coverage tackles on the season.

Worked his way back into the rotation on defense and eventually started the regular-season finale and playoff game at OLB. Defensively, finished with 12 tackles (six solo) and a sack in the regular season.

Posted the team's lone sack in the Divisional playoff contest vs. the N.Y. Giants, and also became the first Packer since Cletidus Hunt in 2002 to block a FG attempt in a postseason game.

Over his three seasons, has played in 35 games with 13 starts and posted 80 tackles (49 solo) with five sacks.

Started five of the first six games in 2010, and posted 37 tackles (20 solo), before aggravating a shoulder injury in Week 7 that had first bothered him in training camp. Was placed on injured reserve.

Took over the starting job in 2009 during Week 12 of his rookie season after veteran Aaron Kampman sustained a season-ending knee injury the previous game.

Started seven games and became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks as a rookie, with all of them coming in the final five games. Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, joined in that group by teammate Clay Matthews.

With his seven starts in '09, tied Patriots WR Julian Edelman for the most games started by a 2009 seventh-round draft choice.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Returned from a season-ending shoulder injury in 2010 to play in a career-high 15 games in 2011.
- Became a core player on special teams, posting a career-best 11 coverage tackles in 2011 and also becoming the first Packer in 10 years to block a FG in a playoff game.
- Played in 14 games with seven starts as a rookie in 2009, taking over the starting LOLB position in Week 12 vs. Detroit after Aaron Kampman sustained a season-ending knee injury in the previous game.
- Became only the fifth Packer (since 1982) to record four sacks as a rookie in '09.
- Was one of only six NFL rookies in 2009 to post four or more sacks, and was joined in that group by teammate Clay Matthews.
- Tied Patriots WR Julian Edelman for most games started by a 2009 seventh-round draft choice.
- Earned his degree in economics at Colorado and is just four classes shy of another degree in astrophysics.

2011 SEASON: Made a full recovery from the shoulder injury that dogged him in 2010, appearing in a career-high 15 games and becoming one of the club's most reliable players on special teams…Posted a career-best 11 tackles on the various coverage units…Also appeared in spot duty on defense throughout the season before reclaiming his starting post at ROLB for the team's playoff game…Registered the team's only sack in the playoff game and also blocked a FG attempt…Recorded 12 tackles (six solo) and a sack on defense during the regular season…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Saw 11 plays on defense and recorded two assisted tackles. Also posted a team-high three special teams tackles for the third time in his career (at St. Loui, Sept. 27, 2009; vs. Detroit, Oct. 18, 2009)...Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Inactive after missing the week of practice with a hamstring injury suffered at Chicago a week prior…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Appeared on special teams and also on defense late in the game. Recorded a special teams tackle and was part of coverage units that limited the Vikings to a total of 69 return yards on a combined six returns (four kickoff, two punt). Also made a well-sustained block upfield on LB Larry Dean on WR Randall Cobb's 80-yard punt return TD that gave Green Bay a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Started at LOLB with Clay Matthews on the inactive list (coaches' decision – rest), his first start since Week 7 of 2010. Appeared on a season-high 36 plays and recorded six tackles (four solo) and his first sack of the season. Sack came in the fourth quarter when he beat RT Gosder Cherilus on a speed rush to the outside and then dipped beneath the tackle, dropping QB Matthew Stafford for a 7-yard loss, his first sack since Week 16 of the 2009 season…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started the playoff game at ROLB, and appeared on 34 plays. Finished with three tackles (two solo) and recorded the first sack of his postseason career. Sack came on a third down in the fourth quarter when he beat LT David Diehl and dropped QB Eli Manning for a 5-yard loss to force a FG attempt. Earlier in the game, became the first Packer since Hunt (Jan. 13, 2002) to block a FG in the postseason when he slipped outside of T Tony Ugoh and came clean through the right side of the placement protection, getting his hands on a 40-yard attempt by K Lawrence Tynes.

2010: Played in six games with five starts, tallying 37 tackles (20 solo) plus three special teams tackles…Dealt with a right shoulder injury, initially sustained in training camp, by wearing a harness to play, but aggravated the injury in Week 7 vs. Minnesota and was placed on injured reserve on Oct. 27…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): After missing the final three preseason games, started the opener and was on the field for 57 snaps, registering five tackles (four solo)…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Tied for second on the team with nine tackles (four solo). Injured his left knee in the first half but did return…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Inactive with a knee injury…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Did not start and played sparingly on defense after returning from knee injury, recording one assisted tackle…At Washington (Oct. 10): Returned to starting lineup and had six tackles (three solo), along with career-high four QB hits…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Started and took more snaps than any other OLB with Matthews inactive (hamstring) and Brady Poppinga sidelined in the first half with a knee injury. Had two tackles for loss among six stops (three solo), one when he drilled RB Ronnie Brown 5 yards behind the line of scrimmage on a third-down run to force a punt in the second quarter. Also chased WR Brian Hartline down from behind for a 3-yard loss on a third-quarter run…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Started and had his most productive game, with a career-high 10 tackles (six solo) and a key QB hit, wrapping up Brett Favre just as he released the ball to help force an INT by LB A.J. Hawk. Aggravated his right shoulder injury during the game and was placed on injured reserve three days later.

2009: Played in 14 games with seven starts at LOLB, and started team's playoff contest…Posted 31 tackles (23 solo), four sacks, 11 QB hits and eight special teams tackles…Tied for third on the team with the four sacks, and became just the fifth rookie in team history (since 1982) to register four or more sacks…Was also one of only six NFL rookies to record four sacks in '09…Inactive for the first two games of the season as a healthy scratch…Began training camp on physically unable to perform list after injuring his back during conditioning test on July 31, but returned to practice on Aug. 17 and played in final three preseason games…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made NFL debut, seeing time on special teams, and led the team with three tackles…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Tied for team lead with three special teams tackles, matching career high…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Started his first game, opening at LOLB in place of an injured Kampman (concussion), and led the LBs with a season-high eight tackles (seven solo). Tackled QB Tony Romo for a 3-yard loss in third quarter on fumbled snap…At Detroit (Nov. 26): Moved into the starting lineup for good with Kampman's season ending the previous game due to a torn ACL. Posted four tackles (one solo), along with a team-high two QB hits…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Recorded four tackles (three solo) and three QB hits. Posted the first sack of his career when he brought QB Joe Flacco down for a 4-yard loss on third down to force a punt on the Ravens' opening drive of the second half. Along with Matthews, became only the fourth rookie duo in franchise annals to each post a sack in the same game…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Registered a career-high two sacks, with both coming in the third quarter. Along with Matthews, became first rookie tandem in franchise history (since 1982) to each post two sacks in the same game. Brought QB Ben Roethlisberger down on the opening drive of the second half for a 5-yard loss, and then sacked him again the next series for an 8-yard loss to help force the Steelers to settle for a FG. Finished game with five tackles (all solo) and two QB hits…Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted seven tackles (six solo), a sack, a QB hit and two pressures. Pressured QB Matt Hasselbeck as he rolled out on third down on Seattle's opening drive to help force a pass into the right flat that was picked off by Hawk. Brought Hasselbeck down for an 8-yard sack on a third-and-8 in the fourth quarter to force a Seattle punt…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and registered four tackles (two solo) and a QB hit…2009 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the seventh round (218th overall), becoming only the second LB ever drafted by Green Bay out of Colorado as he joined Mark Cooney (16th round, 1974). Became the first position player from the University of Colorado drafted by the Packers since DT Darius Holland was selected in the third round in 1995.

COLLEGE: Three-year starter at OLB who played in all 50 games during his career…Posted 252 tackles (157 solo), 9½ sacks, 22 tackles for loss, seven passes defensed and two forced fumbles during his four seasons…Was a teammate of K Mason Crosby for two seasons with the Buffaloes…Graduated in December 2008 with a degree in economics and is just six credits shy of another degree in astrophysics...Senior season (2008): Started all 12 games, earning honorable mention All-Big 12 honors from both The Associated Press and the conference's coaches…Named CU's co-defensive player of the year, as selected by the team's coaches…Led the team with a career-high 14 tackles for loss and a career-best seven sacks to go along with 78 tackles…Also led the team with 14 QB hurries and forced two fumbles…Named CU's defensive player of the week for his performance vs. Kansas State (Oct. 18) as he posted four tackles, a forced fumble, and the second-most QB hurries in a single game in school history with seven…Finished his career with nine tackles, three for loss, and two sacks at Nebraska (Nov. 28)…Junior season (2007): Started all 13 games and recorded a career-high 82 tackles (52 solo), six for loss and two sacks…Matched his career high with 10 tackles, including two for loss, in Independence Bowl vs. Alabama (Dec. 30)...Sophomore season (2006): Started 11 of 12 games, with his only non-start coming when team opened up in nickel defense vs. Texas Tech (Oct. 14)…Finished third on the team with 72 tackles (41 solo), and posted five or more tackles in nine games…Posted his first career INT at Kansas (Oct. 28)…Redshirt freshman season (2005): Played in all 13 games, posting 20 tackles (16 solo), one for a loss, along with a QB hurry and a pass breakup.

LATE-SEASON HOME SUCCESS

Lambeau Field has proven to be a difficult place to play once the weather turns and last season was no different as the Packers went 3-0 at home during the final month of the regular season. The performance marked the fourth time in the past five years the Packers went undefeated at home in December/January. Head Coach Mike McCarthy has continued the tradition of late-season success in Green Bay, compiling a 13-2 home record and a 19-9 mark overall in December and January in the regular season.

• Since 2000, Green Bay owns the league's third-best regular-season record Dec. 1 and later:

JAMES JONES

WIDE RECEIVER • SAN JOSE STATE

Sixth NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 208 • Born: March 31, 1984 • NFL Games Played/Started: 74/17 • Acquired: D3a-07

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played in all 16 games each of the last three seasons and in four of his five years in the NFL.

Ranks No. 5 among active NFL players (min. 20 career TDs) with a 31.0-yard average on his 20 career TD receptions.

Has posted at least one 100-yard receiving game in each of his five seasons in the league (2007-11), joining WR Greg Jennings as the only Packers to do so over that span.

Has caught five-plus TD passes each of the past three seasons, the only Packer to do so over that span.

Posted career highs in TD catches (seven) and receiving average (16.7) in 2011, catching 38 passes for 635 yards.

Registered career bests in receptions (50) and receiving yards (679) in 2010 and tied for the team lead in the '10 postseason with two TD catches.

In 2009, bounced back from an injury-plagued '08 season to catch a then-career-high five touchdown passes, plus another in the playoffs.

Posted one of the top pass-catching seasons in Green Bay annals for a rookie in 2007, with his 47 catches and 676 yards both ranking fourth in club history. Reception total trailed only Sterling Sharpe (55, 1988), Billy Howton (53, 1952) and RB Gerry Ellis (48, 1980) in the team's rookie record book, while the yardage total trailed only Howton (1,231), James Lofton (818, 1978) and Sharpe (791).

For his career, has played in 74 games with 17 starts and has caught 187 passes for 2,704 yards (14.5 avg.) and 20 TDs. Ranks No. 16 in franchise history in receiving yardage.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Ranks No. 5 among active NFL players (min. 20 career TDs) with a 31.0-yard average on his 20 career TD receptions.
- Has caught at least five TD passes each of the past three seasons, the only player on the team to do so over that span.
- Played in all 16 games for the third straight season in 2011, catching a career-high seven TD passes and posting a career-best 16.7-yard receiving average.
- Posted career highs in catches (50) and receiving yards (679) in 2010.
- Held the No. 3 receiver spot his entire rookie season in 2007, catching 47 passes for 676 yards and two TDs, including a 79-yarder on Monday Night Football at Denver, the longest TD catch by a Green Bay rookie since Max McGee's 82-yarder in 1954.
- His first-year totals rank fourth all-time among Green Bay rookies.
- Finished his career at San Jose State ranked third all-time in receptions with 126.

2011 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the third straight season as well as the team's playoff contest… Caught 38 passes for 635 yards, a career-high 16.7-yard receiving average…Posted a career-best seven TD catches, one of three Packers to do so (Jordy Nelson, Jennings) as they became the first trio of WRs in franchise history to each catch seven-plus TD passes in the same season…Of his 38 receptions, 27 went for first downs, a 71.1 percentage that ranked No. 2 on the team among players with at least 10 catches…Averaged 30.9 yards on his TD catches…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Led the team with a career-high 140 receiving yards on five catches (28.0 avg.), including a 70-yard TD catch in the third quarter that gave Green Bay a 15-14 lead, one they would not relinquish…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Paced the team with 94 receiving yards on three grabs (31.3 avg.), including his career-high-tying fifth TD catch of the season. The 65-yard grab, his fifth TD catch of 65-plus yards in his career, gave the Packers a 21-0 lead in the third quarter…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Posted the first multi-TD game of his career, finishing with four receptions for 50 yards (12.5 avg.). His two TD catches (2 and 7 yards) gave him a career-best seven for the season, topping his previous high of five set in 2009 and 2010… Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Caught a season-high six passes for 89 yards (14.8 avg.). Made two catches for 56 yards (28.0 avg.) on the team's final drive of the game that set up the game-winning TD in the 45-41 victory.

2010: Appeared in all 16 games for the third time in his career with two starts…Registered career-high marks with 50 catches for 679 yards (13.6 avg.), along with five TDs… Ranked third on the team in catches and second in receiving TDs…Of his 50 receptions, 33 (66.0 percent) went for first downs…Caught 11 passes for 144 yards (13.1 avg.) in the postseason and tied for the team lead with two TD receptions…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): After being shut out the week before vs. Miami, bounced back with a team-high 107 yards receiving on four catches (26.8 avg.). On the Packers' first TD drive, hauled in a short pass before going 45 yards down the sideline to the Minnesota 1 to set up a RB Brandon Jackson TD run…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Caught a career-high eight passes for 123 yards (15.4 avg.) and a TD, a 10-yard score that gave the Packers a commanding 35-7 lead…At New England (Dec. 19): Led the team with five receptions for 95 yards (19.0 avg.), highlighted by a 66-yard TD catch from QB Matt Flynn on the opening play of the second quarter…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted 75 yards receiving and a TD on four grabs (18.8 avg.). With 42 seconds left in the first half, made a leaping 20-yard TD catch in the right corner of the end zone over CB Brent Grimes to give the Packers a 21-14 lead they would never relinquish…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started as the team opened up in a four-WR set and finished second on the team with a career postseason-high five catches for 50 yards (10.0 avg.).

2009: Played in all 16 games with three starts and made 32 catches for 440 yards (13.8 avg.)...Finished tied for second on the team with a then-career-high five TD catches, adding a sixth TD in the postseason…Was fifth on the team in receptions and fourth in yards…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): On opening drive of the game, hauled in pass deep down the right sideline from QB Aaron Rodgers at the Detroit 15, made a nice cutback move on S Marquand Manuel at the 10, and took it in for the 47-yard TD…At Tampa Bay (Nov. 8): On Packers' second play, beat CB Elbert Mack down the right sideline for a 74-yard TD. Rodgers found him near midfield, and Jones took it the rest of the way for Green Bay's longest opening-drive TD since WR Antonio Freeman's 80-yard TD reception on Nov. 1, 1998, vs. San Francisco. Finished game with season-best four receptions for 103 yards (25.3 avg.), also a season high, the third 100-yard game of his career…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted 50 receiving yards and a TD on three catches (16.7 avg.).

2008: Played in 10 games with two starts, and ranked sixth on the team with 20 receptions for 274 yards (13.7 avg.) and a TD…One of only three players, along with Jennings and Donald Driver, to post a 100-yard receiving game on the season…Inactive for six games, five of them due to sprained right knee originally suffered in preseason game at Denver (Aug. 22)…Also was in and out of three other contests after banging knee during play…At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Caught four passes for a season-high 132 yards (33.0 avg.), the third-highest yardage output by a Packers receiver on the season, including receptions of 46, 40 and 34 yards.

2007: Played in all 16 games with nine starts, and appeared in both playoff contests…Started the first two games of the season as the No. 2 WR, then played as No. 3 for the next 12 games, after Jennings (hamstring) returned to the lineup; started other games in multiple-WR sets, plus the regular-season finale with both Driver and Jennings inactive…Finished fourth on the team with 47 catches for 676 yards – both totals good for third in the league among rookies, behind Kansas City's Dwayne Bowe (70-995) and Detroit's Calvin Johnson (48-756) – and two TDs…Reception and yardage totals also rank fourth in club history for a rookie…Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): In his first NFL game, started as the No. 2 WR and caught four passes for 29 yards (7.3 avg.), including two 8-yard grabs on back-to-back plays…At Minnesota (Sept. 30): With the offense opening with a three-WR set, started and caught his first career TD, beating CB Marcus McCauley down the right sideline for a 33-yard score in the fourth quarter; the TD gave Green Bay a 23-9 lead in the eventual 23-16 victory; the pass marked QB Brett Favre's 422nd TD toss…At Denver (Oct. 29): Posted his first career 100-yard game and earned Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Week honors after catching three passes for 107 yards (35.7 avg.), including a career-long 79-yard TD. In the first quarter, on the first play of the Packers' second drive, caught a long pass down the right sideline and cut back across the field on his way to the 79-yard score. It marked the longest TD catch by a Packers rookie since 1954, when McGee caught an 82-yarder…2007 Draft: Selected with the first of Green Bay's two third-round picks, the 78th overall selection and the 14th WR drafted. Became the fifth player drafted by the Packers from San Jose State and the first since 1974, when LB Emanuel Armstrong was chosen in the 13th round. Highest draft selection out of San Jose State since TE Sean Brewer in 2001 (Cincinnati, 66th overall).

COLLEGE: In 44 games at San Jose State, started 21 and caught 126 passes for 1,496 yards (11.2 avg.) and 12 TDs…Also ran the ball 24 times for 126 yards (5.3 avg.) with one score and completed 3 of 7 passes for 58 yards and a TD…On special teams, returned 42 punts for 307 yards (7.3 avg.) and made nine tackles (six solo)…His 126 career catches stood third in school history at the end of his career, while his 1,496 yards receiving ranked 11th…Majored in sociology...Senior season (2006): Named second-team All-Western Athletic Conference and team MVP with a career-high 70 receptions for 893 yards (12.8 avg.) and 10 TDs, including four 100-yard games…Played in 13 games with 12 starts at split end…Reception total ranked 27th in the nation…His 70 catches were the fourth-highest total in school history (now fifth), and his 10 TDs are the third-best mark…Led the team with an average of 83.85 all-purpose yards per game and was involved in seven plays of 40-plus yards…Started season off strong at Washington (Sept. 2), catching nine passes for 130 yards and a school-record-tying three TDs…Caught seven passes for 82 yards vs. Stanford (Sept. 9), and had a 42-yard TD run midway through the third quarter of 35-34 victory that was ESPN's "Play of the Day"…Had eight receptions for a career-high 134 yards and a score vs. Utah State (Oct. 14)…Junior season (2005): Played in 11 games, starting three at split end…Ranked second on the team with 30 receptions for 278 yards (9.3 avg.) and a TD…Picked up 48 yards on eight carries (6.0 avg.) and 106 yards on 20 punt returns (5.3 avg.)…Sophomore season (2004): Started six of 11 games, ranking second on the team with 25 receptions for 317 yards (12.7 avg.) and a TD…Served as the team's primary punt returner for the first half of the season, with 11 punt returns for 80 yards (7.3 avg.)…Snared

MODERN INSTANT REPLAY "CHALLENGE" SYSTEM, BY THE NUMBERS

After being first introduced in 1999 as a Referee Replay Review to aid officiating, the instant replay system was extended on a one-year basis in 2000 before being approved for the next three years through 2003. It was later extended on a five-year basis in March 2004, and then finally installed permanently in March 2007.

Plays can either be reviewed by an on-site NFL replay official or on behalf of a coach's challenge. The following is a look at the results of instant replay over the past 13 regular seasons:

JOHN KUHN

FULLBACK • SHIPPENSBURG

Seventh NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 250 • Born: September 9, 1982 • NFL Games Played/Started: 87/15 • Acquired: W-07 (Pit)

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played in 78 of 80 games (86 of 88 including playoffs) during his five seasons in Green Bay, appearing in all 16 regular-season contests in four of those seasons.

Was the only player on the team to score on a rushing and receiving TD each of the past four seasons (2008-11), the first Packer to accomplish that feat since RB Ahman Green (2001-04).

Selected as a Pro Bowl starter in 2011, the first Green Bay fullback to earn Pro Bowl recognition since William Henderson in 2004.

Also earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2011.

Has successfully converted 18-of-23 opportunities (78.3 percent) on third-and-1 or fourth-and-1 during his career.

Has scored a TD in each of the last three postseasons, joining New Orleans WR Devery Henderson as the only NFL player to accomplish that feat from 2009-11. Became first Packer to do so since WR Antonio Freeman (1996-98).

Led the team with four rushing TDs in 2011 and led the running backs with six total TDs.

Posted a career-high 281 rushing yards on 84 carries (3.3 avg.) in 2010.

Helped block for RB Ryan Grant's back-to-back 1,200-yard seasons in 2008-09.

A core member on special teams, he has posted 50 tackles during his career, with 47 of those coming in Green Bay.

Claimed off waivers by the Packers from Pittsburgh in September 2007.

Spent time on the Steelers' practice squad in 2005-06 after signing with the team as a non-drafted free agent in '05, and played in nine games for Pittsburgh in '06.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has played in 78 of 80 games (86 of 88 including playoffs) during his five seasons in Green Bay.
- Only player on the team to have a rushing and receiving touchdown each of the past four seasons, the first Packer to achieve that feat since RB Ahman Green (2001-04).
- Set or matched his career high in every offensive category in 2010.
- Finished his career at Shippensburg with 27 school records, including career rushing yards (4,685), carries (910), touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,300) and 100-yard rushing games (26).
- In 2003, was the NCAA Division II co-leader in scoring with 22 total touchdowns (21 rushing, 1 receiving), a single-season school record.

2011 SEASON: Appeared in all 16 games for the fourth time in five seasons, making three starts…Also played in team's playoff contest…Selected as the Pro Bowl starter and also earned second-team All-Pro recognition from AP…Matched his career high with six total TDs, the most among running backs, and led the team with four rushing TDs…Rushed for 78 yards on 30 carries (2.6 avg.) and tied his career high with 15 receptions for 77 yards (5.1 avg.)…Helped clear the way for James Starks (578) and Grant (559) to become the first Green Bay tandem to each rush for 550-plus yards since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens in 1996…Registered three tackles on special teams…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Carried twice for 5 yards, with a 1-yard TD run, and caught two passes for 7 yards. Made one of the plays of the game on special teams when he helped keep WR Randall Cobb from hitting the ground after he spun out of a hit on a third-quarter kickoff return. Held Cobb up and helped him regain his balance, allowing him to advance the ball another 70 yards for a TD as he tied the NFL record with a 108-yard return…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Lone rush came on a goal-line carry in the fourth quarter that he took up the middle for a 2-yard TD. Made a clutch recovery of an onside kick with the Packers clinging to a 28-26 lead with five minutes remaining. On the ensuing drive, made an excellent pickup of blitzing CB Ronde Barber, allowing QB Aaron Rodgers time to find WR Jordy Nelson for a 40-yard TD that sealed the 35-26 win…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Carried a season-high 10 times for a season-best 46 yards (4.6 avg.) as the offense matched its season-high rushing total with 136 yards on 24 carries (5.7 avg.). Saw his carries increase with RB James Starks (ankle) sidelined and rookie RB Brandon Saine departing in the second quarter (concussion)…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Appeared on both offense and special teams before sustaining a knee injury in the third quarter that kept him out the remainder of the game. Scored the Packers' first TD with an 8-yard catch from Rodgers on the first play of the second quarter. Marked the third consecutive postseason that he scored a TD as he joined the Saints' Henderson as the only players in the league to accomplish that feat from 2009-11. The last Packer to do so was Freeman in 1996-98.

2010: Played in all 16 games for the third time in his four seasons in Green Bay, starting two contests…With Grant lost for the season due to a Week 1 ankle injury, saw the most significant action of his career carrying the ball…Responded by setting or matching his career high in every major offensive category, posting 281 yards and four TDs on 84 attempts (3.3 avg.), along with 15 catches for 97 yards (6.4 avg.) and two TDs…His 281 rushing yards ranked No. 3 on the team…With a career-high six total TDs, ranked No. 2 on the team behind only WR Greg Jennings (12)…Converted 10-of-12 opportunities on third-and-1 or fourth-and-1, an 83.3 percentage that ranked No. 3 in the NFL among players with 10 attempts…Appeared in all four postseason games with one start, catching six passes for 53 yards (8.8 avg.) and a TD with 8 rushing yards and a score on six carries…Added seven special teams tackles in the regular season and four more in the playoffs…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Started at RB for the first time in his career.

Rushed for 31 yards on six carries (5.2 avg.) and caught two passes for 20 yards (10.0 avg.). Had a career-long 18-yard run in the fourth quarter to set up a TD run by Rodgers…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Turned in a career day with 50 yards on 13 carries (3.8 avg.), including a 17-yard pickup… At New England (Dec. 19): In what Head Coach Mike McCarthy called the finest game of his career, caught three passes for 27 yards (9.0 avg.) and a TD and rushed for 21 yards on six carries (3.5 avg.). In the third quarter, caught a swing pass from QB Matt Flynn and made a cut inside to elude CB Kyle Arrington and LB Rob Ninkovich to score a 6-yard TD…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Started at FB and posted a career-high three TDs, two rushing and one receiving. Was awarded two game balls for the performance, one for offense and another for his play on special teams. Had 22 yards on six carries (3.7 avg.) with two scores and a pair of receptions for 7 yards and another TD. Added a career-high four tackles on special teams…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started at FB, scoring on a 1-yard run in the first quarter and on a 7-yard reception in the third quarter. Became the first Packer to post a rushing TD and a receiving TD in a playoff game since WR James Lofton did so at Dallas on Jan. 16, 1983.

2009: Played in 14 games with six starts...Scored TDs on 20 percent (3-of-15) of his offensive touches, rushed eight times for 18 yards (2.3 avg.) and caught seven passes for 47 yards (6.7 avg.)...Also played in playoff contest and added another rushing TD…Helped block for Grant's second straight 1,200-yard season...One of only two players (RB Brandon Jackson) on the team to post a rushing and receiving TD on the season...Also registered 11 tackles on special teams…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Started, rushed for a TD and caught a TD pass, becoming the first Packers FB to do both in a game since Henderson (Nov. 29, 1998, vs. Philadelphia). Scored from 1 yard out on a dive play in the second quarter and caught a play-action pass in the right flat from Rodgers in the fourth quarter and took it in for the 10-yard score…At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Helped clear the way for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5) avg., the second-best regular-season performance of Grant's career, and helped team post a season-high 202 yards on 41 carries (4.9 avg.)…Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Saw time on special teams, playing with a club cast on his broken hand sustained the previous week vs. Dallas…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Inactive for the first time in his career, ending streak of 54 straight games played (45 in Green Bay)…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Scored on a 1-yard plunge early in the fourth quarter to even the game at 38.

2008: Played in every game for the second straight season with three starts…Caught four passes for 21 yards and two TDs, along with 10 rushing yards and a TD on eight carries…Tied for fifth on the team with a career-high 12 special teams tackles…Converted 4-of-5 rushing attempts on third-and-1 for the season…At Seattle (Oct. 12): Scored first TD of his career on a 1-yard reception from Rodgers in the fourth quarter to put Packers up 24-10…At New Orleans (Nov. 24): Posted first career rushing TD on 1-yard plunge in the first quarter to put Green Bay up 7-0…Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Led team with a season-high three special teams tackles…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Caught a 5-yard TD pass midway through the fourth quarter to put the Packers up 24-14. Blocked for Grant and RB DeShawn Wynn as they each rushed for 106 yards to become only the second Packers tandem since 1985 to rush for 100-plus yards in a game.

2007: Claimed off waivers Sept. 2 from Pittsburgh, and played in all 16 games, getting all the reps at FB during the last two games of the regular season with FB Korey Hall out due to a hip injury…Also played in both playoff contests, starting one…Gained more playing time from scrimmage in the second half of the season, particularly in run formations…Recorded 11 tackles on special teams…Vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 9): Played on special teams in debut with the Packers, coming away with two kick coverage stops… At Dallas (Nov. 29): Made a key block on Grant's 62-yard TD run, penetrating the gap and knocking LB Akin Ayodele out of the way…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made his first start for Green Bay for Hall and had one catch for 5 yards.

2006: Spent the first half of the season on Pittsburgh's practice squad and was signed to the active roster on Oct. 31…Played in nine games as a FB and on special teams, compiling two rushes for 18 yards, one reception for 15 yards, and seven special teams tackles…Vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 3): Registered two special teams tackles…Vs. Cleveland (Dec. 7): Ran for 16 yards on his first career rush…At Carolina (Dec. 17): Converted a third-and-9 with a season-long 15-yard catch…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 24): Posted two special teams tackles.

2005: Released by the Steelers prior to the start of the regular season, but was signed to the team's practice squad on Nov. 30, where he spent the final five games of the season…2005 Draft: Signed as a non-drafted free agent by Pittsburgh on April 29.

COLLEGE: Finished his career at Shippensburg with 27 school records and four Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) records…Compiled 4,685 yards rushing on 910 carries (5.1 avg.), including 26 games with at least 100 yards rushing, with 53 TDs and 5,300 all-purpose yards, all school records…Became the only player in school history to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing in three straight seasons…Earned first-team All-PSAC Western Division honors three times…Also was a first-team ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2003 and 2004…Graduated with a 3.293 GPA in December 2004 with a degree in chemistry…Senior season (2004): Rushed 293 times for 1,487 yards (5.1 avg.) and 14 TDs, averaging 5.1 yards per carry and 136.8 yards per game, leading Shippensburg to its first PSAC Western Division title since 1988 and first appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs since 1991… Chosen first-team American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-American and third-team Little All-American by AP…Junior season (2003): Named PSAC Western Division Offensive Player of the Year with 294 carries for 1,500 yards (5.1 avg.) and 21 TDs…Also caught 15 passes for 187 yards and a TD…His 22 total TDs made him the NCAA

T.J. LANG

GUARD • EASTERN MICHIGAN

Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 318 • Born: September 20, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 44/19 • Acquired: D4-09

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has started games at three different positions (LT, LG, RT) in three seasons as a pro.

In his first year as a full-time starter, opened all 16 games in 2011 (15 at LG, one at RT), one of only two Green Bay offensive linemen (C Scott Wells) to start every regular-season game.

Part of a prolific offense in '11 that set franchise records for points (560), total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14).

Served as a reserve at tackle and guard in 2010 while also getting limited action on defense as an emergency lineman in short-yardage situations due to injuries.

Missed all of OTAs and minicamp in 2010 due to offseason wrist surgery.

Started games at both tackle spots as a rookie in 2009 and became the first Green Bay rookie since Chad Clifton (2000) to start consecutive games at LT.

Drafted by the Packers in the fourth round (No. 109 overall) of the 2009 NFL Draft, the team's first pick after the first round.

Showed his ability to play guard at the Texas vs. The Nation all-star game following his senior season.

AT A GLANCE ...

- One of only two Green Bay offensive linemen to start all 16 games in 2011, opening 15 contests at left guard and one at right tackle.
- Has started games at three different positions on the line (LT, LG, RT) as a pro.
- Served as reserve at tackle and guard in 2010 while also seeing limited action on defense as an emergency lineman in short-yardage situations.
- Started games at both tackle spots in 2009 and became the first Packers rookie to start consecutive games at left tackle since Chad Clifton in 2000.
- Began his college career as a defensive lineman, but converted to the offensive line as a sophomore and started 36 straight games (10 at RT, 26 at LT) over his final three years.
- Was just the third draft pick in franchise history from Eastern Michigan, and the first in 37 years (LB Dave Pureifory, 1972).

2011 SEASON: In his first full season as a starter, opened all 16 games, one of only two offensive linemen (Wells) to do so, as well as the team's playoff contest… Started 15 games at LG and one at RT…Helped the offense set franchise records for points (560), also the second most in NFL history, total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14)…Blocked for QB Aaron Rodgers as he was named the NFL Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press after setting an NFL single-season record for passer rating (122.5) and team marks for touchdown passes (45), passing yards (4,643), yards per attempt (9.25), completion percentage (68.3) and 300-yard games (eight)…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Started his first career game at LG, the first time he had opened a game since he started at RT vs. Dallas on Nov. 15, 2009… Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Blocked for Rodgers as he threw for a regular-season career-high 408 yards and four TDs and the offense racked up 507 yards. Line allowed just two sacks on the day, neither of which were charged to him… At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Helped maintain continuity for a line that saw young backups (Marshall Newhouse and Derek Sherrod) play most of the game with Clifton and Bryan Bulaga sidelined with injuries. Line allowed Rodgers time to complete 26-of-39 passes for 396 yards and two TDs… At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Had a solid outing against a talented Vikings front as Rodgers posted the second-highest passer rating of his career (146.5). Part of a line that helped burn the final 2:30 off the clock as RB James Starks rushed for 55 yards on six carries on the final drive of the 33-27 win…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Helped the offense rack up 38 points and provided time for Rodgers to complete 23-of-30 passes for 250 yards and four TDs. It marked Rodgers' third straight 140-plus rating game as he joined Kurt Warner (1999) as the only QBs in NFL history to accomplish that feat…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Helped silence a vaunted Detroit front, allowing Rodgers time to complete 22-of-33 passes for 307 yards and two TDs as he posted an NFL-record 11th straight game with a 110-plus passer rating…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Started at LG but moved to RT in the second half following injuries to

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

In 1978, the Baltimore Colts started an effort to raise funds for abused children and conceived an award they named after their longtime trainer, the late Ed Block. In 1984, the award was taken league-wide to honor one player from each team who, in the eyes of his teammates, best exemplifies and displays courage. Below are the Packers winners, as voted by their teammates, from 1984-2011:

both Bulaga (knee) and Sherrod (leg). Was his first action at RT since the '09 campaign…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Started at RT for the first time since Week 10 of 2009 with Bulaga sidelined. Part of a line that did not allow Rodgers to be sacked for the first time on the season…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Started at his familiar LG spot with Clifton back in the lineup at LT, but kicked out to RT early in the second quarter after Clifton was removed (rest) and played the remainder of the game there. Protected QB Matt Flynn on his way to setting franchise records for passing yards (480) and TDs (six) as the offense recorded a season-high 550 yards in the 45-41 win…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started the first postseason contest of his career, opening at LG.

2010: Played in the final 12 regular-season games and all four postseason contests, primarily on special teams… Also saw limited action as an emergency defensive lineman…Was inactive (healthy scratch) for the first four games of the season…Entered training camp having missed all of OTAs and minicamp following wrist surgery in April…At Washington (Oct. 10): Made his season debut, appearing on special teams…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Saw action on defense in short-yardage situations and also played on special teams…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Saw limited time on defense for the second straight week with the defensive line depleted by injuries, recording an assisted tackle in four snaps…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Again called upon for limited reps on defense because of injuries…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Played the final eight minutes of the game at LT in place of Clifton with the Packers holding a 45-7 lead…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Took over at LG for the second half for Jason Spitz, who had entered the game in the first quarter following an injury to starter Daryn Colledge (knee)…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Took over at LT for three series in the first half for starter Clifton, who left the game with a neck stinger before returning to action.

2009: Played in all 16 games with three starts, opening games at both tackle positions, and also played on special teams and in the playoff contest...Saw time primarily at LG during preseason…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made his debut from scrimmage when he came in at LT for Colledge for one play in the third quarter when Colledge's shoe came off and he had to leave the game…At Minnesota

PACKERS THE BEST IN THE POSTSEASON

On the heels of 14 playoff appearances in the last 19 years, including three trips to the Super Bowl, the Packers now own the best postseason winning percentage in National Football League history. They have won 29 of 46 playoff games, starting with their first-ever postseason contest – the 1936 NFL championship, a 21-6 victory over the Boston Redskins. The standings:

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Signed by the Packers as a non-drafted free agent on July 28, 2011, and became one of three undrafted rookies to make the club's opening-day roster out of training camp.

Made the team after playing in each of the four preseason games, registering eight tackles (four solo) and a sack during exhibition play.

A physically raw, projectable player who made the transition from collegiate DE to professional OLB upon his arrival to Green Bay. Continues to add size and strength entering his second pro season and looks to compete for playing time both on special teams and defense.

Appeared in nine games as a rookie in 2011, seeing almost all of his playing time come on special teams, where he collected four coverage tackles during the season.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined S M.D. Jennings and LB Vic So'oto as one of three non-drafted free agent rookies to make the Packers' opening-day roster in 2011.
- Battled a shoulder injury during the season, but appeared in nine games, almost exclusively on special teams, where he tallied four tackles.
- Was named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2010 after posting a career-high 68 tackles (15 for loss), 11½ sacks, two forced fumbles, two blocked kicks and a fumble recovery.
- Finished No. 2 all-time in Middle Tennessee State school history with 20½ career sacks despite only playing three seasons, a mark that trailed only fellow Packers LB Erik Walden's career total of 22½.

2011 SEASON: One of 10 rookies and three non-drafted free agents to make the club out of training camp, he appeared in nine games during his inaugural season, mostly on special teams…Played extensively from scrimmage during the preseason, where he saw action in all four games and finished with eight tackles (four solo) and a sack…Did not trigger the stat sheet defensively during the regular season, but was an effective coverage player on special teams, where he recorded four tackles…Suffered a shoulder injury in the season's early going but battled back and appeared in the final four regular-season games, in addition to the team's playoff game…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Became the first non-drafted rookie to see game action for the Packers in 2011, making his NFL debut on special teams in the season opener. Made an excellent block on WR Randall Cobb's NFL record-tying 108-yard KR-TD, when he flattened LB Will Herring at the beginning of the return...At Chicago (Sept. 25): Made two tackles in kickoff coverage and was awarded a special teams game ball as he helped limit the Bears' returners to a 21.3-yard average on three returns…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Inactive (shoulder)…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Returned to action, appearing on special teams, but aggravated the shoulder injury and was forced to miss the next two games…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Returned to the field after missing two games with the shoulder injury and an additional four as a healthy scratch. Saw action on a season-high 18 defensive plays but did not record any statistics…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Played on special teams and recorded a tackle in punt coverage when he corralled CB Javier Arenas after a 17-yard return that saw him wiggle away from a pair of other tackles.

COLLEGE: A three-year letterman and two-time all-conference selection for the Blue Raiders, he appeared in 38 games with 26 starts at DE during his career…Finished his career having made 137 tackles, including 30 for loss, 20½ sacks, four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and an interception…Sack total of 20½ ranked No. 2 in school history despite his only having played three seasons…Trailed only fellow Packers LB and MTSU alum Erik Walden's career total of 22½…Earned his degree in criminal justice…Senior season (2010): Named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year and was voted first-team all-conference by the coaches and media after finishing with a career-high 68 tackles, including 15 tackles for loss, 11½ sacks, 10 QB hurries, two forced fumbles, two blocked kicks and a fumble recovery…His sack total tied the single-season school record…Played in all 13 contests on the season with 12 starts…Set the school record and tied the Sun Belt mark with four sacks at Louisiana-Lafayette (Sept. 25), adding eight tackles and a forced fumble…Recorded five tackles and three sacks vs. Louisiana-Monroe (Oct. 23)…Junior season (2009): Earned second-team All-Sun Belt honors from the coaches and media…Started all 13 contests and finished the season with 47 tackles, including 9½ for loss, and 5½ sacks…Finished second nationally with three fumble recoveries and added an interception and a forced fumble…Posted three sacks and a forced fumble at Maryland (Sept. 19)…Posted two sacks and tied for the team lead with six tackles vs. Western Kentucky (Oct. 24)…Registered his first career INT vs. Louisiana-Lafayette (Nov. 14) and returned it 20 yards for a TD while adding a fumble recovery…Sophomore season (2008): Saw action in all 12 games with one start…Posted 22 tackles, 5½ tackles for loss and 3½ sacks…Recorded a season-high two sacks vs. North Texas (Nov. 22)…Started out as a LB but moved to DE…Enrolled in January that year and participated in spring practice… Junior college: Spent his freshman season at Dodge City (Kan.) Community College…Led the team with nine sacks while adding 60 tackles and an interception…Earned honorable mention all-conference honors.

THE GOALPOSTS

From the Rule Book: "In the plane of each end line, there shall be a centrally placed horizontal crossbar 18 feet 6 inches in length, the top face of which is 10 feet above the ground. The goal is the vertical plane extending indefinitely above the crossbar and between the lines indicated by the outer edges of the goal posts. All goal posts will be the single-standard type, offset from the end line and bright gold in color. The uprights will extend 30 feet above the crossbar and will be no less than 3 inches and no more than 4 inches in diameter. An orange-colored ribbon 4 inches by 42 inches is to be attached to the top of each post."

History: The NFL moved its goal posts from the goal line to the end line prior to the 1974 season. In 1966, the year after Don Chandler's controversial field goal sent a Packers-Colts playoff game into overtime, the league raised the height of the goal posts to "a minimum 20 feet above the crossbar."

PERSONAL: Given name Jamari Lattimore; nickname is "Latt"…Born in Miami…Single…High School: Named team MVP as a senior at Miami Lakes (Fla.) High School… Voted honorable mention 6A-4A All-Dade…Played LB, DE, TE, WR and T…Also lettered two years in track, competing in the 100 meters, 200 meters, 400 meters, 4x100-meter relay and 4x400-meter relay…Community involvement: Helped build homes and worked with special-needs children while in college…Hobbies/interests: Enjoys playing video games, naming "Call of Duty" as his favorite…Lists LeBron James as his favorite athlete, Family Guy as his favorite TV show and Transformers as his favorite movie…Enjoys listening to Rick Ross, TI and Jay-Z…Residence: Atlanta.

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-1 Wt: 200 • Born: March 16, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 32/0 • Acquired: FA-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Earned roster spot after winning training-camp battle in 2010 and has gone on to have two of the most productive seasons by a punter in franchise history.

Improved upon what was a promising first-year campaign by delivering franchise records for gross (45.6 avg.) and net (38.6 avg.) punting averages in 2011.

Became the first punter in franchise history to land four punts inside the 20-yard line in consecutive games when he did so in Weeks 12 and 13 in 2011.

Finished 2011 in a similar fashion to his run at the end of 2010, posting a gross average of 48.1 yards and a net average of 43.6, while dropping 19 punts inside the 20-yard line over the final 10 games of the season.

Has also served as the team's holder on placements over the past two seasons, helping K Mason Crosby to a career-high 85.7 field goal percentage in 2011 and an NFL-best three FGs of 56-plus yards since 2010.

Posted a 37.6-yard net average in 2010, which matched what was then the best mark by a Green Bay punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007) and placed 25 punts inside the 20 on the season, the most by a Packer since Josh Bidwell registered 26 in 2002.

Was especially productive over the final nine games of the regular season in 2010, ranking No. 3 in the NFL in net average (39.9), No. 9 in gross average (44.2), and tied for No. 4 in punts inside the 20 (20) over that span.

Carried his production into the playoffs as he tied the franchise playoff record (since 1976) with five punts inside the 20 at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game, matching the previous mark set by Craig Hentrich at San Francisco (Jan. 11, 1998).

Signed with the Packers on Jan. 14, 2010, and battled Australian Chris Bryan for the punting position during training camp, earning the job with a strong showing in the Family Night scrimmage as well as his 41.5-yard gross average and 38.0-yard net on four punts during his first preseason.

Entered the NFL as a non-drafted free agent with the Colts in 2009 and went through the offseason program and the early portion of training camp before being released Aug. 11 of that year.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Posted a 37.6-yard net average in 2010, which matched the best mark by a Packers punter since 1976 (Jon Ryan, 2007), and then bested that number by registering a 38.6-yard mark in 2011 to set a new franchise record.
- In addition to a successful season in the net punting department, he also set a new franchise record with a 45.6-yard gross average in 2011, eclipsing the 45.0-yard mark set by Craig Hentrich in 1997.
- Placed 25 punts inside the 20-yard line on the season in 2010, the most by a Green Bay punter since Josh Bidwell recorded 26 in 2002.
- In the 2010 NFC Championship Game at Chicago, tied the franchise playoff record (since 1976) with five punts inside the 20, matching Craig Hentrich's mark set on Jan. 11, 1998, at San Francisco.
- Has now played two career games at MetLife Stadium in New Jersey, and claimed NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors following both outings (Week 8, 2010; Week 13, 2011).
- A first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by both the media and the league's coaches as a senior at Kentucky after posting a career-high 45.2-yard average on his 53 punts, the second-highest single-season mark in school history.
- Was an all-state football player, all-state soccer player, all-region baseball player and four-year letterman in basketball at Murray (Ky.) High School.

2011 SEASON: Had what was statistically the finest season of any punter in franchise history…Punted 55 times for 2,506 yards, setting new franchise records for gross (45.6) and net (38.6) average, and landing 23 of his kicks inside the opponent's 20-yard line…Bested the previous gross punting mark of 45.0 set by Craig Hentrich in 1997 and topped the net-average record of 37.6 he'd shared with Ryan (2007) after 2010...Similar to his inaugural campaign, grew stronger as the season wore on and was especially effective in the final 10 games when he posted averages of 48.1 (gross) and 43.6 (net), dropping 19 of his 34 attempts inside the 20…Also became the first punter in team history to have back-to-back games with four or more punts inside the 20, doing so in Weeks 12 and 13…Served as the team's holder for the second consecutive season, helping Crosby to a career-high 85.7 field goal percentage…

PACKERS IN DALLAS MORNING NEWS SPECIAL TEAMS RANKINGS

Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News produces an annual NFL special teams poll, which objectively grades teams by their rankings in 22 kicking-game categories. Gosselin suggests that quality special teams give clubs an edge in a parity-driven league.

Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Punted five times for 222 yards (44.4 avg.), including a then-career-long 67-yarder in the fourth quarter that was the longest by a Green Bay player since Ryan's 72-yarder vs. Detroit on Dec. 30, 2007. Recorded his lone special teams tackle of the season when he took down WR Austin Pettis after a 39-yard return early in the fourth quarter…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Set career highs in both gross (59.3) and net (55.3) averages (min. three attempts), landing three punts inside the 20-yard line, helping to limit Minnesota to an average starting position at their own 20 on 11 possessions. Net average was the highest by a Packer with three or more attempts since the NFL began tracking net punting in 1976. Was also the highest gross average by a Green Bay punter with three or more attempts since Don Chandler's 59.7 mark on Oct. 10, 1965. Most critical of his kicks was a 64-yarder that came late in the fourth quarter when the Packers punted from their own 34-yard line holding a narrow 33-27 advantage. Had to rush to get the ball off as it was nearly blocked by DE Everson Griffen, booming the kick deep into Vikings territory and getting a roll that took it to the Minnesota 2-yard line. Also held for Crosby's franchise-record 58-yard FG in the third quarter…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Had three punts for 163 yards (54.3 avg., 42.3 net), landing one inside the 20. Also recorded his first career carry when LB Jacob Cutrera came free on a rush, forcing Masthay to pull the ball down and run. Cutrera punched the ball out, but Masthay recovered it in stride and advanced 6 yards for a first down…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Punted five times for 207 yards (41.4 avg., 37.8 net), dropping a season-high four punts inside the Detroit 20-yard line, a key factor in the Packers winning the game's field-position battle by more than 150 yards. Average starting position for the Lions following his five punts was their own 16-yard line and he was instrumental in limiting return man WR Stefan Logan to just one return that resulted in a 2-yard loss…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career after punting five times for 221 yards (44.2 avg., 44.2 net), landing four of his kicks inside the 20-yard line for the second consecutive week, and not allowing the Giants a single return. Became the first punter in franchise history to drop four or more punts inside the 20 in back-to-back games since the statistic began being recorded in 1976. The Giants' average starting position following his five punts was at their own 13-yard line and their possessions that followed his punts ended with an INT, three punts of their own and a FG. Has now played two career games at MetLife Stadium and won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors following both of them…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Punted five times for 267 yards (53.4 avg., 46.2 net), dropping three inside the 20 and seeing his career-long 71-yard kick come in the second quarter. The gross and net averages were both career highs (min. four attempts) and ranked No. 4 and No. 3 respectively in franchise history (since 1976).

2010: Handled all punting duties during the regular season, registering a 43.9-yard gross average and a 37.6-yard net average…His net average tied the best mark by a Packers punter (since 1976) to that point, matching Ryan's net average in 2007…Also served as the holder for all placements and field goals…Dropped 25 punts inside the 20 on the season, the most by a Green Bay punter since Hentrich's 26 in 2002…After getting off to a slow start, was one of the most effective punters in the league over the second half of the season…Ranked No. 3 in the NFL in net average (39.9), No. 9 in gross average (44.2), and tied for No. 4 in punts inside the 20 (20) over the final nine contests…Posted a 40.2-yard gross average and a 34.7-yard net average on 18 punts in the postseason…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Posted a 41.5-yard average with a net average of 38.0 on four punts in his NFL debut. Helped limit WR DeSean Jackson to just 14 yards on a pair of returns…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Dropped five punts inside the 20, tying David Beverly (vs. Chicago, Oct. 28, 1978) for the single-game franchise record (since 1976) on his way to earning NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Became just the second punter in franchise history to receive that recognition, joining Hentrich (Week 11, 1994, vs. N.Y. Jets). Despite punting eight times on the afternoon, the Jets did not record any punt-return yardage, the first time the Packers had allowed no return yards since vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 16, 2003). The Jets' best starting field position following a punt was their own 23, which proved critical in the Packers' 9-0 victory…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Posted then-career highs (min. four attempts) with a 50.5-yard gross avg. and a net avg. of 43.4. Placed three punts inside the 20 and booted a career-long 62-yarder in the first quarter. Became the first punter in franchise history to post a 50-yard average in a game with eight or more attempts. Posted four 50-yard punts on the afternoon, becoming the first to do so since Ryan recorded the same number at Minnesota (Nov. 12, 2006)…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): With a playoff berth on the line, had a strong showing in challenging conditions against the league's best return man in Devin Hester. Dropped four of his eight punts inside the 20 and recorded a 36.6-yard net avg. Limited Hester to just two returns, with neither going beyond the Chicago 30. Repeatedly pinned the Bears deep in their own territory, highlighted by two kicks in the fourth quarter that were downed at the Chicago 3 and 2, respectively. Combined with his effort at the N.Y. Jets in Week 8, became the first punter in franchise history to post four-plus punts inside the 20 in two games in a season…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Was limited to holding on PATs and FGs. It marked the first time in franchise history that the Packers did not punt during a postseason contest…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): A key contributor in the victory, punting eight times with a gross avg. of 41.8 and a net avg. of 34.5. Limited Hester to a 5.3-yard return avg. and a long return of 11 yards on three returns. His 65-yard punt in the third quarter was a franchise postseason record. Biggest punt came with 3:07 remaining and the Packers holding a 21-14 lead. From the Green Bay 24, drilled a 58-yard punt to the Chicago 18 that Hester returned 11 yards before being brought down by CB Brandon Underwood at the Bears' 29 for a 47-yard net…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Punted six times, registering a 40.5-yard gross avg. and a 36.3-yard net avg. Helped limit the Steelers to just 5 total punt return yards.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman who appeared in 50 games during his career at Kentucky, improving his punting average in each season and also handling the team's kickoff duties and serving as the holder on placements… Finished his career with the third-highest gross punting average in school history (40.2) after raising his average almost 10 yards from his freshman to his senior year… Earned a B.S. in economics and was named an Academic All-American by CoSIDA following both the 2007 and 2008 seasons…Senior season (2008): A first-team All-SEC selection by both the media and the league's coaches after playing in all 13 games and posting a career-high 45.2-yard average on his 53 punts, the second-highest single-season mark in school history…Named UK's Special Teams Player of the Year…Dropped 13 of his punts inside the 20-yard line and placed second in the SEC with 23 touchbacks as the team's primary kickoff man…Was also the recipient of the program's Jerry Claiborne Award, given annually to the player who best exemplifies academic success and displays a team-oriented attitude throughout the season…Junior season (2007): Earned the first of his two consecutive UK Special Teams Player of the Year awards, averaging 39.8 yards on his 50 punts, landing a career-best 16 of them inside the 20, and also leading the SEC with 23 touchbacks on kickoffs…Sophomore season (2006): Averaged 39.2 yards on 50 punts, downing 13 of them inside the 20, and enjoyed his first full season of kickoff responsibilities, seeing 12 of them downed for touchbacks…Also engineered two successful fake punts his sophomore year that ultimately led to TD drives for the Wildcats, the first coming on a 17-yard rush vs. South Carolina (Oct. 7) and the other on a 10-yard pass vs. Clemson in the Music City Bowl (Dec. 29)…Freshman season (2005): Played in 11 games as a true freshman and punted a career-high 54 times for a 36.4-yard average.

PACKERS IN THE COLLEGE ALL-STAR GAME, VS. NFL ALL-STARS

■ From 1934-73 and 1975-76, the NFL participated in the annual Chicago College All-Star Game. The charitable contest, played during the preseason in either July or August, pitted the defending NFL champion against a group of standout collegiate players. An NFL players' strike cancelled the '74 matchup.

■ Soldier Field, even when the Bears were playing at Wrigley Field, served as the event's stage for all but two years. Dyche Stadium in Evanston, Ill., hosted the game in 1943 and '44.

■ Nearly every prominent Packers player, whether as a collegian, as a pro, or both, played in the game.

The Packers actually lost their first contest, in 1937, when Slingin' Sammy Baugh and the collegians shut out Green Bay, 6-0. Legend suggests the Packers chalked up the embarrassing loss to shiny new uniforms, ordered by Curly Lambeau, which didn't "breathe" in the August humidity.

Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 255 • Born: May 14, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 46/43 • Acquired: D1b-09

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Became the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-73) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first three seasons in the NFL, and has been voted a starter each of the last two years.

Started all 15 games in which he played for the second consecutive season in 2011, finishing with 69 tackles (49 solo), six sacks and three forced fumbles.

Also showed the diversity and development of his skill set in his third season, setting new career highs with three interceptions and nine passes defensed. The INT total was tied for the most by a Green Bay LB since 1984.

Scored a touchdown on a fumble return in 2009 and returned interceptions for TDs in both 2010 and 2011, becoming the first player in franchise history to score a defensive TD in each of his first three seasons in the league.

For his career, has played in 46 games with 43 starts in three seasons, registering 210 tackles (146 solo), 29½ sacks, four interceptions, 19 passes defensed, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

At the conclusion of 2011, his 29½ career sacks tied Tony Bennett's franchise record for the most sacks by a Packer in his first three seasons in the NFL.

Named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay LB to earn that honor since Tim Harris in 1989. Finished second to Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting in '10.

Was voted the 2010 NFL Defensive MVP by Pro Football Weekly and Defensive Player of the Year by Sporting News, while also earning NFC Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Committee of 101.

Finished fourth in the NFL with 13½ sacks in 2010, adding a career-high 83 tackles (55 solo), and helped the Packers rank tied for No. 2 in the NFL with 47 sacks as a team, Green Bay's highest finish in the category since sacks began to be recorded as a team stat in 1963.

Added a franchise single-postseason record 3½ sacks in the 2010 playoffs, and his career playoff total of 4½ sacks already ranks No. 2 in team history behind Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (eight). Also became the first Packer to record a sack in each of his first three playoff contests.

Became the only Packer (since 1982) to record a double-digit sack total in each of his first two seasons in the league.

Only NFL player to post 10-plus sacks and a defensive TD in each of his first two seasons in the league.

Burst onto the scene in 2009 with a franchise rookie-record 10 sacks, becoming the first Packers rookie since WR James Lofton in 1978 to be selected to the Pro Bowl.

Was selected to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team, earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors twice (Weeks 6 and 10), and finished third in the AP's NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year voting.

His 17 sacks in his first 20 games were the most by an NFL player to start a career, topping the previous mark of 16½ set by San Diego's Leslie O'Neal (1986, 1988) and the N.Y. Jets' John Abraham (2000-01).

Rookie campaign got off to a slow start when a hamstring injury sidelined him for the first three preseason games, but went on to play in all 16 regular-season games and the team's playoff contest in 2009.

Became the first player GM Ted Thompson moved up into the first round to select in the 10 drafts he had run to that point (five each with Seattle and Green Bay). The Packers acquired the pick from the Patriots, along with a fifth-round pick (No. 162 overall), in exchange for Green Bay's second-round choice (No. 41 overall) and two third-round selections (Nos. 73 and 83).

AT A GLANCE ...

- One of the most dynamic, impactful and versatile defenders in the NFL, he became the first Packer since RB John Brockington (1971-73) to earn Pro Bowl recognition in each of his first three seasons in the league.
- Is the only player in franchise history to score a defensive TD (interception or fumble return) in each of his first three seasons in the league.
- Named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay LB to earn that honor since Tim Harris in 1989. Finished second to Pittsburgh safety Troy Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting in 2010.
- Entered Southern California as a walk-on linebacker in 2004 and finished his career by earning second-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior in 2008.
- Father, Clay Jr., played linebacker for 19 seasons in the NFL with the Cleveland Browns (1978-93) and Atlanta Falcons (1994-96), and his grandfather, Clay Sr., played defensive end for four seasons with the San Francisco 49ers (1950, '53-55).
- When Clay took the field for the first time with the Packers in the '09 opener, the Matthews family became only the second one with three generations of NFL players, joining the Pynes (George Pyne Jr., George Pyne III and Jim Pyne).

2011 SEASON: Voted a Pro Bowl starter for the NFC for the second consecutive season and became the first Packer since Brockington (1971-73) to be named to the all-star game in each of his first three seasons in the NFL… Was again one of two OLBs to earn All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly/PFWA…Started each of the first 15 games before being rested in the regular-season finale with the No. 1 seed in the playoffs secured…For the season, tallied 69 tackles (49 solo), six sacks and three forced fumbles…Marked his third straight season leading the team in sacks and despite the lower total, his combined 38½ QB knockdowns and hurries still ranked No. 4 in the NFL according to STATS LLC…Also showed continued development in pass coverage, registering new career highs with nine passes defensed and three interceptions, one of which he returned for a TD…The TD return came at the N.Y. Giants in Week 13 when he intercepted QB Eli Manning and raced 38 yards down the sideline, becoming the first player in franchise history to score a defensive TD in each of his first three seasons in the league…Also joined Miami's Kevin Burnett as the only two NFL LBs to return an interception for a TD in each of the last two seasons…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Recorded five tackles (three solo, one for loss), and was an integral part of a short-yardage defensive stand to help preserve a victory in the season opener for the second consecutive year. On the game's final play, got clear of T Charles Brown and fought off a block from TE David Thomas to lay the initial hit on RB Mark Ingram at the goal line as time expired to preserve the 42-34 win…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Credited with two tackles (one solo), a career-high three passes defensed and his second sack of the season in the team's 24-3 win. Recorded his first pass defensed when he dropped in coverage against TE Lance Kendricks in the first quarter. Broke hard on QB Sam Bradford's throw and nearly intercepted the ball in the right flat, but was shoved by Kendricks at the last moment, jarring the ball out of his grasp. Registered his first sack since Week 2 on the Rams' final drive of the game after he lined up on the inside and darted past LG Jacob Bell to drop Bradford for a 7-yard loss that resulted in a turnover on downs and allowed Green Bay to run out the remaining clock…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Posted six tackles (five solo) and a season-high two sacks, the sixth multi-sack game of his career. Sacked QB Christian Ponder on the Vikings' opening drive of the game, also jarring the ball loose, but it was recovered by Minnesota. Second sack came in the third quarter when he ripped his way past RT Phil Loadholt and chased Ponder before slamming him down for an 11-yard loss on a drive that ended with a turnover on downs...At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Had arguably his best all-around performance of the season, making the kind of game-changing plays that have defined his young career with the Packers. Finished with three tackles (two solo) and forced two turnovers with a sack-fumble and his then-career-high second INT. Became the first Packers LB since Nick Barnett in 2003 to record an INT in back-to-back games when he intercepted Manning on the first play of the second quarter, returning it 38 yards for a TD, his second career INT-TD. On the play, stepped in front of Manning's pass intended for RB Ahmad Bradshaw in the right flat, catching the ball in stride and going untouched down the sideline to give Green Bay its first lead, 14-10. With the return, became the first player in franchise history to score a defensive TD (fumble or INT return) in each of his first three seasons in the league and tied Mike Douglass for first place in franchise history for TD returns among LBs. Later in the quarter, recorded his sixth sack of the season when he fought past RT Kareem McKenzie and hit Manning, forcing the ball out as the QB cocked his arm back to release it. NT B.J. Raji picked up the ball and upon review, it was ruled a fumble, robbing the Giants of yet another possession. With the sack, tied LB Tony Bennett's team record for most sacks in his first three seasons with 29½…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Matched his career high with nine tackles (six solo) and a QB hit. Stayed home on an end-around to RB Dexter McCluster in the second quarter, forcing the elusive RB to the inside where LB D.J. Smith and DE C.J. Wilson tackled him for a 1-yard loss. Also maintained close coverage on McCluster on a third-down red-zone play in the fourth quarter, tackling him at the Packers' 2-yard line to force a FG…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Once again made a series of impactful plays during the game, finishing with eight tackles (six solo, one for loss), a QB hit, a forced fumble, and added to his career high with his third INT of the season. Tackle for loss and forced fumble came when he blew up a second-quarter screen pass from QB Josh McCown to RB Kahlil Bell. On the play, had dropped in coverage but diagnosed the screen, racing forward and slipping past G Chris Spencer to hit Bell for a 3-yard loss and jar the ball loose, but it was recovered by McCown. Six plays later in the drive, he made another turnover play when he noticed FB Tyler Clutts releasing behind him into the right flat and stepped back from his rush, jumping to intercept McCown who tried to complete it to the FB, his third INT of the season…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Was listed as a gameday inactive as the coaching staff chose to rest him in advance of the postseason with the team having already clinched the NFC's No. 1 seed. Snapped a streak of 29 consecutive starts including playoffs that dated back to Week 6 of the 2010 regular season.

2010: Appeared in 15 games, starting all of those at LOLB, along with four starts there in the postseason…Selected as a Pro Bowl starter for the first time…Named first team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2010, the first Green Bay linebacker to earn that honor since Harris in 1989…Finished second to Polamalu in the AP's Defensive Player of the Year voting…Was named NFL Defensive MVP by Pro Football Weekly, and also earned NFC Defensive Player of the Year recognition from Sporting News and the Committee of 101…Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly…Led the team with 13½ sacks, which ranked No. 2 in the NFC and No. 4 in the NFL…Posted a career-high 83 tackles (55 solo), good for fourth on the team, and led the team with 40 QB hits…Added his first career INT, which he returned for a TD, four passes defensed and two forced fumbles…Led the defense with 3½ sacks in the playoffs, a franchise record for a single postseason…Added 20 tackles (18 solo), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and a pass defensed…Didn't play at all during the preseason due to a left hamstring injury sustained in the Family Night Scrimmage on Aug. 7…A re-aggravation of that injury would force him to miss the Week 6 contest vs. Miami…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Led the team with a career-high three sacks and a career-best nine tackles (eight solo). Added four QB hits, a forced fumble and a pass defensed. Dropped QB Kevin Kolb for an 8-yard loss on the Eagles' third play, and sacked the QB once more in the second quarter, forcing a fumble that went out of bounds on third down; Kolb sustained a concussion on the play. Added a sack of QB Michael Vick in the third quarter, and then on a fourth-and-1 on the final drive of the game, dove to wrap up Vick for no gain with assistance from LBs Nick Barnett and Brad Jones to preserve the 27-20 win…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Posted his second straight three-sack game, becoming the first player in team history (since 1982) to do so. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the performance, which included seven tackles (four solo). Set a team record for the most sacks in the first two games of a season with six. Dropped QB Trent Edwards for a 13-yard loss on third down of the Bills' opening possession, and added two more sacks in the second half to total 33 yards in losses, the most by a Packer since White's 35 yards on two sacks vs. Minnesota (Oct. 22, 1995)… At Washington (Oct. 10): Recorded six tackles (five solo), 1½ sacks, six QB hits and a pass defensed, but injured his left hamstring late in the third quarter and did not return. Split a 7-yard sack with NT B.J. Raji in the second quarter and dropped QB Donovan McNabb for a 2-yard loss on the Redskins' next possession…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Tested his injured hamstring in pregame warmups after not practicing all week, but was inactive for the first time in his career…

Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Returned to action, playing every snap and registering six tackles (one solo), two QB hits and a pressure…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Posted five tackles (four solo), a sack, three QB hits and two pressures. Recorded a 6-yard sack of former college teammate Mark Sanchez late in the fourth quarter on third down, using a spin move inside to beat veteran T Damien Woody…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time on the season with five tackles (three solo), a sack, three QB hits and a 62-yard TD return on his first career interception. Dropped QB Jon Kitna for an 8-yard loss early in the second quarter, giving him 10½ sacks on the season to become the first player in team history to record 10-plus sacks in each of his first two seasons. In the fourth quarter, intercepted a Kitna pass near the line after it was tipped by LB A.J. Hawk and returned it 62 yards for a TD. With the score, became first player in NFL history to post a double-digit sack total and a defensive score in each of his first two seasons in the league…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Had six tackles (five solo), including one for a loss, two QB hits, three QB pressures and a forced fumble. With Green Bay holding a 31-17 lead late in the third quarter, hustled down the field after a 21-yard run by RB Brandon Jacobs to punch the ball from his arms near the sideline, a fumble that was recovered by S Nick Collins at the Green Bay 27…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Recorded four tackles (three solo), a sack and two QB hurries. Sacked QB Jay Cutler for a 6-yard loss in the fourth quarter, giving him 13½ sacks for the season, the most since DE Aaron Kampman's 15½ in 2006…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Posted three tackles (all solo), a sack and four QB hits. Sacked Vick for a 12-yard loss early in the second quarter to force a punt...At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Registered a playoff career-high two sacks, along with five tackles (four solo), two QB hits and a fumble recovery. Became the first Packer since Kampman (at Philadelphia, Jan. 11, 2004) to post two sacks in a playoff game. Brought down QB Matt Ryan for a 4-yard loss on the Falcons' second possession, and sacked him once more for a 9-yard loss late in the first half. Recovered a Ryan fumble in the fourth quarter…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Recorded a postseason career-high eight tackles (six solo), two QB hits and a half-sack. Split a 5-yard sack of Cutler with DE Cullen Jenkins in the first quarter to force a punt…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Despite not recording at least a half-sack for the first time in his playoff career, made arguably the game's most impactful play. On the first play of the fourth quarter, after diagnosing a run to his side, instructed DE Ryan Pickett to force the play to the outside. Slipped behind a block attempt by TE David Johnson to meet RB Rashard Mendenhall, hitting him high on his right side, almost directly on the ball. Jarred the ball loose before finishing the hit by taking Mendenhall to the ground. LB Desmond Bishop recovered the ball at the Green Bay 38 and rumbled 7 yards before being tackled. The Packers cashed in on the turnover with an 8-yard TD pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Greg Jennings eight plays later, extending their lead to 28-17, ultimately the difference in the game. Finished the contest with four tackles (all solo), including one for a loss, two QB hits and a pass defensed.

2009: Played in all 16 games with 13 starts at ROLB, and started the team's playoff contest…Was named to the Pro Bowl, becoming the first Packers rookie since Lofton in 1978 to earn the recognition…Was also selected to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team…Finished third in AP Defensive Rookie of the Year voting…Led the team with 10 sacks, the most by a Packers rookie in franchise history since stat became official in 1982…Became only the second Green Bay rookie to lead the team in sacks (Harris, 1986)…His 10 sacks ranked second in the NFL among rookies behind only Washington's Brian Orakpo (11.0)… Led the team with three fumble recoveries, which led all NFL rookies, including one he returned for a TD…Registered 58 tackles (42 solo), a forced fumble, six passes defensed, and a team-leading 35 QB hits…Sidelined for first three preseason games due to an injured hamstring that he aggravated in Aug. 6 night practice…Originally suffered hamstring injury during USC Pro Day and aggravated in May during OTAs…Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20): Posted the first sack of his career when he brought down QB Carson Palmer for a 9-yard loss in the second quarter… At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Started the first game of his career, opening at ROLB as team came out in nickel package. Late in the second quarter, stripped Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson of the ball on a rushing play and went untouched down the right sideline for a 42-yard TD; the score was the longest fumble return for a TD by a Packers rookie in franchise history…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Started for the first time in Green Bay's base defense at ROLB, and posted a season-high two sacks, the first Green Bay rookie to do so since Vonnie Holliday (Nov. 15, 1998, at N.Y. Giants). Added five tackles (four solo), and was in on two stops for a loss. Earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors, voted on by fans at NFL.com, for his performance…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Recovered two fumbles to become the first Packers rookie to do so in a game since DB Val Joe Walker on Nov. 26, 1953, at Detroit. Second one came on a CB Charles Woodson sack/forced fumble of QB Tony Romo; scooped ball up at the Dallas 7 and returned 4 yards to the 3 to set up a Rodgers TD pass to TE Spencer Havner three plays later. Also posted sack of Romo in the second quarter when he beat veteran LT Flozell Adams. Earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Week honors for the performance…At Baltimore (Dec. 7): Matched his career high with two sacks and added six tackles (all solo) and three QB hits on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week recognition… At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Recorded a season-high eight tackles (six solo), two sacks, three QB hits, two pressures and a tackle for loss. Became first rookie in team history to post three two-sack games in a season, and it gave him a sack in four straight games, a team rookie record…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Led the LBs with seven tackles (five solo) and added three QB hits and two pressures. Beat LT Jeremy Bridges off the edge to sack QB Kurt Warner on first-quarter flea-flicker; also forced a fumble on the sack, but Bridges recovered. With the Packers trailing 17-0 early in the second quarter and the Cardinals threatening again, recovered fumble by WR Larry Fitzgerald that was forced by Woodson at the Arizona 19; returned the fumble 29 yards out to Green Bay's 48. Became first NFL rookie in playoff history (since sacks became a stat in 1982) to record a sack, a forced fumble and a defensive fumble recovery in the same game…2009 Draft: Drafted by the Packers with the second of two first-round picks (No. 26 overall), the first time Green Bay had two selections in the first round since 1993. Became the first player Thompson moved up into the first round to select in the 10 drafts he had run to that point (five each with Seattle and Green Bay). Was the third LB selected in the first round by the Packers in the last seven drafts, joining Barnett (2003) and Hawk (2006). Became the first LB ever selected out of Southern California by Green Bay in the first round.

COLLEGE: Former walk-on went on to play in four straight Rose Bowls and the 2009 Senior Bowl…Finished his career with 96 tackles, including 5½ sacks and 13½ tackles for loss in 50 games played with 10 starts… Graduated with a degree in international relations…Senior season (2008): Earned second-team All-Pac-10 honors and honorable mention All-American honors from Pro Football Weekly in his only season as a starter…Opened the final 10 games of the season as a stand-up RDE, and was available to play any of the LB positions…Played in all 13 games and registered 56 tackles, including nine for loss with 4½ sacks, two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles, two passes defensed and a blocked FG…Even with his increased role on defense, continued to be a valuable contributor on special teams, winning USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award for the third straight season… Won the Trojans' Co-Lifter of the Year Award…Played in the Senior Bowl for the South squad…Had two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble to go along with his game-best six tackles, including a sack, at Virginia (Aug. 30)…Posted six tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a pass defensed vs. Ohio State (Sept. 13)…Recorded five tackles and a collegiate career-high 1½ sacks at Arizona (Oct. 25)…Junior season (2007): Played in all 13 games with two starts, serving as a key backup and special-teams contributor… Won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year award for the second consecutive season…Posted 17 tackles, three for loss, two forced fumbles, one pass defensed and two blocked FGs…Registered three tackles, including one for a loss, and forced two fumbles in Rose Bowl victory vs. Illinois (Jan. 1)…Sophomore season (2006): Earned a scholarship in the fall and served as a key contributor on special teams, winning USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award…Was also a second-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection…Played in all 13 games and registered 15 tackles and a sack…Posted season-high four tackles and the first sack of his career at Stanford (Nov. 4)…Redshirt freshman season (2005): Played in 12 of 13 games, missing the season opener at Hawaii (Sept. 3) with a sprained elbow…Posted 12 tackles on defense and also saw time on special teams.

Fifth NFL Season
First Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 Wt: 315 • Born: August 19, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 47/4 • Acquired: FA-12

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Signed with Green Bay as a free agent on May 23, 2012.

Played each of the past four seasons (2008-11) with Miami after being drafted by the Dolphins in the second round (32nd overall) of the 2008 NFL Draft.

Appeared in 47 games with four starts during his time with the Dolphins, recording 66 tackles (50 solo), 3½ sacks, an interception he returned for a TD, eight passes defensed and two fumble recoveries.

His best season came in 2009 when he appeared in all 16 contests with one start and recorded career highs in tackles (33), sacks (2½) and passes defensed (three).

As a rookie in '08, picked off Jets QB Brett Favre in the regular-season finale and returned the interception 25 yards for a TD, becoming the first Miami rookie since LB Zach Thomas (Nov. 17, 1996) to post an INT return for a TD.

Played in 10 games with one start in 2011 and registered four tackles (three solo) and two passes defensed.

Was limited to just five games in 2010 after spending the first 11 contests on the reserve/non-football injury list with an Achilles injury.

OVERTIME PROCEDURES

MODIFIED SUDDEN DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. Beginning in 2012, the system has been expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games.

Modified sudden death guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts, or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

REGULAR SEASON

- At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will continue for one 15-minute period or until there is a score. Each team has two timeouts. General timing provisions that apply for the fourth quarter will prevail. Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- If the score is tied at the end of the 15-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

POSTSEASON

- At the end of regulation time the Referee will immediately toss coin at center of field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal, or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the Referee for a palpably unfair act. Each team has three timeouts per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Try is not attempted if touchdown scored. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Experienced DT who re-signed with the Packers during the 2012 offseason following a four-year stint with the Indianapolis Colts that saw him appear in 40 games with 26 starts during that span.

Initially entered the league as a non-drafted free agent with Green Bay in May 2007 and was the lone undrafted player to make the team's opening-day roster that season.

Spent the 2007 season and all of 2008 training camp with the Packers before being released at the final roster reduction, thus beginning his tenure with the Colts.

Began his Colts career as a rotational player on the defensive line, but eventually assumed a starting role between 2009-10, making 24 of his 26 starts over those two seasons.

Started the first 14 games of 2010 at DT, and finished the season with 38 tackles.

Had a career season in his first as a regular starter in 2009 when the team went 14-2 during the regular season and ultimately gained entry to Super Bowl XLIV. Opened 10 games at defensive tackle and posted a career-high 66 tackles and half a sack.

Also started all three of the team's postseason contests that year, including the Super Bowl.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Veteran free agent who re-signed with Green Bay on March 23, 2012.
- Originally entered the NFL with the club as a non-drafted free agent in 2007, becoming the only undrafted rookie to make the Packers' opening-day roster out of training camp that season.
- Spent the 2008-11 seasons as a member of the Indianapolis Colts, playing in 40 games with 26 starts and was a member of the 2009 team that earned a bid in Super Bowl XLIV.
- Last name is pronounced MYEWR.
- Started four years at Kent State, the first three at defensive tackle before switching to defensive end as a senior.

2011 SEASON: Signed with the St. Louis Rams as an unrestricted free agent on Aug. 2, following the resolution of the NFL lockout in the spring/summer of 2011…Went through training camp and the preseason with St. Louis before being released at the final roster reduction on Sept. 3…Spent the first month of the season out of football, before re-signing with the Indianapolis Colts on Oct. 10, rejoining the club he'd spent the previous three seasons as a member of…Saw action in four games during the regular season, making two starts and collecting 11 tackles (eight solo)…Started the last two of the four games before being waived on Nov. 9, and spending the rest of the season without a team…At Cincinnati (Oct. 16): Made his 2011 season debut, recording three tackles (two solo)…At Tennessee (Oct. 30): Was promoted to the starting lineup and finished with two tackles (one solo)…Vs. Atlanta (Nov. 6): Started for the second consecutive game and posted a season-high four tackles (three solo).

2010: Entered the season as a full-time starter for the first time in his career, opening the first 14 games of the season at DT before suffering a chest injury in Week 15 and landing on the inactive list for the final two games of the regular season…Returned to start the team's AFC Wild Card playoff game vs. the N.Y. Jets…Finished the season with 38 tackles (29 solo)…At Houston (Sept. 12): Opened the season as the starter at DT, making three tackles (two solo)…Vs. Kansas City (Oct. 10): Finished with two tackles (both solo) as part of a defense that did not allow a TD for the only time all season and yielded just 261 net yards in what was a 19-9 Colts victory…At New England (Nov. 21): Tallied a season-high five tackles (four solo).

2009: Enjoyed the most productive season of his career, opening the year as part of the defensive-line rotation before working his way into the starting lineup at RDT in Week 7…Went on to start the ensuing 10 games and post a career-high 66 tackles (54 solo) and a half-sack (the first of his career)…His tackle total was tops among Colts defensive linemen…Also started each of the team's three playoff contests, helping the franchise secure the AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLIV…At St. Louis (Oct. 25): Was elevated into the starting lineup at RDT following the team's Week 6 bye. Made a splash in his first career start, collecting eight tackles (all solo) and a half-sack of QB Marc Bulger…At Houston (Nov. 29): Started and posted a career-high 10 tackles (eight solo)…Vs. Baltimore (AFC Divisional, Jan. 16): Made his postseason debut, starting at RDT and finishing with a team-high seven tackles (five solo). Part of what was a dominant performance by the Colts defense, one that saw them limit Baltimore to just 12 first downs and a field goal in a 20-3 Indianapolis victory…Vs. New Orleans (Super Bowl XLIV, Feb. 7): Started the game and finished with one solo tackle in what was a hard-fought losing effort.

2008: Participated in the entire offseason workout program, training camp and preseason with Green Bay, but was waived at the final roster reduction on Aug. 30…Claimed

PLANE PIONEERS

The Packers in 1940 became the first NFL team to fly to a road game. Fearing an air disaster would wipe out the entire team, the NFL forced the Packers to split the squad, and fly on two DC-3's (at right, Coach Curly Lambeau posed with half his team and their plane at Austin Straubel Field before a road trip in the early 1940s).

In those days, many fans turned out to see the humongous plane, more than the team. Players also took out life insurance policies. Al Carmichael and Howie Ferguson, for instance, each took out $50,000 policies, making each other the beneficiary. Players dined on food such as cocktail-grilled sirloin.

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 294 • Born: June 26, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 9/0 • Acquired: D2-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Powerful defensive end and inside pass rusher who will look to bounce back from a series of injuries that have plagued him throughout his first two professional seasons.

Has been limited to just nine games over the course of two years, missing all but two games of his rookie campaign with abdominal/shoulder injuries and then suffering a knee sprain in training camp that sidelined him until midseason in 2011.

In the small sample of playing time when healthy his rookie year, showed tremendous potential by recording five tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

Injured his right shoulder in Week 5 and was eventually placed on injured reserve in 2010.

Made the transition to end after starting his last two seasons at Purdue at left defensive tackle.

2011 SEASON: Suffered a knee injury during a non-contact drill early in training camp that required surgery and kept him out of action for the first nine games of the regular season…Returned to the lineup for the Week 11 matchup with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and went on to play in subsequent six games and the team's postseason contest, finishing with five tackles (three solo)…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Made his season debut, his first action since Week 5 of 2010. Played on defense, seeing time as a situational rusher on passing downs, but did not record any statistics…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Appeared on 22 plays and had his most productive game of 2011, recording three tackles (two solo)…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Made his postseason debut, appearing on 17 plays and posting one solo tackle.

2010: Due to injuries, played in just two games as a reserve end and nickel pass rusher, recording five tackles (two solo), a sack and a forced fumble…Missed the first three games with an abdominal injury, made his NFL debut in Week 4, and then the following week injured his right shoulder and was placed on injured reserve Oct. 26…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): In first NFL action, played 26 snaps on defense and caused a turnover with a hit 3 yards in the backfield on Lions RB Jahvid Best, forcing a fumble that DT Ryan Pickett recovered. The turnover led to a TE Jermichael Finley TD reception that put the Packers ahead to stay, 14-7…At Washington (Oct. 10): After Pickett left with a sprained ankle on the first series, played 53 snaps and had five tackles (two solo), including a sack of QB Donovan McNabb for a 9-yard loss in the third quarter. Also was stout against the run, helping the defense hold the Redskins to just 51 rushing yards on 21 carries (2.4 avg.), with a long of 8…2010 Draft: Taken in the second round (No. 56 overall), the first Purdue player drafted by the Packers since RB Watson (seventh round, 1998) and the highest taken by Green Bay since G/LB Bettis in 1955 (fifth overall pick). Also the highest-drafted defensive player from Purdue since OLB Anthony Spencer was selected 26th overall by Dallas in 2007.

AT A GLANCE …

Fifth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 217 • Born: May 31, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 61/15 • Acquired: D2a-08

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Registered career bests in every category in 2011, catching 68 passes for 1,263 yards (18.6 avg.) and 15 TDs.

Ranked No. 3 in the league with the 15 TD catches, and became only the third player in team annals to hit that mark, joining WRs Sterling Sharpe (18 in 1994) and Don Hutson (17 in 1942).

His 18.6-yard receiving average ranked No. 2 in the league in 2011 among players with 50-plus catches and No. 5 in single-season franchise history.

Has a 32.1-yard average on his 21 career TD receptions, good for No. 3 in the league among active players with 20 or more TD catches.

Registered three TD catches of 80-plus yards from Week 16 of 2010 through Week 6 of 2011, becoming the first NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to post three 80-yard TD grabs over an eight-game span in the regular season.

Posted two 80-yard TD catches in 2011, which tied the single-season franchise mark held by four other players.

Became just the fourth receiver in Super Bowl history to register nine-plus receptions for at least 140 yards and a TD when he hauled in nine passes for 140 yards and a score vs. Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV.

Tied WR Greg Jennings for the team lead with a league-high 21 catches in the 2010 playoffs, which topped WRs Robert Brooks (17 in 1995) and Antonio Freeman (17 in 1997) for the franchise postseason mark. The tandem became the first WR teammate duo in NFL history to each post 20 receptions in the same postseason.

Posted a kick return of 45-plus yards in each of his first three seasons in Green Bay (2008-10), becoming the first Green Bay player to do so since Corey Harris (1992-94).

Has played in 61 of a possible 64 games during his career (67 of 70 including playoffs).

Signed a contract extension with the club on Oct. 1, 2011.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Posted career highs in every receiving category in 2011, catching 68 passes for 1,263 yards (18.6 avg.) and 15 TDs on his way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate.
- Became only the third player in franchise history to catch 15 or more TDs, joining WRs Sterling Sharpe (18 in 1994) and Don Hutson (17 in 1942).
- Ranks No. 3 among active NFL players (min. 20 TD catches) with a 32.1-yard average on his 21 career TD receptions.
- Led the team with nine receptions for 140 yards and a TD in the Super Bowl XLV win over Pittsburgh, becoming just the fourth NFL wide receiver ever to post nine catches for 140 yards and a score in a Super Bowl.
- Became the first NFL player since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to post three 80-yard TD grabs over an eight-game span in the regular season (Week 16, 2010-Week 6, 2011).
- Consensus All-America selection at Kansas State and one of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award in 2007.
- Went from being a walk-on safety as a freshman in 2003 to posting the most prolific single season in Kansas State history with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards in '07.

2011 SEASON: Played in all 16 games for the second straight season with a career-high nine starts, while also playing in the team's playoff contest…Enjoyed a breakout season that saw him post career highs in receptions (68), receiving yards (1,263) and TD catches (15) on his way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate…His TD total ranked No. 3 in the NFL in 2011 and was also good for No. 3 in franchise history behind Sharpe (18 in 1994) and Hutson (17 in 1942)…The yardage output ranked No. 9 in the NFL... Finished No. 2 in the NFL (min. 50 catches) with an 18.6-yard receiving average, trailing only Giants WR Victor Cruz (18.7)…His 18.6-yard average was the best by a Packer since James Lofton's 22.0-yard average in 1984 and was good for No. 5 in franchise history (min. 50 receptions)…Averaged 33.8 yards per touchdown catch on the season, which was good for No. 5 in the NFL among players with at least seven TD grabs…Posted two TD receptions of at least 80 yards, which tied four other players for the single-season franchise mark…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Made his lone reception on the afternoon a memorable one, an 84-yard catch-and-run TD with just over two minutes remaining to extend Green Bay's lead to 30-16 in the 30-23 win…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Posted a career-long 93-yard catch-and-run for a TD in the second quarter, the fourth-longest catch in franchise history. The play made him the first NFL player since the 1970 merger to register three catches of at least 80 yards over an eight-game span in the regular season. Added an 11-yard catch to register his second career 100-yard game with two grabs for 104 yards (52.0 avg.)…At San Diego (Nov. 6): Led the team with five receptions for 105 yards (21.0 avg.) and a score, his second 100-yard outing in three games…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Posted the first multi-TD-catch game of his career and paced the club with five catches for 63 yards (12.6 avg.). His yardage total helped him eclipse his previous career high of 582 yards in 2010…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Continued his torrid stretch with six catches for 123 yards (20.5 avg.) and two TDs. Became the first Packer to register multiple TD catches in back-to-back games since TE Tyrone Davis in 1998 and was the first WR to do so since Antonio Freeman in 1996…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Caught four passes for 94 yards (23.5 avg.) with his most meaningful play coming on the final drive of the game. With the contest tied at 35, ran a stop-and-go double move on CB Will Blackmon along the left sideline before hauling in a 27-yard pass at the New York 29 to help set up Mason Crosby's game-winning 31-yard FG as time expired…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Recorded a team-high six grabs for 115 yards (19.2 avg.) and two TDs as he surpassed the 1,000-yard receiving plateau for the first time in his career...Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Capped off the finest season of his career in style, posting regular-season career highs with nine catches for 162 yards (18.0 avg.) and three TDs. Became just the second player in franchise history to register at least eight receptions/150 receiving yards/three receiving TDs in a game, joining WR Javon Walker (at Indianapolis, Sept. 26, 2004).

2010: Played in all 16 contests for the first time in his career with four starts…Posted 45 catches, good for fourth on the team, for 582 yards, which ranked third on the team…Recorded two TD catches for the third straight season…Led the team with a 22.5-yard average on 22 kickoff returns, with a long of 51…Was especially productive over the final 12 games with 39 receptions for 529 yards (13.6 avg.), including all six of his 25-yard catches…Tied Jennings for the team lead with a league-high 21 catches in the playoffs, which topped Brooks (17 in 1995) and Freeman (17 in 1997) for the franchise postseason mark…His 286 receiving yards in the playoffs ranked No. 3 in franchise postseason history behind only Freeman (308 in 1997) and Jennings (303 in 2010)…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Posted a 31.2-yard average on five kickoff returns, the best mark by a Packer with five-plus returns since WR Roell Preston's 32.0-yard average on eight returns vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5, 1998). Had returns of 51 and 40 yards in the second half, the first time in his career he had two 40-yard returns in the same game, and was awarded a game ball by the coaching staff…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Posted a season-high five catches for 55 yards (11.0 avg.). Made a clutch reception in the fourth quarter, hauling in a 14-yard pass over the middle to convert a third down. The catch helped set up Mason Crosby's second FG, a 41-yarder that put Green Bay up 6-0 with just under four minutes left…At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Matched his season high in receptions with five for 61 yards (12.2 avg.), including a 10-yard bullet in the back of the end zone on fourth down from QB Aaron Rodgers with 56 seconds remaining that tied the game at 17…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Caught four passes for a then-career-high 124 yards (31.0 avg.), highlighted by a season-long 80-yard reception for a TD in the first quarter. Beat S Antrel Rolle down the middle of the field and streaked into the end zone…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started and posted eight receptions for 79 yards (9.9 avg.) and a TD. Four of the grabs came on third down to pick up first downs, including an 8-yard catch to the Atlanta 8 that converted a third-and-3. Punctuated that drive with a 6-yard TD reception…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Led the team with a career-high nine receptions for 140 yards (15.6 avg.) and a TD. Became just the fourth receiver in Super Bowl history with nine-plus receptions for at least 140 yards and a TD, joining Washington's Ricky Sanders (XXII), San Francisco's Jerry Rice (Super Bowl XXIII and XXIX) and New England's Deion Branch (XXXVIII). The nine catches tied RB Edgar Bennett (at Dal., Jan. 16, 1994) and Freeman (vs. Den., Jan 25, 1998) for the most by a Packer in the postseason and tied the third-highest total by any NFL player in a Super Bowl. His yardage total was the most by an individual in any of the franchise's five Super Bowl appearances and was the fourth-highest single-game total in team postseason history. Scored his TD from 29 yards out on a third-and-1 on the offense's second drive of the game when he ran a go route along the right sideline against CB William Gay, jumping up to haul the ball in at the 3-yard line before falling into the end zone.

2009: Played in 13 games and posted 22 receptions for 320 yards (14.5 avg.) and two TDs...Also returned 25 kickoffs for a 25.4-yard average and 17 punts for a 5.3-yard average... His kickoff-return average ranked sixth in the NFC and 11th in the NFL...Inactive at Cleveland (Oct. 25), vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1) and at Tampa Bay (Nov. 8) with a knee injury sustained vs. Detroit (Oct. 18)…At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Caught three passes for 47 yards (15.7 avg.), including a short pass over the middle in the fourth quarter that he took 33 yards for a TD…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Returned one kickoff for 29 yards, but sustained a sprained knee on his first punt return of the game, a muffed catch that he recovered at the Green Bay 22; the injury sidelined him for the remainder of the game and the next three contests…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Returned from knee injury and posted season-high four receptions for 32 yards (8.0 avg.)…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Caught four passes for a season-high 71 yards (17.8 avg.)…At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted the longest catch of his career to that point when he beat CB Michael Adams deep down the middle and made a leaping 51-yard grab at Arizona's 1-yard line; Rodgers took it in for a TD on a QB sneak on the next play. Returned three kickoffs for a 29.7-yard average, highlighted by a career-long 54-yard return late in the fourth quarter. Became first Packer since AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to post a 50-plus yard reception and a 50-plus yard kickoff return in the same game…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Caught an 11-yard TD pass late in the third quarter, making the grab at Arizona's 5 from a scrambling Rodgers and then beating CB Bryant McFadden to the end zone.

2008: Played in all 16 games with two starts, the only rookie on the roster to appear in every contest…Finished fourth on the team with 33 receptions for 366 yards (11.1 avg.) and two TDs…Also returned 11 kickoffs for 208 yards (18.9 avg.)...Was named the team's Rookie of the Year by the Packers Hall of Fame…At Detroit (Sept. 14): Caught first NFL pass, a 29-yard TD reception from Rodgers in the second quarter…Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Established season high with four receptions for 42 yards (10.5 avg.), all of them coming in the second half. Would match reception total twice in the next three games…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Started first career game as Packers opened up in three-WR set and had two catches for 34 yards (17.0 avg.). Posted 40-yard kickoff return in the second quarter…2008 Draft: Selected in the second round (36th overall), the third WR taken. The choice was obtained from the N.Y. Jets, along with a fourth-round selection (113th overall), in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (30th overall). Was only the third player from Kansas State ever selected by the Packers, and the highest selection since HB Veryl Switzer (fourth overall) in 1954. Became first top-40 selection from KSU in the draft since CB Terence Newman was selected fifth overall by the Dallas Cowboys in 2003.

COLLEGE: Went from being a walk-on safety as a freshman in 2003 to posting the most prolific single season in Kansas State history with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards in 2007 on his way to earning consensus All-America honors…Finished career second in school history with 206 receptions for 2,822 yards, trailing only Kevin Lockett, who caught 217 passes for 3,032 yards and went on to be selected in the second round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1997…Became just the fifth player in school history to eclipse the 2,000-yard career receiving mark and tied Quincy Morgan's school record for 100-yard receiving games with 10…Showed his versatility by returning two of his six career punt returns for TDs, an 89-yarder and a 92-yarder, and threw two passes as a senior, both for TDs…Made the switch to WR in the spring of 2005, and made an immediate impact as he led the team in receptions, yards and receiving TDs as a sophomore…Majored in social science… Senior season (2007): A consensus All-American who was named to nine first-team All-America squads…Swept first-team All-Big 12 honors from The Associated Press, the league's coaches, Rivals.com, the Kansas City Star and the Waco Tribune-Herald…One of three finalists for the Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the top receiver in the nation…Also earned honorable mention recognition from the league's coaches as a punt/kick returner despite returning just five punts on the season…Started all 12 games and posted school single-season records with 122 receptions for 1,606 yards (13.2 avg.)…Registered a school-record eight 100-yard receiving games…Caught eight or more passes in 10 of 12 games and 10 or more passes six times…Ranked second in the Big 12 and nationally in receptions and yardage…Was one of just two receivers in the country to record 1,600 yards receiving, joining Michael Crabtree of Texas Tech…Returned five punts for 264 yards (52.8 avg.) and two TDs…Broke his own school single-game receiving yardage record set earlier in the season with 214 yards on 14 grabs (15.3 avg.) at Iowa State (Nov. 3)…Tied his own single-game record for receptions with 15 catches for 165 yards (11.0 avg.) and a TD at Fresno State (Nov. 24) in the final game of his career…Junior season (2006): Played in all 13 games with nine starts despite battling a knee injury all season…Still managed to lead the Wildcats in both receptions and receiving yards for the second straight year…Caught 39 passes for 547 yards (14.0 avg.) and a TD…Posted four or more receptions in seven games…Sophomore season (2005): Started all

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: : 6-4 Wt: 319 • Born: September 29, 1988 • NFL Games Played/Started: 16/13 • Acquired: D5b-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Seeing his first action as a pro, he played in all 16 contests with 13 starts in 2011, opening 10 games at LT and three at RT with veteran Chad Clifton and second-year man Bryan Bulaga missing time due to injuries.

His 13 starts in 2011 were the most by a Packers offensive tackle.

Part of a prolific offense in '11 that set franchise records for points (560), total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14).

Was listed as a gameday inactive for the first 14 contests of his rookie season in 2010 before being placed on season-ending injured reserve due to a back injury sustained in practice.

Was selected by the Packers with the final pick of the fifth round (No. 169 overall), a compensatory choice awarded to the team for the loss of DT Colin Cole.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Played in all 16 games with 13 starts in 2011, opening 10 contests at LT and three at RT.
- His 13 starts in '11 were the most by a Green Bay offensive tackle.
- Gameday inactive (healthy scratch) for the first 14 contests of his rookie campaign before sustaining a back injury in Dec. 22 practice. Was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 31, 2010.
- A three-year starter at left tackle for the Horned Frogs, he earned first-team All-Mountain West honors as a senior.
- As a senior, was a member of a TCU squad that posted the school's first undefeated regular season (12-0) in 71 years as well as its first-ever BCS bowl game appearance.
- Part of a Horned Frogs offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring (38.3 points per game), total offense (456.7 yards per game), and rushing (239.5 yards per game) in 2009.
- His cousin, Robert Newhouse, played fullback for the Dallas Cowboys for 12 seasons (1972-83) and ranks fifth on the franchise's all-time rushing list.

2011 SEASON: Expected to provide depth at tackle in his second season, he appeared in all 16 games with 13 starts, opening 10 at LT and three at RT…Also played in team's playoff contest…Was pressed into starting duty with injuries to Clifton and Bulaga…His 13 starts were the most by a Green Bay offensive tackle on the season…Helped the offense set franchise records for points (560), also the second most in NFL history, total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14)…Blocked for QB Aaron Rodgers as he was named the NFL Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press after setting an NFL single-season record for passer rating (122.5) and team marks for touchdown passes (45), passing yards (4,643), yards per attempt (9.25), completion percentage (68.3) and 300-yard games (eight)…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Made his pro debut, seeing action on special teams as part of the placement-protection units…At Chicago (Sept. 25): Came on in relief of an injured Bulaga (knee) at RT just eight minutes into the game and played there the remainder of the contest. Helped the line allow just two sacks on what was a 392-yard day for the offense…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Made his first career start, opening at RT in place of Bulaga. Blocked for Rodgers as he threw for a regular-season career-high 408 yards and four TDs and the offense racked up 507 yards. Was matched up with AP Defensive Rookie of the Year Von Miller for much of the day…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Started for the second straight week at RT, but made the difficult in-game switch to LT on the second possession when Clifton sustained a significant hamstring injury. Rookie Derek Sherrod came in at RT, and with the Packers trailing 14-0 at the time, the two young players helped Rodgers throw for 396 yards, the fourth-highest single-game passing output on the road in franchise history, in the 25-14 win…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Made his first career start at LT in place of Clifton, blocking for Rodgers' 316-yard, three-TD effort…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Started at LT and was matched up with NFL sack leader Jared Allen for much of the game. Had an up-and-down outing, but was not flagged for any penalties and helped the offense rack up 421 yards…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Helped the offense post 38 points and provided time for Rodgers to complete 23-of-30 passes for 250 yards and four TDs. It marked his third straight 140-plus rating game as Rodgers joined Kurt Warner (1999) as the only QBs in NFL history to accomplish that feat…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Had one of his finest performances of the season at LT, limiting veteran DE Kyle Vanden Bosch to just four tackles and no sacks as Rodgers threw for 307 yards and two TDs on the way to his NFL-record 11th straight 110-plus passer rating game…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Held up well at LT despite being matched against Pro Bowl DE Julius Peppers, who was not credited with a tackle. Part of a line that didn't allow Rodgers to be sacked for the only time all season…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Started at RT with Clifton returning to the lineup, but moved back to LT in the second quarter with Clifton on a snap count. Helped protect QB Matt Flynn on his way to setting franchise records for passing yards (480) and TDs (six) as the offense recorded a season-high 550 yards in the 45-41 win…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Did not start, but made his playoff debut in a rotation with Clifton at LT early on before permanently replacing him in the third quarter.

2010: Was inactive as a healthy scratch for the first 14 games before sustaining a back injury in practice on Dec. 22…Inactive vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26) before being placed on injured reserve on Dec. 31…Appeared in all four preseason games, seeing action at both tackle and guard…2010 Draft: Was selected by the Packers with the final pick of the fifth round (No. 169 overall) with a compensatory choice awarded to the team for the loss of Cole. Was the first offensive lineman to be drafted by Green Bay out of TCU since T Charles Wrenn (14th round) in 1953.

Seventh NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: 5-11 Wt: 203 • Born: February 24, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 69/26 • Acquired: FA-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has assumed a starting role at strong safety in each of the last two seasons (2010-11) following season-ending injuries to starters Morgan Burnett and Nick Collins.

Set new career highs in every major statistical category in 2011 after stepping in for Collins, who suffered a neck injury in Week 2 at Carolina.

Appeared in all 16 games for the first time since 2007, and set career bests with 14 starts, 96 tackles (80 solo), five interceptions, 14 passes defensed and a forced fumble.

The five INTs tied him for No. 3 in the NFL among safeties and he ranked fourth among all players with 147 return yards, highlighted by his franchise-record 116-yard outing at San Diego in Week 9.

The performance at San Diego was the first multi-INT effort of his career. Scored his first career TD with a 40-yard return of the first and made a 76-yard return of the second, sealing the game late in the fourth quarter.

Took over as the starter in Week 5 of 2010 following Burnett's season-ending knee injury sustained in Week 4. Appeared in 14 games with 11 starts, and posted 64 tackles, two INTs and seven passes defensed.

Ranked second on the team in the 2010 postseason with 26 tackles (23 solo), including a team-high 10 tackles in Super Bowl XLV.

Returned to Green Bay in 2010 after spending the second half of the 2009 season with Atlanta. Went to training camp with the Packers in 2009, but sustained a knee injury in Aug. 20 night practice that sent him to injured reserve on Sept. 6. Reached an injury settlement with the team on Sept. 10, before eventually signing with Atlanta as a free agent on Nov. 4.

Originally drafted in the fifth round in 2006 by the N.Y. Giants, was released in the final roster reduction and claimed off waivers by the Packers just before the start of the 2006 season.

Was an effective special teams player prior to his now two-year stint as a starter, collecting 20 coverage tackles between 2007-08 and forcing two fumbles on kickoffs.

Has played in 69 career games with 26 starts and has recorded 181 tackles (140 solo), seven interceptions, 23 passes defensed and a forced fumble.

AT A GLANCE ... 26

- Has stepped into the starting strong safety spot in each of the last two seasons following season-ending injuries to starters Morgan Burnett (2010) and Nick Collins (2011).
- Set career highs in every statistical category in 2011, starting 14 games and making 96 tackles (80 solo), five interceptions and 14 passes defensed.
- Set the franchise's single-game INT return yardage record with a 116-yard effort off of two INTs at San Diego in Week 9 of 2011.
- Ranked second on the team in the 2010 postseason with 26 tackles (23 solo), including a team-high 10 tackles in Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh.
- Recorded 20 tackles and two forced fumbles on special teams from 2007-08.
- Originally a fifth-round draft choice by the N.Y. Giants in 2006, was claimed off waivers by the Packers one week before the start of the regular season.
- Played four seasons at Alabama at multiple positions in the defensive backfield, recording 210 tackles and nine interceptions.
- As a senior at Plano (Texas) East High School, was used mostly at tailback and accumulated six 100-yard games and 1,500 all-purpose yards.
- Grandfather was a former head of state of the West African republic of Ghana.

2011 SEASON: Thrust into a starting role early on for the second consecutive season after the veteran Collins sustained a season-ending neck injury in the second half of the team's Week 2 game at Carolina (Sept. 18)…Plugged into his familiar position at SS with the second-year man Burnett sliding over to fill Collins' vacated FS post…Went on to start the ensuing 14 games (a career high), appearing in all 16 contests for the first time since 2007…Set career highs in every major statistical category, highlighted by his 96 tackles (80 solo) that ranked fourth on the club and his five INTs that ranked second…Added 14 passes defensed and his first career forced fumble…His INT total ranked third in the league among safeties and his return yardage total of 147 ranked fourth among all defenders…Had the first multi-INT outing of his career at San Diego in Week 9, taking the first back for a 40-yard return to score his first career TD…Also added four tackles on special teams…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Posted an assisted tackle in kickoff coverage on special teams and was pressed into action for the final 21 defensive plays after the injury to Collins. Finished with three tackles (two solo), helping the Packers secure the win…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Started and recorded five tackles (four solo), two passes defensed and his first INT of the season, late in the fourth quarter. INT came on a deflection when LB A.J. Hawk broke up a pass intended for WR Eric Decker and the ball caromed up into the air...At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Finished with a secondary-leading eight tackles and two passes defensed, adding his career-high-tying second INT of the season in the fourth quarter. Tipped a slightly overthrown ball by QB Matt Ryan intended for TE Tony Gonzalez into the air to himself and secured it for the INT…At San Diego (Nov. 6): Registered six tackles (four solo) and set a new career high by collecting both his third and fourth INTs of the season in what was the first multi-INT game of his career. Both INTs were particularly meaningful, the first resulting in a 40-yard TD return (the first TD of his career) and the second sealing the game in the final seconds with San Diego driving for the tying score. Set a new single-game franchise record (since 1940) with his 116 INT return yards, besting the previous mark of 99 yards held by three players. First INT gave Green Bay its first lead of the game, 14-7. Second came with 33 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter and San Diego driving for the game-tying score. Intercepted an underthrown QB Philip Rivers ball intended for WR Vincent

Jackson and then weaved his way back across the field, extending the play into a career-long 76-yard return before being brought down at San Diego's 6-yard line…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Led the secondary with 10 tackles (nine solo), a forced fumble and his fifth INT of the season. INT came in third quarter when a QB Josh McCown pass went high and tipped off of the hand of WR Earl Bennett. Peprah caught the deflection and returned it 21 yards.

2010: Played in 14 games with a then-career-high 11 starts and appeared in all four postseason contests with two starts…Registered 64 tackles (50 solo) along with two interceptions and seven passes defensed…Led the secondary with 26 tackles (23 solo) in the postseason, good for No. 2 on the team behind only LB Desmond Bishop (30)…Posted six tackles on special teams with three more stops in the playoffs…Inactive for games at Chicago (Sept. 27) and vs. Detroit (Oct. 3) with a quad injury…At Washington (Oct. 10): Opened the game at SS, only the second start of his career, and posted five tackles (one solo) and a pass defensed…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Led the secondary with a career-high 11 tackles (10 solo)…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Turned in one of his best performances of the season, notching a pair of passes defensed and tying Collins for the lead in the secondary with five tackles (all solo). Had key pass break-ups on consecutive Jets possessions late in the fourth quarter with the Packers protecting a 6-0 lead. Slapped the ball away from WR Jerricho Cotchery on fourth-and-8 at the Green Bay 35 with 4:12 to play and then dislodged the ball from Cotchery's grasp with a strong hit to the back on second-and-5 with 3:13 left…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Posted nine tackles (six solo) and the first interception of his career. Picked off QB Drew Stanton early in the second quarter, intercepting a deep pass down the sideline that was intended for TE Tony Scheffler…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Recorded five tackles (three solo) and two passes defensed, including a third-quarter INT in the end zone. With the Packers trailing 3-0 and the Bears appearing to be on the verge of increasing their lead after an Aaron Rodgers INT on the Packers' first offensive play of the second half, he picked off QB Jay Cutler's pass that was intended for WR Johnny Knox on third-and-19 from the Green Bay 24…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started and had six tackles (five solo), helping the defense limit the Falcons to just 194 total yards…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Did not start as the defense opened with an extra lineman, but played 63 snaps and led the team with 10 tackles (nine solo). Helped direct a secondary that played without CBs Charles Woodson (collarbone) and Sam Shields (shoulder) for almost the entire second half.

2009: Appeared in two games for Atlanta on special teams and posted one tackle…Inactive for six contests and did not play at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 22)…Signed with the Falcons as a free agent on Nov. 4…Went to training camp with the Packers, but sustained knee injury during Aug. 20 night practice that sidelined him for the final three preseason contests…Was placed on injured reserve on Sept. 6, but was waived/injury settlement on Sept. 10…Inactive for final two games of the season with the Falcons due to a hamstring injury…Vs. New Orleans (Dec. 13): Made Falcons debut vs. New Orleans, seeing time on special teams…At N.Y. Jets (Dec. 20): Registered a tackle on special teams.

2008: Played in 13 games with one start...Registered 19 tackles and two passes defensed along with nine stops on special teams...Was inactive for the opening two games as he continued to recover from hamstring injury sustained in training camp practice Aug. 5…Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Made season debut, replacing Collins (back injury) in the second half and registering three tackles…Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started first NFL game at SS with Atari Bigby (hamstring) and Aaron Rouse (knee) both sidelined with injuries and recorded six tackles…At Seattle (Oct. 12): Played at SS the entire second half after Rouse left game with a head injury, and posted four tackles…At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Matched his season high with two special teams tackles…At Chicago (Dec. 22): Again matched season high with two special teams stops…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Came in during second quarter at SS when Rouse left the game with a knee injury and played the remainder of the game there. Posted three tackles and a pass defensed, and recorded two tackles on special teams for the fourth time on the year.

2007: Started training camp low on the depth chart and emerged as the No. 2 SS…Played in all 16 games (plus both playoff contests), primarily on special teams, making 11 coverage stops and forcing two fumbles on kickoff returns…Also had two tackles from scrimmage…At N.Y. Giants (Sept. 16): On a fourth-quarter kickoff, jarred the ball loose from KR Ahmad Bradshaw; LB Tracy White recovered and the Packers scored a TD on the ensuing drive, giving Green Bay a 28-13 lead in the eventual 35-13 victory…At Detroit (Nov. 22): Replaced Rouse at FS in second half after Rouse left the game with a knee injury, and made two solo tackles, the first stops of his career…At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Forced KR Derek Stanley to fumble (recovered by the Rams)…Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Made three special teams tackles.

2006: The Giants' fifth-round pick in 2006, was claimed off waivers by the Packers on Sept. 3…Played in eight games, exclusively on special teams, and was inactive for eight contests…Had a pair of special teams tackles…In four preseason contests with the Giants, notched five tackles and an INT that he returned 19 yards vs. the N.Y. Jets (Aug. 25)....Was waived in the Giants' final preseason roster reduction and claimed by the Packers the next day...At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Ran down Brandon Williams after a 25-yard punt return…At Chicago (Dec. 31): Pushed WR Bernard Berrian out of bounds after a 7-yard punt return…2006 Draft: Taken in the fifth round by the N.Y. Giants (158th overall, 30th DB taken).

COLLEGE: Played in a total of 50 games at various positions in the secondary at Alabama, starting 45 and finishing his career with 210 tackles (163 solo), nine INTs (returning two for TDs), five fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles and 24 passes defensed…Holds an undergraduate degree in marketing and a master's degree in financial

RYAN PICKETT

DEFENSIVE TACKLE ▪ OHIO STATE

12th NFL Season
Seventh Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 340 • Born: October 8, 1979 • NFL Games Played/Started: 162/140 • Acquired: UFA-06 (StL)

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Begins his 12th NFL season and seventh in Green Bay as a primary run-stuffer and unsung veteran leader on the defensive line.

Has unselfishly rotated between both nose tackle and left defensive end since the Packers' implementation of the 3-4 alignment in 2009.

Played more predominantly over the center in 2011, starting all 14 games in which he appeared, leading the defensive line with 54 tackles (24 solo) and adding two passes defensed.

Started the first 13 games of the season before suffering a concussion in the Week 14 matchup vs. Oakland (Dec. 11) that forced him to miss the next two games. Returned for the regular-season finale and playoff contest.

Played in 14 games with 12 starts in 2010, finishing with 53 tackles (27 solo), a sack, a fumble recovery and a pass defensed.

Missed two games in the middle of the season because of an ankle injury, but returned to play the final seven games and all four postseason contests. Worked primarily at LDE in 2010 with B.J. Raji moving into the starting role at NT.

Was a key part of the Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in '09 (team-record 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in franchise annals that Green Bay led the league in run defense. Part of a defense that held opponents to under 90 net rushing yards a league-high 12 times on the season, also a franchise record.

Was designated as the team's franchise player on Feb. 24, 2010, but agreed to a contract extension with the Packers on March 12, 2010.

Though many of his contributions don't always show up on the stat sheet, does have 390 tackles (197 solo) in 87 regular-season games in Green Bay over six seasons, posting five or more tackles 42 times (46 including playoffs). Now has 798 tackles (392 solo) with 9½ sacks and 33 passes defensed for his career.

Battled through hamstring and triceps injuries to start every game in '08 and has played in 162 of a possible 176 regular-season games during his career, missing just nine contests due to injury.

Prior to Week 16 of 2007, had not missed a game since midway through his rookie season, and had not missed a start since Week 4 of 2003.

Took over DT Grady Jackson's old starting job after signing as an unrestricted free agent on March 17, 2006, coming over from St. Louis, where he spent his first five seasons and was a first-round draft choice (29th overall) in 2001, turning pro after his junior year at Ohio State

Came to Green Bay off his best statistical season in 2005 in which he led all of the league's defensive linemen with 115 tackles, 10 more than runner-up Aaron Kampman. Having appeared in eight playoff games with the Packers, has the experience of playing in 14 postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXVI while a rookie with St. Louis and Super Bowl XLV in 2010 with Green Bay.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has played in 162 of a possible 176 regular-season games during his 11-year career, missing just nine contests due to injury.
- Had another productive season in 2011, starting all 14 games in which he played and leading the defensive line with 54 tackles (24 solo) on the season.
- Key component of Packers' No. 1-ranked rushing defense in 2009 (franchise-record 83.3 yards allowed per game), the first time in team history that Green Bay led the league in that category.
- A first-round draft choice (29th overall) in 2001 who turned pro after his junior year at Ohio State, and became a starter in his second season in St. Louis.
- Came to Green Bay off a career year in 2005, when he led all NFL defensive linemen with 115 tackles, 10 more than former Packers linemate and runner-up Aaron Kampman.
- An All-American at Zephyrhills (Fla.) High School who did not stay close to home like older brother Booker, who played at Miami (Fla.).

2011 SEASON: Started all 14 games in which he appeared, leading the defensive line with 54 tackles (24 solo), his highest total since the team transitioned to the 3-4 alignment prior to the 2009 season…Also added two passes defensed…Opened the first 13 games of the season at what was listed as LDE, but played various techniques and was predominantly lined up over the center as one of two defensive linemen in the team's nickel defense…Suffered a concussion vs. Oakland in Week 14 and was sidelined for the next two games…Returned to open the season finale and Divisional playoff game…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Had a productive day, leading the defensive line with six tackles (two solo) and was part of the swarm at the goal line that stopped RB Mark Ingram's progress and sealed the win as time expired. On the play, shot underneath RT Zach Strief, clearing a lane for LB Clay Matthews and S Morgan Burnett to apply the hit to Ingram…At Chicago (Sept. 25): Started and finished with one tackle, but made significant, if not statistically glamorous contributions occupying blockers up front as the run defense yielded just 13 yards on 12 carries (1.1 avg.), the fourth-lowest single-game total in franchise history. Lone tackle went for a loss when he lined up over the nose and shed C Roberto Garza, moving laterally down the line of scrimmage to drop RB Matt Forté for a 2-yard loss…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Posted five tackles (one solo) and was an integral part in helping to limit the effectiveness of standout RB Michael Turner, who finished with 56 yards on his 16 carries (3.5 avg.), including just 20 rushing yards in the second half…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Made four tackles (one solo) and also recorded a pass defensed when he was on the front end of one of the game's most impactful turnover plays in the second quarter. On the play, lined up at LDE, first engaging a block, but then sliding laterally into a zone coverage where he read QB Matthew Stafford and got his hand on a thrown ball, deflecting it high into the air for Matthews to intercept it. The Green Bay offense would score the game's first points two plays later…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Finished with four tackles

(three solo), but suffered a concussion during the game and did not return...Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Returned to the field after missing the previous two games and tallied three tackles (one solo)…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Led the defensive line with seven tackles (three solo, one for loss) and also added a pressure.

2010: Appeared in 14 games with 12 starts at LDE, making the transition to end after working at NT in '09…Registered 53 tackles (27 solo), a sack, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery…Started all four postseason contests and led the defensive line with 14 tackles (five solo) in the playoffs… At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Posted four tackles (two solo), seeing significant action as one of only three healthy defensive linemen for the bulk of the game…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Recorded four tackles (one solo), a QB hit and a pass defensed. Helped limit the Bears to just 77 yards rushing, with 37 of those yards coming on three scrambles by QB Jay Cutler…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Registered four tackles (three solo) and a fumble recovery, falling on RB Jahvid Best's fumble forced by DE Mike Neal in the second quarter. The turnover led to a TE Jermichael Finley TD catch three plays later. The fumble recovery was his first since his first season in Green Bay (at Chicago, Dec. 31, 2006)…At Washington (Oct. 10): Started, but sustained a sprained ankle on the Redskins' second play from scrimmage. Did not return, and was inactive the following week vs. Miami (Oct. 17)…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Returned to the starting lineup, but aggravated the injury seven plays into the game and did not return. Sidelined once more the next week at the N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31) and re-aggravated the ankle again vs. Dallas (Nov. 7)…At Minnesota (Nov. 21): After bye week, returned to the field and had a pair of tackles (one solo)… At Detroit (Dec. 12): Recorded a season-high 10 tackles (seven solo), his highest total since posting a career-high 12 at Seattle (11/27/06). Forced QB Drew Stanton out of bounds for a 2-yard sack late in the first half…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Registered five tackles (one solo) as the defense limited the Giants to just 90 yards on 21 carries, one of only three times on the season that New York didn't rush for 100 yards…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Recorded five tackles (two solo) as the unit limited the Bears to just 83 yards rushing and a 7.7 conversion rate (1-of-13) on third down…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished with four tackles (two solo) while also having a hand in one of the game's biggest plays with the Steelers trailing 21-17 but in Green Bay territory. On the first play of the fourth quarter, slipped inside of pulling C Doug Legursky and dove into RB Rashard Mendenhall's left hip. Matthews converged on the right side, jarring the ball loose, and the fumble was recovered by LB Desmond Bishop. The Packers would score a TD eight plays later to extend their lead to 28-17.

2009: Played in 13 games with nine starts at NT; only non-starts came when team opened up in nickel…Also played in team's playoff contest…Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-best 83.3 yards per game), the first time in franchise history that the team was No. 1 against the run…Posted 47 tackles (25 solo) and a pass defensed…Inactive for three games late in the season due to a hamstring injury…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Led the line with six tackles (two solo), including a stop of RB Steven Jackson for a 2-yard loss on first-quarter run…At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but led the defensive line with season-high seven tackles (six solo). Helped limit Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson to just 55 yards on 25 carries (2.2 avg.)…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1): Led the line with seven tackles (five solo) to match his career high. Along with LB A.J. Hawk, stopped Peterson for a 1-yard loss on fourth-and-1 from Green Bay's 7 midway through the second quarter…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Posted four tackles (two solo) and a QB hit, but sustained a hamstring injury with under nine minutes remaining in the game and did not return. Injury would go on to sideline him for three of final four regular-season games…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Didn't start as team opened in nickel, but registered two tackles (one solo).

2008: Started all 16 games for the fourth time in the last five seasons, opening up every game at LDT…Was third on the defensive line with 81 tackles (38 solo), the sixth time in his career he posted 80-plus stops...Tied for lead on the line with five passes defensed...Posted 1½ sacks, his most in a single season as a Packer…Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Returned to the starting lineup after missing entire preseason with hamstring injury suffered just prior to the start of training camp...Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Led defensive line with seven tackles (four solo), including a stop of Turner for a 3-yard loss in the first quarter…At Seattle (Oct. 12): Registered three tackles (one solo), but left game midway through third quarter with triceps injury and did not return…Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started after being limited all week in practice with triceps injury, which required a harness for protection during game. Registered three tackles (one solo) and batted down a QB Peyton Manning pass on third down in the second quarter to force a Colts punt…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Finished second on the defensive line with seven tackles (five solo), registered his first sack of the season when he brought down QB Kerry Collins for a 4-yard loss early in the third quarter, and batted down a Collins pass intended for TE Bo Scaife in overtime...Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Tied for lead on defensive line with a season-high nine tackles (two solo)…At Chicago (Dec. 22): Shared a sack of QB Kyle Orton in the third quarter with DE Michael Montgomery for a 4-yard loss on third down. Tied for lead on the defensive line with seven tackles (five solo).

2007: Started 14 games, plus both playoff contests, recording 63 tackles (38 solo), with one sack and one pass defensed…Inactive for final two regular-season games with a groin injury, snapping a string of 74 consecutive starts (77 including playoffs) dating back to early 2003 and 101 straight games played (107 including playoffs) dating back to midway through his rookie season…Didn't even miss the preseason opener, having arrived in Pittsburgh (Aug. 11) the morning of the game following the birth of his son, Ryan Jr. …At Minnesota (Sept. 30): Made his first sack of the season and first as a Packer, felling QB Kelly Holcomb for a 6-yard loss in fourth quarter; made a season-high seven total tackles (six solo)…At Denver (Oct. 29): With time running out, stopped Cutler for no gain at the Green Bay 4-yard line on a QB draw. Denver was forced to kick a FG that tied the score 13-13 and led to an OT period; QB Brett Favre connected with WR Greg Jennings on the first play for an 82-yard score and the victory…At St. Louis (Dec. 16): Made six tackles (one solo) but missed a good part of the second half after suffering a groin injury and then missed the next two games…Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Returned to the starting lineup for the postseason and made six tackles (four solo), including stop of RB Shaun Alexander for a 1-yard loss in third quarter.

2006: An unrestricted free agent signed from St. Louis, started all 16 games in his first year with the Packers and was often called by the most consistent defensive lineman by the team's coaches…Collected 92 tackles (45 solo), one fumble recovery and a career-best seven passes defensed…Was held to fewer than five tackles just four times all season and had six or more on eight occasions…At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Played in spite of an ankle injury suffered the week prior at Detroit…At Seattle (Nov. 27): Tied a regular-season career high with 12 tackles (six solo), including three for loss. Also helped to end the Seahawks' first possession by tipping a pass that was intercepted by CB Charles Woodson, setting up a Packers TD…Vs. N.Y. Jets (Dec. 3): Combined with LB Nick Barnett to stop RB Cedric Houston for minus-1 yard; on the next play, nearly intercepted a pass, his sixth pass breakup of the year…At Chicago (Dec. 31): Recovered a QB Rex Grossman fumble, his first career fumble recovery.

2005: Assembled the finest season statistically in his NFL career in his final year in St. Louis…Started all 16 games for a second straight season and posted a career-high 115 tackles (61 solo), which led all NFL defensive linemen…Also tied his career high with two sacks…At Arizona (Sept. 18): Teamed with DE Leonard Little to share a fourth-quarter sack of QB Kurt Warner…Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 23): Led team in tackles with 11 (five solo)…Vs. Jacksonville (Oct. 30): Led team in tackles for second straight week with nine (six solo) and shared a sack of QB Byron Leftwich with LB Chris Claiborne…At Houston (Nov. 27): Got a sack of his own, dropping QB David Carr on a key third down to force the Texans to settle for a FG in the Rams' eventual 33-27 win…Vs. Washington (Dec. 4): Tied his career high with 12 tackles (six solo).

2004: Started all 16 regular-season contests and two playoff games, finishing with 81 tackles (36 solo) and two sacks, and playing his best football late in the year and into the postseason…Led the team in tackles twice and led or tied for tackle lead among defensive linemen on three other occasions, all in final month of regular season and playoffs…At Carolina (Dec. 12): Led team in tackles with 11 (five solo), one shy of regular-season career high…Vs. N.Y. Jets (Jan. 2): Posted 10 tackles (five solo), including a sack of QB Chad Pennington in OT of regular-season finale…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Established postseason high of 13 tackles (seven solo), surpassing his regular-season best by one.

2003: Started 13 games at NT and finished with 74 tackles (26 solo) and one sack…At Chicago (Nov. 16): Recorded a season-high 10 tackles (two solo)…Vs. Carolina (NFC Divisional, Jan. 10): Had seven tackles (four solo), the seventh time on the season (six times in the regular season) he posted seven or more.

2002: Started 14 games at LDT and turned in breakout year with 107 stops (59 solo) to lead St. Louis' defensive line and finish second on the team…His six tackles for loss also were second on the Rams…At Denver (Sept. 8): Made his first career start in the season opener, leading the defensive line with 10 tackles (four solo) and getting a half-sack of QB Brian Griese…At Washington (Nov. 24): Reached double figures in tackles again with 10 stops (four solo)…At Philadelphia (Dec. 1): Established regular-season career high with 12 tackles (five solo).

2001: Took a reserve role on the defensive line and played special teams…Saw action in 11 regular-season and three postseason contests, making 24 stops (10 solo) with ½ sack…At Atlanta (Dec 2): Tallied five tackles (four solo), his rookie high…At Carolina (Dec. 23): Matched rookie best with five stops (one solo)…Vs. New England (Super Bowl XXXVI, Feb. 3): Posted two assisted tackles in Super Bowl loss to Patriots…2001 Draft: Selected after his junior season by St. Louis Rams as the third of three first-round selections (29th overall). First Ohio State defensive lineman picked in the first round since Dan Wilkinson was selected first overall by Cincinnati in '94.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Ohio State (1998-2000), he played both DT positions…Totaled 109 tackles (72 solo), eight sacks and 20 stops for loss in 37 career games…Majored in general studies…Junior season (2000): Played LDT and had 39 tackles (21 solo), three sacks and two forced fumbles…Sophomore season (1999): Started every game at RDT and was named All-

PLAYOFF SITE PRIORITIES

WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAMES

- Two Wild Card teams (division non-champions with best two records) from each conference and the division champions with the third- and fourth-best record in each conference will enter the first round of the playoffs.
- The division champion with the third-best record will play host to the Wild Card team with the second-best record.
- The division champion with the fourth-best record will play host to the Wild Card team with the best record.
- There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAMES

- In each conference, the two division champions with the highest won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season will play host to the Wild Card winners.
- The division champion with the best record in each conference is assured of playing the lowest-seeded Wild Card survivor.
- There are no restrictions on intra-division games.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

- The home teams will be the surviving playoff winners with the best won-lost-tied percentage during the regular season.
- A Wild Card team cannot play host unless two Wild Card teams are in the game, in which case the Wild Card team that was seeded the highest in the first round of the playoffs will be the home team.

Big Ten honorable mention with a career-high 48 tackles (34 solo) and three sacks…Freshman season (1998): Played in every game and started the final nine contests at RDT, with 22 stops (17 solo), two sacks, and five tackles for loss.

PACKERS CHEERLEADERS

The Green Bay Packers once had official cheerleaders, but after the 1988 season the decision was made not to reinstate them. While some Packers fans supported the official cheerleaders, many were opposed or indifferent, at best.

Helping the Packers make the decision to discontinue the program was a television news poll in which fans were generally split over whether they wanted the program to continue.

Bob Harlan, then the Packers' executive vice president of administration, was quoted in an official release Feb. 7, 1989, saying: "In general terms, the poll disclosed there were as many fans who expressed opposition to the return of the cheerleaders as there were those in favor of restoring them. On that basis, we felt the appropriate decision at this time would be to continue without them."

At this time, there are no plans to return to official cheerleaders.

For several years, the team has used cheering squads from two local schools, St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay. Compared to other stadiums, though, they are not as much a part of the gameday experience at Lambeau Field.

Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 252 • Born: October 6, 1988 • NFL Games Played/Started: 23/5 • Acquired: D5a-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has played in 23 games with five starts in his first two seasons, catching 24 passes for 274 yards (11.4 avg.) and one TD.

Appeared in 10 contests with two starts in 2011, but saw his season cut short in Week 13 at the N.Y. Giants when he sustained a significant knee injury covering a kickoff in the fourth quarter.

Made noticeable strides as a blocker in '11, playing regularly as part of two-TE sets and out of the backfield in a fullback role. Caught three passes for 36 yards (12.0 avg.) on the season.

Also saw time on special teams in 2011, contributing two tackles.

Took on a larger role than expected as a rookie in 2010 when starter Jermichael Finley was lost for the season due to a knee injury in Week 5.

Produced two 50-yard receiving games in '10 and finished his rookie season with 21 catches for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD, adding five catches for 46 yards in the postseason.

Was taken with the first of Green Bay's two fifth-round picks in 2010, the 154th overall selection and the 11th tight end selected. Became the first Penn State TE drafted in team history.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has played in 23 games with five starts in his first two seasons, having seen his 2011 campaign cut short in Week 13 by a significant knee injury.
- Finished his rookie season of 2010 with 21 catches for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD.
- Posted career highs in Week 14 of 2010 at Detroit with five receptions for 62 yards, the yardage total the most by a Green Bay rookie TE since Ron Kramer's 68 yards at Detroit on Nov. 27, 1958.
- Holds the Penn State records for receptions by a tight end in a career (87) and single season (41 in 2009).
- Finished his career ranked second in school history for receiving yards by a tight end with 1,146.
- Capped his college career with a Penn State bowl-record eight receptions in Capital One Bowl vs. LSU (Jan. 1) and then caught game-winning TD pass in final seconds of East-West Shrine Game.

2011 SEASON: Appeared in 10 contests with two starts and caught three passes for 36 yards (12.0 avg.) on the season…Added two tackles on special teams…Was sidelined for two games early in the season (Weeks 5-6) due to a knee injury sustained vs. Denver in Week 4…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Recorded his first reception of the season on the first drive of the second quarter, a 21-yard grab on a drive that culminated with K Mason Crosby's 39-yard FG…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Recorded one catch for 8 yards, a reception that gave Green Bay a first-and-goal from the Vikings' 4 early in the fourth quarter. QB Aaron Rodgers hit WR Jordy Nelson two plays later on a TD pass to extend the lead to 38-7…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Made his first coverage tackle of the season when he brought down WR Sammie Stroughter at the Tampa Bay 24 on a second-quarter kickoff return…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Started as part of a two-TE set and made one catch, a 7-yarder that picked up a first down on a third-quarter TD drive. Suffered a severe knee injury while covering a kickoff late in the fourth quarter and did not return. Was placed on injured reserve on Dec. 7.

2010: Played in 13 games with three starts and posted 21 receptions for 238 yards (11.3 avg.) and a TD, plus one special teams tackle…Added five catches for 46 yards (9.2 avg.) in the postseason, playing in all four games with one start…Inactive (healthy scratch) for the season's first two games and also missed one game due to a shoulder injury (vs. Dallas, Week 9)…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Made his NFL debut, playing on special teams and on offense…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Made his first career start as Packers opened in two-TE set…At Washington (Oct. 10): Pressed into action following injuries to Finley and Donald Lee, he had four catches for 51 yards (12.8 avg.), including two grabs of 9 and 21 yards on the final drive of regulation, setting up a late FG attempt…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): Caught two passes for 16 yards (8.0 avg.), including his first career TD, a juggling 9-yard catch in the back of the end zone…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Left the game with an injured shoulder and missed the following contest…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Bounced back from an early fumble after a 12-yard reception to lead the team with career highs of five catches and 62 yards (12.4 avg.), including grabs of 20 and 11 yards from QB Matt Flynn on the opening drive of the second half to set up a FG. Yardage total was the most for a Green Bay rookie TE since Ron Kramer's 68 yards at Detroit on Nov. 27, 1958…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Caught two passes for 27 yards (13.5 avg.), his postseason highs, including a 15-yarder on the Packers' first play from scrimmage…2010 Draft: Selected with the first of Green Bay's two fifth-round picks, 154th overall and the 11th TE. Became the first Penn State player drafted by the Packers since 2001 (CB Bhawoh Jue, third round) and the first Penn State TE drafted in team history.

COLLEGE: Finished his career as Penn State's all-time leader in receptions among tight ends…In 49 career games, including 29 starts, caught 87 passes to break the previous school record for a TE held by Ted Kwalick (1966-68)…Totaled 1,146 yards for a 13.2-yard average and eight TDs…His yardage total made him one of only three TEs in school history to top 1,000 career receiving yards, and he ranks second in school history behind Kwalick's 1,343…He also fell two TDs short of Kwalick's career mark of 10…Overcame some off-the-field issues early in his college career, nearly losing his scholarship prior to his junior season…Served a two-game suspension as a sophomore in 2007 for an underage drinking incident and then the following spring was involved in another drinking incident, including a DUI charge, that led to late head coach Joe Paterno nearly dismissing him from the team…Graduated in December 2009 with a degree in telecommunications… Senior season (2009): Concluded his collegiate career with by far his best year, nearly doubling his career totals for both receptions and yards coming in…Won the starting job and started all 13 games, catching 41 passes for 536 yards (13.1 avg.) and three TDs for the Big Ten's second-ranked offense…Was the only Penn State player to catch a pass in every game and caught at least three passes in eight contests…Earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition and was named to the John Mackey Award midseason watch list…His 41 catches broke the school's single-season record for a TE held by Tony Stewart (38 in 2000) and his 536 yards were the most by a Penn State TE since 1977 (Mickey Shuler Sr., 600)…Was a standout during East-West Shrine Game practices and caught the game-winning TD pass with six seconds left, lifting the East to a 13-10 win…At Michigan (Oct. 24), caught two passes for career-high 91 yards (45.5 avg.) and a TD – a career-long 60-yard catch-and-run, the second-longest pass play on the season by the Nittany Lions and the longest completion to a Penn State TE in six years…In the Capital One Bowl in Orlando vs. LSU (Jan. 1), broke the school record for receptions in a bowl game with a career-high eight catches for 88 yards in 19-17 victory…Junior season (2008): Played in 12 of 13 games, with one start, serving a one-game suspension vs. Oregon State (Sept. 6) for a violation of team rules… Lost his starting job to Mickey Shuler Jr. and caught just 11 passes for 117 yards (10.6 avg.) and one TD…Recorded season highs with four receptions for 50 yards (12.5 avg.) vs. Temple (Sept. 20)…Sophomore season (2007): Started seven of 11 games played, catching 14 passes for 205 yards (14.6 avg.) and two TDs, with five receptions going for 20 yards or longer…Sat out the season's first two games vs. Florida International (Sept. 1) and vs. Notre Dame (Sept. 8) for a team rules violation…Made season debut vs. Buffalo (Sept. 15) with two receptions, both for TDs, of 21 and 4 yards…Posted season highs with three receptions for 48 yards (16.0 avg.) vs. Iowa (Oct. 6)… Freshman season (2006): Earned freshman All-Big Ten honors from Sporting News, playing in 13 games with eight starts and catching 21 passes for 288 yards (13.7 avg.) and two TDs…Fifteen of his receptions came in the season's final five games…Recorded his first two collegiate receptions, for 12 yards (6.0 avg.), vs. Youngstown State (Sept. 16)…Established regular-season career high with five receptions for 62 yards at Wisconsin (Nov. 4)…Caught four passes for season-high 87 yards (21.8 avg.) and his first collegiate TD, a 17-yarder vs. Michigan State (Nov. 18).

Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 337 • Born: July 11, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 46/33 • Acquired: D1a-09

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has emerged as one of the top players in the league at his position over the past two seasons, and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl in 2011, the first Packers defensive tackle since Bob Brown in 1972 to receive the honor.

Started all 16 games for the second consecutive year in 2011 (joining S Morgan Burnett as the only two defensive players to do so last season), and registered 43 tackles (19 solo), three sacks, three passes defensed and a fumble recovery.

Has played in 37 games over the past two seasons (including playoffs), the most in the NFL by a defensive lineman.

Was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2010 and was selected to USA Today's All-Joe Team, which honors unheralded players in the league, while also earning All-NFC honors from Pro Football Weekly.

Led all NFL nose tackles with 6½ sacks in 2010, the most recorded by a NT since Minnesota's Ken Clarke posted seven in 1990 (according to STATS LLC) and was the only Green Bay defensive lineman to open every game, posting a career-high 66 tackles (36 solo).

Added 12 tackles, a sack, two passes defensed and an interception in the 2010 postseason, highlighted by an 18-yard INT return for a score at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game that put Green Bay up 21-7 in the eventual 21-14 victory.

Played in 14 games with one start as a rookie in '09 and was named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team, becoming the first Green Bay defensive lineman to earn the recognition since DE Vonnie Holliday in 1998.

Was part of a defensive-line rotation that year that helped the Packers lead the NFL in run defense for the first time in franchise history, allowing a team-record 83.3 yards per game.

Rookie campaign got off to a slow start when he didn't sign a contract until Aug. 14, which caused him to miss the first two weeks of practice. Sprained his ankle in the preseason finale at Tennessee (Sept. 3), which sidelined him for the first two regular-season games.

- Has played in 37 games over the past two seasons (including playoffs), the most in the NFL by a defensive lineman.
- Led all NFL nose tackles with 6½ sacks in 2010, the most recorded by a nose tackle since Minnesota's Ken Clarke posted seven in 1990 (according to STATS LLC).
- With an 18-yard INT return for a touchdown at Chicago in the NFC Championship Game, became the first defensive lineman in franchise playoff history to post an INT for a score and the first NFL defensive lineman to do so in the postseason since Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons (Dec. 28, 1996).
- Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team in 2009, the first Packers defensive lineman to be selected since DE Vonnie Holliday in 1998.
- Was a first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 2008, when he became the first Boston College DT to lead his team in sacks (eight) in 23 years.
- Nearly one-third (32½ of 105, 31 percent) of his tackles in college were behind the line of scrimmage.

2011 SEASON: Earned his first career trip to the Pro Bowl, becoming the first Green Bay DT since Brown in 1972 to earn the acclaim…Started all 16 games for the second consecutive season and has built a starting streak that now spans 37 games (including playoffs)…Joined Burnett as the only two players on defense to start every game…Finished with 43 tackles (19 solo), three sacks, three passes defensed and his first career fumble recovery…Also saw his role in the goal-line offense continue to evolve as he was given his first career carry and scored a TD on the play… Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Started and displayed his impressive physical conditioning by appearing on 67 of the unit's 76 defensive plays. Credited with four tackles (three solo) and a pass defensed. Was also part of the goal-line stand at the end of the game, pushing forward inside of G Jahri Evans to force RB Mark Ingram outside and into the grasp of LB Clay Matthews and Burnett, short of the goal line as time expired…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Started and made four tackles (three solo, one for loss) and his first sack of the young season. On the sack, clubbed his way past LG Travelle Wharton, beating him up the field and tripping up QB Cam Newton for a 12-yard loss…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Led the defensive line with six tackles (two solo) and a sack. Saw his second sack of the season come when he chased QB Christian Ponder out of bounds for a zero-yard sack. Also drew a holding call against C Joe Berger on a fourth-quarter play that negated a 7-yard scramble by Ponder…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Credited with an assisted tackle and a pass defensed. Personal highlight of the game came on the offensive side of the ball, when he lined up in the backfield on a second-and-goal from the 1-yard line on the 15th play of the Packers' opening possession. Took a handoff from QB Aaron Rodgers and surged forward for a 1-yard TD to put the Packers ahead 7-0, the first offensive TD of his career. With the TD, became just the fourth NFL DL since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to score a rushing TD in a regular-season game…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Posted two tackles (one solo) and his third sack of the season. On the sack, lined up on the nose and fought past RG Stephen Peterman, chasing QB Matthew Stafford forward into the pocket and dropping him for a 3-yard loss. Also appeared on offense for the second consecutive week, seeing time in the backfield on consecutive goal-line plays in the third quarter. Threw an excellent lead block on LB Stephen Tulloch to pave the way for FB John Kuhn to score a 1-yard TD, capping an 11-play, 77-yard drive…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Started in his home state and finished with two tackles (one solo) and his first career fumble recovery. Alertly picked up a ball that had been jarred loose following a Matthews sack, but was believed to have been an incomplete pass. Replay reviews showed QB Eli Manning's arm had not come forward with the ball and the possession was awarded to the Packers.

2010: Started all 16 contests at NT, the only Packer on the defensive line to open every game…Paced the line with a career-high 66 tackles (36 solo), and his career-best 6½ sacks led all NFL nose tackles…Four of his sacks came in the final five regular-season contests…Selected as a Pro Bowl alternate and was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team, which salutes unheralded players…Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly…Also started all four playoff games and posted 12 tackles (six solo), a sack, two passes defensed and an INT returned for a TD…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): With the Packers down to three healthy defensive linemen, led the group with 58 snaps. Posted three solo stops and a sack, coming up big on back-to-back plays in the second quarter. Stuffed a run by FB Leonard Weaver for no gain, and then followed that up by beating RG Nick Cole to the inside and fighting off C Jamaal Jackson to drop QB Kevin Kolb for a 9-yard loss…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Recorded two tackles (one solo), a sack, a QB hit and a pressure. Threw QB Shaun Hill to the turf for a 9-yard sack on Detroit's first play from scrimmage…At Washington (Oct. 10): Registered six tackles (three solo) and a half-sack, combining with Matthews in the second quarter to dump QB Donovan McNabb for a 7-yard loss. Helped the defense limit the Redskins to just 51 rushing yards on 21 carries (2.4 avg.)…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Posted a career-high eight tackles (seven solo) and a pass defensed…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): New Jersey native played in his home state for the first time, helping limit RBs LaDainian Tomlinson and Shonn Greene to just 76 yards on 22 carries (3.5 avg.). Was matched up with three-time Pro Bowl C Nick Mangold and forced him into committing two penalties…Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Recorded four tackles (two solo), a sack, a QB hit and a pressure. Crashed through a pair of blockers to sack QB Troy Smith for a 6-yard loss in the fourth quarter…At New England (Dec. 19): Turned in one of the finest games of his career in a return to the region where he played as a collegian. Posted six tackles (five solo), a career-best two sacks, two QB hits and a pressure in Sunday night contest. Used an upfield rush to walk Pro Bowl G Logan Mankins back before shedding him to sack QB Tom Brady for a 7-yard loss in the first quarter. On a third-and-9 late in the third quarter, shot between Mankins and C Dan Koppen before overpowering RB Danny Woodhead en route to sacking Brady for a 10-yard loss…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Registered four tackles (three solo), a sack, a QB hit and two pressures. Brought Manning down for a 5-yard loss in the third quarter…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted two tackles (one solo), a sack, a QB hit and a pressure, helping limit Pro Bowl RB Michael Turner to just 39 yards on 10 carries (3.9 avg.). Appeared on offense for the first time as part of "Elephant" goal-line formation that also featured an extra lineman, T/G T.J. Lang. Lined up in the backfield next to FB Quinn Johnson and in front of Kuhn, clearing out the right side as he blocked LB Mike Peterson to clear a hole for Kuhn to score on a 1-yard run. Early in the fourth quarter, used an outside rush to blow past LG Justin Blalock and wrapped up QB Matt Ryan, his former college teammate, for a 10-yard sack, his first career sack in the postseason…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Made perhaps the game's biggest play in the fourth quarter, intercepting QB Caleb Hanie and rumbling 18 yards for a TD to give Green Bay a 21-7 lead in eventual 21-14 win. With less than seven minutes remaining, dropped into coverage out of a dime-personnel grouping as CB Sam Shields blitzed from the outside. Stepped in front of a short pass intended for RB Matt Forté and sprinted to the end zone, beating Hanie across the goal line for the TD that proved to be the difference in the game. Became the first defensive lineman in franchise playoff history to post an INT for a score and the first NFL defensive lineman to do so since Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons (Dec. 28, 1996). Also posted three tackles (two solo), four QB hits and two QB pressures…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Played nearly twice as many snaps as any other defensive lineman, appearing on 60 plays. Credited with two assisted tackles, four pressures and a QB hit, as he created a consistent disruption in the middle of the pocket for QB Ben Roethlisberger.

2009: Played in 14 games with one start, seeing most of his time at both end spots and as a down lineman in nickel…Also appeared in team's playoff contest…Named to the Pro Football Weekly/PFWA All-Rookie team…Saw increased time at NT in the final four games of the season with Pickett battling a hamstring injury…Registered 36 tackles (24 solo) and a sack on the season…Part of top-ranked rushing defense in the NFL (a franchise-record 83.3 yards per game), the first time in team history that the Packers finished No. 1 in the league against the run…Inactive for first two games of the season, vs. Chicago (Sept. 13) and vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20), due to sprained ankle sustained in preseason finale at Tennessee (Sept. 3)…Signed with the team on Aug. 14 after missing the first two weeks of camp, and practiced for the first time on Aug. 17…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Made NFL debut, seeing time at LDE, and posted an assisted tackle…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Combined with Matthews to bring RB Kevin Smith down for a 1-yard loss on a fourth-and-1 run late in the first quarter. Saw limited action before tweaking his ankle in the third

AARON RODGERS

QUARTERBACK • CALIFORNIA

Eighth NFL Season
Eighth Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 225 • Born: December 2, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 69/62 • Acquired: D1-05

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Ranks No. 1 in NFL history with a 104.1 passer rating (min. 1,500 attempts), having completed 1,381-of-2,113 passes (65.4 percent) for 17,366 yards and 132 TDs with just 38 INTs.

Has thrown for 17,037 yards since 2008, the most by a QB in his first four seasons as a starter in NFL history. It surpassed the previous mark held by Peyton Manning (16,418, 1998-2001).

Since taking over as the starter in 2008, ranks No. 3 in the league in passing yards (17,037), No. 2 in passing TDs (131), No. 1 in passer rating (105.0), No. 2 in yards per attempt (8.29) and No. 1 in 25-yard passes (150).

The Packers have averaged 28.3 points per game in his 62 career regular-season starts, No. 1 among NFL quarterbacks since 1950 (min. 50 starts).

In 62 regular-season starts (41-21 record), has posted 22 games with 300-plus passing yards, 35 without an interception and 38 with a 100-plus passer rating.

Has registered a 100-plus passer rating each of the past three seasons, one of only four quarterbacks in league history to accomplish that feat (Steve Young, 1991-94; Manning, 2004-06; Philip Rivers, 2008-10).

When he hit the 100-TD mark for his career, he had thrown just 34 INTs to that point, the fewest in NFL history as he surpassed Rivers' mark of 43 INTs.

Ranks No. 1 in league history with a career interception percentage of 1.8.

Is the only QB in NFL history to register two seasons with 500-plus attempts and seven or fewer INTs (2009 and 2011) and is the only 4,000-yard passer in league annals to throw six or fewer INTs (2011).

Is the lone NFL QB since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to post four or more consecutive 110-plus rating games in three straight seasons (Weeks 3-4, 6-7 in 2009; Week 9, Weeks 11-13 in 2010; Weeks 1-7, 9-12 in 2011).

Set the NFL single-season record for passer rating with a 122.5 rating in 2011, topping the previous mark held by Manning (121.1 in '04). Was the first Packer to lead the league in the category since the system was implemented in 1973.

In 2011, set league records for the most 100-plus rating games (13), most 110-plus rating games (12) and tied the NFL mark for the most 140-plus rating games (four).

Also in 2011, set franchise records for TD passes (45), passing yards (4,643), completion percentage (68.3), yards per attempt (9.25), TD/INT ratio (7.50), 300-yard games (eight), and tied the team mark for INT percentage (1.20) on his way to earning NFL Most Valuable Player honors from The Associated Press.

Ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 150 attempts) with a 105.5 passer rating in the postseason.

Became only the fourth QB in NFL history to throw for 300 yards/three TDs in a Super Bowl, taking home game MVP honors for Green Bay's win over Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XLV.

Has four 110-plus passer rating games in six playoff starts, which is tied for third in NFL history behind only Joe Montana (six in 23 starts) and Brett Favre (five in 24 starts).

Is the only QB in NFL history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in each of his first two seasons (2008-09) as a starter.

Has a 111.3 passer rating in divisional games, the best career passer rating by a QB in league history since the NFL went to a divisional format in 1967.

With 16 career rushing TDs, ranks No. 2 in franchise history among QBs behind only Tobin Rote (29). Joins Rote (1954-56) as the only QBs in team annals to post three straight seasons with four-plus rushing TDs (2008-10).

Has been named NFC Offensive Player of the Week five times in his career (Weeks 13 and 16 of 2010, Weeks 1, 4 and 9 in 2011) and NFC Offensive Player of the Month five times (October 2009, December 2010, and September, October and November 2011).

AT A GLANCE ...

- His career passer rating of 104.1 ranks No. 1 in NFL history (min. 1,500 attempts).

New Orleans (Sept. 8): Connected on 27-of-35 passes for 312 yards and three TDs with no INTs on his way to earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Was locked in from the start, completing 14-of-15 passes in the first quarter for 188 yards and three TDs, becoming just the second QB in NFL history to throw three TDs in the first quarter of a season opener (Buffalo's Jack Kemp – Sept, 13, 1964). The yardage mark in the opening quarter was also his personal best in any quarter of a game in his career…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Became the first QB in franchise history to throw for 300-plus yards in each of the first two games of the season when he posted 308 yards and two TD passes on 19-of-30 passing…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Had arguably the most statistically impressive performance of his career, accounting for six TDs (four passing, two rushing) and throwing for a career-high 408 yards on 29-of-38 passing. Became the first QB in NFL history to throw for 400 yards and four TDs and also have two rushing TDs in the game. Became the first QB in franchise annals to eclipse the 400-yard passing mark on more than one occasion (404, vs. N.Y. Giants, Dec. 26, 2010) and now owns two of the five 400-yard performances in team history. Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the outing…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Completed 26-of-39 attempts for 396 yards and two TDs, tying a team record by completing passes to 12 different receivers. The 396 yards passing was the fourth-highest total on the road in franchise history. Threw for 269 yards in the second half, the most by a Green Bay QB in a second half since 1991…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Matched his single-season career high with his fifth 300-yard game in just the sixth contest of the season. Threw for 316 yards and three scores, highlighted by his career-long 93-yard TD pass to WR Jordy Nelson in the second quarter…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Posted the second-highest QB rating of his career (146.5), throwing for 335 yards and three TDs on 24-of-30 passing. Completed his first 13 passes of the game, matching his career-best streak and the longest since Favre's 13 at Minnesota on Oct. 23, 2005…At San Diego (Nov. 6): Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for the third time on the season, completing 21-of-26 passes for 247 yards and four TDs for a 145.8 passer rating. Set an NFL single-season record with his eighth straight 110-plus rating game, topping the mark of seven by Young in 1994. Matched his career high with 52 rushing yards on eight carries (6.5 avg.)…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Joined Kurt Warner (1999) as the only two QBs in NFL history to post three consecutive 140-plus rating games in a single season by completing 23-of-30 passes for 250 yards and

RODGERS' 2011 A SEASON TO REMEMBER

In what was his fourth year as the starter under center for the Packers in 2011, quarterback Aaron Rodgers turned in one of the finest seasons by any player at the position in the history of the National Football League. Rodgers was voted the Pro Bowl starter for the NFC and earned Most Valuable Player honors from The Associated Press following the season, winning the vote by a nearly unanimous 48-2 margin.

During the regular season, he completed 343-of-502 attempts for 4,643 yards and 45 touchdowns against just six interceptions, netting a cumulative passer rating of 122.5. Rodgers' marks for yardage, touchdowns, completion percentage, yards per attempt and 300-yard games were all new franchise records. Even more impressive was that he accomplished all of that despite appearing in just 15 games (he was rested for the regular-season finale in Week 17).

A look at some of the superlatives from Rodgers' fantastic season:

• 122.5 QB rating set a new NFL record, as did his 13 games with a 100-plus passer rating.
• Joined Tom Brady and Dan Marino as the only three QBs to throw three-plus TD passes in a game 10 or more times in a season.
• Tied the NFL record shared by Brady and Peyton Manning by throwing at least two TD passes in 13 consecutive games.
• Set an NFL record with 11 consecutive games with a 110-plus QB rating.
• Became the only QB in NFL history to have more than one season with 500-plus pass attempts and fewer than seven INTs.
• Experienced a torrid stretch over a three-game span in the middle of the season when he became just the second QB in NFL history (Kurt Warner) to record three consecutive games with a 140-plus passer rating.
• With his career-high 408-yard outing in Week 4 vs. Denver, he became the first QB in NFL history to register 400 passing yards/four passing TDs/two rushing TDs in a game.

four TDs, good for a 140.1 rating. Broke Favre's franchise record for 110-rating games (eight, 2007) and consecutive games with at least two TD passes (eight, 1994), doing each for the ninth time on the season…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Further extended his league record by registering his 11th consecutive 110-plus rating game as he completed 22-of-33 passes for 307 yards and two TDs…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Connected on 29-of-46 attempts for 369 yards and four TDs in a hostile road environment. Set new franchise records by posting his eighth 300-yard passing game and ninth three-plus TD game. Extended his NFL record of consecutive games with a 100-plus passer rating to 12… Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Became the fastest player to reach the 4,000-yard passing plateau in franchise history by topping the mark in his 13th game of the season. It also tied him for the second fastest in league annals behind only Saints QB Drew Brees (12 games in 2011). Connected on 17-of-30 passes for 281 yards and two TDs, joining Manning (2004) and Brady (2010-11) as the only QBs in NFL history to throw at least two TD passes in 13 consecutive games…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Set a franchise record with his 40th TD pass of the season, topping Favre's mark of 39 set in 1996. Set the mark with a 2-yard TD toss to WR Donald Driver in the third quarter, becoming just the seventh QB in NFL history to eclipse the 40-TD mark in a season…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Threw a career-high five TD passes en route to leading the Packers to their franchise-record 14th regular-season win…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Listed as inactive as the coaching staff elected to rest him with home-field advantage throughout the playoffs having been secured the previous week.

2010: Started 15 contests, missing one game with a concussion, and was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl…Completed 312-of-475 passes (65.7 percent) for 3,922 yards, 28 TDs and 11 INTs for a 101.2 rating as he became the first QB in franchise history to post a 100-plus passer rating in back-to-back seasons…The rating ranks fourth in team annals behind only Starr's mark of 105.0 in 1966 and his own marks of 122.5 in 2011 and 103.2 in '09…Ranked third in the NFL in passer rating, seventh in yards, tied for sixth in TDs and second in 25-yard passes (40)…Was named FedEx Air NFL Player of the Year and NFC Offensive Player of the Month for December/January and twice earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors (Weeks 13 and 16)…Finished third among NFL QBs with a career-high 356 rushing yards on 64 carries (5.6 avg.), the most by a Green Bay signal-caller since Don Majkowski posted 358 in 1989…Tied for the team lead with four rushing TDs, his third straight campaign with four-plus rushing TDs as he became the first Packers QB since Rote (1954-56) to do so…Ranked No. 1 in the NFL (min. 100 attempts) with a 104.5 passer rating against the blitz, completing 111-of-167 attempts (66.5 percent) for 1,503 yards and 11 TDs with five INTs…Registered a 110-plus passer rating in four consecutive games (Week 9, Weeks 11-13) to become the first NFL QB since the 1970 merger to post four straight 110-plus rating games in back-to-back seasons (Weeks 3-4, 6-7 in 2009)…Posted a 109.8 passer rating in four postseason contests, completing 90-of-132 passes (68.2 percent) for 1,094 yards and nine TDs with two INTs…The yardage total ranks third in NFL history for a single postseason behind only Eli Manning (1,219 in 2011) and Warner (1,147 in 2008), while the TD total is tied for No. 3 in league annals behind only Joe Montana (1989) and Warner (2008), who each threw 11 TDs…At Washington (Oct. 10): Had 27 completions on a season-high 46 attempts for 293 yards and a TD with one INT. Sustained a concussion on the Packers' final play from scrimmage in OT while being hit by DE Jeremy Jarmon on a throw that was picked off by S LaRon Landry at the Green Bay 39; the turnover led to Washington's game-winning FG…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Missed some practice time during the week due to the concussion, but returned to make his 38th straight start. Finished with 313 yards on 18-of-33 passing with a TD and an INT. Threw a then-career-long 86-yard TD pass to WR Greg Jennings late in the first quarter, the longest completion by a Green Bay QB since Favre's 99-yard scoring strike to WR Robert Brooks at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995. On the final possession of regulation, engineered a 69-yard drive that he capped off with a sneak up the middle on fourth-and-goal from the 1 to send the game into OT…At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Threw a then-regular-season career-high four TD passes, connecting on 22-of-31 passes for 301 yards for a season-high 141.3 passer rating…At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Completed 26-of-35 attempts for 344 yards and a TD while adding a season-high 51 rushing yards and a TD on a career-high 12 carries…Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors as he completed 21-of-30 passes for 298 yards and three TDs for a 135.1 passer rating. Didn't throw an INT for the fifth straight game, the first Packers QB to do so since Starr in 1966. Had a pair of TD passes over 55 yards for the first time in his career, connecting with Jennings for a 57-yard score in the second quarter and with Driver on a 61-yard TD in the third quarter…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Threw for 46 yards on 7-of-11 passing before departing due to a concussion. With just over three minutes remaining in the first half, scrambled for an 18-yard gain to the Green Bay 43 but took hits from S Amari Spievey and LB Landon Johnson, with his head hitting the turf. Took three more snaps before being replaced by Matt Flynn for the remainder of the game. Prior to his exit, saw his career-long streak of 181 attempts without an INT come to an end when a deep pass in the first quarter bounced out of Jennings' arms and into Spievey's. It was his first INT since his final throw of the first half vs.

TAKING HIS PLACE AMONG THE GAME'S BEST

Now firmly entrenched in his role as the face of the franchise, QB Aaron Rodgers has gone from solid first-year starter to Pro Bowl starter to Super Bowl Most Valuable Player to NFL MVP and is widely regarded as one of the game's top signal callers.

- For his career, he has completed 1,381-of-2,113 passes (65.4 percent) for 17,366 yards and 132 touchdowns against only 38 interceptions for a 104.1 passer rating. The rating ranks No. 1 in NFL history for the regular season (min. 1,500 attempts) and is more than seven points higher than second-ranked Tony Romo (96.9).
- Rodgers earned NFL MVP honors after a record-breaking 2011 campaign. He led the Packers to a franchise-best 15-win regular season and set Packers single-season records for TD passes (45), yards (4,643), completion percentage (68.3), yards per attempt (9.25) and passer rating (122.5). His passer rating was also a NFL single-season record and his 45 TD passes were fifth in NFL history.
- Rodgers became the first player in NFL history to post 4,000 yards passing in each of his first two seasons and once again broke the 4,000-yard plateau in 2011. His four-year total of 17,037 ranks No. 1 in league history by a quarterback in his first four seasons as a starter.
- He took care of the ball again in his fourth season as the starter, throwing only six interceptions in 502 attempts. His career interception percentage of 1.8 ranks No. 1 in NFL history among QBs with more than 1,500 attempts.
- Rodgers continued to impress during the 2010 postseason. His 1,094 passing yards and nine TD passes in the four playoff games each rank as the third-highest postseason totals in NFL history.

Minnesota in Week 7, a streak of 181 passes that put him at No. 2 in the team record books behind only Starr (294, 1964-65)…At New England (Dec. 19): Inactive due to the concussion, which snapped a streak of 45 consecutive starts that was the fourth-longest streak in the league among active QBs at that point…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Returned to action and turned in one of the best outings of his career on his way to earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Threw for a then-regular-season career-high 404 yards on 25-of-37 passing while matching his career high at that point with four TD passes. His yardage total was the most by a Green Bay QB in the regular season since Dickey's 418-yard game vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 12, 1980), and it was the first 400-yard, four-TD, zero-INT performance in franchise annals. It also marked the 10th time in his career that he threw three-plus TDs and zero INTs in a game, the most in NFL history by a QB within three seasons of his first start (Warner, nine, 1999-2001). Led the Packers to 515 total yards, the most since the team posted 548 at Oakland (Dec. 22, 2003)…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Had one of the finest playoff games by a QB in NFL playoff history, connecting on 31-of-36 passes for 366 yards and three TDs. His 136.8 passer rating was the highest in league postseason history among QBs with 35-plus attempts. The 31 completions and 86.1 completion percentage were franchise single-game postseason records, and the completion percentage ranks No. 1 in NFL history for QBs with 35-plus attempts. Became the first QB in NFL playoff history to throw for 350 yards, three TDs and zero INTs and rush for a TD in a game. Completed all 10 of his third-down passing attempts for 151 yards. Helped lead the Packers to a franchise postseason-record 48 points. Combined with the 45-point outing at Arizona in the 2009 Wild Card contest, the Packers became the first team in NFL history to record 45 points in a game in consecutive postseasons. His three TD passes gave him 10 in his first three postseason starts, the most in NFL history as he surpassed Jeff George, Daryle Lamonica and Marino (nine each). Along with his 121.4 rating at Arizona in the '09 playoffs and his 122.5 rating at Philadelphia the week before, became the first QB in NFL history to register a 120-plus rating in each of his first three postseason starts. Also became the first QB in NFL postseason history to throw for three-plus TDs in each of his first three playoff starts…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Closed out his torrid postseason by earning Super Bowl MVP honors with a masterful performance in the world championship game. Completed 24-of-39 passes for 304 yards and three TDs. Joined Montana, Young and Jake Delhomme as the only QBs to throw for 300 yards and three scores in a Super Bowl. First TD pass came on a perfectly placed throw to Nelson for a 29-yard score. Threaded a pass into the hands of Jennings for a 21-yard TD in the second quarter with S Ryan Clark just missing the ball and S Troy Polamalu's hard shot from behind failing to knock it free from the WR's arms. Found Jennings once more in the back right corner of the end zone in the third quarter to extend the lead to 28-17. Perhaps his best throw of the game came on the Packers' clock-killing drive late in the fourth quarter. On third-and-10 from the Green Bay 25, fired the ball to Jennings down the seam just beyond the outstretched arms of CB Ike Taylor as he hit the WR in stride for a 31-yard gain and a new set of downs. The drive burned 5:19 off the clock and set up a 23-yard Mason Crosby FG to extend the lead to 31-25, forcing Pittsburgh to drive for a TD instead of a game-tying FG.

2009: Selected to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career...Started every game for the second straight season and completed 350-of-541 passes (64.7 percent) for 4,434 yards, 30 TDs and seven INTs for a 103.2 rating, which ranked fourth in the NFL and second in team history behind Starr's 105.0 in 1966...Ranked fourth in the league in passing yards, fourth in TD passes and first in INT percentage (1.29), the latter mark second in team history to Starr's 1.20 in '66 as Rodgers posted 12 games without an INT to break Starr's franchise mark of 11 in 1964…Nearly broke Dickey's single-season team record for passing yards set in 1984 (4,458) while joining Favre (1998-99) as the only QBs in team history to post back-to-back 4,000-yard seasons and joining Dickey and Favre as the only Green Bay QBs to hit 30 TDs in one season…Had a 133.5 rating on third down, which led the league and was the highest since Warner (137.3) in 1999; third-down production included an NFL-best 14 TDs, no INTs, and a league-high 1,710 yards, the most yards by an NFL QB since the stat began to be kept in 1991...Tied for NFL lead (with Donovan McNabb and Tony Romo) with 17 completions of 40-plus yards...Was tied for second in the league (with Romo and Brees) with 39 completions of 25-plus yards, trailing only Eli Manning's 42...Rushed for 316 yards and five TDs on 58 carries (5.4 avg.), the second-most yards by any QB in 2009 (David Garrard, 323) and the most runs of 10-plus yards with 14...His five rushing TDs were the most since Majkowski posted the same number in '89…Became the first QB in NFL history to throw 30 or more TDs and seven or fewer INTs, and rush for five TDs in the same season…Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Month honors for October…At Minnesota (Oct. 5): Threw for a season-high 384 yards on 26-of-37 passing for a 110.6 rating. Was intercepted for the first time on the season when CB Antoine Winfield picked off his pass intended for Jennings on the right sideline at the Minnesota 23 early in the second quarter; the INT snapped a then-career-best streak of 159 passing attempts without one, then the third longest in team history behind Starr (294 in 1964-65) and Favre (163 in 2001-02)…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Completed 29-of-37 passes for 358 yards, two TDs and one INT for a 113.7 rating, giving him two career firsts – back-to-back games with 350-plus yards and three straight contests with a 110.0 rating or better. His 78.3 completion percentage was the second-best single-game performance in team history (min. 35 attempts), trailing only Favre's 79.5 percent on 31-of-39 passing at Minnesota on Nov. 21, 1998…At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Completed 15-of-20 passes for 246 yards, three TDs and no INTs for a 155.4 passer rating, the best single-game rating in franchise history (min. 20 attempts). His fourth straight game with a 110.0-plus passer rating made him only the second QB in team history to accomplish the feat in the same season (Starr, Sept. 18-Oct. 9, 1966)…Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Posted 344 yards passing and a season-high 32 completions on 44 attempts with two TDs and no INTs for a 108.0 rating. Threw for 274 yards in the first half alone, his career-high yardage mark for any half in the regular season…At Pittsburgh (Dec. 20): Threw for 383 yards and three TDs with no INTs on 26-of-48 passing for a 101.3 rating. The 383 yards were just one yard shy of his then-career high in Week 4 at Minnesota, and the 48 attempts without an INT were the most in a single game in team history. On third down, was 8-of-13 for 217 yards and three TDs for 145.0 rating...At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted team playoff-record 423 yards and four TDs on 28-of-42 passing with one INT for a 121.4 rating. The four TD passes matched a franchise playoff mark held by Starr (at Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967) and Dickey (vs. St. Louis, Jan. 8, 1983). The yardage total was tied for No. 5 in NFL playoff history, and his 319 yards passing after halftime set an NFL playoff record, eclipsing the previous mark of 274 yards set by Marino (at Buffalo, Dec. 30, 1995). Became one of only six QBs in the Super Bowl era to throw for 400 yards/4 TDs in a postseason game, and one of only two signal callers to post 400 yards/4 TDs and a rushing TD in a playoff game (Peyton Manning, vs. Denver, Jan. 9, 2005). Completed six passes of 25-plus yards as he helped team come back from 21-point deficit in the second half to tie the game, with the longest score coming on 30-yarder to Jones on fourth-and-5 early in the fourth quarter.

2008: Took over as the starter after waiting patiently for three years for his opportunity behind Favre…Became the first QB other than Favre to start a Packers game since Majkowski (Sept. 20, 1992), starting all 16 games and ranking third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL with a 93.8 passer rating…Completed 341-of-536 passes (63.6 percent) for 4,038 yards, 28 TDs and 13 INTs…Under center for 1,039-of-1,049 (99.1 percent) offensive plays…Ranked fourth in the league in both TD passes and passing yards…Became just the fourth QB in team history to surpass 4,000 yards in one season (Favre, Dickey, Majkowski) and only the second in NFL history to throw for 4,000 yards in the first season that he started a game (Warner, St. Louis, 1999)…Third in the NFL with a 105.8 passer rating on third down, including 14 TDs, which trailed only Rivers' 15…Completed 16 passes of 40-plus yards, tied for first in the NFL with Brees…Tied for fifth in the league with 48 completions of 20-plus yards...Third on the team with 207 rushing yards on 56 carries (3.7 avg.), and tied for the team lead with four rushing TDs…Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 8): Started first NFL game and completed 18-of-22 passes for 178 yards and a TD with no INTs. His 81.8 completion percentage ranks as the second-best mark in league history by a QB in his first start (min. 20 attempts), behind only former Jacksonville QB Rob Johnson's 83.3 percentage (20-of-24) in 1997. Scored first career rushing TD on 1-yard plunge in the fourth quarter to give Green Bay a 24-12 lead…At Detroit (Sept. 14): Posted first 300-yard passing day in NFL and threw three TD passes. Connected on 24-of-38 passes for 328 yards…At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Sprained his right shoulder in third quarter on 7-yard scramble as he dove to extend the ball for a first down. On next series, hit Jennings for a 48-yard TD pass, but then sat out the following series with the injury. Returned for one more series late in the fourth quarter before exiting the game for good. Finished the afternoon 14-of-27 for 165 yards and two TDs, but had a string of 157 consecutive passes without an INT snapped, the fifth-longest streak in team history…Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started despite being limited all week in practice as he recovered from sprained right shoulder. Recorded the second 300-yard passing game of his pro career as he connected on 25-of-37 passes for 313 yards and three TDs…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Completed 21-of-31 passes for 308 yards and three TDs for a season-high 132.2 passer rating, matching his season best with the three TD passes. With Lions having just scored a TD to narrow Green Bay's lead to 24-21, connected on season-long pass when he found Driver deep down the right sideline midway through the fourth quarter for a 71-yard score. The pass also put him over the 4,000-yard mark for the season.

2007: Serving as Favre's backup for the third straight season, he appeared in two regular-season games and completed 20-of-28 passes (71.4 percent) for 218 yards with one TD and no INTs for a 106.0 rating, plus seven rushes for 29 yards…Put together his best preseason as a pro, completing 37-of-59 passes (62.7 percent) with three TDs in four appearances…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Saw his first action of the regular season, entering with 3:56 remaining and completing both of his passes for 17 yards, including a 15-yarder to Jones on his first throw…At Dallas (Nov. 29): Was inserted into the game in the second quarter after Favre suffered elbow and shoulder injuries. Completed 18-of-26 passes for 201 yards and one TD for a 104.8 passer rating, plus had five rushes for 30 yards. On the Packers' final drive of the first half, found Jennings for a 43-yard catch-and-run and connected with him again on an 11-yard TD (Rodgers' first TD pass as a pro). In the third quarter, led a 12-play, 69-yard drive that finished with a 1-yard Ryan Grant TD plunge; on the series, completed all six passes for 61 yards, including throws of 22 and 17 yards. In the fourth, led the team's final scoring drive that culminated in a 52-yard Crosby FG…Injured a hamstring the following week in practice and was inactive for the final four regular-season games before recovering to serve as Favre's backup in the postseason…Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Played the final series of playoff game, but did not attempt a pass.

2006: Served as the No. 2 QB for the team's first 10 games, playing in two contests…Dressed but did not play in the other eight games…In the preseason, served as the No. 2 QB for all four games…Completed 22-of-38 passes for 323 yards and three TDs, including an 85-yard pass to Jennings, vs. Atlanta (Aug. 19)…Before sustaining a season-ending broken foot in Week 11, had taken 36 regular-season offensive snaps and completed 6-of-15 passes (40.0 percent) for 46 yards, with no TDs or INTs, for a 48.2 rating…At Philadelphia (Oct. 2): Made his season debut in place of an injured Favre (neck/head); nearly engineered a TD drive on the last series of the game, completing 2-of-3 passes for 14 yards, but the Packers were held out of the end zone on a goal-line stand…Vs. New England (Nov. 19): Saw the most extensive action of his career to date when he was inserted into the lineup for an injured Favre (elbow), and played the last two offensive snaps of the first half and the entire second half. Completed 4-of-12 passes and had a 6-yard scramble on a third-and-6. Played the second half with a foot injury he sustained toward the start of the third quarter; post-game tests revealed a fracture that caused him to miss the rest of the season. Was placed on injured reserve on Nov. 21.

2005: Saw action in three games as a rookie; he was active but did not play in the 13 other contests…Completed 9-of-16 attempts (56.3 percent) for 65 yards, with one INT, and a 39.8 passer rating…Also credited with two rushes for 7 yards, including a kneel-down on the season's final snap, after Favre was given a curtain call…Got an extended look in the preseason opener vs. San Diego (Aug. 11), replacing Favre; endured a malfunctioning helmet radio, four offensive penalties and two sacks, and as a result the coaching staff didn't get a great look at him in his rainy preseason debut…Struggled as the No. 2 QB the following week at Buffalo (Aug. 20), going 4-for-9, for 21 yards, with one sack and an INT; his two best plays were carries (22, 9 yards)…Ended preseason on a good note, though, at Tennessee (Sept. 1); orchestrated an important scoring drive, converting two third downs, before hitting TE Ben Steele on a 12-yard TD…Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 9): Made his NFL debut in 52-3 win. Entered on the Packers' initial series of the fourth quarter and completed his lone attempt, his first career pass, to FB Vonta Leach for no gain…At Baltimore (Dec. 19): Got his most extensive playing time in 48-3 Monday night loss. Came off the bench toward the end of the third quarter and finished the contest, going 8-for-15 with one INT, plus one carry for 8 yards…Vs. Seattle (Jan. 1): Took the game's final kneel-down, his only play, after replacing Favre, who had started the drive…2005 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the first round with the No. 24 overall pick. Was the second QB taken after Alex Smith (49ers) at No. 1, the eighth QB drafted by the Packers in the first round and the first since Rich Campbell, also from Cal, in 1981. Also joined Campbell as the only Cal players drafted by Green Bay in the first round. Passed on his final year of eligibility and was considered one of the top QB prospects in the country with numerous football observers rating him as the No. 1 pick in the draft.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and letterman at California, went 424-for-665 (63.8 percent) for 5,469 yards, with 43 TDs and 13 INTs while playing in 25 games with 22 starts…His 150.3 career passer rating and 1.95 INT percentage are both tops in school history…Threw for 250-plus yards 10 times and had 160 rushes for 336 yards and eight TDs…With scant Division I interest after two highly successful prep seasons, began his college career at Butte College, near Chico, Calif. …It was there that Cal coach Jeff Tedford noticed Rodgers while watching video of a teammate, TE Garrett Cross (who later, too, became a Cal Golden Bear, and then a Green Bay Packer)…After watching him practice and feeling confident in his ability to thrive in Berkeley, Tedford offered Rodgers a scholarship and launched the beginning of two immensely successful seasons…Majored in American Studies…Junior season (2004): Started all 12 games for the Bears, including the Holiday Bowl vs. Texas Tech (Dec. 30)…Finished with 209 completions in 316 attempts (66.1 percent) for 2,566 yards and 24 TDs, with eight INTs…Helped the team reach its highest national ranking (No. 4) since 1952, produce its best regular-season record (10-1) in 54 years and record the most conference wins (seven) in 55 years…Led an offense that ranked first in the conference in passing efficiency (167.39, fourth nationally), total offense (494.7 ypg, fifth), scoring offense (37.3 ppg, sixth) and rushing offense (260 ypg, fifth)…Offense was second-highest scoring in team history…Named first-team All-Pacific-10, and received honorable mention All-America honors from AP, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Sports Illustrated.com…Also was a second-team Pac-10 All-Academic choice…Was one of 15 players to receive letters from the Heisman Trophy Committee in November, and was named to the watch lists for the Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year Award, the Maxwell Award and the Davey O'Brien Award…Served as team co-captain and was chosen as Cal's co-Offensive MVP…Finished second in the conference in passing efficiency (154.4), behind Southern California's Matt Leinart (now with Oakland); the efficiency mark ranked eighth among all NCAA passers in 2004 and was the second-best achievement in Cal annals (164.5, Dave Barr, 1993)…Fired three or more TDs four times on the season…Completed a single-game school-record 23 consecutive passes at USC (Oct. 9) to tie an NCAA mark, running his school-record string to 26 straight completions dating back to previous game at Oregon State (Oct. 2). Finished USC game 29-of-34 for 85.3 percent, another school record…Sophomore season (2003): Upon transferring from Butte College, played in three of the Golden Bears' first four games before taking over as the starter in Game 5 at Illinois (Sept. 20), leading Cal to a 7-3 record as a starter… Authored one of the finest quarterbacking seasons of any sophomore in Pac-10 history, throwing for 2,903 yards and 19 TDs, with only five INTs, on 215-of-349 passing (61.6 percent)…The passing yardage total ranked second on Cal's all-time list (now third) and his INT percentage of 1.43 set a school record (breaking old mark of 1.69 set by Gary Graumann in 1977)…Additionally, his passer efficiency rating (146.6) ranked fourth in school annals, and with 210 yards rushing, his 3,113 total yards ranked second…Registered 300 or more yards through the air five times, tying Pat Barnes' school record…Authored two major INT-free streaks: the first came as he started his Cal career with 98 straight passes without an INT, the second came later in the season as he threw 105 times without a pick, ending at Oregon (Nov. 8)…Over the last five games of the season, completed 68.2 percent of his passes (105 of 154) for 1,596 yards (319.1 ypg), 12 TDs and two INTs…Was clutch in the school's final two contests, throwing for 348 yards vs. Washington (Nov. 15) and 359 at Stanford (Nov. 22), both must-wins in order for Cal to clinch its first bowl berth since 1996…In the Stanford contest, registered 414 yards of total offense (359 passing, 55 rushing) to record the highest total in the 106-year history of the "Big Game"; it was the fourth-highest total offense output in team history…Stretched streak of 300-yard passing games to three in Insight Bowl vs. Virginia Tech (Dec. 26), throwing for collegiate-high 394 in 52-49 win and putting up 424 yards of total offense, third best in school annals…Served as one of two offensive team captains…Freshman season (2002): During his one year at Butte College, near Chico, Calif., led the Roadrunners to a 10-1 record, a NorCal Conference championship and a No. 2 national ranking… Passed for 2,408 yards and 28 TDs, with only four INTs, on 164 completions in 265 attempts (61.9 percent)…Also carried 101 times for 294 yards and seven TDs…Earned third-team All-America mention from J.C. Grid-Wire, in addition to NorCal Conference and region MVP honors…Voted MVP in Holiday Bowl victory over San Joaquin Delta (Junior College) with a 251-yard, two-TD pass performance…Listed in SuperPrep's JuCo 100, ranking him 41st among all junior college players nationally.

ROOKIES VS. FIRST-YEAR PLAYERS

Rookies are players in their first year of pro football who have not been on another pro football team's roster for any regular-season or postseason games. First-year players are those who have played in other pro sports leagues (Arena Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on an NFL team's active, inactive or reserve list fewer than six games.

The rule originated when Lawrence McCutcheon, drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1972, played only three games his "rookie" season, then rushed for 1,097 yards in 1973. Today, due to McCutcheon and because rosters began expanding around the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (reserve lists formalized, etc.), that year is considered the beginning of the rookie rule. So today, for records purposes, the Packers use 1970 as a separator. From 1921-69, anyone who had yet to play three league games was generally considered a rookie.

wife's name is Kylie…High school: Named Mr. Football in Ohio in 2006 at Piqua High School after rushing for 1,895 yards and 27 TDs on 259 carries (7.3 avg.) as a senior… Was named a Parade All-American…Garnered all-state, all-conference and conference player of the year honors as a junior and senior…Rushed for 240 yards and three TDs on 30 carries (8.0 avg.) to lead Piqua to the 2006 Division II state title…Also won the state title in the 100 meters and 400 meters…Community involvement: Visited children's hospitals, read to kids and was involved with youth football camps while in college...Hobbies/interests: Enjoys golfing, playing video games and spending time with friends…Lists Usain Bolt as his favorite athlete, Family Guy as his favorite TV show and Inception as his favorite movie…Enjoys listening to R&B music, naming Brian McKnight as his favorite artist....Residence: Columbus, Ohio.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Signed with the Packers as an unrestricted free agent on March 13, 2012, after playing 13 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts.

Has been selected to the Pro Bowl five times during his career and has twice earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press.

Was named to the NFL All-Decade Team by Sporting News for 2000-09.

Played in 197 games with 188 starts with the Colts, which is tied for No. 4 in franchise history for the most games played.

Started all 16 regular-season games in 10 of his 13 seasons with the Colts,

During his 12 seasons as a starter (2000-11), was part of a line that allowed just 242 sacks, the fewest in the NFL over that span.

Was part of offensive lines in Indianapolis that finished first or second in STATS LLC's New York Life Protection Index 10 times, a measure of a team's efficiency in pass protection.

During his time as a starter, was a part of offenses that ranked in the top five in the league in nine of those seasons and also ranked in the top five in fewest sacks allowed in nine of those seasons.

Along with Peyton Manning, holds the NFL record for the most starts by a quarterback-center duo with 170. That surpassed the previous mark of 160 by Minnesota's Fran Tarkenton and Mick Tingelhoff. The Colts' record in those games was 120-50 (.706).

Played in 132 wins with the Colts, which tied him for No. 2 in franchise history with QB Johnny Unitas, behind only Manning (141).

Tied with Manning for the most playoff appearances in team history with 19 games.

According to STATS LLC, was flagged for just 18 penalties (five false starts, 13 holding penalties) during his first 13 seasons in the league.

Entered the league as a non-drafted free agent with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998 before being released by the team in June of that year. Signed with the Colts as a free agent in January 1999.

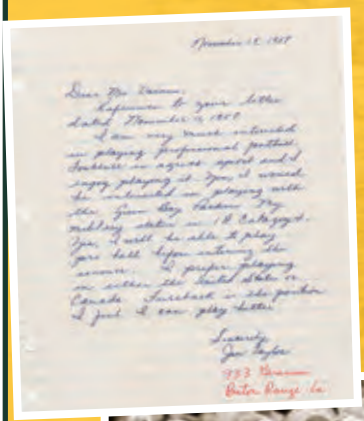
"FULLBACK IS THE POSITION I FEEL I CAN PLAY BETTER."



November 19, 1957

Dear Mr. Vainisi,

Reference to your letter dated November 11, 1957.

I am very much interested in playing professional football. Football is a great sport and I enjoy playing it. Yes, I would be interested in playing with the Green Bay Packers. My military status is 1A Category 4. Yes, I will be able to play pro ball before entering the service. I prefer playing in either the United States or Canada. Fullback is the position I feel I can play better.

Sincerely,
Jim Taylor

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Maturing defender who set career highs in every major statistical category in what was his second season as the team's nickel CB in 2011. Appeared in 15 games with seven starts, collecting 36 tackles (32 solo), four interceptions, 14 passes defensed and a forced fumble.

A true speedster who made a major impact as a non-drafted rookie in 2010, earning the nickel CB job despite playing the position only one year in college. Finished his first season with 27 tackles (22 solo), two INTs and nine passes defensed.

With the exception of two missed games due to injury, held the nickel job throughout the regular season and playoffs in 2010, recording two interceptions in the regular season and two more in the NFC Championship at Chicago, the final one sealing the conference title in the game's final minute and sending the Packers to the Super Bowl.

Also contributed as a return man and punt-team gunner, utilizing the blazing speed that made him a productive receiver and special teamer his first three seasons at Miami.

Made the transition to cornerback as a senior and progressed rapidly as a rookie under the tutelage of position coach Joe Whitt Jr., who considered him a potential high draft pick based on raw talent alone.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Re-assumed the nickel role behind veterans Tramon Williams and Charles Woodson in his second season and set career highs with 15 games played, seven starts, 36 tackles (32 solo), four interceptions, 14 passes defensed and a forced fumble.
- As a non-drafted free agent, earned nickel cornerback job in 2010 as a rookie despite playing defensive back just one season in college.
- In 2010, matched his regular-season total with two interceptions in the NFC Championship at Chicago, becoming just the fifth player in franchise history to record two interceptions in a playoff game.
- Also in that game, became the first NFL rookie (since 1982) to register two INTs and a sack in a postseason contest.
- Played primarily wide receiver and special teams his first three seasons at Miami.
- Was honored with Miami's Most Improved Player Award as a senior and was voted the team's Special Teams Player of the Year as a junior after bursting on the scene as a collegian with the most pass receptions by a Hurricane freshman since Reggie Wayne nine years prior.

2011 SEASON: Returned to his role as the team's nickel CB and set career highs by appearing in 15 games with seven starts…Was inactive for the Week 7 contest at Minnesota with a concussion suffered on an INT return in the second half of the previous week's game vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16)…Also set new career highs with 36 tackles (32 solo), four interceptions, 14 passes defensed and his first career forced fumble…Chipped in six tackles on special teams…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Saw extensive action as the Packers spent most of the game in the nickel defense. Started the game as the third CB and appeared on 72 plays, finishing with new career highs in both tackles (six, five solo) and passes defensed (three), also forcing his first career fumble. Recorded the forced fumble when he stripped WR Devery Henderson following a 9-yard gain in the third quarter and ball rolled out of bounds. Made one of the more unsung plays of the game on special teams, serving as the "safety" on the kickoff coverage team and showed his impressive speed by coming from the opposite side of the field to track down RB Darren Sproles and run him out of bounds following a 57-yard return in the third quarter, likely saving a TD...Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Had an up-and-down day in coverage, but scored a victory for himself with an INT early in the fourth quarter. On the INT, was in single coverage on WR Brandon Lloyd. Circled through the end zone and used his speed to bring it out and advance it for a career-long 60-yard return to the Denver 46-yard line…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Tied his career high set in the season opener with six tackles (five solo) and also matched his career best from his rookie season by recording his second INT. INT came when he picked off an underthrown ball by QB Sam Bradford in the end zone. Attempted to return the ball out of the end zone, running horizontally and was sideswiped by WR Brandon Gibson, who delivered a punishing hit that caused him to suffer a concussion and be removed from the game…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Missed the practice week while dealing with lingering effects of the concussion, and was inactive on gameday for the first time since Week 5 of the 2010 regular season…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Started as the No. 2 CB with Charles Woodson (coaches' decision – rest) on the inactive list for the regular-season finale. Finished with five tackles (four solo), a pass defensed and a game-clinching INT in the waning moments of the fourth quarter to seal the 45-41 win. On the play, stepped in front of a QB Matthew Stafford throw intended for WR Nate Burleson at the Packers' 20-yard line, returning the INT 2 yards. INT was the defense's 31st of the season, matching the highest total by the franchise since 1962 (also 31). Effectively ended the game, helping the Packers secure a perfect division record for the first time since the modern format was adopted in 1967 and finish the season with an unblemished 8-0 record at home for the first time since 2002.

2010: Played in 14 games with six starts, missing two early-season contests with a calf injury…Also played in all four postseason games with two starts…In the regular season, posted 27 tackles (22 solo) with two INTs and nine passes defensed, and returned 21 kickoffs for 452 yards (21.5 avg.) with a long of 49…Added 13 tackles (eight solo) with two INTs, a sack, a forced fumble and five passes defensed in the playoffs…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Started at nickel CB in first NFL game and teamed with S Morgan Burnett to become the first Packers rookie DB tandem to open the season since the 1970 AFL/NFL merger… Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Returned to the lineup after missing previous two games with a calf injury and had four tackles (three solo) and a pass defensed…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7):

Notched his first pro INT with a leaping, one-handed grab of QB Jon Kitna's deep sideline throw intended for WR Miles Austin. Also took over as kickoff returner to open the second half and posted a season-long 49-yard return, starting from 6 yards deep in the end zone…At New England (Dec. 19): Had a 45-yard kickoff return among six attempts for 128 yards total (21.3 avg.)…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Started as the Packers opened in nickel and recorded three tackles (all solo) and two passes defensed, one a superb play on a deep ball to WR Jeremy Maclin that he knocked away just as the ball hit the receiver's hands…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Turned in his biggest performance of the year with four tackles (all solo), a sack, a forced fumble and two INTs. Used as a surprise blitzer, sacked QB Jay Cutler for an 8-yard loss late in the first half, forcing a fumble that Bears RB Matt Forté recovered. Later, in the fourth quarter, came on a blitz from QB Caleb Hanie's blind side, forcing a bad throw that was intercepted and returned for a TD by NT B.J. Raji. His two INTs came at nearly the same spot on the field, the first a leaping pick on Cutler's deep ball to WR Johnny Knox just before halftime, keeping the Bears scoreless at the time. The second came with Hanie facing fourth-and-5 from the Green Bay 29, as Shields undercut Knox for the game-clinching INT with 37 seconds left. Became just the fifth player in franchise history to record two INTs in a playoff game, and became the first NFL rookie (since 1982, when sacks became official) to record two INTs and a sack in a postseason contest…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Had two tackles (one solo), but sustained a shoulder injury during the second quarter and was used sparingly the rest of the way…2010 Draft: Signed by Green Bay as a non-drafted free agent on April 30.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman for the Hurricanes who played his first three seasons at WR before moving to CB for his senior campaign…Also showed his talents as a return man and special teams player…Caught 75 passes for 971 yards (12.9 avg.) and seven TDs as a receiver in his career…Earned his degree in liberal arts and ran track one year, as a sophomore…Senior season (2009): Started

Fifth NFL Season
Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 318 • Born: June 16, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 57/48 • Acquired: D4b-08

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Has been selected as a Pro Bowl alternate each of the past two seasons (2010-11) and was named the Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association in 2010.

According to STATS LLC, has given up just six sacks in his three seasons (2009-11) as a starter.

Started 46 games from 2009-11, tied for the most on the offensive line over that span with C Scott Wells.

Helped the Packers average 29.4 points a game from 2009-11, No. 3 in the NFL during that time, and 380.8 yards a game over that span, No. 5 in the league.

Was the only Packer on either side of the ball to not miss a snap from 2009-10.

Part of a prolific offense in '11 that set franchise records for points (560), total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14).

Was a key cog in RB Ryan Grant's career-best 1,253-yard season in 2009, the sixth-best single-season rushing output in franchise history.

Likely would have started at RG as a rookie in 2008 if not for a preseason knee injury, which limited him to 11 games of duty primarily on extra points and field goals.

Signed a contract extension with the club on September 2, 2011.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Last name is pronounced Sitt-en.
- Started 46 games from 2009-11, tied for the most on the offensive line over that span with C Scott Wells.
- Was named 2010 Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and has been selected as a Pro Bowl alternate each of the past two seasons (2010-11).
- According to STATS LLC, has allowed only six sacks in his three seasons as a starter.
- Was slated to start at right guard as a rookie in '08 if not for a preseason knee injury.
- Capped off college career by helping lead Central Florida to its first conference championship in school history, and helped the Knights' offense set single-season school records for points (501) and rushing yards (3,287) as a senior.

2011 SEASON: Started all 14 games in which he appeared and was named a Pro Bowl alternate for the second consecutive season…Also started team's playoff game… Missed Weeks 13-14 due to a sprained knee suffered at Detroit in Week 12…Helped the offense set franchise records for points (560), also the second most in NFL history, total net yards (6,482), total net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14)…Blocked for QB Aaron Rodgers as he was named the NFL Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press after setting an NFL single-season record for passer rating (122.5) and team marks for touchdown passes (45), passing yards (4,643), yards per attempt (9.25), completion percentage (68.3) and 300-yard games (eight)…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Blocked for Rodgers as he threw for 408 yards and four TDs and the offense racked up 507 yards. Line allowed just two sacks on the day, neither of which were charged to him…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Helped maintain continuity for a line that saw young backups (Marshall Newhouse and Derek Sherrod) play most of the game with tackles Chad Clifton and Bryan Bulaga sidelined with injuries. Line allowed Rodgers time to complete 26-of-39 passes for 396 yards and two TDs… At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Had a solid outing against a talented Vikings front as Rodgers posted the second-highest passer rating of his career (146.5). Part of a line that helped burn the final 2:30 off the clock as RB James Starks rushed for 55 yards on six carries on the final drive of the 33-27 win. Limited perennial Pro Bowl DT Kevin Williams to just two tackles…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Helped the offense rack up 38 points and provided time for Rodgers to complete 23-of-30 passes for 250 yards and four TDs. It marked his third straight 140-plus rating game as Rodgers joined Kurt Warner (1999) as the only QBs in NFL history to accomplish that feat…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Started the game and often faced off against standout DT Ndamukong Suh, whom he kept contained for the balance of the first half before suffering a knee injury. Left the game just before halftime after another player fell on the back of his leg and did not return…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Was ruled out of the game early in the week and was inactive for the first time since Week 3 of 2008, ending a starting streak that had spanned 48 games (including playoffs). Also was sidelined for the next game vs. Oakland (Dec. 11)…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Returned to practice during the week and assumed his starting role at RG, taking all 57 offensive snaps…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Had one of his better performances of the season as he was matched against Suh for much of the game, limiting him to just one tackle, a sack that was not charged to Sitton. Protected QB Matt Flynn on his way to setting franchise records for passing yards (480) and TDs (six) as the offense recorded a season-high 550 yards in the 45-41 win.

2010: Started all 16 games as well as all four postseason contests at RG…Named NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Alumni Association and was selected as a Pro Bowl alternate…Part of a unit that ranked No. 9 in the NFL in overall offense and No. 5 in the league in passing…According to STATS LLC, did not allow a sack all season and was flagged for holding only one time…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Part of a line that did not allow a sack for the second straight week and also saw limited action as a defensive lineman in goal-line situations for the first time in his career…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Was often matched up with Suh, the 2010 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year, and limited him to just three tackles on the afternoon…Vs. Washington (Oct. 10): Blocked for team's season-high 157 yards on just 17 carries (9.2 avg.), the first time in franchise history that the Packers rushed for more than 150 yards on fewer than 20 attempts in a regular-season game...Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Part of an offense that recorded 27 first downs and 515 yards against a Giants defense that entered the game ranked No. 2 in the NFL. The yardage total was the most by the Packers since a 548-yard outing at Oakland (Dec. 22, 2003)… At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Blocked for RB James Starks, who posted 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.), the most by a rookie in franchise postseason history…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Helped provide a consistent pocket and time for Rodgers to throw for 304 yards and three TDs en route to the QB earning Super Bowl MVP honors.

2009: Started all 16 games at RG, the only Packers offensive lineman to open every game at one spot...Part of line that blocked for Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards...Won starting RG position in training camp…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Helped block for Packers' 435 yards of total offense. Part of line that protected Rodgers on his way to 358 passing yards, giving him back-to-back games with 350-plus yards for the first time in his career…At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Part of a line that did not allow a sack of Rodgers all afternoon and blocked for Grant's season-high 148 yards on 27 carries (5.5 avg.). Team's 202 yards on the ground were also a season best…Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 22): Helped offense put up season-best 484 total yards, including 129 yards on 21 carries (6.1 avg.) from Grant. Part of line that did not allow any sacks of Rodgers in the first half as he threw for 274 yards in the opening half, his career high for any half in the regular season…Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Started and helped block for team's 153 rushing yards and five TDs on 32 carries (4.8 avg.). It was the first time the Packers posted five rushing TDs in a game since Oct. 9, 1988, vs. New England…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Started and helped offense post team playoff-record 493 total yards, including franchise-best 423 yards passing from Rodgers.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Late-round prospect who was the only rookie on the club to appear in all 16 games in 2011, making his mark on special teams and also starting three games as an injury replacement at inside linebacker.

Took advantage of the increased opportunity on defense and led the team with 30 tackles (21 solo) over a three-game stretch between Weeks 13-15.

Used the instincts and tackling skills that made him a highly productive college player to contribute immediately on special teams at the pro level. Tied for third on the club and first among Packers' rookies with 11 coverage tackles.

Was thrust into action on defense after starter Desmond Bishop suffered a calf injury in the first half of the team's Week 11 game at Detroit (Nov. 24). Started the ensuing three games and finished the season with 38 tackles (26 solo), an interception and two passes defensed.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Promising young defender who was the lone Packers rookie to appear in all 16 games in 2011, also leading the group with three starts.
- Played primarily on special teams, where he tied for third on the club with 11 coverage tackles, but also started three games as an injury replacement at ILB.
- During his extended time on defense, led the team with 30 tackles (21 solo) over a three-game span between Weeks 13-15.
- Finished his career at Appalachian State as the NCAA Division I FCS active leader in tackles with 525 and was one of only two players in school history to record 500 tackles in his career, joining three-time NFL Pro Bowler Dexter Coakley.
- As a true freshman in '07, ranked fourth in the Southern Conference in tackles with 121 as part of ASU's national championship team.
- Was a member of four 4A state championship teams at Charlotte (N.C.) Independence High, with all four of those squads going undefeated.

2011 SEASON: A sixth-round draft choice who made the club out of training camp and as expected, became an immediate contributor on the various special teams units… Was the lone Packers rookie to appear in all 16 games and led the rookies with three starts…Finished the season tied for third on the club and first among rookies with 11 coverage tackles…Came on in relief of an injured Desmond Bishop in the first half of the team's Week 11 game at Detroit (Nov. 24), after Bishop suffered a calf injury… Played the rest of the game and started the subsequent three contests, his most extensive action on defense during the season…Finished with 38 tackles (26 solo), an INT and two passes defensed…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Made a statistical impact on special teams in his first pro contest, posting a team-high two special teams tackles… At Carolina (Sept. 18): Returned to his native Charlotte for his second NFL game, recording a tackle on kickoff coverage…At Detroit (Nov.24): Appeared in his usual role on special teams, but entered the game near the end of the first quarter after starter Bishop left with a calf injury. Played the remaining three quarters in what was an impressive defensive performance against one of the league's top scoring and yardage offenses entering the game. Finished with seven tackles (four solo) and a QB hit and was also credited with a tackle on kickoff coverage…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Started his first career game at the "Mack" LB position after both Bishop and A.J. Hawk were rendered inactive due to calf injuries. Tied for the team lead with nine tackles (eight solo). Came through on a blitz on the first play of the second quarter to pressure QB Eli Manning into an errant throw that was intercepted by LB Clay Matthews and returned 38 yards for a TD…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Started his second consecutive game, again tying for the team lead with a season-high 12 tackles (eight solo), and also posting his first career INT on the Raiders' opening drive of the game. On the play, mirrored QB Carson Palmer, who was rolling out to the right side after being pressured by Matthews. Palmer tried to throw over Smith to WR Darrius Heyward-Bey but the LB jumped to pick off the ball, returning it 11 yards…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Started once again and tallied nine tackles (including two for loss). One tackle for loss came when he diagnosed a screen pass designed for FB Le'Ron McClain, fighting off a block by G Jon Asamoah and wrapping up McClain in the backfield for a 4-yard loss…2011 Draft: Selected

NOTE — Entering 2012, the Packers are 55-25 (.688) over the last 10 years (2002-11) at home (all at Lambeau), the fifth-best mark in the NFL and first in the NFC over that span. The New England Patriots own the league's best home record (67-13-0) over the last 10 seasons. From 1921-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage.

by the Packers with the second of their three picks in the sixth round (No. 186 overall). The pick was obtained, along with a fifth-round choice (No. 141), from Denver for one of the Packers' fourth-round picks (No. 129 overall) and one of the team's seventh-round selections (No. 204 overall). Was the first player drafted by Green Bay out of Appalachian State in franchise history. Became the first linebacker drafted from ASU since Dexter Coakley was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round in 1997.

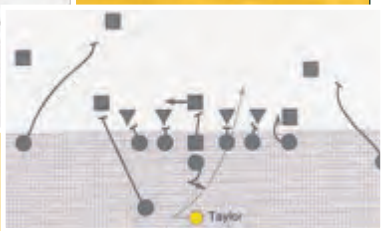
THE LOMBARDI SWEEP & ITS COMPANION PLAYS



Vince Lombardi was convinced that defenses had become so sophisticated that it was time for the offense to go back to the basics – to avoid frills and to carry out fundamentals well. These principles were borne out in his Green Bay sweep (top), with either Paul Hornung (5) or Jim Taylor (31) carrying the ball, following pulling guards Fuzzy Thurston (63) and Jerry Kramer (64) in a devastating end run.

The weak-side slant (lower left) and the companion play it set up (lower right) became the heart of the Packers' offense after defenses found ways to stop the sweep. Taylor "ran to daylight" wherever he found it.

bench to lead the defense with 12 tackles (four solo) vs. Lenoir-Rhyne (Sept. 8)…Registered 16 tackles (13 solo) at The Citadel (Nov. 3), the most by an ASU freshman since Coakley posted 21 against The Citadel in '93. Returned his first career interception 23 yards for a TD in the 45-24 victory…Earned Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors with 14 tackles (two solo) and two passes defensed vs. Chattanooga (Nov. 17)…Finished off his impressive freshman campaign with 10 tackles (five solo) in the national championship win vs. Delaware (Dec. 14).

PERSONAL: Given name Darryl Devon Smith Jr. … Goes by D.J. …Born in Charlotte, N.C. …Single… High school: A three-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Charlotte (N.C.) Independence High, which went undefeated and won four straight 4A state championships during his prep career…Earned all-state recognition two times and was a three-time all-conference honoree…Ranked second on the team in tackles as a senior, playing both middle and outside linebacker, on his way to being named team MVP… Also lettered three years in basketball…Hobbies/interests: Enjoys spending time with family and playing video games, listing "Madden" as his favorite...Cites Appalachian State's FCS National Championship his freshman year as his most memorable sports achievement...Lists Patrick Willis and Ray Lewis as his favorite athletes, Family Guy as his favorite TV show and Transformers III as his favorite movie...Residence: Charlotte, N.C.

[1]NFC Divisional Playoff

IMPOSTER

During the 1923 season, the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a major story announcing the Packers had signed Jack "Dollie" Gray, an end who'd received All-America honors at Princeton.

According to participation charts kept by George Calhoun, Gray started his only game played — a 24-3 loss to the Racine Legion at Bellevue Park.

Made suspicious by Gray's performance, Curly Lambeau checked the player's background, only to discover he was an imposter. Lambeau quickly gave the player — whoever he was — his walking papers.

However, because he did play in a game, the Packers still list him on their all-time roster.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

A raw, physical player who was one of 17 non-drafted free agents to sign with the Packers on the eve of 2011 training camp.

Joined S M.D. Jennings and LB Jamari Lattimore as the only three rookie free agents to make the opening-day roster.

Made a strong push to make the team with his performances in the team's final two preseason games, combining for seven tackles, 2½ sacks, two forced fumbles and an INT-TD in those two contests.

Appeared in seven regular-season games as a rookie, seeing time on special teams and as part of the rotation at OLB. Totaled seven tackles and a sack on defense and three tackles on special teams.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Signed by the Packers as a non-drafted free agent on July 28, 2011, and was one of three non-drafted rookies to make the opening-day roster in 2011, joining S M.D. Jennings and LB Jamari Lattimore.
- Appeared in seven games as a rookie in 2011, recording seven tackles and a sack from the outside linebacker position, while also adding three stops on special teams.
- Played his way onto the team with a strong showing in the 2011 preseason, finishing with 13 tackles, a team-high 2½ sacks, two forced fumbles and an INT he returned for a TD.
- Is a second cousin of the late Junior Seau, a 12-time Pro Bowl LB who played 20 seasons with the San Diego Chargers, Miami Dolphins and New England Patriots, and died tragically in May 2012.
- Committed to BYU as a tight end, playing his first two seasons on offense before converting to defense where he contributed as both a linebacker and defensive end.

2011 SEASON: One of three non-drafted rookie free agents to make the club out of training camp in 2011, doing so on the strength of a strong preseason that saw him make significant strides in the final two exhibition games… Finished the preseason with 13 tackles (nine solo), 2½ sacks, two forced fumbles and an INT that he returned 33 yards for a TD…Suffered a back injury during the week of preparation leading up to the regular-season opener vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8) and was listed as an inactive for the first three games of the season…Ultimately made his NFL debut in Week 4 and for the season, appeared in seven games both on special teams and in the rotation at outside linebacker, totaling seven tackles (five solo) and a sack on defense, and adding three tackles on special teams… Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Made his NFL debut, appearing predominantly on special teams but also seeing one defensive snap late in the game at OLB, and did not record any statistics…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Once again saw time on special teams, recording the first coverage tackle of his career when he fought off a block to bring down WR Percy Harvin on a kickoff return in the first quarter…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Saw his most extended action on defense to that point in the season, appearing on 26 plays and posting a season-high three tackles (one solo), a QB hit and two pressures…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Followed up his increased exposure the previous week by seeing action on a season-high 46 defensive plays, recording two tackles (both solo) and his first career sack in the third quarter. On the play, started upfield against RT Gosder Cherilus, but worked his way back to the inside, dropping QB Matthew Stafford for an 11-yard loss.

COLLEGE: Recruited to BYU as a tight end and spent his first three years on campus in that capacity before converting to the defensive side of the ball prior to the start of the 2008 season…A four-year letterman, he lettered twice on offense before making the conversion to defense, first practicing at linebacker and ultimately settling in at defensive end…Suffered two season-ending injuries while in college and was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA…Appeared in 24 games as a TE, making 12 catches for 124 yards (10.3 avg.)…Finished his career by playing 24 games on defense between 2008-10, tallying 55 tackles (including 15½ for loss), six sacks and an INT… Earned a degree in geography…Senior season (2010): Used his NCAA-granted sixth year of eligibility and started all 13 games at defensive end, setting career highs in every major defensive category…Totaled 45 tackles (18 solo), including a team-high 11½ for loss, and five sacks, earning various All-Mountain West Conference honors following the season…Made a career-high 11 stops in a loss at Air Force (Sept. 11)…Picked off QB Colin Kaepernick, a second-round pick of the 49ers in 2011, vs. Nevada (Sept. 25) to record his first career INT…Junior season (2009): Saw his first extended action on the defensive side of the ball, appearing in 10 games as both a defensive end and on special teams…Registered 10 tackles from scrimmage during the season, including four for loss and his first career sack vs. Colorado State (Sept. 26)…Redshirt season (2008): Asked to be moved to linebacker to start the 2008 season and started the first game, but fell victim to a foot injury and missed the rest of the year…Sophomore season (2007): Played in all 13 games, posting 12 catches for 124 yards (10.3 avg.) as a tight end…Contributed a season-high two catches for 33 yards (16.5 avg.) in the team's season-opening victory vs. Arizona (Sept. 1)…Redshirt season (2006): Missed the 2006 season with a knee injury and was redshirted…Freshman season (2005): Appeared in 11 games as a true freshman, starting one at tight end but seeing extensive action on special teams.

PERSONAL: Given name Vitale Ta'aga Magauli So'oto… Last name is pronounced so-OH-toe…Born in Oceanside, Calif. …Married, wife's name is Ashley...The couple has a 1-year old daughter, Asofiafia, and is expecting a second daughter in September 2012…Is a second cousin of the late Junior Seau, a 12-time Pro Bowl LB who played 20 seasons with the San Diego Chargers, Miami Dolphins and New England Patriots…High school: A three-year letterman as both a LB and TE at Carlsbad (Calif.) High School, the same school that produced former Packers LB Brandon Chillar and WR Brett Swain…Was named first-team All-San Diego by the San Diego Union-Tribune following his senior season in 2004 when he recorded 80 tackles and three forced fumbles from the LB position… Also had 18 catches for 400 yards (22.2 avg.) and two touchdowns as a TE that season…Community involvement: Spoke to the team and signed autographs at the Kaukauna Raiders Youth Football Club banquet in November 2011…Also attended the annual Families of Children with Cancer holiday party in December 2011…Hobbies/ interests: Enjoys spending time with his family, watching documentaries and listening to country music in his free time…Lists his favorite musical act as Zac Brown Band and his favorite vacation spot as Hawaii…Traveled to Italy following the 2011 season and says he is learning how to play the guitar…Residence: Carlsbad, Calif.

Career record includes postseason games. From 1921-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage.

Did you know…Most historians credit the Packers as the first football team to film games and practice, something as important to today's game as the ball itself. The routine, carried on by Vince Lombardi (above), first began in 1923, when Otto Stiller used a hand-powered camera to film games atop the Bellevue Park grandstand.

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 218 • Born: February 25, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 16/2 • Acquired: D6-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Led the team with 578 rushing yards on 133 carries (4.3 avg.) in 2011, while also leading the running backs with 29 receptions for 216 yards (7.4 avg.).

Along with RB Ryan Grant (559 yards), became the first pair of Green Bay backs to eclipse the 550-yard mark in the same season since Edgar Bennett and Dorsey Levens did so in 1996.

Limited to just three games as a rookie in 2010 as he worked his way back from a hamstring injury, but burst onto the scene with a league-leading 315 rushing yards in the 2010 postseason.

Those 315 yards in the '10 playoffs were the third most ever by a rookie RB in the postseason behind only Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987) and Baltimore's Jamal Lewis (338 in 2000).

Posted 73 yards on 18 carries in his NFL debut vs. San Francisco in Week 13, the highest yardage total by a Green Bay rookie RB in his first game since Ralph Earhart had 78 in his debut at Boston (Sept. 17, 1948).

Originally injured his hamstring during OTAs in May of his rookie campaign, and spent the entire preseason and the first nine regular-season games on the physically unable to perform list.

Was chosen by the Packers in the sixth round (193rd overall), the 13th running back taken in the draft and the first running back drafted into the NFL from his school.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Led the team with 578 rushing yards on 133 carries (4.3 avg.) in 2011.
- Posted a league-leading 315 rushing yards in the 2010 postseason, third most ever by a rookie RB in the postseason behind only Washington's Timmy Smith (342 in 1987) and Baltimore's Jamal Lewis (338 in 2000).
- Rushed for 123 yards at Philadelphia in an NFC Wild Card contest, the most by a Green Bay rookie in franchise postseason history.
- Recorded 73 yards on 18 carries in his NFL debut vs. San Francisco in Week 13, the highest yardage total by a Green Bay rookie RB in his first game since Ralph Earhart had 78 in his debut at Boston (Sept. 17, 1948).
- In three years, became the University at Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,140), rushing TDs (34) and points scored (222). Missed his senior season due to a shoulder injury that required surgery.
- Set single-season school records for carries (272), rushing yards (1,333), points scored (102) and all-purpose yards (1,694) in 2008 despite missing two-plus games with injuries.
- Became first running back drafted into the NFL from his school and the first player drafted by the Packers out of Buffalo.

2011 SEASON: Played in 13 games with two starts and led the team with 578 yards and a TD on 133 carries (4.3 avg.)…Also led the Green Bay running backs with 29 receptions for 216 yards (7.4 avg.)…Appeared in team's playoff contest…Sidelined for three games with an ankle injury…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Led the team with 57 yards on 12 carries (4.8 avg.) and scored his first career regular-season TD, a 17-yard run in the second quarter… At Carolina (Sept. 18): Carried nine times for a regular-season career-high 85 yards (9.4 avg.) and added three catches for 30 yards (10.0 avg.). Posted a career-long 40-yard run in the second half, the longest run by a Packer since RB Brandon Jackson's 71-yarder at Washington (Oct. 10, 2010)…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Made his first career regular-season start in the absence of an injured Ryan Grant (kidney) and rushed for 63 yards on 13 carries (4.8 avg.). Added five receptions for 38 yards (7.6 avg.)… At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Led the team with 75 yards on 13 carries, a 5.8-yard average that was a career high (min. 10 attempts). Carried six times for 55 yards to run the final 2:30 off the clock in the 33-27 win despite eight- and nine-man fronts by Minnesota…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Tied for the team lead with six catches for 53 yards (8.8 avg.), career highs in both categories. Added 38 yards rushing on 11 carries (3.5 avg.). Suffered a knee injury at the tail end of a carry with just over three minutes remaining and did not return…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Started just four days later and carried four times for 19 yards (4.8 avg.). Rested for most of the second half with the game in hand…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Carried three times for 5 yards (1.7 avg.), but sustained an ankle injury in the first half and did not return. The injury would sideline him for the next two games as well as the regular-season finale.

2010: Appeared in just three regular-season contests as he worked his way back from a hamstring injury, but started all four postseason games…Rushed for 101 yards on 29 carries (3.5 avg.) and caught two passes for 15 yards (7.5 avg.) during the regular season…Led the NFL with 315 rushing yards on 81 carries (3.9 avg.) in the playoffs, the third-highest postseason total by a rookie behind only Smith (342 in '87) and Lewis (338 in '00)…Returned two kickoffs for 25 yards (12.5 avg.) during the regular season and five for 70 yards (14.0 avg.) in the postseason…Originally sustained hamstring injury during OTAs in May, and was placed on active/PUP at the start of training camp… Later transferred to reserve/PUP at the first roster reduction on Aug. 31, where he would stay for the first nine games…Activated from reserve/PUP on Nov. 9…Was inactive for two games following his activation plus another two contests in December…Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Served as the backup to Jackson and responded with 73 yards on 18 carries (4.1 avg.). Yardage total was the most by a Green Bay rookie RB in his debut since Earhart's 78 at Boston (Sept. 17, 1948). Carried the ball nine times for 35 yards on a 17-play, 74-yard drive in the fourth quarter that milked 8:35 off the clock. Shook loose for a 16-yard gain by bouncing out around the right end…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Posted the top rushing total by a Packers rookie in franchise playoff history, racking up 123 yards on 23 carries (5.3 avg.). The yardage total was the third highest in team postseason annals behind only Ryan Grant (201, vs. Seattle, Jan. 12, 2008) and Ahman Green (156, at Philadelphia, Jan. 11, 2004)…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Continued to provide a consistent rushing threat for the Packers' balanced attack, posting 74 yards on 22 carries (3.4 avg.). Scored the first TD of his career on a 4-yard run early in the second quarter to put Green Bay ahead 14-0…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Became the first rookie RB to start the Super Bowl since Indianapolis' Joseph Addai in 2006. Carried 11 times for 52 yards (4.7 avg.), providing a consistent complement to an Aaron Rodgers-led passing attack. His impressive average per carry came against the league's No. 1-ranked rushing defense in the regular season, a unit that allowed opponents a 3.0-yard average…2010 NFL Draft: Drafted by the Packers in the sixth round (No. 193 overall), the 13th running back taken in the draft and the first player ever drafted out of Buffalo by Green Bay. Became the first running back in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft.

COLLEGE: Finished his career as the University at Buffalo's all-time leader in rushing yards (3,140), rushing touchdowns (34) and points scored (222) despite missing his senior campaign due to a shoulder injury…Played 36 games in three seasons, rushing 698 times for 3,140 yards (4.5 avg.) with 34 TDs, adding 127 receptions for 898 yards (7.1 avg.) and three more scores…Reception total ranks seventh on the school's all-time list…His 3,140 yards broke the previous record of 3,103 held by Anthony Swan (1994-97), his 34 rushing TDs broke the previous record of 29 by Lee Jones (1965-67) and Swan, and his 222 points topped the previous record of 184 by Alan Bell (1989-92)…His 12 100-yard rushing games fell one shy of Swan's mark, and his 698 carries are also second to Swan (812) in school annals…One of only four players in school history to generate more than 4,000 all-purpose yards, finishing with 4,045…Had his most decorated year as a junior in 2008, when he set single-season school records for carries (272), rushing yards (1,333), all-purpose yards (1,694) and points scored (102)…Was recruited as a QB, converted to CB during his redshirt season in 2005 and then became a part-time starter at RB in '06…Graduated with a degree in sociology…Senior season (2009): Sat out the entire season after undergoing surgery on his shoulder in August…Was limited by the shoulder injury during spring camp in March, tried to play through it and aggravated the problem, which turned out to be a torn labrum…Began the year as a preseason All-America and All-Mid-American Conference selection and was on the Doak Walker Award watch list as one of the nation's top running backs…Junior season (2008): Despite missing two-plus games with injuries, set single-season school records with 1,333 rushing yards on 272 carries (4.9 avg.)…Yardage total topped O.D. Underwood's 1,189 yards in 1986, while the attempts topped his own mark from the previous season…Earned honorable mention All-America from The NFL Draft Report and was named first-team All-MAC by the league's coaches and media…Ranked third in the MAC and 15th in the nation in rushing with 111.1 yards per game, topping 100 six times, one shy of the single-season school record held by Swan (1996) and Underwood (1986)…Rushed for 16 TDs, tying a school record first set by Jones in 1966…Scored at least one TD in each of the final nine games and multiple TDs in four straight…Added a receiving TD, as he ranked second on the team with 52 receptions for 361 yards (6.9 avg.)…Also set school records for points scored (102) and all-purpose yards (1,694), beating Jones' point total of 96 (1966) and Andre Forde's yardage mark of 1,556 (2002)…Earned MAC East Division Offensive Player of the Week honors with 30 carries for season-high 185 yards and two TDs at Ohio (Oct. 28), one a 56-yarder in the fourth quarter to clinch the win…Sophomore season (2007): Earned All-MAC second-team honors for the second straight year with 251 carries (a single-season school record he would break the following year) for 1,103 yards (4.4 avg.) and 12 TDs…Added 41 receptions for 311 yards (7.6 avg.) and two more TDs…Named MAC East Offensive Player of the Week with 183 yards rushing on career-high 36 carries with two TDs, including a 72-yarder, vs. Ohio (Oct. 4)…Named MAC East Offensive Player of the Week for the second straight week with career-high 231 yards and three TDs on 34 carries vs. Toledo (Oct. 13), earning an ESPN "helmet sticker" on the network's day-end wrap-up show. The 231 yards rank third on the school's all-time single-game list, behind 266 from Bell (vs. Duquesne, 1991) and 232 from Underwood (vs. Rochester, 1986)…Redshirt freshman season (2006): Moved from CB to RB and started six of 12 games played, leading the team in rushing with 704 yards and six TDs on 175 carries (4.0 avg.), good for second-team All-MAC honors…Finished second on the team with 34 catches for 226 yards (6.7 avg.)…Ran for season-high 162 yards and three TDs on 24 carries vs. Kent State (Nov. 4) to earn MAC East Player of the Week honors.

PERSONAL: Given name James Darell Starks…Nicknamed "Buck"…Born in Niagara Falls, N.Y. …Single…Says his two uncles, who are pastors, have been a big influence on him as an athlete…High school: As a QB at Niagara Falls High, was a three-time team captain…Ran for 1,048 yards and threw for more than 600 yards as a senior, earning All-Western New York honors…Played for coach Joe Shifflet, a former University at Buffalo football player…Also played shooting guard on a basketball team that included future Syracuse stars Paul Harris and Jonny Flynn, who now plays for the Portland Trail Blazers…Was a four-year letterman in basketball as well as track, running

MULTIPLE 100-YARD RUSHERS IN SAME GAME

In the 2008 regular-season finale, two Packers topped 100 yards rushing, a feat which has been accomplished only twice by the team in the past 24 seasons. Ryan Grant (106) and DeShawn Wynn (106 yards) became the fifth pair in Packers history to accomplish the feat.

- Multiple Packers players with 100 yards rushing in the same game:

HUTSON SETTLES ON THE BAY

1962 Lambeau Field program feature, by Steve Boda Jr.

Green Bay has always had that special somebody, either on the field or in the background, offering inspiration or carrying on the tradition for the City of the Bay that is unique in the annals of professional sports.

And yet, the Packers came perilously close to being denied one of their most popular on-the-field performers. Instead of catching passes and acquiring immortality in Green Bay, Don Hutson might well have been relegated to obscurity in, of all places, Brooklyn.

By 1935, the Packers and Green Bay had fought side by side through one crisis after another, adversity and discouragement. A proud and determined community rallied time and again to save ITS football team from the brink of disaster and forfeiture of a coveted franchise. Then came the formation of Green Bay Packers, Inc., and the Packers belonged to Green Bay and Green Bay belonged to the Packers.

It was also a time to reward the faithful Bayers by laying the foundation for an overdue championship. After sweeping to three titles in succession in 1929-30-31, the Packers had slipped from contention and the vaunted Bears were now the kingpins of the West.

In the early 1930s, Coach Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau found it necessary to replenish his forces as one by one, he, Verne Lewellen, Jug Earp, Lavvie Dilweg, Red Dunn, Tom Nash and other stalwarts wrote the final chapter on their active playing careers.

Lambeau was carefully grooming a hometown product to step on the firing line and resume the aerial attacks so brilliantly conducted through the years by the Packers coach himself, Lewellen and Dunn. He was Arnie Herber and his passing arm lacked nothing…except targets.

For years Lambeau was a familiar figure at the workouts of the Rose Bowl game participants and the December of 1934 found him at his favorite haunts in Pasadena. As he watched Alabama prepare for Stanford, his eyes were riveted on a lean and lanky Crimson Tide end.

Don Hutson was not merely fast, he was blinding fast. In addition to his combination of speed and agility, he had an uncanny ability to estimate the speed of a pass in flight, just the exact instant it was going to arrive at a given point. He could run in one direction with an opponent trailing him, while the pass he eventually was to receive was thrown in another; then, like a flash he would turn and invariably get to the point where the ball and he were to arrive, and he caught by sure hands.

But landing this target for the accurate-throwing Herber was another matter.

Hutson frankly admitted to the Packers coach that John (Shipwreck) Kelly of the football Brooklyn Dodgers had approached him and he had a tentative agreement to sign with Kelly.

Both Lambeau and Kelly redoubled their efforts. Lambeau pointed out that Green Bay, with its emphasis on passing, was the place for Hutson in pro football. He stressed that Brooklyn, under Paul Schissler, relied on a ground attack, featuring power plays and that Hutson, at 185 pounds, would not fit in with the Dodgers' pattern of play.

Hutson was unveiled in Green Bay on Sept. 22, 1935, taking a starting position at left end against the Bears. The visitors kicked off and Herber carried back to the 17. On the first play, Herber drifted back to pass. The Bears, familiar with previous Green Bay pass patterns, converged on the most likely receiver, Johnny Blood. The rookie left end was ignored.

Herber let go from the Packer 6 and Hutson pulled in the toss at midfield. Challenging him was the Bears' fastest back, Beattie Feathers. Hutson sped on, eluded a futile, frantic lunge by Feathers, and crossed the goal for the game's only touchdown.

Second NFL Season
Second Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 254 • Born: November 16, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 15/0 • Acquired: D7a-11

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Appeared in 15 games in 2011, second most among Packers rookies behind only LB D.J. Smith.

A key contributor on special teams, he finished fifth on the team with 10 tackles, which was also second among Green Bay rookies behind only Smith (11).

Saw his first action on offense vs. Oakland in Week 14 following the season-ending knee injury sustained by TE Andrew Quarless the previous week at the N.Y. Giants.

Scored a TD on his first offensive snap of the season, a 4-yard grab from QB Aaron Rodgers against the Raiders.

Was drafted by the Packers with the first of two seventh-round picks (218th overall), the first player drafted by Green Bay out of North Carolina since DT Vonnie Holliday (first round, 1998).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Played in 15 games in 2011, second most among Green Bay rookies behind only LB D.J. Smith (16).
- Finished No. 5 on the team and No. 2 among Packers rookies with 10 tackles on special teams in '11.
- Set a North Carolina single-season school record for receptions by a tight end with 36 in 2010.
- Established career highs for receptions and yards in each of his final three collegiate games, capping his career with nine catches for 85 yards in the Music City Bowl vs. Tennessee.
- Played on offense (TE), defense (LB) and special teams in the same game, vs. North Carolina State in 2008.
- Was special teams captain for the Tar Heels for two seasons (2008, 2010), having missed the 2009 season due to a knee injury.

2011 SEASON: Played in 15 regular-season games as well as the team's playoff contest…Finished No. 5 on the team with 10 special teams tackles…His one reception went for a 4-yard TD…Inactive for the season opener vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8)…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Made his pro debut in his home state, registering two tackles on special teams, one each on the kickoff- and punt-coverage units…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Played on special teams and his block on LB Kenny Onatolu helped spring WR Randall Cobb's 42-yard punt return in the third quarter…At San Diego (Nov. 6): Made two tackles on special teams, one each in punt and kickoff coverage…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Recorded a stop on special teams and made a key block on FB Ryan D'Imperio to help create a wide lane used by Cobb at the beginning of his 80-yard punt return for a TD early in the first quarter…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Saw his first playing time on offense in the absence of Quarless (knee). Made an immediate impact by catching a 4-yard TD pass on his first career offensive snap. Ran a quick hook route just beyond the goal line and reached to his left for his first career grab, one that gave Green Bay a 14-0 lead late in the first quarter…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Appeared on offense and special teams. Saw extended action in a fullback role in the second half after John Kuhn departed with a knee injury. Made a key lead block on LB Mathias Kiwanuka on RB James Starks' game-long 29-yard run in the third quarter...2011 Draft: Drafted by the Packers with the first of two seventh-round picks, the 218th overall selection and the 11th TE taken. Became the first player drafted by the Packers from North Carolina since DT Vonnie Holliday (first round, 1998).

COLLEGE: An all-way player early in his college career as a tight end, linebacker and special teams contributor who emerged as his team's primary threat at tight end as a senior…Was a special teams captain for two seasons at North Carolina, in 2008 and 2010, the two years sandwiched around the 2009 season he lost due to a knee injury…Played in 48 games with five starts during his career, with all five starts coming at tight end as a senior…Interestingly, his position coach at North Carolina during his freshman 2006 season was John Gutekunst, father of Packers director of college scouting Brian Gutekunst, and his position coach his final two college seasons was Allen Mogridge, who also was Starks' position coach for his freshman season in 2006 at Buffalo…Majored in com-

ERIK WALDEN

LINEBACKER ▪ MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE

Fifth NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 250 • Born: August 21, 1985 • NFL Games Played/Started: 53/17 • Acquired: FA-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Re-signed with the Packers as an unrestricted free agent on April 23, 2012.

Contributed as a full-time starter for the first time in his career in 2011, opening the first 15 games of the season at ROLB and finishing fifth on the defense with a career-high 86 tackles (50 solo), three sacks, two passes defensed and a fumble recovery that he returned for his first career TD.

Originally a midseason free-agent acquisition who played a vital role on the defense in the second half of the 2010 season as well as the playoffs.

Saw what was then the most significant action of his career with the Packers down the stretch in 2010 after contributing primarily on special teams in 28 games with Kansas City and Miami from 2008-10.

Recorded the finest performance of his career in the Packers' playoff berth-clinching 10-3 win over division rival Chicago in the 2010 season finale. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the showing as he registered a career-high 16 tackles and a career-best three sacks.

Went on to start the first three postseason games before an ankle injury sustained in the NFC Championship at Chicago sidelined him for Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh.

Initially signed with the Packers as a free agent on Oct. 27, 2010. Had been with Miami for 2010 training camp before being released in the final roster cutdown on Sept. 4. Was re-signed by the Dolphins on Sept. 13, appearing in two games for them before being released again on Sept. 28.

A converted college DE who was drafted as an OLB by the Cowboys in 2008, he was released by Dallas in the final roster reduction before being claimed off waivers by Kansas City. Went on to play in nine games for the Chiefs and six more for the Dolphins after being released by Kansas City.

Posted 23 tackles on special teams in his first two NFL seasons with Kansas City and Miami.

A two-time All-Sun Belt Conference selection at Middle Tennessee State, he finished his career as the school's all-time sack leader with 22½ and set the school's single-season mark with 11½ as a junior in 2006.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Became a full-time starter for the first time in his career in 2011, opening the first 15 games at ROLB and setting or tying his career highs in every major statistical category.
- Recovered his first career fumble and returned it 5 yards for his first career TD against the Oakland Raiders on Dec. 11, 2011.
- Signed by the Packers as a free agent on Oct. 27, 2010, and went on to appear in nine games with two starts along with another three starts in the postseason.
- Took advantage of his second career starting assignment, earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his Week 17 performance vs. Chicago when he recorded a career-high three sacks and a career-best 16 tackles.
- Originally a sixth-round draft choice by the Dallas Cowboys in 2008, he played in a total of 28 games for Kansas City and Miami from 2008-10.
- Earned first-team All-Sun Belt honors as a junior and senior at Middle Tennessee State.
- Set Middle Tennessee State's career record for sacks with 22½ and the single-season mark with 11½ in 2006.

2011 SEASON: Entered training camp in competition with Frank Zombo for the starting assignment at ROLB opposite Clay Matthews in the team's 3-4 defense…Became the default starter when Zombo suffered a broken shoulder blade in the second preseason game and was sidelined for the early portion of the season…Went on to start the first 15 games and finish fifth on defense with a career-high 86 tackles (50 solo), three sacks, two passes defensed and a fumble recovery that he returned for his first career TD…Also added a tackle and a forced fumble on special teams…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Opened the regular season as a starter for the first time in his pro career and answered the bell with six tackles (four solo), a sack and a pass defensed. Sack came on a critical third-and-2 from the Green Bay 7-yard line when he came through unblocked and dropped QB Drew Brees for a 13-yard loss, limiting the Saints to a 38-yard FG on fourth down…At San Diego (Nov. 8): Finished with five tackles (three solo, two for loss), a team-leading six QB hits and a pass defensed in what was one of his better performances in the season's first half. Picked up his second sack of the season when he beat LT Marcus McNeill around the corner and pursued QB Philip Rivers all the way to the opposite sideline, dropping him for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter. Also later drew a holding penalty on TE Randy McMichael when he set the edge on a run by RB Mike Tolbert to his side…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Led the defense with a season-high 11 tackles (six solo, one for loss) and his third sack of the season. On the sack, shot past TE Luke Stocker, who had come from across the formation to block him, wrestling QB Josh Freeman to the ground for a 3-yard loss. Third sack of the season matched his career high set in 2010…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Finished as the team's leading tackler for the second consecutive week with 10 stops (seven solo), also adding three QB hits during the game. Did not record a sack but drew an illegal-use-of-the-hands penalty against LT Jeff Backus that put Detroit at first-and-20 on a drive that ended with a punt three plays later…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Finished with five tackles (three solo) and his first career fumble recovery that he returned 5 yards for a TD. On the fumble recovery, picked up a ball that had been punched out by LB Robert Francois after a completed pass to FB Marcel Reece, returning it 5 yards for his first career TD to extend the Packers' lead to 43-7. Became the franchise-record 19th player on the Packers' roster to score a TD in 2011, the fifth on defense…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Was relegated to reserve duty as the coaching staff elected to start Zombo and Brad Jones at the respective OLB positions with Matthews being rested for the playoffs. Appeared on 42 plays and was credited with one solo tackle. Also recorded his first special teams tackle of the season, a play that saw him jar the ball loose from WR Stefan Logan following a kickoff return and the fumble was recovered by K Mason Crosby at the Detroit 48-yard line.

2010: Played in the final nine regular-season games for Green Bay with a then-career-high two starts after joining the team as a free agent on Oct. 27…Saw his most significant action on defense at ROLB in the final month in place of injured Zombo (knee)…Posted 31 tackles (19 solo), three sacks and a pass defensed…Added four tackles on special teams…Started the opening three postseason contests before being sidelined with an ankle injury for Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh…Posted 15 tackles (nine solo), a sack and a forced fumble in the playoffs…Spent training camp with the Dolphins but was waived on Sept. 4…Was re-signed on Sept. 13 and played in two games – at Minnesota (Sept. 19) and vs. N.Y. Jets (Sept. 26) – but did not record any statistics, and was released again on Sept. 28…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Despite having signed only five days earlier by the Packers, was active and saw limited action at ROLB in the nickel package. Also appeared on special teams, recording one tackle on kickoff coverage…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Saw his most extensive time on defense to that point after Zombo left the game with a knee injury in the second half. Played 17 snaps and registered two solo tackles…At New England (Dec. 19): With Zombo sidelined, earned his first career start and led the team with nine tackles (four solo)…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Despite being limited in practice during the week with a quadriceps injury, played 28 snaps on defense and recorded two solo tackles…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Led the team with career highs in sacks (three) and tackles (16) on his way to earning NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors. In the second quarter, beat LT Frank Omiyale on third-and-goal from the 4 to bring QB Jay Cutler down for an 8-yard loss and force the Bears to settle for a FG. His other two sacks came on the same third-quarter drive, beating Omiyale on first down to bring Cutler down for a loss of 9 yards and then coming on a delayed blitz between center and right guard on third-and-15 to sack Cutler for an 11-yard loss. Became the first NFL player to have his first career sack come as part of a three-sack game since Cleveland LB Andra Davis (four sacks, at Kansas City, Nov. 9, 2003)…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Started and registered a team-high eight tackles (five solo). Also posted a sack, a QB hit and a forced fumble. On the Eagles' first possession, brought QB Michael Vick down for a sack as he attempted to scramble out of the pocket, forcing a punt. On Philadelphia's next series, tackled RB LeSean McCoy on third-and-9 and forced a fumble that was recovered by T Winston Justice, again forcing a punt. Teamed with LB A.J. Hawk to bring heavy pressure on Vick's incomplete pass on a two-point conversion attempt late in the game with the Packers leading 21-16…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Started and recorded four tackles (two solo), three QB hits and a pair of QB pressures…At Chicago (NFC Championship, Jan. 23): Got the start and registered three tackles (two solo) and two QB hits before leaving with an ankle injury in the third quarter…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Inactive after being limited by the ankle injury in practice the week leading up to the game.

2009: Played in 11 games for the Dolphins and recorded eight special teams tackles…Inactive for five contests…Vs. Buffalo (Oct. 4): Registered a season-high three tackles on special teams.

2008: Joined the Cowboys as a sixth-round draft pick in April but was released in the final roster reduction on Aug. 30…Claimed off waivers the next day by Kansas City and played in nine games for the Chiefs…Recorded 10 special teams tackles in Kansas City, tied for second on the team at the time he was released on Nov. 18…Claimed off waivers by Miami the next day…Played in six games for the Dolphins and posted five special teams stops…At New England (Sept. 7): Made his NFL debut, for the Chiefs…Vs. Baltimore (Jan. 4, AFC Wild Card): Made his NFL playoff debut, with the Dolphins…2008 Draft: Selected in the sixth round (167th overall) by the Dallas Cowboys…Was the first Middle Tennessee State player drafted since WR Tyrone Calico was selected by Tennessee in the second round in 2003.

NFL BROADCASTING POLICIES

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

- Franchised Market — Television market (ADI or DMA) that has an NFL franchise (i.e., Buffalo, N.Y., or Phoenix, Ariz.).
- Secondary Blackout Market — Television market in the home territory (with station(s) having signal penetration to within 75 miles of the game site) of an NFL franchise that is subject to blackout restrictions.
- Early Game — Game with kickoff at 12:02 p.m. CT.
- Late Game — Game with kickoff at 3:05 or 3:25 p.m. CT.

BLACKOUT POLICY

To ensure an NFL club's ability to sell all of its game tickets, and to make televised games more attractive to viewers through the presence of sellout crowds, the following policy is observed by the NFL:

For a home game to be aired locally in the franchised market and in any secondary blackout market(s), the game must be sold out 72 hours in advance of kickoff. If the game is not a sellout by the 72-hour cutoff, both the home franchised market and the secondary markets of the carrying network will air an alternate game.

NUMBER OF GAMES IN A MARKET

With regard to the number of NFL games seen in a particular market on a Sunday afternoon, there are three situations.

- An NFL franchised market (i.e., New York, Chicago, Dallas, etc.) — On a week when the NFL team (or teams) in a market is on the ROAD Sunday, Monday or Thursday night, or Saturday afternoon, the market will receive three Sunday afternoon games: Two telecasts by the network with the doubleheader week and one game by the network with the single-game week. When an NFL team in the market is playing at HOME on Sunday afternoon, the market will receive two games: One game on FOX and one game on CBS, regardless of which network has the doubleheader week. That is, unless 1) the home team's assigned telecaster that day (CBS or FOX) also is on the doubleheader network and 2) the game is sold out 72 hours in advance. In that case, the three games would be the home team's and two other games in the remaining early or late window.
- All other television markets (including secondary blackout markets) — Network affiliates in these markets will receive three games on Sunday afternoon, two on the doubleheader network (one early and one late) and one game on the single-game network (either early or late).

SELECTION OF GAMES TO BE TELECAST REGIONALLY

By network contract, all team road games must be telecast back to that team's home territory (franchised market and secondary blackout markets). Other than this requirement, the televising network is the sole selector of which game(s) will be aired in all markets.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-Sun Belt Conference selection at DE who finished his career as the school's all-time sack leader with 22½…Played in 44 games with 34 starts and posted 152 tackles, including 40 for loss, one INT, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and four passes defensed…Earned his degree in physical education…Senior season (2007): Voted first-team All-Sun Belt by the league's coaches and media…Played in 10 games with nine starts, missing two contests with a toe injury, and recorded 46 tackles, including 8½ tackles for loss, two sacks, an INT, one forced fumble, two passes defensed and a safety…Had six tackles, including two for loss, plus a forced fumble vs. Western Kentucky (Sept. 20)…Recorded three tackles for loss, a sack, his first career INT and a safety at North Texas (Oct. 27)…Posted career-high 12 tackles at Louisiana-Monroe (Nov. 3)…Had career-best 11 solo tackles vs. Louisiana-Lafayette (Nov. 10)…Junior season (2006): Named first-team All-Sun Belt, starting 13 games and setting a single-season school record with 11½ sacks…The sack total ranked No. 10 nationally…Totaled career-high 48 tackles, including 14½ for loss, plus three forced fumbles and a recovery…Had a sack, forced fumble and recovery vs. Florida International (Aug. 31)…Had two sacks vs. Tennessee Tech (Sept. 14)…Broke the school's career record for sacks with two among his seven tackles at Arkansas State (Nov. 11)…Posted career-best 2½ sacks vs. Troy (Nov. 25)…Had team-best six tackles and two sacks in Motor City Bowl vs. Central Michigan (Dec. 26)…Earned the Dr. James E. [1]NFC Divisional Playoff

NICKNAME ORIGIN

In the Green Bay Press-Gazette on Aug. 29, 1919, two weeks before the team's first organized game, sports editor and Packers co-founder George Calhoun first publicly identified the team as the "Indian Packers."

Curly Lambeau received $500 from his employer, the Indian Packing Co., for uniforms and equipment, and for use of the company's lot for practice. In exchange, Lambeau and Calhoun agreed to call the team "Packers." Early fans, many of whom were working-class citizens, immediately embraced the name, widely publicized by Calhoun.

Calhoun also called them simply "Indians" briefly in 1919, but that moniker seemed to fold with the company, soon purchased – along with the team – by Acme Packing Co. In 1921, the team's first season in what is now the NFL, its owners had "Acme Packers" put on the jersey, setting the name in stone.

While "Packers" has served as the primary nickname since the team's embryonic stages, fans and sportswriters also have called them the Big Bay Blues, or the Bays. Lambeau in 1922 applied with the name "Blues," but public opinion quickly vetoed him.

A packer is someone who works at a packing house, an establishment for slaughtering, processing and packing livestock into meat, meat products and byproducts. "Green Bay Packers" is the longest-standing team name in NFL history.

THE COIN TOSS

1. The toss of the coin will take place within three minutes of kickoff in center of field. The toss will be called by the visiting captain before the coin is flipped. The winner may choose one of three privileges:
   (a) Receive or kick
   (b) Goal his team will defend
   (c) Defer choice to start of second half
2. Immediately prior to the start of the second half, the captains of both teams must inform the officials of their respective choices. The loser of the original coin toss gets first choice, unless the coin toss winner elected to defer.

Sixth NFL Season
Sixth Packers Season

Ht: : 5-11 Wt: 191 • Born: March 16, 1983 • NFL Games Played/Started: 79/51 • Acquired: FA-06

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Former non-drafted free agent and practice-squad player has developed into one of the top players at his position in the league.

Suffered a shoulder injury in the 2011 season opener, but managed to still start 15 games and post career highs for tackles (65) and passes defensed (24). Also added four interceptions, including the first TD return of his career in Week 9 at San Diego.

His 13 INTs and 258 return yards since the start of 2010 (including playoffs) rank No. 1 in the NFL.

Missed the first game of his career, seeing a streak of 72 consecutive games played (including playoffs) come to an end in Week 2 of 2011 at Carolina when he was rendered inactive due to a shoulder injury.

Posted the finest season of his career in 2010, his first as a full-time starter in Green Bay's base defense as he opened all 16 contests at right cornerback. Recorded then-career highs in tackles (63) and passes defensed (23) and a career-best six INTs as he led the team in interceptions and passes defensed.

Named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl in 2010, he was selected to the all-star game as an injury replacement for Eagles CB Asante Samuel, but did not play in the game since the Packers were preparing for Super Bowl XLV.

Tied the franchise single-postseason record with three more interceptions in the playoffs, including one for a touchdown, and his nine combined interceptions on the season ranked No. 1 in the NFL.

He is one of just three players whose career began since 1970 to post a 90-yard punt return and interception and kickoff returns of 65 yards in a career, joining Adam Jones and Lemar Parrish.

Moved into the starting lineup in Week 12 of '09 when Al Harris went down with a season-ending knee injury, and went on to lead the team with 22 passes defensed.

Got his first extensive starting experience in 2008, opening nine games in place of both Harris (spleen injury) and CB Charles Woodson (temporary move to safety).

Along with teammates Woodson and Nick Collins that season, became first Packers trio to each post five or more interceptions in a season since 1996 (S Eugene Robinson, S LeRoy Butler, CB Doug Evans).

Is the only non-drafted free agent in the NFL to record four or more interceptions each of the past four seasons, and his 19 interceptions in the regular season from 2008-2011 rank tied for No. 4 in the NFL.

In 79 career games, he has started 51 contests and posted 233 tackles (189 solo) with 20 interceptions, 87 passes defensed, two sacks, three forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries.

Released by Houston as a non-drafted rookie following training camp in 2006, he joined the Packers' practice squad for the final five weeks of that season.

AT A GLANCE ...

38

- First name is pronounced Trah-mahn.
- His 13 INTs and 258 return yards since the start of 2010 (including playoffs) rank No. 1 in the NFL.
- Ranked No. 1 in the NFL with a combined nine interceptions (six in regular season, three in postseason) in 2010.
- Posted 63 tackles, six interceptions and 23 passes defensed on his way to being selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2010 as an injury replacement.
- With three interceptions during the 2010 playoffs, tied Joe Laws (1944) and Craig Newsome (1996) for the franchise single-postseason record.
- In Week 5 at Washington, he became the first player in franchise history to post a 50-yard punt return (52 yards) and a 60-yard INT return (64 yards) in the same game.
- Is the only non-drafted free agent in the NFL to post four or more interceptions each of the last four seasons. His 19 interceptions over that span rank tied for No. 4 in the NFL.
- Led the nation with 19 passes defensed in 2005 as a senior at Louisiana Tech.

Became the surprise of camp in 2007, landing a spot on the 53-man roster with a strong preseason and by season's end had established himself as the team's No. 3 cornerback and top kick returner. That year, he got his first NFL interception and scored his first pro touchdown, returning a pooch punt out of field-goal formation 94 yards for a score vs. Carolina (Nov. 18).

2011 SEASON: Started all 15 games in which he played, setting a new career high for tackles with 65 (51 solo)…Posted his third consecutive season with 20-plus passes defensed with a new career-high and team-leading 24…Also collected four interceptions, including one he returned for his first regular-season TD at San Diego in Week 9…Suffered a shoulder injury in an awkward collision with Collins in the fourth quarter of the season opener…Missed the ensuing practice week and was inactive for the first time in his career in Week 2, snapping a streak of 72 consecutive games played (including playoffs)…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Finished with four tackles (three solo, one for loss), a fumble recovery and a pass defensed. Recovered a WR Marques Colston fumble that was forced by Collins on the Saints' second play from scrimmage, the fourth recovery of his career. Left the game in the fourth quarter after getting his arm caught in a collision with Collins. Sustained a shoulder injury and did not return…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Saw his streak of 72 consecutive games played (including playoffs) come to an end when the shoulder injury suffered the week before forced him to the inactive list for the first time in his career...At Chicago (Sept. 25): Returned to the lineup and appeared on all 54 defensive plays, finishing with one solo tackle and two passes defensed...At San Diego (Nov. 6): Made two tackles and recorded his first INT of the season in the first quarter, one that he returned 43 yards for the first regular-season TD of his career. On the play, broke hard on a quick-out to the sideline thrown by QB Philip Rivers intended for WR Patrick Crayton, stepping in front of the WR and going untouched down the sideline for the score to extend Green Bay's lead to 21-7 late in the first quarter…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Posted three tackles, two passes defensed and his second INT in as many weeks. INT came on a second-quarter play that saw him stay home on his assignment, picking off a flea-flicker attempt on a deep throw from QB Christian Ponder to his man, WR Devin Aromashodu. Williams undercut the WR and intercepted the ball, returning it 21 yards. Marked the fourth time in the CB's career that he has posted an INT in back-to-back games…Vs. Tampa Bay (Nov. 20): Racked up a season-high nine tackles (all solo), and recorded the first regular-season multi-INT game of his career with two picks of QB Josh Freeman. Marked his third consecutive game with an INT, the second such stretch of his career (Weeks 4-6, 2008). The first came in man-coverage against WR Mike Williams when he trailed the WR on a route that dragged all the way across the field. Undercut the route after Freeman released the ball, darting in front of the WR to make the diving INT. Second INT came late in the fourth quarter when Freeman tried to hit TE Kellen Winslow on a shallow crossing route. Winslow reached up for the ball and it deflected off of his fingertips and into the hands of Williams, who was in coverage behind the play. Returned the ball 28 yards on what was his fourth INT of the season and 20th of his career…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Totaled two tackles (one solo) and three passes defensed, serving as a central piece of the gameplan designed to stop explosive Detroit WR Calvin Johnson. Matched against the Pro Bowl WR for much of the game, Johnson finished with just four catches for 49 yards (12.3 avg.), with just one of them, a 5-yard completion, coming against Williams…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Finished with six tackles (four solo) and a pass defensed.

2010: Started all 16 contests for the first time in his career, opening each game at RCB…Recorded 63 tackles, six interceptions, 23 passes defensed and two fumble recoveries…Led the team in INTs and passes defensed, and his regular-season INT total ranked tied for No. 5 in the NFL…Added a sack, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble…Named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl, he was selected to the all-star game as an injury replacement for Samuel…Earned All-NFC recognition from Pro Football Weekly…Handled punt-return duties for the Packers, posting an 8.0-yard average on 41 returns…Started all four postseason games as he led the league with three interceptions, including one returned for a TD, during the playoffs…Became the first NFL player since the N.Y. Giants' R.W. McQuarters (2007) to post three INTs in a postseason…Also led the defense with eight passes defensed in the postseason…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Recorded a season-high three passes defensed (matched in Week 4 vs. Detroit) and recovered a fumble by RB Eldra Buckley in the third quarter that was forced by Woodson…At Chicago (Sept. 27): Led the team with seven tackles (all solo) and added a sack. Early in the second quarter, timed his blitz perfectly to come through untouched as he dropped QB Jay Cutler for a 5-yard loss…At Washington (Oct. 10): Posted his first INT of the season, picking off QB Donovan McNabb on the final play of regulation at the Green Bay 3. Weaved through traffic before finally being tripped up at the Washington 33 for a 64-yard return, the second longest of his career. Registered a 52-yard punt return in the second quarter, also the second longest of his career, as he joined CB Deion Sanders (Sept. 21, 1998) and CB Darrent Williams (Sept. 13, 2005) as the only NFL players since the merger to record an INT return of 60-plus yards and a punt return of 50-plus yards in the same game…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Recorded seven tackles (all solo), including one for a loss, along with an INT. Picked off QB Chad Henne's pass intended for WR Brandon Marshall at the Green Bay 14 late in the first quarter to halt a Miami scoring opportunity…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Turned in a stellar all-around performance, posting five tackles (all solo), an INT, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and two passes defensed. It was the first time in his career that he posted an INT, a forced fumble and a recovery in the same game…At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Registered three tackles (two solo), an INT and two passes defensed. With the Packers leading 10-3 late in the first half, halted a promising Minnesota drive by stepping in front of WR Percy Harvin on a slant at the Green Bay 18 to pick off QB Brett Favre. The INT gave the offense the ball with just over a minute remaining, enough time for them to march for a quick TD and a 17-3 halftime lead…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): Posted his career-high sixth INT of the season, cutting in front of WR Hakeem Nicks at the Green Bay 47 in the first quarter to intercept QB Eli Manning…At Philadelphia (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 9): Made the game's defining play, leaping to intercept QB Michael Vick's pass intended for WR Riley Cooper in the end zone with 33 seconds remaining to clinch the victory. Did not bite on a Vick pump fake, running step for step on a go-route to the end zone. Turned to find the ball and used his leaping ability to secure the pick against the 6-foot-3-inch Cooper. Finished the game with a team-high three passes defensed and three tackles (two solo)…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted one of the most electrifying performances of the postseason, intercepting passes on back-to-back possessions in the second quarter. First made a leaping INT of QB Matt Ryan in the end zone on third-and-21 in front of WR Michael Jenkins, who lost his footing on the play. On the following drive, made what was arguably the key play of the game with a 70-yard INT return for a touchdown in the closing seconds of the first half to extend Green Bay's lead to 28-14 at the break. With 10 seconds remaining, Atlanta called a timeout with the ball at the Green Bay 35 and attempted to pick up more yardage to move into FG range. Ryan threw toward the sideline to WR Roddy White, but Williams jumped inside the route to intercept the pass in stride, swerving past a couple of Falcons on his way to the end zone. The INT return was the second longest in franchise postseason history, trailing only S George Teague's 101-yarder at Detroit (Jan. 8, 1994). Became just the fourth player in team history to record multiple INTs in a playoff game…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Finished with six tackles (three solo) and a team-high three passes defensed, including one that sealed the game on fourth down on Pittsburgh's final drive. On the final play, a fourth-and-5 from the Pittsburgh 33, perfectly read a curl route by WR Mike Wallace and jumped with the explosive receiver, knocking the ball away to secure the world title.

2009: Played in all 16 games, plus the playoff contest, with 10 starts…Was nickel back for first 10 contests before moving into starting RCB spot in Week 12 due to Harris' season-ending knee injury…Led the team with 22 passes defensed…Posted 42 tackles (29 solo), four INTs and a sack…Added a career-high 11 tackles on special teams, which was tied for fourth on the team…Had a 10.4-yard average on 13 punt returns and also returned two kickoffs for 26 yards (13.0 avg.)…First player in franchise history to post an INT return of 65 yards (67 vs. Chicago, Sept. 13) and a punt return of 45 yards (45 vs. Detroit, Oct. 18) in the same season…On the field for 767-of-996 (77.0 percent) defensive plays…Vs. Chicago (Sept. 13): Intercepted Cutler's pass deep down the middle intended for WR Johnny Knox in the second quarter at Green Bay's 32 and returned the pick 67 yards to Chicago's 1 to set up a Ryan Grant TD run on the next play; the 67-yard return was his career long and the season long by a Packer. Tied a then-career high with three passes defensed and also tied for the team lead with two special teams tackles…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 18): Filling in for injured WR Jordy Nelson, returned a Nick Harris punt 45 yards in the second quarter, the longest punt return of the season by a Packer…Vs. Detroit (Nov. 26): Moved into starting lineup at RCB in place of an injured Harris (knee), his first start of the season in the base defense, and remained there for the rest of the season. Posted four tackles (three solo) and an INT, picking off QB Matthew Stafford's deep pass intended for WR Dennis Northcutt at the Green Bay 40…Vs. Baltimore (Dec. 7): Recorded a career-high four passes defensed, including an INT. With the Ravens at Green Bay's 3 in the fourth quarter trailing 24-14, made a leaping INT of QB Joe Flacco's pass in the end zone in front of WR Demetrius Williams…At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted the first sack of his career when he brought down Cutler for an 8-yard loss on the Bears' final series. With Green Bay trailing 14-13 early in the fourth quarter, also had a key pressure when he came on a corner blitz and got in Cutler's face to force a bad throw to the left sideline that Collins picked off and returned 31 yards to the Chicago 11; Grant scored two plays later on 1-yard TD run for winning score…At Arizona (Jan. 3): Recorded four tackles (three solo), an INT and two passes defensed. Made a leaping grab of QB Brian St. Pierre's pass intended for TE Stephen Spach on the sideline in the fourth quarter, and returned the pick 21 yards to Arizona's 33…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Posted six tackles (five solo) and added a stop on special teams.

2008: Played in all 16 games for the second straight season, including a career-high nine starts...Tied for third in the NFC with career-best five INTs and posted a career-high 52 tackles (45 solo)...Along with teammates Woodson and Collins, became first Packers trio to each post five or more INTs in a season since 1996 (Robinson, Butler, Evans)…Third on the team with 14 passes defensed, then a career high, and registered five special teams tackles...Tied for second on the team with two forced fumbles...On the field for 776-of-1,050 (73.9 percent) defensive plays…Vs. Dallas (Sept. 21): Started off game in customary nickel role, but moved to RCB when Harris left game with spleen injury in second quarter...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Started in place of injured Harris and intercepted QB Brian Griese's pass that was bobbled by WR Michael Clayton at Green Bay's 5-yard line, and returned the pick 39 yards... Vs. Atlanta (Oct. 5): Started and posted a career-high 10 tackles along with an INT in second straight game, a one-handed catch with his right hand on a pass from QB Matt Ryan intended for TE Ben Hartstock in the end zone. Score was 17-10 at the time and the Packers' offense moved down the field for tying TD following the pick…At Seattle (Oct. 12): Started third straight game and posted INT in third consecutive contest when he picked off QB Charlie Frye's deep pass intended for WR Koren Robinson down the left sideline...Vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 19): Started and posted six tackles. Broke up QB Peyton Manning's pass intended for WR Anthony Gonzalez on the first play of the second half and forced a fumble on TE Dallas Clark's reception late in the fourth quarter that went out of bounds at the Green Bay 1…At Tennessee (Nov. 2): Returned to nickel back spot with Harris coming back from injury...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Intercepted QB Gus Frerotte's pass over the middle intended for WR Bernard Berrian with just under 30 seconds remaining in the first half and returned the pick 19 yards to the Minnesota 40, which helped set up Mason Crosby's 47-yard FG as time expired in the half to narrow the Vikings' lead to 14-10…Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Played extensively as the nickel back as secondary allowed just four receptions by Bears WRs. Also matched season high with two stops on special teams…Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started at LCB with Woodson shifting to SS because of injuries. Made four tackles and forced a fumble by WR Muhsin Muhammad on a 44-yard reception on the first play of the game that Woodson recovered at the Green Bay 19…Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started at LCB and posted six tackles, intercepting QB Matt Schaub's pass intended for WR André Davis in the second quarter and recovering TE Owen Daniels' fumble at the Green Bay 3 earlier in the period. Also recorded a then-career-high three passes defensed…At Chicago (Dec. 22): Started at nickel back when Woodson returned to customary LCB spot.

2007: Former practice-squad player earned a surprise roster spot with a solid preseason…Played in all 16 contests, plus both playoff games, with one start, rotating as a nickel and dime back and posting 11 tackles (10 solo) with one INT among four passes defensed…Also had a team-leading 30 kickoff returns for 684 yards (22.8 avg.), plus six punt returns for 118 yards (19.7 avg.) and a TD, and seven special teams tackles…Vs. Chicago (Oct. 7): Had a career-high six kickoff returns for 173 yards; five of six returns went for 20 yards or more, including a career-long 65-yarder in the third quarter that set up a FG…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): Made his first two career special teams tackles…Vs. Carolina (Nov. 18): Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week when he scored his first career TD on a first-quarter punt return. K John Kasay punted out of field-goal formation; Williams fielded the punt off the bounce and returned it 94 yards down the right sideline for a score and 7-0 Green Bay lead…At Detroit (Nov. 22): Played extensively as an extra DB when Woodson left the game in the second quarter with a toe injury; broke up two passes, both on third down to Johnson to force punts, and made two solo tackles, the first of his career. Also had two special teams tackles, one in the second quarter, chasing down KR Aveion Cason from behind and making a TD-saving tackle; the Lions kicked a FG on the ensuing drive… Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Made his first career start with the team opening in nickel; made a then-career-high five tackles (four solo) and his first career INT, catching a QB Jon Kitna pass tipped by DE Cullen Jenkins and returning it 22 yards…Vs. N.Y. Giants (NFC Championship, Jan. 20): Broke up a third-and-12 pass in second quarter intended for WR David Tyree, forcing a FG attempt. In third quarter, ran a kickoff back 49 yards to the Giants' 39-yard line; the drive ended with a TE Donald Lee TD catch.

2006: Spent training camp with the Houston Texans before his release on Sept. 3…Signed to the Green Bay practice squad on Nov. 29, where he spent the final five weeks of the season…2006 Draft: Signed as a non-drafted free agent with Houston on May 8.

C.J. WILSON

DEFENSIVE END • EAST CAROLINA

Third NFL Season
Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 290 • Born: March 30, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 31/4 • Acquired: D7-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Third-year defender who has played in 31 of 32 possible games in his two professional seasons.

Played in all 16 games in 2011, once again making two starts and setting a career high with 35 tackles (21 solo).

Originally expected to contribute primarily on special teams as a rookie in 2010 when he was the team's sixth defensive lineman, but was thrust into more significant action after a knee injury ended the season of DE Justin Harrell and when veteran DEs Ryan Pickett and Cullen Jenkins both missed time with injuries of their own.

Appeared in 15 games with two starts his rookie year, recording 21 tackles (12 solo) and a sack. Played in all four playoff contests as well, getting the starting nod in Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh as part of the defense's "Hippo" package that employs four linemen.

AT A GLANCE ...

- A seventh-round draft pick who has appeared in all but one game in his two professional seasons, seeing significant time in the rotation up front and totaling 56 tackles (33 solo) and a sack.
- Started Super Bowl XLV vs. Pittsburgh with the defense employing a fourth lineman as part of its "Hippo" package.
- Named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year by Sporting News each of his final two seasons at East Carolina, and was a two-time first-team all-conference selection (2008-09).
- Played in all 54 games during his time at ECU, starting 37 straight contests to close out his career.
- Became first player from East Carolina to be drafted by the Packers.
- Earned his B.A. in communications in May 2009, and was a three-time selection to the ECU Athletic Director's Honor Roll after eligibility qualifying issues delayed the start of his career.

2011 SEASON: Continued to contribute as a significant rotational player in his second season, appearing in all 16 games and making two starts, setting a new career high with 35 tackles (21 solo)…Capitalized on the playing time created by a training-camp knee injury to fellow second-year DE Mike Neal, and received his two starting assignments later in the year when Pickett was sidelined with a concussion…At Atlanta (Oct. 9): Finished with four tackles (two solo, one for loss) as part of a defensive front that helped limit powerful Falcons RB Michael Turner to just 56 yards on 16 carries (3.5 avg.). Tackle for loss came on the first play of Atlanta's second possession late in the first quarter, when he fought off a block by veteran TE Reggie Kelly and dropped Turner for a 3-yard loss...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Credited with a season-high six tackles (three solo, one for loss). Aided the defense's effort in containing Pro Bowl RB Adrian Peterson, who rushed for just 51 yards on 14 carries (3.6 avg.)…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Led the defensive line by appearing on 38 plays and finished with two tackles (one solo). Also drew a holding call against LT Jake Veldheer that wiped out an 11-yard completion in the first quarter…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Started his first game of the season in the absence of the injured Pickett (concussion), appearing on a season-high 52 plays and finishing with three tackles (one solo). Teamed with LB D.J. Smith to take down RB Dexter McCluster for a 1-yard loss on an end-around play in the first quarter. Also slid past T Barry Richardson to help create the pile that stacked RB Jackie Battle for no gain at the Packers' 3-yard line on a fourth-down goal-line stand in the second quarter, resulting in a turnover on downs…Vs. Chicago (Dec. 25): Started at LDE in the continued absence of Pickett and matched his season high with six tackles (five solo, one for loss).

2010: Appeared in 15 games with two starts and finished the season with 21 tackles (12 solo), six QB hits and a sack…Played in all four postseason contests with one start, recording six tackles (five solo) and a sack…Inactive (healthy scratch) for season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12)…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Made pro debut, recording an assisted tackle and a QB hit…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Started the first game of his career at LDE in place of Pickett, who was inactive due to an ankle injury. Played 28 snaps and registered four tackles (two solo)…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): After Jenkins sustained a calf injury in pregame warm-ups, unexpectedly became a key member of the defensive front. Participated in 40 plays and recorded career highs in tackles (nine) and solo stops (five). Drilled QB Brett Favre in the third quarter as he stepped up to throw to WR Randy Moss, and the veteran QB's pass went right into the arms of LB Desmond Bishop, who returned the pick 32 yards for a TD and a 28-17 lead that the Packers wouldn't relinquish…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Started at LDE and posted three tackles (two solo), including one for a loss and a QB hit…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Posted his first career sack when he brought QB Jon Kitna down for a 1-yard loss as time expired. Finished with three tackles (two solo) and a QB hit…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Played 20 snaps as part of a defensive-line rotation, registering four tackles (three solo), a sack, a QB pressure and two QB hits. Dropped QB Matt Ryan for an 8-yard sack on the Falcons' final possession of the game… Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started the game with the defense employing a fourth lineman as part of its "Hippo" package. Participated in 14 plays and registered a QB hit…2010 NFL Draft: Selected by Green Bay

TITLETOWN: GREEN BAY, WIS.

Jack Yuenger first dubbed Green Bay "Titletown" after the team's 1961 NFL championship, a 37-0 triumph over the New York Giants. Yuenger, Green Bay Press-Gazette advertising manager, printed the city's new nickname on celebratory signs for fan distribution. The '61 title, the Packers' sixth of an NFL-record 13 world championships — and first under Vince Lombardi — was earned in Green Bay, the first championship game ever played in the city.

in the seventh round (No. 230 overall), the first player ever selected by the Packers out of East Carolina.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter for the Pirates who finished career with 192 tackles, including 45½ for loss, and 27 sacks…Was named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year as a junior and senior by Sporting News… Played in all 54 games during his time at ECU, starting 37 straight contests to close out his career…Earned second-team All-C-USA honors from the league's coaches as a sophomore and was named to the conference's All-Freshman team by the media…Initially enrolled at ECU in the fall of 2005, but officially joined the program in the spring of 2006 after completing NCAA eligibility requirements… Went on to be named to the ECU Athletic Director's Honor Roll three times…Earned his degree in communications in May 2009…Senior season (2009): Started all 14 games to close out his career with a starting streak of 37 consecutive games…Named C-USA Defensive Player of the Year by Sporting News for the second straight season…Also earned first-team all-conference honors from the league's coaches for the second straight campaign… Earned selection to the Ted Hendricks (nation's top defensive end), 40th Annual Rotary Lombardi (nation's top lineman), and Bronko Nagurski (nation's best defensive player) award watch lists…Finished season with 57 tackles (23 solo), including 10½ for loss, and 5½ sacks…Added a career-high 14 QB hurries and a pass defensed…Junior season (2008): Ranked second in the conference with 10½ sacks on his way to earning first-team All-C-USA honors from the league's coaches…Also earned C-USA Defensive MVP and C-USA Player of the Year honors from Sporting News and ESPN.com, respectively…Led the conference with 18½ tackles for loss and led team's defensive line with career-high 70 tackles (35 solo)…Posted season-high eight tackles at Tulane (Sept. 13), including three for a loss, along with a blocked FG attempt that was returned for a TD, on his way to earning C-USA Defensive Player of the Week honors…Sophomore season (2007): Earned second-team All-C-USA honors from the league's coaches…Opened season as a reserve for the first four games, but moved into starting lineup for the remainder of the season…Ranked sixth in the conference with seven sacks…Finished with 36 tackles (17 solo), including 10½ for loss, a forced fumble and a team-leading 12 QB pressures...Turned in career-best effort in his first start of the season with nine tackles, 2½ sacks, and a blocked FG at Houston (Sept. 29)…Freshman season (2006): Made an immediate impact as a true freshman, starting seven of 13 games…Selected to C-USA All-Freshman Team by media…Posted 29 tackles (17 solo), including six for a loss, and four sacks.

PERSONAL: Given name Clifford James Wilson… Born in Belhaven, N.C. …Single…Brother, Amos, played LB at New Mexico, where he was a teammate of Bears LB Brian Urlacher…Cousin, LB Keith Rivers, was a first-round selection by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2008 and is now a member of the N.Y. Giants…High school: Two-time Washington Daily News all-area selection at Northside High (Belhaven, N.C.)…Also earned all-conference honors in his final season, one that saw his team advance to the Eastern Championship…Played LB, CB, S, RB, T and FB during his career, and was a team captain as a senior…Lettered every year in basketball and track….Community involvement: Spoke to youth groups and youth football teams in college…Hobbies/interests: Is a music aficionado and an accomplished piano player…Lists Peyton Manning and former Packers DE Reggie White as his favorite athletes… Lists The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air and Burn Notice as his favorite TV shows and Any Given Sunday as his favorite movie…Enjoys reading the Bible and listening to gospel music…Residence: Belhaven, N.C.

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Polished veteran and team leader earned his fourth straight and eight career Pro Bowl bid in 2011, two years after his best individual season in 2009, when he won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press.

Was named a first-team All-Pro for the third time in his career after starting the first 15 games of 2011 before being rested by the coaching staff in the regular-season finale. Finished with 83 tackles (68 solo), tying for the NFL lead with seven interceptions, while also adding 20 passes defensed, two sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Won his first Super Bowl title in 2010 after 13 decorated seasons in the NFL, establishing new career highs in tackles (105) and forced fumbles (five), and becoming the first player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in five straight seasons.

Now has 11 career interceptions returned for touchdowns, tied for second on the NFL's all-time list with Darren Sharper (11), behind only Rod Woodson (12). Nine of those are with Green Bay, which constitutes a franchise record, as do his 10 defensive touchdowns (one fumble return).

In '09, became only the second Packer to win the league's top defensive award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to do so.

His three interceptions for touchdowns in '09 tied the single-season team mark also held by S Nick Collins and Herb Adderley, and his career-high nine interceptions on the year tied him for the league lead and put him alongside CB Bobby Dillon (1953-57) as the only Packers to intercept seven or more passes in three different seasons.

Tied for the NFC lead with teammate Collins by picking off seven passes (returning two for scores) and tallying a career-high three sacks in '08, despite playing most of the season with a broken toe.

Now ranks fifth in franchise history in both interceptions (37) and return yards (568).

Since signing with the Packers as their prized unrestricted free agent in 2006, has posted 37 interceptions, more than half of his career total of 54. His 25 interceptions since 2008 rank No. 1 in the NFL over that span.

With 169 INT return yards in '08, joined Collins to form the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus interception return yards in a season (John Symank/Dillon, 1957).

Drafted fourth overall in 1998 by Oakland, was voted to the Pro Bowl his first four years in the league (1998-2001) and earned first-team All-Pro honors on three occasions – in 1999 from AP, in 2000 from Sports Illustrated and in 2001 from Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly.

Was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by AP in 1998 as well, when his five INTs and 21 passes defensed established career bests not topped until coming to the Packers.

Signed with Green Bay on May 1, 2006, and became the sixth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Packers, joining (chronologically) B Bruce Smith (1945-48), B Paul Hornung (1957-62, 1964-66), QB Ty Detmer (1992-95), WR Desmond Howard (1996, 1999) and QB Danny Wuerffel (2000).

Has shown incredible toughness and desire to play by overcoming various injuries to start 93 of 96 games the last six seasons and was honored by teammates with the 2010 Ed Block Courage Award.

Possesses a host of experience on "grand" stages, among them three collegiate bowl games on a nationally ranked Michigan team, including a 1998 Rose Bowl victory over Washington State to sew up the co-national championship; three Michigan-Ohio State games in the annual battle between two of the country's fiercest rivals; plus 15 NFL postseason contests, including two Super Bowls (XLV, XXXVII) and four conference title games (2007, 2010 in NFC; 2000, 2002 in AFC).

Before a broken leg made him miss 10 games in 2005, had missed just 12 NFL games in his career and has played in 13 or more regular-season games in 12 of 14 seasons as a pro, following a collegiate career that included 34 straight games

AT A GLANCE ...

- In 2011, was named a first-team All-Pro for the third time and earned his fourth consecutive and eighth career Pro Bowl bid, becoming the first Green Bay CB to earn the honor in four or more straight seasons since Herb Adderley (1963-67).
- Tied for the NFL lead in interceptions in 2011, and also returned an interception for a touchdown for the 11th time in his career to move into a tie for the No. 2 spot in league history.
- Named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 2009, becoming only the second Packer to win the award (DE Reggie White, 1998) and the oldest defensive back to earn the honor.
- In 2009, posted a career-high nine interceptions and earned NFC Defensive Player of the Month honors three times. Became first defensive player in the NFL to win a monthly award three times in the same season.
- Holds the franchise record with 10 defensive TDs (nine INTs, one fumble return), eclipsing Adderley and S Darren Sharper (seven each) in '09 for the team mark.
- Has posted seven or more interceptions in four of his six seasons with the Packers, joining CB Bobby Dillon as the only players in franchise annals to intercept seven-plus passes in a season four times.
- Was voted the 1997 Heisman Trophy recipient, becoming the first predominantly defensive player to win the award given annually to the top collegiate player. He is the sixth Heisman Trophy winner to play for the Packers, joining a group that includes Paul Hornung, Ty Detmer and another former University of Michigan standout, Desmond Howard.
- His big-game experience includes two Super Bowls, four conference championship games, nine other NFL playoff contests, three collegiate bowl games including the 1998 Rose Bowl (vs. Washington State) for the co-national championship, and three matchups with collegiate archrival Ohio State.
- Made a $2 million donation to the new University of Michigan C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and Women's Hospital, which was announced on Thanksgiving Day in 2009.

at Michigan after becoming a starter in the second game of his true freshman season (1995).

Now has at least one INT in 14 consecutive NFL seasons and has totaled 944 tackles (777 solo), including 15½ sacks and 28 forced fumbles; 54 INTs among 196 passes defensed; 10 fumble recoveries (with one TD return); a blocked FG attempt; two receptions for 27 yards; and 87 punt returns for 708 yards (8.1 avg).

2011 SEASON: Earned first-team All-Pro accolades from The Associated Press and was honored with his fourth consecutive and eighth overall bid to the Pro Bowl…Started the first 15 games of the regular season at LCB before sitting out the season finale (coach's decision – rest)…Finished with 83 tackles (68 solo) and tied for NFL lead with seven interceptions…Marked his fourth season with seven-plus INTs for the Packers, joining Dillon as only the second player in franchise history to eclipse the mark in four or more seasons and the only player in the NFL since 2006 to do so…Returned an INT for a touchdown in Week 4, the 11th of his career, tying Sharper for second place in NFL history, within one of Rod Woodson's all-time record…Became the first player in NFL history to return at least one INT for a TD in six straight seasons, as no other player has done it in more than four…Added two sacks on the season, becoming the first defensive back in franchise history (since sacks became an individual statistic in 1982) to record two-plus sacks in four straight seasons…Also posted 20 passes defensed, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...At Carolina (Sept. 18): Started and spent most of the game on the outside in the absence of CB Tramon Williams (shoulder), away from his familiar slot position. Posted a trio of takeaway plays that ultimately turned the tide in Green Bay's favor, seeing them come in a span of four Carolina possessions between the second and third quarters that helped the Packers transform a 13-7 deficit into a 20-13 lead. Recorded eight tackles (six solo), two INTs, and a fumble recovery. Marked the sixth two-INT and third three-takeaway game of his brilliant career. At 34 years, 346 days old, became the oldest Green Bay player to record a two-INT game since Tom Brown did so (at Tampa Bay, Dec. 3, 1989) at 36 years, 321 days old. Both INTs came courtesy of eventual Offensive Rookie of the Year Cam Newton while Woodson was in coverage against WR Steve Smith, whose fumble he also recovered…Vs. Denver (Oct. 2): Finished with five tackles (four solo) and an INT that he returned 30 yards for a TD in the first quarter. The INT was the landmark 50th of his career as he became just the 37th player in league history to eclipse the half-century mark. Play served as the 11th INT-TD of his career, moving him into a tie for second place all-time behind only Rod Woodson (12). On the play, changed the coverage just before the snap, taking WR Eric Decker into the flat out of a stack formation. Identified the route and broke hard on QB Kyle Orton's throw, undercutting it and securing the ball at the 30-yard line before charging ahead to the end zone to push Green Bay's lead to 14-3 late in the first quarter…At Minnesota (Oct. 23): Tied for the lead in the secondary with six tackles (five solo), posted a career-high six passes defensed and added his fourth and fifth INTs off of rookie QB Christian Ponder on back-to-back third-quarter possessions. Game marked the sixth multi-INT game of his Green Bay career, tying him for fourth all-time in team history with S LeRoy Butler…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14): Tallied nine tackles (eight solo, one for loss) and had a team-high four passes defensed in what was one of his finest all-around performances of the season. Tackle for loss came early in the third quarter when he came through unblocked on a blitz and wrapped up RB Adrian Peterson in the backfield for a 6-yard loss. Also broke up passes on back-to-back plays in the fourth quarter on a drive that ended with one of the Vikings' six punts…At Detroit (Nov. 24): Made another Thanksgiving Day splash with five tackles (all solo), two passes defensed and his sixth INT. INT came when he diagnosed and closed hard on a quick-out to TE Brandon Pettigrew, acrobatically diving over the TE's left shoulder to pluck the pass from QB Matthew Stafford. Was the 53rd INT of his career and tied him with Ty Law and Deion Sanders for the 23rd-highest total in league history…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Finished as the team's leading tackler, making a season-high 12 (10 solo) stops. Made two consecutive plays as part of an excellent goal-line stand that forced a turnover on downs in the second quarter. On the first, shot inside of lead-blocking FB Le'Ron McClain, diving to trip up RB Jackie Battle for a 1-yard loss in the Kansas City backfield. On the following play, took down RB Thomas Jones after a 1-yard gain, forcing a fourth-and-1 that the defense also valiantly thwarted, giving the ball to the Packers' offense…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Was listed as a gameday inactive after the coaching staff elected to rest him with the team having already clinched home-field

WOODSON CLIMBS THE ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LADDER

For the second time in three seasons, cornerback Charles Woodson finished the year leading the NFL or tied for the league lead in interceptions. Woodson was voted to start the Pro Bowl (his eighth time earning the distinction) after picking off seven passes in 2011, a mark that tied him with New England's Kyle Arrington and San Diego's Eric Weddle for tops in the league, just two seasons removed from his career-high nine INTs that led the NFL in 2009.

The 15th-year pro now has 54 interceptions in his career, moving him into a tie for 20th place all-time and trailing only Baltimore safety Ed Reed (57) among active players. Interestingly, the margin between Woodson's current position and the top 10 is especially tight, as he would need just four INTs in 2012 to tie Emmitt Thomas for 10th place on the all-time list. Woodson has intercepted four or more passes seven times in his brilliant career, including five times since joining the Packers in 2006.

A look at where the standout defender ranks on the NFL's all-time interceptions list entering the 2012 season:

advantage for the upcoming postseason. Marked the first game he'd missed since the 2007 season finale when he was rested under similar circumstances, breaking a streak of 70 consecutive games (69 starts) including playoffs.

2010: Earned his third straight Pro Bowl bid and seventh overall, and was named second-team All-Pro by AP… Ranked third on the team with a career-high 115 tackles (79 solo) and led the defense in forced fumbles with five…Also recorded 13 passes defensed, two sacks, a fumble recovery and two INTs, including one returned for a TD…The INT-TD was the 10th of his career, moving him into third place on the NFL's all-time list, behind only Woodson (12) and Sharper (11). It was also his eighth with Green Bay, eclipsing Adderley's franchise mark, and his ninth defensive TD with the Packers, extending his franchise record…Voted by teammates as the recipient of the 2010 Ed Block Courage Award…Started all 16 games, plus all four postseason contests, leaving only the Super Bowl due to injury when he broke his collarbone in the second quarter…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Nearly had his first INT of the season, but the play was overturned by replay. On the Eagles' first drive of the second half, forced a fumble by RB Eldra Buckley that CB Tramon Williams recovered, leading to a 62-yard TD drive…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Named NFC Defensive Player of the Week as he posted a career-high 14 tackles (11 solo), three passes defensed, and an INT returned for a TD, becoming the first player in league history to return an INT for a TD in five straight seasons, and the first to do so in three straight seasons against the same team. Made the diving INT of QB Shaun Hill's pass intended for WR Calvin Johnson, got to his feet and raced 48 yards with a convoy of blockers before diving into the end zone. Also made three crucial plays on the Lions' final drive, dropping RB Jahvid Best for a 1-yard gain and breaking up consecutive passes to Johnson to force a punt from the Green Bay 37. The Packers ran out the remaining 6:32 on the clock for the 28-26 win…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Recorded four tackles (three solo) and an INT among two passes defensed. Got his INT with 10:34 left in the game, stealing the ball away from TE Dustin Keller as both players fell to the turf, and the turnover set up a FG drive for a 6-0 lead…Vs. Dallas (Nov. 7): Among five tackles (four solo), had two for loss, a sack and a forced fumble. Dumped QB Jon Kitna for a 3-yard sack and, on consecutive plays, stopped WR Dez Bryant for a 2-yard loss on a screen pass and RB Marion Barber for a 1-yard loss on a draw…At Minnesota (Nov. 21): Forced a fumble for the second straight game, stripping RB Toby Gerhart after a short reception. LB A.J. Hawk recovered at the Green Bay 35, preventing the Vikings from adding to their 3-0 lead…Vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26): On a direct snap on third-and-2, stripped RB Ahmad Bradshaw in the third quarter for his career-best fifth forced fumble of the season. The fumble was recovered by S Atari Bigby and set up a FG drive for a 24-14 lead…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Among eight tackles (five solo), sacked QB Jay Cutler for an 8-yard loss one play before LB Clay Matthews sacked Cutler again, forcing a key punt in the fourth quarter…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Recorded his first career playoff sack, dropping QB Matt Ryan for a 7-yard loss one play before Williams snagged an INT in the end zone to thwart a potential Falcons scoring drive late in the second quarter…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Started his second career Super Bowl, but did not get to finish it, breaking his collarbone while diving to break up a deep pass to WR Mike Wallace near the sideline late in the first half. Stayed in the game for one more play but then went to the locker room before halftime and watched the remainder of the game from the sidelines. Before the injury, dropped RB Rashard Mendenhall for a 3-yard loss on a second-quarter run.

INT came in the second quarter when he jumped Palmer's short pass in the right flat intended for TE Daniel Coats and took it 37 yards for a TD. Finished with a team-high 11 tackles (10 solo), matching his then-single-game best as a Packer…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Stepped in front of WR Danny Amendola on crossing route over the middle to intercept QB Kyle Boller's pass in the fourth quarter at the Rams' 26. Led secondary with 10 tackles (eight solo), giving him back-to-back games with double-digit tackles for the first time in his career…At Cleveland (Oct. 25): Posted 40th career INT when he picked off QB Derek Anderson's pass intended for WR Brian Robiskie on the right sideline in the second quarter; returned INT 25 yards down to the Browns' 15 to set up a RB Ryan Grant TD run. Early in the third quarter, stripped WR Joshua Cribbs after he caught a 3-yard pass, and LB Brandon Chillar recovered at the Packers' 48… Vs. Dallas (Nov. 15): Led team with 10 tackles and had a hand in each of the Packers' three takeaways. Stripped WR Roy Williams after he picked up 42 yards on second-quarter reception, and Matthews recovered. With Packers leading 10-0 in the fourth quarter, came through untouched for a blind-side sack/forced fumble of QB Tony Romo at Dallas' 25, Matthews recovered at the 7, and returned to the 3 to set up another TD. With just over six minutes remaining and the Cowboys at Green Bay's 1 for first-and-goal, jumped Romo's pass in the flat intended for TE Jason Witten. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week for his performance… At Detroit (Nov. 26): Recorded one of the finest all-around performances of his career with five tackles (all solo), a sack, two INTs, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a season-high four passes defensed, and an INT return for a TD. Became the first NFL player since sacks became an official stat in 1982 to record a sack, two INTs, an INT return for a TD and a fumble recovery in the same game. On Lions' first drive of the second half, passed off WR Calvin Johnson and came underneath to intercept Stafford's pass intended for WR Bryant Johnson, making a diving grab to make the catch. With just under four minutes remaining in the game, jumped pass intended for Calvin Johnson and returned the INT 38 yards for the score. On next series, stripped TE Casey FitzSimmons on reception and recovered the fumble at the Detroit 41. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors…At Chicago (Dec. 13): Posted four tackles (two solo) and a team-high three passes defensed, including an INT when he picked off Cutler's underthrown deep pass intended for WR Devin Aromashodu late in the first quarter…At Arizona (Jan. 3): Posted his ninth INT of the season, a career high, jumping a slant route by WR Larry Fitzgerald in the second quarter to pick off a QB Matt Leinart pass. Spun away and took the ball down the left sideline, leaping for the end zone on a 45-yard TD return. The defensive score was the eighth of his Packers career, a new franchise record, and third INT score of the season, which matched the team record…At Arizona (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): With Packers trailing 17-0 early in the second quarter and the Cardinals threatening to score again, stripped Fitzgerald after he made a short catch over the middle at Arizona's 16; Matthews recovered, taking the ball out to Green Bay's 48. Finished game with seven tackles (all solo).

2008: Named Pro Bowl starter, earning his first trip to Hawaii since 2001 and fifth of his career (DNP – toe)... Also named second-team All-Pro by AP and All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly/PFWA...Started all 16 games, 13 at LCB and three at SS despite playing most of the season with a fractured toe sustained in the season opener, an injury that kept him off the practice field entirely for several weeks...

Tied with teammate Collins for NFC lead with seven INTs, the second-highest total in a season during his career...Tied for second in the NFL in INTs, trailing only Baltimore S Ed Reed (9)...Tied for second in the league with two INTs for TD and set a then-career high with 169 INT return yards, joining Collins to become only the second tandem in franchise history to each post 165-plus INT return yards in a season (Symank/Dillon, '57)...Along with Collins and Williams, became first Packers trio to each post five INTs in a season since '96 (S Eugene Robinson, S LeRoy Butler, CB Doug Evans)…Registered 79 tackles, which matched his (then) career high, and added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...Led team with 20 passes defensed...Led secondary with a career-high three sacks...On the field for 1,024 of 1,050 (97.5 percent) defensive plays, which led the team, and was named the Packers Hall of Fame Team MVP for the season…At Detroit (Sept. 14): Recorded the third two-INT game of his career after missing entire week of practice with fractured toe sustained in previous week's game vs. Minnesota, and posted a season-high five passes defensed. Picked off Kitna with Green Bay leading 27-25 with just over five minutes remaining to set up RB Brandon Jackson's TD run. Picked Kitna off again two plays later, this time returning the INT 41 yards for the TD…At Tampa Bay (Sept. 28): Amidst seven tackles and three passes defensed, picked off QB Brian Griese's short dump-off pass intended for RB Warrick Dunn early in the fourth quarter and returned the INT 62 yards for a TD...At Seattle (Oct. 12): Jumped route to pick off QB Charlie Frye's pass intended for TE John Carlson in fourth quarter. Also posted his second sack as a Packer and first since 2006 when he brought Frye down for a 5-yard loss toward the end of the first quarter...At Minnesota (Nov. 9): Jumped in front of QB Gus Frerotte's pass intended for WR Bobby Wade in the second quarter for an INT, which he returned 9 yards to the Minnesota 48. Packers utilized field position for drive that was capped off with a 1-yard TD run from Grant...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 16): Made four tackles and sacked QB Kyle Orton for an 8-yard loss in the third quarter as the secondary allowed just four receptions by Bears wide receivers…

Vs. Carolina (Nov. 30): Started first game as a Packer at SS due to injuries at the position, and recorded nine tackles. Recovered fumble by WR Muhsin Muhammad forced by Williams at the Green Bay 19 on the first play from scrimmage, and forced a fumble on RB Jonathan Stewart's 43-yard run down to the Green Bay 3, but it was recovered by Panthers G Travelle Wharton. It was the first time in Woodson's career that he forced a fumble and recovered one in the same game…Vs. Houston (Dec. 7): Started second straight game at SS and registered a season-high 11 tackles, his highest single-game total as a Packer to that point. Also had two passes defensed, including a breakup of a QB Matt Schaub pass deep to WR Andre Johnson in the first quarter…At Jacksonville (Dec. 14): Started at SS and posted six tackles and a sack, his third of the season, a career high, bringing down QB David Garrard for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter…At Chicago (Dec. 22): Moved back to starting LCB spot and intercepted Orton's short pass intended for RB Adrian Peterson at the Green Bay 48 late in the third quarter, returning the pick 22 yards. Posted four tackles, including a stop of RB Matt Forté for a 1-yard loss in OT…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 28): Recorded his seventh INT on the year, picking off QB Dan Orlovsky's overthrown pass intended for Calvin Johnson on a slant in the first quarter. Returned the INT 23 yards to the Detroit 41.

2007: Started 14 of 16 games and was named a first alternate for the Pro Bowl…Missed one game due to a toe injury and another to rest up for the playoffs, when he started both contests…Posted 64 tackles (54 solo) with four INTs among 10 passes defensed, plus a fumble recovery…Returned one INT and one fumble for scores, the Packers' only defensive TDs on the season…Also had a team-high 33 punt returns for 268 yards (8.1 avg.)…Vs. Washington (Oct. 14): Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors and was voted GMC Defensive Player of the Week; recorded five tackles (four solo), with an INT and a fumble return for a TD. In the second quarter, intercepted a pass that deflected off the hands of WR Santana Moss, wrestling the ball away from WR Antwaan Randle El. In the third quarter, DT Corey Williams stripped Moss on an end-around play; Woodson picked up the fumble and ran for a 57-yard, game-winning TD in 17-14 triumph…At Kansas City (Nov. 4): In the fourth quarter, picked off a QB Damon Huard pass intended for WR Samie Parker and returned it 46 yards for a TD, the final score of the game in the 33-22 win. Earlier in the quarter, had a 27-yard punt return that set up a 45-yard FG for a 26-22 advantage. Also tackled RB Larry Johnson for a 1-yard loss in the third quarter…Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 11): With the Vikings in the red zone in the fourth quarter, picked off a QB Brooks Bollinger pass at the Green Bay 2-yard line, helping to preserve an eventual 34-0 Green Bay win, the franchise's first-ever shutout of Vikings…At Detroit (Nov. 22): Left the game with a toe injury, suffered during a first-quarter 34-yard punt return that was seemingly one block away from a score. Did not return to the contest and missed the next game at Dallas (Nov. 29)…Vs. Detroit (Dec. 30): Sat out to rest up for the playoffs, and went on to post six solo tackles and three passes defensed in the two postseason contests.

2006: Experienced what some might call a rebirth of his career, coming to Green Bay as an unrestricted free agent and producing statistically his best season to that point… Despite battling a painful shoulder injury much of the season, started all 16 contests at LCB and led the team in both INTs (eight) and passes defensed (26)…His 26 passes broken up were the third most ever recorded by a Packers player, behind Harris (28 in 2004) and Evans (27 in 1995)… The eight INTs tied for first in the NFC and tied for third in the league, yet he was snubbed in Pro Bowl voting…Also served as his team's primary punt returner for the first time since winning the Heisman Trophy at Michigan in 1997, returning 41 punts for 363 yards (8.9 avg.) to easily eclipse the 12 NFL returns he had entering 2006…At Miami (Oct. 22): Led the team with four passes defensed. Picked off a QB Joey Harrington pass that bounced off the hands of TE Randy McMichael and ran it back 23 yards for a TD, his third career score, but first since a 22-yard return of a QB Elvis Grbac INT, Nov. 28, 1999, vs. Kansas City (with Oakland); earlier in the game, came on a corner blitz and sacked Harrington, forcing a punt…At Seattle (Nov. 27): Notched the second two-INT game of his career (also at Chicago, Oct. 5, 2003), and with three passes defensed eclipsed 100 for his career. On the Seahawks' first drive, intercepted a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass deflected by DT Ryan Pickett to set up the Packers' first TD. Notched his second Hasselbeck INT in the second quarter, stepping in front of a short pass intended for WR Deion Branch…At San Francisco (Dec. 10): Had a career-long 40-yard punt return, setting up a fourth-quarter FG that iced the contest, plus his first kickoff return since his days at Michigan, when he had all three in his collegiate days in one game, a home loss to Penn State (Nov. 16, 1996). Also pounced on a RB Frank Gore fumble (his fifth career fumble recovery but his first since Nov. 28, 2004, in an Oakland win at Denver)…Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 21): Made his seventh INT of the year, picking off a QB Tarvaris Jackson throw intended for WR Travis Taylor, returning it 14 yards; also had seven punt returns – tying for the second most in franchise history – for 48 yards, including a game-high 18-yard return…At Chicago (Dec. 31): Picked off a second-quarter QB Rex Grossman pass for his eighth INT of the year and his seventh individual takeaway over a six-game stretch.

Cincinnati (Sept. 14): Ended Bengals' final threat with INT of Kitna in 23-20 victory…At Chicago (Oct. 5): Contributed two second-quarter turnovers leading to a pair of Raiders FGs, recovering a fumble by TE Desmond Clark and returning an INT of QB Kordell Stewart 51 yards in final minute of first half. Later picked off Stewart on the Bears' initial drive of the second half, giving him his first two-INT game as a professional…At Cleveland (Oct. 12): Forced a RB William Green fumble on the game's opening possession, leading to a TD which ended up being the Raiders' only points of the afternoon…Vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 9): Posted season-best eight tackles…Vs. Denver (Nov. 30): Matched that tackle total and added a sack of QB Jake Plummer…At San Diego (Dec. 28): Was a healthy inactive.

2002: Saw his season interrupted by injury for the first time as a professional, playing eight regular-season games with seven starts…Was inactive for the other eight league contests due to shoulder and leg injuries…Started all three of Oakland's postseason games, including Super Bowl XXXVII…Had a team- and career-high four forced fumbles…Also made one INT among four passes defensed, recovered one fumble and posted 37 tackles…Vs. Seattle (Sept. 8): Matched career best with two forced fumbles (also Dec. 16, 2000, at Seattle) among a team-high eight tackles in season-opening victory…At Pittsburgh (Sept. 15): Had a hand in a pair of fourth-quarter turnovers – forcing a WR Hines Ward fumble and intercepting Stewart – in 30-17 win…Vs. San Francisco (Nov. 3): Returned to starting lineup after missing five games with a right shoulder injury and made eight stops, recovering an early RB Garrison Hearst fumble…At Denver (Nov. 11): Had season-best nine tackles in 34-10, Monday night triumph…Vs. N.Y. Jets (AFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Returned to start after right leg injury left him inactive for three of final four regular-season games (playing as first-half sub in the other). Tied for team high with three passes defensed and had six tackles…Vs. Tennessee (AFC Championship, Jan. 19): Shared club lead with eight tackles…Vs. Tampa Bay (Super Bowl XXXVII, Jan. 26): Had eight tackles and intercepted Johnson on the third play of the game, leading to a FG that gave Oakland the first points in eventual 48-21 defeat.

2001: Played in all 16 regular-season games for a fourth straight season, making 15 starts at CB…Also started both of the Raiders' playoff contests…Finished second on the team in passes defensed with 11, he also weighed in with 53 tackles, two sacks, one INT, one forced fumble and one blocked FG…Additionally, returned punts for the first time as a professional, averaging 11.8 yards on four returns for 47 yards…In just his fourth NFL season, was voted to a fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, though he did not play in the all-star contest due to turf toe…Also was named to the All-Pro teams of Sporting News and College & Pro Football Newsweekly, along with the All-AFC squad of Football News…At Kansas City (Sept. 9): Intercepted Green in season-opening, 27-24 victory…Vs. DEFENSIVE END • GEORGIA

Fourth NFL Season
Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 285 • Born: August 29, 1986 • NFL Games Played/Started: 36/4 • Acquired: D6a-09 (FA-10)

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Versatile lineman who figured prominently as part of the defensive-line rotation in 2011. Saw extensive playing time following a training-camp injury to Mike Neal (knee).

Set career highs in every statistical category, appearing in a career-high 16 games and making four starts, posting 32 tackles and three sacks on the season.

Saw action primarily as a down lineman in nickel package in his first two seasons, and also contributed on special teams.

Appeared in nine games for the Packers in 2010, posting nine tackles and 1½ sacks. Was waived by the team in the final roster cutdown on Sept. 4, but was re-signed on Sept. 14 after DE Justin Harrell was lost for the season due to a knee injury sustained in the opener at Philadelphia.

Played in 11 contests as a rookie in '09 after being drafted by Green Bay with the first of two sixth-round picks in the 2009 NFL Draft.

AT A GLANCE ... 94

- Has played in 36 games in his three seasons in Green Bay. Appeared in all 16 games for the first time in 2011, starting a career-high four and also posting career bests in tackles (32) and sacks (three).
- He and his wife, Martavia, welcomed the birth of their son, Jarius Jr., the morning of Super Bowl XLV.
- Had his best performances in his final two games at Georgia, posting a career-high six tackles in season finale vs. Georgia Tech, and a career-high two sacks in Capital One Bowl win against Michigan State.
- Worked alongside his father while in high school and college, helping build houses for his construction company.
- Cousin, RB Garrison Hearst, was a consensus All-American choice at Georgia and was selected No. 3 overall by the Phoenix Cardinals in the 1993 NFL Draft.
- Lists former Packers DE Reggie White as one of his favorite athletes.

2011 SEASON: Entered training camp in competition with fellow young veterans Mike Neal and C.J. Wilson for playing time up front…Saw his role increase significantly after Neal suffered a knee injury during practice and was sidelined for the first 11 weeks of the regular season…Appeared in all 16 games for the first time in his career and received his first starting assignment in Week 2 at Carolina (Sept. 18)…Started four of the next five games at RDE and finished the season with a career-high 32 tackles (17 solo) and tied for third on the club with his career-high three sacks…Vs. New Orleans (Sept. 8): Tallied four tackles (all solo, including one for loss) and a sack. On his sack, came from a standing position outside of LT Jermon Bushrod, to drop QB Drew Brees at the line of scrimmage…At Carolina (Sept. 18): Started his first career game, opening at RDE with the defense in its base 3-4 alignment. Saw action on a career-high 59 plays and posted a personal-best five tackles (three solo) on the afternoon. Part of a stingy front that allowed the Panthers' notable RB tandem of Jonathan Stewart and DeAngelo Williams to rush for just 18 yards on 11 carries (1.6 avg.) during the game… At Chicago (Sept. 25): Posted the first two-sack game of his career. First sack came at the beginning of the third quarter, when he lined up as the RDE and came through unblocked as part of a five-man pressure, taking down QB Jay Cutler for an 8-yard loss. Made his second sack two drives later, when he lined up outside the shoulder of LT J'Marcus Webb and dropped Cutler for another 8-yard loss. Was credited with three tackles (two solo) during the game and doubled his previous career sack total (1½ between 2009-10) three games into the season…At Kansas City (Dec. 18): Participated in 33 plays and his lone tackle was a tackle for loss on a third down on Kansas City's opening drive of the second half. On the play, fought off a block by G Jon Asamoah and smothered RB Thomas Jones in the backfield for a 3-yard loss, forcing a punt.

2010: Appeared in nine games, registering career highs in tackles (nine) and sacks (1½)…Also played in three playoff contests and recorded a solo tackle…Was released by the team in the final roster cutdown on Sept. 4, but was re-signed just 10 days later after Harrell sustained a season-ending knee injury in the opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12)…Inactive for six contests and the NFC title game at Chicago (healthy scratch)…Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 19): Appeared in his first game of the season and recorded an assisted tackle…Vs. Minnesota (Oct. 24): With starting DE Cullen Jenkins sidelined due to a calf injury sustained in pregame warm-ups, played a more significant role than anyone expected as he played 36 snaps. Posted three tackles (two solo) and the first sack of his career with the Packers down to just three healthy defensive linemen. His sack of Brett Favre came in the fourth quarter when he fought through two blockers to dump the QB for a 6-yard loss with 1:12 remaining. It was the first time Green Bay had sacked Favre in three meetings, and the sack moved Minnesota back to the Green Bay 41 as the Packers clung to a 28-24 lead…Vs. Chicago (Jan. 2): Teamed with LB A.J. Hawk to post the Packers' first sack of the contest as the tandem brought down Cutler for a 9-yard loss late in the first quarter. The sack forced a punt on a Chicago drive that had reached the Green Bay 36. Added two tackles (one solo), two QB hits and a pair of pressures…At Atlanta (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Played 12 snaps and registered a QB hit and a pressure…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Active, but appeared only on special teams. Spent the night before the game in the hospital with his wife as the couple welcomed the birth of their son, Jarius Jr., the morning of the game.

2009: Played in 11 games, seeing time primarily as a down lineman in nickel package and on special teams…Also played in playoff contest…Posted five tackles (three solo) on defense…Healthy scratch for four games and was also inactive vs. Minnesota (Nov. 1) due to hamstring injury…At St. Louis (Sept. 27): Registered a solo stop, the first tackle of his career…Vs. Seattle (Dec. 27): Posted an assisted tackle on defense and deflected a Jon Ryan punt in the fourth quarter that went just 24 yards to the Green Bay 49…At Arizona (Jan. 3): Recorded two tackles (both solo) in limited action…2009 Draft: Selected by the Packers with the first of their two sixth-round picks (182nd overall and 16th DE). Became the first player drafted by the Packers from Georgia since DT Jermaine Smith was selected in the fourth round (No. 126 overall) in 1997.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons at Georgia after beginning his career at Georgia Military College…Appeared in all 26 games during his two seasons with the Bulldogs, starting seven contests…Saw time primarily at defensive end but also slid inside to play tackle in certain packages... Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 254 • Born: March 5, 1987 • NFL Games Played/Started: 18/9 • Acquired: FA-10

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

Battled an array of injuries that shelved him for much of 2011, beginning with a fractured shoulder blade during pregame warm-ups of the team's second preseason game. Later fell victim to hamstring and knee injuries that limited him to just five games in his second season.

Came to the Packers as a non-drafted free agent, successfully making the transition from a 4-3 defensive end in college to an outside linebacker in Dom Capers' 3-4 scheme.

With season-ending injuries to opening-day starter Brad Jones (shoulder) and veteran Brady Poppinga (knee), went on to start eight contests, including Super Bowl XLV, in 2010. Started six straight in the second half of the season before he was sidelined himself for the final three regular-season games and the first three postseason contests with a knee injury.

Led all Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo), along with four sacks, good for No. 4 on the team. His 67 tackles were the most by a Green Bay rookie since LB A.J. Hawk led the team in the category in 2006 (155).

The four sacks were good for No. 3 among NFC rookies behind only a pair of first-round selections, Detroit's Ndamukong Suh (10) and the N.Y. Giants' Jason Pierre-Paul (4½).

Was one of three non-drafted rookies to make the opening-day roster in 2010, joining C/G Nick McDonald and CB Sam Shields, after locking up a roster spot with an impressive showing in the preseason as he led the defense in tackles (18), solo tackles (12) and sacks (two).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Finished third among rookies in the NFC with four sacks in 2010, trailing only a pair of first-round picks, Detroit's Ndamukong Suh (10) and the N.Y. Giants' Jason Pierre-Paul (4½).
- Led Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo), appearing in 13 games with eight starts.
- Recorded a sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger in Super Bowl XLV to become the first non-drafted rookie to register a sack in a Super Bowl since it became an official statistic in 1982.
- Was one of three non-drafted rookies to make the opening-day roster in 2010, joining C/G Nick McDonald and CB Sam Shields.
- With a sack of QB Michael Vick in the season opener at Philadelphia, he became the first Packers rookie to record a sack in his first game since DE Jamal Reynolds did so in his debut at Jacksonville (Dec. 3, 2001).
- Finished Central Michigan career ranked second in school history with 25½ sacks, trailing only DE Dan Bazuin (35½, 2003-06), who was a second-round draft pick of the Bears in 2007.

2011 SEASON: Entered training camp in a competition for starting duty at the ROLB position…Was beset by injuries that dogged him as early as the preseason and continued to thwart his momentum and progress throughout the year…Initially suffered a fracture in his shoulder blade during pregame warm-ups prior to the team's second preseason contest, vs. Arizona (Aug. 19)…Played in the game and the break was diagnosed afterwards…Missed the remainder of training camp and the preseason, and was sidelined for the first five weeks of the regular season before returning for the team's Week 6 game vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16)…Played in a rotation with Erik Walden at ROLB against the Rams, but sustained a knee injury in the game and missed the following week at Minnesota (Oct. 23)…Returned for the team's Week 9 game at San Diego (Nov. 6), but suffered a hamstring injury during the game and did not return…Missed the ensuing three games rehabbing the hamstring, and returned to the gameday lineup for the Week 13 game at the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4), but did not see any action…Ultimately played in five games during the season, posting 15 tackles (11 solo) and a sack…Also saw action in the team's playoff contest…Vs. St. Louis (Oct. 16): Saw his first action since Week 2 of the preseason, making his 2011 debut in a rotation with Walden opposite Clay Matthews at ROLB. Appeared on 34 defensive plays and finished with five tackles (four solo). Suffered a knee injury during the game and played through it, but missed time during the ensuing practice week and was inactive the following week at Minnesota (Oct. 23)…At San Diego (Nov. 6): Returned to action following the bye week and saw action on 17 plays, making three tackles (one solo) and registering a QB hit. Suffered a hamstring injury in the second half and did not return…At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 4): Returned to lineup and dressed for the game, but did not play…Vs. Oakland (Dec. 11): Saw extended action in the second half in relief of Walden, seeing 23 snaps and recording three tackles (all solo) and his first sack of the season. Sack came on a third-down rush in the fourth quarter when he charged through a large opening in the left side of the line of scrimmage between LG and LT, dropping QB Carson Palmer for a 7-yard loss…Vs. Detroit (Jan. 1): Started the season finale at ROLB, appearing on 39 plays and finishing with three tackles (two solo).

2010: Appeared in 13 games with eight starts…Led all Green Bay rookies and finished No. 6 on the team with 67 tackles (45 solo), along with four sacks, good for No. 4 on the team…His 67 tackles were the most by a Green Bay rookie since Hawk led the team in the category in 2006 (155)…The four sacks were good for No. 3 among NFC rookies behind only a pair of first-round selections, Suh (10) and Pierre-Paul (4½)…Locked up a roster spot with an impressive showing in the preseason as he led the defense in tackles (18), solo tackles (12) and sacks (two)…Had a sack/forced fumble of Peyton Manning vs. Indianapolis in preseason contest (Aug. 26), one that was returned by LB Robert Francois to the Colts' 2 to set up a Green Bay TD…Missed the final three regular-season games and the first three postseason contests due to a knee injury sustained at Detroit in Week 14…At Philadelphia (Sept. 12): Only appeared on four plays from scrimmage in his NFL debut, but brought down QB Michael Vick for an 8-yard sack in the fourth quarter. Became the first Packers rookie to record a sack in his first game since DE Jamal Reynolds did so in his debut at Jacksonville (Dec. 3, 2001)…At Chicago (Sept. 27): With Jones sidelined (knee), started the first game of his career and posted four tackles (three solo) and a sack. The sack came on the third play from scrimmage as he brought down QB Jay Cutler for a 10-yard loss…Vs. Detroit (Oct. 3): Started at ROLB for the second straight week in place of Jones and registered six tackles (four solo), including one for a loss…Vs. Miami (Oct. 17): Played extensively in the second half after Poppinga left the game with a knee injury and posted seven tackles (four solo)…At N.Y. Jets (Oct. 31): Started and recorded nine tackles (five solo), a QB hit, a pressure, and his first career forced fumble. Caused the fumble in the second quarter, stripping WR Brad Smith as he ran out of the "Wildcat" formation; the fumble was recovered by CB Tramon Williams at the Green Bay 29…At Atlanta (Nov. 28): Put together perhaps his finest all-around performance of the season, posting a career-high 11 tackles (eight solo), a tackle for a loss, a sack, a QB hit and a forced fumble. Dropped QB Matt Ryan for an 11-yard sack in the first quarter to force a Falcons punt. Helped force another punt in the fourth quarter, wrapping up RB Gartrell Johnson after a short reception and punching the ball from his arms for a fumble that went out of bounds on third down…Vs. San Francisco (Dec. 5): Sacked QB Troy Smith for a 5-yard loss on third down in the fourth quarter to force a 49ers punt. Added five tackles (four solo), a tackle for loss, a QB hit and a pressure…At Detroit (Dec. 12): Sustained an injury to his right knee in the second half and did not return, but posted six tackles (two solo) in the return to his home state before departing…Vs. Pittsburgh (Super Bowl XLV, Feb. 6): Returned to action after missing the previous six games and started at ROLB in place of an injured Walden (ankle). Finished the game with six tackles (all solo), including two for loss, and posted Green Bay's only sack of QB Ben Roethlisberger. On the third-quarter sack, lined up at LOLB and used an up-field rush, going into the chest of veteran RT Flozell Adams. Spun back into the inside and up into the front of the pocket to bring Roethlisberger down for a 2-yard loss. Became the first non-drafted rookie to post a sack in a Super Bowl since the statistic became an official one in 1982. Posted another tackle for loss when he shed a block from LT Jonathan Scott on the second play of the game to drop RB Rashard Mendenhall for a 4-yard loss…2010 NFL Draft: Signed by Green Bay on April 30 as a non-drafted free agent.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman, he appeared in all 55 games during his four seasons, with 39 starts…Finished career ranked second in school history with 25½ sacks, trailing only DE Dan Bazuin (35½, 2003-06)…Was a three-time CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine All-District IV second-team selection, and earned Academic All-MAC honors twice during his career…Majored in health and fitness…Senior season (2009): Played in all 14 games with 12 starts as a senior in '09, and earned All-Mid-American Conference first-team honors…Posted 45 tackles, including 10 for a loss, and 6½ sacks…Named CMU's Most Valuable Defensive Lineman and Ring of Honor recipient…Registered three tackles, a sack, and recovered a fumble against Ohio in the MAC Championship Game (Dec. 4)…Finished career with eight tackles and a career-high three sacks in the Chippewas' 44-41 GMAC Bowl win over Troy (Jan. 6)…Junior season (2008): Played in all 13 games with 12 starts, earning All-MAC honors...Led the conference in tackles for loss (15½), ranked second in sacks (nine), and added 51 tackles…The nine sacks are tied for third all-time on the school's single-season list…Named MAC West Division Defensive Player of the Week after posting six tackles, 2½ sacks and a forced fumble in season opener vs. Eastern Illinois (Aug. 28)…Registered six tackles and 2½ sacks vs. Western Michigan (Oct. 18)…Sophomore season (2007): Started all 14 games…Led the team and was tied for third in the MAC with 7½ sacks…Ranked second on the team with 10½ tackles for loss…Posted career-high nine tackles at Kansas (Sept. 1)…Recorded six tackles, a fumble recovery and an INT vs. Army (Oct. 13)…Redshirt freshman season (2006): Played in all 14 games with one start…Made first career start at Kentucky (Sept. 30) and recorded two sacks.

DRAFT & FREE AGENTS

NICK PERRY

LINEBACKER ▪ SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Drafted: First Round
Overall: 28th
(Fifth linebacker selected)

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 265 • Born: April 12, 1990 • High School Hometown: Detroit, Mich.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Drafted by the Packers with the No. 28 overall selection in the first round. Became the fifth first-round pick out of the University of Southern California in team history, joining Al Carmichael (1953), Ken Reuttgers (1985), John Michels (1996) and Clay Matthews (2009).

Was the first defensive player from Southern California to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft since the Packers picked Matthews with the No. 26 overall selection in 2009.

Will be making the transition to outside linebacker in the NFL after playing defensive end in college.

Entered the draft following his junior season in 2011 that saw him earn first-team All-Pacific-12 recognition after he registered a team-high and career-best 9½ sacks.

His sack total in 2011 ranked first in the Pac-12 and tied for No. 14 nationally.

Was one of six finalists for the Hendricks Award in 2011, which is given to the top defensive end in the nation.

Was named a second-team All-American by CBSSports.com and also earned all-conference recognition from CBSSports.com, ESPN.com, CollegeFootballNews.com and Phil Steele.

Won USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year Award in 2011.

Led the Trojans with eight sacks as a redshirt freshman in '09 on his way to earning Freshman All-American Team honors from multiple outlets.

Recorded three two-sack games in his opening four contests as a collegian.

Played in 37 games with 22 starts during his USC career and registered 103 tackles (62 solo), including 29½ for loss, 21½ sacks, six passes defensed, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

In 2007, was a first-team All-USA selection by USA Today and a Parade All-American at Martin Luther King High in Detroit.

As a senior, posted a state-record 36 sacks and 147 tackles as he helped lead the team to a 14-0 record and a state championship.

Attended Detroit's Mackenzie High for his first three seasons before the school closed, earning all-metro and all-city recognition there as a junior.

Majored in economics at Southern California.

Drafted: Second Round (a)
Overall: 51st
(10th defensive lineman selected)

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 308 • Born: April 28, 1990 • High School Hometown: Huber Heights, Ohio

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Drafted by the Packers in the second round with the 51st overall pick as General Manager Ted Thompson traded the team's initial second-rounder (No. 59 overall), plus its fourth-round pick (No. 123 overall), to move up and select the talented big man.

An interior power player with an explosive first step who started for all three of his participating seasons. He appeared in 40 games with 38 starts and tallied 107 tackles (52 solo), including 27½ for loss, 12 sacks, six passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and two blocked field goals during his three-year career.

Emerged as a standout for Michigan State as a junior in 2011, starting all 14 games at DT and helping key a defense that ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten Conference in both total defense (277.4 ypg.) and rushing defense (100.5 ypg.).

Was named a consensus first-team All-American following the season after posting 30 tackles (19 solo), including 10½ for loss, 3½ sacks, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery. Earned the distinction from The Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, Sporting News, CBSSports.com, NBCSports.com and Yahoo! Sports.

Was the first Michigan State defensive tackle to earn first-team All-American acclaim since Ronald Curl in 1971 and the first to be named to the AP first team since Charles "Bubba" Smith in 1966.

Also in 2011, earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from both the league's coaches and media for the first time in his career, becoming the first Spartan DT to land on the first team since Travis Davis in 1989.

Was selected to CollegeFootballNews.com's All-Sophomore second team in addition to being named honorable mention All-Big Ten by both the coaches and media after starting all 13 games and finishing with 40 tackles (14 solo), eight tackles for loss, four sacks and three passes defensed in 2010.

Enjoyed a breakout campaign in his first participating season as a redshirt freshman in 2009, appearing in all 13 games with 11 starts and earning first-team Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), Rivals.com, CollegeFootballNews.com and Sporting News.

Including his redshirt season, spent four years on campus and is just 20 credit hours away from earning a degree in child development.

AT A GLANCE ...

MIKE DANIELS

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • IOWA

Drafted: Fourth Round (a)
Overall: 132nd
(26th defensive lineman selected)

Ht: 6-0 Wt: 291 • Born: May 5, 1989 • High School Hometown: Blackwood, N.J.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Selected by the Packers at the end of the fourth round (No. 132 overall) with the first of four free-agent compensatory draft choices received following the 2011 season.

An under-the-radar recruit who strayed from his northeastern roots to attend Iowa with little fanfare or acclaim, but lettered four times and left the program after two productive seasons as a starter up front.

Appeared in 47 games with 21 starts during his four-year career, tallying 123 tackles (54 solo), including 27 for loss ,and 15½ sacks for Iowa teams that played in four bowl games (with three wins) over that span.

Had his best season as a senior in 2011, starting all 13 games and earning second-team All-Big Ten distinction from the league's coaches after setting new career highs with 67 tackles (32 solo), 13½ for loss, a team-high nine sacks and a pass defensed.

Became a full-time starter for the first time as a junior in 2010, and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition from both the league's coaches and media after appearing in all 13 games with eight starts and posting 40 tackles (17 solo, 11 for loss) and four sacks, the second-highest total on the team.

Earned Big Ten Co-Defensive Player of the Week acclaim for his performance in a 45-0 shutout of Ball State that season, a game that saw him make six tackles, including four solo that all went for a loss, and a sack as the defense allowed only 112 yards of offense during the contest.

Appeared as a rotational player as a sophomore in 2009, appearing in all 13 games and finishing with 10 tackles (one solo) and 1½ sacks for the season.

Saw his first collegiate action as a redshirt freshman in 2008, playing in eight games and recording six tackles (four solo) and his first career sack.

Earned a degree in sociology.

AT A GLANCE …

- An undersized but especially productive college player who starred as an interior pass rusher for the Hawkeyes, posting a team-high 24½ tackles for loss and 13 sacks from 2010-11.
- Earned second-team All-Big Ten Conference honors from the league's coaches following his senior season in 2011 after starting all 13 games and finishing with a career-high 67 tackles (32 solo) and nine sacks. Sack total ranked third in the Big Ten and 24th nationally.
- Joined Philadelphia Eagles sixth-round pick WR Marvin McNutt in representing Iowa at the 2012 Senior Bowl, participating as members of the North squad in the all-star game.
- Father, Mike Sr., played baseball at Rutgers-Camden, and his brother, Sean, is a junior LB at Temple University.
- Was a member of the same 2007 recruiting class at Iowa that featured current Packers T Bryan Bulaga and rookie LB Dezman Moses.

performance at Purdue with another good showing, matching his career high set the previous week by again posting nine tackles (two solo) along with his first career pass defensed…Vs. Oklahoma (Insight Bowl, Dec. 30): Played in his third consecutive bowl game and ended his college career with a memorable outing against the Sooners. Posted five tackles, including three for loss, and two sacks as the unit allowed just 275 yards of total offense during the game.

2010: Enjoyed what was his first season as a starter, appearing in all 13 games and starting eight of them at defensive tackle, earning honorable mention All-Big Ten honors from both the league's coaches and media…Finished with 40 tackles (17 solo), including 11 for loss and four sacks…Vs. Eastern Illinois (Sept. 4): Started his first career game in the season opener and finished with five tackles (one solo), one for loss and his first sack of the season…Vs. Ball State (Sept. 25): Saw extended action in a 45-0 shutout victory, making a season-high six tackles (four solo), including four for loss and a sack. Earned Co-Defensive Player of the Week honors from the Big Ten for his performance after the Hawkeyes allowed just 112 yards of total offense during the game…Vs. Michigan State (Oct. 30): Started and recorded five tackles (two solo, two for loss) in Iowa's 37-6 upset blowout of then-No. 5-ranked Spartans, a victory keyed by the defense only giving up 31 net rushing yards and 258 yards of total offense.

2009: Appeared in all 13 games on special teams and as a rotational player up front, recording 10 tackles and 1½ sacks for an Iowa team that posted an 11-2 record and won both the Big Ten title and the FedEx Orange Bowl over No. 9-ranked Georgia Tech…At Wisconsin (Oct. 17): Appeared in the game on defense, recording two tackles (one solo), highlighted by his first sack of the season…Vs. Georgia Tech (Orange Bowl, Jan. 5): Was part of what was an impressive defensive effort against the Yellow Jackets' powerful triple-option offense that was limited to just 155 total yards during the game.

2008: Saw his first collegiate action after redshirting his first season on campus in 2007, appearing in both spot duty on defense and on special teams…For the season, appeared in eight games, and tallied six tackles (four solo) and the first sack of his career…Vs. Maine (Aug. 30): Made his collegiate debut against the Black Bears, but did not record any statistics…Vs. Florida International (Sept. 6): Appeared in the 42-0 win, registering three tackles (two solo) and his first career sack.

2007: Redshirted.

TERRELL MANNING

LINEBACKER ▪ NORTH CAROLINA STATE

Drafted: Fifth Round
Overall: 163rd
(23rd linebacker selected)

Ht: 6-2 Wt: 237 • Born: April 16, 1990 • High School Hometown: Laurinburg, N.C.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

A productive and consistent defender who appeared in 36 games over the course of three seasons at N.C. State, starting 26 and collecting 207 tackles (128 solo), 26 of them for loss, 10½ sacks, five interceptions, eight passes defensed, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

Earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors as a junior in 2011 after setting career highs in every statistical category, including tackles (83), solo tackles (51), tackles for loss (13), sacks (5½), interceptions (three) and fumble recoveries (three).

Earned ACC Linebacker of the Week honors twice in the final four weeks of the 2011 regular season, one of four players to garner the award more than once during the season, and each of the other three (Luke Kuechly, Zach Brown, Sean Spence) were taken in the first three rounds of the draft.

Became a full-time starter in 2010, opening all 13 games and finishing fourth on the squad with 76 tackles (46 solo), while also tying for second with five sacks and adding an interception, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

Saw his first collegiate action as a redshirt freshman in 2009, appearing in all 12 games with two starts and posting 48 tackles (31 solo, two for loss), four passes defensed and the first interception and forced fumble of his career.

Majored in African studies and is one semester short of graduation.

AT A GLANCE ...

56

- Selected in the fifth round (No. 163 overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft (23rd linebacker taken), as General Manager Ted Thompson traded up for the third time on draft weekend to take a defensive player.
- The last of six consecutive defenders chosen by the Packers to open the draft in 2012, the club surrendered a sixth-rounder and two seventh-round choices to move up to take him.
- A two-year starter and three-year letterwinner at North Carolina State who elected to forego his final season at the collegiate level, he appeared in 36 games with 26 starts during his career, finishing with 207 tackles (128 solo), including 26 for loss, 10½ sacks, five interceptions, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.
- Returned from an early-season injury to help the Wolfpack post a 6-2 record over their final eight games in 2011, joining fellow 2012 draft choices Luke Kuechly (Carolina), Zach Brown (Tennessee), and Sean Spence (Pittsburgh) as players to earn ACC Linebacker of the Week honors multiple times during the regular season.
- Had a memorable senior season in high school, earning his conference's defensive player of the year award after recording an impressive 219 tackles, five sacks, three INTs, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries for Laurinburg (N.C.) High in 2007.

2011: Earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors from the league's media following his junior season…Started all 11 games in which he appeared, missing two games with a knee injury in the season's first half, but returning for the final eight and finishing fourth on the team with a career-high 83 tackles (51 solo)…Solo-tackle total was also a career high, as were his 13 tackles for loss, 5½ sacks (tied for the team lead), three interceptions and three fumble recoveries…Also forced two fumbles, tying a career high…Watched as the team dropped both of the games in which he was sidelined, yielding 40-plus points in each contest…Returned to help the team go 6-2 over its final eight games, averaging nine tackles per game and posting 11 tackles for loss, five sacks, two INTs, two forced fumbles and three recoveries during that span…One of the veteran leaders on a defensive unit that ranked No. 4 in the conference in both total defense (354.9 ypg.) and rushing defense (131.2 ypg.) at season's end…Vs. South Alabama (Sept. 17): Appeared on 16 plays, but suffered a knee injury that would require surgery and force him to miss the next two contests…Vs. Central Michigan (Oct. 8): Returned to action and made 10 tackles (four solo, one for loss), including his first full sack of the season…Vs. North Carolina (Nov. 5): Had one of his better performances in a 13-0 shutout win over the in-state rival Tar Heels, finishing with a team-leading 11 tackles (seven solo, one for loss) and a sack. Outing earned him ACC Linebacker of the Week honors for the first time in his career and the game marked the Wolfpack's first shutout against North Carolina since Sept. 19, 1970…Vs. Clemson (Nov. 19): Made a significant impact in the team's 37-13 upset win over the No. 7-ranked Tigers, tallying nine tackles (seven solo), including three for loss, and two critical fumble recoveries, a single-game career high. Recovered each loose ball inside the Clemson 20-yard line and both possessions led to Wolfpack scores…Vs. Maryland (Nov. 26): Earned ACC Linebacker of the Week for the second time in four games after recording seven tackles (five solo, two for loss), a sack and both a forced and recovered fumble. Helped key a comeback that saw the Wolfpack overcome a 41-14 third-quarter deficit en route to a 56-41 victory, marking the largest second-half comeback in ACC history.

2010: Started all 13 of the team's games, a career high, and finished with 76 tackles (46 solo), including 11 for loss, five sacks, an interception, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries as a redshirt sophomore...Tackle total ranked fourth on the team and the sack number was good for second…The Wolfpack finished the season 9-3 with a victory over No. 22-ranked West Virginia in the Champs Sports Bowl, just the school's second nine-win season since 1994…A steady contributor to a defensive unit that finished the season ranked No. 2 in the ACC in rushing defense at 114.3 yards per game…Vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 16): Tallied four tackles (three solo) and enjoyed the first multi-sack outing of his career, twice dropping Bearcats QB Zach Collaros in a 30-19 win that gave N.C. State its first 3-0 start since 2002…At Clemson (Nov. 6): Posted nine tackles (six solo, one for loss), and added his first and only INT of the season, also forcing a fumble during the game…At North Carolina (Nov. 20): Finished with eight tackles (four solo), including a season-high three for loss and his fifth sack of the season. North Carolina had assumed possession at their own 5-yard line with 36 seconds remaining in the game, trailing by two, but Manning sacked QB T.J. Yates in the end zone for a safety, essentially ending the game.

2009: Saw his first action as a redshirt freshman, appearing in all 12 games with two starts and posting 48 tackles (31 solo), including two for loss, an interception, four passes defensed and a forced fumble...Vs. South Carolina (Sept. 3): Made his collegiate debut on both defense and special teams. Recorded an assisted tackle on defense… At Wake Forest (Oct. 3): Saw his most extended action of the season in a 48-snap appearance against the Demon Deacons. Finished with six tackles (five solo)…At Florida State (Oct. 31): Had what was statistically the best game of his rookie season, posting a season-best eight tackles (six solo), two passes defensed and his first career interception of then-FSU and current Minnesota Vikings QB Christian Ponder. Also forced his first career fumble during the game.

2008: Redshirted while rehabilitating the knee injury he suffered in the final game of his high school career.

HIGH SCHOOL: A highly recruited prep prospect who lettered three times in football at Laurinburg (N.C.) High School...Was rated a four-star recruit and the No. 6 weakside LB in the country by Scout.com…Was also listed as the No. 3 player in the state and the No. 15 OLB in the country by Rivals.com…Earned his conference's defensive player of the year award and was also an all-conference and all-region selection after recording an astounding 219 tackles, five sacks, three interceptions, four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal his senior year in 2007…Suffered a severe knee injury in his final high school game, one that forced him to redshirt during his first year of college while he rehabilitated it…Was also an all-region and all-conference choice after collecting 130 tackles, three INTs and three fumble recoveries his junior year…Lettered twice in both track and basketball.

PERSONAL: Given name Darren Terrell Manning… Nickname is "T-Time"…Born in Laurinburg, N.C. … Single…Has volunteered at football camps and signed autographs for kids in his hometown…Held a job at a furniture store in Laurinburg during high school, assisting both in the warehouse and on deliveries…Enjoys spending time with friends and family…Names his favorite athletes as Kobe Bryant and Lawrence Taylor and says watching highlights of Taylor had the biggest influence on him as a player…Lists Edgar Allan Poe as his favorite poet, Gangs of New York as his favorite movie and 50 Cent as his favorite recording artist…Residence: Laurinburg, N.C.

DRAFT-ORDER TIES

Draft-order ties are resolved by the cumulative record of each team's opponents. The team with the weaker opponents receives drafting priority. Within a tied segment, non-playoff clubs are given priority over playoff clubs. For the teams that do make the postseason, there will be a reseeding based on how far they go in the playoffs. The losers of the wild-card contests will be seeded 21-24 based on their records. The losers of the divisional games will be slotted 25-28, and teams losing in the conference championship games will be picks No. 29 and No. 30. The Super Bowl loser will pick 31st, with the Super Bowl winner picking last at No. 32.

THE COMPENSATORY SYSTEM

The Packers were awarded the maximum four compensatory draft selections from the league in 2012, two fourth-round choices and two seventh-round choices. Since the first compensatories were awarded in 1994, only Baltimore (33) has received more than the Packers (30).

Under terms of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents than it acquires in a year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks.

The number of picks a team receives equals the net loss of compensatory free agents up to a maximum of four. The 32 compensatory choices announced every March supplement the original choices in the seven rounds of the NFL Draft.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula.

Teams are no longer allowed to trade compensatories, although they were during the early years of the system. Because of that clause, the Packers acquired two compensatory choices in 1994 from San Francisco. In other words, Green Bay has actually drafted 32 compensatory players, but the league only has awarded the team 30.

B.J. COLEMAN

QUARTERBACK ▪ TENNESSEE-CHATTANOOGA

Drafted: Seventh Round (b)
Overall: 243rd
(10th quarterback selected)

Ht: 6-3 Wt: 231 • Born: September 16, 1988 • High School Hometown: Chattanooga, Tenn.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Selected by the Packers in the seventh round (No. 243 overall) with the last of four compensatory draft choices awarded to the team following the 2011 season.

Entered the college ranks as a highly regarded high school recruit, beginning his career at the University of Tennessee. Redshirted in 2007 and appeared briefly in 2008 for the Volunteers before electing to transfer to the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga in his hometown.

Spent the next three seasons as the starter for UTC at the I-AA level, helping to key a landmark turnaround for the program that followed his arrival on campus. The team improved from 1-11 in 2008 to 6-5 in 2009, the first year of head coach Russ Huesman's tenure and Coleman's first as the starting QB.

Started all 29 games in which he appeared and finished his career ranked either first or second in every major statistical passing category in school history.

For his career at UTC, threw for 6,871 yards and 52 TDs on 579-of-1,008 passing (57.4 percent), with 31 INTs. The attempts and TD passes set new school records and he finished ranked second in completions, yards and both 200- and 300-yard passing games.

Had his best statistical season in 2010 when he completed 215-of-382 attempts (56.3 percent), setting career highs with 2,996 yards and 26 TDs and leading the team to a 6-5 record, giving the program its first back-to-back winning seasons in 20 years.

Appeared in only seven games as a senior in 2011 after suffering an injury to his throwing shoulder following a late hit in a game at Georgia Southern. Missed the ensuing four games (the first of his career lost to injury), but returned for the season finale against Wofford.

Was the Packers' third-ever draft pick to hail from Tennessee-Chattanooga and the first since halfback Bill Butler was chosen by the franchise in 19th round of the 1959 draft more than 53 years ago. Also became just the third QB ever to be drafted out of the school, joining Hal Ledyard (San Francisco – 1953) and Johnny Green (Pittsburgh – 1959).

Earned a degree in communications with a minor in business.

2011: A preseason second-team All-Southern Conference selection, he started all seven games in which he played, but was sidelined for four games in the season's second half after suffering a shoulder injury in the game at Georgia Southern (Oct. 8)…Did not return to the game and missed the subsequent four contests, the first of his career lost to injury...For the season, completed 137-of-225 attempts (60.9 percent) for 1,527 yards and nine TDs…His completion percentage was a career high…Surpassed 200 yards passing in five of his seven outings, highlighted by a season-high 296-yard, two-TD effort against Jacksonville State (Sept. 10)…Also punted twice during the season, netting 57 yards (28.5 avg.) with a long of 34…Was invited to compete as a member of the East squad in the annual East-West Shrine Game, and acquitted himself well, completing 10-of-15 passes (66.7 percent) for 170 yards and a TD during the all-star game…At Nebraska (Sept. 3): Opened the season at No. 10-ranked Nebraska, completing 19-of-33 attempts (57.6 percent) for 174 yards and a TD, with an interception…Vs. Jacksonville State (Sept. 10): Bounced back the following week with a strong performance, posting a season-high 296 yards and two TDs on 23-of-33 passing (69.7 percent) in a 38-17 win. Also carried the ball seven times for 40 yards (5.7 avg.), including a career-long 19-yard run…At Georgia Southern (Oct. 8): Suffered an injury to his throwing shoulder following a late hit in the first half and did not return…Vs. Wofford (Nov. 19): Returned from the shoulder injury after missing the previous four games and threw a season-high three TDs. Threw for 232 yards on 26-of-39 passing (66.7 percent).

AT A GLANCE …

- A highly recruited prep passer who initially started his collegiate career at the University of Tennessee, spending two years with the Volunteers program before transferring and playing his remaining three seasons at Tennessee-Chattanooga.
- Finished his career at Chattanooga ranked either first or second in every major statistical passing category in school history after he started 29 games over three seasons and threw for 6,871 yards and 52 TDs on 579-of-1,008 passing (57.4 percent).
- Improved his draft stock with a solid performance at the 2012 East-West Shrine Game, where he completed 10-of-15 passes for 170 yards and a TD as a member of the East squad.
- Father, Bryon Sr., was an offensive lineman at Chattanooga from 1977-80, and his brother, Jarrod, was a tight end and a teammate of his during his recent three-year stint at the school.
- Received the Reggie White Player of the Year Award for the state of Tennessee following his senior year of high school in Chattanooga, an award named in honor of the late Packers legend and presented by his mother, Thelma White Collier.

2010: Earned second-team All-Southern Conference honors from the league's coaches following the season after starting all 11 games and posting career highs in yardage (2,996), touchdowns (26) and passing efficiency (137.8) on 215-of-382 passing (56.3 percent)…The touchdown total ranked second in both the conference and single-season school history, while also placing him sixth in the nation among players at the FCS level…His average of 272.4 passing yards per game also ranked second in the conference and seventh in the country…Led the team to a 6-5 finish, giving the program its first back-to-back winning seasons in 20 years…Was also elected to serve as one of three team captains for the season and was named to the Athletic Director's honor roll both semesters…Also punted three times for 89 yards (29.7 avg.) with a long of 37…Vs. Appalachian State (Sept. 4): Opened the season in impressive fashion, throwing for 340 yards and three TDs, with no interceptions, on 23-of-37 passing (62.2 percent). Also carried the ball nine times and added a career-high two rushing TDs. Nearly snapped Appalachian State's 20-game conference winning streak, but a 28-point fourth quarter put the Mountaineers ahead late by the game's final score, 42-41. Marked the second 300-yard passing game of his career…Vs. Eastern Kentucky (Sept. 18): Eclipsed the 300-yard passing plateau yet again when he registered 375 yards on 24-of-32 passing (75.0 percent) and four TDs in a win over the Colonels. Passing day was highlighted by his career-long 80-yard TD pass to WR Joel Bradford in the first quarter…At Furman (Oct. 23): Posted a career-high 432 yards on 33-of-58 passing (56.9 percent) with two TDs in a 36-28 win. Yardage total was the fifth-highest single-game mark in school history and the most by a Chattanooga QB since Cedric Stevens had 515 against Appalachian State in 2004. Also marked a high by any player in the Southern Conference that season and the third most in Division I-AA. Threw 15 of his completions to Bradford, who netted a school-record 274 yards and a TD...Vs. Elon (Oct. 30): Followed up his personal-best passing-yardage performance with a career-high five TDs against the Phoenix, completing 33-of-63 attempts (also a career high) and rallying Chattanooga from a 35-14 halftime deficit to a tie score early in the fourth quarter…At Auburn (Nov. 6): Threw for 210 yards and a TD on 20-of-39 passing (51.3 percent) against the eventual BCS National Champion Tigers…Vs. Samford (Nov. 13): Had his most statistically efficient performance of the season, going 12-for-20 passing (60.0 percent) for 319 yards and four TDs in a 48-14 victory.

2009: Enjoyed a productive first season as the starter following his transfer from Tennessee, beating out senior Jare Gault to win the starting QB post prior to the season…Started all 11 games and finished the year having completed a career-high 227 passes on 401 attempts (56.6 percent) for 2,348 yards and 17 TDs against nine interceptions…Became the first UTC QB to throw for 2,000 yards in a season since 2004 and also posted a four-game, 186-attempt stretch between his first and second INTs of the season…Vs. Glenville State (Sept. 3): Made the first start of his collegiate career, completing 18-of-34 attempts (52.9 percent) for 258 yards and a TD, leading the Mocs to a 30-13 victory. Season-long completion came on a 73-yard TD pass to TE Garrett Hughes in the second quarter…At Elon (Oct. 24): Threw for 122 yards and a TD on 14-of-30 passing (46.7 percent). His third-quarter interception snapped a streak of four-plus games he'd gone without throwing one, a 186-attempt stretch that saw him throw for 1,177 yards and 11 TDs between INTs on 113-of-185 passing (61.1 percent)…Vs. The Citadel (Nov. 14): Threw for a season-high 356 yards on 39-of-61 passing (63.9 percent), with three TDs and an INT in a come-from-behind 31-28 win that saw the Mocs outscore the Bulldogs 28-7 in the second half.

2008: Saw his first collegiate action as a redshirt freshman at Tennessee, coming on in relief in three different contests…Vs. UAB (Sept. 13): Made his debut, but did not attempt a pass…At Vanderbilt (Nov. 22): Saw his most extended action of the season and posted his first statistics, completing 4-of-8 passes for 21 yards and also gaining 24 yards on seven rushing attempts (3.4 avg.)

2007: Redshirted at the University of Tennessee.

HIGH SCHOOL: Lettered three times as the starting QB for the McCallie School in Chattanooga, earning first-team All-State honors from the Tennessee Sports Writers Association as a senior in 2006, while also being named the American General Mr. Football Award winner for Division II-AAA following both his junior and senior seasons…Was rated a four-star recruit by both Rivals.com and Scout.com, ranking as the No. 10 pro-style and No. 16 overall QB on the sites' respective listings…Was regarded as one of the premier recruits in the state of Tennessee and was named the offensive MVP on the Chattanooga Times Free Press' "Best of Preps" team and also The Tennessean's "Dream Team"…Finished his prep career holding the school's single-season and career records for passing yards and touchdowns…Led the team to the Division II-AAA state championship game in 2006 after throwing for 2,927 yards and 19 TDs on 166-of-257 passing (64.6 percent), while also rushing 51 times for 241 yards (4.7 avg.) and seven TDs during the season…Threw for 2,203 yards and 19 TDs as a junior in 2005 and 1,993 yards and 15 TDs as a sophomore in 2004…Also lettered three times as a member of the varsity baseball team, contributing as both a pitcher and outfielder.

PERSONAL: Given name Bryon Elwyn Coleman Jr. …Born in Chattanooga, Tenn. …Single…Father, Bryon Sr., was an offensive lineman at Tennessee-Chattanooga from 1977-80, and his brother, Jarrod, was a TE and a teammate of his during his recent three-year stint at the school…Received the Reggie White Player of the Year Award for the state of Tennessee following his senior year of high school, an honor presented to him by the late Hall of Famer's mother, Thelma White Collier, and one he recalled as his most memorable sports achievement…Joined teammates in volunteering at the Community Kitchen in Chattanooga, helping to serve food to the homeless…Also held a job as a caddie at the Honors Golf Course during his time in college…Attended the Kentucky Derby in 2011…Enjoys hunting, fishing, playing golf, being out on the lake and spending time with friends and family…Names Peyton Manning and Phil Mickelson as his favorite athletes, The Replacements as his favorite movie and Big Bang Theory as his favorite television show…Also enjoys listening to country music and lists Gulf Shores, Ala., as his favorite place to visit on vacation…Residence: Chattanooga, Tenn.

A pronunciation guide is located on page 196

A player will be credited with a year of NFL experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List, Inactive List, Reserve/Injured List, or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform List – six games on a combination of any of these lists. Rookies are players in their first year of professional football who have not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. Players who have played in other professional sports leagues (Canadian Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on the above lists for fewer than six games are listed as first-year NFL players ("1").

GREEN BAY 42, NEW ORLEANS 34

Lambeau Field, Thursday, Sept. 8, 2011. Attendance: 70,555. Time: 3:09. Weather: 68° F, Humidity: 67 percent, Wind: Variable 5 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Aaron Rodgers came out on top in a memorable opening-night duel with Drew Brees, and the Packers made a goal-line stand on the final play of the game to beat the Saints 42-34 on Thursday night.

With the Saints on the 1-yard line, linebacker Clay Matthews and safety Morgan Burnett led a swarm of Packers defenders that stopped Saints rookie running back Mark Ingram short of the goal line.

Randall Cobb, a second-round draft pick out of Kentucky, caught a touchdown from Rodgers and ran a kickoff back 108 yards for a score in the third quarter -- tying an NFL record for the longest kickoff return in history.

After a Green Bay punt, Brees marched the Saints to the Packers 9-yard line and spiked the ball with 3 seconds left. Green Bay's A.J. Hawk was called for pass interference and the ball was placed at the 1.

Led by Matthews and Burnett, the Packers defense swarmed Ingram short of the goal line and the game was over.

It was a big night for Donald Driver, who tied James Lofton's Packers franchise mark for career yards receiving with 9,656.

The Packers' most impressive scoring play of the night came courtesy of Cobb, who fielded the ball deep in the Packers' end zone in the third quarter but took it out anyway. Cobb spun off a tackling attempt by the Saints' Leigh Torrence, put his right hand down to keep his balance, then rambled to the end zone.

Cobb's 108-yard return tied an NFL record set by New England's Ellis Hobbs in September 2007. It also was the Packers' first kickoff return for a touchdown since Allen Rossum in 2000.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – For the second straight week, Cam Newton threw for more than 400 yards, sidestepped pass rushers and moved the Carolina Panthers up and down the field.

Leave it to Aaron Rodgers and the Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers to spoil Newton's home debut.

Rodgers threw for 308 yards and two scores, while the Packers withstood a 432-yard passing day from the No. 1 overall draft pick to beat the Panthers 30-23 on Sunday.

A week after throwing for 422 yards – the most in league history by a rookie in his professional debut – Newton topped himself by throwing for a franchise single-game record. He passed for one touchdown and also ran for a 4-yard score with 37 seconds left to bring Carolina within seven, but the Packers recovered the onside kick to seal the victory.

While Newton racked up the big yards, Rodgers was the one to direct his team to a victory. He found Greg Jennings for a 49-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter, the go-ahead score in a run of 23 straight points to erase an early 13-0 deficit.

Then, after Clay Matthews stopped Newton a yard shy of the marker on a fourth-down run inside the 5, Rodgers found Jordy Nelson for an 84-yard touchdown that made it a two-possession game and helped the Packers hang on.

Newton went on to crack the 400-yard mark on the ensuing possession, finding Steve Smith deep over the middle for a 62-yard pass before capping the drive with his scoring run.

GREEN BAY 27, CHICAGO 17

Soldier Field, Sunday, Sept. 25, 2011. Attendance: 62,339. Time: 3:12. Weather: 61° F, Humidity: 85 percent, Wind: S 10 mph.*

CHICAGO – Aaron Rodgers threw for 297 yards, including three touchdown passes to Jermichael Finley, and the Packers shut down Jay Cutler and the Chicago Bears on the way to a 27-17 victory Sunday.

The stakes weren't as high as the previous meeting, when the Packers left Chicago's home field celebrating the NFC title on the way to the championship. Even so, they gave the Bears (1-2) more headaches in the NFL's longest-running series.

Rodgers led the charge, completing 28 of 38 passes. He threw his first interception of the season, when Brian Urlacher picked him off with the Packers leading 27-17 in the fourth quarter.

Rodgers hit Finley with a 6-yard TD on the game's opening drive, a 7-yarder early in the second quarter that made it 14-0, and a 10-yarder that gave the Packers (3-0) a commanding 27-10 lead early in the fourth.

Greg Jennings caught nine passes for 119 yards, while Finley finished with seven receptions and 85 yards. Ryan Grant ran for 92, and Morgan Burnett intercepted Cutler twice on passes intended for Roy Williams to help the Packers remain unbeaten.

The Bears managed just 13 yards rushing. And with 12 attempts, they matched their second fewest in team history for the second straight game.

Cutler was 21 of 37 with two touchdowns and two interceptions and threw six straight incompletions to start the second half against a defense that allowed Drew Brees and Cam Newton to throw for more than 400. Worse, the Packers were without Pro Bowl safety Nick Collins, who suffered a season-ending neck injury the previous week.

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Aaron Rodgers still likes to remind people that he's more athletic than he sometimes gets credit for.

So even on a day when he threw for a career-high 408 yards and tied a career best with four touchdown passes, Rodgers was perhaps most pleased with his two rushing touchdowns in the Green Bay Packers' 49-23 rout of the Denver Broncos on Sunday.

The Packers took a 21-3 lead on Rodgers' 11-yard touchdown scramble early in the second quarter, but the Broncos briefly got back in the game as Orton threw a pair of second-quarter touchdowns to Decker.

Rodgers then shut the door just before halftime, throwing a 17-yard touchdown to Greg Jennings with 24 seconds left in the second quarter. The Packers took a 28-17 lead.

Rodgers converted a third-and-13 situation with an 18-yard completion to James Jones, then went on to march the Packers to the Denver 8-yard line. Rodgers took off running and was tackled as he stretched the ball to the goal line, where officials ruled him just short.

Mike McCarthy called for a replay review, and the play was ruled a touchdown. Green Bay took a 35-17 lead with 8:26 left in the third quarter.

Kyle Orton put together another drive as the Broncos tried to keep up, and appeared to find tight end Daniel Fells for a long gain near the goal line. But Fells fumbled the ball and Packers safety Morgan Burnett recovered, giving the ball back to the Packers.

Rodgers then hit Randall Cobb for a 61-yard completion as the rookie spun away from a pair of Broncos defenders, and the Packers finished the drive with a 16-yard touchdown pass to Jones to put Green Bay ahead 42-17.

Charles Woodson's 30-yard interception return for a touchdown in the first quarter was the 11th of his career, tying him with Darren Sharper for second on the NFL's all-time list – and leaving him just one shy of the record held by Rod Woodson.

GREEN BAY 25, ATLANTA 14

Georgia Dome, Sunday, Oct. 9, 2011. Attendance: 69,576. Time: 3:05. Weather: (Indoors)*

ATLANTA – Following up on a blowout of the Falcons in last year's playoffs, Aaron Rodgers threw for 396 yards and a pair of touchdowns to rally Green Bay from an early 14-point hole, keeping the Packers unbeaten with a 25-14 victory Sunday night.

The high-scoring Packers (5-0) were held without a touchdown in the first half by Atlanta (2-3), which was trying to make up for an embarrassing 48-21 loss to Green Bay last January. The Falcons had the Georgia Dome rocking when they raced to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter, scoring on their first two possessions. After that, the home fans had little to cheer about.

Green Bay settled for three field goals by Mason Crosby, closing to 14-9 before Rodgers got rolling. He connected with James Jones on a 70-yard touchdown that gave Green Bay its first lead late in the third quarter. Then, on the first play of the fourth, Rodgers connected with Greg Jennings on a 29-yard scoring play that stretched the lead to 22-14.

Crosby clinched it for the Packers with his fourth field goal, a 30-yarder with 1:10 remaining after Rodgers guided the Packers on another long drive, hitting every pass he needed until Green Bay was safely in range to wrap it up.

Atlanta didn't crack 200 total yards until late in the game. Matt Ryan had another tough night against the Packers, throwing for just 167 yards with two more interceptions after turning it over three times in that playoff debacle last January.

GREEN BAY 24, ST. LOUIS 3

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Oct. 16, 2011. Attendance: 70,604. Time: 2:50. Weather: 57° F, Humidity: 41 percent, Wind: W 23-32 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. – The Green Bay Packers' record remains perfect. The fact that their play has been far from flawless remains a constant source of motivation for Aaron Rodgers.

Rodgers threw three touchdowns, including a career-long 93-yarder to Jordy Nelson, and the Packers rolled to a 24-3 victory over the St. Louis Rams on Sunday. With Sunday's loss by NFC North rival Detroit, the Packers (6-0) are the last unbeaten team left in the NFL this season.

Rodgers threw for 310 yards, delivering touchdowns to Nelson, James Jones and Donald Driver.

Sam Bradford was 28 of 44 for 321 yards with an interception for the Rams (0-5), who were coming off their bye week. Rams running back Steven Jackson had 18 carries for 96 yards.

The Packers were wearing blue-and-gold uniforms designed to replicate a 1929 design, but Rodgers' ability to scramble out of trouble and make big plays was anything but a throwback to the days of leather helmets.

Trailing 3-0 and facing a fourth-and-3 play near the end of the first quarter, the Rams went for it and Bradford threw incomplete. The Packers got the ball back and gambled on fourth down as well, going for it on fourth-and-1 at the 50. James Starks burst through the line for a 15-yard gain.

Rodgers showed his mastery of play-action on the next play, faking a handoff to Starks on the right side, rolling to his left and delivering a perfect pass to Jones in the end zone for a 35-yard touchdown and 10-0 lead.

After a Rams punt pinned the Packers at their own 7, Rodgers got the best of former teammate Al Harris on his big play to Nelson. Rodgers got the veteran cornerback to bite on a fake and then threw a rainbow to the wide-open Nelson for an easy score and a 17-0 lead.

Rodgers put together another drive toward the end of the second quarter, capitalizing on the threat of his running ability to finish it off. On second-and-goal at the 7, Rodgers appeared to make a run for the end zone – then pulled up and flipped the ball to Driver for a touchdown with 1:51 left before halftime.

MINNEAPOLIS – Despite the disparate records, Aaron Rodgers and the Packers found plenty of competition from Christian Ponder in the fearless rookie's first start for the Vikings.

Rodgers was up for the challenge again, and the defending Super Bowl champions still didn't flinch. Rodgers kept Green Bay unbeaten with three touchdowns and 335 yards passing, holding off Minnesota 33-27 on Sunday.

Ponder was picked off twice in the third quarter by Charles Woodson, who almost grabbed a couple more interceptions, but he kept the Vikings in it from start to finish after completing a 71-yard pass play on his first snap.

Adrian Peterson helped him out by rushing 24 times for 175 yards and a touchdown for the Vikings (1-6), but James Starks put the game away with two big gains for first downs before the two-minute warning and another one right after. He had 75 yards on 13 carries for the Packers (7-0).

Mason Crosby had four field goals for the Packers, including a franchise record 58-yarder, one of many delights among some anxious moments for the thousands of Packers fans in attendance who made the trip across the border.

Ponder's first foray against the Packers, despite the mistakes, showed flash and promise.

Ponder went 13 for 32, but he never looked rattled and finished with 219 yards and two touchdowns. Ponder also ran four times for 31 yards. He found Michael Jenkins for a score with 7:49 left, after a rare three-and-out by the Packers, to cut the lead to six points. He had the ball back with plenty of time to win it before a couple of errant heaves effectively ended the comeback.

This usually tight rivalry hasn't been this one-sided in decades. The Packers won for the eighth time in 11 meetings, and the common denominator is Rodgers.

SAN DIEGO – Aaron Rodgers was at his best, throwing lasers where only his receivers could catch them and finding four different teammates in the end zone.

Yes, Rodgers had a lot to do with the Green Bay Packers remaining undefeated with a crazy 45-38 win over the staggering San Diego Chargers on Sunday.

Charlie Peprah and Tramon Williams returned interceptions for touchdowns in a span of six plays in the first quarter, and Peprah's second pick in the closing seconds sealed the win for the Packers (8-0).

Rodgers completed 21 of 26 passes for 247 yards and ran his NFL-leading total to 24 TD throws. He had scoring passes of 5 yards to Jermichael Finley, 16 to Jordy Nelson, 21 to James Jones and 4 to Greg Jennings.

Rivers also threw four touchdown passes Sunday to tie his career high, three of them to Vincent Jackson.

Rivers was 26 of 46 for 385 yards. It was the first time in his career that he threw three interceptions in a game.

The Packers led by 21 points early in the fourth quarter before Rivers threw touchdown passes of 5 and 29 yards to Jackson in the span of 1:07 midway through the quarter.

San Diego had a final chance to tie it, starting a drive at its 32 with 1:05 remaining and no timeouts left. Aided by a pass interference call against Charles Woodson, Rivers moved the Chargers to the Packers 41 before putting up a deep ball that Peprah easily picked off and returned 76 yards to the San Diego 6. The Packers took a knee to end the game.

GREEN BAY 45, MINNESOTA 7

Lambeau Field, Monday, Nov. 14, 2011. Attendance: 70,519. Time: 2:56. Weather: 47° F, Humidity: 68 percent, Wind: SW 13 mph.*

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Aaron Rodgers was just fine sharing the spotlight with the Green Bay Packers' defense. Thrilled, actually.

If the Packers now can field a dependable defense along with their trademark high-octane offense, they just might be unstoppable.

The Packers finally played to their potential against the division rival Vikings (2-7), holding rookie quarterback Christian Ponder to 190 yards passing with an interception, and limiting running back Adrian Peterson to 51 yards and a touchdown.

The Vikings' defense did its best to rough up Rodgers, sacking him three times and hitting him hard virtually every time he took off running. Defensive end Jared Allen harassed Rodgers at every turn.

The pressure didn't force any uncharacteristic mistakes from Rodgers, who was 23 of 30 for 250 yards without an interception. Rodgers threw a pair of touchdown passes to Jordy Nelson, and also found Greg Jennings and John Kuhn for scores.

McCarthy put backup quarterback Matt Flynn in the game with 10:30 left in the fourth quarter -- and the Vikings couldn't keep him out of the end zone, either, as he scrambled 3 yards for a touchdown with 4:27 left.

After the Packers' defense forced the Vikings to go three-and-out on their first possession, Cobb fielded a punt from Chris Kluwe and squeezed through a seam in the middle of the field.

Cobb accelerated down the left sideline and danced the final few steps into the end zone, tossing the ball in the air as if he was shooting a basketball before doing a "Lambeau Leap" into the stands.

GREEN BAY 35, TAMPA BAY 26

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Nov. 20, 2011. Attendance: 70,498. Time: 3:13. Weather: 32° F, Humidity: 66 percent, Wind: N 7 mph.*

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Aaron Rodgers missed a few more throws than he usually does, and even threw an interception with the game still in doubt.

He just wasn't at his best against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on Sunday – until he absolutely had to be.

With the Packers clinging to a two-point lead and trying to fend off a late rally, Rodgers threw a 40-yard touchdown to Jordy Nelson with 2:55 left and the Packers survived a scare from the Buccaneers for a 35-26 victory.

Josh Freeman threw for 342 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions for the Buccaneers (4-6), who have lost four straight but didn't back down against the reigning Super Bowl champions.

LeGarrette Blount had 107 yards rushing for Tampa Bay, including a rambling 54-yard touchdown run in the second quarter where he broke at least six tackles.

Tight end Tom Crabtree caught a touchdown from Rodgers and John Kuhn added a touchdown rushing from Green Bay. The Packers got their first score of the afternoon on a run by 337-pound defensive lineman B.J. Raji.

The Buccaneers trailed by only four points and seemed to have some momentum when they tried a surprise onside kick before halftime. After a replay review gave the ball to Green Bay at the Tampa Bay 38-yard line, Rodgers drove for a 5-yard touchdown to Nelson that gave the Packers a 21-10 lead.

Tampa Bay then had a touchdown taken off the board in the third quarter when Kellen Winslow was called for offensive pass interference. The Buccaneers settled for a 32-yard field goal by Connor Barth.

DETROIT – Aaron Rodgers took every hit the Detroit Lions could dish out.

He just kept throwing – and winning.

Rodgers threw two touchdown passes and the Green Bay Packers built a big lead in the third quarter thanks in part to Ndamukong Suh's ejection during a 27-15 victory in Detroit on Thursday.

Detroit's best chance to beat the Packers was to knock Rodgers out of the game, just as it did last year in a victory that started a nine-game winning streak.

The Lions gave that tactic a shot, hitting him even if he had already gotten rid of the ball. Kyle Vanden Bosch was flagged for one of those late hits and could've drawn another penalty for trying to rough up the star quarterback even more on the same drive.

The defending champion Packers are 11-0 for the first time in franchise history and have won a team-record 17 straight, including the playoffs.

While the Packers are working on a perfect season, Detroit (7-4) has to figure out a way to avoid the physical and mental mistakes that have put the team on the playoff bubble after a 5-0 start.

Suh's day might lead to another fine – and possibly a suspension.

He was tossed for stomping on Evan Dietrich-Smith's right arm in the third quarter.

The Packers took advantage of Suh's misstep just as they did on Matthew Stafford's three interceptions.

John Kuhn followed nose tackle B.J. Raji for a 1-yard TD plunge after Suh was flagged on third down, and Green Bay turned Stafford's interceptions into two TDs and a field goal.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – Tied with less than a minute to play and 80 yards from the end zone, Aaron Rodgers wasn't going to wait until overtime.

Rodgers completed passes of 24, 27 and 18 yards in a lightning-quick five-play drive to set up a 31-yard field goal by Mason Crosby on the final play, and the Green Bay Packers remained undefeated and clinched a playoff berth with a 38-35 victory over the New York Giants on Sunday.

The defending Super Bowl champions (12-0) won their 18th straight game. Coupled with the Detroit Lions' loss to New Orleans Sunday, the Packers captured the NFC North.

Rodgers hit all four of his passes in the 58-second drive that sent the Giants (6-6) to their fourth straight loss, starting with a 24-yard laser to tight end Jermichael Finley just over the hands of rookie linebacker Jacquian Williams.

The second one covered 24 yards to Jordy Nelson down the left sideline and moved the ball to the New York 29. An 18-yard pass to Greg Jennings two plays later moved the ball to the 12. The third toss was a 1-yard loss.

Green Bay called time out with 3 seconds to go, and then Crosby delivered his winning kick.

Rodgers, harassed by the Giants' front four and sacked three times, finished 28 of 46 for 369 yards. He threw touchdown passes of 7 and 13 yards to Donald Driver and 12 to Finley in addition to the one to Jennings.

GREEN BAY 46, OAKLAND 16

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Dec. 11, 2011. Attendance: 70,524. Time: 3:22. Weather: 43 F, Humidity: 55 percent, Wind: S 15 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis. – Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers should have been feeling satisfied.

With Sunday's 46-16 rout of the Oakland Raiders, the Packers brushed aside a playoff contender by halftime to win their 19th straight, moved a game away from clinching home-field advantage throughout the playoffs – and at 13-0, they kept the possibility of a perfect season squarely in sight.

Instead, Rodgers seemed concerned about the health of star wide receiver Greg Jennings, who left the game with an apparent left knee injury in the third quarter.

Jennings' injury put a damper on what was otherwise one of the Packers' most complete performances of the season. Rodgers threw for 281 yards with two touchdowns and an interception in less than three quarters' worth of work, Ryan Grant had two touchdowns rushing and Charles Woodson picked off a pass against his former team.

Carson Palmer threw for 245 yards with a touchdown and four interceptions for the Raiders (7-6), who looked like anything but legitimate contenders in the AFC West.

Oakland was without injured running back Darren McFadden, along with wide receivers Jacoby Ford and Denarius Moore. And the Raiders made plenty of mistakes to help an opponent that doesn't really need it.

Palmer threw an interception on the Raiders' first possession, and Oakland committed eight penalties in the first half alone.

And while the Packers' play has been far from perfect for most of the season, especially on defense, this one was total domination. Things got out of hand so quickly that the Raiders tried a fake punt in the second quarter. As was the case for most things the Raiders attempted Sunday, it didn't work.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Mike McCarthy never put a whole lot of stock in a perfect season, except as a means of gaining home-field advantage and setting the Green Bay Packers up for another Super Bowl run.

Well, they still have a chance to earn home-field advantage. The perfect season? That's history.

Kyle Orton threw for 299 yards to outduel Aaron Rodgers, and the Kansas City Chiefs rallied behind interim coach Romeo Crennel for a shocking 19-14 victory on Sunday that ended the Packers' 19-game winning streak. It was their first loss since Dec. 19, 2010, at New England.

Rodgers was 17 of 35 for 235 yards and a touchdown, and he also scampered 8 yards for another touchdown with 2:12 left in the game. But the Packers (13-1) were unable to recover the onside kick, and Kansas City picked up a couple of first downs to secure the victory.

Ryan Succop kicked four field goals for Kansas City (6-8), which had lost five of its last six games and fired coach Todd Haley on Dec. 12. Jackie Battle added a short touchdown plunge with 4:53 left in the game, points that came in handy when Rodgers led one last scoring drive.

Packers wide receiver Jordy Nelson was hit twice with offensive pass interference, Rodgers was harassed by the Chiefs' weak pass rush, and Green Bay wound up making five first downs in the first half.

One of them came when Kansas City's Jeremy Horne ran into Packers punter Tim Masthay, giving them 15 free yards. The Chiefs tried to give Green Bay another gift later on the drive when Mason Crosby missed a 59-yard field goal attempt but Kansas City had 12 men on the field.

With another chance from 54 yards, the normally reliable Crosby still pushed the kick right.

Rodgers finished the half 6 of 17 for 59 yards, with a handful of drops between wide receiver Donald Driver and tight end Jermichael Finley. In fact, things were going so badly for Green Bay that at one point it ran out of the wildcat despite having one of the best quarterbacks in the game.

GREEN BAY 35, CHICAGO 21

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Dec. 25, 2011. Attendance: 70,574. Time: 2:53. Weather: 37° F, Humidity: 64 percent, Wind: W 13 mph.*

GREEN BAY, Wis. – With the first five-touchdown passing game of his NFL career, Aaron Rodgers ensured that the Green Bay Packers' playoff road will go through Lambeau Field.

He also made sure the rival Chicago Bears will be spending the playoffs at home.

Rodgers broke a close game wide open by leading three quick scoring drives in the second half, and the Packers beat the Bears 35-21 on Sunday night.

Rodgers threw a pair of touchdown passes to Jordy Nelson, another two to James Jones, and found tight end Jermichael Finley for a score. Rodgers was 21 of 29 for 283 yards and five touchdowns with no interceptions when backup Matt Flynn took over with 7:54 left in the game.

Rodgers surpassed Lynn Dickey's single-season franchise record of 4,458 yards passing with one game left, although it's unclear how much Rodgers will play in the Packers' finale against Detroit.

Third-string running back Kahlil Bell rushed for 121 yards for the Bears, who trailed by only four early in the third quarter. But Rodgers drove the Packers for touchdowns on their next three possessions to put the game out of reach.

Chicago came into Sunday on a four-game losing streak and beset by injuries. But the Bears were able to stay in the game with solid defense and tough running by Bell, who started because of injuries to Matt Forte and Marion Barber.

The victory was the Packers' fourth over the Bears in 2011. Green Bay also beat Chicago in the 2010 regular-season finale, the NFC Championship game, and at Soldier Field on Sept. 25.

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Jan. 1, 2012. Attendance: 70,294. Time: 3:44. Weather: 31° F, Humidity: 78 percent, Wind: NW 20 mph.*

GREEN BAY, Wis. – With Aaron Rodgers resting up for the playoffs, Matt Flynn had to be ready to run the Green Bay Packers offense.

With Rodgers bundled up on the sideline in cold and windy conditions at Lambeau Field, Flynn set franchise records with 480 yards passing and six touchdowns – the final one to Jermichael Finley with 1:10 left, giving the Packers a 45-41 victory over the Detroit Lions in a wild regular-season finale Sunday.

It was an ideal afternoon for the Packers (15-1), who got to rest Rodgers and several other big-name players without losing momentum going into the playoffs.

Flynn barely got the Packers past Matthew Stafford, who threw for 520 yards with five touchdowns and two interceptions for the Lions (10-6). Detroit has lost 21 straight road games to the Packers, including the postseason.

The Lions head to the playoffs for the first time since 1999 as a wild card, but could have clinched the No. 5 seed with a win. Instead, they'll be the No. 6 seed and face New Orleans in the first round.

According to STATS LLC, it was the first time in NFL history opposing quarterbacks each threw for 400-plus yards and five-plus touchdowns in a game. The teams' combined 971 net yards passing broke the record of 906 set earlier this season in a Week 1 game between New England and Miami.

For Flynn, it was a huge day that could eventually lead to a significant payday. A seventh-round pick out of LSU in 2008, Flynn already had the attention of general managers around the league after he nearly beat New England last season while Rodgers was recovering from a concussion.

Now he has a huge performance and a victory under his belt, and he'll become a free agent in the offseason.

For now, though, Flynn is ready to get back to his main role in Green Bay: helping Rodgers get ready to lead the Packers back to the Super Bowl.

With the afternoon off, Rodgers' season quarterback rating of 122.5 coming into the game broke Peyton Manning's single-season mark of 121.1 set in 2004.

N.Y. GIANTS 37, GREEN BAY 20

Lambeau Field, Sunday, Jan. 15, 2012. Attendance: 72,080. Time: 3:14. Weather: 31° F, Humidity: 66 percent, Wind: S 20 mph.*

GREEN BAY, Wis. – With their own star quarterback and a dominating defense, the New York Giants exposed the Green Bay Packers for what they now are – former Super Bowl champions.

The Packers dropped passes, fumbled the ball and simply couldn't stop Eli Manning and his receivers in the Giants' shocking 37-20 divisional playoff victory Sunday. To the Giants' delight, a Green Bay team that had a real shot at an undefeated season less than a month ago is heading home.

And that the win came at Lambeau Field, well, that was just as sweet. The site has become a familiar launching pad for the New Yorkers. After beating the Packers (15-2) at home for the second time in four years, they only hope this trip ends the same way – in the NFL title game.

The Giants (11-7) have been on a roll ever since beating the rival Jets on Dec. 24, beating the Dallas Cowboys to get in the playoffs and then blowing out Atlanta in the wild card round last week.

They took down the Packers on Sunday, as Manning threw for 330 yards and three touchdowns.

The Giants stunned the Packers with a touchdown off a long heave from Manning to Hakeem Nicks just before halftime, then knocked them out with a late touchdown off a turnover.

The win came four years after the Giants beat a Brett Favre-led Packers team in the NFC title game. It wasn't nearly as frigid this time around, and the Packers' vulnerable defense seemed to be waiting to get sliced up.

Manning found six different receivers against a porous Packers defense. But Manning did the most damage with his throws to Nicks, who caught seven passes for 165 yards and two touchdowns.

The Giants' defense also was able to defuse the big-play abilities of Aaron Rodgers and the Packers' offense.

Rodgers was 26 of 46 for 264 yards, with two touchdowns and an interception. He also was the Packers' leading rusher with 66 yards on seven carries.

The Packers' past problems with dropped balls by their talented group of wide receivers returned at the worst time imaginable.

JOHNNY BLOOD

In 1922 while in college at St. John's (Minn.), John McNally had the chance to pick up some extra cash playing pro ball for the Duluth Eskimos. Problem was, college players were not allowed on pro teams. In order to keep his eligibility, he needed an alias.

Allegedly, he and a teammate were strolling through Minneapolis and noticed a marquee on Hennepin Avenue advertising the movie Blood and Sand, starring Rudolph Valentino. McNally got his alias, dubbed his buddy "Sand," and lived the rest of his colorful life to its fullest.

Blood became the inspiration for the 2008 movie Leatherheads, starring George Clooney.

ENDING THE SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

If history is any indicator, a Green Bay winning streak to end the regular season means good things for the coming season. In 2006, the Packers were one of four clubs to finish the regular season with four consecutive victories. It marked the third time this decade the club has ended the season with four consecutive wins, and each following season it has earned a playoff berth.

- Since the NFL implemented postseason play, the Packers on 10 occasions have closed a regular season with at least four wins. Green Bay has failed to reach the playoffs in the following season only twice – in 1940 and '42.

HERBER-TO-HUTSON: DID YOU KNOW?

The Packers' Arnie Herber became the NFL's first long-bomb passer, and he did it with unusually small hands. At Green Bay West High School, Herber learned he could improve his distance and accuracy by palming the ball, rather than using the laces. His most-feared target, the incomparable Don Hutson, had flat feet, and trainers had to tape them in a special way. That taping job gave Hutson a strange running motion, which totally stumped opponents, because his loping style disguised his true speed.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ASSISTS PACKERS TO 1961 CHAMPIONSHIP

Vince Lombardi won an incredible nine straight postseason games, a streak he might not have launched without the help of President John F. Kennedy. The 1961 NFL championship took place during the Berlin Crisis, and the United States had called Ray Nitschke, Paul Hornung and Boyd Dowler into service. With Lombardi's persistence, Nitschke and Dowler obtained special weekend passes to play. Private Hornung, however, wasn't released until Lombardi called an old acquaintance, Kennedy.

"Paul Hornung isn't going to win the war on Sunday, but the football fans of this country deserve the two best teams on the field that day," Kennedy assured Lombardi, days before the game against the New York Giants.

The best team was Green Bay, by a 37-0 count, and after Kennedy released Hornung, the Golden Boy scored 19 points, an NFL title-game record.

The Berlin Crisis pitted the U.S. against East Germany for several months, until the East German government backed down. The crisis ended in the summer of 1962. Kennedy visited Berlin and delivered a famous speech before he died in 1963.

CARRIED OFF THE FIELD

The Packers played a major role in launching the football tradition of carrying a coach off the field after a significant victory. The Packers lifted Vince Lombardi after at least five games (believed to be an NFL record). His players carried him (1) after his first NFL victory, a 9-6 win in his Packers debut, in Green Bay, Sept. 27, 1959, vs. Chicago; (2) after his first NFL championship, a 37-0 win over the Giants in Green Bay, Dec. 31, 1961; (3) after his third NFL championship, a 23-12 win over the Browns in Green Bay, Jan. 2, 1966; (4) after his fourth NFL championship, a 34-27 win over the Cowboys at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Jan. 1, 1967; and (5) after his last game as Packers head coach, a 33-14 win over the Raiders in Super Bowl II at Miami's Orange Bowl, Jan. 14, 1968.

Nearly 30 years later, the Packers carried Mike Holmgren (below) off the field after a 35-21 win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

TWO GREAT DEFENSIVE BACKS, TWO GOOD EYES

Bobby Dillon and Irv Comp, two of the leading interceptors in Packers history, had only two good eyes between them. Dillon, the team's all-time career leader with 52 thefts, played with a glass eye after suffering an accident in childhood. Comp, who established the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions in 1943, also was blind in one eye.

MEMORABLE VINCE LOMBARDI QUOTES

- There is no substitute for work; it is the price of success.
- Fatigue makes cowards of us all; high physical condition is vital to victory.
- Two or three plays in a game spell victory or defeat; you never know when that play is coming up.
- A winning football team must avoid mistakes with a passion; treat mistakes with a vengeance.
- The harder a man works, the harder it is to surrender.
- The goal line is the moment of truth; there is no room for a timid person there.
- Every play must be considered a game breaker.
- Physical pressure on an opponent is necessary; mental pressure will make him crack.
- Desire is a hate for your opponent.
- Football is a game of inches and inches make a champion.
- Defeat must be admitted before it is reality.
- If two teams are the same in physical ability, it is the team with pride that rakes in the chips.
- Desire is cold fury burning within a man.
- Every man must leave the field with the feeling that every spectator is convinced they have seen the best player in the country.
- Pride is what causes a winning team performance.
- Maybe winning isn't everything, but it sure comes way ahead of whatever is second.
- On the goal line, the defense must attack.
- Pursuit is an all-out effort on defense.
- Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. If the defense is scattered all over the field, it means that they are either confused, tired, or without desire.
- Want it; desire it; earn it; take it.
- Anything is ours providing we're willing to pay the price.
- You must forget about being cautious or you are licked before you start.
- Mental attitude is 75 percent of winning.
- You need fear nothing as long as you are aggressive and keep going.
- Football desire is built on pride and effort forged by raw combat.
- We have been accused of playing mean, vicious, hungry football. It has been said we only play to win. How else is there to play?
- You never lose a game if your opponent doesn't score.
- Winning is a habit.
- Covering kicks is football's biggest test of courage.
- Good fellows are a dime a dozen; aggressive leaders are priceless.
- You must force things to happen; you must grab the initiative.
- You win games with aggressiveness and precise execution, not gimmicks.
- Desire is a constant thing.
- Confidence is contagious; so is a lack of confidence.
- Pursuit is the shortest course to the ball carrier and arriving there in bad humor.
- You will find the extent of a man's determination on the goal line.

NOTE: Total Offense from 1932-49 includes lateral statistics, a category eliminated before the 1950 season. In 1947, the league began charting "yards lost attempting to pass." Passing figures from 1932-46 do not include this number. Totals from 1947-2011 are NET figures; passing totals from 1932-46 are GROSS figures. In 1963, Elias Sports Bureau and the NFL changed "yards lost attempting to pass" to "team sacks." In 1982, Elias officially began keeping individual sacks.

Non-league games are indicated by an asterisk (*). Beginning with 1921, the Packers' first season in the National Football League, non-league game results are not reflected in won-lost record, nor in seasonal totals of points for, points against and attendance. From 1920-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage. Overtime games are indicated by the "+" symbol. The Packers' league-high 13 NFL championship seasons are highlighted in gold.

VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy, given annually to the Super Bowl champion, was renamed in honor of the former Packers coach shortly after his death in 1970, before Super Bowl V.

The gesture, made by commissioner Pete Rozelle, was arguably the greatest tribute in NFL history.

Each trophy, molded and customized every year, is sterling silver and takes 72 man-hours for Tiffany & Company to handcraft in Parsippany, N.J. Three concave sides form a pyramid, which supports a life-size, regulation football. The icon is 22 inches tall, weighs 7 pounds and is valued at more than $10,000. Former Tiffany V.P. of design Oscar Riedener first sketched the trophy on a napkin in 1966.

FOR THE RECORD

Founded as a town team in 1919, with Woodrow Wilson in the White House, the Green Bay Packers own a 679-525-36 regular-season record in their 91 NFL seasons (1921-2011) – a .564 winning percentage. They played independently from 1919-1920.

The Packers are 290-152-13 (.655) in Green Bay and were 105-61-3 (.631) in Milwaukee for an overall home mark of 395-213-16 (.649). The team played league games in Milwaukee annually from 1933-94.

On the road, Green Bay stands 284-312-20 (.477), a mark that includes two neutral-site contests.

Over their 93 years of existence, the Packers have played 1,668 games. The total includes the regular-season record and the league's best playoff mark, 29-17 (.630). The overall breakdown:

THIRTEEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships – 13 – than any other team in National Football League history.

- They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931), and 10 since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1996 and 2010).
- Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-30-31 and 1965-66-67).
- In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (over Kansas City in 1966, 35-10, and over Oakland in 1967, 33-14), as well as Super Bowls in 1996 over New England (35-21) and in 2010 over Pittsburgh (31-25).
- Since the league implemented a playoff system in 1933, the Packers have played in the NFL's deciding game 13 times (10 NFL title appearances from 1936-67, three Super Bowls after the 1970 merger). Only the Giants (19) have played for more titles.

SUPER BOWL I

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Sunday, Jan. 15, 1967; Attendance: 61,946; Time: 2:37; Weather: 72° F; sunny, hazy*

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's AFL champions, 35-10, behind Bart Starr, Max McGee and a key interception by All-Pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns. Wood set up the first, returning an interception 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5, with the Packers up only 14-10. Len Dawson's pass was intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, replacing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers' first series), after having caught only four passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores, one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter, the other on a 1-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' lone touchdown came on a 7-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr, the game's first MVP, completed 16-of-23 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. The aging McGee caught both scores, 37 yards in the first quarter and a 13-yard catch in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece – the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports at the time. The game was not a sellout; more than 30,000 seats remained empty.

SUPER BOWL II

GREEN BAY 33, OAKLAND 14

Miami Orange Bowl, Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34; Weather: 68° F; PC, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph

Acquiring a third straight NFL championship two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning a second consecutive Super Bowl. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again earned the game's most valuable player as he completed 13-of-24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and All-Pro cornerback Herb Adderley returned a Daryle Lamonica interception 60 yards for a touchdown.

Leading 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers got three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler before half. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game ended Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as Packers coach. He won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record unprecedented in pro football history.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, La., Sunday, Jan. 26, 1997; Attendance: 72,301; Time: 3:21; Weather: (indoors)

Using several momentum-turning big plays, the Packers held off resilient New England to capture their first world championship in 29 years. For Green Bay, the victory also marked its league-high 12th NFL championship as well as its third Super Bowl triumph.

The Packers jumped to an early 10-0 lead. Brett Favre, sensing a Patriots blitz, audibled on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, hitting late-season pickup Andre Rison on a wide-open post pattern for a 54-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing New England possession, Doug Evans intercepted Drew Bledsoe at the Patriots' 28, which led to a 37-yard field goal by Chris Jacke.

New England then was able to turn the tide in its favor, however, as Bledsoe took his club on two long drives for touchdowns. The first, which covered 79 yards and culminated in a short pass to Keith Byars, was aided by two long throws to Pats running backs and a 26-yard pass interference penalty. The second, starting at the New England 43, was spurred by a leaping, 44-yard reception by rookie Terry Glenn. When Ben Coates caught a 4-yard TD pass from Bledsoe, the Patriots momentarily had their only lead of the game and had completed the highest-scoring first quarter in Super Bowl history.

Green Bay rebounded to retake the lead when Favre, seeing Patriots' strong safety Lawyer Milloy at the line of scrimmage in tight coverage on Antonio Freeman, watched Freeman elude Milloy's "bump" and lofted a perfect aerial to Freeman along the right sideline. Freeman, able to outrun New England's late-arriving free safety, covered 81 yards for the longest reception in Super Bowl history at that time. After another Jacke field goal, Favre took advantage of a Mike Prior interception and escorted his troops on a nine-play, 74-yard march just before halftime which ended when, on a bootleg left, he lunged the ball over the goal line as he was rolling out of bounds.

Taking a 27-14 edge out of the locker room at halftime, Green Bay maintained that lead until late in the third quarter, when the Patriots' Curtis Martin made a magnificent 18-yard run up the middle of the Packers' defense to pull New England to within six points at 27-21.

That margin was short-lived, though, as Desmond Howard returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a back-breaking touchdown (the longest kick return in Super Bowl history), bursting through the center of the Packers' well-blocked wedge, then juking kicker Adam Vinatieri to bolt free. Howard, who had 244 total return yards in the game including key punt runbacks of 32 and 34 yards, was voted the game's most valuable player, becoming the first special teams player to be so honored. A subsequent, successful two-point conversion, where Favre found Mark Chmura along the back of the end zone, gave the Green and Gold an insurmountable two-touchdown lead.

The top-ranked Green Bay defense, which had four interceptions of Bledsoe, was led by Reggie White, who sacked the New England quarterback a Super Bowl-record three times, including twice in a row on the possession immediately following Howard's scoring return.

Favre, playing less than an hour from his hometown of Kiln, Miss., completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, while his counterpart, Bledsoe, threw for 253 yards and two scores on 25-of-48 passing.

"This trophy … this is it. It was named after Vince Lombardi. You play in Green Bay. As important as it is to any other team and any other player, it means more to us.

"Back in July, we set our goals. And I'm so proud of you. You made every single goal. You earned it, you worked for it.

"And before we came out for the second half, what did you do? You locked arms. Do it right now, men. Do it right now.

"To the coaches, players, organization, trainers, equipment people, everybody, this trophy is for you, men. Everybody. Everyone had a say in it, everyone got it done. I'm proud of you."

SUPER BOWL XXXII

DENVER 31, GREEN BAY 24

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1998; Attendance: 68,912; Time: 3:25; Weather: 67° F sunny*

Behind a dominating rushing performance by San Diego native Terrell Davis, four-time Super Bowl loser Denver garnered its first-ever victory in the NFL's title game to dethrone the reigning champion Packers in what some called "the best Super Bowl ever." In the process, the Broncos also ended a 13-game Super Bowl winning streak by the National Football Conference representative and sent Green Bay to its initial Super Bowl defeat after three triumphs.

Davis, named as the game's most valuable player, averaged 5.2 yards per carry as he rushed for 157 yards and three touchdowns, including the final, decisive score with less than two minutes remaining.

After the opening possession – a 76-yard scoring sequence by Green Bay – it appeared (falsely) that the game might turn into just another rout by the NFC against an overmatched AFC opponent. The Packers easily traversed the field, capping the drive with an arching, 22-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman at the back of the end zone, Freeman tap-dancing to get his feet down, and Green Bay had a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

But the Broncos stormed back, scoring the first three times that they had the ball to commandeer a 17-7 advantage. After Davis went over from a yard out for Denver's initial points, the Broncos forced a pair of turnovers in Green Bay territory. First, Favre was intercepted when he prematurely unloaded a pass for Robert Brooks while under a heavy blitz, a miscue which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by Broncos quarterback John Elway on a bootleg to the right. Then, after Favre fumbled when hit by Denver safety Steve Atwater on another blitz, the Broncos tacked on a long field goal by Jason Elam.

Green Bay mounted an impressive, 95-yard touchdown drive to consume the latter half of the second quarter and pull to within 17-14. Favre lofted a perfect aerial to tight end Mark Chmura in the back right corner of the end zone just 12 seconds before halftime, a pass which narrowly skirted the fingertips of a leaping defender.

Davis, who had missed the entire second quarter after experiencing migraine-headache symptoms, fumbled on the first play from scrimmage of the second half, an error which turned into a game-tying Ryan Longwell field goal only minutes later.

The Broncos went ahead again late in the third period, when Davis scored his second touchdown of the game to culminate a 92-yard, seven-plus minute drive. And when, on the ensuing kickoff, Freeman fumbled at his own 22, things looked dire for Green Bay as it stared at a potential two-touchdown deficit heading into the final quarter. But when the Broncos went for the jugular on their first play, free safety Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway in the end zone.

Favre completed three passes to Freeman on the ensuing Green Bay possession, including a 13-yard crossing route for the receiver's second touchdown, which knotted the score at 24 with 13½ minutes remaining. Freeman made nine receptions (for 126 yards) on the day to equal the club's all-time playoff record.

After the Packers failed to take advantage of one fourth-quarter drive which neared midfield, Denver ran the ball down their throat for the game's winning touchdown, a drive which covered 49 yards in only five plays – four on the ground. Davis strolled into the end zone untouched up the middle for a 31-24 lead with just 105 ticks of the clock left.

Still facing the relentless blitzing which had characterized the play of the Denver defense throughout the game, from his own 30-yard line Favre moved the Packers 39 yards down the field on four straight passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 31 with 42 seconds remaining.

But when his next three throws fell incomplete, including a fourth-down pass intended for Chmura which was knocked down by linebacker John Mobley, the game was Denver's, giving Elway a long-awaited Super Bowl victory after he personally had endured three losses. In the process, the Broncos became just the second wild-card team to capture a Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XLV

GREEN BAY 31, PITTSBURGH 25

Cowboys Stadium, Arlington, Texas, Sunday, Feb. 6, 2011;* Attendance: 91,060; Time: 3:32; Weather: (indoors)

On the strength of a masterful passing display by quarterback Aaron Rodgers and a series of timely turnovers courtesy of an opportunistic defense, the resilient Packers laid claim to the franchise's fourth Super Bowl title in front of 91,060 fans at majestic Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl since the league adopted a 12-team format in 1990, and capped off their string of six consecutive elimination games by again overcoming the loss of key players to injuries, just as they had throughout the 2010 season.

Offensively, the Packers opened the game in a four-wide receiver set intent on spreading out Pittsburgh's attacking 3-4 defense and keeping their vaunted front seven off balance. After the teams traded punts early on, Rodgers led the Packers on an 80-yard scoring drive on the unit's second possession. The quarterback completed 5-of-6 attempts for 63 yards on the series, perfectly placing a 29-yard touchdown in the hands of receiver Jordy Nelson along the right sideline for the game's opening score.

And it wouldn't be long before the Packers built on their early lead.

On the first play of the Steelers' ensuing possession, defensive lineman Howard Green bull-rushed his way into the Pittsburgh pocket, batting the arm of quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, whose deep pass down the left sideline fell well short and into the arms of converging Packers safety Nick Collins at the Pittsburgh 37. After securing the interception, Collins weaved his way through would-be tacklers and went airborne at the 3, diving into the end zone to give Green Bay a commanding 14-0 lead with 3:20 remaining in the opening quarter.

After surrendering a 33-yard field goal that made the score 14-3, the Packers defense was the beneficiary of a Roethlisberger mistake on Pittsburgh's next possession when cornerback Jarrett Bush jumped in front of a crossing route intended for receiver Mike Wallace and came down with the interception at the Green Bay 47.

Despite receiving news that veteran stalwart receiver Donald Driver would not return to the game due to an ankle injury, Rodgers and the offense wasted little time taking advantage of the extra possession and the field position that accompanied it. They needed only four plays to cross the goal line, doing so when Rodgers made another of his pinpoint throws, a 21-yard dart to wide receiver Greg Jennings over the deep middle. The quarterback's pass eluded safety Ryan Clark, who had closed tightly on the route and made the score 21-3.

While the Driver injury was an unquestioned blow to the offense, the defense also suffered a seemingly devastating loss when cornerback Charles Woodson, a playoff captain and the team's leader throughout the postseason, sustained a broken collarbone on the second play of Pittsburgh's final drive of the first half.

Pittsburgh scored its first touchdown of the game five plays after the Woodson injury when Roethlisberger found Hines Ward in the back corner of the end zone from 8 yards out.

The Packers entered the locker room ahead 21-10, but were forced to regroup in the face of the injuries. Having gone through the painful process of placing 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, overcoming injuries was a familiar practice for these Packers.

That said, the Steelers built off of the momentum they carried into halftime and came out with a vengeance in the second half. Their first drive ended with an 8-yard touchdown run by Rashard Mendenhall that tightened the score to 21-17.

The Packers, meanwhile, sputtered offensively in the third quarter as Rodgers fell victim to drops and other miscues that inhibited his usual rhythm in the passing game.

With the Steelers driving deeper into Packers territory for the go-ahead score at the start of the fourth quarter, linebacker Clay Matthews made the kind of game-changing play that has defined his young career in Green Bay. On a second-down run to his side, he shot inside of a block by a tight end, and, in concert with defensive end Ryan Pickett, met Mendenhall in the backfield, jarring the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Desmond Bishop, and momentum was shifted almost entirely back in the Packers' favor.

Eight plays later, Rodgers found Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown that again made it a two-score game, at 28-17.

Refusing to go quietly, Roethlisberger and the veteran Steelers responded immediately, putting together a seven-play drive of their own that culminated with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Wallace and a successful two-point conversion on an option pitch to wide receiver Antwaan Randle El.

Leading by a narrow 28-25 margin, Rodgers and the offense took over with 7:29 remaining, looking to wind the clock down and put the game out of reach. On third-and-10 from their own 25, Rodgers made one of the most memorable throws in the history of the Super Bowl. The Steelers rushed only three, but even having eight players in coverage wasn't enough to keep Rodgers from connecting with Jennings down the seam for 31 yards, just beyond the fingertips of cornerback Ike Taylor, who had excellent coverage on the play.

The drive resulted in a 23-yard Mason Crosby field goal that extended the lead to 31-25, but also gave Pittsburgh and the dangerous Roethlisberger a chance to drive for the winning score with just under two minutes remaining.

The Packers' defense stood up to the challenge, though, and Roethlisberger's fourth-down pass to Wallace was broken up by cornerback Tramon Williams.

After two kneel-downs by Rodgers, confetti showered the field and the Packers were champions of pro football for a record 13th time. League commissioner Roger Goodell and guest presenter Roger Staubach handed the Vince Lombardi Trophy to Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson and Head Coach Mike McCarthy on a celebratory platform at midfield.

Rodgers was awarded game most valuable player honors after completing 24-of-39 attempts for 304 yards and three touchdowns. He became just the fourth quarterback ever to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl.

INTERCEPTION RETURNS A WINNING FORMULA IN THE SUPER BOWL

After Packers safety Nick Collins intercepted Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger at Pittsburgh's 37-yard line in front of the Steelers' bench late in the first quarter of Super Bowl XLV, he embarked on a return that would significantly turn the tide of momentum in Green Bay's favor. Collins weaved his way through a host of Steelers on his way to the end zone, going aerial at the 3-yard line and across the goal line to put the Packers ahead by a commanding 14-0 margin early in the game.

Green Bay went on to defeat Pittsbugh, 31-25, for what was the fourth Super Bowl title in the illustrious history of the franchise. Collins became the second Packer and 12th overall player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in the Super Bowl, and, not surprisingly, teams who are the beneficiary of such critical plays are a perfect 11-0 in the big game.

Interestingly, in what is a testament to the evolution of the passing game, there were only four interception touchdowns in the first 20 Super Bowls, and after a 15-year drought, there have been nine in the last 11 world championship contests. A closer look at the 13 interception returns for touchdowns and the results of those games:

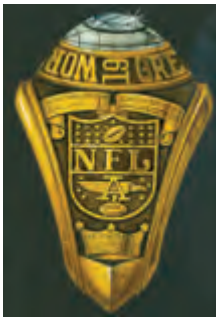
GREEN BAY PACKERS SUPER BOWL RINGS

First played January 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Super Bowl was initiated to match the champions of the then-rival American Football League and National Football League. With a dominating defeat of their counterpart, the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, by a score of 35-10 in Super Bowl I, the Packers laid the foundation for what would become a tradition of Super Bowl success. Just a year later in Super Bowl II, the Packers emerged with an equally impressive 33-14 conquest of the AFL's Oakland Raiders. Twenty-nine years later, Green Bay made its long-awaited return, appearing in Super Bowl XXXI and beating the New England Patriots 35-21, making the franchise a perfect three-for-three in the renowned title game. Similar to their first tour in the late 1960's, the Packers returned to the championship game the following year, but suffered defeat at the hands of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXII.

Ending a hiatus that lasted 13 years, the 2010 Packers fought their way to North Texas for a Super Bowl XLV showdown with the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers prevailed 31-25 in that contest, returning the famed Vince Lombardi Trophy to its rightful home in Green Bay.

In commemoration of those triumphs, each time the Packers went through the process of developing and purchasing a unique, customized ring honoring those within the organization who had contributed to the team's ultimate success.



SUPER BOWL I CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Vince Lombardi, the team's head coach; Bob Skoronski, the team's starting left tackle and at the time a part-time Jostens sales representative during the off-season; and Ken Westland, a representative of the Jostens Corporation.

Features: On one side is the NFL logo and shield; above the shield is a ribbon with the scores from the Packers' NFL Championship and Super Bowl victories, the first one reading, "Green Bay 34, Dallas 27" in the upper left and the second one, "Green Bay 35, Kansas City 10" in the upper right; below the shield is a crown with the three-word inscription, "Harmony, Courage, Valor"; on the other side is a ribbon for the person's name, a Green Bay Packers helmet and a football. The top of the ring has "WORLD CHAMPIONS" spanning the upper and "GREEN BAY PACKERS" spanning the lower with the words broken up by a "19" on the left and "66" on the right. Within the white gold insert in the center on the top is a 1.00 point full-cut brilliant diamond. As an interesting anecdote, it is said that the specific nature of the diamond being exactly 1.00 pt. stems from the extremely precise, detail-oriented head coach, Vince Lombardi. Full-cut brilliant diamonds can range in size from .93-1.07 points, but according to those involved with the design, Lombardi demanded that the diamonds all be exactly 1.00 pt. The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL II CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Lombardi, Skoronski and Westland.

Features: On one side of the ring is a shield that holds within it a Green Bay Packers helmet and two crowns, one honoring the 1966 championship and then another for the 1967 championship. Above the shield are banners commemorating all of the titles that had been won under then-head coach Lombardi: 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Above those banners is a ribbon similar to the one from the previous year, featuring the scores of the Packers' two victorious championship games that closed out the season. The first is, "Green Bay 21, Dallas 17," in remembrance of the historic NFL Championship known forever as "The Ice Bowl" and the second reading, "Green Bay 33, Oakland 14" from Super Bowl II. Below the shield reads the word, "Challenge." The other side of the ring features a ribbon with the person's name, and a large crown that has "NFL" inscribed on one side and "AFL" on the other with the crown sitting on top of the globe to signify the world championships. Below the globe is the inscription, "Run To Win." The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

SUPER BOWL XXXI CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Bob Harlan, the Packers' President and CEO, General Manager Ron Wolf, and Head Coach Mike Holmgren teamed with the organization's seven-member executive committee and worked in concert with Jostens representatives Gary Rotherham, John Scarpellini, and Charlie Anderson, a championship ring artist, to develop the idea.

Features: The center-top of the ring boasts a raised "G" on a background of diamonds with the words "World Champions" surrounding the logo. One shank (side) features the word "Packers" over the year "1996" above the word "Tradition," while the other shank includes the recipient's name, the Packers' logo on a helmet, the team's 1996-97 record (16-3) and the recipient's number or position with the team. The ring contains 115 diamonds totaling 235 points, or 2.35 karats. In a true testament to the expansion of not only the league's roster limits, but also the front office and board of directors, the team produced 165 of the actual championship rings.

In addition to the rings themselves, Jostens designed several different sketches for the Packers, including a women's ring for female staff and coaches' and players' wives. Each married player and coach received a women's ring for his spouse and any single players or coaches received a yellow "G" pendant with 87.5 points of diamonds in it.

SUPER BOWL XLV CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: An organization-led committee featuring Packers' President and CEO Mark Murphy, Executive Vice President and General Manager Ted Thompson, and Head Coach Mike McCarthy, along with Vice President of Football Administration Russ Ball and Vice President of Sales and Marketing Tim Connolly. The committee sought input from veteran players and then initiated the process once again with Jostens, producers of all four Packers' Super Bowl rings.

Features: As part of a recurring motif evident in several facets of the modern-day Packers franchise, the Super Bowl XLV championship ring matches first-rate quality with a thoughtful tribute to the organization's rich history and tradition. Presented to players, coaches and members of the organization at a ceremony inside the Lambeau Field Atrium in June 2011, the diamond-studded platinum ring celebrates both the memorable journey and victory in the franchise's fifth Super Bowl appearance, and also some of the historical elements that make the Packers one of the NFL's oldest and most storied teams.

Similar to the XXXI ring, the crest features a raised "G" logo, this time cast in 18-karat yellow gold and set atop a green stone tablet. The theme of paying homage to history is seen front and center as the "G" features 13 diamonds commemorating the team's record 13 world championships. Additionally, the crest is cornered on each end by four marquis-cut diamonds in the shape of footballs, representative of the four Super Bowl wins. Comprising the remaining face of the crest are 92 diamonds, recognizing the 92-year history of the organization.

On one shoulder, the player's last name is emblazoned above a replica engraving of Lambeau Field, beneath which is their jersey number with a circle around it. The encircled number is a tribute to the front of the uniform worn by the 1929 team, winners of the first world championship in franchise history.

The opposite shoulder is topped by the spelled out "PACKERS" logo above the Vince Lombardi Trophy, named, of course, in honor of the organization's legendary head coach. The coach's name is featured much like it is on the actual trophy, above the NFL shield, along with the letters "XLV."

The inside of the band features two separate inscriptions that make the piece particularly unique.

The first is a listing of scores from the four playoff wins with accompanying logos of the defeated opponents. The first three wins came on the road, as the Packers became just the third team in league history to accomplish the feat and just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl.

The other inscription commemorates the speech given to the team by veteran cornerback Charles Woodson in the locker room following the NFC Championship victory over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. In the speech, Woodson, with one finger raised, encouraged his teammates to wholly unify for the coming two weeks that would lead them into Super Bowl XLV. His speech, and the major themes referenced within it, have been immortalized inside the ring with a large number "1" and the words, "Mind, Goal, Purpose and Heart" listed vertically next to the number.

The rings were weighed at a reported 116 grams and feature diamonds totaling 3.35 carats.

WOODSON GIVES "ONE" SPEECH FOR ALL TIME

The 2010 Packers became just the third team in NFL history to win three consecutive road playoff games, earning entry into Super Bowl XLV. A team that placed 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, they continued to defy the odds throughout the playoffs, en route to becoming just the second No. 6 seed to ever win the Super Bowl.

Late in the season and during the playoffs, cornerback Charles Woodson became the team's emotional leader by virtue of his customary excellent performance on the field and his steady guidance off of it. Following the Packers' 21-14 triumph over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship game at Soldier Field, Woodson took to a celebratory platform in the locker room after the team's postgame prayer.

A 13-year veteran who had suffered defeat in Super Bowl XXXVII as a member of the Oakland Raiders, Woodson seized the opportunity to set the agenda for the two weeks that would precede Green Bay's matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in North Texas.

Additionally, Woodson learned before the game that President Barack Obama had said publicly that he would attend the Super Bowl if the Bears were to advance. Knowing that the Super Bowl victor typically travels to the White House following the season, he was able to integrate that theme as well.

What followed is a speech that will forever exist in team lore and was eventually inscripted on the inner band of the team's Super Bowl championship rings:

"I want y'all to think about one thing ... one ... For two weeks, think about one. Let's be one mind, let's be one heartbeat, for one purpose, one goal, for one more game ... one. Let's get it ... And check this, if the President doesn't want to come watch us in the Super Bowl ... Guess what? We'll go see him! Let's get a 'White House' on three ... One-Two-Three [collectively] 'WHITE HOUSE!'"

PACKERS 21, BOSTON REDSKINS 6

1936 NFL Championship

Dec. 13 at Polo Grounds, New York

Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played at the Polo Grounds because George Preston Marshall, upset with Boston support, was shifting his Redskins franchise to Washington, D.C. In front of 29,545, Don Hutson caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers never trailed. Green Bay's two second-half scores were set up, respectively, by a 52-yard pass from Herber to Johnny "Blood" McNally and when Lon Evans blocked a punt.

1938 NFL Championship

Dec. 11 at Polo Grounds, New York

The Packers overcame an early 9-0 deficit, spawned by two blocked punts deep in their territory, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. Early in the second quarter, Green Bay began to close in when Arnie Herber capitalized on a Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen interception by lofting a 40-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants' margin to 9-7.

But the Giants converted a midfield fumble by Packers fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead. Green Bay trimmed the margin to two points before the half, when Clarke Hinkle crashed over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker.

During the opening minutes of the second half, the Packers took their only lead, when an Engebretsen field goal presented them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 23-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A (then) playoff-record 48,120 sat in on the proceedings.

1939 NFL Championship

Dec. 10 at State Fair Park, Milwaukee

The Packers gained long-awaited national respect with the first shutout in an NFL title game, 27-0. Despite bitter 35-mph winds, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in securing the team's fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, as the Giants missed on three field goal attempts. The Packers pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul (Tiny) Engebretsen, and a 31-yard TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws, set up by Laws' 30-yard punt return. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski. Green Bay intercepted the Giants six times and held them to only 164 total yards.

CHICAGO BEARS 33, PACKERS 14

1941 Western Division Playoff

Dec. 14 at Wrigley Field, Chicago

In a playoff contest necessitated when the two teams finished the year 10-1, each having given the other its lone loss, the Packers fell victim to Chicago's offensive trio of George McAfee, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau in the 16-degree cold at Wrigley Field.

After the Bears fumbled the opening kickoff, Green Bay grabbed an early 7-0 lead, on Clarke Hinkle's 1-yard plunge. But Gallarneau's touchdown on an 81-yard punt return narrowed the gap to 7-6, before Chicago exploded for 24 second-quarter points to essentially settle the issue. The Bears rushed for 277 yards, including McAfee's team-record 119. Standlee ran for 79 and added two touchdowns.

The Bears also held Green Bay's prolific end, Don Hutson, to only one catch for 19 yards.

1944 NFL Championship

Dec. 17 at Polo Grounds, New York

With peerless pass-catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged as the offensive hero in the Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, a 1-yard run on fourth-and-goal, and a 28-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the second. Meanwhile, Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a 1-yard plunge on the initial play of the fourth quarter, a drive which saw New York advance past its own 35-yard line for the first time in the game. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, set a (then) playoff record with three interceptions, and rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries.

1960 NFL Championship

Dec. 26 at Franklin Field, Philadelphia

The Packers couldn't hold a 13-10 fourth-quarter lead, yielding a late surge to the Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay had stopped Philadelphia at its own 4 late in the third quarter, then recaptured the lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. But on the ensuing kickoff, Dean's 58-yard return ignited the Eagles, and led to his game-winning touchdown with 5:21 remaining. Green Bay made a last-ditch effort, driving to the Eagles' 22, but on its final play, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik stopped Jim Taylor at the 8 as time expired.

The contest marked the Packers' first title game appearance in 16 years. It would also mark Vince Lombardi's only playoff loss.

1961 NFL Championship

*Dec. 31 at City Stadium, Green Bay

Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, tied a (then) playoff record with 19 points, keying the Packers' rout of the Giants in the first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A (then) team-record 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, proved a devastating complement, intercepting four passes and recovering one fumble, while limiting New York to six first downs and 130 total yards.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and Hank Gremminger, set up the team's second and third touchdowns, while the fumble recovery (by Forrest Gregg) led to Hornung's second field goal. Hornung's final FG came after Jesse Whittenton's interception.

1962 NFL Championship

Dec. 30 at Yankee Stadium, New York

In a raw, cyclonic setting (13-degree temperatures and 40-mile-per-hour winds), the Packers led the entire game, a primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke, the game's eventual MVP, proved the principal frustration to New York, seeking redemption for a shutout humiliation in the '61 title game. Early in the contest, Nitschke deflected a Giants pass, triggering an interception that blunted the drive at the Green Bay 10. The linebacker also recovered two fumbles, one that led to the Packers' only touchdown, and another that set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided the eventual margin.

The Giants' only TD came after blocking a Max McGee punt in the Green Bay end zone, midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor, engaged in a fierce battle with New York's Sam Huff, set a franchise playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

PACKERS 13, BALTIMORE 10 (OT)

1965 Western Conference Championship

Dec. 26 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Don Chandler's game-winning field goal, at 13:39 of sudden death, ended the Packers' first-ever overtime game, and their only such playoff contest until 2003. His 25-yard kick sent Green Bay to the NFL championship, after both the Colts and Packers ended the regular season 10-3-1.

Chandler's first field goal, a game-tying 22-yarder with 1:58 left in regulation, remains controversial. Baltimore loyalists, led by coach Don Shula, claimed it sailed wide right. The kick, which flew high above the upright, actually triggered the league to extend the goal posts' height for the following season.

The Colts, playing without starting quarterback Johnny Unitas (knee) and his backup Gary Cuozzo (dislocated shoulder), used halfback Tom Matte as a fill-in. Matte completed only five passes, but did gain 57 yards rushing.

Baltimore held a 10-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 seconds into the game when linebacker Don Shinnick returned a Bill Anderson fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Bart Starr, in pursuit, injured his ribs on the play, Green Bay's first from scrimmage.

Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr for the balance of the afternoon, completing 22-of-39 passes for 248 yards. The Packers moved to within 10-7 in the third quarter when Paul Hornung scored on a 1-yard run, setting the stage for Chandler's heroics.

After four inches of snow softened the Lambeau surface, the Packers used their running game to rally past Cleveland, and a crowd of 50,777 celebrated the team's third championship in five years.

Paul Hornung (18-105) and Jim Taylor (27-96) amassed 201 yards rushing, helping the Packers overcome an early 9-7 deficit.

Packers defenders, meanwhile, allowed only 50 yards to Cleveland's Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher with 1,544 yards during the year.

In the third quarter, Bart Starr finally settled the see-saw battle, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play drive, ending when Hornung scored on a 13-yard sweep around the Browns' right perimeter. Kickers Don Chandler and Lou Groza booted five total field goals.

1966 NFL Championship

Jan. 1, 1967, at Cotton Bowl, Dallas

Bart Starr, in one of his finest hours, threw four touchdowns, and Tom Brown thwarted a last-minute Cowboys bid, leading Green Bay to its second straight title and fourth in six years.

With 28 seconds left, Brown stunned most of the 74,152 fans when he intercepted Don Meredith's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

The Packers mounted a quick 14-0 lead, after Starr hit Elijah Pitts on a 21-yard touchdown, and rookie Jim Grabowski returned a fumble 18 yards for a score. But an explosive Dallas comeback cut the margin to 21-17 by halftime, and 21-20 after Danny Villanueva's third-quarter field goal. Starr then hit Boyd Dowler and Max McGee with 16- and 28-yard scoring passes, respectively, to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

Travis Williams scored two touchdowns, and the Packers weathered three early turnovers, downing the Rams in the first regularly scheduled conference playoff in NFL history.

After L.A. got on the board first with Roman Gabriel's 29-yard scoring pass to Bernie Casey, the Packers responded with 28 unanswered points, in one of Milwaukee County Stadium's more memorable games.

Williams rushed for 88 yards on 18 carries, while Bart Starr threw for 222 yards with one touchdown and set a (then) team record by completing 73.9 percent of his passes (17-of-23). End Carroll Dale caught Starr's scoring toss, one of six catches for 109 yards. The Packers also sacked Gabriel five times, including 3½ by Henry Jordan.

Green Bay's victory kicked off a trio of postseason wins that included the legendary Ice Bowl NFL championship eight days later, and a second straight Super Bowl victory.

Curt Knight kicked three field goals to provide the Redskins' other points before a crowd of 53,140 fans.

John Brockington, the Packers' 1,000-yard rusher, had to settle for 9 yards on 13 carries as the Redskins used a five-man defensive line to shut down the running game. Washington's Larry Brown rushed for 101 yards on 25 carries.

The Packers halted a first-quarter Cardinals drive at the 1, then scored a (then) franchise-record 41 points to open the Super Bowl tournament, following the strike-shortened 1982 season.

Lynn Dickey culminated two long TD drives with passes to John Jefferson and James Lofton. The Packers then capitalized on a pair of St. Louis turnovers, converting each into Eddie Lee Ivery TDs.

Green Bay led 28-9 at half, and 41-9 in the fourth. Dickey (17-of-23, 260 yards, no interceptions) tied a team playoff record with four TD passes. Jefferson (six catches) set a (then) club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards, including a 60-yard TD reception. And, Jan Stenerud kicked a 46-yard field goal, then the longest in team playoff history.

1967 NFL Championship
Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Bart Starr's game-winning touchdown, a 1-yard dive behind Jerry Kramer and Ken Bowman with 13 seconds remaining, clinched a third straight Green Bay championship and ended the "Ice Bowl."

Starr's score, on third down with no timeouts left, climaxed a 68-yard, 12-play drive which began with 4:50 on the clock. In all, 50,861 watched the coldest game in league annals. Kickoff temperature was 13 below zero and the wind chill was minus-46.

Like the year before, the Packers grabbed an early 14-0 advantage. But this time the Cowboys came back, gaining a 17-14 edge on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Lance Rentzel caught a 50-yard touchdown from halfback Dan Reeves. The contest was later voted the greatest game in pro football history.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Starr's touchdown play, "31 Wedge," called for Chuck Mercein to get the ball. No one expected Starr to keep it.
- Officially, the field's $80,000 heating system failed due to cold. Unofficially, some say, Vince Lombardi turned it off.
- The play before Starr's TD, Donny Anderson actually broke the plane, but Lee Roy Jordan knocked the ball from his hands, and Anderson had to retrieve it on the other side.
- Officials could not use whistles to stop play. They froze.
- The team canceled marching-band performances after noticing blood on a few of the musician's faces.
- Packers fans several times during the contest leaned over the front row to unplug the Cowboys' heated benches.
- After the game, several fans passed out soon after warming up. Their thawed systems finally registered the alcohol they'd consumed to keep warm during the game.
- One fan, an elderly gentleman, died due to exposure.

1982 NFC Second-Round Playoff

Jan. 16, 1983, at Texas Stadium, Irving

Dallas' late 74-yard touchdown drive ended all Green Bay comeback hopes, in front of 63,972 fans.

The Packers pulled to within four, 30-26, when Mark Lee returned a fourth-quarter interception 22 yards for a touchdown. Green Bay in the second half rolled up 363 yards total offense and outscored Dallas, 19-17. But despite a (then) team-record 466 overall yards, Green Bay couldn't overcome a slow start and a 20-7 halftime deficit.

Lynn Dickey threw for a (then) team playoff-record 332 yards (19-of-36). Split end James Lofton emerged with 109 yards on five receptions and spiced the Packers' second-half comeback by taking a reverse 71 yards for a TD, matching the NFL's longest postseason run from scrimmage (since broken).

The Cowboys' Dennis Thurman intercepted three passes, returning one 39 yards for a touchdown and another to end the Packers' last-gasp possession in the fourth quarter.

1993 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 8, 1994, at Silverdome, Pontiac, Mich.

Brett Favre's 40-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Sharpe in the final minute gave Green Bay one of the most electrifying victories in its rich postseason history.

Favre's pass, a scrambling, across-the-body throw from extreme left to extreme right, found Sharpe wide open in the end zone with 55 seconds remaining. It capped a see-saw battle with the NFC Central Division champion Lions.

Earlier, rookie safety George Teague returned an Erik Kramer interception 101 yards for a touchdown, longest in NFL playoff annals, giving Green Bay a 21-17 lead. Sharpe (five catches, 101 yards) also made the record book, tying an NFL playoff mark with three touchdown receptions.

The Lions' Barry Sanders, returning from a knee injury, ignited the Silverdome crowd of 68,479 with 169 yards rushing.

Jan. 16, 1994, at Texas Stadium, Irving

The Cowboys' 17-point second-quarter surge overcame an early Packers lead and gave the eventual Super Bowl champions momentum they would not relinquish.

But the Packers held that momentum in the first quarter. They stopped Bill Bates short on a fourth-down fake punt, and capitalized on great field position to score the game's first points, a Chris Jacke field goal.

Brett Favre threw for 331 yards and Sterling Sharpe (six receptions, 128 yards) turned in a second straight 100-yard effort. Dallas' Troy Aikman completed 28-of-37 passes for 302 yards and three touchdowns, while Michael Irvin added nine receptions for 126 yards.

PACKERS 16, DETROIT 12

1994 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Spurred by a classic defensive performance, the Packers outlasted Detroit in Green Bay's first home playoff game since 1982. Coordinator Fritz Shurmur held the NFL's leading rusher, Barry Sanders, to a career-low minus-1 yard, on 13 attempts, and limited the Lions collectively on the ground to minus-4 yards (a record that still stands today) – erasing a 31-year-old league playoff record.

Brett Favre directed several long drives, including a 76-yard excursion on the game's opening series, capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Dorsey Levens. Green Bay, who controlled the ball for 37-plus minutes, played turnover-free throughout, entertaining the 58,125 fans. Chris Jacke added three field goals, including a Packers postseason-record 51-yarder.

The Lions pulled to within 13-10 in the fourth quarter, on Dave Krieg's 3-yard touchdown pass to Brett Perriman, and reached the Packers' 11-yard line on their final drive in the game's closing moments. But the Green Bay defense stiffened, recapturing the ball on downs, before Packers punter Craig Hentrich took an intentional safety to run out the day's final seven seconds.

1994 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 8, 1995, at Texas Stadium, Irving

The Packers couldn't overcome a 28-9 halftime deficit, and despite 327 yards of total offense, fell to Dallas' arsenal of offensive superstars in the NFC semifinals.

Trailing only 7-3 in the first quarter, the Packers pinned Dallas deep in its own territory. But Troy Aikman then connected with Alvin Harper on a then-NFL playoff-record 94-yard touchdown pass. Aikman threw for 337 yards, and three Dallas receivers – Michael Irvin (111), Harper (108) and Jay Novacek (104) – had 100-yard days. Dallas backup Blair Thomas rushed for 70 yards and two scores after replacing Emmitt Smith, who left in the first quarter after aggravating a hamstring injury.

Packers flanker Robert Brooks, moving into the spot usually occupied by an injured Sterling Sharpe, equaled his career best with eight receptions, for a game-high 138 yards.

PACKERS 37, ATLANTA 20

1995 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Utilizing a balanced offensive attack, including Edgar Bennett's (then) franchise playoff-record 108 rushing yards, Green Bay toppled the Falcons on a foggy, 30-degree afternoon. The Packers had earned their first NFC Central crown in 23 years.

Jeff George's 65-yard touchdown pass to Eric Metcalf gave Atlanta a 7-0 edge three minutes into the game and stunned the crowd of 60,453. But the Packers quickly regained control, scoring two first-quarter TDs.

Green Bay broke open the game midway through the second period, when rookie Antonio Freeman became the first Packers player to return a kick for a postseason touchdown, taking a punt back 76 yards. Then, with less than one minute left in the first half, Mark Chmura caught a 2-yard touchdown from Brett Favre, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive, extending the lead to 27-10.

Favre's third TD toss – a perfect, lofting spiral to Dorsey Levens with just under eight minutes left – cemented the issue. Favre completed passes to nine receivers, while Bennett averaged 4.5 yards on the ground, with one TD, on 24 attempts.

PACKERS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 17

1995 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 6, 1996, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Physically menacing the 49ers offense, Green Bay shocked the defending Super Bowl champions and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time.

The victory, especially sweet for San Francisco native Mike Holmgren, marked the coach's first game against the club that launched his pro coaching career.

After the Niners blocked a field goal to end Green Bay's opening drive, the Packers defense set the tone for the rest of the game. On San Francisco's first play, Wayne Simmons drilled fullback Adam Walker on a screen pass, forcing a fumble that rookie Craig Newsome returned 31 yards for the day's first points. The Packers then mounted 62- and 72-yard scoring drives on their next two possessions; Brett Favre's touchdown passes to Keith Jackson and Mark Chmura, respectively, gave Green Bay a 21-0 second-quarter advantage.

Favre, the NFL's MVP, completed 21-of-28 passes (75 percent), while Jackson, whose two long receptions over the middle set up Packers scores, caught four for 101 yards. Robert Brooks' four catches totaled 103 yards.

The Packers defense forced four turnovers and battered Steve Young all afternoon, with three sacks and countless knockdowns, forcing him to attempt an NFL playoff-record 65 passes in a futile comeback bid. Meanwhile, San Francisco's receiver nonpareil, Jerry Rice, made 11 receptions but had few yards after the catch.

Green Bay posted the only road victory by an NFC team in the divisional playoffs from 1990-99.

1995 NFC Championship

Jan. 14, 1996, at Texas Stadium, Irving

Green Bay, one win from its first Super Bowl in 28 years, held a fourth-quarter lead before succumbing to the offensive firepower of the eventual league champions.

Emmitt Smith (35-150), behind his massive offensive line, rushed for three touchdowns, ending the Packers' season at Texas Stadium for the third straight year.

After the Packers converted a blocked punt into a field goal, Troy Aikman threw two TD passes to Michael Irvin. Brett Favre answered with two scores of his own – at the time a team postseason-record 73-yard pass to Robert Brooks and a Keith Jackson connection – to vault Green Bay into the lead, 17-14. Dallas added 10 points before halftime, though, to go up 24-17.

Green Bay got the second half's first 10 points, including Favre's 1-yard touchdown pass to Brooks, and held a 27-24 lead at the end of three quarters.

But Smith's talents glistened in the fourth quarter. His two rushing TDs – sandwiched around Larry Brown's drive-killing interception in Dallas territory – gave the Cowboys their third Super Bowl appearance in four years.

1996 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 4, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Jump-started by their special teams, specifically two punt returns by Desmond Howard, the Packers took the first step toward an eventual berth in Super Bowl XXXI by eliminating the 49ers for a second straight year. With rain since early morning on a cold and dreary day, the field offered less-than-ideal footing, and deteriorated into a quagmire by game's end. Despite the weather, 60,787 spectators (three no-shows) still showed up.

After the 49ers went three-and-out on their first drive, Howard weaved his way through several defenders for a 71-yard touchdown just 2:15 into the game. Then, midway through the first quarter, Howard broke free on a second punt return, traveling 46 yards before San Francisco tripped him up at its own 7. Moments later, Brett Favre hit Andre Rison on a 4-yard touchdown pass to give Green Bay a 14-0 advantage.

After an Edgar Bennett TD, the 49ers converted two Green Bay special-teams miscues into 14 points, bringing the game back within reach. First, a San Francisco punt bounced off Chris Hayes' leg and the 49ers recovered at the Green Bay 26, setting up a Terry Kirby touchdown catch. Then, when the Packers failed to field a short kickoff to open the second half, San Francisco recovered at the Green Bay 4, and, on the next play, Elvis Grbac's naked bootleg trimmed the Packers' lead to 21-14.

To their credit, the Packers stormed back on their next possession, going 72 yards in 12 plays, a drive capped when Antonio Freeman recovered Bennett's fumble in the end zone.

Neither team gained many yards in the sloppy conditions. Green Bay racked up only 210 yards, including a club postseason-low 71 passing. Bennett was the Packers' workhorse, running for 80 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries. Steve Young's broken ribs, suffered one week earlier, forced him out after two series and San Francisco managed just 196 total yards.

PACKERS 30, CAROLINA 13

1996 NFC Championship
Jan. 12, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers overcame two early deficits to defeat upstart Carolina and earn a berth to their first Super Bowl in 29 years, largely on the strength of Dorsey Levens' 205 yards of offense. It was the first title game in Green Bay since the legendary 1967 "Ice Bowl."

Not quite 10 minutes into the game, linebacker Sam Mills intercepted Brett Favre deep in Green Bay territory, setting up Kerry Collins' 3-yard TD toss to Howard Griffith.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Levens evened the score, out-jumping Carolina's Eric Davis at the right edge of the end zone on a 29-yard touchdown reception. The previous play, Levens had rushed for 35 yards on third-and-1.

Carolina converted a Favre fumble, near midfield, into a field goal, but the Packers stormed back with 10 points in the final minute of the first half. Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a touchdown on a 6-yard fade with 48 seconds remaining, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive. When the Panthers then attempted to move downfield, rookie Tyrone Williams made a diving interception at the Packers' 38, which Chris Jacke turned into a 31-yard field goal 10 seconds before halftime.

Late in the third quarter, Edgar Bennett strolled untouched through the middle on a 4-yard touchdown, giving Green Bay a 27-13 lead. Levens set up the score on the previous play, going 66 yards down the right sideline on a perfectly executed screen.

Green Bay put up 479 net yards, a then-team playoff record. It churned out 201 rushing yards (99 on Bennett's 25 carries, 88 on only 10 attempts by Levens). Levens also made five receptions for 117 yards, and Favre completed 19-of-29 for 292 yards.

While the weather certainly was cold – 3 degrees with a minus-17 wind chill – the storyline before the game was the field, ravaged against San Francisco the previous week, when rainy conditions turned it into a mud pit. The Packers installed an all-new surface days prior to the game, with sod trucked in from Maryland on more than two dozen semis.

The George S. Halas Trophy, symbolic of the National Football Conference Championship, was presented to President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren in an on-field ceremony following the game.

PACKERS 21, TAMPA BAY 7

1997 NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 4, 1998, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In a hard-fought, defensive struggle – much like their two earlier meetings during the regular season – the Packers' offensive superiority overwhelmed the Bucs on a gray day. Dorsey Levens' (then) team playoff-record 112 rushing yards helped Green Bay maintain control.

The Packers foiled three first-half field-goal opportunities. On the first, Bob Kuberski surged up the middle to block Michael Husted's 43-yard attempt. On the second, Keith McKenzie stuffed Tampa Bay's fake field goal for no gain. Then, on the third, Bucs long snapper Dave Moore sailed the ball over holder Steve Walsh's head.

After Kuberski's block, Brett Favre moved 67 yards for the team's first score, a touchdown pass to Mark Chmura. Rookie Ryan Longwell then hit two field goals, the second set up by a Tyrone Williams interception in Bucs territory.

Tampa Bay, making its first playoff appearance in 15 years, got its only points after intercepting Favre and driving 94 yards for a Mike Alstott touchdown. But the Packers kept the Bucs at arm's length, when Levens, who had 88 yards after halftime, punched in a short touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and Favre converted a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw.

Warren Sapp forced two fumbles and sacked Favre three times. The two combatants openly jawed throughout the contest in an intriguing sideshow.

PACKERS 23, SAN FRANCISCO 10

1997 NFC Championship

Jan. 11, 1998, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Green Bay, in its third straight NFC Championship, never allowed the 49ers to get started and advanced to a second consecutive Super Bowl. In the process, the Packers purged San Francisco for a third straight year, the second time at 3Com.

From the outset, on a rain-swept afternoon, the Packers were able to pick on San Francisco's cornerbacks, moving 76 yards on their first possession.

Early in the second quarter, Eugene Robinson stepped in front of a Steve Young pass and weaved across the field 58 yards to the 49ers' 28. Two plays later, Antonio Freeman caught a short slant from Brett Favre, cut back against the grain and broke several tackles for a 27-yard touchdown, and a 10-0 Green Bay lead.

Late in the opening half, the 49ers had to settle for a field goal after three straight incompletions from the Green Bay 10. Then, in the waning seconds, Favre connected with Freeman on a 40-yard bomb, to set up the half's final play, Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal, against a difficult wind.

Longwell, who attended nearby Cal one season earlier and had been released by the 49ers just before training camp, added his third field goal midway through the fourth quarter, giving Green Bay a more comfortable 13-point lead.

The Packers' defense, which held San Francisco to just 33 rushing yards on 18 overall carries, sacked Young in the fourth quarter four times, twice by Keith McKenzie. When Green Bay sacked Young on fourth down at his own 11 with just under four minutes remaining, the Packers quickly capitalized, scoring after two Dorsey Levens runs.

Levens broke his own, week-old (then) franchise playoff record with 114 rushing yards – the first 100-yard effort allowed by the 49ers during the '97 season – and again did much of his work in the second half. Freeman totaled 107 yards on four catches, and punter Craig Hentrich helped Green Bay to handily win the field-position battle, depositing all five of his punts inside the 49ers' 20.

Following Levens' score, the Niners' Chuck Levy returned the kickoff 95 yards for San Francisco's lone touchdown, with 2:52 left in the game.

On the field after the game, with a smattering of fans remaining, the George S. Halas Trophy, representative of the National Football Conference Championship, was handed over to the rain-soaked trio of President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren.

SAN FRANCISCO 30, PACKERS 27

1998 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 3, 1999, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Steve Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens, in between four defenders with three seconds remaining, ended the Packers' season. The 49ers ended their five-game Green Bay losing streak, a stretch that covered four years, including elimination from the 1995-97 playoffs. The Packers, in the postseason for a team-record sixth consecutive year, went winless in the playoffs for the first time in the span.

After a critical interception, Brett Favre got the ball at his own 11, trailing 23-20 with 4:19 left. His 47-yard bomb up the left sideline to rookie Corey Bradford put the Packers in scoring range at the 31. Then, four plays later, Favre saw the 49ers stack eight men at the line, audibled and found Antonio Freeman on a sprint-and-go pattern for a 15-yard TD and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 left.

But Young drove 76 yards in the final two minutes, culminating in his game-winning, 25-yard bullet to Owens, who had dropped several passes. Earlier during the controversial drive, rookie Scott McGarrahan appeared to strip Jerry Rice at the Green Bay 41, and Bernardo Harris recovered, but officials ruled Rice down.

Strong running games bolstered both teams. Garrison Hearst ran for 128 of the 49ers' 178 rushing yards, while Dorsey Levens broke his own (then) team playoff rushing mark with 116 yards. Greg Clark's two TD catches each came after Green Bay turnovers. Favre threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns, both to Freeman.

Two Packers icons – all-time sacks leader and future Hall of Famer Reggie White, and head coach Mike Holmgren – saw their Green Bay careers end. Holmgren, 84-42 overall in seven Packers seasons, became the Seahawks' executive VP of football operations/general manager and head coach five days later.

PACKERS 25, SAN FRANCISCO 15

2001 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 13, 2002, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Brett Favre orchestrated four second-half scoring drives, while Mike McKenzie and Tyrone Williams collaborated on a game-turning fourth-quarter interception as Green Bay ended the 49ers' season, 25-15. The win improved Green Bay's all-time record in home postseason contests to 13-0, including 11-0 at Lambeau Field.

Before the 1970 merger expanded the playoff system, NFL teams tied atop their division were pitted in single games for rights to attend the league championship. The Packers played two such games, losing to the Bears in 1941 and defeating the Colts in 1965.

Favre lobbied with coaches at halftime to open up the passing game, then threw for 226 of his 269 yards in the final two quarters, steering Green Bay back from a 7-6 deficit. Led by Favre, Green Bay in the second half produced points on four of its first five possessions. The quarterback engineered marches of 72, 81, 49 and 93 yards, fighting off a 49ers rally that had tied the contest, 15-15, with 12 minutes left in regulation.

McKenzie halted an ominous Niners drive halfway through the fourth quarter. The cornerback batted an underthrown pass, like a volleyball, into the hands of a nearby Williams at the Packers' 7. McKenzie had broken up another potential Terrell Owens score earlier in the fourth. After the pick, the Packers drove 93 yards to extend their lead, on Ahman Green's 9-yard TD run.

Inspired by the return of injured starters Nate Wayne and Gilbert Brown, the Packers also held the league's No. 2 rushing offense to only 71 yards on the ground. Brown recorded his first sack since 1997 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Cletidus Hunt kept the Niners off the scoreboard early when he blocked a Jose Cortez field goal attempt in the second quarter.

ST. LOUIS 45, PACKERS 17

2001 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 20, 2002, at Dome at America's Center, St. Louis

St. Louis parlayed eight Green Bay turnovers into 35 points, and ended an outstanding Packers season, 45-17. The Packers suffered the largest margin of defeat in team postseason history.

Brett Favre, in his 16th career postseason game, matched an NFL playoff record with six interceptions. St. Louis returned three INTs for touchdowns, and four of the six picks were tipped either at the line of scrimmage or by the intended receiver. The timing of the first three interceptions combined to put the game out of reach.

Favre's initial interception, early in the first quarter, was a read miscommunication with Bill Schroeder, and Aeneas Williams raced 29 yards for the day's first points. Favre answered by marching 65 yards in five plays, getting a great effort from Antonio Freeman on a 22-yard TD pass, to tie the game, 7-7.

But with St. Louis up 14-7 in the second period, Kim Herring picked off Favre and returned it 45 yards to the Green Bay 4. Two plays later, Kurt Warner hit James Hodgins on a 4-yard pass to extend the Rams' lead.

The third interception, in the third quarter, all but sealed the win. Tommy Polley grabbed a pass deflected by Grant Wistrom and sprinted 34 yards for a TD, creating a 31-10 St. Louis advantage.

Lost in the eight turnovers, which doubled the Packers' previous 2001 season high, was a strong effort by the Green Bay defense, which limited the league's best offense to its lowest yardage in 21 games. The Packers gave up only two big plays — a 38-yard run by Marshall Faulk late in the first quarter and a 50-yard pass from Warner to Torry Holt. Green Bay also held St. Louis to 13 first downs, its lowest total since the Rams began their offensive explosion in 1999.

The Packers saw a penalty nullify a 95-yard kickoff return, which would have cut the Rams' lead to 21-14 in the second quarter.

ATLANTA 27, PACKERS 7

2002 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 4, 2003, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Undaunted by the storied stadium where his own coach, Dan Reeves, lost in the "Ice Bowl" 35 years before, Michael Vick led Atlanta to a shocking upset before 65,358.

The Packers, the NFL's only 8-0 home team in 2002, had never lost a home playoff (13-0). Brett Favre was without Pro Bowl back Ahman Green (knee) and top receivers Donald Driver (shoulder) and Terry Glenn (concussion) in a futile second-half comeback attempt.

The NFC North champion Packers, who tied for the league's best record and just one week prior had a shot at the NFC home-field advantage, began their offseason much sooner than expected.

Green Bay, without top defender and Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper (knee), even got a snowstorm but still couldn't corral any momentum. After a Vick touchdown pass gave the Falcons a quick 7-0 lead, Mark Simoneau beat the Packers' protection and blocked Josh Bidwell's punt near Green Bay's end zone. Artie Ulmer smothered the ball for another Atlanta touchdown. Then, Kevin McCadam pushed Tyrone Williams into Green Bay returner Eric Metcalf, and George Layne recovered the muffed punt. Four plays later, T.J. Duckett's TD made it 21-0. The fervent Falcons also stopped the Packers with a goal-line stand.

Favre, who had two interceptions and a fumble, hit Driver with a 14-yard touchdown on the first drive after halftime, but Driver re-injured his dislocated shoulder on the play. It was the 13th straight playoff game in which Favre threw a touchdown pass, tying Dan Marino's NFL record.

PACKERS 33, SEATTLE 27 (OT)

2003 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 4, 2004, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Al Harris returned an interception 52 yards for an overtime touchdown to lift the Packers past the Seattle Seahawks, 33-27.

Harris scored the first defensive touchdown to win an overtime playoff in NFL history. Once he got to the end zone, his teammates tackled him, setting off a wild celebration. Harris answered with a lap around the stadium.

Seattle had tied it with 51 seconds remaining on Shaun Alexander's third 1-yard touchdown run. Then, Packers kicker Ryan Longwell was short on a 47-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. Seattle won the coin toss, and quarterback Matt Hasselbeck told the official, "We want the ball, and we're going to score." The Seahawks got the ball, but punted. After Seattle got the ball back, it was Harris who scored on the game's only turnover.

Favre, as usual, thrived in the cold. He set an NFL record by throwing for a touchdown in a 14th straight playoff game and rallied the Packers to a 27-20 lead.

Early on, the Seahawks – who lost 35-13 in Green Bay the prior October – shut down Ahman Green, who rushed for 1,883 yards in the regular season. But he came on late, particularly on short-yardage plays. After falling behind 20-13, Green Bay covered 60 yards in 12 plays. Green converted a fourth-and-1 from the 3 before surging into the end zone to tie it with 10:01 left.

Early in overtime, replay helped the Seahawks when Alex Bannister was ruled to have fumbled. But a video review overturned the call, to cascading boos. The game was even on key calls – and in just about every other way. In the first half, Hasselbeck tried to stop his passing motion and lost the ball at the Green Bay 17. Nick Barnett retrieved it and ran for a touchdown, but Seattle head coach Mike Holmgren challenged the call and won.

Javon Walker's 44-yard reception led to Favre's playoff TD record. His 23-yard laser found Bubba Franks at the goal line as defender Damien Robinson fell down. Favre, who threw for 319 yards, was tied with former Dolphins star Dan Marino for the record of 13 straight games.

Longwell's 27-yarder made it 13-6 at halftime, but Seattle tied it with a 75-yard drive to open the second half. Alexander ran in from the 1 on fourth down after left guard Steve Hutchinson caught a deflected pass on the previous play.

Favre moved into third place in career playoff completions (364) and touchdown passes (31), ahead of John Elway.

PHILADELPHIA 20, PACKERS 17 (OT)

2003 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 11, 2004, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Brian Dawkins' overtime interception set up David Akers' winning field goal, but the Eagles really advanced to the NFC title game thanks to Donovan McNabb.

With the Eagles trailing 17-14 and 1:12 left in regulation, he breathed life into his team with a 28-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell on a fourth-and-26. That, in turn, led to a 37-yard field goal by Akers that sent the game into overtime. McNabb threw for 248 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 107 yards.

Duce Staley had two big runs – one for 22 on the Eagles' first play of their final regulation drive and another of 11 yards in overtime to help set up the winning field goal. Staley's contribution was especially needed with the Eagles missing all-purpose running back Brian Westbrook, who scored 13 touchdowns in the regular season but sat out with a torn triceps muscle.

The Packers (11-7) had won seven of their last eight, including three straight since Brett Favre's father died just before Christmas. Green Bay became the second NFL team to play consecutive overtime playoff games, joining the 1987 Browns.

The Packers led 14-7 at halftime, but the Eagles had the momentum after stopping Ahman Green on fourth down from the 1-yard line late in the second quarter.

Green Bay scored twice in the first quarter on passes of 40 and 17 yards from Favre to Robert Ferguson, the first set up by a McNabb fumble. The Eagles countered midway through the second quarter on McNabb's 7-yard TD pass to Staley. It came one play after a 45-yard completion from McNabb to Todd Pinkston. Philadelphia tied it early in the fourth quarter when McNabb scrambled out of trouble and found Pinkston just inside the right pylon from 12 yards out.

Favre's 44-yard pass to Javon Walker set up Ryan Longwell's 21-yard field goal that gave the Packers a 17-14 lead with 10:21 left in the fourth. Favre's 180 yards passing moved him ahead of Dan Marino into third place on the career playoff yardage list.

Green Bay posted eight sacks, a franchise postseason record.

2004 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 9, 2005, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes and the Vikings rolled to a 31-17 upset victory against the stunned Packers. Green Bay had swept the season series, including a last-second victory at the Metrodome two weeks prior to clinch the NFC North crown and the home field for this showdown at Lambeau Field.

Daunte Culpepper threw four touchdown passes and the Vikings picked off four Brett Favre passes.

Minnesota scored on its first three possessions, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in avenging two 34-31 losses to the Packers, who entered the playoffs as the NFC's hottest team.

The Packers lost Pro Bowl receiver Javon Walker and left tackle Chad Clifton to injuries, but pulled to 24-17 on Najeh Davenport's 1-yard plunge with 13:37 left. Then, two costly defensive penalties set up Culpepper's 34-yard touchdown toss to Moss, giving the Vikings a 14-point cushion with 10:18 remaining.

On the first series, Culpepper lofted the ball over Nick Barnett and Moe Williams broke a tackle, scampering 68 yards for a touchdown 1:40 into the game. After the Packers went three-and-out, the Vikings made it 14-0 on Moss's 20-yard TD catch. Antoine Winfield's interception on the next possession set up Morten Andersen's 35-yard field goal that made it 17-0.

The Packers pulled to 17-10 on Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal and Bubba Franks' 4-yard TD catch, and they caught a huge break when Andersen slipped on a 29-yard field goal attempt.

But Walker, who bruised his shin earlier in the second quarter and didn't play after halftime, changed his deep route and Brian Russell intercepted the pass, leading to a Nate Burleson score.

The Packers drove to the Vikings' 8, but Favre was whistled for an illegal forward pass when he scrambled and flung the ball to Walker in the end zone. Then, Longwell missed a 28-yarder.

Favre surpassed No. 2 Dan Marino and No. 3 John Elway on the all-time postseason completions and pass attempts lists, respectively. He also extended his NFL record with a TD pass in a 16th consecutive playoff game.

PACKERS 42, SEATTLE 20

2007 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 12, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In near white-out conditions that turned Lambeau into a "Winter Wonderland," the Packers overcame an early 14-0 deficit by scoring touchdowns on six consecutive possessions and easily advanced to their first NFC Championship since 1997.

Running back Ryan Grant fumbled twice in the game's first 69 seconds, setting up both of the Seahawks' early scores. But Grant bounced back to rush for 201 yards and three touchdowns, both franchise playoff records, while Brett Favre was an efficient 18-of-23 for 173 yards and three TDs. Favre's 78.26 completion percentage broke his own single-game Green Bay playoff record.

The Packers had erased the early 14-point deficit by the end of the first quarter with scoring drives of 64 and 69 yards and then took the lead for good early in the second quarter. On the period's opening play, Atari Bigby's big hit on Seattle tight end Marcus Pollard after a short reception jarred the ball loose, and Aaron Kampman recovered at the Seahawks' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Favre found Greg Jennings on a short 2-yard lob pass for the receiver's second TD of the game to make it 21-14.

The defense limited the Seahawks to just two field goals the rest of the way, and by game's end the Packers had amassed huge advantages in total yards (408-200) and time of possession (34:00 to 26:00).

Grant compiled his 201 yards in less than 3½ quarters, coming out of the game for good with 10 minutes left in the contest. He broke off four runs of 24 yards or longer on the day, including a memorable 43-yard scamper down the left sideline when the snowstorm was at its heaviest late in the third quarter.

2007 NFC Championship

Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

On a frigid Sunday evening that featured a game-time temperature of minus-1 and wind-chill of minus-23, Lawrence Tynes sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with a 47-yard field goal 2 minutes, 35 seconds into overtime.

The third-coldest contest in NFL championship game history was close throughout, with the Packers overcoming an early 6-0 deficit on a 90-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Donald Driver in the second quarter. It marked the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason annals.

A 20-yard reception by Driver, whose 141 receiving yards rank as the third most in franchise playoff history, set up a Mason Crosby field goal to give the Packers a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The two teams traded touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter, with Ahmad Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring run putting the Giants on top 20-17. Two plays into the fourth quarter, Favre's pass was intercepted by R.W. McQuarters near the goal line, but on the return Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters right into the hands of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line. The Packers capitalized with a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left.

The Giants had two chances to win the game in regulation, but Tynes missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards, the latter coming as time expired.

The Packers won the toss for overtime, but on the second play of the fifth period Favre's pass for Driver was intercepted by Corey Webster and returned to the Green Bay 34. Four plays later Tynes got a third shot at a game-winner and delivered.

2009 Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2010, at Univ. of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

In the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, the Packers fell to the Cardinals when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sacked by Michael Adams and fumbled the ball into the arms of Karlos Dansby, who returned it 17 yards for the game-winning score just 1 minute, 18 seconds into overtime.

The shootout featured Green Bay playoff records of 493 total yards, 423 yards passing from Rodgers and 159 yards receiving from tight end Jermichael Finley. Rodgers also tied team postseason marks with four TD passes and 28 completions. Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better, though, going 29-of-33 for 379 yards and five TDs.

The Packers turned the ball over on two of their first three plays from scrimmage, and the Cardinals capitalized with two touchdowns. That lead was extended to 31-10 early in the third quarter before Green Bay rallied.

The Packers scored touchdowns on five consecutive second-half possessions to tie the game at 45, and the contest went to overtime when Arizona kicker Neil Rackers pulled a 34-yard field goal attempt wide left with nine seconds left in regulation.

Green Bay won the coin toss and got the ball to start the extra session, but on third-and-6 from their own 24, the Packers turned the ball over for a third and fatal time.

PACKERS 21, PHILADELPHIA 16

2010 Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 9, 2011, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Trailing by five and looking at a first-and-10 from the Green Bay 27-yard line with 44 seconds remaining in the game, Eagles quarterback Michael Vick went for it all.

Fortunately for the Packers, Tramon Williams was ready.

Locked in coverage against wide receiver Riley Cooper, the cornerback turned and snatched the ball out of the air in the end zone, sealing the victory for Green Bay, and handing Aaron Rodgers the first postseason win of his career.

The Packers' quarterback was an efficient 18-of-27 passing for 180 yards and three touchdowns, and was aided by a newfound balance forged by the breakout performance of rookie running back James Starks.

Starks, a sixth-round pick who was beset by injuries and appeared in just three games during the regular season, set a franchise rookie postseason record with 123 yards on 23 carries, repeatedly gashing the Philadelphia defense.

The Packers' defense, led by Clay Matthews, Charles Woodson and a host of others, executed an aggressive game-plan designed to contain the explosive Vick. They held him to just 33 yards rushing, and Philadelphia's 16 points were the fewest surrendered by Green Bay in a road playoff game since the 1997 NFC Championship Game, the last time the franchise won on the road in the postseason.

PACKERS 48, ATLANTA 21

2010 Divisional Playoff

Jan. 15, 2011, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Atlanta Falcons entered their Divisional Round match-up against the Packers with the No. 1 seed in the NFC, home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, and a well-rested, veteran team set to take the field in front of more than 69,000 fans inside the Georgia Dome.

Green Bay entered with Aaron Rodgers, Tramon Williams and the momentum of having won three consecutive elimination games, and that was all the Packers would need to keep their playoff journey alive.

Just six days after clinching the Wild Card win at Philadelphia with a leaping interception in the end zone late in the fourth quarter, Williams outdid himself in Atlanta. He intercepted Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan twice, the second of which was a virtual backbreaker he returned 70 yards for a touchdown as time expired in the first half. The momentum-changing play extended Green Bay's lead to 28-14 and sucked the life out of what had been a charged home crowd.

While Williams stole the show on defense, Rodgers put on one the greatest individual performances in NFL postseason history. In a display of passing precision seldom seen on such a big stage, he completed 31-of-36 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns through the air, also adding one on the ground. His ability to escape pressure, extend plays, and deliver accurate throws downfield had the offense in rhythm from the opening gun, and had the Falcons defense searching for answers.

Throughout the game, the Packers compromised the identity Atlanta had established during their 13-3 regular season. The Falcons ranked No. 3 in the NFL in both time of possession and turnover margin during the regular season, but possessed the ball for only 21:41 and committed a total of four turnovers. They also boasted the NFC's leading rusher in standout back Michael Turner, but on this night, he was limited to just 39 yards, matching a season low.

PACKERS 21, CHICAGO 14

2010 NFC Championship

Jan. 23, 2011, at Soldier Field, Chicago

A touchdown-saving tackle by a quarterback, a pair of interceptions by an undrafted rookie, and an interception return for a touchdown by a nose tackle. An improbable script to be sure, but one that played out in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field.

In what appeared to be an illustration of him picking up where he'd left off the previous week at Atlanta, Aaron Rodgers led a pair of early scoring drives that staked Green Bay to a 14-0 halftime lead.

On the offense's first possession of the second half, Rodgers again led the unit inside the Chicago 10-yard line en route to what would seemingly be an insurmountable three-possession advantage. On third-and-goal, however, the quarterback was uncharacteristically intercepted at the 6 by veteran linebacker Brian Urlacher, who immediately embarked on a long return with most of the offensive players in his wake. Rodgers, the last man to beat, held his angle and dove at Urlacher's legs, tripping him up at the Chicago 45. The tackle ultimately kept the Bears off the scoreboard, as Chicago was forced to punt on the ensuing possession.

The Green Bay defense was once again outstanding in the early going, forcing five punts and an interception on Chicago's six first-half possessions. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields led the way by becoming the first rookie in NFL history to record a sack and an interception in a playoff game, accomplishing the feat on respective Bears possessions to close the first half.

Bears quarterback Jay Cutler was unable to move the ball with any regularity and also suffered a knee injury just before halftime. Following the first drive of the second half, he was replaced because of the injury by backup Todd Collins. The Packers defense quickly rendered Collins ineffective, and he was benched after two possessions in favor of seldom-used third-stringer Caleb Hanie.

To the surprise of many, Hanie led the Bears on a 67-yard scoring drive at the start of the fourth quarter, tightening Green Bay's lead to 14-7. Two possessions later, Chicago took over at its own 10 and on third-and-5, Hanie was intercepted by nose tackle B.J. Raji, who then lumbered 18 yards for an unlikely albeit memorable touchdown that pushed the score to 21-7.

Refusing to quit, Hanie and the Bears' offense responded quickly, driving 60 yards on four plays, and finishing with a 35-yard touchdown on a catch-and-run by wide receiver Earl Bennett.

After a quick three-and-out by Green Bay, the Bears used 12 plays to get the ball to the Packers' 29-yard line. On a fateful fourth-and-5, Hanie looked deep over the middle but was intercepted by Shields, his second of the game. Green Bay kneeled down to run out the clock and the celebration ensued.

The Packers were presented the Halas Trophy inside the visitors' locker room and were set to begin preparations for the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance in 13 years, Super Bowl XLV at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

N.Y. GIANTS 37, PACKERS 20

2011 Divisional Playoff

Jan. 15, 2012, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers had almost forgotten the feeling. After winning six consecutive elimination games to close out the 2010 season as world champions and then storming through the 2011 regular season with a franchise-best 15-1 record, the concept of defeat had become somewhat unfamiliar.

Unfortunately, these Packers picked the wrong day to play their sloppiest game of what had to that point been a fantastic season. Green Bay fell victim to a series of uncharacteristic, costly turnovers and a leaky pass defense that allowed Giants quarterback Eli Manning to throw for 330 yards and three TDs, leading to the elmination of the No. 1-seeded home team in front of a capacity crowd at Lambeau Field.

The two sides traded field goals on their opening possessions, but Manning found wide receiver Hakeem Nicks for a 66-yard touchdown later in the first quarter to put New York on top 10-3. It wasn't the last time Nicks would haunt the Packers.

The second of the receiver's first-half touchdowns was a far more crushing blow, one that came on the final play of the second quarter when he hauled in a 37-yard Hail Mary throw from Manning amidst multiple Green Bay defenders in the end zone, giving the Giants a 20-10 halftime lead.

The turnover epidemic that had begun to befall the Packers' offense late in the second quarter continued when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was stripped in the pocket on the opening drive of the second half, his first lost fumble of the season. The Green Bay defense stood tall in the third frame however, keeping the Giants off the board and allowing a Mason Crosby field goal to pull the Packers to within a touchdown at 20-13 to start the fourth.

But for a team that set a franchise record with just 14 giveaways in the regular season, it was the turnovers that were the ultimate difference in the game. Running back Ryan Grant fumbled following a reception with the Packers driving near midfield, trailing just 23-13 midway through the final quarter.

The Giants would score a touchdown on the very next play, and then again four minutes later, while also recovering an onside kick attempt, thus silencing any chance of a late Green Bay comeback.

PACKERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Green Bay Packers have 21 individuals in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, including Class of 2006 inductee Reggie White. The Packers' total is second only to that of the Chicago Bears, who have 27 enshrinees. The Pittsburgh Steelers (20) are next, followed by the Washington Redskins (19) and New York Giants (18).

In addition, five other players who played briefly for Green Bay – defensive end Len Ford, linebacker Ted Hendricks, guard/coach Walt Kiesling, kicker Jan Stenerud and safety Emlen Tunnell – have their busts displayed in the Hall of Fame. Biographies of the Packers' 21 HOF players follow:

1963 — EARL L. (CURLY) LAMBEAU

Founder, player, head coach, vice president (1919-49)

Founded Packers in 1919 and served as team's only head coach through 1949 season. Also played halfback from '19 through '29, a period during which he pioneered forward pass in professional football. Led Packers to six world championships and is one of only seven coaches to record more than 200 coaching victories in the NFL (others are Don Shula, George Halas, Tom Landry, Chuck Noll, Marty Schottenheimer and Dan Reeves). Had coaching record of 212-106-21 (.667) with Packers. Also coached Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53). Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. Died June 1, 1965, at age of 67. Lambeau Field named in his honor, Sept. 11, 1965.

1963 — ROBERT (CAL) HUBBARD

Tackle (1929-33, 1935)

Also played for New York Giants, Pittsburgh Pirates. A legendary athlete, he was one of pro football's first genuine giants – a massive 6-foot-5, 250-pounder who was a devastating blocker on offense and relentless pursuer on defense as a premier, two-way performer. Was an official NFL All-Pro choice in each of first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Selected to NFL's All-50-Year Team in 1970 and to All-Time Two-Way Team in 1994. Played college football three years at Centenary College in Louisiana and one final season at Geneva in Pennsylvania. Born Oct. 31, 1900, in Keytesville, Mo. Died Oct. 17, 1977, at age of 76.

1963 — DON HUTSON

End/Defensive Back (1935-45)

Made eighth-most touchdown receptions (99) in pro football history, an all-time NFL record until broken by Steve Largent in 1989. Credited with inventing pass patterns, he led league in receiving eight years and in scoring five seasons, both also lifetime marks. Also played defensive back and placekicked. Named to NFL's All-50-Year Team in 1970, later was selected to league's 75th Anniversary and All-Time Two-Way teams in 1994. Also holds league record for most points scored in one quarter (29). Played collegiately at Alabama. Named to four Pro Bowls. Born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Died June 26, 1997, at age of 84.

1963 — JOHNNY (BLOOD) McNALLY

Halfback (1929-33, 1935-36)

Also played for Milwaukee Badgers, Duluth Eskimos, Pottsville Maroons, Pittsburgh Pirates. An elusive runner and gifted pass receiver, he played a major role in Packers' drive to first three championships in 1929, '30 and '31. Also helped Packers win a fourth world title in '36. Going into 2012 season, still held 26th place in Packers lifetime scoring, over seven decades after departing Green Bay scene, with 230 points. Collegiate star at St. John's (Minn.). Born Nov. 27, 1903, in New Richmond, Wis. Died Nov. 28, 1985, at age of 82.

1964 — CLARKE HINKLE

Fullback (1932-41)

A member of the official NFL All-Pro team four times (1936, '37, '38, '41). Incredibly versatile, he was a tough, bruising runner, fine blocker, good receiver and excellent placekicker, as well as a shrewd, hard-hitting linebacker. Seventh-ranked rusher in Packers' history entering 2012 season with 3,860 yards on 1,171 carries. Was selected to NFL's All-Time Two-Way Team in 1994. Played college football at Bucknell. Named to three Pro Bowls. Born April 10, 1909, in Toronto, Ohio. Died Nov. 9, 1988, at age of 79.

1964 — MIKE MICHALSKE

Guard (1929-35, 1937)

Also played for New York football Yankees (1927-28) before joining Packers. Rated one of game's greatest guards during pro football's "two-way" era. Two-time official NFL All-Pro selection (1931 and 1935). A true 60-minute player, he was known as "Iron Mike" because of his great stamina and durability. Best asset was exceptional quickness, which made him equally effective on both offense and defense. Played college football at Penn State. Born April 24, 1903, in Cleveland. Died Oct. 26, 1983, at age of 80.

1966 — ARNIE HERBER

Quarterback (1930-40)

Also played for New York Giants (1944-45). Pro football's first great long passer. Won three NFL passing titles (1932, '34, '36) and was All-Pro selection in 1932. Teamed with Don Hutson to form NFL's first feared passing combination in mid-'30s. Ranks sixth in Packers annals with 66 career touchdown passes over his 11 seasons. Tough, durable athlete and accomplished punter as well as great passer. A Green Bay native, he played college football at Regis University (Denver). Born April 2, 1910, in Green Bay. Died Oct. 14, 1969, at age of 59.

1971 — VINCE LOMBARDI

Head Coach and General Manager (1959-67), General Manager (1968)

Also assistant coach for New York Giants (1954-58) and head coach of Washington Redskins (1969). Directed Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 1965-66-67), a feat without parallel in pro football history. His 1966 and 1967 teams also made history by winning first two Super Bowls. Packers won nine of 10 playoff games, the last nine in consecutive fashion. Under his leadership, Green Bay compiled a 98-30-4 record, a glittering .766 winning percentage, as he never had a losing season. A guard, played his college football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite." Born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Died Sept. 3, 1970, at age of 57.

1974 — TONY CANADEO

Halfback (1941-44, 1946-52)

Became only the third 1,000-yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1949. Still ranks as No. 4 ground gainer in Packers annals entering 2012 season with 4,197 yards on 1,025 attempts, a 4.1 average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was an accomplished blocker, capable passer and good receiver, in addition to being a highly effective kick returner. Also played defensive back during early years of his career. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired nickname "Grey Ghost." Served Packers organization longer than any person in history, 59 years, including tenures on the executive committee and board of directors. Born May 5, 1919, in Chicago. Died Nov. 29, 2003, at age of 84.

1976 — JIM TAYLOR

Fullback (1958-66)

Also played for New Orleans Saints (1967). Rushed for more than 1,000 yards five straight seasons (1960-64). Had ranked among NFL's top 20 rushers, with 8,597 yards over his 10 seasons, until displaced in 2003. Is Packers' second all-time leading ground gainer with 8,207 yards to his credit during his nine seasons in Green Bay. Had 26 career 100-yard rushing games, all in a Packers uniform (second most in team history). Played his college football at LSU. Named to five Pro Bowls. Born Sept. 20, 1935, in Baton Rouge, La.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME, GREEN BAY

The Packers Hall of Fame, which now has a new and expanded home in the Lambeau Field Atrium, owns a unique place in the history of professional football. Now in its 36th year, it was the first permanent hall of fame devoted to one team.

Founded by William L. Brault, a local loyalist and restaurateur with a deep appreciation for Packers history and tradition, as well as the intriguing vision for a team museum. Although established in 1967, it was formally dedicated on April 3, 1976, by then-President Gerald R. Ford. On Sept. 4, 2003, Bart Starr and Ron Wolf rededicated the Packers Hall of Fame, which moved into the Lambeau Field Atrium complete with a new design complemented by a variety of additional, state-of-the-art exhibits.

To date, 148 individuals — players, coaches and contributors — have been enshrined, including Mike Holmgren, who was inducted during a ceremony in July 2012.

For the record, the Hall of Fame was informally launched by Brault in 1967 as a series of exhibits displayed in the concourse of the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena — exhibits that had to be removed each autumn to make room for the Green Bay Bobcats hockey team and its schedule. The annual induction banquets were subsequently launched in 1970 but the "Hall" did not become a permanent, year-round entity until 1976.

The Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Inc., is a corporation separate from the football team, organized and operated for purposes permitted for tax-exempt status under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. All revenue is dedicated and invested only for such purposes. Donation of memorabilia is tax-deductible.

1977 — FORREST GREGG

Tackle (1956, 1958-70)

Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1971). Drafted in the second round (20th overall) in 1956. Was named All-Pro eight times (including All-Pro at both guard and tackle in 1965) and nine times to the Pro Bowl. Called by Vince Lombardi "the finest player I ever coached." Voted to NFL's 75th Anniversary Team in 1994. Held the Packers record for durability with 187 consecutive games played, until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2003. Head coach of Green Bay Packers, 1984-87. Also served as head coach of Cleveland Browns (1975-77) and Cincinnati Bengals (1980-83). Played college football at SMU. Born Oct. 18, 1933, in Birthright, Texas.

1977 — BART STARR

Quarterback (1956-71)

Drafted in 17th round in 1956. Became the winningest quarterback in football, directing the Packers to six Western Division titles and five world titles, including two Super Bowl victories, and earning MVP honors in Super Bowls I and II. Led the league in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966, and was named to the Pro Bowl four times. Held Packers career record for most games played (196) until surpassed by Brett Favre in 2004. In 1972 he coached Packers' quarterbacks. Head coach of Green Bay Packers, 1975-83. He played college football at Alabama. Born Jan. 9, 1934, in Montgomery, Ala.

1978 — RAY NITSCHKE

Linebacker (1958-72)

Drafted in third round in 1958 after playing fullback at Illinois. Most Valuable Player in 1962 NFL title game vs. N.Y. Giants. Named to the NFL's All-50-Year and 75th Anniversary teams. All-Pro in 1964, 1965 and 1966; Pro Bowl selection in 1964. Played in fourth-most games (190) in Packers history. Had 25 career interceptions. Born Dec. 29, 1936, in Elmwood Park, Ill. Died March 8, 1998, at age of 61.

1980 — HERB ADDERLEY

Cornerback (1961-69)

Also played for Dallas Cowboys (1970-72). Packers' No. 1 draft choice (Michigan State) in 1961. Five-time All-Pro at cornerback. Played in five Pro Bowls, four of first six Super Bowls (two with Green Bay, two with Dallas). Had 48 career interceptions (39 with Packers); ran seven back for TDs (second in Green Bay history), including three in 1965. Born June 8, 1939, in Philadelphia.

1981 — WILLIE DAVIS

Defensive End (1960-69)

Also played for Cleveland (1958-59). A 15th-round draft choice, he came to Packers from Browns in 1960 trade. Became one of premier pass rushers in pro football history, earning All-Pro honors five times and selection to Pro Bowl five times. Holds all-time Packers record for career fumble recoveries (21). Helped Packers win five NFL titles during 1960s. Played college football at Grambling. Served on Packers' board of directors from 1994-2005. Born July 24, 1934, in Lisbon, La.

1981 — JIM RINGO

Center (1953-63)

Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Seventh-round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Went on to earn All-Pro honors eight times, seven with the Packers, and played in 10 Pro Bowls, seven with the Packers. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183), including 126 with Green Bay. Helped Packers win back-to-back NFL titles in 1961-62. Traded to Eagles in 1964. Born Nov. 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J. Died Nov. 19, 2007, at age of 75.

1986 — PAUL HORNUNG

Halfback (1957-62, 1964-66)

One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-60-61), setting league record of 176 points in 1960 (which stood 46 years until broken by LaDainian Tomlinson in 2006). Also shares second-highest single-game NFL playoff scoring record, 19 points. All-Pro selection two times and named to Pro Bowl twice. Averaged 4.2 yards per rush, caught 130 passes and kicked 66 field goals during nine-year career. Fourth-ranked scorer in Packers history entering 2012 season with 760 points. Bonus choice (first player selected overall) in 1957 NFL Draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning Heisman Trophy in 1956 (only player ever to win Heisman on a team with a losing record). Born Dec. 23, 1935, in Louisville, Ky.

1989 — WILLIE WOOD

Safety (1960-71)

Sent postcards to several NFL teams asking for a tryout coming out of USC in 1960. Went on to become recognized as a premier free safety, winning All-Pro honors nine straight years beginning in 1962. A Pro Bowl selection eight times, he also played in six NFL championship games, helping Packers win five titles. Starting free safety for Green Bay in Super Bowls I and II, broke open a close contest in third quarter of Super Bowl I, intercepting a Len Dawson pass and returning it 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5. Had 48 career interceptions. Won NFL title in 1962 with nine thefts. Also captured league punt-return crown in 1961 with 16.1-yard average. One of only 15 non-drafted free agents to make Hall of Fame. Born Dec. 23, 1936, in Washington, D.C.

1995 — HENRY JORDAN

Defensive Tackle (1959-69)

Also played for Cleveland (1957-58). Originally a fifth-round draft choice of Browns, came to Green Bay in 1959 trade. Named All-Pro five straight seasons (1960-64), he also was selected to play in the Pro Bowl four times. One of team's more colorful personalities, missed only two games in his first 12 seasons. Played in seven NFL title games (including 1957 with Cleveland), plus first two Super Bowls. Had 3.5 sacks in 1967 Western Conference championship win over Rams. Played college football at Virginia. Born Jan. 26, 1935, in Emporia, Va. Died Feb. 21, 1977, at age of 42.

2003 — JAMES LOFTON

Wide Receiver (1978-86)

Also played for L.A. Raiders (1987-88), Buffalo (1989-92), L.A. Rams (1993) and Philadelphia (1993). First Packers Hall of Famer without direct ties to either Curly Lambeau or Vince Lombardi. Made 530 catches in a Packers uniform, and ranks second in franchise history with 9,656 receiving yards entering 2012. Selected by Green Bay in first round (sixth player overall) of 1978 NFL Draft. A deep-threat receiver, possessed both speed and great hands. Recorded more than 50 receptions in a season nine times. First NFL player to score a touchdown in 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. In 16 seasons, caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an NFL yardage record at the time of his retirement. Named All-Pro four times (twice with Packers) and All-NFC three times (all with Packers). Selected to play in eight Pro Bowls, including his first seven years with Green Bay. Born July 5, 1956, in Fort Ord, Calif.

2006 — REGGIE WHITE

Defensive End (1993-98)

Also played for Philadelphia Eagles (1985-92) and Carolina Panthers (2000). In 15 NFL seasons, played 232 games. Nicknamed "Minister of Defense" while playing at the University of Tennessee, where he was a consensus All-American. After two seasons with the Memphis Showboats (USFL), selected by Eagles in first round (fourth overall) of 1984 Supplemental Draft. During eight seasons with Philadelphia, recorded more sacks (124) than games played (121). A landmark free agent, signed with Green Bay in 1993 and went on to post a then-franchise-record 68.5 sacks. At the time of retirement, his 198 sacks were an NFL record, as were his 12 seasons with 10-plus sacks. Only player to record 10 sacks in nine consecutive seasons. Was important contributor to Packers' two Super Bowl berths, adding a Super Bowl-record three sacks in XXXI victory over New England. NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and 1998. Elected to 13 straight Pro Bowls. Named All-Pro 13 of 15 seasons, including 10 as first-team selection. Born Dec. 19, 1961, in Chattanooga, Tenn. Died Dec. 26, 2004, at age of 43.

SELECTED AS STARTERS IN BOLD

NOTE: Game not held from 1943-49

PRO BOWL VOTING

- The NFL is the only pro sports league that combines all-star voting by fans, players and coaches.
- NFL players and coaches cast their Pro Bowl ballots usually in Week 15.
- Mike McCarthy and the PR department conduct voting, asking that players (1) not vote for their own teammates, and (2) offensive players & coaches vote for defensive players, and vice versa.
- The consensus ballots of fans, players and coaches each count one-third toward determining the 43-man AFC & NFC rosters.
- Fan voting is used to break any tie.
- The NFL became the first professional league to offer online voting, in 1995.
- According to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement, each Pro Bowl player on the winning team earns $50,000; each Pro Bowl player on the losing team earns $25,000.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

- On Monday Night Football for a 20th consecutive season, the Packers make one appearance in 2012.
- The Packers own the NFC's longest MNF appearance streak — 20 seasons (1993-2012). In the NFL, only Denver (21, 1992-2012) now has a longer streak.
- Prior to the current 20-year string, Green Bay didn't appear for six straight years, 1987-92.
- Brett Favre and Robert Brooks own the MNF record for longest pass completion, a 99-yard touchdown strike at Chicago, Sept. 11, 1995 (Packers franchise record, tied NFL record).
- The Packers are 28-29-1 in the regular season on MNF.
- During a memorable Oct. 17, 1983, Redskins-Packers game, still the highest-scoring game in MNF history, Green Bay won a 48-47 track meet. Facing the defending Super Bowl champions, the Packers prevailed in a contest featuring 11 touchdowns, 11 extra points and six field goals. Jan Stenerud's 20-yard FG with 54 seconds left decided the issue. The contest also represented the highest-scoring game in the Packers' history, surpassing Green Bay's 52-35 loss at Detroit in 1951.

NL—Non-league game, not reflected in Thanksgiving W-L record

GREEN BAY'S 35 OVERTIME GAMES

- Green Bay continues to own the NFL record for most overtime games played in one season – five, in 1983.
- Green Bay has played 35 OT games (11-15-4 regular season, 2-3 playoffs).
- The franchise's first overtime game came in the 1965 Western Conference playoff, a historic 13-10 victory over the Colts.
- The NFL adopted the overtime rule for league games after the '73 season.
- In addition to regular season and postseason, the Packers have played six overtime games in the preseason (1-4-1).

Nov. 6, 2000—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After Schroeder's 22-yard reception gets Green Bay across midfield, Freeman makes miraculous catch while flat on his back at Vikings' 15, gets up and runs past stunned Minnesota defenders for 43-yard score with 3:39 elapsed, culminating 82-yard, seven-play drive.

Dec. 24, 2000—Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Rossum returns kickoff 29 yards to 38. Aided by Parker's 35 yards on five carries, Green Bay drives 58 yards to Buccaneers' 4. Longwell kicks 22-yard field goal with 6:31 elapsed.

Sept. 8, 2002—Green Bay 37, Atlanta 34, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Roughing the kicker penalty keeps Packers' first possession alive, but drive stalls at Atlanta 39. Green Bay holds Falcons to three-and-out, then marches 44 yards in seven plays (six carries and one 18-yard pass from Favre to Walker). Longwell kicks 34-yard field goal with 9:45 elapsed.

Oct. 12, 2003—Kansas City 40, Green Bay 34, at Green Bay. Chiefs win toss. Kansas City drives 41 yards to Green Bay 30, where Hunt blocks Andersen's 48-yard field-goal attempt. On next play, Ahman Green blasts into Kansas City territory but fumbles, recovered by Kansas City at Chiefs' 49. Then, on ensuing play, Trent Green hits streaking Kennison for a 51-yard touchdown up right sideline with 8:50 left on the clock.

Dec. 11, 2005—Green Bay 16, Detroit 13, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Favre orchestrates 10-play, 56-yard drive, the only possession of the extra period. Packers enter Detroit territory after 15-yard unnecessary roughness call. Longwell nails 28-yard field goal with 9:47 left on the clock.

Oct. 29, 2007—Green Bay 19, Denver 13, at Denver. Packers win toss. On first snap, Favre heaves a pass off play-action deep down left sideline to Jennings, who has a step on Bly. Jennings catches pass in stride and strolls into end zone untouched for game-winning, 82-yard TD with just 16 seconds elapsed in extra period.

Nov. 2, 2008—Tennessee 19, Green Bay 16, at Tennessee. Titans win toss. On the only possession of overtime, Tennessee drives 55 yards on 10 plays to set up Bironas, who missed a 47-yard attempt at the end of regulation. This one, from 41 yards out, is good with 9:36 left on the clock.

Dec. 22, 2008—Chicago 20, Green Bay 17, at Chicago. Bears win toss. In frigid conditions, Chicago scores on the only possession of the extra frame after a seven-play, 47-yard drive. Long completions to Olsen and Forté set up Gould's 38-yard field goal at 3:32.

Oct. 10, 2010—Washington 16, Green Bay 13, at Washington. Packers win toss. Washington takes over at the Green Bay 39-yard line following an interception on the Packers' second possession of the extra period. Benefiting from two defensive penalties on a six-play drive, the Redskins make it to the Packers' 15, where Gano hits a 33-yard field goal for the win.

Oct. 17, 2010—Miami 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Dolphins win toss. Packers force overtime in consecutive weeks for the first time since 1987 with a 1-yard Rodgers TD run with :16 remaining in regulation. Miami assumes possession with good field position at their own 48-yard line on their second series of OT. Five runs and one pass move the ball to the Green Bay 26 where Carpenter converts a 44-yard field goal.

POSTSEASON

Dec. 26, 1965—Green Bay 13, Baltimore Colts 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Moore returns kickoff to Packers' 22. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 9 yards to Colts' 41. Gilburg punts and Wood makes fair catch at Packers' 21. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 1 yard to Colts' 41. Michaels misses 47-yard field goal. Bratkowski, in relief of Starr (injured on game's first play from scrimmage), orchestrates 10-play, 62-yard drive, including 18-yard passes to Anderson and Dale, to penetrate Colts' 20. Chandler's towering kick is good from 25 yards at 13:39. Packers in following week win first of three straight NFL championships (1965-67). Chandler's controversial first field goal, sending contest into OT, sails high above right upright. NFL raises goalposts following season.

Jan. 4, 2004—Green Bay 33, Seattle 27, at Green Bay. Seahawks win toss. Morris returns kickoff to 33. On third play, Hawthorne recovers Bannister fumble at Seattle 43, but Holmgren's replay challenge reverses call. Seahawks hold Packers to three-and-out, then drive to midfield. Then, with Green Bay on an all-out blitz, Harris steps in front of quick Hasselbeck pass to the left and returns interception 52 yards for touchdown. Packers win first NFL postseason overtime game decided by a defensive touchdown.

Jan. 11, 2004—Philadelphia 20, Green Bay 17, at Philadelphia. Eagles win toss. Thrash returns kickoff to 28. Packers hold Eagles to three-and-out on first possession. On first Green Bay snap, in the face of a heavy Philadelphia blitz, Favre and intended receiver Walker miscommunicate on deep pass, and Dawkins returns interception 35 yards to Packers' 34. Six plays later, Akers kicks 31-yard field goal. Packers become second team in NFL history to play consecutive overtime playoff games (1986 Cleveland Browns).

Jan. 20, 2008—New York Giants 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Robinson returns kickoff to 26. On second-and-8, Favre's pass for Driver intercepted by Webster and returned 9 yards to Green Bay 34-yard line. After two Bradshaw carries gain 5 yards, Manning throws incomplete on third down. Tynes, who missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards late in the fourth quarter, hits 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed.

Jan. 10, 2010—Arizona Cardinals 51, Green Bay 45, at Arizona. Packers win toss. On third-and-6 from Green Bay 24, Rodgers is sacked and stripped by Adams. Ball is knocked loose, deflecting off Rodgers' foot and into arms of Dansby, who returns fumble 17 yards for touchdown with 1:18 elapsed.

THE SHRINE GAME

- Green Bay plays host to the Cleveland Browns on Aug. 16 in the 63rd annual Upper Midwest Shrine Game, one of the NFL's longest team traditions.
- Each season, the Packers donate a percentage of the gate to the Shriners' Hospitals for Children.
- The Shriners' facilities provide specialized medical services, helping children with birth defects and other injuries, at absolutely no cost.
- To date, the series has raised more than $3.4 million for the Midwest Shrine's burn centers and hospitals for crippled children.

THE BISHOP'S CHARITIES GAME

- In 1961, the Diocese of Green Bay approached Vince Lombardi about playing a second charitable contest in Green Bay (the Shrine game was already a fixture in Milwaukee).
- Lombardi, a devout Catholic, agreed to the contest. The original contract gave the Packers, their opponent and the church each one-third of the gate receipts.
- During the 1970s, the Packers and the church changed the contract so the Diocese would receive a flat donation, rather than a percentage.
- For more than 30 years, the church handled much of the game's business-related tasks, including game program and advertising sales, using a network of volunteers covering 14 northeastern Wisconsin counties. The Packers assumed many of those tasks beginning in 1994.
- To date, the series has raised more than $3.5 million.
- In 2012, the Packers host the Kansas City Chiefs on August 30 in the 52nd annual contest.

BIRTH OF A TEAM, AND A LEGEND

On Aug. 11, 1919, a score or more husky young athletes, called together by Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun, gathered in the dingy editorial room of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized a football team. They didn't know it, but that was the beginning of the incredible saga of the Green Bay Packers.

Lambeau and Calhoun struck the initial spark a few weeks before, during a casual street-corner conversation. It was apparently a "Why not get up a football team?" remark, but once they were interested, they wasted no time.

First they talked Lambeau's employer – a wartime industry called the Indian Packing Company, where he worked as a shipping clerk for $250/month – into putting up money for jerseys.

Because the company provided jerseys and permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, the club was identified in its early publicity as a project of the company. With this tie-in, the name "Packers" was a natural, and Packers they have been ever since, although the Indian Packing Company had practically faded out of the picture before that first season was half over.

The first season the team won 10 and lost only one, against foes from Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Games were played in an open field with no fences or bleachers, and interested fans "passed the hat." But the team was so successful by 1921 that Lambeau was backed by two officials of the packing plant in obtaining a franchise (Aug. 27, 1921) in the new national pro football league that had been formed in 1920. Cash customers didn't quite pay the freight and the team had to be forfeited at year's end.

This was the first in a long series of troubles that the now famous team overcame, for in 1922 Lambeau gained other backers and bought the franchise back for $250, including $50 of his own money. Troubles continued during that season. One game was rained out and the insurance company wouldn't pay off because the official amount of rain was one one-hundredth of an inch short of that required in the policy.

However, another storm late in the season, when the Packers were scheduled to play the Duluth Kelleys, threatened to throw Lambeau further into debt. But A.B. Turnbull, Green Bay Press-Gazette general manager, advanced Lambeau the Duluth guarantee. He then lobbied town businessmen ("The Hungry Five") behind the team, and formed the Green Bay Football Corporation.

From those modest and somewhat tenuous beginnings, the Packers have gone on to earn national stature and virtual worldwide recognition by winning more championships (13) over the intervening 80-plus years than any team in pro football.

These achievements, while representing a town of approximately 100,000 in competition with the country's largest markets, have endeared the Packers to the nation. The David vs. Goliath concept and the team's unique status as a publicly owned corporation have intrigued generations.

The Packers' colorful saga spans 90 years from the "Iron Man" period of the first decade under founder Lambeau, to the present day, which finds Mike McCarthy presiding as the team's 14th head coach.

THE IRON MAN ERA

With good financial backing, Lambeau picked up college stars from all over the country, plus some unknowns who turned out to be "greats." In 1929, tiny Green Bay won the first of three straight national professional football championships, pacing stalwarts from New York and Chicago in league standings (the playoff system began in 1933). The 1929-31 title teams featured all-time pro greats like Red Dunn, Verne Lewellen, Cal Hubbard, Bo Molenda, Jug Earp, Mike Michalske, Johnny (Blood) McNally, Bill Kern, Arnie Herber, Lavvie Dilweg, Tom Nash, Milt Gantenbein and Hank Bruder. In many games, players would play for almost the full 60 minutes. These teams were hailed all over the country as some of the greatest ever.

THE HUTSON PERIOD

Trouble flared again in 1934, when a fan fell from the stands, sued and won a $5,000 verdict. After their insurance company went bankrupt, the Packers went into receivership and were just about to fold when Green Bay businessmen came to the rescue again, raised $15,000 in new capital and reorganized the club.

About this time (1935), a rather slight, lanky end by the name of Don Hutson came to the club. He actually signed two contracts, with Green Bay and the Brooklyn Dodgers. But commissioner Joe Carr awarded Hutson to the Packers, because Green Bay's postmark was earlier.

From his first game on, Hutson became the terror of the league and the secret of Green Bay's next three championships. His arrival and corresponding attendance increases allowed the team to buy

EVENTS THAT LED TO THE PACKERS' BIRTH

- Lambeau family immigrates from Belgium to Northeast Wisconsin in 1870s.
- Earl "Curly" Lambeau, outstanding athlete at Green Bay East High School, enrolls at Notre Dame and makes varsity as freshman under Knute Rockne.
- Lambeau contracts severe tonsillitis after 1918 season and comes home. Told by doctor his tonsils can't come out until infection subsides, he misses 1919 spring semester, and eventually gives up collegiate career with Fighting Irish.
- George W. Calhoun, who'd covered Lambeau when he starred at East, bumps into him on street; the two strike up conversation, and decide to start team.
- Lambeau's employer, Green Bay's Indian Packing Company, donates $500 for blue and gold uniforms, and allows team to practice on company property.
- Acme Packing Company purchases assets of Indian Packing Company, including its fledgling team. Under Acme ownership, team enters new American Professional Football Association (renamed NFL in 1922).

MEN WHO INFLUENCED THE PACKERS' INFANCY

- George Whitney Calhoun, sports editor, Green Bay Press-Gazette; team manager, publicist and traveling secretary from 1919-47; used paper to personally target and recruit local athletes for first gathering in 1919, and to draw fans to game during financially shaky early seasons. Passed his hat along sidelines at Hagemeister Park to raise money for team.
- Earl "Curly" Lambeau, founder and first team captain; persuaded employers to purchase equipment and join American Professional Football Association (became NFL); starred as player from 1921-29; coached team for 31 seasons.
- Frank Peck, Lambeau's boss at Indian Packing Company, handed team $500 for first uniforms and equipment.
- John Clair, chairman, Acme Packing Company, bought team and Indian Packing Company in 1919; convinced by Lambeau to apply for franchise in new American Professional Football Association (NFL); forfeited financially unstable team after 1921 season.
- Don Murphy, Lambeau's friend; drove to Canton and 1922 league meeting with Lambeau, who wanted to re-enter league (NFL banished franchise for using active college players in 1921); upon arrival, Murphy sold his Marmon Roadster for $1,500, gave $200 to Lambeau to meet most of $250 re-entry fee (Lambeau chipped in $50 of own money), and used some of the rest to buy Green Bay train tickets. In return, Lambeau allowed Murphy to play in one game (he covered on season's first non-league kickoff at Duluth, Sept. 24).
- Andrew B. Turnbull, general manager, Green Bay Press-Gazette; first president of Packers corporation; kept team afloat in 1922, then rallied local businessmen to purchase stock and turn Packers into non-profit corporation in August 1923.

THE FIRST GAME

The Packers played independently from 1919-20. After joining the American Professional Football Association (renamed NFL in 1922), they played their first official league game Oct. 23, 1921, a 7-6 win over the Minneapolis Marines at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park.

With about six minutes left in the fourth quarter, the Marines muffed Cub Buck's punt, and Dave Hayes recovered at the Minneapolis 35. Three plays later, with the crowd chanting "Throw a forward," Curly Lambeau hit Buff Wagner for 18 yards. The franchise's first completion, the play set up Art Schmael's 4-yard touchdown run. Lambeau's extra point, with Buck holding, gave the Packers their first win.

itself out of receivership in 1935. With Herber and Cecil Isbell passing and Hutson catching anything they threw at him, despite any kind of a stop-Hutson defense, Green Bay won championships in 1936, 1939 and 1944.

After Hutson's retirement, Packer fortunes again declined. The disastrous pro football war, between the NFL and the new All-America Football Conference, brought on another financial crisis after the 1949 season. From 1946-48, the financially strapped Packers lost two of their three No. 1 draft choices to the AAFC, unable to bid with the rival league. Desperate for new income, the Packers held an old-timers' game and intra-squad scrimmage on Thanksgiving Day, 1949, and raised $50,000.

Hutson

In the midst of the turbulent times, Lambeau lost an internal power struggle – which ultimately began when he used $25,000 to purchase Rockwood Lodge for training camp. Lambeau resigned, Jan. 31, 1950, ending his 31-year run in Green Bay, to become the Chicago Cardinals' head coach.

RONZANI REGIME

To replace Lambeau, the Packers hired Gene Ronzani of the Bears, the most significant step in yet another major reorganization and rebuilding effort. Nearly $125,000 was raised in a giant 1950 stock sale all over the state. Under Ronzani, Green Bay's best season was 1952; the Packers were in the thick of the title chase until the season's last weeks. In 1953, the team played erratic ball and Ronzani resigned with two games remaining.

Before he departed, though, Ronzani hired Jack Vainisi as full-time talent scout. Vainisi would receive credit for discovering the six Packers Hall of Famers drafted from 1953-58: C Jim Ringo, T Forrest Gregg, QB Bart Starr, HB Paul Hornung, FB Jim Taylor and LB Ray Nitschke.

BLACKBOURN TAKES OVER

The Packers overhauled their front office and coaching staff in 1954, hiring Verne Lewellen, all-time Packers great, attorney and businessman, as general manager. Reaching into the college ranks, Green Bay named Lisle Blackbourn, of Marquette University, its third coach. The Packers were 17-31 during Blackbourn's four years (1954-57).

On April 3, 1956, voters approved a referendum to fund construction of a new stadium. The Packers dedicated the facility (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965) on Sept. 29, 1957.

McLEAN MOVES UP

Likable Ray "Scooter" McLean moved up from being an outstanding assistant coach to guide the destiny of the Packers for 1958. McLean resigned in December after a 1-10-1 record, the worst in Packers history, in his lone season as head coach.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

The Packers took their time after McLean's resignation choosing a new coach. Vainisi conducted Phase II of the 1959 draft by himself, as the team debated whether to hire a general manager as well as a coach, or one person for both positions. The search spanned from the CFL to the college ranks, and even included a GM application from Lambeau.

Vainisi

Olejniczak

On. Jan. 28, when team president Dominic Olejniczak recommended to the committee a little-known New York Giants assistant, longtime committee member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

The committee, and the world, quickly found out. Within hours after his arrival on Feb. 2, Lombardi told the committee, "I want it understood that I am in complete command here." Two days later, the Packers officially gave Lombardi both titles.

In his first season, 1959, Lombardi went 7-5, winning unanimous Coach of the Year recognition. Then in 1960, the Packers captured the Western Division title, only to lose the NFL title game at Philadelphia. However, Lombardi rebounded to win world championships in 1961, '62, '65, '66 and '67.

SOLID FOOTBALL, SHAKY FINANCES, 1922-35

- Packers use two active Notre Dame players in non-league game against Chicago Supremes after 1921 season. Upset at teams using illegal players, league makes example of Packers, strips Green Bay of team (Jan. 28, 1922). NFL owners reinstate Packers at Canton league meeting, after Lambeau apologizes, pays $250 franchise fee, making him team's new owner.
- Fearing weather would scare fans in 1922, team purchases rain insurance for Oct. 8 Racine game; if official precipitation was at least .1 inches, insurance would pay Racine's guarantee; rained only .09 inches, game drew minimal attendance, and Packers were stuck with debt to opponent.
- On Nov. 4, 1922, with team too poor for rain insurance and fearing another sparse turnout for next day's game with Columbus, Andrew Turnbull advances Lambeau funds to pay guarantee, then after season recruits local businessmen, turns Packers into nonprofit corporation in August 1923, and holds first stock sale, raising $5,000.
- Small-town Packers gain national respect, defeating mighty Giants at Polo Grounds, 7-0, Nov. 18, 1928.
- Lambeau signs Johnny Blood, Cal Hubbard and Mike Michalske before 1929 season, wins three straight NFL titles (1929-31).

Blood

- Fan falls from bleachers, sues, court awards $5,000. Packers turn to their public-liability (mutual) insurance company, but it is a casualty of Great Depression; team needs additional $2,500 to settle with creditors.
- Circuit Court Judge and Packers fan Henry Graass turns team into receivership of CPA Frank Jonet, Packers stockholder who allows team to be reorganized from Green Bay Football Corporation to Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- President Lee Joannes organizes 1935 stock drive, raises $15,000, pays off all debts.

His teams finished no lower than second from 1960-67 and became the standard of football excellence. In nine years, Lombardi went 98-30-4 (.766), including 9-1 in the postseason, winning his final nine playoff games.

BENGTSON PERIOD

Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head-coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to become coach/GM of the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-70, compiling a 20-21-1 record. He resigned in December 1970.

THE DEVINE DAYS

Dan Devine, one of the nation's most successful college coaches, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first year, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of 1973 and they slipped to 5-7-2. They continued their recession in 1974, going 6-8, and Devine resigned.

THE STARR TREK

The most successful field general in pro football history, winning five world championships from 1961-67, Bart Starr accepted the challenge to lead the Packers out of the NFL wilderness, agreeing to a three-year contract as head coach and general manager, Dec. 24, 1974. Starr asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere…We will earn everything else."

Although he had a 4-10 record in 1975, the baptismal season of a massive rebuilding project, Starr gave fans new hope by assembling a sound organization and restoring a positive attitude, underscored by three victories in the last five games of the '75 season. He continued the resurgence in 1976, leading the Packers to a 5-9 record, highlighted by a three-game, mid-season winning streak. Major and key injuries slowed the comeback in 1977 but a strong finish produced a 4-10 mark. Hopes soared in 1978 when the Packers posted their first winning slate since 1972, an 8-7-1 record, only to be temporarily dampened in 1979 by a record rash of injuries which spawned a 5-11 mark. Another injury epidemic, one which saw 27 players on injured reserve during the course of the season, struck in 1980, forcing the Packers to settle for a 5-10-1 record.

Rebounding strongly in 1981, they rallied from a disappointing 2-6 start to mount one of the most dramatic comebacks in team history, closing with a 6-2 rush (an 8-8 mark), one win shy of the playoffs.

The Packers continued the upsurge in 1982, when they qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1972 by going 5-3-1 during the strike-interrupted season. They then embellished that performance by routing St. Louis 41-16 in the first round of the NFL's Super Bowl Tournament, before bowing to Dallas (37-26) despite a record-setting, 466-yard offensive effort. Starr was relieved of his head-coaching duties Dec. 19, 1983, after the Packers finished the season 8-8 and missed the playoffs in the season's final week.

THE GREGG ERA

On Dec. 24, 1983, Forrest Gregg, a former Starr teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in football history, became the Packers' ninth head coach. Gregg had led Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season. Gregg, whose 19-6 Cincinnati record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football, received a five-year contract.

In taking over, he declared: "I took this job to field a winning team. That will happen."

Gregg's prediction began to bear fruit in the second half of the 1984 season when the Packers rebounded from an injury-ridden 1-7 start to win seven of their last eight.

Because of injuries and other complications, however, 1985 followed the '84 script, the Packers getting off to a 3-6 start before mounting a strong finish to again close at 8-8, winning five of their last seven.

Gregg, convinced the time had come to rebuild a team that was 8-8 three straight years, and was "starting to get old," made sweeping personnel changes in 1986. The young Packers, their task complicated by injuries to key performers, got off to an 0-6 start, then began to mature in midseason and finished 4-12.

Following the 1987 season, when the club finished third in the NFC Central (5-9-1), Gregg resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

INFANTE SIGNS ON

Nineteen days later (Feb. 3), Cleveland Browns offensive coordinator Lindy Infante, recognized throughout the NFL as a brilliant innovator, signed a five-year contract. Plagued by turnovers and kicking problems, Infante's first team, in 1988, was 4-12, but left fans with hopes for the future by winning its last two games.

Building on that positive note, Infante in 1989 led the Packers to a 10-6 record — their best in 17 years — and within one game of the playoffs, spicing that turnabout with a league-record four one-point victories.

In 1990, subsequent high hopes for the team's first postseason berth in a non-strike year since 1972 evaporated when the Packers — with a contending, 6-5 record after 11 games — ended the year with five straight losses.

The Packers continued to decline in 1991 (4-12). New Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf dismissed Infante on Dec. 22. Green Bay had hired Wolf on Nov. 27, and gave him full football-operations authority.

FIRST QUARTERBACKS

The Green Bay Press-Gazette, in editions following the inaugural league game Oct. 23, 1921, vs. Minneapolis, listed Adolph Kliebhan as the first starting quarterback in team history. Kliebhan, however, played his only career league game that afternoon, and didn't see many plays.

While Kliebhan was the first starter, Curly Lambeau was really the team's first "field general." Lambeau would have started the Marines game had he not kept himself out after starting each of the four non-league contests. Lambeau threw both Packers passes that day. In fact, he started four of the team's remaining five games. (Art Schmael started the Packers' second game, vs. Rock Island, Oct. 30, 1921; Lambeau started the last four.)

Toward the end of Lambeau's playing days, he turned mainly to Red Dunn. However, Arnie Herber, who played from 1930-40 and like Lambeau hailed from Green Bay, was the team's first pure passer. Don Hutson, credited with inventing pass patterns, formed the Herber-to-Hutson combination, which terrified opponents from 1935-40.

From Lambeau to Bart Starr, Brett Favre and Aaron Rodgers, more than 125 Packers have attempted a pass, many in the 1920s when the snap usually went to the halfback, who also called the cadence.

THE HOLMGREN ERA

Wolf named Mike Holmgren, offensive architect of San Francisco's four-time Super Bowl champions, to succeed Infante, Jan. 11, 1992. Holmgren, sought by five other clubs, got a five-year contract.

In his first season, 1992, the former USC field general directed the Packers to a 9-7 record and within sight of the playoffs. He became only the third Packers head coach with a winning record in his first season, punctuated by a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 1965.

Holmgren took his team to the playoffs in 1993 – despite losing four starters to injury. Forging a second straight 9-7 record – against a considerably more demanding schedule – Green Bay got its first playoff berth in 10 years. In the first round, the Packers came from behind in the last minute to eliminate Detroit, 28-24. They then fell at Dallas, 27-17, in the divisional round.

In 1994, the Packers registered a third consecutive 9-7 mark and second straight playoff trip – the first time that had happened since the Titletown days of the '60s. Riding a three-game winning streak into the postseason, they parlayed a record defensive performance and a turnover-free offensive effort into a 16-12 victory over Detroit – their first home playoff game since the 1982 season – holding the incomparable Barry Sanders to minus-1 yard in 13 attempts. The Packers advanced without the services of All-Pro receiver Sterling Sharpe, whose neck injury, diagnosed after the regular-season finale, ended his brilliant Green Bay career. For the second straight year, the Packers' run ended in Dallas, 35-9.

Closing ranks with great results following Sharpe's loss, the 1995 Packers put together one of the hallmark seasons in their history. Winning six of their last seven games, they captured their first NFC Central Division crown since 1972, then made their best postseason showing in more than 28 years, forging all the way to the NFC Championship Game.

En route, they closed the regular season 11-5 – their best mark since the 1966 NFL championship club (12-2) – and followed by dispatching the Falcons, 37-20, in a first-round playoff at Lambeau Field. Building on that win, the Packers mounted one of the premier performances in their postseason history, formally dethroning the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers in their own stadium, 3Com Park, 27-17. Again, however, dreams of a Super Bowl floundered in Dallas, 38-27, in the NFC title game, after the Packers led 27-24 at the end of three quarters.

Putting nearly three decades of disappointment emphatically behind, the Packers rewarded their long-patient faithful in 1996. Shunting aside eight of their first nine foes, they swept to a 13-3 record and their second straight division championship. Then, they captured their first NFL title since 1967, dispatching New England, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

Displaying impressive consistency on both sides of the ball, they documented their superiority, outscoring three opponents 100-48 in a postseason sweep. Appropriately, the first two wins were before their Lambeau loyalists – a 35-14 divisional triumph over the 49ers and a 30-13 win over the upstart Carolina Panthers in the NFC title game.

In winning a 12th NFL championship, extending their own league record, the Packers joined an elite group of teams with three or more Super Bowls (Dallas, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Oakland and Washington).

The Packers thus entered 1997 with an opportunity to win back-to-back Super Bowls for a second time – and came breathtakingly close to achieving their objective. Sweeping to a second consecutive 13-3 mark, tying a club record with 13 wins, they primed for the playoffs by ending the season with five straight wins. After a third consecutive division title, they launched their bid at Lambeau Field in workmanlike fashion, turning back Tampa Bay in the divisional playoff, 21-7. The win padded their all-time home-field postseason record to 12-0, extending the longest such winning streak in pro football history.

Forced to win on the road for a return to the ultimate game, the Packers smothered the 49ers on a soggy, rain-swept afternoon in San Francisco, 23-10. Garnering a berth in the Super Bowl, Green Bay held the Niners without an offensive touchdown.

In a see-saw affair, Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego found the Packers trailing Denver at halftime, 17-14. Hopes of a repeat were high, however, when quarterback Brett Favre engineered an 85-yard drive, knotting the contest, 24-24, early in the fourth quarter. But the Broncos later scored with only 1:45 remaining and a last-minute Packers drive fell short when Favre's pass for tight end Mark Chmura fell incomplete inside the Denver 20, with only 28 seconds left, sealing the Broncos' 31-24 win.

A third straight Super Bowl trip, a realistic goal at the outset, eluded the Packers in 1998, their 80th season. Historic accomplishment, however, did not, as they advanced to the playoffs for the sixth year in a row, a team record, while posting a seventh consecutive winning season. Green Bay overcame multiple injuries, including the loss of Pro Bowl running back Dorsey Levens (out nine games) and center Frank Winters (stretch run and postseason), each with a broken leg. They set another team record by stretching their Lambeau Field winning streak to 25 games – the second longest in NFL history – before falling to the Minnesota Vikings Oct. 5. They finished 11-5, equaling another team standard by posting a double-digit victory total for the fourth consecutive year (11-5 in 1995, 13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). The only other time Green Bay had strung together four seasons of 10-plus wins was 67 years earlier – Lambeau's triple NFL champions of 1929-32 (12-0-1 in 1929, 10-3-1 in 1930, 12-2 in 1931 and 10-3-1 in 1932).

In the wake of these considerable achievements, the Packers' season came to a dramatic and painful end in an NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco, when a 27-23 lead abruptly dissolved into a 30-27 49ers victory. Steve Young's 25-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens sealed the game with just three seconds left.

Only five days later, Holmgren resigned to become head coach and director of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

ROUGH RHODE(S)

Moving swiftly, Wolf tabbed Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and Green Bay defensive coordinator, as the Packers' 12th head coach, Jan. 11, 1999. The Packers launched 1999 under Rhodes in breathtaking fashion, winning three of the first four games in the last minute. Fate, however, suddenly stopped smiling as Green Bay (8-8) missed the playoffs for the first time since 1992, ending seven straight winning seasons. Saying the Packers lacked the needed toughness and fire, Wolf relieved Rhodes soon after the season finale.

THE SHERMAN TENURE

After searching more than two weeks, Wolf surprised many NFL observers by naming Mike Sherman as the Packers' 13th head coach, Jan. 18, 2000. Sherman in 2000 surmounted multiple injuries, including Favre's prolonged bout with elbow tendinitis, and finished 9-7, inches from the playoffs.

One month after a stirring finish – a four-game winning streak – Wolf retired as the team's executive vice president and general manager, Feb. 1, 2001, and President Bob Harlan quickly named Sherman to replace Wolf. Sherman became the first head coach with the GM title since Starr in 1980.

Wolf's impressive nine-year tenure included 101 total victories (including eight in the playoffs) and the NFL's best regular-season record (83-45) since the 1993 advent of free agency.

Now with full authority over football, Sherman answered in 2001 by returning the Packers to the playoffs, improving his winning percentage to .656 (21-11), best ever over a Packers coach's first two years. Behind Favre and explosive Ahman Green (1,981 yards from scrimmage), the Packers went 12-4, but couldn't grasp the division title, despite sweeping the division champion Bears. The Packers knocked off the Niners in a Wild Card playoff, but couldn't get past eventual NFC champion St. Louis.

In 2002, Green Bay overcame an injury-plagued season to tie for the league's best record at 12-4. Despite injured starters missing 63 combined games, the Packers clinched their division, the inaugural NFC North title, on Dec. 1. Favre finished two votes shy of a fourth MVP, and defensively, behind Pro Bowler Darren Sharper, the team ranked third in the NFL against the pass and led the league with 45 takeaways, six more than any other team. But Michael Vick and the Falcons became the first team ever to beat the Packers at home in the playoffs.

A return to the NFC Championship slipped painfully through the Packers' fingers in 2003. Donovan McNabb led the Eagles to a come-from-behind, 20-17 overtime win to end an emotional Packers run in the Divisional playoffs.

The loss snapped a memorable five-game winning streak. The stretch included changes to three of the most-revered records in Packers history (Gregg's 33-year-old consecutive-games streak, broken by Favre; Jim Taylor's 41-year-old season rushing record, Green; and Don Hutson's 58-year-old career scoring mark, Ryan Longwell). Green Bay captured an improbable division title in the last two minutes of the season, when Arizona upset Minnesota and the Lambeau Field crowd broke the news to the Packers.

Adding to the hallmark of Sherman's tenure, the Packers overcame a 1-4 start in 2004, the club's roughest since 1991, to finish 10-6 and win a third straight division title. The 9-2 stretch run featured four wins on last-second field goals by Longwell, including a 34-31 division-clinching win in Minnesota on Christmas Eve.

However, just two weeks later the same Vikings avenged the loss with a 31-17 win in a Wild Card playoff at Lambeau Field.

On Jan. 14, 2005, Harlan restructured the team's football operations, naming Ted Thompson general manager, with full authority over football decisions. Harlan said he based the decision on his belief in a preferred structure – separate individuals for the GM and head-coach positions.

Only 37 minutes into the 2005 regular season, the Packers lost leading receiver Javon Walker (knee). In the ensuing weeks, the team also lost starting halfback Green (quadricep) and several other key offensive performers, contributing to a 4-12 mark.

Following the season on Jan. 2, saying it was time for a new face to lead the team, Thompson dismissed Sherman.

THE PRESENT

Thompson underwent a grueling nine-day search to tab Mike McCarthy the franchise's 14th head coach (Jan. 12, 2006).

McCarthy guided the Packers to a resilient four-game winning streak to close his first season as head coach with an 8-8 record, keeping the team in contention for the playoffs until the final weekend of 2006, when mere percentage points dubbed the Giants the NFC's last postseason qualifier.

McCarthy was disappointed the Packers just missed the playoffs, particularly because the team was as healthy as it had been all season and was playing its best football the last month. But the NFL's youngest club carried that momentum into 2007, winning its first four games and ultimately tying the franchise record for regular-season victories with a 13-3 mark. McCarthy also tied Sherman's team mark for the most wins by a head coach in his first two seasons (21).

With Joe Philbin taking over as offensive coordinator, Ryan Grant emerging at midseason as a feature back, and Favre enjoying a brilliant final season in Green Bay, the offense finished second in the league, its highest ranking since 1983.

A UNIQUE FRANCHISE

- No owner (last remaining publicly owned pro sports team, 4,750,937 shares, 112,120 stockholders, none of whom receive dividend on initial investment).
- Team plays in major sports' smallest TV market – 70th (New Orleans, 53, is closest).
- Packers have 14 playoff appearances in last 19 years, and won most NFL titles (13).
- Green Bay has 21 Pro Hall of Famers, second most in league.
- Team has averted four financial collapses: 1921, 1922, 1934 and 1950, each time gaining monetary support from community.
- In a century of franchise movement, only 10 other pro sports teams – none in football – have held same moniker in same location longer (nine baseball, one hockey).
- Only two other pro sports venues have been in continuous use longer than Lambeau Field (1957) – Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1916).
- With season-ticket holders from all 50 states, as well as Washington, D.C., Canada, Japan and Australia, the team's waiting list has nearly 100,000 names on it. People who were recently awarded season tickets put their names on the waiting list in the mid-1970s.
- Packers have most fans in league based on recent Harris polls, merchandise sales and website attraction. Plus, the team sells every available seat at Lambeau Field for intra-squad scrimmage, "Family Night."
- Before radio, when Packers played on the road, as many as 500 fans turned out at Legion Park to "watch" game on Playograph board (telegraph reports from press box re-created game on screen, complete with PA).
- Packers were first to open hall of fame and museum (1967).

Grant then posted franchise playoff records of 201 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 42-20 snow-filled NFC playoff triumph over Seattle at Lambeau, but the club's quest for a fifth Super Bowl appearance came up agonizingly short.

In the third-coldest game in NFL championship history, with a temperature of minus-1 and wind chill of minus-23 at kickoff, Green Bay fell at home, 23-20, in overtime to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2008, the torch was passed to Aaron Rodgers from Favre, who retired in March with virtually every significant NFL passing record, un-retired in July and was traded to the New York Jets during the first week of training camp. Rodgers became just the second quarterback in league history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in his first season as a starter, and the offense produced a 4,000-yard passer, 1,200-yard rusher (Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) for the first time in team history.

On defense, the team set a franchise record with seven touchdowns, including six on interception returns, leading to Pro Bowl berths for three-fourths of the starting secondary in Nick Collins, Charles Woodson and Al Harris. But that wasn't enough to overcome injuries and other shortcomings on that side of the ball, and with the team losing seven games by four points or less, the final 6-10 mark was just the franchise's second losing season dating back to 1992.

That led to a series of changes on the coaching staff, most of them on defense, as McCarthy hired Dom Capers as his new defensive coordinator to institute a switch to a 3-4 scheme. The players responded faster than most predicted in 2009, climbing all the way to No. 2 in the league in yards allowed and No. 1 against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.3).

That defensive prowess was highlighted by Woodson winning NFL Defensive Player of the Year, rookie Clay Matthews leading the team in sacks, and Collins joining both as Pro Bowl honorees. Combined with another dynamic season on offense – as the quartet of Rodgers, Grant, Jennings and Driver repeated their feat of the prior year and a new franchise record for points (461) was established – the Packers won seven of their final eight regular-season games to finish 11-5 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl nod and made a memorable postseason debut, throwing for a Green Bay postseason-record 423 yards and record-tying four TDs as he rallied the Packers from a 21-point second-half deficit. Emerging tight end Jermichael Finley also set a team playoff mark with 159 yards receiving and tied a team postseason record with nine receptions.

Ultimately the Packers came up short, however, dropping a 51-45 overtime heartbreaker in Arizona, the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history. But the disappointment fueled a determination and the late-season surge sparked a genuine optimism heading into 2010.

That optimism led to high expectations, and the Packers became a popular preseason pick to represent the NFC in the Super Bowl. Boasting both a deep and maturing roster, and relative scheme continuity on both sides of the ball, prognosticators felt confident Green Bay was primed for a deep playoff run.

The team got out to a 3-1 start in the season's first quarter, but injuries to key players mounted, and that perceived roster strength would be put to the test. Grant, a back-to-back 1,200-yard rusher, was lost for the season in Week 1. Finley, the team's leading receiver entering Week 5, was also placed on injured reserve, as was linebacker Nick Barnett, the second all-time leading tackler in franchise history. By season's end, the Packers would allocate 15 players to the season-ending injured list. In what was a true testament both to Thompson's assembly of the roster and the coaching staff's tireless commitment to getting players ready to contribute, the Packers never blinked.

Rodgers led the offense by throwing for nearly 4,000 yards and posting a quarterback rating of 101.2. Jennings picked up the slack in the absence of Finley, finishing with 1,265 yards and earning his first selection to the Pro Bowl. Defensively, the Packers again thrived under Capers' detailed instruction, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game. Matthews proved that his rookie campaign was no fluke and became a dominant pass rusher off the edge. Voted a Pro Bowl starter and consensus first-team All-Pro, he finished with 13.5 sacks and was named the league's Defensive Player of the Year by various publications. In the secondary, Woodson followed up his stellar 2009 run with another solid season, setting career highs in tackles and forced fumbles and becoming the team's emotional leader throughout. His counterpart at corner, Tramon Williams, emerged as a standout cover man and led the team with six interceptions, earning his first bid to the Pro Bowl, where he was joined by Collins, who was chosen for the third consecutive year.

Despite the constant fluidity of the gameday lineup, the Packers hung tough in all 16 games. Their six losses came by a combined 20 points, and they became the first team since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to never trail a game by more than seven points over an entire season. They finished the regular season with a 10-6 record following consecutive home wins in the final two weeks, and secured the sixth and final seed in the NFC's playoff bracket.

Taking to the road for the NFC playoffs, the Packers started by bottling up the explosive Eagles' offensive attack and winning the opening-round Wild Card game at Philadelphia by a score of 21-16. The task wouldn't get any easier the following week as they traveled to Atlanta to take on the No. 1-seeded Falcons. After an initial back and forth, Green Bay exploded with a 28-point second quarter and never looked back. On the strength of a near-flawless display of quarterbacking by Rodgers, and two crucial interceptions by Williams, the Packers hammered the Falcons 48-21, the second-largest margin of victory in team postseason history.

For the NFC Championship, the Packers faced their division rival, the Chicago Bears, for a chance to return to the Super Bowl for the first time since the 1997 season. Despite the rich, 182-game history of the rivalry, the game marked just the second-ever meeting between the two teams in the postseason. On a 20-degree afternoon at Soldier Field, the Packers got out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter. The opportunistic defense forced three Chicago turnovers, highlighted by an improbable 18-yard interception return for a touchdown by Raji that put Green Bay ahead 21-7 late in the fourth quarter. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields sealed the 21-14 win on the Bears' final drive, making his second interception of the game to send the franchise to its fifth Super Bowl.

The Super Bowl pitted the Packers against the AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. In what was billed as a matchup between two renowned 3-4 defenses, it was the Green Bay offense, led once again by the exceptionally precise Rodgers, that was the difference. The Packers stormed out to a 21-3 lead in the first half, with two touchdowns coming off the arm of Rodgers and one on an interception return by Collins. Under circumstances reflective of the entire season, the Packers were forced to overcome injuries, as veteran stalwarts Driver and Woodson were both ruled out of the game late in the first half.

The Steelers fought their way back, but a forced fumble by Matthews at the start of the fourth quarter led to another Rodgers touchdown pass. Forcing a turnover on downs on Pittsburgh's final drive, the Packers won the franchise's fourth Super Bowl, 31-25.

In the months that followed the season, both Thompson and McCarthy were rewarded with multi-year contract extensions that will keep them in Green Bay for the foreseeable future.

With an unquestioned franchise quarterback, a nucleus of young veterans, and a roster even further bolstered by the return of injured players and a 10-man draft class, all eyes were set on the quest for another world title in 2011.

Due to a league-wide work stoppage that began in early March, the Packers – like the rest of the other clubs – were deprived of an offseason program that would have fostered continued development and the integration of newly selected rookie players. The ongoing labor negotiations meant that the players first convened as a team at the start of training camp in late July. With an abbreviated training camp schedule and a bull's-eye affixed firmly to their backs as the reigning champions, the Packers would have to rely on their stable roster and established schemes to help pick up where the team had left off at its peak in early February.

And that they did. Beginning with the NFL's season-opening Thursday night spectacle against the high-powered New Orleans Saints at Lambeau Field, the Packers stormed through the regular season, reeling off a team-record 13 consecutive wins en route to a franchise-best 15-1 record. The team became just the sixth in NFL history to reach the 15-win plateau, and when combining the start of 2011 with the six wins that closed out 2010, the 19-game winning streak was the longest in team history and second longest in league annals.

The franchise laid claim to its first NFC North division title since 2007 and secured the conference's No. 1 seed for the playoffs. Throughout the season, the recipe for success was written by Rodgers and a prolific offense that scored 560 points, the second-highest total in league history.

Rodgers finished the season having completed 343-of-502 attempts for 4,643 yards and 45 touchdowns with only six interceptions, earning the league's Most Valuable Player award and consensus first-team All-Pro honors from almost every major publication. His 122.5 cumulative passer rating set a new NFL record and he also eclipsed the previous franchise single-season marks for yards, touchdowns, completion percentage, yards per attempt and 300-yard games.

The Packers continued to display their knack for taking the football away on defense, leading the NFL with 31 interceptions, the most by a Green Bay team since 1962. Woodson tied for the NFL lead with seven INTs, and Matthews set a new career high with three of his own. The defense's 38 takeaways tied for the league lead and helped contribute to an aggregate plus-24 team differential in the turnover department, a mark that also tied for No. 2 in franchise history.

Joining Rodgers, Woodson and Matthews in the Pro Bowl were Jennings, FB John Kuhn, Raji and C Scott Wells, giving the Packers seven representatives, the most voted in for the franchise since 1967.

In the postseason, Green Bay fell victim to uncharacteristic, costly turnovers in its only contest, and lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants in the Divisional round, 37-20. Having not experienced playoff disappointment during 2010's memorable run, the loss to the Giants left a foul taste in the team's collective mouth, along with several assurances that there would be a renewed determination and focus on the ultimate prize in 2012.

EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Somewhat by chance, Curly Lambeau and George Calhoun joined together in 1919 to form what is now the Green Bay Packers. Lambeau was an outstanding athlete at Green Bay East High School, and after enrolling at Notre Dame and making varsity under Knute Rockne, he was back in Green Bay after severe tonsillitis forced him to miss the spring semester.

Then, Lambeau ran into Calhoun, the sports editor of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, who had covered Lambeau as a prep. The two got to talking and decided to start up a football team. On Aug. 11, 1919, Lambeau, Calhoun and a group of young athletes gathered in the editorial room of the old Press-Gazette building on Cherry Street and organized the beginning of the Packers.

At the time, Lambeau was a shipping clerk for the Indian Packing Company, a wartime meat-packing industry in Green Bay. Because he somehow persuaded his boss, Frank Peck, to donate $500 of company money for team uniforms, the new squad had its name, "Packers."

Lambeau was a player and the team's first captain. And in their first season together, the Packers went 10-1 playing local foes.

In the meantime, the Indian Packing Company fell on hard times and was bought out by the Acme Packing Company. But in 1921, based on the success of the team, Lambeau persuaded Acme owners John and Emmitt Clair to back the Packers and apply for membership in the new American Professional Football Association (renamed the NFL in 1922). The Clairs agreed, and on Aug. 27, 1921, the Packers became an official professional football franchise.

Not long after, poor finances and the illegal use of college players forced the team to be forfeited, but Lambeau bought it back at a league meeting in Canton, Ohio, for a franchise fee of $250, including $50 of his own money, in 1922.

Financial problems continued however, and with the team teetering on the brink of bankruptcy, Lambeau received aid from Andrew B. Turnbull, the general manager of the Press-Gazette, who forwarded money to Lambeau to help keep the team afloat in 1922, before rallying local businessmen to purchase stock and turn the Packers into a nonprofit organization in August 1923.

One of seven NFL coaches ever to win 200 games, Lambeau's 212-106-21 (.667) Green Bay record – including postseason – doesn't even include 1919 or 1920 before the team joined what is now the NFL. He guided the Packers to six world championships: 1929-31, 1936, 1939 and 1944.

The Packers didn't play an official postseason game until 1936 – their first three championships were decided by league standing until the playoff system was added in 1933 – when they defeated the Boston Redskins 21-6 for their fourth NFL title.

Green Bay was back in the title game in 1938, but fell to the New York Giants by the score of 23-17. In 1939, the Packers got their revenge, blanking the Giants 27-0 to win their fifth crown after a 9-2 campaign. And in 1944, the Packers won their sixth and final title under Lambeau, defeating the Giants 14-7.

Six Packers played under Lambeau en route to a spot in the Pro Football Hall of Fame: T Cal Hubbard (1929-33, 1935), HB Johnny "Blood" McNally (1929-33, 1935-36), FB Clarke Hinkle (1932-41), G Mike Michalske (1929-35, 1937), QB Arnie Herber (1930-40) and E Don Hutson (1935-45).

Lambeau's tenure as head coach included some pioneering developments: implementing daily practice (late 1920s), bringing Rockne's "secret weapon" of the forward pass to the pro game (1919), implementing pass patterns (1930s) and flying to road games (1940).

However, Lambeau's decision to purchase the Rockwood Lodge north of Green Bay at a price of $25,000 to make it the Packers' training facility didn't go over well with members of the executive committee and contributed to an internal power struggle that helped end his 31-year tenure with the team.

On Jan. 31, 1950, Lambeau resigned and was replaced by Gene Ronzani, who would coach the Packers until 1953. Lambeau finished his coaching career at the reins of the Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53).

Lambeau was 21 years old when he became player-captain of the Green Bay Packers in 1919. The Packers didn't join what is now the NFL until two years later, so his official Packers playing career ran from 1921-29.

Listed in Total Football at 5-foot-10, 187 pounds, he appeared on the roster as a halfback. But in those days, with the passing game in its infancy, the halfback received the snap from center, so in reality Lambeau was the Packers' first field general.

In Green Bay's first official league game, Oct. 23, 1921, Lambeau threw both of the Packers' two passes in a 7-6 win.

Earl Louis (Curly) Lambeau, born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay, Wis., died June 1, 1965, at the age of 67.

LAMBEAU AT A GLANCE

- Multi-sport star at Green Bay East High School, he essentially coached the football team as a senior in 1917; he allegedly knew more than the coach.
- Played one season, 1918, at Notre Dame, where he lined up in Knute Rockne's backfield next to George Gipp.
- Tonsillitis ended his short-lived college career, but the ailment led to a chance meeting with Green Bay Press-Gazette sports editor George Calhoun. Over beers, Lambeau and Calhoun consummated the establishment of the Green Bay Packers.
- During his playing days, stood nearly 5-foot-10 and weighed 187 pounds, one of the larger players in any NFL backfield; the team captain, he played tailback, blocking back, fullback and end.
- Innovated the forward pass in pro football and was the first coach to implement daily practice.
- Father, Marcel, during the 1920s served as construction foreman, supervising several expansions at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park and City Stadium.
- Pro Football Hall of Fame, charter class of 1963.
- One of seven NFL coaches to win 200 games.

DONALD MONTGOMERY HUTSON

Credited with inventing pass patterns, Don Hutson wasn't just the best receiver of his era, he's on the short list for greatest receiver of all time and is arguably the most outstanding player in Green Bay Packers history.

After a collegiate career at Alabama, Hutson came to the Packers in 1935 and began what would be an 11-season career. In that span, Hutson caught 99 touchdown passes, which was an NFL record until Steve Largent caught his 100th TD in 1989.

But if many of the 18 NFL records Hutson held at the time of his retirement have been rewritten since, over 60 years after he hung up his cleats and more than 40 years following his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, several of his NFL-leading standards remain intact.

Hutson led the league in receptions eight times, including five consecutive seasons (1936-37, 1939, 1941-45). He led the league in receiving yards seven times, including four consecutive seasons (1936, 1938-39, 1941-44). He led the league in touchdown receptions nine times, including five consecutive seasons (1935-38, 1940-44). All of those achievements remain NFL records.

Meanwhile, Hutson's four 200-yard receiving games are second only to Lance Alworth's five. And Hutson's two 200-yard games in one season, accomplished in 1942, is an achievement bettered by only Charley Hennigan (three in 1961).

In terms of the Packers' record book, Hutson not only holds the standard for receptions in a game (14, against the New York Giants, Nov. 22, 1942), he's also runner-up on that list (13, against the Cleveland Rams, Oct. 18, 1942).

And Hutson's four-touchdown receiving effort against the Detroit Lions, Oct. 7, 1945, is a feat twice matched by Sterling Sharpe, but never bettered. Nor is any Packers player close to Hutson's collection of six three-touchdown receiving games.

Hutson, who also kicked seven career field goals and 172 extra points, even remained the Packers' all-time leader with 823 points until Ryan Longwell surpassed him in 2003.

Standing 6-foot-1 and weighing 183 pounds, Hutson twice earned the NFL's Joe F. Carr Trophy as its most outstanding player, doing so in 1941 and 1942 (The Associated Press MVP award didn't come into existence until 1957). Hutson was a consensus All-Pro five times (1939, 1941-44).

But he wasn't just an offensive player. In addition to his receiving and kicking duties, like most players of that era Hutson also played defense.

A member of three NFL title teams (1936, 1939, 1944) in the first half of his career, Hutson was a favorite target of Arnie Herber, who was taking Curly Lambeau's passing game to new heights. Cecil Isbell and Irv Comp also enjoyed seasons throwing to Hutson.

But Hutson was dangerously close to spending his career away from the pass-happy Packers. Coming out of Alabama, Hutson actually agreed to contracts both with the Packers and the Brooklyn Dodgers, a run-oriented club. Both teams claimed Hutson as their own, but NFL President Joe Carr awarded Hutson to the Packers on the grounds that their contract with the speedy receiver was postmarked 17 minutes earlier.

As a rookie, Hutson received a weekly game check of $300. Green Bay had only two banks at the time, and with the nation hit hard by the Great Depression, both banks had to write him a weekly check of $150 to cover the salary.

It didn't take long for Hutson to make an impact. Making his first start in the second game of his career, Hutson's first career reception went for an 83-yard touchdown from Herber on the first play of the game in a 7-0 win over the Chicago Bears (Sept. 22, 1935).

HUTSON AT A GLANCE

- Changed the course of Packers history and, arguably, carried more influence than any player on how professional football is played.
- After seven weeks of dogged persistence, Curly Lambeau finally got the All-America receiver from Alabama to sign with Green Bay (one year before the first NFL Draft). However, Hutson also signed with the Brooklyn Dodgers, and both contracts were filed at the office of NFL President Joe Carr.
- Carr settled the hairy dispute with common sense. He awarded Hutson to the Packers because their contract had an earlier postmark. Without that providential decision, Green Bay's history would read much differently.
- Regarded as the greatest player of the 20th century by several experts, he owned world-class speed (9.5 in the 100-yard dash).
- George Halas devised several defenses specifically to corral Hutson. Halas generally conceded Hutson two touchdowns per game.
- Over 60 years after his retirement, still holds 10 NFL records: most seasons leading league in scoring (5); most points in one quarter (29); most seasons leading league in overall TDs (8); most consecutive seasons leading league in overall TDs (4, twice); most seasons leading league in receptions (8); most consecutive seasons leading league in receptions (5); most seasons leading league in receiving yards (7); most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving yards (4); most seasons leading league in receiving TDs (9); and most consecutive seasons leading league in receiving TDs (5).

Hutson's legacy was preserved over a series of events. First, in 1951, Hutson's uniform number 14 became the first to be officially retired by the Packers. In 1970, Hutson was named to the NFL's All-50-Year Team. And in 1994, he was named to the NFL's All-Time Two-Way Team and 75th Anniversary Team.

Also in 1994, the Packers dedicated their state-of-the-art indoor practice facility in Hutson's name (July 18, 1994). Hutson was on hand for the dedication of the $4.7 million facility that includes 70- and 60-yard fields with 10-yard end zones.

Donald Montgomery Hutson, born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark., died June 26, 1997, at the age of 84.

VINCENT THOMAS LOMBARDI

More than four decades after his death, Vince Lombardi remains one of the most recognizable sports figures of all time.

His name graces the Super Bowl trophy. His likeness can be seen in a 14-foot statue at Lambeau Field. A flamboyant figure, his name remains attached to some of the most famous quotes in American sports history.

In his career as head coach in Green Bay, Lombardi steered the Packers to five NFL Championships, including victories in Super Bowls I and II. He tallied a career record of 105-35-6 (regular and postseason combined), 98-30-4 in Green Bay.

And yet, Lombardi's name wasn't always so recognizable.

In early 1959, Green Bay was coming off a 1-10-1 season – the worst in team history. Winners of six NFL titles under Curly Lambeau, the team hadn't had a winning season since 1947.

Ray "Scooter" McLean, head coach in 1958, resigned after one season. Searching for McLean's replacement, Dominic Olejniczak – then the president of the organization – became interested in a Giants assistant coach.

To that point, Lombardi had never held a head-coaching position beyond the high-school level, so when Olejniczak recommended him to the Packers' executive committee, committee member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?" It didn't take long to find out.

On Feb. 2, 1959, Lombardi arrived and told the committee, "I want it understood that I am in complete command here." Technically he wasn't, not yet, but within two days of his arrival Olejniczak gave Lombardi not only the head-coaching job, but the vacant general-manager position as well.

Lombardi immediately changed the way the team looked, the way it played and especially how it thought. In 1959, he ordered that the Packers' uniforms be revamped. The resulting design was almost identical to the uniforms the team continues to wear today. In fact, the only major modification since was the addition of the "G" helmet logo, which was added in 1961 and has never left. The logo was designed by then-equipment manager Dad Braisher, at Lombardi's request.

Lombardi's offense was basic and methodical. Its most famous play, now often referred to as the "Lombardi sweep" or the "Packers sweep," consisted of Paul Hornung or Jim Taylor following pulling guards Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston. Lombardi was famous for his pursuit of perfection, often dedicating long hours of film study or practice to just one element of one play.

In his first team meeting after being named head coach and general manager, Lombardi made it clear just how determined he was to win. Looking into the eyes of players who just a season before had gone 1-10-1, Lombardi said, "I have never been on a losing team, gentlemen, and I do not intend to start now." True to his word, Lombardi never knew a losing season as a head coach.

His first season was a stunning success. He used many of the same players from that 1-10-1 team of 1958 and finished 7-5 in 1959, winning unanimous Coach of the Year honors. His first game was a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears in new City Stadium – later renamed Lambeau Field – and when it was over, the players carried their coach off the field in triumph.

In 1960, the Packers won the Western Conference title, going 8-4. That brought Lombardi to his first NFL Championship Game, which the Packers lost 17-13 to the Eagles at Franklin Field.

It didn't take long for Lombardi to earn redemption, however. In 1961, after an 11-3 season, the Packers demolished his former team, the Giants, 37-0, winning the team's first title since 1944.

His teams went on to capture four more NFL crowns: in 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Green Bay also won the first two Super Bowls after the 1966 and 1967 titles, respectively. In Lombardi's final game as Green Bay head coach, the Packers defeated Oakland 33-14 in Super Bowl II at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

But the Packers' 1967 season isn't remembered for that Super Bowl. Instead, the '67 campaign is remembered for the NFL Championship against Dallas, perhaps the most famous game in football history. Now commonly referred to as the "Ice Bowl," the Lambeau Field temperature at kickoff that day (Dec. 31, 1967) was minus-13, with the wind chill dipping to 46-below.

Lombardi had heating coils installed underneath the Lambeau Field turf prior to the season. But on a day when they were dearly needed, the coils malfunctioned or – some believe – were intentionally turned off. As a result, the field turned into a sheet of ice.

With 13 seconds left, Bart Starr's 1-yard touchdown plunge gave the Packers a come-from-behind 21-17 victory.

Lombardi retired as head coach after the season, but retained his general manager's duties for one more year.

Ultimately, Lombardi was bored being "out of action" and in 1969 accepted the head coaching position with the Washington Redskins, a team that hadn't had a winning season in 13 years. In Lombardi's first and only season in Washington, the Redskins went 7-5-2.

Shortly after Lombardi's 1970 death, before Super Bowl V, Commissioner Pete Rozelle made what remains arguably the greatest tribute in league history, naming the Super Bowl championship trophy the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

In August 2003, before the rededication of a renovated Lambeau Field, the Packers unveiled statues of Lombardi and team founder Curly Lambeau in what is now the Robert E. Harlan Plaza outside the Lambeau Field Atrium. Each statue is 14 feet high atop a 4-foot base and 2-foot steps.

Lombardi was named head coach of the Packers when he was 45 years old. Before coming to the Packers, he was an assistant coach with the New York Giants. Lombardi also coached at Army. As a player, he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite" as a guard at Fordham.

Perhaps the most famous quote commonly attributed to Lombardi wasn't even his own. Legendary actor John Wayne uttered the phrase "Winning isn't everything, it's the only thing!" in a 1953 film called Trouble Along the Way. Lombardi may have borrowed that phrase, but many of his other memorable quotes are believed to be his alone.

Vincent Thomas Lombardi, born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y., died of cancer Sept. 3, 1970, at the age of 57.

LOMBARDI AT A GLANCE

- In early 1959, president Dominic Olejniczak phoned George Halas to ask about Lombardi. Halas reluctantly told him if the Packers hired Lombardi, the Bears would be in trouble. Lombardi's teams were 13-5 against Halas.
- His first club in 1959 went 7-5; roster of 1958 squad (1-10-1) included LB Bill Forester, T Forrest Gregg, DB Hank Gremminger, T Dave Hanner, HB Paul Hornung, G Jerry Kramer, E Max McGee, LB Ray Nitschke, QB Bart Starr and FB Jim Taylor – all keys to '60s dynasty.
- Lombardi's players carried him off the field at least five times, including his first and last games coaching the Packers (Sept. 27, 1959, vs. Chicago, and Super Bowl II, Jan. 14, 1968, vs. Oakland).
- Had little patience for players who made contract demands, and did not discriminate. Lombardi shipped 1950s superstar Billy Howton to Cleveland. Then, in 1964 when future Hall of Famer Jim Ringo and his agent showed up in Lombardi's office, the coach allegedly left for five minutes, then returned to tell them he'd just traded Ringo to the Eagles.
- Revamped uniforms in 1959 (they've barely changed since); asked equipment man Dad Braisher to design "G" helmet logo, added in 1961.
- Oldest of five children, he toiled several years (including a job at duPont for $20/week) before landing only previous head-coaching post – at St. Cecilia's (N.J.) High School, where he also taught chemistry, physics, algebra and Latin.
- Recruited to Fordham by Jimmy Crowley, who played football at Green Bay East High School.

▶1919
- Packers founded at meetings in editorial room of Green Bay Press-Gazette (Aug. 11 and 14).

▶1921
- J.E. Clair of Acme Packing Company granted American Professional Football Association franchise for Green Bay Packers (Aug. 27); league renamed NFL in 1922.
- Packers-Bears series launched at Chicago (Nov. 27); Packers lose 20-0 to Staleys, who changes name to Bears in 1922.

▶1922
- Packers disciplined for using college players under assumed names; Clair turns franchise back to league (Jan. 28). Curly Lambeau promises to obey rules, uses $50 of own money to buy back franchise for $250.

- Packers defeat Baltimore Colts, 13-10, at Green Bay in sudden-death Western Conference playoff (first overtime in team history) on Don Chandler's 25-yard field goal at 13:39 of overtime (Dec. 26).
- After removing four inches of snow at Lambeau Field, Packers beat Cleveland Browns, 23-12, for ninth NFL title (Jan. 2, 1966).

14 TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS?

Until the league regularly scheduled postseason in 1933, NFL titles, including the Packers' first three crowns (1929-31), were decided by winning percentage in league standings.

However, the official league standings from 1921-71 did not recognize ties in figuring winning percentage (since 1972, ties have been considered half of a win).

That rule actually cost the Packers a fourth consecutive championship in 1932 (Green Bay is the only NFL team to win as many as three straight titles — 1929-31 and 1965-67).

The Chicago Bears (6-1-6) and Portsmouth Spartans (6-1-4) finished "tied" for first, ignoring their ties. The Bears won the title by defeating Portsmouth after the season, a game that counted in the final regular-season standings.

Several Packers fans use the 1932 championship to counter Bears supporters who say Don Majkowski threw an illegal TD pass to beat Chicago in the 1989 "Instant Replay" game.

PACKERS PATENTS

Football historians generally credit the Green Bay Packers with inventing several aspects common in today's game. The team is believed to be the first to ...

- Implement daily practice (Curly Lambeau, 1920s).
- Innovate the forward pass into pro game (Lambeau used the "unsportsmanlike" play at will at East High School, then after only semester at Notre Dame in 1918 brought Knute Rockne's "secret weapon" to early NFL).
- Introduce a mascot at pro game (dog named Olive, because he liked to eat Durkee olives, 1919).
- Install a stadium public-address system (City Stadium, 1925; local radio shop owner Peter Platten installed speakers powered by six-volt wet-cell batteries; former Packers player Jim Coffeen was team's first PA announcer).
- Have cheerleaders on sidelines (several games in 1931, from Green Bay East and West high schools).
- Use pass patterns (Don Hutson, 1935, ran a deep post to catch first career pass, 83-yard TD vs. Bears, Sept. 22, 1935).
- Charter an airplane to fly to a road game (1940).
- Have "tailgating" fans (some evidence suggests it was introduced at Bellevue Park, 1923-24, but no doubt perfected in new City Stadium's spacious parking lots, 1957).

Hutson

- The Don Hutson Center, Packers' new, $4.67 million indoor practice facility, is dedicated (July 18).
- Harlan announces that, beginning with the 1995 season, the Packers will leave Milwaukee and play their entire 10-game home schedule at Green Bay's Lambeau Field (Oct. 12).
- Packers end 62-year Milwaukee stay on winning note, beat Atlanta at County Stadium 21-17 (Dec. 18).
- Mounting 28-6 halftime lead, Packers top Tampa Bay 34-19, qualify for NFL playoffs for second year in a row. In process, close season with 9-7 record, thus posting third consecutive winning campaign for first time since 1965-67 (Dec. 24).
- Packers defeat Detroit in wild-card playoff, 16-12, recording franchise's 15th postseason win (Dec. 31).

▶1995

- Injured wide receiver Sterling Sharpe, Packers' career receptions leader, is released "with reluctance" (Feb. 28).
- Construction of 90 additional private boxes in Lambeau Field's north end zone is completed (August).
- Packers defeat Pittsburgh Steelers, 24-19, at Lambeau Field in regular-season finale (Dec. 24), clinch first NFC Central Division championship since 1972.
- Packers beat Falcons, 37-20, in first-round playoff game, maintain team's perfect (9-0) home playoff record (Dec. 31).

▶1996

- Packers stun defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco, 27-17, in divisional playoff at 49ers' 3Com Park (Jan. 6).
- Treasurer John R. Underwood reports then-record organization profit of $5,440,628 at annual stockholders' meeting (May 29).
- Packers complete $4 million Lambeau Field project in August, installing second replay board and two new scoreboards to fully enclose stadium.
- The design of a stamp bearing likeness of former Packers coach Vince Lombardi is unveiled in Lambeau Field (Nov. 3).

- Packers clinch second consecutive NFC Central Division championship with 41-6 victory over Denver (Dec. 8).

▶1997

- Packers vanquish 49ers, 35-14, in divisional playoff at Lambeau Field (Jan. 4).
- Packers beat Carolina Panthers in NFC Championship Game, 30-13, earn first Super Bowl trip since 1967 (Jan. 12).
- Packers defeat New England Patriots, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans (Jan. 26), claim 12th NFL title.
- With the wind chill registering a frigid 0 to 10 degrees below zero during a three-hour parade through the city, an estimated 200,000 enthusiastic fans welcome Packers home from Super Bowl victory. Another 60,000 jam Lambeau Field for official program hailing the world champions (Jan. 27).
- Packers extend contract of Wolf as executive vice president/general manager for three additional years, through 2002 (April 8).
- Treasurer John R. Underwood reports, at annual shareholders' meeting, then-record net income for Packers Corporation of $5,877,061 for fiscal 1996 (May 28).
- Work is completed on installation of new playing surface, including modern heating and irrigation systems, at Lambeau Field (June 15).
- Don Hutson, most feared pass receiver in pro football history, dies at age 84 (June 26).
- Packers establish own website, packers.com (July 23).
- Packers' two practice fields are named Clarke Hinkle Field and Ray Nitschke Field in honor of two of team's Pro Football Hall of Fame members, Wolf announces (July 24).
- Favre signs a seven-year contract, longest in Packers history, and one making him – at time of signing – highest-paid player in the history of pro football (July 25).
- Gross Avenue in Village of Ashwaubenon is renamed and dedicated as Holmgren Way in honor of Packers head coach (Aug. 17). Street, poetically, intersects Lombardi Avenue.
- At a special meeting, Packers' shareholders approve the issuance of additional stock for the first time since 1950 (Nov. 13), with offering of 400,000 shares at $200 per share.
- Packers' designated national clearinghouse receives 55,000 phone calls concerning new stock issue within 24 hours following announcement of sale (Nov. 14).
- Packers clinch postseason berth for record fifth straight year (Dec. 1) with 27-11 victory over Minnesota Vikings.
- Packers capture third consecutive NFC Central Division title via 17-6 victory over Buccaneers in Tampa (Dec. 7), earn first-round bye in playoffs and right to host divisional playoff.

▶1998

- Gaining berth in NFC Championship for third straight year, Packers defeat Tampa Bay, 21-7, in divisional playoff (Jan. 4).
- Packers earn second consecutive trip to the Super Bowl with 23-10 victory over 49ers at San Francisco in NFC Championship Game (Jan. 11).
- Last-minute drive falls short of tie, Packers lose to Denver Broncos, 31-24, in Super Bowl XXXII at San Diego (Jan. 25). Record, worldwide audience of 800 million, in 147 countries, views game on TV.
- More than 25,000 fans turn out in Lambeau Field to welcome Packers home from Super Bowl XXXII (Jan. 27).
- Legendary linebacker Ray Nitschke, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, dies in Florida at age 61 (March 8).
- Harlan announces that stock sale, which ended March 16, yielded nearly 106,000 new shareholders, more than $24 million (March 17).
- With huge increase in number of "owners," Packers make corporate history, hold shareholders' meeting in Lambeau Field for first time (July 8). Record crowd of 18,707 attends. For the third consecutive year, treasurer John R. Underwood reports then-record net income for the Packers Corporation, $6,718,628 for fiscal 1997.
- Packers travel to Japan, the team's first trip overseas in its 80-year history, defeat Kansas City Chiefs, 27-24 in overtime, in American Bowl game at Tokyo Dome (Aug. 2).
- Packers extend regular-season, home-field winning streak to a club-record 25 games – the second-longest streak in NFL history – with 23-15 win over Tampa Bay (Sept. 13).
- Home-field winning streak ends at 25 against Minnesota, 37-24, on rainy Monday night (Oct. 5).
- Packers clinch playoff berth for team-record sixth consecutive year (Dec. 19).

▶2003

- Team sustains first-ever home playoff loss, to Atlanta (Jan. 4).
- At annual shareholders meeting, treasurer John R. Underwood announces after-tax operating profit of $15.5 million for 2002-03 fiscal year, allowing team to build its corporate reserve fund to $58 million, the safety net for a publicly owned team without a billionaire owner (July 15).
- Spectacular 14-foot statues of Curly Lambeau and Vince Lombardi unveiled in plaza outside Atrium (Aug. 27).
- Team names same plaza after Robert E. Harlan (Sept. 2).
- Starr and Wolf dedicate stunning new Packers Hall of Fame (Sept. 4).
- Legendary players return to Green Bay, re-enact Starr's Ice Bowl sneak, in "Rebirth of a Legend" event (Sept. 6).
- Two middle-school students and a host of dignitaries, including Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, rededicate Lambeau Field at halftime of season opener. Vikings spoil day, 30-25 (Sept. 7).
- Running backs coach Sylvester Croom becomes the Southeastern Conference's first-ever black head football coach, taking over Mississippi State program (Dec. 2).
- Ahman Green breaks Jim Taylor's single-season franchise rushing mark, and Ryan Longwell breaks Hutson's Packers career scoring record, at San Diego (Dec. 14).

- At Oakland (Dec. 22), Favre authors finest career game, throwing for 399 yards and four TDs, in Monday night win, little more than 24 hours after his father's death.
- After winning seven of last nine to keep pace, Packers capitalize on miraculous Minnesota loss at Arizona, clinch last-minute playoff berth and NFC North title, with win vs. Denver (Dec. 28).

▶2004

- Al Harris' overtime interception return wins NFC Wild Card playoff vs. Seattle (Jan. 4).
- Inches from the NFC championship, Packers sustain heart-breaking, 20-17 overtime loss at Philadelphia (Jan. 11).
- Packers name Lee Remmel team historian (Feb. 19).
- Hatley, vice president of football operations, dies suddenly of heart failure (July 26).
- Corporate treasurer John R. Underwood announces after-tax operating profit of $20.8 million for 2003-04 fiscal year at annual shareholders' meeting (July 28). Team's then-record financial success, derived in part from the new Lambeau Field Atrium and an increase in stadium capacity of more than 7,000 over the prior year, ups corporation reserve fund to $84.5 million.
- John "Red" Cochran, who served the organization for 42 years as an assistant coach and scout – and still was scouting for the team – passes away at age 82 (Sept. 5).
- Packers clinch third straight NFC North title on last-second Longwell field goal, win at Minnesota, 34-31 (Dec. 24).
- White, who helped return glory to Titletown during 1990s, passes away in North Carolina (Dec. 26). Packers fly contingent of roughly 50 to funeral services, apply "92" decal to helmets.

▶2005

- Minnesota Vikings, swept by the Packers in the regular season, stun Green Bay in Lambeau Field Wild Card playoff, 31-17 (Jan. 9).
- Harlan names Ted Thompson Executive Vice President, General Manager & Director of Football Operations, with full authority over football decisions. Sherman becomes Executive Vice President & Head Coach (Jan. 14).
- First annual Green Bay Packers Fan Fest in the Lambeau Field Atrium is an extraordinary success. Favre kicks off the weekend by officially announcing his return for a 15th season (March 11-13).
- The Packers and American Family Insurance announce a joint effort, through sales of a pink Packers Breast Cancer Cap, to promote breast cancer awareness, raise funds to support those afflicted and sustain research (July 7). With goal of $100,000, effort tops $1 million.
- At annual shareholders' meeting (July 27), Larry Weyers reports record $25.4 million profit from operations during 2004-05 fiscal year. Team also establishes the Packers Franchise Preservation Fund (PFPF), formerly the corporate reserve.
- Believed to be first time in broadcast history that an NFL practice is televised to a national audience, the Packers and Bills culminate two days of combined workouts with the annual Family Night scrimmage on NFL Network (Aug. 5).
- For just the fifth time in their rich history, the Packers retire a uniform number, the late Reggie White's No. 92 (Sept. 18).

▶2006

- One day after a 23-17 win over Seattle finalizes the Packers' first losing season since 1991, GM Thompson dismisses Sherman (Jan. 2).
- After a thorough and exhaustive nine-day search, Thompson names Mike McCarthy the Packers' 14th head coach (Jan. 12).
- Lambeau Field hosts the Frozen Tundra Classic, a collegiate hockey game in which eventual national champion Wisconsin defeats Ohio State, 4-2. The event draws 40,890, a virtual sellout and the fourth-largest crowd ever to see an outdoor hockey game (Feb. 11).
- At team's quarterly Board meeting, Harlan formally becomes Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and Jones becomes President and Chief Operating Officer (May 31).
- Annual shareholders meeting moves back to Lambeau Field; treasurer Larry Weyers reports $18 million profit from operations during 2005-06 fiscal year, saying Packers have moved to franchise-high seventh place in NFL team revenue rankings (July 19)
- White, a perennial All-Pro and then the team's career sacks leader, becomes Packers' 21st representative in Pro Football Hall of Fame, receiving induction on first ballot (Aug. 5).

▶2007

- Work begins on Lambeau Field's new playing surface, a project that will equip the hallowed ground with the latest technology, DD GrassMaster. A natural-grass surface, reinforced with man-made fibers, is installed on top of a new drainage and heating system (Jan. 10).
- Team promotes Vicki Vannieuwenhoven to vice president of finance and Jason Wied to vice president of administration/corporate counsel (April 3).
- Team announces plans to celebrate 50th anniversary of Lambeau Field, the NFL's longest-tenured facility. An anniversary logo is created to mark the occasion with plans to feature it prominently, including on uniforms and on the field (May 15).
- The Executive Committee announces that John Jones, president and COO, has taken a leave of absence for personal reasons (May 26).
- At team's quarterly meeting, the Board of Directors unanimously supports a move that will allow Bob Harlan, then Chairman of the Board, to serve as the Packers' principal executive officer despite having reached the mandatory retirement age, 70 (May 30).
- The Executive Committee formally accepts resignation of Jones, who cites health concerns as reason for departure. A search committee for a new President and CEO, consisting of members of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors, is formed (July 20).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $22 million profit for 2006-07 fiscal year and a $10 million boost to PFPF, now at $125.5 million (July 25).
- For the first time since Aug. 5, 1961, Packers hold training camp practice at City Stadium, with nearly 3,500 in attendance (July 31).
- Favre throws his 421st career touchdown pass in victory at Minnesota, breaking Dan Marino's NFL career record (Sept. 30).
- Packers clinch first NFC North title and playoff berth since 2004 with win over Oakland (Dec. 9).
- Board of Directors unanimously elects Mark H. Murphy as Packers' new President and CEO. Schedule is established for Harlan to remain as Chairman through end of football season, when he then becomes Chairman Emeritus and Murphy officially assumes role as top executive (Dec. 3).
- Team historian Lee Remmel announces his retirement, effective at the end of the calendar year, ending 62-year association with franchise as a sportswriter and member of front office (Dec. 12).

▶2008

- GM Thompson signed to new five-year contract (Jan. 7).
- Packers overcome early 14-point deficit to defeat Seattle, 42-20, in NFC Divisional playoff at snow-covered Lambeau (Jan. 12).
- In third-coldest game in league championship history, with minus-1 temperature and minus-23 wind chill at kickoff, quest for fifth Super Bowl berth comes up agonizingly short with 23-20 overtime loss to eventual champion New York Giants (Jan. 20).
- McCarthy signed to new five-year contract (Feb. 5).
- In awarding annual grants through Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $5 million in the past year (Feb. 19).
- Favre, owner of NFL career records for pass attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns, and the team's starting quarterback for the past 253 games (275 including playoffs), announces his retirement in a formal press conference at Lambeau Field (March 6).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $23.4 million profit for 2007-08 fiscal year and a $2 million boost to PFPF, now at $127.5 million (July 24).
- Favre un-retires and is reinstated to roster by NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell (Aug. 4), then traded to New York Jets (Aug. 6).
- Aaron Rodgers becomes first quarterback other than Favre to start a Packers game since Sept. 27, 1992 (Sept. 8).

▶2009

- One week following conclusion of 6-10 season, McCarthy dismisses six assistant coaches (Jan. 5).
- Shawn Slocum promoted to special teams coordinator (Jan. 15), Dom Capers hired as new defensive coordinator (Jan. 19), and rest of coaching staff is filled out (Feb. 3).
- Packers select Boston College NT B.J. Raji with the No. 9 overall pick in the NFL Draft and trade up to select USC LB Clay Matthews at No. 26, the first time since 1993 the Packers bring in two first-round draft choices (April 25).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $4 million profit for 2008-09 fiscal year with PFPF remaining at $127.5 million (July 30).
- Packers dedicate renovated Nitschke Field as primary training-camp facility, welcoming overflow crowd of approximately 2,100 for first practice. Permanent bleachers are installed, and a portion of the new field is heated for late-season use (Aug. 1).
- Donald Driver breaks Sterling Sharpe's franchise record for career receptions (Oct. 18).
- Favre, now with Minnesota, plays first game against Green Bay (Oct. 5) and first game at Lambeau Field as member of visiting team (Nov. 1).
- Green breaks Taylor's franchise record for career rushing yards (Nov. 8).

▶2010

- Defense finishes season No. 1 in the NFL against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for rushing yards allowed per game. Offense sets franchise record for points in one season, surpassing 1996 Super Bowl-winning team (Jan. 3).
- In highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, Packers fall 51-45 in overtime at Arizona in NFC Wild Card playoff (Jan. 10).
- In awarding annual grants through Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $4 million in the past year (Feb. 22).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $5.2 million profit for 2009-10 fiscal year with PFPF remaining at $127.5 million (July 29).
- Five players are named to the Pro Bowl roster for the NFC (Dec. 28). After the addition of three alternates later in the process, the Packers are represented by eight players on the all-star team, the franchise's most since 1967.
- Packers win final two regular-season games to finish 2010 with a 10-6 record, securing the sixth and final playoff berth in the NFC. All six regular-season losses come by a combined 20 points, and Green Bay becomes the first team since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 to not trail a game by more than seven points in an entire season.

- Team opens playoffs on the road at hostile Philadelphia in the Wild Card round, containing the Eagles' powerful offense en route to a 21-16 victory, Rodgers' first playoff win as a starter (Jan. 9).
- The Packers travel to Atlanta to face the NFC's No. 1-seeded Falcons just six days later for Divisional matchup. Green Bay routs Atlanta by a score of 48-21, the second-largest margin of victory in team playoff history (Jan. 15).
- Packers complete their road playoff march by making the short trek to Chicago to face division-rival Bears in the NFC Championship Game (Jan. 23). Just the second postseason meeting in the history of the two franchises, the Packers win 21-14, punching their ticket to Super Bowl XLV in North Texas.
- In the organization's fifth-ever Super Bowl appearance, the Packers square off with the AFC's Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas (Feb. 6).
- Rodgers throws for 304 yards and three scores, earning game MVP honors, and the defense forces three turnovers, including an interception return for a touchdown by safety Nick Collins late in the opening quarter. A fourth-down stop on the Steelers' final possession seals the 31-25 win and gives the franchise its record 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl title.
- On the day following their return from Texas, the Packers are met by more than 56,000 fans inside the bowl at Lambeau Field for the team's "Return to Titletown" celebration. A frigid afternoon, temperatures range in the single digits with wind chills below zero (Feb. 8).
- Packers sign Thompson to multi-year contract extension to continue serving as executive vice president, general manager and director of football operations (Feb. 11)
- Packers sign McCarthy to multi-year contract extension to continue serving as the team's head coach (March 4).
- Team announces that it has begun installation of a new distributed sound system throughout Lambeau Field that will be operational in time for the 2011 season (April 27).
- Separated by the bounds of an ongoing labor negotiation between club owners and players, the Packers are granted a one-night exemption by the NFL and convene to receive their Super Bowl XLV championship rings at a private ceremony inside the Lambeau Field Atrium (June 16).
- At annual shareholders' meeting, treasurer Weyers reports $17.1 million profit for 2010-11 fiscal year with PFPF remaining at $127.5 million (July 28).
- Continuing the custom for reigning champions in professional sports, team travels to Washington, D.C., to tour the White House and be recognized by President Barack Obama, whom they presented with a Packers jersey and a share of the franchise's common stock (Aug. 12).
- Organization announces plans for an expansion project at the stadium, highlighted by the addition of 6,700 seats to the south end of the bowl and new entrance gates behind both the north and south end zones. Plans also include the installation of high-definition video boards and new elevator shafts on each side (Aug. 25).
- Packers start the season victorious in the league-opening Thursday night contest at Lambeau Field against the New Orleans Saints (Sept. 8), kick-starting a franchise single-season record 13-game winning streak to open the 2011 campaign. Combined with the six wins that closed out 2010, the 19-game winning streak marks the second longest in NFL history (including playoffs).
- By virtue of a last-second, 38-35 victory at the N.Y. Giants on Sunday, and the Detroit Lions' loss to New Orleans on Sunday Night Football, the Packers clinch the NFC North division title, the franchise's first since the 2007 season (Dec. 5).
- Organization announces the fifth stock offering of its 92-year history, initially offering 250,000 shares at $250 per share (Dec. 6).
- Rodgers is named the NFC's Pro Bowl starter after leading the offense to 560 points, the second most in league history, and setting franchise records for passing yardage, touchdowns, completion percentage and yards per attempt (Dec. 27).
- Coming off of a first-round bye, the Packers fall victim to four costly turnovers and lose to the Giants in the Divisional round, 37-20 (Jan. 15).

▶2012

- Rodgers is voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press and is presented the award at the NFL Honors ceremony (Feb. 4).
- In awarding annual grants through the Packers Foundation, franchise announces a comprehensive charity impact of more than $6 million in the past year (Feb. 21).
- Stock sale concludes after an additional offering in Canada. In total, more than 268,000 shares are sold, netting the organization $67 million to put toward a $143 million stadium construction project that will include the addition of 6,700 more seats, new high-definition video scoreboards and two new gates on the exterior (March 1).

GREEN BAY'S FIVE RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

The Green Bay Packers will formally retire Brett Favre's No. 4 at a future date to be determined, according to club president/CEO Mark Murphy, which will mark only the sixth time in nine decades the franchise will formally remove a uniform number from circulation.

The last player who had his number retired was Reggie White, whose No. 92 was retired in the 2005 home opener. The gesture was not spurred by White's premature death in December 2004. In fact, then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan had met with White three months before he passed away and told him of the team's plans to retire the number during the '05 season. All retired numbers are displayed on the green façade of Lambeau Field's north end zone (pictured below).

Not including Favre, the five previous Packers players to have their number retired are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

There is no known evidence that Tony Canadeo, one of those five, was ever honored at a public ceremony; the club is believed to have retired his number sometime during or after the 1952 season. Some think the team retired his No. 3 on "Tony Canadeo Day," Nov. 23, 1952, against the Dallas Texans at (old) City Stadium. The future Hall of Famer that day scored two TDs in a 42-14 Packers win, but newspaper accounts don't mention the number retirement.

In research supplied by the Green Bay Press-Gazette, the team's four known number-retirement dates:

14	Don Hutson	12/02/51	vs. New York Yanks	City Stadium
15	Bart Starr	11/11/73	vs. St. Louis Cardinals	Lambeau Field
66	Ray Nitschke	12/04/83	vs. Chicago Bears	Lambeau Field
92	Reggie White	09/18/05	vs. Cleveland Browns	Lambeau Field

SHAREHOLDER HISTORY & FINANCIAL HISTORY

Of all the things that make the Green Bay Packers and their story so incredible and unique, the most significant is simply this: The team is literally owned by its fans.

Presently, 363,948 people (representing 5,020,523 shares) can lay claim to a franchise ownership interest.

Shares of stock include voting rights, but the redemption price is minimal, no dividends are ever paid, the stock cannot appreciate in value, and there are no season-ticket privileges associated with stock ownership. No shareholder is allowed to own more than 200,000 shares, a safeguard to ensure that no one individual is able to assume control of the club.

The team has had three other owners, all in its first four years, 1919-22. The first owner, Indian Packing Company, paid an unofficial purchase price of $500 to supply Curly Lambeau with uniforms and equipment. In turn, Lambeau and team manager George Calhoun called the club "Packers."

Shortly thereafter, Acme Packing Company bought Indian Packing Company and all its assets, including the fledgling team. In 1921, Lambeau convinced new owners John and Emmitt Clair to apply for membership in the new American Professional Football Association (early NFL).

With the team already headed for bankruptcy, the APFA revoked the franchise after Lambeau used illegal college players in a non-league game later that year. But before the 1922 season, Lambeau by himself reapplied and the league reinstated the Packers, with Lambeau as owner. When rain threatened to sink the team in 1922, A.B. Turnbull came to the rescue.

Turnbull, publisher of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, grocery man Lee Joannes, attorney Gerald Clifford and Dr. W. Webber Kelly cancelled Lambeau's $2,500 debt, then rallied the community behind the team. In August 1923, with more than 400 in attendance at a local Elks Club, the club was transformed into a nonprofit entity, the Green Bay Packers Corporation. The five men, including Lambeau, were nicknamed the Hungry Five.

There now have been five stock drives in the 92-year history of the team. The first stock sale, which took place at that 1923 meeting, saw local merchants raise $5,000 by selling 1,000 shares for $5 apiece, with a stipulation that the purchaser also had to buy at least six season tickets.

The second, in 1935, raised $15,000 after the corporation had gone into receivership. At that point, the nonprofit Green Bay Football Corporation was reorganized as the Green Bay Packers, Inc., the present company, with 300 shares of stock outstanding.

The third, in 1950, came on the heels of Lambeau's 30-year dominion, when the club's officers arranged to amend the corporation's bylaws to permit the sale of up to 10,000 total shares of stock (opening up more than 9,500 shares for purchase), to limit the number of shares that any individual could own. The team also increased the number of directors from 15 to 25.

The response to the 1950 drive was inspiring, with people from all across Wisconsin, as well as former Green Bay residents living in other states, coming forward to buy the $25 shares of stock. Roughly $50,000 was raised in one 11-day period alone. Reportedly, one woman from a farm near Wrightstown, Wis., showed up at the team's offices with $25 worth of quarters in a match box. A total of about $118,000 was generated through this major stock sale, helping to put the Packers on a sound financial basis once again.

The fourth came late in 1997 and early in 1998. It added 105,989 new shareholders and raised more than $24 million, monies which were utilized for the Lambeau Field redevelopment project. Priced at $200 per share, 120,010 shares were purchased by fans during the 17-week sale, which ended March 16, 1998.

With the NFL supporting the plan, the existing 1,940 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to amend the articles of the corporation on Nov. 13,

EVENTS THAT HELPED TO STABILIZE PACKERS FINANCIALLY, 1922-66

- A.B. Turnbull's actions, 1922-23 — When rain threatened to keep fans away and bankrupt the Packers, Turnbull told Lambeau and George Calhoun to play their games and that he'd bail them out of debt. Turnbull then organized local investors, turned team into non-profit organization in 1923, and raised $1,000 in team's first stock drive.
- Decision to play games in Milwaukee, 1933 — Allowed Packers to tap larger market. As a result, the Packers now have one of the largest territories in sports (the NFL has traditionally given teams only 75-mile radius). By playing in both Green Bay and Milwaukee (1939-94), Packers thwarted any efforts to establish another competing pro football team there.
- Court decision to appoint receiver, 1935 — After fan who fell from City Stadium bleachers sued Packers, team petitioned for friendly receiver, while litigation ran its course. Henry Graass, circuit court judge and Packers fan, appointed local accountant Frank Jonet as receiver. Despite Great Depression, Packers prospered during receivership (1934-37), thanks in part to growing popularity of NFL.
- Second stock drive, 1935 — President Lee Joannes raises $15,000 in "Save the Packers" stock drive, getting donations from firefighters, policemen, high school students, housewives, civic leaders and other citizens.
- Joe Carr's sending Don Hutson to Green Bay, 1935 — College star signed two contracts, including one with Brooklyn football Dodgers. League President Joe Carr awarded Hutson to Packers because team's contract was postmarked earlier. Hutson, pivotal in timely 1936 world championship and greatest player in Green Bay history, helped team to climb out of court receivership.
- NFL's installation of college draft, 1936 — Kept small-market teams such as Packers competitive with big-city opponents.
- Lee Joannes donation, 1937 — Packers president paid $6,000 to settle case of fan who fell from stands in 1934, then convinced court to end receivership period.
- Decision to invest in war bonds, 1940s — Money in reserve carried team despite losses of at least $25,000 in 1943 alone, as World War II depleted rosters.
- Intrasquad game, Thanksgiving, 1949 — Packers brought old-timers back, drawing 15,000 to City Stadium, earning $50,000.
- Third stock drive, 1950—After Lambeau's departure, team raised nearly $118,000.
- Bert Bell's push for league-wide TV package, 1950s — With help from Congress, commissioner laid groundwork for CBS-TV deal that allowed all teams, large market and small market, to share revenue, eventually in place by the 1961 season. In 1966, Pete Rozelle signed first NFL TV package, with CBS and NBC, giving Packers more than $1 million (which allowed Vince Lombardi to sign Donny Anderson to the team's first long-term contract).

Jonet

1997. The vote authorized the Packers to sell up to one million shares to raise funds for capital improvements, and existing stockholders received a 1,000-to-1 split on their original shares. Fans immediately were able to call a special toll-free number, or tap into the team's website for information on how to buy the 400,000 shares made available to the public.

In the first 11 days, roughly one-third – or $7.8 million – of the total amount transacted was sold. Orders came in at a rate of 3,500 per day during this early period, generating about $700,000 each day.

Shares of stock were purchased by citizens from all 50 states, in addition to fans in Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. More than half (53.6 percent) of the shares were bought by Wisconsin residents, followed by inhabitants of Illinois (8.0), Minnesota (3.6), California (3.1), Florida (2.4), Michigan (2.3), Texas (2.1) and Ohio (1.7).

The fifth occurred from December 2011 through February 2012 and saw more than 250,000 people purchase over 269,000 shares priced at $250 each and net more than $64 million. In an overwhelming response, fans purchased more than 185,000 shares in the first two days alone. In late December 2011, the team made an additional 30,000 shares available beyond the initial 250,000 to accommodate demand. Proceeds are going toward the 2011-2013 expansion of Lambeau Field.

For the first time, fans in Canada were able to purchase (2,000 did so) and joined fans from 50 states, Guam, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands in supporting the team. Wisconsin residents purchased 28.2 percent of the shares, followed by those in California (7.7), Illinois (6.6), Texas (4.8) and Minnesota (3.7). Approximately 99 percent of the shares were purchased online.

Today, an annual meeting of shareholders is held in July. The event returned to Lambeau Field in 2006 after several thousand people were turned away from the 2005 meeting at the nearby Resch Center. As a means of running the corporation, a board of directors is elected by the shareholders. The board of directors in turn elects a seven-member Executive Committee (officers) of the corporation, consisting of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and three members-at-large. The president is the only officer who receives compensation. The balance of the committee is sitting gratis.

Shares of stock cannot be resold, except back to the team for a fraction of the original price. Limited transfer of shares (i.e., to heirs and relatives) is permissible.

Based on the original "Articles of Incorporation for the (then) Green Bay Football Corporation" put into place in 1923, if the Packers franchise was sold, after the payment of all expenses, any remaining funds would go to the Sullivan-Wallen Post of the American Legion in order to build "a proper soldiers' memorial." This stipulation was enacted to ensure that the club remained in Green Bay and that there could never be any financial enhancement for the shareholder. The beneficiary was changed from the Sullivan-Wallen Post to the Green Bay Packers Foundation on the basis of a shareholder vote at the November 1997 meeting.

NOTABLE PACKERS FINANCIAL FIGURES, 1919-58

$16 Amount each player received after first season, 1919. Players divided up profits after last game, some of which came from George Calhoun's hat, passed along the sidelines like a church offering.

$500 Sum given to Curly Lambeau by Frank Peck, his boss at Indian Packing Company, for team's first uniforms.

$250 Amount NFL charged Lambeau before 1922 season for re-entry; league forfeited franchise after Lambeau used illegal college players in 1921 game vs. Chicago Supremes. Using $50 of own money, he got the rest from friend Don Murphy. After joining Lambeau on drive to Canton league meetings, Murphy sold his car (Marmon Roadster), gave Lambeau needed funds, then purchased tickets home. In exchange, Murphy got to play briefly in 1922 non-league opener…George Halas, despite rivalry, was instrumental in persuading league to allow Packers back…Following Green Bay reinstatement, using Packers as example, the NFL asked each club for $1,000 to guard against using college players.

$2,500 Deficit new owner Lambeau faced after rain-ravaged 1922 season. No games were ever rained out, but weather took its toll on home attendance. Following season, with help of A.B. Turnbull, Packers became publicly owned corporation, and new team leadership raised additional $1,000 in team's first stock offering.

$5,000 Verdict awarded to fan who fell from stands at City Stadium in 1934 and sued team. Packers' public-liability mutual insurance company was already going bankrupt, so team forced to pay $2,500 to company's creditors. Fan's fall sent Packers into receivership.

$15,000 New capital generated by Lee Joannes' 1935 stock drive, the second in team history.

$300 Don Hutson's weekly game check as rookie in 1935, one year before first college draft. In midst of Great Depression, city of Green Bay had only two banks. Both banks had to write Hutson a weekly check, each for $150.

Joannes

$1,149 Share each player received for winning 1936 championship, after Boston Redskins owner George Preston Marshall moved the game to the Polo Grounds in New York.

$6,000 Amount Lee Joannes, president of Packers Corporation, loaned team to bail it out of receivership (settling the fan's damage judgment). Joannes held the Packers in his personal possession as security. According to Forbes in January 2005, the Packers are worth $756 million, up from $392 million in 2001.

$10,000 Amount team used to purchase Liberty war bonds, with profits from 1941 NFL playoff loss, 33-14 to Bears, one week after Pearl Harbor.

$25,000 Price paid by Lambeau to purchase Rockwood Lodge, on shores of the bay north of city, for team's new training facility. Move drew heavy criticism from Executive Committee.

$75,000 Amount paid by insurance company to Packers after Rockwood Lodge burned to ground in January 1950, shortly after Lambeau departed for Chicago Cardinals.

$118,000 Funds created by third Packers stock drive, in 1950.

$75,000 Price CBS paid Packers to televise 11 games each year from 1956-58. Teams in larger markets got much more money. Thanks to foundation laid by Commissioner Bert Bell and U.S. Congress, league in 1961 season instituted current policy of league-wide TV package, allowing Packers equal share, despite small market size.

ALL-TIME GREEN BAY UNIFORM NUMBERS

1925-2011

- ▶With help from the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which provided game programs dating back to 1925 (when the team first printed uniform numbers), the Packers constructed this list.
- ▶Players who wore multiple numbers during their Packers tenure are denoted with an asterisk (*).
- ▶All players in this section are believed to have played in at least one league game in the corresponding number. Players who were listed on a numerical program roster but did not play that season were omitted.
- ▶The team invites anyone who can provide further evidence, using the same criteria, to contact the public relations office.

DID YOU KNOW ...

In 1952, the National Football League established a system for numbering players, with a vague exemption for "nationally known players." A year later, such players as Otto Graham (60 to 14) changed their jerseys to conform to the system. According to the mandate, quarterbacks and kickers were numbered 1-19, running and defensive backs 20-49, centers and linebackers 50-59, defensive linemen, guards and tackles 60-79 and receivers 80-89. In March 2004, NFL owners voted to allow receivers to wear 10-19.

NOTE: There is no known documentation for numbers worn by G Adolph Bieberstein (1926), B Eddie Kotal (1925) or B Jim Crowley (1925). Players who ended their careers before 1925, when numbers first appeared in game programs, are not listed.

* — wore multiple numbers for Packers

ALL-TIME UNIFORMS, HELMETS AND COLORS

◁1921-22

1923-24: Plain, gold jersey with nine thin navy-blue stripes on each sleeve; gold leggings, dark gold pants.

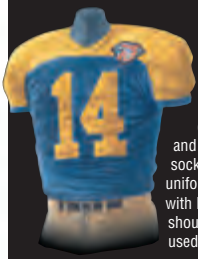
1925-26: First recorded uniform numbers; dark gold shirts with wide navy-blue strip covering shoulder and collar, cut off at top of each arm; tall, gold leggings; light gold pants.

1927-28: Elaborate, jockey-like jerseys, with inverted triangle tracing clavicles, and 13 blue and gold vertical stripes from chest to stomach; faded blue canvas pants; gold socks with two blue stripes.

◁1929-30

1931-33: Totally plain jerseys (dark navy-blue), large white numerals on back; gold pants; plain, dark navy-blue socks. In 1934, the team added to the scheme large, white numerals on the chest.

1935-36: Team introduced green, and changed jerseys during season; began with plain dark green jersey with gold numbers and green pants, then shifted to green-vested shirts with bright gold sleeves (from neck to wrist), numbers and pants, and tall, plain green socks.



◁1937-49

Throwback jersey worn in 1994, NFL's 75th anniversary; modeled after late '30s uniform, satin-chested with cloth arms, gold pants, and two gold stripes on high navy socks; Packers also wore similar white uniforms (not necessarily only on road), with bright gold numbers and faded gold shoulders; in the late '40s, the team still used this design.

1939▷

During World War II, the team used three alternate jerseys (these two, and another white design), complementing the trademark blue uniform made famous by the incomparable Don Hutson (pictured in lower left column). The Packers wore white at home several times until the league signed major television contracts in the late 1950s.

1946-49▷

1950: "We are the Green Bay Packers," said new coach Gene Ronzani, who solidified green into the color scheme. Old gold shirts with green numerals, green pants with bright gold stripe, gold socks with green stripes. Still used leather helmet.

1951-52▷

Team also employed varying combinations of metallic gold uniform with green numbers, shiny green pants with gold stripe, or metallic gold pants with single green stripe, and green socks with two gold rings. Modern metallic gold helmet introduced.

1953: Brighter green shirts with same striping and thicker gold numbers; team continued to vary its combinations. The Packers also had available a white jersey, saving it mostly for late-season West Coast trips.

1954-57: Navy-blue jersey, with new three-stripe design in dirty mustard gold on sleeves, socks and helmets, and matching gold pants. For 1956 opener vs. Detroit, Packers break out green jersey with white pants and white helmets, but never wear again until '58. "TV numbers" on shoulder appear in '56 for first time. Team used its older green jerseys and gold pants (from the early '50s) in several road games. In 1957, Packers began consistently wearing white on road, for television.

1958: New coach Scooter McLean brings back same green uniforms used in 1956 opener (white pants, white helmet).

THIRD JERSEY

Originally unveiled to the public at Fan Fest in March 2010, the Packers developed a third jersey and uniform which served as a re-creation of the team's uniform from 1929, the year of Green Bay's first world championship. The Packers donned the third jersey for their showdown with the San Francisco 49ers in Week 13 of the 2010 season and against the St. Louis Rams in Week 6 of the 2011 season. The Packers will not wear the third jersey in 2012.

The 1929 season marked the first of three consecutive titles, as the Packers recorded a 34-5-2 cumulative record in official league games from 1929-31. For the game, the jersey was navy blue with the number on the front inside a gold circle. The circle and number were enlarged a bit from their 1929 size to comply with NFL regulations regarding jersey numbers. An enlarged number was also on the back, with a nameplate above the number, another modification that wasn't present in 1929. The helmet was a solid brown color without a logo to best simulate the leather helmets worn during the era and the uniform pants were a tan color.

The 1929 team would have been proud of the performance put on by their modern-day counterparts against San Francisco, as the Packers defeated the 49ers by a score of 34-16.

NFL teams are allowed to have a third jersey that they can wear for up to three games per season (no more than two home games) over a five-year period. The re-creation of a historical jersey was a coordinated effort between the administration and the football operations headed by General Manager Ted Thompson. Working through the league, the team started the process roughly one year in advance of the announcement, wanting to focus on a historical jersey that had not been previously used in "throwback" games.

In 1994, the team wore 1937 uniforms as part of the NFL's 75th anniversary season. In their 2001 Thanksgiving game in Detroit, the Packers wore replicas of their 1939 uniforms.

1959-60: New head coach Vince Lombardi revamps uniforms; basic design and colors (including dark forest green) are still in place today. Early Lombardi scheme did not include helmet logo, and called for three-striped design on socks; all players were asked to wear same style cleats. In 1959 road games only, socks above striping were white (tops of socks have been green for all games since '60).

1961-65: Few changes, other than the team's first and only helmet logo, which made its debut in 1961; by 1965, most players were wearing five stripes on their socks.

1969: The Packers, with the rest of the league, wore a commemorative logo on top of their left shoulder, signifying the league's 50th anniversary.

1970: Conforming with league mandate, the Packers and the rest of the newly merged NFL applied names to the backs of jerseys.

1974: Majority of players began wearing white shoes.

1975: Three stripes (green-white-green) on pants grew noticeably wider, by more than an inch.

◁1976

1980: Helmet facemask changed from gray to green.

1981: Socks lost gold and white striping; shifted to plain, solid green.

1984-87▷

New head coach Forrest Gregg made the most changes to the uniform since Lombardi in 1959; team added logo to float on each sleeve's striping, uniform numbers to rest on each hip, and altered pants striping to include gold. "TV numbers" moved from arm to shoulder and a gold and white collar-enhanced neckline.

1988: The G remained on the sleeve, but the pants lost the uniform number. The team added a single gold ring to its socks.

1989: Pre-1984 striping (green-white-green) returned to pants; G logo disappeared from sleeves.

1991: Small NFL shield added to V of neck.

1992: Solid green socks returned.

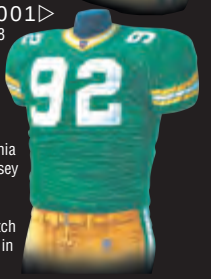
1993: Packers displayed logo marking team's 75th anniversary, on upper left chest.

1994: Packers displayed logo marking NFL's 75th anniversary, on upper left chest.

1996▷

1997-2001▷

Team for first time since 1958 played as a unit with only three stripes on sleeve (shifting down from five stripes); NFL shield added to lower left thigh.



2002: "NFL Equipment" insignia replaced the NFL shield on the jersey neck and pants thigh.

2003: "Rebirth of a Legend" patch worn on chest for first game in rededicated Lambeau Field.

2007: "Lambeau Field 50th Anniversary" patch worn on chest for all home games.

PRACTICE SQUAD, 1989-2011

The NFL in 1989 created a five-player developmental squad. In 1990, the league changed the name to practice squad. Players can leave a practice squad for another team only if they join a 53-man roster of another NFL team. At the 2004 annual meeting, NFL owners decided to expand the squad from five to eight players. The 276 players who've spent time on Green Bay's developmental/practice squad:

The NFL uses a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating. The following procedures will be used:

Reviews by Referee: All Replay Reviews will be conducted by the Referee on a field-level monitor after consultation with the other covering official(s), prior to review. A decision will be reversed only when the Referee has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Coaches' Challenge: In each game, a team will be permitted two challenges that will initiate Instant Replay reviews except for plays when the on-field ruling is a score for either team, an interception, a fumble or backward pass that is recovered by an opponent or goes out of bounds through an opponent's end zone, or a muffed scrimmage kick recovered by the kicking team. A team is also prohibited from challenging any ruling after the two-minute warning of each half, and throughout any overtime period. Each challenge will require the use of a team timeout. If a challenge is upheld, the timeout will be restored to the challenging team. If both challenges are upheld, a third challenge will be awarded to the challenging team. No challenges will be recognized from a team that has exhausted its timeouts.

Replay Official's Request for Review: After all scoring plays, interceptions, fumbles and backward passes that are recovered by an opponent or go out of bounds through an opponent's end zone, muffed scrimmage kicks recovered by the kicking team, and after the two-minute warning of each half throughout any overtime period, any Replay Review will be initiated by a Replay Official from a Replay Booth comparable to the location of the coaches' booth or Press Box. There is no limit to the number of Replay Reviews that may be initiated by the Replay Official. His ability to initiate a review will be unrelated to the number of timeouts that either team has remaining, and no timeout will be charged for any review initiated by the Replay Official.

Time Limit: Each review will be a maximum of 60 seconds in length, timed from when the Referee begins his review of the replay at the field-level monitor.

Reviewable Plays: The Replay System will cover the following play situations only:

A. Plays governed by Sideline, Goal Line, End Zone, and End Line:
1. Scoring plays, including a runner breaking the plane of the goal line.
2. Pass complete/incomplete/intercepted at sideline, goal line, end zone, and end line.
3. Runner/receiver in or out of bounds.
4. Recovery of loose ball in or out of bounds.

B. Passing Plays:
1. Pass ruled complete/incomplete/intercepted in the field of play.
2. Touching of a forward pass by an ineligible receiver.
3. Touching of a forward pass by a defensive player.
4. Quarterback (Passer) forward pass or fumble.
5. Illegal forward pass beyond the line of scrimmage.
6. Illegal forward pass after change of possession.
7. Forward or backward pass thrown from behind the line of scrimmage.

C. Other Reviewable Plays:
1. Runner not ruled down by defensive contact.
2. Runner ruled down by defensive contact when the recovery of a fumble by an opponent or a teammate occurs in the action that happens following the fumble.
3. Runner ruled out of bounds when the recovery of a fumble by an opponent or a teammate occurs in the action that happens following the fumble.
4. Ruling of incomplete pass when the recovery of a passer's fumble, or the recovery of a backward pass, by an opponent or a teammate occurs in the action following the fumble or backward pass.
5. Ruling of a loose ball out of bounds when it is recovered in the field of play by an opponent or a team mate in the action after the ball hits the ground.

Note 1: If the ruling of down by contact or incomplete pass is changed, the ball belongs to the recovering player at the spot of the recovery of the fumble, and any advance is nullified. If the ball goes out of bounds in an end zone, the result of the play will be either a touchback or a safety.

Note 2: If the Referee does not have indisputable visual evidence as to which player recovered the loose ball, the ruling on the field will stand.

Note 3: This does not apply to complete/incomplete passes, or the ruling of forward progress.

6. Forward progress with respect to a first down.
7. Touching of a kick.
8. A field goal or try attempt that crosses below or above the crossbar, inside or outside the uprights when it is lower than the top of the uprights, or touches anything.
9. Number of players on the field at the snap.
10. Illegal forward handoff.
11. A loose ball in play striking a video board, guide wire, sky cam, or any other object.

Non-reviewable plays include, but are not limited to:
1. Status of the clock.
2. Proper down.
3. Penalty administration.
4. Runner ruled down by defensive contact (not involving fumbles).
5. Forward progress not relating to first down or goal line.
6. Recovery of a loose ball that does not involve a boundary line or the end zone.
7. Field goal or try attempts that cross above either upright without touching anything.
8. Inadvertent whistle.

INSTANT REPLAY HISTORY

From 1986-1991, a limited system of Instant Replay was used on a year-by-year basis. Replay also was experimented with during the 1996 and 1998 preseasons. For the 1999 season, the NFL introduced a system of Referee Replay Review to aid officiating. That system was extended on a one-year basis for the 2000 season and then approved for the next three years through 2003. The system was extended on a five-year basis in March 2004 and was later installed permanently in March 2007.

TEAM SONG

The 2011 season marked the 80th anniversary of the team's official song, "Go! You Packers Go!"

Originally composed by Eric Karll in 1931, the song still is played before every game at Lambeau Field, after introductions and before the national anthem.

Few people know that the famous modern-day chant, "Go, Pack, Go," shouted by fans in unison at home games, orignated from Karll's composition. Karll's work came on the heels of Green Bay's three consecutive NFL championships (1929-31).

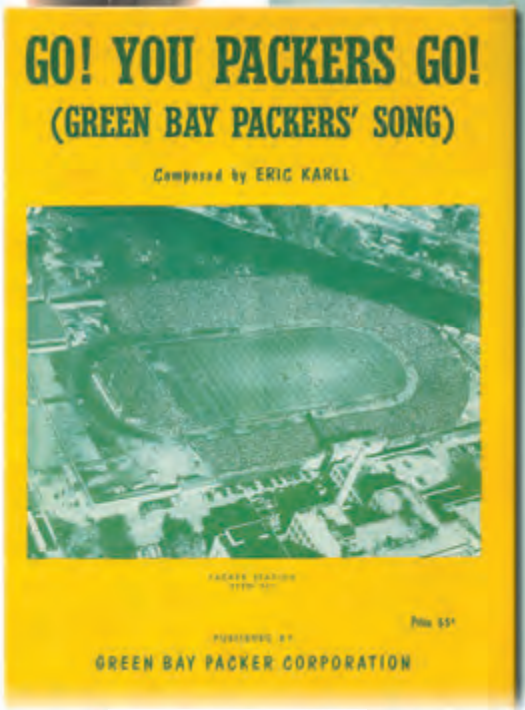
Capturing the spirit of the day, and the passion of fans in his home state, Karll enjoyed a successful composing career. He flourished on the vaudeville circuit, becoming a renowned and highly regarded lyricist and musical producer. A pioneer in the early days of radio, Karll also originated a nationally syndicated show, Down at Herman's.

During World War I, he produced a musical entitled Welcome Home, Sweet Home, to entertain troops of the 32nd Division. He also drafted political music. One of his jingles, Welcome Mr. Roosevelt, was used on the campaign trail to inspire voters to re-elect Franklin Delano Roosevelt to a second term.

Born in 1888 in Reedsburg, Wis., Karll passed away in 1973.

But his legacy lives on in his music, especially before every game at Lambeau Field.

The song's lyrics:



Hail, hail, the gang's all here to yell for you and keep you going in your winning ways

Hail, hail, the gang's all here to tell you, too, that, win or lose,
we'll always sing your praises

Go, you Packers, go and get 'em
Go, you fighting fools, upset 'em
Smash their line with all your might
A touchdown, Packers, fight! Fight! Fight!

Fight on, you blue and gold, to glory
Win the game, the same old story

Fight, you Packers, fight and bring the bacon home to old Green Bay

Eric Karll, captain of the Reedsburg (Wis.) High School team, composed the official Packers song in 1931. The team still plays it after introductions at Lambeau Field.

LAMBEAU FIELD

HALLOWED GROUND

One of the National Football League's most revered stadiums, Lambeau Field this year is hosting its 56th season of football.

A year-round destination venue to be enjoyed by Packers fans in a variety of ways on an everyday basis, it underwent a dramatic facelift that added a host of new amenities and attractions. The conclusion of the redevelopment project was marked by a rededication game, Sept. 7, 2003, against longtime divisional rival Minnesota.

Featuring the only true "retro" look in the entire league, the glorious tradition and history of the Packers is carried forward in the "like-new" Lambeau Field with its heart – the original seating bowl – saved. The same hallowed ground where many of the NFL's greatest moments have transpired continues to exist, a canvas where current players can paint their own memories in future years.

At the same time, the structure was transformed from a football stadium that fans could use only 10 days during the season to a Packers cultural center that can be enjoyed throughout the year. Within the five-story Lambeau Field Atrium, located on the stadium's east side, is the 25,000-square-foot Packers Hall of Fame, corporate meeting and event facilities for 25 to 1,200 people, five different eating options highlighted by a one-of-a-kind brew pub (Curly's Pub) with interactive areas, and a larger Packers Pro Shop (see pages 600-603 for a full listing of the Atrium dining, entertainment and retail options).

Just outside the Atrium in the Robert E. Harlan Plaza, named in honor of the former team CEO (1989-2007), are bronze statues of team founder Curly Lambeau and legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Sculpted by Julie Rotblatt-Amrany (Lombardi) and Omri Amrany (Lambeau) of Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany in Highland Park, Ill., at a cost of more than $400,000, each statue is 14 feet tall, atop three feet of steps and a four-foot base. Nearby the statues are several park benches – making the plaza area a great place to sit and soak up the majesty of Lambeau Field.

On gamedays, fans benefit from many of the same 21st-century amenities typically found in the shiny but sterile, newer facilities that have sprouted up across the country in recent years – everything from wider concourses (including a new, upper concourse) to enhanced concession areas to modernized and increased restroom facilities (particularly for female fans), to a club level for suite and club seat patrons.

The 32-month, $295 million redevelopment of Lambeau was completed on time – and on budget – with the Packers remaining in Green Bay to play all of their games throughout the process. Put into motion by a county-wide referendum that approved a half-cent sales tax increase on Sept. 12, 2000, the project was financed jointly by the city of Green Bay, county taxpayers, the Packers and the NFL.

The Packers' football facilities – a vital element in attracting players in today's ultra-competitive NFL – also were enhanced greatly by the stadium's redevelopment, debuting in time for the 2002 season. The centerpiece of these quarters is a breathtaking, 64-by-120-foot, football-shaped locker room with 64 stately wooden lockers. Another 25 lockers can be found in an adjoining, auxiliary locker room, to be utilized during training camp.

The football facilities also feature a much larger training room with all of the latest therapy pools as well as a permanent X-ray machine, a weight room, individual position meeting rooms with theatre-style seating, a 150-plus-seat team auditorium, a basketball court with a parquet wood floor, a racquetball court, a team dining room and a players' lounge.

Not forgetting the Packers' rich tradition and history at Lambeau Field, then-GM/Head Coach Mike Sherman requested three slabs of concrete that were located in the team's former field tunnel at the north end – which were walked over by many of the greatest players in club history – to be moved to the new tunnel in the southeast corner; the players began using it during the 2002 season. A nearby plaque recognizes the presence of the concrete from the old tunnel.

In July 2002, all of the team's administrative and football-operations offices also relocated to within the Lambeau Field Atrium on the stadium's east side.

Other benefits realized through the redevelopment project include a modern system of field lights that is more than eight times brighter than the previous stadium lights, and a new visiting-team locker room. Also, a larger, more comfortable and modern press box that can seat in excess of 250 media members for a playoff game – positioned along the sidelines – debuted in 2002. In 2003, the press box was renamed "The Lee Remmel Press Box" in honor of the former newspaper sportswriter, Packers public relations director and team historian. Remmel retired in 2007 after more than 60 years of close association with the organization.

The Packers continue to upgrade the stadium to further enhance pro sports' top-rated gameday experience. In 2011, a distributed-audio system designed to deliver sound more consistently and evenly throughout the sta-

- Capacity: 73,094 present
  65,290 to 66,110 in 2002
  60,890 in 2001
  32,500 in 1957 (original seating)
- Original name: "City Stadium" (new City Stadium)
- Original Cost: $960,000 (paid off in 1978)
- Renamed: Rededicated as Lambeau Field Sept. 11, 1965, following death of Curly Lambeau the previous June.
- Owner: City of Green Bay and Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District (operated/maintained by the team).
- Field: Installed in 2007, the top level of the field system is 12 inches of root-zone sand and Kentucky bluegrass turf. DD GrassMaster synthetic fibers are stitched into the surface, providing strength and stability to the field. Fibers extend approximately seven inches below the surface and are exposed approximately one inch above the surface and are spaced every three-quarters of an inch. Approximately 20 million individual stitches make up the process.
- Heating system: Installed in 2007 and contains more than 30 miles of radiant heating pipe, which can maintain a root-zone temperature of 55-plus degrees to keep the ground from freezing during the season's latter months. First system was put in by Vince Lombardi for 1967 season (failed during Ice Bowl).

dium bowl debuted. This season, new high-definition video boards in the end zones feature higher-resolution displays and are four times larger than the old versions. A new rooftop viewing platform and new north gate also are added for 2012. The 2013 season will see approximately 6,700 new seats open in the south end zone (see page 25 for photo).

Opened in 1957, Lambeau Field had seen numerous smaller-scale changes through the years, including seven prior seating expansions and the addition of suites. But, as new stadiums rose throughout the NFL in the 1990s, Lambeau Field became outdated. As a publicly owned team, the Packers must generate a significant amount of income from their home to remain competitive. Challenges with capacity, as well as the need for updated suites plus more club seats, restrooms and concessions, made redevelopment a necessity.

Faced with these challenges, the organization went to work in October 1999, assembling a plan to protect 80 years of Packers history and ensure the club's continued viability. After several feasibility studies and overwhelming support for renovation, as opposed to building a new stadium, the redevelopment plan was dubbed the proper course of action. Unveiled in January 2000, the plan ultimately won voter approval that September with the hard work of people committed to preserving Green Bay's unique franchise.

"Our fans overwhelmingly asked us to save Lambeau Field," then-President and CEO Bob Harlan said. "This plan accomplishes that while giving the Packers an economic base to build for the future in Green Bay. We want this to be the No. 1 destination in Wisconsin. We're going to build a stadium that the rest of the National Football League wished it had."

Included in the redeveloped stadium are more than 11,600 additional seats, including roughly 6,000 more bowl seats, to increase Lambeau's capacity to 73,094. More than 4,000 of the new seats were available for use during the 2002 season with construction ongoing.

The block of new seats helped the Packers to remove almost 1,500 names from their season-ticket waiting list – which has nearly 100,000 names on it – between both ticket packages. Additionally, Brown County residents without season tickets have a chance to purchase the remaining 4,000 new bowl tickets on a game-by-game basis; in 2011, 10,000 residents were randomly selected from a list and were able to purchase four tickets. Disabled-accessible seats also increased dramatically through the development project, rising from 56 to 756.

LAMBEAU FIELD UPGRADES

TICKETS
- Increase in stadium capacity from 60,890 in 2001 to 73,094 presently.
- The Packers are making available 4,000 tickets per game to Brown County residents 18 and over who do not hold season tickets; the program began in 2003.
- The team was able to further reduce its season-ticket waiting list, which contains nearly 100,000 people; roughly 3,600 names have come off since 2001.

CLUB LEVEL
- 168 state-of-the-art private suites featuring increased square footage and high-end custom finishes.
- Club seating increased from 1,920 indoor seats to approximately 3,000 indoor and 3,000 outdoor seats.
- An exclusive club level can be accessed by suite and club seat holders on game day. Available to the general public during the year for functions.

AMENITIES
- Concession points of sale doubled (to almost 300).
- Dramatic increase in women's restroom facilities (180 to 556); men's restrooms increased from 436 to 708.
- Disabled seating increased from 56 to 756.
- An upper concourse was added and existing concourses were widened.

REDEVELOPMENT FINANCING

- Total cost: $295 million
- Referendum passed by Brown County voters Sept. 12, 2000.
- $160 million in bonds from half-cent sales tax in Brown County.
- $9.1 million for stadium infrastructure improvements from the state of Wisconsin.
- $125.9 million from the Packers, the city of Green Bay and the NFL…Team asked fans for one-time seat user fee ($1,400 for seven-game "Green Package" ticket holders, $600 for three-game "Gold Package" ticket holders) in 2001…Proceeds contributed from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan…Additionally, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The main concourse – previously so narrow in some places that it had become a safety problem – also was expanded significantly. And, a new, upper concourse – complete with concession stands and restrooms – which increases the ease with which fans can move through the facility, fully debuted in 2003 with the project's completion after partial use in 2002.

Concession stands and restrooms were greatly expanded as well. Concession points of sale increased to 281 on the main and upper concourses alone, up from 186. A new concession sales system was installed in 2012, further lessening the time fans are out of their seats. Availability of women's restrooms increased from 180 to 556. Men's restrooms now are at 708, up from 436.

The centerpiece of the redeveloped stadium is the Lambeau Field Atrium, a 366,000-square-foot, five-plus-story structure on the east side. MillerCoors, through a sponsorship deal that extends through the 2022 NFL season, is a partner with the Packers in the Atrium and is the sponsor of the area's main entrance gate. Welcoming fans is a glass wall, facing Lombardi Avenue, measuring over 180 feet long and 80 feet high.

The Lambeau Field Atrium with its many attractions creates an "entertainment district" at the legendary stadium, a concept pioneered at venues like Camden Yards in Baltimore and Progressive Field in Cleveland.

Revenue generated from the Packers Pro Shop, Packers Hall of Fame, Curly's Pub, the Atrium eateries, the Legends Club and special events is essential to the Packers' long-term survival. In just the first year, with only the new Pro Shop open and several gate sponsorships sold, the Packers' NFL revenue ranking for the fiscal year 2002-03 jumped to 10th, up from 20th the prior year. The strong financial performance continued during the ensuing fiscal years as all elements of the redeveloped stadium came online; the club's NFL revenue ranking has continued to be in the second quartile, allowing the team to continue delivering on its promise to the community and its fans – turning profitability into the preservation of the franchise and the stadium. The redevelopment's economic impact on the area has been positive as well; roughly 60 percent of the Packers' special events department's bookings come from outside Brown County, bringing in additional business to the Green Bay area. The Atrium already has events booked out to 2018.

Two offseason football-related events have been popular attractions: Packers Draft Party and Packers Fan Fest. The former saw nearly 2,000 fans take to the Atrium for a gathering on the NFL Draft's first day of action from 2004-09, hearing from Packers front-office members and current players and watching the selection process unfold with fellow Green and Gold fans; recent versions were held in Curly's Pub, in conjunction with the draft's new prime-time format.

The latter witnessed 3,000 enthusiastic fans descend upon the Atrium in March for two days of meeting coaches and players, autograph sessions and even a tour of the locker room. After a hiatus in 2011 and 2012, it is intended to return in the future.

Large-scale stadium events have included the "Frozen

LAMBEAU EXPANSIONS

Bowl Structure

- 1961: Added 6,519 seats to 38,669.
- 1963: Added 3,658 seats to 42,327.
- 1965: Added 8,525 seats to 50,852 (top left).
- 1970: Added 5,411 seats to 56,263 (top right, in mid-1974 – fully enclosing stadium bowl).

Suites/Club Seats

- 1985: Original 72 suites added 663 seats, increased capacity to 56,926.
- 1990: Team spent $8.263 million to erect 36 new suites and 1,920 club seats in south end zone; construction added 2,617 total seats and capacity increased to 59,543.
- 1995: Packers spent $4.7 million to enclose north end zone with 90 more suites; added 1,347 to increase capacity to 60,890.

Renovation/Redevelopment

- 2001-03: The $295 million project added 12,032 seats, pushing present capacity to 73,094.

Tundra Hockey Classic" in February 2006, a Wisconsin Badgers-Ohio State Buckeyes matchup that drew 40,890 fans, the fifth-largest hockey crowd of all time. In June 2011, a Kenny Chesney concert attracted more than 45,000 music lovers to the stadium. The two events brought in $3 million and $5 million, respectively, to the local economy.

On the community front, the Atrium has hosted regular events. "Spooktacular Fun," a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities including the "Haunted Concourse," music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers, takes place in October. In November, the Packers serve a Thanksgiving meal to more than 800 people. March sees the Atrium welcome "Project LEAP!" (Lambeau's Exercise and Activity Playground) – a day focused on getting kids out of the house to enjoy non-strenuous physical activity. More than 15,000 residents enjoy the Atrium during these days.

The project's voter-approved financing came in the form of a half-cent sales tax in Brown County – where the Packers make their estimated $282 million annual economic impact – that supported over $160 million in bonding. The state of Wisconsin approved funding of an additional $9.1 million for stadium infrastructure improvements. The Packers, the city and the NFL contributed $125.9 million from a one-time seat user fee ($1,400 for seven-game "Green Package" ticket holders, $600 for three-game "Gold Package" ticket holders, in 2001), proceeds from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan. And, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The Packers' contribution to the project ranked at the time as the fifth highest in NFL history. Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin governor at the time, signed into law enabling legislation May 13, 2000, in a ceremony held on the playing field. Later, on Jan. 3, 2001, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Stadium District Board approved a new Lambeau Field lease agreement between the district, the Packers and the city of Green Bay; the lease's primary term runs for 30 years after the opening of the redeveloped stadium in 2003. A groundbreaking ceremony, involving then-Governor Scott McCallum, area dignitaries and Packers officials and players, subsequently was held on May 19, 2001.

The NFL's longest-tenured venue, Lambeau easily ranks as one of the most recognized and envied locales in all of sports, a fact recognized in 1999 when Sports Illustrated named it the eighth-best facility in the world to watch sports – and the lone NFL stadium to make the magazine's "Top 20" list. Additionally, SI.com in 2007 and 2008 rated Lambeau Field as the No. 1 stadium experience in the NFL, as did ESPN The Magazine in 2009 and 2011.

Even after the recent changes, Lambeau maintains its nostalgic and intimate feel with totally unobstructed sightlines. Permeated by history, tradition and mystique, the view from inside can be awe-inspiring.

Dedicated as City Stadium Sept. 29, 1957 – a day that saw Green Bay topple the hated Chicago Bears, 21-17 – ceremonies included Vice President Richard Nixon and NFL Commissioner Bert Bell. In 1965, the facility was renamed Lambeau Field following the death of E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, the Packers' founder and first coach.

Originally built at a cost of $960,000, an amount shared equally by the Packers Corporation and the city of Green Bay, the facility was financed by way of a bond issue that received 2-to-1 voter approval in a municipal referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Located in southwest Green Bay, surrounded on three sides by the village of Ashwaubenon, Lambeau Field originally was built on farmland, purchased for $73,305.

The stadium's original architect, Somerville Inc., favored the current site because it was sloped, making it perfect to build a bowl.

Lambeau Field, now in its 56th NFL season, is the longest continuously occupied stadium in the league – 10 years more than the next-closest venue, Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego at 46 years. In pro sports as a whole, only the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (101 seasons) and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field (99 seasons) have longer active homefield tenures.

Including the redevelopment, eight seating additions – all paid for by the Green Bay Packers, Inc. – have increased Lambeau's capacity from its original 32,150 to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,852 in 1965 and to 56,263 in 1970. Construction of 72 initial suites in 1985 moved capacity to 56,926, and a 1990 addition of 36 boxes and 1,920 theatre-style club seats changed the number to 59,543. The seventh seating addition, a $4.7 million project in 1995, put 90 more suites in the previously open north end zone, for the first time giving the stadium the feel of a complete bowl and upping capacity to 60,890.

Ultimately, the eighth addition bumped stadium seating capacity to 73,094. During the 2002 campaign, with work ongoing, capacity fluctuated between 65,290 and 66,110 as the season progressed. A ninth addition will bring approximately 6,700 new seats online for the 2013 season.

In 2007, the Packers installed an entirely new playing surface, including a completely new drainage and heating system, bringing the latest technology in field management to the famous stadium. Chief to the new system is DD GrassMaster, a natural-grass surface reinforced with man-made fibers. All existing levels of the field were removed and the new system began with a clay sub-grade level, compacted and graded (with a .6 percent slope), including drain tile, irrigation pipe and thermostat wiring for the heating system. The second level consists of 5½ inches of pea gravel. On top of the gravel layer is 30-plus miles of ¾-inch tubing for the heating system which can maintain a root-zone temperature of 55-plus degrees to keep the ground from freezing during the season's latter months. Level three consists of 12 inches of root-zone sand and Kentucky bluegrass turf. DD GrassMaster's synthetic fibers are stitched into the surface, providing strength and stability to the field. Fibers extend approximately seven inches below the surface, are exposed approximately one inch above the surface, and are spaced every three-quarters of an inch. Approximately 20 million individual stitches make up the process. The slope equates to a crown of about 5½ inches on the new surface.

Also prominent within the stadium are the names of the 21 Packers players and coaches elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The Packers' 13 NFL Championship seasons (southeast corner) and five retired jersey numbers (north end zone) are on the facade as well. In December 2006, the facade's northeast corner became home to the name of Ron Wolf, the former Packers gen-

ORIGINAL CONSTRUCTION

- Proposal: The Packers' Fred Leicht, who supervised the 1925 construction of City Stadium, in May 1955 submitted a proposal for a new, 32,000-seat facility.
- Referendum: Passed April 3, 1956 (11,575 to 4,893), while community leaders continued debate over a site.
- Site: In late April 1956, the Packers hired an engineering company to study proposed locations. The company in July 1956 recommended the corner of Highland (now Lombardi) Avenue and Ridge Road.
- Land: City Council purchased farmland owned by Victor and Florence Vannieuwenhoven in August 1956 for $73,305.
- Contract: Awarded early in 1957, with groundbreaking as soon as weather permitted.
- Time: No longer than nine months, in time for '57 opener.
- Cost: $960,000 in municipal bonds; the Packers Corporation paid $634,700 in interest and principal.

THE LAMBEAU BOWL

One of Lambeau's special characteristics is its classic seating bowl, now exclusive to Green Bay. The bowl design, common in many traditional college football stadiums, remains virtually untouched following a $295 million stadium renovation. Did you know…

- The original architectural firm, Somerville Inc., favored the Lambeau construction site because it sloped, perfect for building a bowl.
- The bowl's outstanding sightlines are generally credited to Dick Gustafson, who worked closely with John Somerville during the design phase.
- Some of Gustafson's inspiration came from Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, where he went to college.
- Despite seating more than 62,713 (including an additional 6,601 from the recent renovation), the bowl still offers the NFL's highest percentage of great seats. Somerville credits that intimacy to the fact that the stadium was the first in the world designed exclusively for pro football.
- The original stadium district instructed Somerville to design a facility that could easily expand, and allow for off-season construction projects to be completed by August.
- The first significant project came just one year after the stadium's opening campaign. Workers replaced the original wooden bleachers with aluminum benches before the 1958 season.

eral manager (1991-2001). Bob Harlan, then CEO, had the name installed, in a new tradition, separate from the Pro Football Hall of Famers, so that Wolf could be recognized in a way that is befitting of his enormous legacy with the organization.

Lambeau Field is among the NFL's toughest places to play. Green Bay holds a 122-38 (.763) regular-season record at Lambeau since 1992, plus an 8-4 mark in the playoffs, for an overall record of 130-42 (.756). Even more imposing, the Packers have won 122 of their last 160 games in Green Bay (including the eight postseason victories), since Oct. 10, 1993.

In the midst of nearly four full seasons at home without a defeat – prior to a 1998 Monday night loss to Minnesota, their last setback at Lambeau had come in the 1995 season opener – the Packers established the NFL's second-longest home winning streak (25). Only the Miami Dolphins (1971-74) have won more consecutive regular-season home games (27).

In the two decades prior to the start of the redevelopment project, the Packers organization itself had spent more than $50 million on improvements to the stadium, the previous club administration building and training facilities, including construction of the original indoor practice structure in 1982 and its replacement, the Don Hutson Center, in 1994 at a cost of nearly $4.7 million. Recent improvements include DD GrassMaster surfaces on practice fields, Clarke Hinkle Field (2006) and Ray Nitschke Field (2009). Nitschke Field also has a new seating facility for fans attending training-camp practices.

Lambeau Field now is owned by the city of Green Bay and the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District; retirement of the city's original $960,000 debt was celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May of 1978.

Sold out on a season-ticket basis since 1960 (302 consecutive games at the start of the 2012 season, including playoffs) Lambeau was not the Packers' only regular-season home until 1995. The team maintained two separate ticket packages after moving all games to Green Bay, eliminating four annual dates at Milwaukee County Stadium.

"Gold" ticket holders (made up primarily of former Milwaukee season patrons) have a three-game package consisting of the annual Midwest Shrine preseason contest plus the second and fifth regular-season home games each year.

"Green" season customers (made up of original Green Bay ticket holders) have a seven-game package consisting of the annual Bishop's Charities preseason game and the remaining six regular-season contests.

OTHER HOMES OF THE PACKERS, 1919-94

THE SANDLOT YEARS

Inevitably, procedures at Packers games have come a long way since 1919-20, when the team subsisted on the contents of George Calhoun's hat. At that time, there were no ushers, cheerleaders, band or public address system, which hadn't yet been invented. There weren't even any seats, and admission was free.

From 1919-56, the Packers played their Green Bay games – including their first league contest – at virtually the same address. Their first home games were at Hagemeister Park, a vacant lot marked with a football gridiron, adjacent to East High.

There were no gates because there wasn't a fence. Spectators just dropped off the Walnut Street trolley and walked to the sideline, or drove their own cars and parked about 10 yards behind the ropes stretched around the playing field.

If they felt like it, they either sat in their automobiles or on top of them, but most preferred to get out and follow up and down the field. By moving as play progressed, one always had a "50-yard line" location and was handy for any donnybrook that might require a little help. In fact, when things got exciting, the crowd sometimes spilled right onto the field, surrounded the scrimmage in a big circle and virtually took part in every play. Teams didn't huddle in those days, or the fans would have been in that, too.

When the half ended, teams grabbed blankets and adjourned to opposite end zones where they relaxed and talked over the tactics of the next half. The crowd formed a ring around the players, a practice encouraged since it made a handy wind break. Fans weren't bashful about joining the discussions either, sometimes with surprising results. At least one early game was pulled out of the fire by a spectator's halftime suggestion.

In 1920, the city built a section of stands – a small bleacher that held about 200 – giving the Packers their first justification for charging admission. The next year, a portable canvas fence was erected around the perimeter and a regular admission charge inaugurated.

BELLEVUE

When Hagemeister was dug up in 1923 to make way for a new East High School, the Packers shifted to the new baseball grounds at the end of Main Street, Bellevue Park (left). Crowds of 4,000-5,000 stormed the fences to boo the hated Chicago Bears. Green Bay was 9-2-1 in 12 league games at Bellevue from 1923-24. Eight of the nine Packers wins were shutouts, and the team won its last seven at the stadium, including a 5-0 home slate in '24. The lone tie was a scoreless affair in 1923.

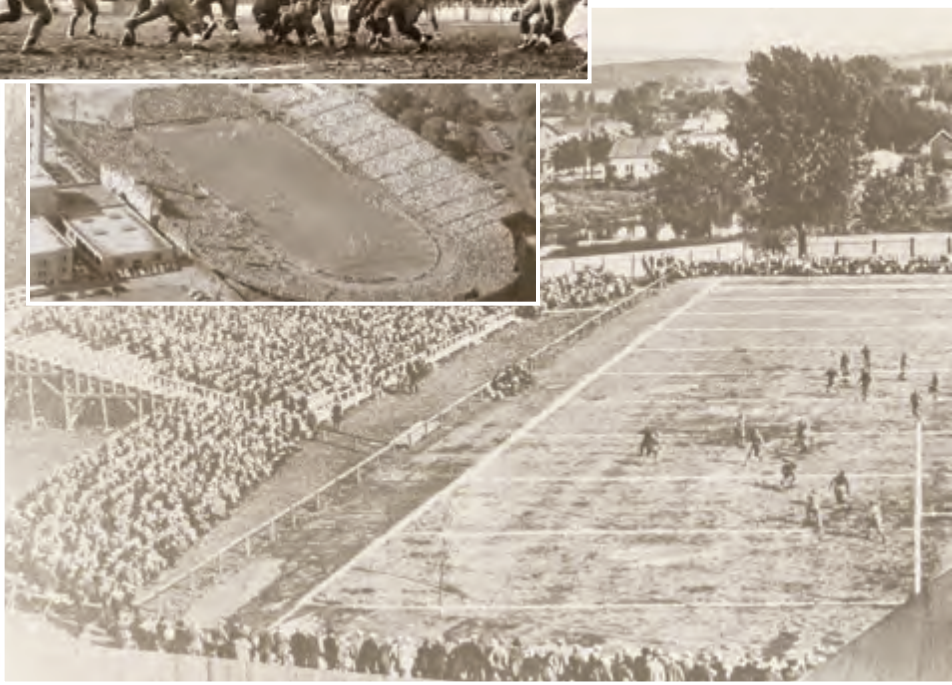
THE PACKERS' SEVEN OTHER HOMES, 1919-94

GREEN BAY

- Hagemeister Park, 1919-22…Classic sandlot, near Baird and Walnut streets, adjacent to East River…East High School now occupies land.
- Bellevue Park, 1923-24 (below in '24)…Minor league baseball park, near Hagemeister Brewery, in 100-200 block of North Main Street.
- City Stadium, 1925-56 (pictured lower middle in 1946, and bottom in late 1920s)…Located behind East High School…Expanded several times to reach peak capacity of 24,500…Annually voted the NFL's best playing surface, because it sat just yards from the East River…EHS football team still uses downsized facility.

MILWAUKEE

- Borchert Field, 1933…Hosted one game…Minor league baseball park, home to NFL's Badgers from 1922-26…Located near Burleigh, Chambers and North Eighth streets…Torn down in 1954, it's now a children's playground.
- State Fair Park, 1934-51 (right inset in 1941)…Location: West Allis, Wis., near West Kearney, Greenfield, South 77th and South 84th streets, on Wisconsin State Fairgrounds.
- Marquette Stadium, 1952…Also housed Marquette football team.
- County Stadium, 1953-94 (far right in '94)…Home to baseball's Milwaukee Braves and Brewers…Off Interstate 94…Both benches were on east sideline…End zones ran north-south, from third base to right field…Demolished in 2000 to make parking lot for Miller Park.



CITY STADIUM

Bellevue obviously was inadequate and too far out, lacking about every amenity needed for football. Agitation to build a new stadium somewhere near the original site culminated in the erection of City Stadium, behind the new high school.

The new facility was barely completed in time for the 1925 opening, but it was an immediate success (the Bears opener drew a record crowd of 5,389). It was a typical small-town park of its day (pictured at bottom), with wooden fences and stands on both sides between the 30-yard lines. Seating capacity was gradually increased until it seated 15,000 by 1934, with the end zones still uncovered. With the filling in of the area around the end lines, the ultimate capacity of just over 25,000 was reached (inset at left, middle photo).

After World War II, City Stadium gradually faded from its once proud position as one of the favored fields in the National Football League, to an inadequate and obsolete installation. As pro crowds increased, it was impossible to expand the stadium any further. With limited capacity, the Packers found it increasingly difficult to schedule top opponents at home. On Nov. 18, 1956, the Packers lost their final game at the stadium, to the 49ers. A new City Stadium, on Green Bay's west side, opened the following year (renamed Lambeau Field in 1965).

MILWAUKEE

The decision to play games in Milwaukee (including State Fair Park, above inset; and County Stadium, above right) played a key role in the Packers' survival. It allowed the team to tap a larger market and thwart any efforts to establish another competing pro football team there. The Packers played games in Milwaukee for 62 straight years (1933-94) until opting – mostly for financial reasons – to move all games to Green Bay beginning with the 1995 season.

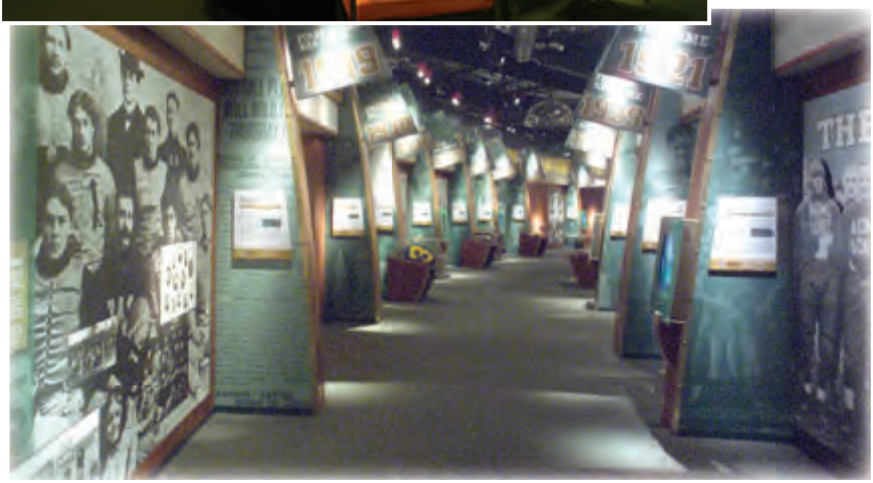
LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

Key to making Lambeau Field a year-round destination venue is the 366,000-square-foot Lambeau Field Atrium, more than five stories high on the east side of the stadium.

Included within the Lambeau Field Atrium are a number of dining, entertainment and retail options for Packers fans of all ages. Free wireless Internet access is available at the Atrium, too, for guests who want to bring along their laptop computers and log on to the Internet while visiting a restaurant or taking part in a corporate event or meeting.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME — Located one level below the main Lambeau Field Atrium floor, the Packers Hall of Fame is over 25,000 square feet of Packers artifacts and celebration of Green and Gold glory. A rebuilt office of legendary coach Vince Lombardi, a section featuring three rotating exhibits each year, and lockers of all 21 Packers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame are among the highlights of this unique space. A moving, 12-minute movie about the Packers, produced for the team by NFL Films, starts the Hall of Fame experience, which does not end until the visitor reaches the plaques of all 148 members of the Packers Hall of Fame and a display of the team's four Super Bowl trophies. A must-stop for fans, the Hall welcomed more than 156,000 visitors during the 2011-12 fiscal year.

Fans can sit behind Vince Lombardi's desk as they walk through history in the Packers Hall of Fame, a key stop in the Lambeau Field Atrium.



LAMBEAU FIELD STADIUM TOURS — Highlighted by a walk through the team tunnel to the hallowed ground of Lambeau Field, stadium tours allow fans to experience the Packers' history-rich facility firsthand and see several behind-the-scenes areas. Outstanding photo opportunities avail themselves throughout each tour. Tickets for the one-hour tours are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for each day's available tours. A popular attraction, more than 137,000 people took the stadium tour during the 2011-12 fiscal year.

Public access to the inside of Lambeau Field is available only through a tour. The stadium tour hotline is 920/569-7513, and schedules are online at www.packers.com/lambeau-field/stadium-tours.html.

The NFL's most popular stadium tour also appears on itineraries of most fans; many of them schedule Lambeau Field and Packers training camp as their family's summer vacation.

CURLY'S PUB — Offering a little bit of everything for everyone, this restaurant, sports bar and interactive area serves up a menu like no other. Green Bay favorites, creatively prepared and served at a very reasonable price, make this the place to come for the entire family. Watch any sporting event on the 138 monitors throughout Curly's. Get into the action with Curly's Game Zone with its custom football interactive games. Or simply sit back and watch all of the action – either on the Packers' practice fields or in the players' parking lot.

ATRIUM EATERIES — Four locally based eateries located within the Lambeau Field Atrium will be open roughly 100 days per year for special events and on gamedays. They are:

FESTIVAL FOODS BOOMERANG CAFÉ — Subs, sandwiches and wraps are on the menu. Add a cup of homemade soup or one of many deli salads for a complete meal. The food is so good, it will have you coming back for more.

FESTIVAL FOODS TITLETOWN GRILL — Serving Festival Foods' own Festy Burgers and Dogs in addition to their signature barbecue beef sandwich, this eatery features the best in traditional Titletown fare.

GOIN' DEEP PIZZA — This Italian eatery offers individual fresh-baked pizzas and creative pasta dishes.

MEAT PACKING COMPANY — A restaurant concept developed exclusively for Lambeau Field; overstuffed sandwiches, giant bratwursts and delicious desserts are featured on the menu.

SPECIAL EVENTS — Lambeau Field, through the Atrium floor, Legends Club, Miller Lite End Zone, Lee Remmel Press Box and Club 1919, is capable of handling every type of special event. From the many fine points that an elaborate corporate meeting requires to the extensive details of a wedding reception, the special events department (920/569-7515) can coordinate any function with catering provided by nationally known and award-winning Delaware North Sportservice. The Lambeau Field Atrium hosted more than 400 events – including several wedding receptions – during the 2011-12 fiscal year, welcoming approximately 90,000 guests to the facility. Roughly 60 percent of the department's bookings come from outside Brown County.

Lambeau Field wedding receptions are common requests fielded by the Packers' special events department.

PACKERS PRO SHOP — Owned and operated by the Packers, the two-story Packers Pro Shop is a must-see for Packers fans, with more than 2,000 individual items in stock, arguably the biggest selection found anywhere. Among the favorites are authentic helmets from all 32 NFL teams and framed, authentic jerseys from some of the team's Hall of Famers. A bonus: A purchase from the official store of the Packers helps the team win. The Packers Pro Shop is open year-round from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. weekdays, 9-6 on Saturdays and 10-5 on Sundays, with special hours for training camp, gamedays and holidays.

OTHER ATRIUM EVENTS

In addition to the dining, entertainment, retail and special-event options, the Lambeau Field Atrium hosts a number of football-themed events, as well as community gatherings and activities each year.

PACKERS FAN FEST — A two-day celebration of Packers football for the whole family, the unique event allows fans the chance to get up close and personal with their favorite Packers players, past and present, as well as coaching staff and front office personnel. More than 3,000 fans pack the Atrium to take in question-and-answer sessions, autograph and photo opportunities, football-related activities, a special kids' area and family fun. Among the highlights of the event is a tour through the Packers' locker room, a destination that does not appear on the regular Lambeau Field Stadium Tour. Fan Fest did not take place in 2011-12, but is intended to return in the future.

PACKERS DRAFT PARTY — Hundreds of fans pack Curly's Pub in the Lambeau Field Atrium to take in the first night of the NFL Draft. Live coverage of the draft is on more than 100 monitors and the Packers' flagship radio station, Newsradio 620 WTMJ, is on hand to provide programming as well. Appearances by Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson, Head Coach Mike McCarthy and Packers players, as well as autograph sessions and door prizes, highlight the night as Packers fans get together to watch the draft, celebrate their team and get ready for the upcoming season.

COMMUNITY EVENTS — An obvious destination for football-related events and generally taking in Packers lore, the Lambeau Field Atrium also hosts a number of community events each year that draw thousands of people. Project LEAP! (Lambeau's Exercise and Activity Playground), a March event, focuses on getting kids out of the house to enjoy nonstrenuous physical activity. Spooktacular Fun, held in October, is a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities, including sing-along music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers. Each November, the Packers, in conjunction with area parishes, serve a Thanksgiving meal to more than 800 people. Festival of Lights, a December holiday-themed event, features a visit from Santa Claus, cookie decorating, choirs and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. In addition to those regular events, other gatherings are held from time to time, including a community send-off for Green Bay's 127th National Guard Unit in 2005 and 2009.

FROZEN TUNDRA HOCKEY CLASSIC — Lambeau Field and the Atrium took on a hockey flavor the weekend of Feb. 10-12, 2006, as the team hosted the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic, featuring the Wisconsin Badgers vs. the Ohio State Buckeyes. Among the weekend's highlights were a community skate (more than 3,000 participants took part, including guests from 18 different states), picture-taking with the Stanley Cup and Vince Lombardi Trophies, an autograph session with the Badgers hockey team, and youth hockey sessions. The action culminated with a 4-2 Badgers victory in front of 40,890 fans. The attendance marked the fifth-largest hockey crowd of all time. An economic boost to northeastern Wisconsin, more than 1,300 hotel rooms were booked and the event brought in nearly $3 million to the local economy.

LZ LAMBEAU — Lambeau Field served as a "Welcome Home" weekend for Wisconsin's Vietnam Veterans, Vietnam-era veterans and their families, May 20-22, 2010. Over the three days, 70,000 people took in speakers, exhibits, music and premiere segments from Wisconsin Public Television's Wisconsin Vietnam War Stories documentary. Other events during the weekend included The Moving Wall. The Packers partnered with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, the Wisconsin Historical Society, Wisconsin Public Television and veterans' organizations statewide.

KENNY CHESNEY CONCERT TOUR — On June 11, 2011, Lambeau Field hosted its first major concert since the redevelopment was completed in 2003. More than 45,000 fans packed the stadium to take in Kenny Chesney, along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. The weekend saw an economic impact of nearly $5 million for the Green Bay area.

The NFL will again utilize "flexible scheduling" in 2012.*

Flexible scheduling moves will be announced at least 12 days before games in Weeks 11-16. In Week 17, the flexible scheduling move will be announced no later than six days before the game. Flexible scheduling will ensure quality matchups on Sunday night in those weeks and give "surprise" teams a chance to play their way onto prime time.

COMMON OPPONENTS WITHIN DIVISION

At the NFL Spring Meeting on May 22, 2001, in Rosemont, Ill., NFL owners unanimously approved realignment, coinciding with the Houston Texans' 2002 debut. The 32-team league calls for a harmonic scheduling rotation, in comparison with awkward formulas used in previous seasons. Each team within a division now plays 14 common opponents, as follows:

- Each team plays home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- Each team plays the four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays the four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (four games).
- Each team plays a pair of intraconference games based on the prior year's standings (two games); i.e., first-place teams in a division will play against the first-place teams from another division within the same conference, etc. (two games).

Mid-July	Preseason training camps open. Clubs not permitted to open official preseason camp earlier than July 5. Veteran players cannot be required to report earlier than 15 days prior to club's first preseason game.
July 16	Deadline at 4 p.m., New York time, for any club that designated a Franchise Player to sign such player to a multi-year contract or extension. After this date, the player may sign only a one-year contract with the designating club for the 2012 season, and such contract cannot be extended until after the Club's last regular-season game.
July 22	Signing period ends at 4 p.m., New York time, for Transition Players with outstanding tenders. After this date and through 4 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday after the 10th regular-season weekend, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players.
July 22#	Signing period ends at 4 p.m., New York time, for Unrestricted Free Agents to whom a June 1 tender was made by Old Club. After this date and through 4 p.m., New York time, on the Tuesday after the 10th regular-season weekend, Old Club has exclusive negotiating rights to these players. #or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later.
Aug. 3-5	Hall of Fame Weekend.
Aug. 5	Pro Football Hall of Fame Game, Canton, Ohio: Arizona vs. New Orleans.
Aug. 7	Deadline for players under contract to report to earn a season of free-agency credit.
Aug. 7	If a Drafted Rookie has not signed with his club by this date, he may not be traded to any other club in 2012.

2012 Training Camp Roster Reductions

Aug. 27 . . . . . To 75 players
Aug. 31 . . . . . To 53 players
Sept. 1. . . . . Practice Squad established

Aug. 9-13	First Preseason Weekend.
Aug. 11-15	Deadline for club to provide written notice to certain unsigned players and the NFLPA of its intent to place them on the Exempt List if they fail to report no later than one day prior to the club's second preseason game. Any player who fails to report prior to the deadline will be ineligible to play or receive compensation for at least three games (preseason or regular season) from the time that he reports.
Aug. 27	Roster cut-down to maximum of 75 players on Active List by 4 p.m., New York time.
Aug. 28	All tryouts on this date and for the remainder of the season must be reported to the league office.
Aug. 31	Roster cut-down to maximum of 53 players on Active/Inactive List by 9 p.m., New York time. Clubs may dress minimum of 43 and maximum of 46 players for each regular-season and postseason game.
Aug. 31	Simultaneously with the cut-down to 53, clubs that have players in the categories of Active/Physically Unable to Perform or Active/Non-Football Injury or Illness must take one of the following options: Place player on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform or Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness, whichever is applicable; ask waivers; terminate; trade; or continue to count him on Active List.
Sept. 1	After 12 noon, New York time, clubs may establish a Practice Squad of eight players by signing free agents who do not have an accrued season of free-agency credit or who were on the 46-player Active List for less than nine regular-season games during their only Accrued Season(s). A player cannot participate on the Practice Squad for more than three seasons.
Sept. 5	All clubs are required to file a personnel (injury) report with their conference information manager by 4:00 p.m., New York time. Reports are to be filed every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday before a regular-season game by 4:00 p.m., New York time (or as soon as possible after the completion of practice). An update must also be reported if there is any change in a player's condition after Friday.
Sept. 5-10	Regular Season opens.
Sept. 6-11	Beginning on these dates, vested veterans terminated from the Active List or Inactive List (and from Reserve/Injured if the player is placed on Reserve/Injured after the beginning of the regular season) are entitled to receive, after the end of the regular-season schedule, Termination Pay pursuant to the terms of the CBA.
Sept. 25	Priority on multiple waiver claims is now based on the current season's standing.
Oct. 16	Beginning the day after the conclusion of the sixth regular-season weekend and continuing through the day after the conclusion of the ninth regular-season weekend, clubs are permitted to begin practicing players on Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform and Reserve/Non-Football Injury or Illness for a period not to exceed 21 days. Players may be activated during the 21-day practice period or until 4 p.m., New York time, on the day after the conclusion of the 21-day period.
Oct. 16	All trading ends at 4 p.m., New York time.
Oct. 17	Players with at least four previous pension-credited seasons are subject to the waiver system for the remainder of the regular season and postseason.
Nov. 13	Signing period ends at 4 p.m., New York time, for Franchise Players who are eligible to receive Offer Sheets.
Nov. 13	Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 p.m., New York time, their unsigned Franchise and Transition Players, including Franchise Players who were eligible to receive Offer Sheets until this date. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2012.
Nov. 13	Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 p.m., New York time, their Unrestricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If still unsigned after this date, such players are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2012.
Nov. 13	Deadline for clubs to sign by 4 p.m., New York time, their Restricted Free Agents to whom June 1 tender was made. If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2012.
Nov. 13	Deadline for clubs to sign Drafted players by 4 p.m., New York time. If such players remain unsigned, they are prohibited from playing in NFL in 2012.
Nov. 30	Deadline for reinstatement of players in Reserve List categories of Retired, Did Not Report, and Exclusive Rights, and of players who were placed on Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season.
Dec. 28	Deadline for waiver requests in 2012, except for "special waiver requests," which have a 10-day claiming period, with termination or assignment delayed until after the Super Bowl.
Dec. 31	Clubs may begin signing free-agent players for the 2013 season.

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

Wayne Larrivee and Larry McCarren enter their 14th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network in 2012. Though both are veteran broadcasters, the two were paired for the first time in 1999 to bring the color and excitement of Green Bay Packers football to fans throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and four more-distant states.

Larrivee, who grew up as a fan of the Packers in his native Lee, Mass., enters his 35th consecutive year broadcasting NFL games, having joined Green Bay's broadcast team after 14 seasons as the radio voice of the Chicago Bears (1985-98) on WGN and WMAQ Radio in Chicago. Earlier, he had done play-by-play of Kansas City Chiefs games for seven years (1978-84) on KCMO Radio in Kansas City. Known for his thorough preparation and his moderated, yet enthusiastic, call of the action, Larrivee's more-recent credits also include play-by-play for Big Ten Conference football and basketball for ESPN Regional and Big Ten Network, co-host of the nationally syndicated Pro Football Weekly radio program the past 20 years, and Chicago Cubs baseball. He also served as play-by-play announcer of Chicago Bulls basketball on WGN-TV from 1991-2008 and for NCAA basketball on Dial Global/ Westwood One.

Highly decorated, the 57-year-old Larrivee was named Illinois Sportscaster of the Year in 1997 and is a seven-time winner of the Silver Dome Award, presented by the Illinois Broadcasters Association, for best radio football play-by-play. He is also a four-time winner of a Midwest Emmy for Bulls basketball play-by-play. In May 2011, he was honored as Communicator of the Year by the Wisconsin Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

A 1977 graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he was awarded the school's Alumni Achievement Award in June 2005. This year, the college appointed him to the Alumni Association Board of Directors. Larrivee also has done play-by-play of University of Iowa football, Quad Cities (Iowa) Angels minor league baseball, University of Missouri basketball and Kansas City Kings basketball games.

McCarren first joined the team's broadcasts in 1995, working his first four seasons with Jim Irwin and Max McGee. Inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 1992, he also is a favorite among television viewers in northeast Wisconsin. He spent 24 years as sports director in Green Bay (1988-2012). McCarren has four times been voted Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year (1994, 1996, 2002, 2007) by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

An iron man at center for the Packers for 12 seasons (1973-84), McCarren played in 162 consecutive games – the fourth-longest streak in team history – helping him earn the nickname "Rock." He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1982 and '83. Earlier, he had been a co-captain at the University of Illinois as both a junior and senior. McCarren, 59, originally is from Park Forest, Ill.

Radio station WTMJ, which has been broadcasting the team's games since November 1929, continues its long-standing role as the flagship station of the Packers Radio Network.

The Packers Radio Network is made up of 53 stations in six states.

GREEN BAY PACKERS BROADCAST PARTNERS

The Green Bay Packers and the Journal Broadcast Group, with its stations Today's TMJ4 (WTMJ-TV) in Milwaukee and NBC 26 (WGBA-TV) in Green Bay, have a multiyear partnership to lead the Packers Television Network, providing year-round Packers programming, in addition to preseason games, to fans throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest.

The Journal Broadcast Group also owns Newsradio 620 WTMJ, the flagship radio station of the Packers Radio Network. In addition to the television programming, the partnership calls for an increase in cross-produced content with the radio network.

The Lambeau Field Atrium is the site of the Atrium Broadcast Center, a television studio that serves as a hub for regular on-site programming by WTMJ-TV and WGBA-TV, including news, sports and weather, throughout the year.

The broadcasting package includes:

- Flagshipped by Milwaukee's WTMJ-TV and in conjunction with WGBA-TV in Green Bay, Packers preseason games are televised over a 14-station network throughout the state of Wisconsin, Upper Michigan, northeastern Minnesota, the Quad Cities and Des Moines in Iowa and Omaha, Nebraska.
- A top-notch broadcast team that includes CBS's Kevin Harlan calling the play-by-play with fellow CBS broadcaster Rich Gannon providing the analysis.
- An informative half-hour pregame show prior to each preseason game.
- Inside Lambeau show during the season, originating from Curly's Pub in the Lambeau Field Atrium, that includes player guests.

In addition to flagship station WTMJ-TV and including WGBA-TV, the games are televised over WKOW/ABC, Madison, Wis.; WAOW/ABC, Wausau/Rhinelander, Wis.; WXOW/ABC, La Crosse, Wis.; WQOW/ABC, Eau Claire, Wis.; WLUC/NBC, Escanaba/Marquette, Mich.; KQDS-TV/FOX, Duluth/Superior, Minn.; KLJB-TV/FOX and KGCW/CW, Davenport, Iowa (Quad Cities); KCWI-TV/CW, Des Moines, Iowa; and KMTV-TV/CBS, Omaha, Neb.

PRESEASON BROADCAST TEAM

KEVIN HARLAN

Play-by-play announcer

Has called regular-season games for CBS Sports since 1998 after four years with FOX (1994-97) and is regarded as one of the finest at his trade in the country. Provides play-by-play for Monday Night Football games on Westwood One. A veteran broadcaster, also "voices" NCAA Tournament basketball games for CBS, as well as NBA games for TNT. Owns a unique perspective on Packers football, having been raised in Green Bay.

RICH GANNON

Color analyst

The 18-year NFL veteran and former league MVP enters his fifth year in the Packers' preseason television booth. He officially retired from football in 2005 and teamed with Harlan for CBS Sports NFL broadcasts.

NFL TRANSACTION INFORMATION

WAIVERS

The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other clubs in the league. During the procedure, the 31 other clubs either file claims to obtain the players or waive the opportunity to do so – thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based on the inverse of won-and-lost standing. The claiming period is 24 hours from the first business day after the Super Bowl through the conclusion of the regular season. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed, he becomes a free agent. All waivers are no recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from the beginning of the waiver system each year through the trading deadline, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit is not subject to the waiver system if the club desires to release him. After the trading deadline, such players are subject to the waiver system.

ACTIVE/INACTIVE LIST

The Active/Inactive List is the principal status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract who are eligible for preseason, regular-season, and postseason games. Teams are permitted to open training camp with no more than 90 players under contract and thereafter must meet two mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted an Active List of 46 players and an Inactive List of seven players for each regular-season and postseason game. Teams also are permitted to establish Practice Squads of up to eight players who are eligible to participate in practice, but these players remain free agents and are eligible to sign with any other team in the league.

Aug. 27 . . . . . Roster reduction to 75 players
Aug. 31 . . . . . Roster reduction to 53 players
Sept. 1 . . .Practice Squad established, up to eight players

In addition to the squad limits described above, the overall roster limit of 90 players remains in effect throughout the regular season and postseason. The overall limit is applicable to players on a team's Active, Inactive, and certain Exempt lists, players on the Practice Squad, and players on the Reserve List as Injured, Physically Unable to Perform, Non-Football Illness/Injury, and Suspended by Club.

RESERVE LIST

The Reserve List is a status for players who, for reasons of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Players on Reserve/Injured are not eligible to practice or return to the Active/Inactive List in the same season that they are placed on Reserve. Players in the category of Reserve/Retired, Reserve/Did Not Report, Reserve/Exclusive Rights, and players who were placed in the category of Reserve/Left Squad in a previous season may not be reinstated during the period from 30 days before the end of the regular season through the postseason.

TRADES

Unrestricted trading between the AFC and NFC is allowed in 2012 through October 16, after which trading will end until 2013.

NFL TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be used to break standings ties for post-season playoffs and to determine regular-season schedules (NOTE – tie games count as one-half win and one-half loss for both clubs).

TO BREAK A TIE WITHIN A DIVISION

If, at the end of the regular season, two or more clubs in the same division finish with the best won-lost-tied percentage, the following steps will be taken until a champion is determined:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games between the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

NOTE: If two clubs remain tied after a third club is eliminated during any step, tie-breaker reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format.

1. Head-to-head (best won-lost-tied percentage in games among the clubs).
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the division.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in common games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

TO BREAK A TIE FOR THE WILD CARD TEAM

If it is necessary to break ties to determine the two Wild Card clubs from each conference, the following steps will be taken:

A. If all the tied clubs are from the same division, apply division tie-breaker.
B. If the tied clubs are from different divisions, apply the following steps:

TWO CLUBS

1. Head-to-head, if applicable.
2. Best won-lost-tied percentage in the games played within the conference.
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
4. Strength of victory.
5. Strength of schedule.
6. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
7. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best net points in conference games.
9. Best net points in all games.
10. Best net touchdowns in all games.
11. Coin toss.

THREE OR MORE CLUBS

1. Apply division tie-breaker to eliminate all but highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2. The original seeding within a division upon application of the division tie-breaker remains the same for all subsequent applications of the procedure that are necessary to identify the Wild Card participants.
2. Head-to-head sweep (apply only if one club has defeated each of the others or one club has lost to each of the others).
3. Best won-lost-tied percentage in games played within the conference.
4. Best won-lost-tied percentage in common games, minimum of four.
5. Strength of victory.
6. Strength of schedule.
7. Best combined ranking among conference teams in points scored and points allowed.
8. Best combined ranking among all teams in points scored and points allowed.
9. Best net points in conference games.
10. Best net points in all games.
11. Best net touchdowns in all games.
12. Coin toss.

When the first Wild Card team has been identified, the procedure is repeated to name the second Wild Card (i.e., eliminate all but the highest-ranked club in each division prior to proceeding to Step 2). In situations where three teams from the same division are involved in the procedure, the original seeding of the teams remains the same for subsequent applications of the tie-breaker if the top-ranked team in that division qualifies for a Wild Card berth.

OTHER TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

1. Only one club advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied clubs revert to the first step of the applicable division or Wild Card tie-breakers. As an example, if two clubs remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other clubs have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-club format to determine the winner. When one club wins the tie-breaker, all other clubs revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-club or three-club format.
2. In comparing records against common opponents among tied teams, the best won-lost-tied percentage is the deciding factor since teams may have played an unequal number of games.
3. To determine home-field priority among division titlists, apply Wild Card tie-breakers.
4. To determine home-field priority for Wild Card qualifiers, apply division tie-breakers (if teams are from the same division) or Wild Card tie-breakers (if teams are from different divisions).

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES FOR SELECTION MEETING

1. Clubs not participating in the playoffs shall select in the first through 20th positions in reverse standings order.
2. The Super Bowl winner is last and Super Bowl loser is next-to-last.
3. The losers of the Conference Championship games shall select 29th and 30th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
4. The losers of the Divisional playoff games shall select 25th through 28th based on won-lost-tied percentage.
5. The losers of the Wild Card games shall select 21st through 24th based on won-lost-tied percentage.

If ties exist in any grouping except (2) above, such ties shall be broken by strength of schedule. If any ties cannot be broken by strength of schedule, the divisional or conference tie-breakers, if applicable, shall be applied. Any ties that still exist shall be broken by a coin flip.

MEDIA INFORMATION & POLICIES

TED THOMPSON INTERVIEWS

- During training camp, General Manager Ted Thompson will be available weekly for group interviews in the Media Auditorium.
- One-on-one interviews with Thompson should be arranged through Jason Wahlers (920/569-7210).
- Please check with the P.R. staff in mid-July for a specific schedule of Thompson's press conferences.

MIKE McCARTHY PRESS CONFERENCES

- Head Coach Mike McCarthy will preview training camp in the Media Auditorium on Wednesday, July 25, at 10 a.m.
- During training camp, the coach generally will be available at the Don Hutson Center or the Media Auditorium following practice.
- During the regular season, Head Coach Mike McCarthy generally will be available in the Media Auditorium Monday (3 p.m.), Wednesday (2 p.m.), Thursday (2 p.m.), Friday (12:45 p.m.) and after home games.
- One-on-one interviews with McCarthy should be arranged through Jason Wahlers (920/569-7210).

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

- During training camp, the team's locker room will open once per day for 30 minutes on days of practice.
- During the regular season, the locker room generally will be open on Monday (3-4 p.m.), Wednesday (2:10-2:55 p.m.), Thursday (2:10-2:55 p.m.), Friday (12:45-1:30 p.m.) and following games.
- At the conclusion of all games, the locker room will be opened following the NFL's standard "cooling off" period.
- Any requests to interview players other than at the aforementioned times should be directed to a member of the Packers' public relations department.

ASSISTANT COACH AVAILABILITY

All by request, through the P.R. department

- During training camp, all assistants generally will be available at the practice field upon request once a week on specific days. Please check with the P.R. staff for a specific schedule.
- During the regular season, assistants generally will be available in person on Thursdays (offense and special teams) and Fridays (defense) in the hallway outside the locker room. The availability will be soon after practice on Thursday (2:10 p.m.) and Friday (12:45 p.m.). On Mondays, coordinators will be available in the hallway at 3:15 p.m., following Head Coach Mike McCarthy's press conference.

- Following games, Head Coach Mike McCarthy will be the only coach available to the media.
- Coordinators – Tom Clements (offense, pictured at top), Dom Capers (defense, middle) and Shawn Slocum (special teams, bottom) – will continue to serve as primary spokesmen in their respective areas.

- However, position coaches are available for questions on specific players and the position group only. Broader interview topics need to be directed to the respective coordinator.
- Assistant coaches also are available for interviews on more personal subjects, such as Winston Moss on his NFL playing career.

- No assistant coach should be contacted directly by telephone (at his desk, home or on his cell phone), or by e-mail. All interviews must be arranged through the P.R. department.
- Sarah Quick (920/569-7213) serves as the primary contact for assistant coaches. In her absence, feel free to contact another member of the P.R. staff.

PRACTICE ACCESS & PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

- During the regular season, Wednesday-Friday practices will be open to state media who regularly cover the team for designated periods during the first half of each session, similar to previous seasons. Also as in prior years, photo opportunities will be limited to the beginning portions of practice.
- Regular-season practices will begin at approximately 11:45 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, and at 11:15 a.m. on Friday.
- The team reserves the right to limit photography to certain periods for competitive reasons. This restriction applies to both training camp and regular-season practices.

ALL INFORMATION IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

CREDENTIALS

All credential requests should be directed to Sarah Quick, assistant director of public relations. Requests may be sent via e-mail (Sarah Quick; quicks@packers.com) or fax (920/569-7201). Credentials will not be mailed, unless the requesting outlet provides a Federal Express or UPS number, and if scheduled in advance, should be picked up in person at the Packers' public relations office, located on the third floor of the Lambeau Field Atrium. Credentials not obtained prior to gameday will be left at Media Will Call on the west side of the stadium. The will-call booth opens three hours prior to kickoff.

ONLINE CONTENT POLICY

According to the 2012 NFL non-game online content policy, accredited organizations may distribute online non-game audio and video content, including interviews, press conferences and team practices at NFL venues, acquired as a result of credentialed access ("Game Information") to games or club/league facilities provided that such distribution: is 90 seconds maximum per day (180 seconds in two-team markets – 90 seconds per team); may not be "archived" (i.e., made available for on-demand public access) for more than 24 hours; appears in an editorial context only (no sponsorship, merchandising or advertising integrated with or around the content); is not posted live; and is accompanied by links back to NFL.com and to the club website.

The 90-second limit does not include video/audio material that is composed entirely of a credentialed media employee providing commentary or analysis ("Talking Head" reporting), including pre- or post-game stand-up material shot on the field or other facility location.

While a game is in progress, any forms of accounts of the game must be sufficiently time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., score updates with detail given only in quarterly game updates, fewer than 10 photographs during the game) so that the accredited organization's game coverage cannot be used as a substitute for, or otherwise approximate, authorized play-by-play accounts.

The Packers have their own social media and online content policies for practice reporting, which will be communicated by the public relations staff for both training camp and the regular season. Members of the media are encouraged to contact the public relations staff with any questions.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS

Photo credentials will not be issued to freelance photographers unless on a specific assignment from an accredited organization. Credentials are not provided to "grips" due to on-field space limitations.

CONFERENCE CALLS

The Packers' public relations department will arrange a conference call with the head coach and a key player of the opposing team each week during the regular season. These conference calls will be made from the Media Workroom, and generally will be held on Wednesday.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET

Lambeau Field features complimentary wireless Internet in the main press box. Please contact the public information department if you require assistance.

The general press room phone number is 920/569-7550. In the Lee Remmel Press Box at Lambeau Field, more than a dozen "co-op" phones are available to media throughout the box. If dedicated service is desired, please contact Don Raddatz of Northern Musicast seven to 10 days prior to the game at 920/739-8282. Instruments also may be obtained through Raddatz, upon request.

Dedicated Internet service also may be ordered through Raddatz (920/739-8282) – on a game-by-game or full-season basis – for installation in either the Lee Remmel Press Box or in the downstairs Photo/Media Workrooms.

POOL REPORTER

As assigned by the Professional Football Writers of America (PFWA), the Green Bay pool reporter for the 2012 season is Tom Silverstein of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. Pete Dougherty of the Green Bay Press-Gazette is the alternate.

2012 MEDIA WALKING DIRECTIONS, LAMBEAU FIELD

FROM PRESS BOX TO LOCKER ROOMS

PACKERS LOCKER ROOM: Take the press box elevator to Level M. Go right onto the mezzanine, which you will follow around to the south end of the stadium until reaching Stair O. Take the stairs down to the bottom (field level, marked LL). Go through several doors, then cross the field tunnel to reach the Media Auditorium (post-game press conference area), which is on your immediate right. To reach the locker room, continue to and through the double doors marked Authorized Personnel Only. The locker room entrance is the second door on your right.

VISITING TEAM LOCKER ROOM: Take the press box elevator to Level M. Go right onto the mezzanine, which you will follow around to the south end of the stadium until reaching Stair O. Take the stairs down to Floor 1 and go through the door at the left. Curve right, make a quick left, then go straight 15 yards and through a set of two doors. The ntrance to the Visiting Team Interview Room (1C16) will be on your left, about 50 yards down. To reach the Visiting Team Locker Room, continue the same path down corridor.

FROM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT

- Take the press box elevator to Level 1. Exit to the left out of the lobby to the parking lot.

PRESS GATE & WILL CALL INFORMATION

- Media credentialed for the press box should enter the stadium on the west (Ridge Road) side at the Associated Bank Gate. Upon entering the stadium, take the elevator at immediate right to the Lee Remmel Press Box (Level 7).
- Field photographers and other media credentialed for field access should enter the stadium on the south end at the Media Workroom entrance.
- Media Will Call is located on the west side of the stadium, facing Ridge Road, just to the left of the Credentialed Media entrance at the Associated Bank Gate.
- Ticket will call is on the northeast corner of the stadium, near the Packers Pro Shop, which faces Lombardi Avenue.

LATE PRESS BOX EXIT

- Take the press box elevator to Level 1. Exit to the left out of the lobby to the parking lot. Once outside, turn left again, walking toward the media parking lot, on the southwest corner of the stadium property.

LATE PARKING LOT EXIT

- To reach Lombardi Avenue from the media parking lot, use the nearest lot exit, turning right onto Ridge Road toward Lombardi.

LEE REMMEL PRESS BOX

The Packers in 2003 permanently named the new Lambeau Field press box after team historian and longtime public relations director Lee Remmel. Remmel's 62-year association with the team began as a sportswriter in 1945 before moving into the team's front office in 1974.
